XVIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That all Perſons ſo diſembodied and diſmiſſed as aforeſaid, or ſelected or fixed upon for the Purpoſe of being ſo diſembodied or diſmiſſed as aforeſaid, from any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, may, during the Time of their remaining ſo diſembodied as aforeſaid, or at any Time after they ſhall have left the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, under any Order of the Colonel or Commanding Officer thereof, for the Purpoſe of being ſo diſembodied or diſmiſſed as aforeſaid, enliſt in his Majeſty's Regular Forces; and that all Perſons ſo diſembodied and diſmiſſed as aforeſaid, who ſhall not, during ſuch Time as aforeſaid, enliſt in any of his Majeſty's Regular Forces, ſhall remain liable to ſerve in the ſame Militia, (unleſs any ſuch Perſon ſhall be entitled to his Diſcharge under the Proviſions of any Act or Acts now in force,) and ſhall and they are hereby required to join any Regiment, Battalion, and Corps of Militia, ſerving for the County, Riding, or Place, from the Militia of which they ſhall have been reſpectively diſmiſſed, whenever called upon ſo to do, either for the Purpoſe of ſupplying the Vacancies which may ariſe in the ſaid Militia, or whenever they ſhall be again embodied under any Warrant under his Majeſty's Sign Manual, which Warrant, as aforeſaid, his Majeſty is hereby empowered to iſſue whenever he ſhall think fit, and ſhall be and remain ſubject to all ſuch and the like Rules and Orders, and to all and the like Pains and Penalties, as any other Perſons enrolled to ſerve in the Militia are ſubject and liable to by any Act or Acts now in force, at ſuch Times as the ſaid Militia ſhall not be embodied under the ſaid Acts, or as ſuch Perſons are ſubject and liable to at the Time of the embodying of any Militia.

His Majeſty may retain Officers, &c. notwithſtanding the Reduction of the Numbers of Militia Men.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, by any Order ſignified by his Majeſty's Secretary of State, to direct any Number of Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers, Corporals, or Drummers, actually ſerving in any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia at the Time of any Reduction of the Number of the Private Men of ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, by the Diſcharge of Men for the Purpoſe of enliſting into the Regular Forces under this Act, to be retained during the Continuance of the preſent War, or for ſo long Time during the Continuance thereof as his Majeſty ſhall think fit, as Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers, Corporals, and Drummers reſpectively, of ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, although by Reaſon thereof the Number of Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers, Corporals, and Drummers reſpectively, of any ſuch Regiment, Battalion or Corps, ſhall, after ſuch Reduction of the Number of Private Men therein as aforeſaid, exceed the Proportion of Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers, Corporals, and Drummers reſpectively, preſcribed for any Regiment, Battalion, Corps, or Company of Militia, by any Act or Acts now in force; and all ſuch Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers, Corporals, and Drummers, ſo retained as aforeſaid, ſhall be entitled to ſuch Pay, Emoluments, and Advantages as other Officers, Non-commiſſioned Officers, Corporals, and Drummers reſpectively, are by Law entitled unto; any Thing in any Law or Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

His Majeſty may make a new Arrangement of the Eſtabliſhment of the Militia.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, whenever he ſhall think proper after the paſſing of this Act, to cauſe the Militia of any County, Riding, or Place, to be formed into ſuch and ſuch Number of Regiments, Battalions, or Companies as his Majeſty ſhall deem expedient, Regard being had to the Reduction that ſhall have taken place in the Militia of ſuch County, Riding, or Place, by the Enliſtment of Men into the Regular Forces under the ſaid Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, or this Act, or by the Diſembodying of any Militia Men by his Majeſty under this Act; and conforming in every ſuch Caſe, as near as the Proportions of Men left after ſuch Reduction as aforeſaid will admit, to the original Eſtabliſhment of the Militia of ſuch County, Riding, or Place, with reſpect to the Regiments, Battalions, or Companies of which the ſame was compoſed under the ſaid Act of the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty.

His Majeſty may iſſue Orders for the Execution of this Act through the Secretary of State to Lords Lieutenants and Colonels.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, by any Order ſignified by his Majeſty's Secretary of State, at any Time, from Time to Time during the Execution of this Act, or any Part thereof, to give ſuch Orders and Directions to the Lieutenants, or in the Vacancy of the Office or Abſence of any Lord Lieutenant, to the Deputy Lieutenants authorized to act as Lieutenant, or to the reſpective Colonels and Commanding Officers of any Regiments, Battalions, or Corps of Militia, of every County, Riding, and Place aforeſaid, as his Majeſty ſhall from Time to Time think expedient and neceſſary for the Execution of this Act; and the ſeveral Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants, and Colonels and Commanding Officers aforeſaid, ſhall proceed forthwith, in purſuance of his Majeſty's Orders, to do all ſuch Acts as ſhall be neceſſary for the Purpoſe of carrying ſuch Order into Execution, and for the due Execution of the Proviſions of this Act.

Commanding Officers of Militia to tranſmit to the Clerk of General Meet-

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Colonel or Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia ſhall, within twenty Days, or as ſoon as conveniently may be, after the iſſuing of any Warrant under this Act for the diſembodying and diſmiſſing any Militia Men belonging to ſuch Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, tranſmit, or cauſe to be tranſmitted, to the Clerk of the General Meeting of How Bonds ſhall be made, and Wares or Merchandizes depoſited as Securities, &c.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all Securities, which ſhall be entered into by the Perſon or Perſons to whom and to whoſe Account any ſuch Exchequer Bills ſhall be advanced, ſhall be made in ſuch Sum, not leſs than the Amount of the Principal Sums contained in ſuch Exchequer Bills, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them, ſhall in their Diſcretion direct; and that in every ſuch Caſe the Party or Parties ſhall alſo depoſit, or cauſe to be depoſited, in the Cuſtody of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or of ſuch Perſons as they ſhall appoint, by Writing under the Hands of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Two or more of them, Wares or Merchandizes of the proper Goods of ſuch Party or Parties, or in his or their Poſſeſſion and Diſpoſition, and wherein he or they ſhall have a ſpecific Intereſt to a certain Amount, which ſhall be proved to the Satisfaction of ſuch Commiſſioners, (the Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe payable upon the ſame, in caſe any ſuch Duties ſhall by Law be payable upon ſuch Goods, being firſt duly ſatisfied, or for which Bonds ſhall have been taken for the due Payment of the ſame, under the Authority of any Act to be paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and which ſhall be proved to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as they ſhall appoint,) bearing a Proportion not leſs than twice the Value of the Principal Sums ſo to be advanced; and which Wares or Merchandizes ſhall be delivered to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or to ſuch Perſons as they ſhall appoint as aforeſaid, at ſuch Place or Places herein-after mentioned, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, ſhall appoint, and ſhall be ſecured and kept in proper Warehouſes, at ſuch Places reſpectively to be approved of by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, under ſuch Regulations as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, ſhall preſcribe; preſcribe; and ſuch Wares and Merchandizes ſhall not be liable to be attached, or ſeized or removed, or taken from or out of the Cuſtody of the ſaid Commiſſioners, by any Proceſs, either in Law or Equity, or by or under any Commiſſion of Bankruptcy not actually iſſued at the Time when ſuch Depoſit ſhall be made, unleſs the Principal Sums contained in ſuch Exchequer Bills as ſhall be advanced or lent on the Security of the ſaid Wares or Merchandizes, together with ſuch Intereſt as ſhall be directed to be paid by this Act, ſhall be firſt paid or ſatisfied, at the Times or in the Manner herein-after mentioned, or without having obtained the previous Conſent of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, under their Hands, for ſuch Attachment or Seizure, or for the Removal of the ſame according to the Directions of this Act, or by the Order of the Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, as herein-after is mentioned.

If any Queſtion ſhall ariſe reſpecting Property depoſited, it ſhall be determined by the Court of Exchequer.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Queſtion ſhall ariſe reſpecting the Property of any Wares or Merchandizes which ſhall be depoſited as aforeſaid, or any Intereſt therein, or the Money ariſing by Sale thereof, or any Part thereof, any Perſon or Perſons claiming ſuch Wares or Merchandizes, or any Intereſt therein, or the Produce thereof, or any Part thereof, ſhall and may apply in a ſummary Way, by Motion or otherwiſe, touching the ſame, to the Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, as the Caſe may require, who ſhall proceed to enquire into the Validity of ſuch Claim, and ſhall thereupon order ſuch Wares or Merchandizes, or any Part thereof, or any Money which ſhall have ariſen by Sale thereof, or any Part thereof, to be delivered or paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, upon ſuch Terms and in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Court ſhall direct.

Commiſſioners may advance Exchequer Bills on the Security of the Perſons applying, and on Wares or Merchandizes being lodged in King's Warehouſes, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners appointed by this Act to advance and lend Exchequer Bills to be made out in purſuance of this Act, on ſuch Security of the Perſon or Perſons requiring ſuch Advance as aforeſaid, and on Wares or Merchandizes being lodged and ſecured in the King's Warehouſes, or in Warehouſes under the Management or Controul of the reſpective Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, or either of them, or of their Officers in the Ports of Liverpool or Lancaſter, of the Value of twice the Amount of the Exchequer Bills ſo to be advanced, calculated on the eſtimated Value of the ſaid Wares or Merchandizes, excluſive of the Duties chargeable thereon; and that ſuch Wares or Merchandizes ſhall remain in ſuch Warehouſes reſpectively, under the Management or Controul of ſuch reſpective Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe under the ſeveral Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions, now eſtabliſhed by Law, except as herein is excepted; provided that no ſuch Wares or Merchandizes ſhall be removed from any ſuch Warehouſes or Warehouſe, without the Authority of the ſaid Commiſſioners appointed by this Act, ſignified to ſuch reſpective Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, or to ſuch their Officers as aforeſaid, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners appointed by this Act.

Officers of Cuſtoms or Exciſe to receive Depoſits, and tranſmit a Certificate to the Commiſſioners.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the principal Officers of Cuſtoms or Exciſe reſident at Liverpool and Lancaſter, or any other Officers or Officer of Cuſtoms or Exciſe at ſuch Places reſpectively, being duly authoriſed by the reſpective principal Officers as aforeſaid, ſhall receive into their Cuſtody reſpectively, any Wares or Merchandizes intended to be depoſited as a Security for any Loan to be advanced under this Act, and forthwith tranſmit a Certificate, under their or his Hands, to the ſaid Commiſſioners appointed by this Act, certifying the Nature, Quantity, and Quality thereof.

Duties not to be demanded on Depoſits while warehouſed.

XXI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That the Duty payable by Law for ſuch Wares or Merchandizes, ſhall not be required or demanded during ſuch Time as ſuch Wares or Merchandizes ſhall remain in any ſuch Warehouſes or Warehouſe under the Authority of this Act.

Commiſſioners to provide Warehouſes, appoint Officers, &c. and may redeliver Depoſits, in Parts proportioned to the Payment of the ſeveral Inſtalments, &c.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, ſhall, and they are hereby authorized and required to provide, from Time to Time, ſuch Warehouſes or Places as they ſhall deem requiſite for lodging and ſecuring all ſuch Wares or Merchandizes as ſhall be depoſited with them, under the Directions of this Act, at Liverpool and Lancaſter, and not elſewhere; and to appoint the neceſſary Officers to attend and have the Care of the ſaid Wares or Merchandizes at ſuch Warehouſes or Places reſpectively; and to cauſe all ſuch Wares or Merchandizes, or the reſpective Packages containing the ſame, to be numbered, marked, weighed, or taken an Account of in ſuch Manner, and from Time to Time, at ſuch Times as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall deem neceſſary, ſo as to avoid any Damage or Loſs to the reſpective Proprietors thereof by Reaſon of ſuch Depoſits; and it ſhall be in the Diſcretion and Power of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, to make all neceſſary Regulations from Time to Time, for the Receipt, ſafe Cuſtody, and Delivery out, of ſuch Wares and Merchandizes depoſited in ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes, or other Places, and from Time to Time to permit the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, or their reſpective Agents or Factors, or other Perſons duly authorized, to inſpect, examine, and take reaſonable Samples of the ſame, provided, that upon the Application of the Proprietor or Proprietors of any Wares or Merchandizes depoſited under this Act, and upon Proof made before the Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, or before ſuch Perſon or Perſons as they ſhall appoint, but nevertheleſs to the Satisfaction of ſuch Commiſſioners, of the Expediency of re-delivering the ſame to ſuch Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Aſſignee or Aſſigns, for the Purpoſe of Trade, before the Sums advanced or lent thereon ſhall be paid or ſatisfied; and upon a Tender of ſuch Security for the due Payment thereof as is herein mentioned, and of other Goods of equal Value to be depoſited in like Manner, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, in their Diſcretion, to change the Security for ſuch Loan, and to direct and order ſuch Wares and Merchandizes to be re-delivered to ſuch Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Aſſignee or Aſſigns, on depoſiting other Goods as aforeſaid of like Value, and giving ſuch Security as by this Act is directed to be taken for the Payment of all the principal Sums advanced and lent on the ſaid Wares and Merchandizes, and which ſhall be then unpaid, together with ſuch Intereſt for the ſame as by this Act limited, at the reſpective Days or Times appointed for Payment of the ſame: and further, that where any Payment of the ſaid principal Sums with Intereſt ſhall have been duly made made on or before the Day appointed for Payment thereof, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, upon the Application of the Proprietor or Proprietors of any Wares or Merchandizes depoſited as aforeſaid, his, her, or their Aſſignee or Aſſigns ſhall direct and order a Part of ſuch Wares and Merchandizes, the eſtimated Value whereof ſhall, as near as conveniently may be in the Judgment of ſuch Commiſſioners, bear the ſame Proportion to the eſtimated Value of the Whole, which ſuch Principal Sum ſo repaid ſhall bear to the Whole of the principal Sums advanced and lent on any ſuch Wares and Merchandizes, to be re-delivered to ſuch Proprietor or Proprietors, his or their Aſſignee or Aſſigns, and ſo from Time to Time, on every ſuch reſpective Inſtalment being ſo paid and ſatisfied on or before the Day when the ſame ſhall reſpectively become payable, and in like Manner ſhall re-deliver the Whole of ſuch Wares and Merchandizes on Payment of all the principal Sums advanced and lent thereon, together with Intereſt; and that upon producing the Certificate or Certificates of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, with the Receipt of the Caſhier or Caſhiers of the Bank of England thereunto annexed, ſignifying the Payment thereof as aforeſaid, the Officer or Officers having the Care of ſuch Wares or Merchandizes ſhall deliver out of the Warehouſe or Warehouſes, or other Places wherein the ſame ſhall be ſo depoſited, the Whole, or ſo much of the ſaid Wares or Merchandizes as ſhall be mentioned or expreſſed in ſuch Certificate or Certificates of ſuch Commiſſioners.

Permits, where required by Law, to be required for Removal of the like Goods from Warehouſes.

XXIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That in all Caſes where a Permit ſhall be required by Law for the Removal of any Wares or Merchandizes from Place to Place within this Kingdom, ſuch Permit ſhall be required in all Caſes for the Removal of the like Wares or Merchandizes, to or from any Warehouſe or Warehouſes, to be provided or uſed under the Authority of this Act.

Perſons depoſiting Goods to inſure them from Fire, if required by the Commiſſioners.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Perſon or Perſons depoſiting, or cauſing to be depoſited, any Wares or Merchandizes under this Act, ſhall, at his and their proper Charges, if required ſo to do by the ſaid Commiſſioners appointed by this Act, cauſe the ſame to be inſured from any Loſs by Fire, for and during ſuch Time as the ſaid Wares or Merchandizes ſhall be depoſited in any Warehouſe or Warehouſes, or other Place in purſuance of this Act, for ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, and with ſuch Perſon or Perſons as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall direct or appoint.

Principal Sums advanced, with Intereſt, to be paid by Inſtalments, and in Default, the Depoſits may be ſold by Auction.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the principal Sums contained in the Exchequer Bills, which ſhall be advanced or lent by the ſaid Commiſſioners under the Authority of this Act, ſhall be repaid, without Deduction or Abatement, together with Intereſt for the ſame, by Inſtalments, as herein-after is mentioned; (that is to ſay,) the Principal Sum in each and every Exchequer Bill ſhall be repaid to the Caſhier or Caſhiers of the Bank of England, at their Office, together with Intereſt for the ſame at and after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, by the Space of fifteen Days at leaſt before the Time when each ſuch Exchequer Bill ſhall become payable, according to the Proviſions of this Act, ſuch Intereſt to be computed on the ſaid Principal Sum from the Date of ſuch Exchequer Bill to the Time of Payment thereof; and if any Default ſhall be made by any Perſon or Perſons in the Payment of ſuch Sum or Sums of Money within the reſpective Times herein-before limited for Payment thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners hereby appointed, or any five or more of them, by any Warrant or Warrants under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe ſo much as they ſhall think neceſſary of the Wares and Merchandizes depoſited or being in any ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes, or other Places, by or on Account of ſuch Defaulter or Defaulters, as a Security for ſuch Payment, ſuch Wares and Merchandizes not bearing a greater Proportion to the eſtimated Value of the Whole than the Sum ſo due and in Arrear ſhall bear to the whole Sum advanced on the Credit of ſuch Wares or Merchandizes, to be appraiſed and ſold at publick Auction, to the higheſt Bidder, under ſuch Terms and Conditions of Sale as ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall direct, for and towards ſatisfying ſuch Parts of the Sums advanced on ſuch Wares and Merchandizes as ſhall be then due, together with Intereſt as aforeſaid, and with ſuch Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Sale as ſhall be allowed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and the Money ariſing from ſuch Sale ſhall be forthwith paid to the ſaid Caſhier or Caſhiers of the Bank of England, towards ſatisfying the Sum or Sums directed by ſuch Commiſſioners to be raiſed thereby, and the Reſidue thereof ſhall be reſerved at the ſaid Bank of England, and carried to the Account of future Payments to be made by ſuch Defaulter or Defaulters, if any ſhall remain to be made, and the Overplus (if any be, after ſatisfying all Sums advanced on ſuch Wares or Merchandizes, with the Intereſt, Coſts, and Charges as aforeſaid) to be paid to ſuch Defaulter or Defaulters, or ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as ſhall appear to ſuch Commiſſioners to be entitled to the ſame, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons as he or they ſhall reſpectively appoint to receive the ſame.

In Proceedings againſt Obligors no Writ of ſcire facias requiſite.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Proceeding ſhall be directed by the ſaid Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, againſt any of the Obligors or Obligor named in any ſuch Obligation, no Writ or Writs of ſcire facias ſhall be required to be iſſued; but that upon the Production of the Warrant or Warrants of the ſaid Commiſſioners as before mentioned, before any of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, an Extent ſhall and may iſſue in the firſt Proceſs upon the Fiat of ſuch Baron, without any Affidavit or other Verification or Proof of the Cauſe of ſuch Proceeding than ſuch Warrant or Warrants as aforeſaid.

After Payment of Sums advanced, and Intereſt, Obligations to be delivered up.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That after due Payment of the Sums advanced, with Intereſt as aforeſaid, at the Times and in the Manner herein ſpecified, every ſuch Obligation entered into in purſuance of this Act being fully ſatisfied according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall be forthwith delivered up to be cancelled; and in caſe any ſuch Obligation ſhall have been proſecuted according to the Directions of this Act, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, ſhall, by their Warrant or Warrants, rants, direct a proper Officer or Officers of the ſaid reſpective Courts of Exchequer to enter up Satisfaction on ſuch Obligation or Obligations, to be ſatisfied as aforeſaid, upon the Record, or otherwiſe to deliver up the ſame to be cancelled as the Caſe may require.

Inſtalments may be made in Money, or with certain Exchequer Bills, iſſued under this Act.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Payment of any of the Inſtalments of the Sums advanced by virtue of this Act may be made either in Money or in any of the Exchequer Bills to be iſſued by virtue of this Act, which ſhall have become due at the Time of ſuch Payment, or which ſhall be payable at a Period not later than fifteen Days next after the Day appointed by this Act for the Payment of ſuch Inſtalment, in Diſcharge of which ſuch Exchequer Bills ſhall be paid.

Commiſſioners may authorize the Bank to employ Monies in Purchaſe of Bills.

XXIX. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners appointed by this Act, by Writing under the Hands and Seals of any five or more of them, to authorize the Caſhier or Caſhiers of the Bank of England to employ any Monies which ſhall be paid as aforeſaid, in the Purchaſe of any Bills which ſhall be payable at the Period then next enſuing, and ſhall write thereon, in Words at length, the Day of the Month and Year in which he or they ſo purchaſed ſuch Bills, to which reſpective Days the ſaid Caſhier or Caſhiers ſhall be allowed the Intereſt, upon his or their paying the ſame into the Receipt of the Exchequer as aforeſaid, provided that no Intereſt ſhall run or be paid upon or for any ſuch Bills during the Time they ſhall remain in the Hands of ſuch Caſhier or Caſhiers, but for ſuch Time the Intereſt on every ſuch Bill ſhall ceaſe.

Depoſits to be veſted in the Commiſſioners, who may ſue and be ſued in the Name of their Secretary.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That all Wares and Merchandizes depoſited with the ſaid Commiſſioners, under the Authority and for the Purpoſes of this Act, ſhall be for ſuch Purpoſes veſted in the ſaid Commiſſioners by the Name of The Commiſſioners for the Iſſue of Exchequer Bills for the Relief of the Merchants of Liverpool and Lancaſter; and that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall and may ſue and be ſued in the Name of their Secretary for the Time being; and that no Action or Suit in Law or Equity to be brought or commenced by or againſt the ſaid Commiſſioners on Account of this Act, in the Name of their Secretary for the Time being, ſhall abate or be diſcontinued by the Death or Removal of ſuch Secretary, or by the Act of ſuch Secretary, without the Conſent of the ſaid Commiſſioners, but the Secretary to the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being ſhall always be deemed the Plaintiff or Defendant in ſuch Action or Suit, as the Caſe may be; and no Action or Suit ſhall be brought againſt the ſaid Commiſſioners, collectively or individually, or againſt their Secretary, except in the ſaid Court of Exchequer, and with the Leave of ſuch Court firſt had and obtained, and upon ſuch Terms and Conditions as the ſaid Court ſhall direct.

No Action to be brought againſt the Commiſſioners, or their Secretary, except in the Court of Exchequer, and with leave of that Court.

" Separate Notes to be given for each Inſtalment. § 32."

Where Bills ſhall have been applied to the Uſe of Partnerſhips, their Eſtates and Effects ſhall be liable.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Advance in Exchequer Bills ſhall be made to any Perſon or Perſons concerned in any Partnerſhip, upon the Application of any Perſon or Perſons to the ſaid Commiſſioners to make ſuch Advance to the Uſe of the ſaid Partnerſhip, and ſuch Advance, or any Part thereof, ſhall have been actually applied to the Uſe of the ſaid Partnerſhip, then the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Partnerſhip ſhall be liable and ſubject to and are hereby made chargeable with the Payment of the Sums advanced, and actually applied as aforeſaid, with Intereſt for the ſame, and all Coſts attending the Recovery thereof, as in caſe of Debt found on Record to the King's Majeſty, and in caſe it ſhall be made appear by Affidavit to any Baron of the Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, that ſuch Advance, or ſuch Part thereof as aforeſaid, was actually applied to the Uſe of the ſaid Partnerſhip, and the ſame being found on Record, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Baron to cauſe an Extent to be iſſued againſt the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Partnerſhip, to the Amount of the Sum ſo actually applied, with Intereſt thereupon and Coſts as aforeſaid, in the ſame Manner as if the Advance ſo actually applied was an immediate Debt from all the Perſons concerned in ſuch Partnerſhip to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors.

Eſtates and Effects of Bankrupts ſhall be liable to the Claims of the Commiſſioners in Preference to all others.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Obligation or other Security entered into or given by any Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, who ſhall afterwards become Bankrupt within the true Intent and Meaning of the ſeveral Statutes made, and now in Force, concerning Bankrupts, and againſt whom a Commiſſion of Bankrupt ſhall be awarded and iſſued, ſhall, by reaſon and force of ſuch Bankruptcy, and from the Time of ſuch Bankruptcy, become and be forfeited, and due and payable as againſt ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts, and that all the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts, which would be liable to ſatisfy the Demands of the Creditors ſeeking Relief under ſuch Commiſſion of Bankrupt, ſhall be liable and ſubject to, and are hereby made chargeable with the Payment of the Principal and Intereſt, due upon ſuch Obligation or other Security, and all Coſts attending the Recovery of the ſame, and that the Claims of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall be firſt paid and ſatisfied out of the Eſtate and Effects of ſuch Bankrupt or Bankrupts, and in preference to the Claim of any other Creditor or Creditors, and it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, in the Name of their Secretary for the Time being, to apply by Petition in a ſummary Way to the proper Courts in England, having Juriſdiction of the Matters of ſuch Commiſſion of Bankruptcy, to make due Order accordingly, which ſuch Courts reſpectively are hereby authoriz.d and required to make.

Secretary may apply for Commiſſion of Bankruptcy.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, in the Name of their Secretary for the Time being, to apply by Petition or otherwiſe, to the proper Courts for any Commiſſion of Bankruptcy againſt the Eſtate or Effects of any Bankrupt or Bankrupts, and to ſue out in like Manner as any other Creditor or Creditors is or are by Law entitled to do.

Money paid to the Bank shall be paid into the Exchequer, for the Uses herein specified.

XL. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which shall be paid into the Bank of England, under or by virtue of this Act, shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, distinctly and apart from all other Monies; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of the Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies paid into the said Receipt, by virtue of this Act, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid into the said Receipt, upon any other Account whatever; and that all the Monies so paid into the said Receipt, by virtue of this Act, shall be subject and liable to the Uses and Purposes hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) in the first Place, for paying off and discharging all the Exchequer Bills to be made out by virtue of this Act, with such Interest as shall be payable thereon at the respective Days and Times, and in the Order and Course in which the same are hereby directed to be discharged; and all such Exchequer Bills, and Interest thereon as aforesaid, shall be and are hereby charged and chargeable upon and shall be repaid and borne by and out of the first Monies that shall arise in the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer accordingly; and after paying off and discharging the same, in the next Place, to pay off all the Charges and Expences which shall be incurred by the said Commissioners hereby appointed in carrying this Act into Execution, and to make good all such Sums as shall have been issued to the said Commissioners out of the publick Monies, towards the said Charges and Expences, in pursuance of the Orders of the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, according to the Directions of this Act; and also to pay and satisfy all Charges and Expences incident to or attending the making out such Exchequer Bills; and if any Surplus shall remain of the Monies paid into the said Receipt, by virtue of this Act, after satisfying the several Sums hereby charged thereon as aforesaid, such Surplus shall be reserved for the Disposition of Parliament.

Treasury to cause an Account to be taken of the Exchequer Bills made out, at the Times they become payable, which may be discharged out of certain Funds.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That on the several Days and Times on which such Exchequer Bills are hereby directed to be discharged; that is to say, on the fifth Day of April and the fifth Day of July one thousand eight hundred, the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, shall cause a true and perfect Account in Writing to be taken and attested by the proper Officers, of all the Exchequer Bills to be made out in pursuance of this Act, which shall become payable on the respective Days and Times before specified, and of the Monies which shall then be in the said Receipt applicable to the paying off and discharging the same; and if the Money which shall have arisen in the said Exchequer, for or on Account of the Payments to be made by the Bank of England, by virtue of this Act, on the respective Periods before-mentioned, shall not be sufficient to discharge the whole Principal and Interest due as aforesaid on the several Exchequer Bills to be issued in pursuance of this Act, then such Deficiency shall and may be supplied and made good by and out of the Aids or Supplies which shall have been or shall be granted in this or any subsequent Session of Parliament; and in case the Monies arising from such Aids or Supplies shall not at that Time be sufficient for that Purpose, then all the said Exchequer Bills remaining undischarged, with the Interest and Charges incident to or attending the same, shall be and are hereby charged and chargeable upon such Monies as, at any Time or Times after any such Deficiency shall happen shall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer of the Consolidated Fund, (except such Monies of the said Consolidated Fund as are appropriated to any particular Use or Uses by any Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf,) and such Monies of the said Consolidated Fund shall and may be issued and applied from Time to Time, as soon as the same can be regularly stated and ascertained, for and towards paying off, cancelling, and discharging, such remaining Exchequer Bills, Interest, and Charges, until the Whole of them shall be paid off, cancelled, and discharged, or Money sufficient for that Purpose be kept and reserved in the Exchequer, to be payable on Demand to the respective Proprietors thereof.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whatever Monies ſhall be ſo iſſued out of the ſaid Conſolidated Fund, ſhall from Time to Time be replaced by and out of the firſt Supplies to be thenafter granted in Parliament; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Monies iſſued out of the Conſolidated Fund to be replaced out of the firſt Supplies.

XLIII. Provided alſo, That whatever Monies ſhall be afterwards paid by the Bank of England into the ſaid Receipt, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be applied towards replacing the Monies before iſſued of the ſaid Aids or Supplies, or out of the ſaid Conſolidated Fund, as the Caſe may be; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Monies afterwards paid into the Exchequer, to be applied to replace former Iſſues.

An Act to prohibit, until the firſt Day of March one thouſand eight hundred*, the making of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Sort of Grain, or from any Meal, Flour, or any Bran, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

[12th October 1799.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Diſtillation of Low Wines or Spirits, and the making or preparing of Wort from Wheat, Barley, Malt, and all other Sorts of Grain, and from Meal, Flour, or Bran, ſhould be prohibited in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for a limited Time:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the twentieth Day of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, until and upon the firſt Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, no Low Wines or Spirits ſhall be brewed, made, prepared, extracted, or diſtilled, from any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or Tilts, or any other Sort of Corn or Grain, or from any Meal, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the ſame.

No Spirits to be diſtilled from Corn or Grain, &c. in Scotland for a certain Period.

"Penalty of 500 l. with the Corn, &c. for ſo diſtilling or attempting ſo to do. § 2. Penalty not to extend to "diſtilling from Waſh openly brewed on or before Oct. 15, 1799. § 3. Wheat, &c. found in any Still-"houſe, &c. after Oct. 20, 1799, forfeited, and alſo 200 l. [as under 35 Geo. 3. c. 119. § 2. 3. 4.] § 4."

Perſons authorized by a Juſtice may, with an Officer of Exciſe, enter Stillhouſes, &c. to inſpect Materials and Utenſils, and if the Officer ſuſpect Corn, &c. to be mixed in Wort, he may take a Sample.

V. And be it further enacted, That during the Time herein-before limited, it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be authoriſed for that Purpoſe by one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, at any Time or Times with any Officer of Exciſe, to enter into any Workhouſe, Stillhouſe, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, or any other Place whatſoever, wherein any Low Wines or Spirits, or Wort or Waſh ſhall be, or are ſuſpected to be preparing, or to be brewed, made, or extracted, diſtilled or prepared, or wherein Low Wines or Wort or Waſh ſhall have been made, brewed, extracted, diſtilled, or prepared, after the ſaid twentieth Day of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, and ſhall have free Admittance into the ſame, and may inſpect all the Materials, Veſſels, and Utenſils therein contained (giving thereby as little Interruption as may be to the Buſineſs which ſhall be carrying on); and in caſe any ſuch Officer of Exciſe ſhall have Reaſon to ſuſpect that any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Corn or Grain, or any Meal, Flour, or Bran, is mixed in any Wort or Waſh, or in any other Material or Preparation for brewing, making, extracting, or diſtilling Low Wines, or Spirits, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Officer, at any Time or Times during the ſaid Term, upon Payment of two Shillings and Sixpence, to take a Sample not exceeding two Quarts of ſuch Wort or Waſh, Material or Preparation, which ſhall be found in any ſuch Houſe or other Place aforeſaid; and in caſe any Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits, or the Owner or Occupier of any ſuch Houſe or Place, or any Workman or Servant to any ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers, or Owner or Occupier belonging, ſhall refuſe to admit ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be ſo authorized, or any Officer or Officers of Exciſe, into any ſuch Houſe or Place, or ſhall obſtruct or hinder any ſuch Officer or Perſon or Perſons, in making ſuch Inſpection as aforeſaid, or ſhall not allow any ſuch Officer to take ſuch Sample after the ſaid Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence ſhall be paid or tendered for the ſame, every ſuch Diſtiller or Maker, Owner or Occupier, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence reſpectively, forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds; and it ſhall be lawful for any ſuch Officer of Exciſe, or other Perſon or Perſons authorized as aforeſaid, having a Warrant for that Purpoſe from any ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices as aforeſaid, to ſeize, take, and carry away all ſuch Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Corn or Grain, and all ſuch Meal, Flour, and Bran, as ſhall be found in any ſuch Houſe or other Place, together with all the Veſſels, Sacks, Bags, and other Things, in which the ſaid Commodities ſhall be contained.

Penalty of 200*l.* for obſtructing Inſpection, or not allowing a Sample to be taken.

Corn, &c. found, may be ſeized with the Veſſels.

After Oct. 20, 1799, Diſtillers having more than five Quarters of Wheat, &c. (except in Stillhouſes,) to forfeit the ſame, and 10*l.* per Quarter.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits for Sale or Exportation ſhall, after the twentieth Day of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, be poſſeſſed of, or have in his, her, or their Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, or in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt or for the Uſe or Benefit of ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits, more than five Quarters of Wheat, Wheat Meal, or Wheat Flour, at any one Time in any one or more Place or Places, (not being a Place or Places for preparing, brewing, making, extracting, diſtilling, or keeping Wort or Waſh, Low Wines, or Spirits,) every ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers of Low Wines and Spirits, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence reſpectively, forfeit all ſuch Wheat, Wheat Meal, and Flour, exceeding the ſaid Quantity of five Quarters, and alſo the Sum of ten Pounds for every Quarter ſo forfeited.

"Penalty not to extend to Diſtillers being Growers of Wheat. § 7. Nor to Perſons being Millers before "20th Oct. 1799. [as under 35 Geo. 3. c. 119. § 6.] § 8."

On Oath of Ground of Suſpicion that more than five Quarters of

IX. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Officer or Officers of the Exciſe, or any other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall at any Time or Times have Cauſe to ſuſpect that any Wheat, Wheat Meal, or Wheat Flour, exceeding the Quantity of five Quarters, ſhall be laid or kept in any ſuch Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Granary, or other Place or Places as aforeſaid, belonging to any Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits

Spirits, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then and in every such Case, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace residing near the Place where such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, shall suspect the same to be laid and kept, setting forth the Ground of his or their Suspicion, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justice or Justices of the Peace before whom such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons shall make Oath as aforesaid, (if he or they shall judge it reasonable,) by special Warrant under his or their respective Hands and Seals, to authorize and empower such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons authorized as aforesaid, by Day or by Night, (but if in the Night, then in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace,) to enter into all and every Storehouse, Warehouse, Granary, or other Place or Places, where he or they shall so suspect that any Wheat, Wheat Meal, or Wheat Flour, exceeding the Quantity of five Quarters as aforesaid, shall be laid or kept, belonging to any such Distiller or Distillers, Maker or Makers, of Low Wines or Spirits, and to seize, take, and carry away all such Wheat, Wheat Meal, and Flour, as he or they shall so find, (over and above the said Quantity of five Quarters,) together with all the Vessels, Sacks, Bags, or other Things wherein the same shall be contained; and such Distiller or Distillers, Maker or Makers, of Low Wines or Spirits, or the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession such Wheat, Wheat Meal, or Flour, belonging to such Distiller or Distillers, Maker or Makers, shall be found, shall for every such Offence respectively forfeit and pay the said Penalty of ten Pounds for every Quarter exceeding the said Quantity of five Quarters; and the said Officer or Officers, and other Person or Persons, is or are hereby empowered by such Warrant, together with such other Person or Persons as he or they shall take to his or their Assistance, to enter such Storehouses, Warehouses, Granaries, and other Place or Places, and break open the Doors thereof in case they be not forthwith opened on Demand.

Wheat, &c. are kept in any Storehouse, &c. Officers and other Persons may be authorised to search for, and may seize the Surplus; and the Persons in whose Custody found, shall forfeit 10l. per Quarter.

Doors may be broken open.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, imposed by this Act, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who shall inform, discover, or sue for the same.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XI. 'And whereas there may have been Contracts made by Distillers, with several Persons, for Spirits, 'Grains, or Yeast, to be delivered and received at future Times after the twentieth Day of October one 'thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine;' be it therefore enacted, That all Contracts or Bargains made by any Distiller or Distillers, with any Person or Persons whatsoever, for any Spirits, Grains, or Yeast, to be delivered at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, shall be and are hereby declared to be null and void, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Contracts for Delivery of Spirits, &c. after Oct. 20, 1799, void.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within the Space of one Calendar Month next after the Offence shall be committed, and the Court before whom such Action or Suit shall be brought shall allow the Defender to plead this Act on his Defence, and if the Pursuer shall not insist on his Action, or if Judgment shall be given against such Pursuer, the Defender shall and may recover the full and real Expences he may have been put to by any such Action or Suit.

Limitation of Actions.

Act may be pleaded, and Defender may recover Expences.

CAP. XII.

An Act to enable the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms to allow, until the firſt Day of April one thouſand eight hundred, Britiſh Plantation Sugars to be warehouſed; to revive ſo much of an Act, made in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as relates to the aſcertaining the average Price of Sugar, and regulating the Allowance of Drawback on the Exportation thereof; and for allowing, until the fifth Day of May one thouſand eight hundred, certain Drawbacks on Sugar exported.

'WHEREAS from the increaſed Importation of Sugar into this Kingdom in the preſent Year, and from other Circumſtances which have recently occurred, the Owners and Conſignees thereof are utterly unable to find an immediate Market for large Quantities now on Hand, and a further Importation to a conſiderable Extent is expected; and it is therefore expedient that further Time ſhould be given for the Payment of Duties on ſuch Sugar imported, or to be imported into Great Britain after the paſſing of this Act, for which the Duties have not already been paid:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, and until the firſt Day of April one thouſand eight hundred, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the Time being, in England and Scotland reſpectively, to take Bond to his Majeſty from the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees, of any Britiſh Plantation Sugar, for the Payment of the Duties chargeable upon any ſuch Sugar imported into any Port in Great Britain, at any Time after the paſſing of this Act, or upon any ſuch Sugar in reſpect whereof ſuch Duties ſhall not have been paid before the paſſing of this Act; and all Sugars ſo bonded as aforeſaid ſhall be lodged and ſecured at the ſole Expence of the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees thereof, under the joint Locks of his Majeſty and ſuch Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees thereof, in ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes as ſhall be fit for that Purpoſe, and ſhall be approved of by the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England or Scotland, as the Caſe may be; and ſuch Sugars ſhall not be delivered, cleared, or taken from any ſuch Warehouſe, unleſs or until the full Duties due and payable thereon ſhall be firſt paid to the proper Officer of the Cuſtoms; and if the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees of ſuch Sugar ſhall omit, neglect, or refuſe to pay and ſatisfy all the Duties due and payable in reſpect of ſuch Sugar within ſix Months from the Date of any Bond given under this Act for the Payment of the Duties upon ſuch Sugar as aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, at the Expiration of ſuch Period as aforeſaid, to cauſe ſuch Sugar to be publickly ſold to the beſt Bidder, at ſuch Places as the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively ſhall think proper, and out of the Proceeds of ſuch Sale to ſatisfy ſuch Duties, together with all ſuch Expences as ſhall have ariſen relating to any ſuch Sugar; and the Overplus (if any be) ſhall be paid to the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees of ſuch Sugar, or ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be authorized to receive the ſame.

Until April 1, 1800, the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms may take Bond for the Duties on Britiſh Plantation Sugar imported into Great Britain; which Sugars ſhall be warehouſed, and if the Duties are not paid within ſix Months, it may be ſold.

II. 'And whereas by an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament for granting to his Majeſty certain additional Duties on Sugar imported and exported, and on Coffee exported, and for reducing the Drawbacks allowed on the Exportation of Sugar; certain Proviſions of an Act paſſed in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for regulating the Allowance of the Drawback and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, and for other Purpoſes, as far as the ſame related to the aſcertaining the average Price of Sugar, in Manner in the ſaid Act mentioned, or of regulating the Allowance of Drawback, or the Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, was repealed: And whereas it is expedient that the full Drawback and Bounty directed to be withheld by an Act of the thirty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and by an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, ſhould be allowed in certain Caſes: And whereas it thereby becomes neceſſary that the ſeveral Proviſions of the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as far as the ſame relate to the aſcertaining the average Price of Sugar, and regulating the Allowance of Drawback, or the Payment of Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, ſhould be revived;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this the average Price of Sugar, or regulating the Drawback and Bounty on Exportation of Sugar revived.

this Act, the said Act passed in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and all the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Authorities, Directions, and Regulations therein contained, as far as the same relate to ascertaining the average Price of Sugar in the Manner therein mentioned, or of regulating the Allowance of Drawback, or the Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, shall be, and the same are hereby revived, and shall be and remain in full Force during the Continuance of this Act, except as any such Provisions, Directions, or Regulations are herein altered, in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if all the said Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Authorities, and Directions, were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; any Thing in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Until Jan. 5, 1800, the Drawbacks and Bounty on Sugar directed to be withheld by the recited Acts of 36 and 39 Geo. 3. shall be allowed; and the Duty imposed by the said Act of 39 Geo. 3. on Sugar imported by the East India Company, and warehoused, shall be discontinued.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, and until the fifth Day of January one thousand eight hundred, the Whole of the Drawbacks and Bounty paid or payable on the Exportation of Sugar, directed to be withheld by the said Acts of the thirty-sixth and thirty-ninth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, shall be paid and allowed in like Manner, in every Respect, and subject to and under, and according to the like Rules and Regulations, as any Drawbacks or Bounties were paid or allowed before the passing of the Act of the last Session of Parliament; and during all such Time as aforesaid, the Whole of the Duty imposed by an Act of the last Session of Parliament upon Sugar imported into Great Britain by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and warehoused according to Law, and sold at the Sales of the said Company, shall, as to all such Sugar as shall be exported during the Time last aforesaid, be, and the same is hereby wholly discontinued; any Thing contained in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

If on Jan. 5, and April 5, 1800, the average Price of Muscovado Sugar, taken as directed by 39 Geo. 3. c. 43. shall not have exceeded 70s. per cwt. the Drawbacks and Bounty withheld by 36 Geo. 3. and 39 Geo. 3. shall be paid, and the said Duties on Sugar imported by the East India Company and warehoused, shall be discontinued on Delivery of the Sugar for Exportation.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if, on the fifth Day of January and the fifth Day of April one thousand eight hundred, it shall appear by Notice in The London Gazette, in Manner directed in the said Act of the thirty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, that the average Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar, taken in the Manner directed by the said Act made in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty for the six Weeks preceding, shall not have exceeded seventy Shillings for an hundred Weight, inclusive of the Duties of Customs paid or payable thereon on the Importation into Great Britain, then and in every such Case the Whole of the Drawbacks and Bounty, paid or payable on the Exportation of Sugar, directed to be withheld by the said Act of the thirty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign and by the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, shall be paid and allowed in like Manner, in every Respect, and subject to and under and according to the like Rules and Regulations, as any Drawbacks and Bounties were paid and allowed before the passing of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, except as any such Rules or Regulations are altered by this Act; and the Whole of the Duty imposed by an Act of the last Session of Parliament, upon Sugar imported into Great Britain by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and warehoused according to Law, and sold at the Sales of the said Company, shall, upon the Delivery thereof out of the Warehouses for Exportation during the Time of any Drawbacks or Bounties being paid or allowed under this Act, be and the same are hereby wholly discontinued; any Thing in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Continuance of Act, as to Drawback or Bounty, or discontinuing Duty.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall, as to all the Matters and Things herein contained relating to the paying and allowing any Drawback or Bounty, or discontinuing any Duty under this Act, have Continuance until the fifth Day of May one thousand eight hundred.

III. And be it further enacted, That within ſeven Days after this Act ſhall have received the Royal Aſſent, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, ſhall meet to receive, or to appoint a proper Perſon or Perſons to receive, all ſuch Applications in Writing as ſhall be made to them for ſuch Enlargement or Extenſion of the Times for the Repayment of the Amount of any ſuch Loan of Exchequer Bills, and ſhall alſo fix proper and convenient Days for the Purpoſe of taking into Conſideration all ſuch Applications, and ſhall meet together for that Purpoſe, and proceed to take into Conſideration all ſuch Applications as ſhall ſpecify the Times to which ſuch Payments are required to be extended, (not exceeding the Limits or Proportions herein-after mentioned.)

Commiſſioners to meet to receive, or appoint Perſons to receive Applications for Extenſion of Times for Repayment of Loans, and fix Days for taking them into Conſideration.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Perſons or Perſon, making ſuch Application to the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhall be required by the ſaid Commiſſioners to give any new Security or Securities, or to produce any new or other Surety or Sureties, and ſhall not, previous to or upon any of the ſaid Inſtalments becoming due and payable under the ſaid recited Acts, be prepared to tender ſuch ſufficient Security or Securities, or Sureties or Surety, as ſhall by the ſaid Commiſſioners be deemed requiſite; or in caſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall prove to the Satisfaction of ſuch Commiſſioners, that by Reaſon of the Diſtance at which any Sureties or Surety are then reſiding, the Conſent of ſuch Sureties or Surety under this Act cannot immediately be procured; it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, by Writing under the Hands of any three or more of them, to grant to ſuch Perſons or Perſon ſuch further Time for the procuring and tendering ſuch Security or Securities, Surety or Sureties, as they in their Diſcretion ſhall think fit to allow; upon the Conditions nevertheleſs of Payment of the Firſt Inſtalment of every ſuch Loan, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall remain unpaid on the fifth Day of January, one thouſand eight hundred, if the ſame has not already been paid, and not exceeding the Period of Four Months from the Time of granting ſuch further Time as aforeſaid, and every Grant of ſuch further Time as aforeſaid, ſhall be in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked B.; and in the mean Time, and until the Expiration of the Time ſo allowed by the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, ſuch Parties reſpectively ſhall not be deemed or taken to have made Default in Payment of ſuch Inſtalment of the ſaid Loan under the ſaid recited Acts, unleſs Default ſhall be made in the Payment of any ſuch firſt Inſtalment as aforeſaid; nor ſhall any Proceſs, Suit, or other Proceeding, be iſſued, commenced, or had, nor any Warrant for the ſame granted againſt the ſaid Parties reſpectively, or their Sureties or Surety, their Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, or upon or in reſpect of any Securities or Security made, aſſigned, or depoſited, for the Purpoſes in the ſaid Acts mentioned, or otherwiſe, for the Purpoſe of recovering or compelling Payment of the ſaid Loan, or any Part thereof, unleſs upon ſuch Default in reſpect of any ſuch firſt Inſtalment as aforeſaid.

Commiſſioners may grant to Perſons not prepared to tender new Securities or Sureties previous to Inſtalments becoming due, &c. further Time, the Grant of which ſhall be in the Form in the Schedule B.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the ſigning of ſuch Conſent by ſuch original Sureties as aforeſaid, and the Depoſit of ſuch further Security or Securities, Surety or Sureties, (where any ſuch ſhall be required by the ſaid Commiſſioners,) it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to grant and allow, in Manner herein-after mentioned, to ſuch Parties reſpectively,

After ſigning of Conſent by original Sureties, &c. the Commiſſioners may grant Extenſion of Times of Repayment of Loan; by three Inſtalments with Intereſt on the 5th Jan. 1800, 1801, and 1802.

reſpectively, ſuch Enlargement or Extenſion of the Times of Repayment of ſuch Loan as they the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall in their Diſcretion think proper, ſo that the ſame be made payable in Proportions not leſs, and Periods not longer, than herein-after particularly mentioned; that is to ſay, in every Caſe where the Whole of any ſuch ſuch Loan remains unpaid, one third Part of ſuch Loan, with Intereſt for the ſame at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, on the fifth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred; one other third Part thereof, with the like Intereſt for the ſame, on the fifth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one: and the remaining third Part thereof, with the like Intereſt for the ſame, on the fifth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and two; and in every Caſe where the firſt Inſtalment, or the firſt and ſecond Inſtalments on any ſuch Loan, or any Proportion thereof, hath been or ſhall be paid, previous to any Application being made for the Enlargement or Extenſion of the Time or reſpective Times of Payment of the Remainder of ſuch Loan, then the Remainder of any ſuch Loan at ſuch reſpective Times for what may remain due on ſuch Loan as are herein-before mentioned for the Payment of Inſtalments of any Loan on which no Part has been paid; and ſuch Parties reſpectively, to whom the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall allow ſuch Enlargement or Extenſion of the Times of Payment of the ſaid Loan, ſhall not be deemed or taken to have made Default in Payment of the ſaid Loan in Manner directed by the ſaid recited Acts, nor ſhall any Proceſs, Suit, or other Proceeding be iſſued, commenced, or had, nor any Warrant for the ſame granted, againſt the ſaid Parties reſpectively, or their Sureties or Surety, their or any of their Heirs, Executors, or Adminiſtrators, or upon or in reſpect of any Securities, or Security made, aſſigned, or depoſited, for the Purpoſes in the ſaid Act mentioned, or otherwiſe, in order to recover or compel the Repayment of the ſaid Loan, or any Part thereof, until the Expiration of ſuch enlarged or extended Times as aforeſaid.

Certificate of the Grant of ſuch Extenſion ſhall be in the Form in Schedule C.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes in which the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think fit to grant or allow any ſuch Enlargement or Extenſion of Time for the Repayment of any Proportion of any ſuch Loan, they the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall certify ſuch their Allowance by a Writing under the Hands of any three or more of them, according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked C.; and ſuch Certificates ſhall be delivered to the reſpective Parties to whom ſuch Extenſion of Time ſhall be granted as aforeſaid, and a Copy or Minute of all ſuch Certificates ſhall be entered in a Book or Books to be kept by the ſaid Commiſſioners for that Purpoſe.

Previous to receiving Certificates of Extenſion of Time, all Intereſt due ſhall be paid.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every Perſons and Perſon to whom ſuch Enlargement or Extenſion of Time, for the Payment of any Part of any ſuch Loan, ſhall be granted or allowed as aforeſaid, ſhall, previous to the receiving of any ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid, pay, or cauſe to be paid, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or ſuch Perſons or Perſon as they, or any three or more of them, ſhall appoint, to receive the ſame, all Intereſt that ſhall remain due and unpaid on the firſt Inſtalment of every ſuch Loan at the Time of granting any ſuch Extenſion of Time as aforeſaid.

" Remedies of recited Acts for compelling Repayment of Loan ſhall continue, where the Times have not " been extended. § 8."

Commiſſioners to have the ſame Powers as under recited Acts.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have all ſuch Powers and Authorities, with reſpect to any Parties applying for Relief under this Act, and ſhall have all ſuch Remedies for the Purpoſe of recovering or compelling Repayment of any Loans or Advances already made, the Times of Repayment of which ſhall have been or may be enlarged or extended by the Authority of this Act, as are given to the ſaid Commiſſioners, and provided by the ſaid recited Acts, or any or either of them, in reſpect of any ſuch Loan, or of any Default in Repayment of any Loan made under the ſaid Acts.

" Sureties ſatisfying Loan ſhall have the ſame Remedies againſt the Principals or Co-Sureties as under re- " cited Acts; and Mortgages taken as Securities ſhall remain as Securities for the Reimburſement to ſuch " Sureties of Money advanced by them. § 10. [as under 39 Geo. 3. c. 11. § 12.]"

Three Commiſſioners may act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all Matters and Things which the ſaid Commiſſioners, authorized by this Act are hereby required or empowered to do or execute, ſhall and may be done and executed by any three or more of them; any Thing herein or in the ſaid former Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

" Obligations taken by the Commiſſioners, &c. not liable to Stamp Duties. § 12."

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to prohibit, until the Expiration of Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament, any Perſon or Perſons from ſelling any Bread which ſhall not have been baked a certain Time. [20th February 1800.]

[See c. 71. as to Bread ſold to Soldiers on their March.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to reduce as much as poſſible at the preſent Moment the Conſumption of Wheat Flour: And whereas it appears that a conſiderable Saving would ariſe, if Bread was prohibited from being ſold until it had been baked a certain Time:' Be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall not be lawful for any Baker or other Perſon or Perſons, reſiding within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, after the twenty-ſixth Day of February one thouſand eight hundred, or reſiding in any other Part of Great Britain, after the fourth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, to ſell, or offer or expoſe to Sale, any Bread, until the ſame ſhall have been baked twenty-four Hours at the leaſt; and every Baker or other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall act contrary hereto, or offend herein, ſhall for every Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds for every Loaf of Bread ſo ſold, offered, or expoſed to Sale; which Penalty ſhall and may be recovered before any one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County, City, or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, (which Oath ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices is and are hereby empowered to adminiſter,) one Moiety whereof ſhall be paid to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed; and if the ſaid Penalty ſhall not be forthwith paid, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cauſe the ſaid Penalty to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party offending, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Goods and Chattels, after deducting the ſaid Penalty, and the Coſts and Charges of taking and making ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale.

Perſons reſiding in London and Weſtminſter, and the Bills of Mortality, &c. after Feb. 26, or reſiding elſewhere, after March 4, not to ſell or expoſe to ſale, any Bread, till 24 hours after baked, on Penalty of 5*l.* for each Loaf. Penalty to be recovered before a Juſtice, and divided between the Informer and the Poor of the Pariſh.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in every Place or Places where any Aſſize of Bread ſhall have been ordered by the chief Magiſtrates or Juſtices of the Peace of ſuch Place or Places, and ſhall have been duly put in execution, no Baker, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall be ſubject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture for ſelling any Bread under the Weights preſcribed by Law: Provided alſo, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to exempt any ſuch Baker or other Perſon or Perſons from any ſuch Penalty or Forfeiture, where the Weight of the Peck Loaf ſhall be deficient more than ſix Ounces, and ſo in Proportion for any other Loaf of Bread; any Thing in any former Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Perſon ſhall be liable to any Penalty for ſelling Bread under the Weight preſcribed by the Aſſize; provided the Deficiency be not more than in Proportion of Six Ounces in the Peck Loaf. [See Poſt. c. 74. § 3, 4.]

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act to be paſſed in this Seſſion of Parliament.

Act may be altered this Seſſion.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue in force until the Expiration of ſix Weeks after the Comencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

CAP. XIX.

An Act to indemnify ſuch Perſons as have omitted to qualify themſelves for Offices and Employments; and to indemnify Juſtices of the Peace, or others, who have omitted to regiſter or deliver in their Qualifications within the time directed by Law, and for extending the Time limited for thoſe Purpoſes, until the twenty-fifth Day of December one thouſand eight hundred; to indemnify Members and Officers, in Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns, whoſe Admiſſions have been omitted to be ſtamped according to Law, or having been ſtamped, have been loſt or miſlaid, and for allowing them, until the twenty-fifth Day of December one thouſand eight hundred, to provide Admiſſions duly ſtamped; to permit ſuch Perſons as have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Indentures of Clerks to Attornies and Solicitors, to make and file the ſame on or before the firſt Day of Michaelmas Term one thouſand eight hundred; and for indemnifying Deputy Lieutenants and Officers of the Militia, who have neglected to tranſmit Deſcriptions of their Qualifications to the Clerks of the Peace within the Time directed by Law, and for extending the Time limited for that Purpoſe, until the firſt Day of September one thouſand eight hundred. CAP. XXIII.

An Act for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties of Exciſe on Britiſh and Foreign Spirits, and Tea. [10th March 1800.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, towards raiſing the neceſſary Supplies to defray your Majeſty's Publick Expences, and making a permanent Addition to the Publick Revenue, have freely and voluntarily reſolved to give and grant to your Majeſty, the ſeveral additional Rates and Duties of Exciſe herein reſpectively mentioned; and do therefore moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, upon the ſeveral Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities, mentioned and deſcribed in the Schedule marked (A.) hereunto annexed, the ſeveral Sums of Money and Duties of Exciſe, as they are reſpectively inſerted, deſcribed, and ſet forth, in the ſaid Schedule; and that there ſhall be made, allowed, and paid, for or in reſpect of Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities, for or in reſpect whereof any Duty of Exciſe is by this Act impoſed, to the ſeveral Perſons entitled to the ſame, the Drawbacks of Exciſe, as the ſame are alſo inſerted, deſcribed, and ſet forth, in the Schedule marked (B.) hereunto annexed; and alſo all ſuch ſpecial Allowances as are particularly directed by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force on and immediately before the paſſing of this Act; and the ſame reſpectively ſhall commence and take Effect from the reſpective Days mentioned in the ſaid Schedules, in Caſes where ſpecial Dates are inſerted therein, and in Caſes where no ſuch Date is inſerted, from the Day on which this Act ſhall receive the Royal Aſſent.

Duties in Schedule (A.) to be levied, and Drawbacks in Schedule (B.) allowed.

Commencement of Duties.

II. And be it further enacted, That ſuch of the Duties of Exciſe by this Act impoſed, as ſhall ariſe in that Part of Great Britain called England, ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England for the Time being; and ſuch thereof as ſhall ariſe in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Scotland for the Time being; and ſhall be accounted for cleared off, paid, ſatisfied, and diſcharged, by the Perſon and Perſons liable to the accounting for, clearing off, Payment, Satisfaction, or Diſcharge thereof, at ſuch Time and Times, and in ſuch Manner, as the Duties of Exciſe, chargeable upon the like Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and Commodities reſpectively, or upon any Perſon or Perſons for or in reſpect thereof, were, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force immediately before the paſſing of this Act, to be accounted for, cleared off, paid, ſatisfied, or diſcharged.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England and Scotland reſpectively.

III. 'And whereas Contracts or Agreements may have been made before the twenty-ſixth Day of February one thouſand eight hundred, by Importers or Dealers in Foreign Spirits, and by Diſtillers and Makers of Spirits, for ſuch Spirits reſpectively, to be delivered after the ſaid twenty-ſixth Day of February one thouſand eight hundred;' be it therefore enacted, That ſuch Importers or Dealers, and ſuch Diſtillers and Makers reſpectively, delivering ſuch Spirits after the ſaid twenty-ſixth Day of February one thouſand eight hundred, in purſuance of ſuch Contracts, ſhall be allowed to add ſo much Money as will be equivalent to the Duties by this Act impoſed, for or in reſpect of ſuch Spirits reſpectively to the Price thereof, and ſhall be entitled by virtue of this Act to be paid for the ſame accordingly.

Where Contracts have been made before February 26th 1800, for Delivery of Spirits after that Day, the Duty may be added to the Price.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid ſeveral Sums of Money reſpectively inſerted, deſcribed, and ſet forth in the ſaid Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (A.), as the Duties of Exciſe, and the Drawbacks of the Duties of Exciſe, ſet forth in the ſaid Schedule, marked (B.), upon the ſeveral Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodities inſerted therein, ſhall and may be reſpectively raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated, and allowed in ſuch and the like Manner, and in or by any or either of the General Means, Ways, or Methods, by which the former Duties of Exciſe reſpectively, and Drawbacks of Duties of Exciſe reſpectively, or by any or either of the ſpecial Means, Ways or Methods reſpectively, by which the former Duties of Exciſe reſpectively, and Drawbacks of Duties of Exciſe reſpectively, upon Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodities of the ſame Sorts or Kinds reſpectively, were or might be Duties and Drawbacks to be levied and allowed according to, and the Goods, &c. to be ſubject to the Laws of Exciſe.

be raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, paid, recovered, adjudged, mitigated, and allowed; and the Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodities, ſo by this Act reſpectively made liable to the Payment of, or chargeable with the Duties of Exciſe, or ſo entitled to Drawbacks of Duties of Exciſe, as reſpectively inſerted, deſcribed, and ſet forth in the ſaid Schedules hereunto annexed, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby made ſubject to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Reſtrictions, and Forfeitures, to which Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodities in general, and alſo all and every the ſpecial Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, and Forfeitures reſpectively, to which the like Goods, Wares, and Merchandize reſpectively, were ſubject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force immediately before the paſſing of this Act, reſpecting the Duties of Exciſe; and all and every Pain, Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture, of any Nature or Kind whatever, as well Pains of Death as others, for any Offence whatever committed againſt or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force immediately before the paſſing of this Act, made for ſecuring the Revenue of Exciſe, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof; and the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, and Directions therein contained ſhall and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and ſhall be reſpectively applied, practiſed, and put in Execution, for and in reſpect of the ſeveral Duties of Exciſe, and Drawbacks of Duties of Exciſe, hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatever, as if all and every the ſaid Acts, Clauſes, Proviſions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

Duties and Drawbacks on ſpecific Quantities, to apply proportionally to greater or leſs Quantities.

V. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes where Duties are impoſed, or Drawbacks allowed by this Act on any ſpecifick Quantity of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, the ſame ſhall in every Caſe be underſtood, and deemed and taken to apply in the ſame Proportion and after the ſame Rate to any greater or leſs Quantity than ſuch ſpecific Quantity.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, and carried to Conſolidated Fund,

VI. And be it further enacted, That all the Money ariſing by the Duties by this Act impoſed (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and accounting for the ſame excepted) ſhall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter; and the ſaid Monies ſo paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer as aforeſaid, ſhall be carried to and made Part of the Conſolidated Fund.

and deemed an Addition to the Revenue for defraying the increaſed Charge occaſioned by any Loan of this Seſſion.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the Monies ariſing or to ariſe by the ſaid Rates and Duties, or any of them, ſhall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpoſe of defraying the increaſed Charge occaſioned by any Loan made, or Stock created or to be created by virtue of any Act or Acts paſſed or to be paſſed in this Seſſion of Parliament; and that the ſaid Monies ſhall, during the Space of ten Years next enſuing, be paid into the ſaid Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter, diſtinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Publick Revenues; and that there ſhall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt during the ſaid Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid Rates and Duties, and paid into the ſaid Receipt, ſhall, together with the Monies ariſing from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Seſſion of Parliament, for the Purpoſe of defraying ſuch increaſed Charge as aforeſaid, be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs, or Succeſſors, upon any account whatever.

Act may be altered this Seſſion.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be paſſed in this Seſſion of Parliament.

Justices may grant an Extension of Furlough to any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier applying for the same, on Account of Sickness, &c.

LXII. 'And whereas Soldiers absent from their Regiments on Furlough granted to them by their Commanding Officers, are sometimes prevented by Sickness or other unavoidable Casualty from returning to their Duty before the Expiration of the Time limited by such Furlough, and Doubts have arisen whether in such Cases the Extension of a Soldier's Furlough by a Justice of the Peace, be sanctioned by legal Authority, and effectual for preventing such Soldier from being apprehended upon Suspicion of his having deserted his Regiment;' be it further enacted, That any Justice of the Peace may, and he is hereby authorized to grant, in Writing under his Hand, an Extension of Furlough, to any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier applying for the same, on Account of Sickness or other Casualty, which to such Justice shall, on due Enquiry, appear to render such Extension necessary, and that such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, during the Period to which his Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, by a Justice of the Peace, shall not be liable to be apprehended or otherwise molested on the Ground of his having deserted the Regiment to which he shall appear by his Furlough to belong, or of criminally absenting himself from the same: Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to exempt any Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, whose Furlough shall have been so extended as aforesaid, from being proceeded against and punished according to the Provisions of this Act, should it thereafter appear that such Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier had obtained the Extension of his Furlough by false Representation made to the Justice of Peace, or in applying for and obtaining the same, had committed any Offence to the Prejudice of good Order and Military Discipline.

Continuance of this Act.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be and continue in Force, within the Realm of Great Britain, from the twenty-fourth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, until the twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one; and shall be and continue in Force in Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, and the Islands thereto belonging, as to such Parts thereof as relate to those Places respectively, from the thirtieth Day of April, in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred, until the first Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one; and shall be and continue in Force within the Garrison of Gibraltar, and in his Majesty's other Dominions beyond the Seas, as to such Parts thereof as relate to those Places respectively, from the twenty-fourth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one, until the twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and two.

Act, in Part, may be altered this Session. (See Cap 39.)

LXXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act, so far as relates to the Allowances to be made for the quartering of Soldiers and providing for their Horses, or for the Provision of Carriages, Horses, Boats, Barges, or other Vessels, and Men, may be altered and varied by any Act or Acts to be made in this Session of Parliament.

CAP. XXVIII.

An Act for establishing an Agreement with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for Advancing the Sum of three millions, towards the Supply for the Service of the Year one thousand eight hundred.—[28th March 1800.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Recital of 7 Annæ, Cap. 7.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, 'An Act for enlarging the capital Stock of the Bank of England; and for raising a further Supply to her Majesty, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and nine;' it was declared and enacted, That the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors for ever should continue and be one Body Corporate and Politick, and should for ever have, receive, and enjoy, the entire yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds therein mentioned, out of certain Rates and Duties of Excise therein described, and such Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchises, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages, as are therein expressed; subject nevertheless to a Power and Condition of Redemption, in that Act contained in that Behalf: And it was thereby provided and enacted, That at any Time, upon twelve Months Notice, after the first Day of August which should be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and thirty-two, and not before; and upon Repayment by Parliament, to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Successors, of the several Sums, amounting to one million six hundred thousand Pounds therein mentioned, without any Deduction, Discount, or Abatement whatsoever to be made out of the said Sum of one million six hundred thousand Pounds, or any Part thereof; and upon Payment to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, of all Arrears of the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum, and all the Principal and Interest Money which should be owing unto them upon all such Tallies, Exchequer Orders, or Parliamentary Funds, which the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, should have remaining in their Hands, or be entitled to, at the Time of such Notice to be given as aforesaid (such Funds, for Redemption whereof other Provision was made in the same Act, only excepted); then, and in such Case, and not till then, the said yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds should cease and determine; as by the said Act (Relation being thereunto had) may more plainly appear: And whereas, by an Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to raise Twelve hundred thousand Pounds for Publick Uses, by circulating a further Sum in Exchequer Bills; and for enabling her Majesty to raise five hundred thousand Pounds on the Revenues appointed for Uses of her Civil Government, to be applied for or towards Payment of such Debts and Arrears owing to her Servants, Tradesmen, and others, as are therein mentioned; the before recited Proviso or Condition for determining the said yearly Fund of one

'the ſaid recited Act, amongſt other Things, declared and enacted, That ſuch Part of the ſaid recited Pro-
'viſion, contained in the ſaid Act made in the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as relates 'to the determining the ſaid Fund of one hundred thouſand Pounds per Annum, and the ſaid Corporation of 'the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon the Notice and Payments therein mentioned,
'ſhould be and were thereby repealed and made void; and that the ſaid Governor and Company of the 'Bank of England, and their Succeſſors for ever, ſhould remain, continue, and be one Body Corporate and
'Politick, by the Name aforeſaid, and ſhould for ever have, receive, and enjoy the ſaid entire yearly Fund of 'one hundred thouſand Pounds out of the ſaid Rates and Duties of Exciſe, together with a perpetual Suc-
'ceſſion and Privilege of excluſive Banking, as thereinafter is mentioned, and all other Abilities, Capaci'ties, Powers, Authorities, Franchiſes, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, and Advantages, whatſoever,
'whereunto the Governor and Company of the Bank of England were, or before the making of the ſaid
'recited Act were, entitled by the ſaid Acts of the ſeventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of her ſaid late
'Majeſty Queen Anne, and the ſaid Acts of the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King
'George the Second, and of the fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, or any of them, or by any

'ſaid Act ratified and confirmed to the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, freed and diſ-
'charged of and from the ſaid Proviſo and Conditions of Redemption, thereby repealed, or intended to 'be repealed, as aforeſaid, and all other Proviſoes, Powers, Acts, Matters, and things, whatſoever, thereto-
'fore had, made, done, or committed, for redeeming, determining, or making void, the ſaid Corporation or 'yearly Fund of one hundred thouſand Pounds, and the ſaid Privilege of excluſive Banking, and all other
'their Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchiſes, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, and Advan'tages, or any of them; ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Reſtrictions, Rules, and Directions, and alſo to ſuch
'other Agreements, Matters, and Things, as in the ſaid Acts and Charters, or any of them in force, were 'contained or preſcribed, and alſo ſubject to the Power and Condition of Redemption therein after contained 'in that Behalf: And it was thereby provided and enacted, That at any Time, upon twelve Months No'tice, after the firſt Day of Auguſt which ſhould be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred 'and twelve, and not before, and upon Repayment by Parliament, to the ſaid Governor and Company of 'the Bank of England, or their Succeſſors, of the ſaid Sum of three millions two hundred thouſand
'Pounds, advanced by virtue of the ſaid in Part recited Acts, without any Deduction, Diſcount, or Abate-
'ment whatſoever, to be made out of the ſaid Sum of three millions, two hundred thouſand Pounds, or any 'Part thereof; and upon Payment to the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, of all the Ar-
'rears of the ſaid one hundred thouſand Pounds per Annum, and all the Principal and Intereſt Money which
'ſhould be owing unto them upon all ſuch Tallies, Exchequer Orders, Exchequer Bills, or Parliamentary 'Funds, which the ſaid Governor and Company, or their Succeſſors, ſhould have remaining in their 'Hands, or be entitled to at the Time of ſuch Notice to be given as aforeſaid, ſuch Funds, for Redemption
'whereof other Proviſion is made in and by the Acts of Parliament therein mentioned, always and only ex-
'cepted; then and in ſuch Caſe, and not till then, the ſaid yearly Fund of one hundred thouſand Pounds
'ſhall ceaſe and determine: And to prevent any Doubts that might ariſe concerning the Privilege or Power
'given by former Acts of Parliament, to the ſaid Governor and Company, of excluſive Banking, and alſo
'in regard to the erecting any other Bank or Banks by Parliament, or reſtraining other Perſons from Bank-
'ing during the Continuance of the ſaid Privilege, granted to the Governor and Company of the Bank
'of England, as therein before recited; it was by the ſaid recited Act further enacted and declared, That it 'was the true Intent and Meaning of the ſame Act, that no other Bank ſhould be erected, eſtabliſhed, or
'allowed by Parliament; and that it ſhould not be lawful for any Body Politick or Corporate whatſoever,
'erected or to be erected, or for any other Perſons, united or to be united in Covenants or Partnerſhip,
'exceeding the Number of Six Perſons, in that Part of Great Britain called England, to borrow, owe, or 'take up, any Sum or Sums of Money on their Bills or Notes, payable at Demand, or at any leſs Time
'than ſix Months from the borrowing thereof, during the Continuance of ſuch ſaid Privilege to the ſaid
'Governor and Company, who were thereby declared to be and remain a Corporation, with the Privilege 'of excluſive Banking, as before recited, ſubject to Redemption on the Terms and Conditions before men'tioned; (that is to ſay,) on one Year's Notice, after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred 'and twelve, and Repayment of the three millions two hundred thouſand Pounds, and all Arrears of the 'one hundred thouſand Pounds per Annum, and all the Principal and Intereſt Money that ſhould be owing 'them on all ſuch Tallies, Exchequer Orders, Exchequer Bills, or Parliamentary Funds, (ſuch Funds as 'were before mentioned only and always excepted,) which the ſaid Governor and Company, or their Suc-
'ceſſors, ſhould have remaining in their Hands, or be entitled to, at the Time of ſuch Notice to be given
'as aforeſaid, and not otherwiſe; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or any former Act or Acts of Parlia'ment, to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding: And Whereas the ſaid Governor and Company of the 'Bank of England are willing and contented to advance, towards the Supply granted to your Majeſty for
'the Service of the Year one thouſand eight hundred, the Sum of three Millions, on or before the fifth Day
'of April one thouſand eight hundred, on the Security of Exchequer Bills, to bear Date the ſaid fifth Day
'of April one thouſand eight hundred, and to be made payable without Intereſt, and to be charged and

'Service of the Year one thouſand eight hundred and ſix; and in caſe ſufficient Aids or Supplies ſhall not 'be granted by Parliament for that Purpoſe before the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred and
'ſix, the ſame to be charged and chargeable upon and repaid out of the Conſolidated Fund; provided 'that the ſaid Governor and Company ſhall have the Option of being repaid the ſaid Sum of three Mil'lions, at any Time before the Expiration of the Term of ſix Years, to be computed from the ſaid fifth
'Day

The Bank are willing to advance Three Millions for the Service of the preſent Year; on Exchequer Bills payable in 1806; provided that the Bank may have the Option of being repaid on the Conſols attaining 80 per Cent. &c.

'Day of April one thouſand eight hundred, in caſe the Price of the Three per Centum Conſolidated Annuities ſhall be Eighty Pounds per Centum, or more, upon giving ſix Months' Notice for that Purpoſe to the Lord High Treaſurer, or to the Lords Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain for the Time being, and upon ſuch Repayment the ſaid Governor and Company ſhall deduct or allow a Diſcount to the Publick at and after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Sum repaid for ſuch Part of the ſaid Term of ſix Years as ſhall then remain unexpired: and that in Conſideration of the ſaid Advance of three Millions in the Manner, for the Period, and upon the Terms above-mentioned, the ſaid Governor and Company be continued a Corporation with the ſole Power and Privilege of excluſive Banking, and all other the Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchiſes, Immunities, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, Emoluments, Benefits, and Advantages, which they now have, poſſeſs, or enjoy, by virtue or in purſuance of their Charter, or of any former Act or Acts of Parliament, or of any Employment by or on Behalf of the Publick, be granted and confirmed to the ſaid Governor and Company, in ſuch Manner as is herein-after mentioned: Now, we your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, being deſirous to raiſe, with as much Eaſe and Advantage as poſſible to your Subjects, the neceſſary Supplies, and to encourage the ſaid Governor and Company to advance the ſaid Sum of three Millions, do moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, and that their excluſive Privilege of Banking be confirmed.

Commiſſioners of the Treaſury empowered to make out Exchequer Bills for three millions, before April 5, 1800.

That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury now or for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, at any Time or Times before the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred, to cauſe or direct any Number of Exchequer Bills to be made out for any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of three Millions, in the ſame or like Manner, Form, and Order, and according to the ſame or like Rules and Directions, as in and by an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing and granting to his Majeſty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thouſand eight hundred, are enacted and preſcribed concerning the Exchequer Bills to be made in purſuance of the ſaid Act.

All the Proviſoes, Penalties, &c. contained in the Malt Act of this Seſſion relating to Exchequer Bills, (except, &c.) ſhall be applied to the Exchequer Bills to be made in purſuance of this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Clauſes, Proviſoes, Powers, Privileges, Advantages, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Diſabilities, contained in the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act, relating to the Exchequer Bills authorized to be made by the ſame Act, (except ſuch Clauſes as do charge the ſame on the Taxes granted by the ſame Act, and ſuch Clauſes as limit or relate to the aſcertaining the Rate of Intereſt to be paid for the Forbearance of Money lent on the Credit of the ſaid Act, and alſo except as herein-after mentioned,) ſhall be applied and extended to the Exchequer Bills to be made in purſuance of this Act; as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame had been originally authorized by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act, or as if the ſaid ſeveral Clauſes or Proviſoes had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

No Intereſt payable on Exchequer Bills.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Intereſt whatſoever ſhall be payable upon or by virtue of the Exchequer Bills to be made out in purſuance of this Act; and that the Whole thereof ſhall bear Date the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred, and be made payable on the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred and ſix.

Bills iſſued at the Exchequer not to be current to any Collector of the Cuſtoms, &c. for ſix Years.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Exchequer Bill or Bills, to be made out by virtue of this Act, ſhall, after the ſame hath or have been iſſued at the Exchequer, be afterwards, at any Time before the Expiration of Six Years from the Day of the Date of ſuch Exchequer Bill, received or taken, or paſs or be current to any Receiver or Collector, in Great Britain, of the Cuſtoms, Exciſe, or any Revenue, Supply, Aid, or Tax whatſoever, due or payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or at the Receipt of the Exchequer, from any ſuch Receiver or Collector, or from any other Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate; nor ſhall any ſuch Receiver or Collector exchange, at any Time before the Expiration of ſix Years from the Day of the Date of ſuch Exchequer Bills, for any Money of ſuch Revenues, Aids, Taxes, or Supplies, in his Hands, any Exchequer Bill or Bills which ſhall have been iſſued as aforeſaid by virtue of this Act; nor ſhall any Action be maintained againſt any ſuch Receiver or Collector for neglecting or refuſing to exchange any ſuch Bill or Bills for ready Money, before the ſame ſhall have been iſſued ſix Years from the Receipt of the Exchequer, according to the Date thereof; any Thing in the ſaid Act made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing and granting to his Majeſty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thouſand eight hundred, or this Act, contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Exchequer Bills to be repaid out of any Supplies to be granted for the Year 1806.

If ſufficient Supplies are not granted before April 5, 1806, the ſaid Bills ſhall be charged on the Conſolidated Fund.

V. And be it further enacted, That all ſuch Exchequer Bills, and all Charges incident to or attending the ſame, ſhall be and are hereby charged and chargeable upon, and ſhall be repaid or borne by or out of any of the Aids or Supplies which ſhall be granted by Parliament for the Service of the Year one thouſand eight hundred and ſix; and in caſe ſufficient Aids or Supplies for that Purpoſe ſhall not be granted before the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred and ſix, then all the ſaid Exchequer Bills, with the Charges incident to or attending the ſame, ſhall be and are hereby charged and chargeable upon ſuch Monies, as at any Time or Times at or after the ſaid fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred and ſix, ſhall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer of the Conſolidated Fund, (except ſuch Monies of the ſaid Conſolidated Fund as ſhall then be appropriated to any particular Uſe or Uſes by any Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf); and ſuch Monies of the ſaid Conſolidated Fund ſhall and may be iſſued and applied, as ſoon as the ſame can be regularly ſtated and aſcertained, for and towards paying off, cancelling, and diſcharging ſuch Exchequer Bills, and Charges, until the Whole of them ſhall be paid off, cancelled, and diſcharged, or Money ſufficient for that Purpoſe be kept and reſerved in the Exchequer, to be payable on Demand to the reſpective Proprietors thereof.

Monies ſo iſſued out of the Conſolidated Fund to be replaced out of the then next granted Supplies.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whatever Monies ſhall be ſo iſſued out of the ſaid Conſolidated Fund, ſhall, from Time to Time be replaced by and out of the firſt Supplies to be then after granted by Parliament; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Exchequer Bills to bear Intereſt if not paid on or before April 5, 1806.

VII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That in caſe Proviſion ſhall not be made by Parliament for Payment of Exchequer Bills, to be iſſued in purſuance of this Act, ſo that the ſame ſhall be fully paid and diſcharged on or before the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred and ſix, then, and in that Caſe, the ſaid Exchequer Bills, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall then remain unpaid, ſhall, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred and ſix, bear an Intereſt of five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and ſuch Intereſt ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby charged and chargeable upon, and ſhall be borne and paid by or out of the ſaid Fund as the principal Money payable by the ſaid Exchequer Bills is by this Act charged and chargeable upon; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

The Bank to exchange for their Promiſſory Notes all ſuch of the ſaid Bills as ſhall, within ſix Years, be tendered to them:

But ſhall not be entitled to any Premium for the ſame.

VIII. And it is further enacted, That the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Succeſſors, ſhall, and are hereby required to exchange for the Promiſſory Notes of the ſaid Governor and Company, payable to Bearer on Demand, from Time to Time, all ſuch of the ſaid Exchequer Bills, as ſhall, within the Space of ſix Years from the Date thereof, be tendered or produced to them or their Caſhier or Caſhiers for that Purpoſe, by any Perſon or Perſons; and ſhall pay, or cauſe to be paid, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, in ſuch Notes as aforeſaid, the Sum for which every ſuch Bill, ſo tendered or produced, was iſſued, and ſhall exchange in Manner aforeſaid ſuch of the ſaid Bills as ſhall have been, from Time to Time, paid away or circulated by or on the Behalf of the ſaid Governor and Company, or their Succeſſors, and ſhall, before the ſaid fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred and ſix, be tendered or produced as aforeſaid, as often as ſuch Caſe ſhall happen: And the ſaid Governor and Company, or their Succeſſors or their Agents or Servants, ſhall not be entitled to or receive any Premium, Rate, or Allowance whatſoever, for or in reſpect of the exchanging or circulating the ſaid Exchequer Bills; any Thing herein, or in any other Act of Parliament, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

In caſe the Bank refuſe Payment, how ſuch Notes may be recovered.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or their Succeſſors, or their Caſhier or Caſhiers, ſhall neglect or refuſe to exchange any ſuch Exchequer Bill or Bills for ſuch Notes as aforeſaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, upon Demand thereof made at their chief Office within the City of London, for the Space of twenty-four Hours, then the Perſon or Perſons demanding the ſame, or the Perſon or Perſons for and on whoſe Behalf ſuch Demand ſhall be made, ſhall and may recover the Amount of ſuch Exchequer Bill or Bills, to his, her, or their own Uſe, by Action of Debt, or upon the Caſe, Bill, Suit, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed, or any more than one Imparlance; in which Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, it ſhall be lawful to declare that the ſaid Governor and Company, or their Succeſſors, are indebted to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs the Money demanded upon the ſaid Bill or Bills, according to the Form of the Statute, and have not paid the ſame, which ſhall be ſufficient; and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in ſuch Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, ſhall recover againſt the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, not only the Money ſo neglected or refuſed to be paid, but alſo Damages, after the Rate of fifteen Pounds per Centum per Annum, on ſuch Money, together with full Coſts of Suit; and the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, and their ſaid Stock and Funds, ſhall be, and are hereby made ſubject and liable thereunto.

Plaintiff entitled to Damages at the Rate of 15l. per Cent. per Ann. and Coſts.

The Proviſions in the Malt Act of this Seſſion relating to Perſons contracting to circulate, &c. Exchequer Bills, (except, &c.) ſhall extend to the Bank in relation to the Bills made by virtue of this Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Clauſes, Powers and Proviſions in the ſaid Act, made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing and granting to his Majeſty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year one thouſand eight hundred, relating to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, as ſhould contract, by virtue of that Act, with the High Treaſurer, or any three or more of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, for the circulating and exchanging for ready Money the Exchequer Bills by the ſaid Act authorized to be iſſued, (except the Clauſe for altering the Rate of Intereſt, and ſuch other Parts as are varied by this Act), ſhall extend to and operate, with reſpect to the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Succeſſors, in relation to the Exchequer Bills to be made out, exchanged, and circulated, by virtue of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes as if a Contract in Writing had been made for that Purpoſe in the Manner preſcribed by the ſaid Act, and as if the ſaid Clauſes, Powers and Proviſions, were herein ſpecially re-enacted and applied for the Purpoſes of this Act.

If previous to the Expiration of ſix Years the three per Cent. Conſols be at 80 per Cent. the Exchequer Bills ſhall become payable, on the Bank giving Notice to the Treaſury, &c.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in caſe at any Time previous to the Expiration of the ſaid Term of ſix Years, to be computed from the ſaid fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred the Price of the three Pounds per Centum Conſolidated Bank Annuities ſhall be eighty Pounds per Centum or more, and the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England ſhall then, or at any Time afterwards previous to the Expiration of the ſaid Term of ſix Years, be minded and deſirous to be repaid the ſaid Sum of three Millions; and of ſuch their Mind and Intention ſhall give Notice to the Lord High Treaſurer, or to the Lords Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain for the Time being, that then and in that Caſe, from and after the Expiration of ſuch Notice, the whole of the Exchequer Bills to be granted in purſuance of this Act ſhall become due and payable, in like Manner as if the ſaid Term of ſix Years had expired; and in caſe Payment thereof ſhall not be provided for by Parliament, previous to the Expiration of ſuch Notice, the ſaid Exchequer Bills, together with all Charges incident to or attending the ſame, ſhall be and are hereby charged and chargeable upon, and ſhall be repaid or borne by or out of any of the Aids or Supplies which ſhall be granted by Parliament for the Service of the Year in which ſuch Notice as aforeſaid ſhall expire; and in caſe ſufficient Aids or Supplies for that Purpoſe ſhall not be granted by Parliament previous to the Expiration of ſuch Notice as aforeſaid, then all the ſaid Exchequer Bills, with the Charges incident to or attending the ſame, ſhall be and are hereby charged and chargeable upon ſuch Monies as at any Time or Times, at or after the Expiration of the ſaid Notice, ſhall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer ariſing from the Conſolidated Fund, (except ſuch Monies of the ſaid Conſolidated Fund as ſhall be appropriated to any particular Uſe or Uſes, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf); and ſuch Monies of the ſaid Conſolidated Fund ſhall and may be iſſued and applied as ſoon as the ſame can be regularly ſtated and aſcertained for and towards paying off, cancelling, and diſcharging ſuch Exchequer Bills and Charges, until the Whole of them ſhall be paid off, cancelled, and diſcharged, or Money ſufficient for that Purpoſe be kept and reſerved in the Exchequer, to be payable on Demand to the reſpective Holders or Proprietors thereof.

If Exchequer Bills become payable purſuant to ſuch Notice, Diſcount to be allowed, &c. for the unexpired Term.

XII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That in caſe the Exchequer Bills, to be iſſued in purſuance of this Act, ſhall become payable at any Time previous to the Expiration of the ſaid Term of ſix Years, in purſuance of ſuch Notice as aforeſaid, then and in that Caſe the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England ſhall deduct and allow out of the Whole or ſuch Part of the ſaid Exchequer Bills as they ſhall hold or retain in their Hands or Poſſeſſion, a Diſcount, at and after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for ſuch Part of the ſaid Term of ſix Years, as ſhall remain unexpired at the Expiration of ſuch Notice as aforeſaid; and in caſe the Whole of the ſaid Exchequer Bills ſhall not, at the Expiration of ſuch Notice, be remaining in the Hands or Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Governor and Company, then and in that Caſe they ſhall and will, on or previous to the Expiration of ſuch Notice, pay into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer a Diſcount upon the Whole or ſuch Part of the ſaid Exchequer Bills as ſhall not remain in their Hands or Poſſeſſion, at and after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for ſuch Part of the ſaid Term of ſix Years as ſhall then remain unexpired; and in Default thereof, the Proviſion herein-before made for Payment of the ſaid Exchequer Bills, upon the Expiration of ſuch Notice as aforeſaid, ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be abſolutely void; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Such Part of the recited Act 21 Geo. 3. as relates to the determining the Corporation of the Bank, &c. repealed: and the Bank to remain a Body Corporate, &c. and to enjoy an excluſive Privilege of Banking, &c. ſubject to the Power of Redemption in this Act.

XIII. And, for the Encouragement of the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Succeſſors, to exchange and circulate the ſaid Exchequer Bills, in the Manner and during the Time herein-before mentioned; and to the End that the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, may have a competent Recompence and Conſideration for ſo doing; it is hereby declared and enacted, That ſuch Part of the ſaid recited Proviſion contained in the ſaid Act, made in the twenty-firſt Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as relates to the determining the ſaid Fund of one hundred thouſand Pounds per Annum, and the ſaid Corporation of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon the Notice and Payments therein-mentioned, ſhall be, and is hereby repealed and made void; and that the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Succeſſors, for ever, ſhall remain, continue, and be one Body Corporate and Politick, by the Name aforeſaid, and ſhall for ever have, receive, and enjoy the ſaid entire yearly Fund of one hundred thouſand Pounds out of the ſaid Rates and Duties of Exciſe, together with a perpetual Succeſſion and Privilege of excluſive Banking, as herein-after is mentioned, and all other Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchiſes, Immunities, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, Emoluments, Benefits, and Advantages whatſoever, which the Governor and Company of the Bank of England now have, poſſeſs, or enjoy, or whereunto they are, or, before the making of this Act, were entitled, by the ſaid Acts of the ſeventh and twelfth Years of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, and the ſaid Acts of the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, and of the fourth and twenty-firſt Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, or any of them, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, Grants, or Charters whatſoever, now in force; or, by virtue of any Employment by or on Behalf of the Publick; all which are by this Act ratified and confirmed to the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, freed and diſcharged of and from the ſaid Proviſo and Conditions of Redemption hereby repealed, or intended to be repealed, as aforeſaid; and all other Proviſoes, Powers, Acts, Matters, and Things whatſoever, heretofore had, made, done, or committed, for redeeming, determining, or making void the ſaid Corporation, or the ſaid yearly Fund of one hundred thouſand Pounds, and the ſaid Privilege of excluſive Banking, and all other their Abilities, Capacities, Powers, Authorities, Franchiſes, Immunities, Exemptions, Privileges, Profits, Emoluments, Benefits, and Advantages, or any of them: ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Reſtrictions, Rules, and Directions, and alſo to ſuch other Agreements, Matters, and Things, as in the ſaid Acts and Charters, or any of them now in force, are contained or preſcribed; and alſo ſubject to the Power and Condition of Redemption herein-after in this Act contained in this Behalf.

XIV. 'And whereas there is due from the Publick to the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of 'England, not only the ſaid Sum of three millions two hundred thouſand Pounds, advanced by virtue of 'the ſaid in Part recited Acts, but alſo the further Sum of eight millions four hundred and eighty-ſix thou-'ſand and eight hundred Pounds, which, together with the Intereſt or Annuities payable thereon or in reſpect 'thereof, are ſecured to the ſaid Governor and Company, and their Succeſſors, in Manner following, (that 'is to ſay,) the Sum of five hundred thouſand Pounds, (Part of two millions ſecured and remaining due to 'the ſaid Governor and Company, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made in the third Year of 'the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act for redeeming ſeveral Funds of the Go-'vernor and Company of the Bank of England, purſuant to former Proviſoes of Redemption, and for ſecuring to 'them ſeveral new Funds and Allowances redeemable by Parliament; and for obliging them to advance further 'Sums, not exceeding two millions five hundred thouſand Pounds at five Pounds per Centum as ſhall be found neceſ-'ſary, to be employed in leſſening the National Debts and Incumbrances; and for continuing certain Proviſions for-'merly

'chased at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum, and for other Purposes in this Act mentioned;) the further 'Sum of four millions, secured to the said Governor and Company under and by virtue of another Act of 'Parliament, made in the eighth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty King George the First, intituled, 8 Geo. 1. c. 21.
'An Act to enable the South Sea Company to dispose of the Effects in their Hands by way of Lottery or Sub'scription, or to sell Part of their Fund or Annuity, payable at the Exchequer, in order to pay the Debts of the 'said Company; and for Relief of such who are intended to have the Benefit of a late Act, touching Payment of 'ten per Centum, therein-mentioned; the further Sum of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand 'Pounds, secured to the said Governor and Company under and by virtue of another Act of Parliament,
'made in the first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for 1 Geo. 2. c. 8.
'granting an Aid to his Majesty by Sale of Annuities to the Bank of England at four Pounds per Centum, re-
'deemable by Parliament, and charged upon the Duties on Coals and Culm; and for further applying the Pro'duce of the Sinking Fund; and for enlarging the Time for exchanging Nevis and Saint Christopher's De'bentures for Annuities at three per Centum, and for applying the Arrears of his late Majesty's Civil List Re'venues; the further Sum of one million two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, secured to the said Go'vernor and Company, under and by virtue of another Act of Parliament, made in the second Year of the 'Reign of his said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for raising the Sum of one million two hundred and fifty 2 Geo. 2. c. 3.
'thousand Pounds, by Sale of Annuities to the Bank of England, after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum
'per Annum redeemable by Parliament, and for applying the Produce of the Sinking Fund; and the further 'Sum of nine hundred and eighty-six thousand eight hundred Pounds, secured to the said Governor and
'Company, under and by virtue of another Act of Parliament, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of 'his said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for establishing an Agreement with the Governor and Company of the 19 Geo. 2. c. 6.
'Bank of England, for cancelling certain Exchequer Bills upon the Terms therein mentioned; and for obliging
'them to advance the Sum of one million upon the Credit of the Land Tax and Malt Duties, granted to his Ma'jesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and forty-six:' be it enacted, That at any Time, upon twelve Months Notice, to be given after the first Day of August which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and not before, and upon Repayment by Parliament, to the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, of the said Sum of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, without any Deduction, Discount, or Abatement whatsoever; and upon Payment to the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, of all Arrears of the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum; and also upon Repayment by Parliament to the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, of the said further Sum of eight millions four hundred and eighty-six thousand and eight hundred Pounds, together with the Interest or Annuities payable thereon, or in respect thereof; and also upon Repayment of all the principal Money and Interest which shall be owing unto the said Governor and Company, and their Successors, upon all such Tallies, Exchequer Orders, Exchequer Bills, or Parliamentary Funds, which the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, shall have remaining in their Hands, or be entitled to at the Time of such Notice to be given as aforesaid: then and in such Case, and not till then, the said yearly Fund of one hundred thousand Pounds shall cease and determine.

At any Time after Aug. 1, 1833, upon twelve Months Notice, and repayment of the said 3,200,000l. and all Arrears of the said 100,000l per Annum; also the Sum of 8,486,800l. &c.

the said Yearly Fund of 100,000l. shall cease.

XV. And to prevent any Doubts that may arise concerning the Privilege or Power given, by former Acts of Parliament, to the said Governor and Company, of exclusive Banking, and also in regard to the erecting any other Bank or Banks by Parliament, or restraining other Persons from Banking during the Continuance of the said Privilege, granted to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, as before recited; it is hereby further enacted and declared, That it is the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, that no other Bank shall be erected, established, or allowed by Parliament; and that it shall not be lawful for any Body Politick or Corporate whatsoever, erected or to be erected, or for any other Persons, united or to be united in Covenants or Partnership, exceeding the Number of six Persons, in that Part of Great Britain called England, to borrow, owe, or take up, any Sum or Sums of Money on their Bills or Notes, payable on Demand, or at any less Time than six Months from the borrowing thereof, during the Continuance of the said Privilege to the said Governor and Company; who are hereby declared to be and remain a Corporation, with the Privilege of exclusive Banking, as before recited, subject to Redemption on the Terms and Conditions before mentioned; (that is to say,) on One Year's Notice to be given after the first Day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, and Repayment of the said Sum of three millions two hundred thousand Pounds, and all Arrears of the said one hundred thousand Pounds per Annum; and also upon Repayment of the said Sum of eight millions four hundred and eighty-six thousand and eight hundred Pounds, and the Interest or Annuities payable thereon or in respect thereof, and all the Principal and Interest Money that shall be owing on all such Tallies, Exchequer Orders, Exchequer Bills, Parliamentary Funds, or other Government Securities, which the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, shall have remaining in their Hands, or be entitled to, at the Time of such Notice to be given as aforesaid, and not otherwise; any Thing in this Act, or any former Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

No other Bank shall be erected by Parliament during the Continuance of the said Privilege; nor shall any Number of Bankers in Partnership exceeding six be allowed.

Conditions of Redemption.

XVI. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That any Vote or Resolution of the House of Commons, signified by the Speaker of the said House in Writing, and delivered at the Publick Office of the said Governor and Company, or their Successors, shall be deemed and adjudged to be a sufficient Notice, within the Words or Meaning of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

What shall be deemed a sufficient Notice.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a Publick Act; and judicially taken Notice of by all Judges, Justices, or other Persons whatsoever, without specially pleading the same.

Publick Act.

CAP. XXIX.

[See c. 35. giving a Bounty on Oats imported; and c. 53. on Rye.—See alſo c. 91. prohibiting the Exportation of Rice.]

An Act for granting Bounties on the Importation of Wheat, Wheaten Flour, and Rice, until the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred. [4th April 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Encouragement ſhould be given, for a limited Time, to the Importation into this Kingdom of Wheat and Wheaten Flour, from the Countries in the Mediterranean and America; and of Wheat from any of the Ports of the Baltic, and from any of the Ports of Germany, and any Ports North of the Texel, and from the Port of Archangel; and alſo for the Importation into this Kingdom of Rice: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſeveral Articles herein-after mentioned, imported or brought into this Kingdom in Britiſh Ships or Veſſels, or in Ships or Veſſels belonging to Perſons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majeſty, however the ſame may be navigated, there ſhall be paid and allowed the following Bounties; (that is to ſay), If the Average Price of Wheat in all England, aſcertained and publiſhed in the London Gazette under the Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament, ſhall be leſs than ninety Shillings per Quarter, a Bounty equal to the Difference of ſuch Average Price and ſuch Rate of ninety Shillings ſhall be paid on every Quarter of Wheat which ſhall be imported or brought into Great Britain before the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred, from any Port of Europe South of Cape Finiſterre, or from any Port in the Mediterranean or in Africa, or from any of his Majeſty's Colonies in America, or the United States; and that whenever the Average Price of Wheat, aſcertained and publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be leſs than eighty-five Shillings per Quarter, there ſhall be given on every Quarter of Wheat which ſhall be imported into Great Britain from any of the Ports of the Baltic, or from any of the Ports of Germany, or any Ports North of the Texel, before the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred, a Bounty equal to the Difference between ſuch Average Price in the London Gazette, and ſuch Rate of eighty-five Shillings; and that whenever the Average Price of Wheat, aſcertained and publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be leſs than ninety Shillings per Quarter, there ſhall be given, on every Quarter of Wheat which ſhall be imported into Great Britain from the Port of Archangel before the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred, a Bounty equal to the Difference between ſuch Average Price in the London Gazette and ſuch Rate of ninety Shillings; and that whenever the Average Price of Wheat, aſcertained and publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be leſs than one hundred Shillings per Quarter, a Bounty equal to the Difference between ſuch Average Price and ſuch Rate of one hundred Shillings, ſhall be paid on every Sack of fine Wheaten Flour of the Weight of two hundred and eighty Pounds Avoirdupois, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity, according to the Weight thereof, which ſhall be imported or brought into Great Britain before the ſaid firſt Day of October from any of his Majeſty's Colonies in America, or from the United States; and for every ſuch Sack of fine Wheaten Flour which ſhall be imported or brought into Great Britain from any other Country than his Majeſty's ſaid Colonies and the ſaid United States, there ſhall be paid a Bounty equal to four-fifths of the Bounty which would have been payable by this Act on a Quarter of Wheat, imported at ſuch Time, from every ſuch Country reſpectively, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity, according to the Weight thereof; and whenever the Current Price of Rice imported into this Kingdom, to be aſcertained by the Prices in the London Market, ſhall be leſs than one Pound fifteen Shillings per hundred Weight, a Bounty equal to the Difference between ſuch Current Price and of one Pound fifteen Shillings per hundred Weight, on every one hundred Weight of Rice which ſhall be imported or brought into Great Britain before the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred.

Certain Bounties granted on Wheat, Wheaten Flour, and Rice, imported before Oct. 1, 1800.

II. 'And, in order that the Bounty ſhall be governed as near as may be by the Average Price of Wheat at the Time of Importation,' be it enacted, That ſuch Bounty ſhall be paid upon ſuch Wheat and Flour reſpectively, according to the Average Price of Wheat in England and Wales, ſo aſcertained and publiſhed in the London Gazette in the ſecond Week after ſuch Wheat and Flour ſhall have been imported.

Bounty on Wheat and Flour, to be paid according to the Average Price of Wheat, publiſhed in the Gazette the ſecond Week after its Importation.

Importers of Rice within London and the Bills of Mortality, buying or ſelling any, ſhall return to the Clerk to the Grocers Company, a like Account as is required with reſpect to Sugar, by 32 Geo. 3. c. 43. who ſhall cauſe the Average Price to be

III. 'And, in order that the Average Prices of Rice in the London Market may be aſcertained for the Purpoſes of this Act,' be it further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, every Importer of Rice within the City of London or the Bills of Mortality, who ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, by himſelf or his Sworn Broker, or any other Agent, buy or ſell any Rice, ſhall return or cauſe to be returned to the Clerk to the Grocers Company, ſuch and the like Account in every Reſpect as is required to be returned with reſpect to Sugar by an Act paſſed in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for regulating the Allowance of the Drawback and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, and for permitting the Importation of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Iſlands in Foreign Ships; and the Clerk to the Grocers' Company ſhall aſcertain the Average Price in the London Market, of all the Rice ſo bought and ſold as aforeſaid during the Continuance of this Act, and ſhall cauſe the ſame to be publiſhed in the London Gazette in like Manner in every Reſpect as is directed by and according to ſuch and the like Regulations as are contained in the ſaid recited Act; and all the Clauſes, Proviſions, Powers, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things whatſoever in the ſaid recited Act contained, relating relating to the delivering in such Account as is in the said recited Act mentioned, and to the ascertaining and publishing the Average Prices of Sugar, and all Things relating thereto, shall be and are hereby declared to be in full force during the Continuance of this Act, with regard to Rice, in as full and ample a Manner as if the same were severally and respectively re-enacted and repeated in this Act.

published in the Gazette.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Bounties shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, and shall be paid out of any Monies in their Hands arising by any of the Duties or Revenues under their Management respectively, to the respective Importers or Consignees of such Wheat, Wheaten Flour, and Rice respectively: Provided always, That a due Entry shall be made with the proper Officers of the Customs, at the Port into which such Articles shall be imported: Provided also, that the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Customs of the Port where such Wheat or Wheaten Flour shall be imported, do receive full and satisfactory Proof, that the said Wheat and Wheaten Flour, for which the Bounty herein allowed is claimed, is wholly and entirely without Mixture of any other Corn or Grain, and that in Default thereof the said Bounties shall not nor shall any of them be allowed or paid.

Bounties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs.

Entry to be made at the Port of Importation, and Proof given that the Articles are free from Mixture.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That none of the Bounties granted by this Act shall be paid, allowed, or received, unless the several Articles in this Act enumerated and described shall be imported or brought respectively into some one or other of his Majesty's Ports, (that is to say) the Ports of London, Aberystwyth, Barnstaple, Beaumaris, Berwick, Biddeford, Boston, Bridgewater, Bridport, Bristol, Cardiff, Cardigan, Carlisle, Carnarvon, Chester, Chichester, Colchester, Cowes, Dartmouth, Dover, Exeter, Falmouth, Fowey, Harwich, Hull, Ipswich, Lancaster, Liverpool, Lyme, Lynn, Malden, Milford, Newcastle, Newhaven, Penzance, Plymouth, Poole, Portsmouth, Preston, Rochester, Sandwich, Scarborough, Shoreham, Southampton, Stockton, Sunderland, Swansea, Wells, Weymouth, Whitehaven, Whitby, Wisbeach, Yarmouth; Aberdeen, Ayr, Alloa, Borrowstoness, Campbeltoun, Dumfries, Dunbar, Port Dundas, Dundee, Grangemouth, Glasgow, including Port Glasgow, Greenock, including Kirkaldy, Kirkcudbright, Leith, Lerwick, Montrose, Perth, and Wigton.

No Bounties to be allowed unless the Articles are imported at certain Ports.

VI. And be it further enacted, That before any of the said Articles, imported or brought into this Kingdom for Bounty under the Regulations of this Act, shall be delivered out of the Charge of the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs of the Port where the same shall be respectively so imported or brought, such Articles respectively shall be carefully and attentively inspected and examined by such Officer or Officers of the Customs as the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively shall think fit to direct for that Duty, and two indifferent and disinterested Persons experienced in the Nature of the Article to be so inspected and examined; which two indifferent and disinterested Persons shall be chosen by the principal Officers of the Customs at such Port, or any two of them, whereof the Collector for the Time being shall be one; which said Officer or Officers of the Customs so directed by the said Commissioners of the Customs respectively, and the said two indifferent and disinterested Persons, so chosen as aforesaid to inspect and examine the said Articles respectively, shall, upon having viewed the same, certify and declare, upon their corporal Oaths, first administered by the said principal Officers, or any two of them, whereof the Collector shall be one (who are hereby authorized and required to administer the same) whether the said Articles respectively are or are not merchantable and fit for making Bread; and if the same shall appear by such Certificate to be merchantable and fit for making Bread, the Bounties respectively granted by this Act shall be paid and allowed thereon; but if the same shall appear by such Certificate not to be merchantable or fit for making Bread, no Bounty granted by this Act shall be paid or allowed thereon.

Articles imported, shall be inspected by the Officers of the Customs, and two skilful Persons, who are to certify whether they are fit for making Bread.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for extending, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand eight hundred, until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand eight hundred and one, the Period of Preference, granted and continued by several Acts to Bodies Corporate and Persons for the Redemption of Land Tax; and for enlarging several of the Powers contained in the said Acts. [4th April 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Period within which all Bodies Corporate and Politick, Companies and Persons mentioned in several Acts passed in the thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, were allowed the Benefit of Preference in contracting for the Redemption of any Land Tax therein mentioned, and which was, by an Act of the present Session of Parliament *, extended until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand eight hundred, should be revived, continued, and further extended; and that further Provision should be made for facilitating the Redemption of the Land Tax, by Archbishops, Bishops, and other ecclesiastical Persons, and by all Corporations:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament

Corporations and Persons entitled to redeem Land Tax till March 25, 1802, instead of March 25, 1800.

Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Bodies Corporate and Politick, Companies and Persons in the said Acts mentioned, who, by the same Acts, or any of them, were empowered to contract for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of which they were or should be in Possession, or to the Rents and Profits whereof they were or should be beneficially entitled, or in which they should have any Estate or Interest in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy, or, being substitute Heirs of Entail, should be entitled in their Order to succeed to, in Preference to any other Bodies, Corporations, Companies, or other Persons whatsoever, not having an Estate or Interest therein, and the respective Committees, Curators, Tutors, Guardians, or Trustees of such Persons on their Behalf respectively, are hereby declared to have, and shall continue to have and be entitled to such and the like Preference in the Redemption of such Land Tax over such other Bodies, Corporations, Companies, or Persons, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand eight hundred, until and upon the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand eight hundred and one.

So much of 38 Geo. 3, c. 60, [§ 20, 38.] as requires the Consent of Commissioners to the Grant of any Mortgage, &c. by Corporations repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That so much, and such of the Provisions of an Act, passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase in the Manner therein stated, the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax for one Year, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, as require that the Commissioners appointed, or to be appointed, for carrying that Act into Execution, shall consent to and approve of the Grant of any Mortgage or any Rent Charge thereby authorized to be made or granted by any Bodies Corporate or Politick, or Companies, and also such Provisions as require that a Schedule should be produced, and one Month's Notice in Writing given to the said Commissioners previously to any such Mortgage or grant, and all such other Provisions as require the Sanction, Direction, Authority, or Concurrence of the said Commissioners to or in any such Mortgage or Grant, shall, from and immediately after the passing of this Act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Mortgages by Corporations shall in future be made under Authority of the Commissioners appointed by Letters Patent under 39 Geo. 3 c. 21.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Mortgage or Rent Charge which shall be made or granted from and after the passing of this Act, by any such Bodies Politick or Corporate, or Companies as aforesaid, for the Purpose of redeeming all or any Part of the Land Tax charged upon any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments belonging to them, whether the same shall be in their own Possession, or let to Tenants at Will, or from Year to Year, or for any Term of Years absolute or determinable on a Life or Lives, for which a Fine or Premium was or shall be paid, or for Lives, where a Rent was or shall be reserved or a Fine or Premium paid, shall be made under the Direction and Authority of the Commissioners appointed by his Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, under the Authority of an Act, passed in the thirty-ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual two Acts passed in the thirty-eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign and the present Session of Parliament, for the Redemption and Purchase of the Land Tax; and every such Mortgage or Rent Charge, when approved of and confirmed by the said last-mentioned Commissioners, or any two or more of them, certified by their signing and sealing the Deed or Deeds creating the same, shall be valid and effectual.

The said Commissioners shall have the same Powers touching such Grants as they have concerning Sales of Manors, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners last herein-before mentioned, shall and may have and exercise, and are hereby invested with all and singular the same Powers and Authorities of Controul, Discretion, Consent, Approbation, and Confirmation, and of requiring Information, and of receiving Affidavits and Depositions to be taken by and before the same Persons, and all other Powers and Authorities touching and concerning any such Mortgage or Rent Charge as last herein-before mentioned, as they are invested with by the Act last herein-before referred to, touching and concerning the Sales of Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments thereby made subject to their Controul, Direction, and Confirmation.

Governors of Queen Anne's bounty may purchase Rent Charges granted by Rectors, &c. of Livings augmented by the Bounty, that they may be extinguished. [See 38 Geo. 3. c. 60. § 64: and 39 Geo. 3. c. 43. § 6.]

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, who are authorized by the afore-mentioned Acts, or any of them, to lay out Monies applicable towards the Augmentation of Livings in and for the Redemption of Land Tax, from Time to Time to lay out any such Sum or Sums as now is or are or shall be hereafter applicable for that Purpose, by virtue of the same Acts, or any of them, in, for, or towards the purchasing any Rent Charge or Rent Charges which shall have been or shall be granted under the Authority of any of the said Acts, or of this Act, by any Rector, Vicar, or Curate, of any Living or Livings which the said Governors have already agreed or shall hereafter agree to augment; and such Rent Charge or Rent Charges, when so purchased, shall be surrendered to such Rector, Vicar, or Curate, as the Case may be, or his Successors, to the Intent that the same may sink and be extinguished for the Benefit of such Living or Livings.

Trustees for the poor Clergy, under any Wills, may execute the Powers given them by 39 Geo. 3. c. 6 § 32: and c. 43. § 7. for the Redemption of Land Tax contracted for by Incumbents, until March 25, 1801.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees for the Time being of any Trust Property heretofore given by any Will for the Purpose of being laid out in the Purchase of Lands or impropriate Tithes for the Benefit of the poor Clergy of England, and who were empowered by an Act, passed in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to enlarge the Time limited for the Redemption of the Land Tax, and to explain and amend an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, 'An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase in the Manner therein stated, the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax for one Year, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight'; and by another Act, passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for enlarging the Time limited by certain Acts passed for the Redemption of the Land Tax, and for explaining and amending the same; to apply their Funds therein-mentioned for the Redemption or Purchase of Land Tax charged upon the Lands, Tithes, or other Profits, arising from any Living or Livings belonging to the Church

Church of England, which ſhould have been contracted for on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, to carry into Execution all and every the ſaid Powers for the Redemption or Purchaſe of ſuch Land Tax, which ſhall have been or ſhall be contracted for by the Incumbent or Incumbents of any Living or Livings, in the Manner directed by the ſaid firſt mentioned Act, at any Time before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred and one; and the Transfer of Stock or Payment of Money for ſuch Redemption ſhall have Effect from the Quarter Day preceding ſuch Transfer or Payment; and all other Acts, Matters, and Things, which the ſaid Truſtees might fully have done under and by virtue of the ſaid Acts, or either of them, ſhall be as valid and effectual to exonerate and diſcharge the Lands, Tithes, and other Profits of ſuch Living or Livings from the Payment of the Land Tax redeemed, as if ſuch Land Tax had been contracted for on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred; and all Contracts made before the paſſing of this Act ſhall be valid and effectual, for the Purpoſes in the ſaid Act mentioned, notwithſtanding any Limitations of Time therein contained.

Governors of the Charity for the Relief of the Widows and Children of Clergymen, may, under the Authority of two Commiſſioners appointed by 39 Geo 3. c 21. ſell Lands given by Will, and purchaſe the Land Tax on any Lands veſted in them.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Governors of the Charity for the Relief of the poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, under the Direction and Authority of any two or more of the Commiſſioners appointed by the ſaid Act paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual two Acts paſſed in the thirty-eighth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign and the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, for the Redemption and Purchaſe of the Land Tax, to ſell and diſpoſe of any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, given to them by any Will, either generally in Truſt for the Relief of ſuch poor Widows or Children as aforeſaid, or ſubject to any Qualifications or Reſtrictions as to the Mode of applying ſuch Relief, in the Extent of the Allowance to be made to Individuals, and to apply the Money ariſing by ſuch Sale or Sales for the Purpoſe of purchaſing or redeeming Land Tax charged on any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, veſted in ſuch Governors, for the Purpoſes of their Charity.

Where the Land Tax on the Glebe, &c. of any Living in the Patronage of any College, &c. at Oxford or Cambridge, or the Colleges of Eaton or Winchester, ſhall not have been purchaſed by the Incumbent, the Corporations may purchaſe it as Perſons entitled in Remainder, and may ſell Lands or grant Rent Charges for that Purpoſe; but the College, &c. ſhall be entitled to a Rent Charge out of the Living, equivalent to the Amount, unleſs on the nominating an Incumbent, it ſhall be declared in Writing, that the Rent Charge ſhall be ſuſpended during his Incumbency.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That where the Land Tax charged upon the Glebe Lands, Tithes, or other Profits of any Living or Livings in the Patronage of any College, Cathedral Church, Hall, or Houſe of Learning in either of the Univerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or in the Patronage of either of the Colleges of Eaton or Wincheſter, or of any Truſtee or Truſtees for any ſuch College, Cathedral Church, Hall, or Houſe of Learning as aforeſaid, ſhall not have been redeemed or purchaſed by the Incumbent of ſuch Living or Livings, it ſhall be lawful for the Corporations of ſuch Colleges, Cathedral Churches, Halls, or Houſes of Learning reſpectively, to purchaſe or redeem the ſame on the ſame Terms as Perſons intitled in Remainder to ſuch Glebe Lands, Tithes, or other Profits would be capable of ſo doing, and to provide for ſuch Purchaſe or Redemption by a Sale of any Lands or Tenements belonging to ſuch Corporations reſpectively, or by the Grant of any Rent Charge, which they could or might lawfully make for the Redemption or Purchaſe of any Land Tax charged on their own Lands, and the Land Tax ſo redeemed ſhall be forthwith extinguiſhed; but ſuch College, Cathedral Church, Hall, or Houſe of Learning reſpectively ſhall nevertheleſs be entitled to an annual Rent Charge iſſuing out of ſuch Living, equivalent to the Amount of ſuch Land Tax, which ſhall be recoverable by Action, Suit, Diſtreſs, or any other Means, by which Rents reſerved by Leaſes are recoverable at Law, unleſs it ſhall be declared in Writing, under the Common Seal of the Body or Bodies having ſuch Right of Patronage or Nomination, at the Time of preſenting or nominating any Clerk or Clerks to ſuch Living or Livings, that ſuch Rent Charge ſhall be ſuſpended during his or their Incumbency or reſpective Incumbencies; which Declaration the Body or Bodies entitled to nominate to ſuch Living or Livings ſhall from Time to Time be competent to make; and ſuch Suſpenſion ſhall be without Prejudice to the Right of the ſaid Body or Bodies to recover the ſame after the next or any future Avoidance: Provided always, That any Declaration made by ſuch laſt mentioned Bodies, or any of them, at the Time of redeeming the ſaid Land Tax, ſhall be as available during the Incumbency of the then Rector, Vicar, or Curate, as if it had been made at the Time of his being preferred to ſuch Living.

Patrons redeeming Land Tax on Livings ſhall have the like Remedies for Recovery of the Amount as Landlords have for Rent.

IX. And be it further enacted, That where any Land Tax, charged upon any Rectory, Vicarage, or other Living, ſhall have been or ſhall hereafter be redeemed by the Patron or Patrons thereof, and ſuch Rectory, Vicarage, or other Living, ſhall thereby have been or ſhall be exonerated from ſuch Land Tax, then and in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Patron or Patrons, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, from Time to Time to uſe the ſame Powers and Remedies for the Recovery of the Amount of ſuch Land Tax as Landlords can or may uſe for the Recovery of Rents in arrear.

When the Purchaſe of any Reverſion of Land, holden by Leaſe, ſhall be made by Perſons entitled to the Benefit of any ſubſiſting Leaſe, the immediate Intereſts, as

X. 'And whereas by the ſaid Act, paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, it is enacted, 'That upon the Purchaſe as therein mentioned, of the Reverſion of any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, holden by any Leaſe as therein mentioned by or with the proper Monies of the 'Perſon or Perſons for the Time being beneficially entitled to the Rents and Profits thereof, ſuch Reverſion 'ſhall be ſettled under the Direction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſo as and in ſuch Manner as that the Amount 'of the Money paid for the Purchaſe thereof, with lawful Intereſt, may be a Charge on ſuch Reverſion for 'the Benefit of the Perſon or Perſons advancing the ſame, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and 'Aſſigns, and that ſubject thereto the Fee-Simple of ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and He'reditaments, ſhall be ſettled for the Benefit of the Perſon or Perſons ſo purchaſing the ſame, and of ſuch other well as the Reverſion, ſhall be chargeable with the Money advanced, and Intereſt, &c. [See 39 Geo. 3. c. 108, § 8.]

'Perſon or Perſons as would have been entitled to the Benefit of any renewed Leaſe, as in the ſaid Act 'mentioned: And whereas no Power is thereby given to charge the ſubſiſting Eſtates in ſuch Manors, 'Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, with the Money to be advanced for ſuch Purchaſe, or to make 'any ſuch Charge, except where the Monies advanced are the proper Monies of the Perſon or Perſons be-'neficially entitled to the Rents and Profits thereof:' Be it enacted, That when any ſuch Purchaſe of any ſuch Reverſion ſhall be made by or on the Behalf of the Perſons entitled to the Benefit of any ſubſiſting Leaſe or Leaſes, the immediate Eſtates and Intereſts, as well as the Reverſion expectant thereon, ſhall be charged with and made ſubject to the Re-payment of the Principal Money to be advanced for the Purchaſe of ſuch Reverſion, with Intereſt for the ſame, as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall direct: Provided always, That the Perſons entitled ſucceſſively to the Rents and Profits of ſuch Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments reſpectively, ſhall be made chargeable with the Intereſt accrued during his or her Eſtate therein, and that no greater Arrear than for one Year ſhall be recoverable againſt any Perſon who ſhall become entitled in Remainder, for Intereſt accrued during the Eſtate or Term of any Perſon or Perſons entitled to any preceding Eſtate or Intereſt in the Premiſes.

Perſons entitled to the Rents chargeable with Intereſt, and only one Year's Arrear of Intereſt to be recoverable againſt the Remainder Man.

Reverſioners may ſell the Fee-Simple of Lands, ſubject to the ſubſiſting Intereſts, to raiſe Money for the Redemption of the Land Tax thereon, and on any other Lands limited to the ſame Uſes.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for all and every Perſon or Perſons, who is or are or ſhall, for the Time being, be entitled to the immediate Reverſion or Remainder, to any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which ſhall have been granted by any former Owner or Owners for any beneficial Leaſe or Leaſes, or by any Copy or Copies of Court Roll, or by any other Grant, according to the Cuſtom of any Manor, for Life or Lives, or Years abſolute, or Years determinable upon any Life or Lives, to ſell and diſpoſe of the Fee-Simple and Inheritance of any ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, ſubject to the ſubſiſting Intereſts of ſuch reſpective Leſſees, Copyholders, or other Cuſtomary Tenants, for the Purpoſe of raiſing Money for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged thereon, and alſo on any other Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and whether in the ſame or different Counties, the Reverſion, Fee-Simple, and Inheritance whereof ſhall be ſettled and limited to the ſame Uſes, and in the ſame Order and Courſe of Limitation, in like Manner, and under the like Reſtrictions, as he, ſhe, or they could or might have done in caſe ſuch ſubſiſting Leaſehold and Copyhold Eſtates and Intereſt, had been granted by him, her, or them.

Where an Option ſhall have been declared to conſider the Contractor for the Land Tax on the ſame Footing as a Perſon not intereſted in the Lands; [See 38 Geo. 3. § 17. 37. 72. 77, &c.] Such Contractor may, within three Months after March 25, 1800, apply to the Commiſſioners, who may contract with him for exonerating the Land from the Tax, and may amend Contracts, or enter into new Ones.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes where, in any Contract for the Redemption of any Land Tax, an Option ſhall have been declared to conſider the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies contracting for ſuch Land Tax, on the ſame Footing as a Perſon not intereſted in the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments comprized in ſuch Contract, by reaſon whereof the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments remain chargeable to Land Tax, and the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, who ſhall have entered into ſuch Contract, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Aſſigns, or Succeſſors, ſhall be deſirous of exonerating the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments comprized in ſuch Contract from Land Tax, it ſhall be lawful for him, her, or them, at any Time within the Space of three Calendar Months after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, to make Application for that Purpoſe to the Commiſſioners ſpecially appointed for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, for the County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, Town, or Place, where ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, ſhall be ſituate; and on every ſuch Application, and on the Production of a Certificate of the Amount of Land Tax then charged on ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and of the Contract for the Redemption of ſuch Land Tax, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, it ſhall be lawful for them, or any two or more of them, to contract with ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, and Companies, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Aſſigns, or Succeſſors, for exonerating their ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments from Land Tax; and in every ſuch Caſe where it ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate and Contract, that no Variation has taken place in the mean Time in the Amount of ſuch Land Tax, to amend, or cauſe to be amended, any ſuch Contract, by ſtriking out all ſuch Parts thereof as relate to the Declaration of ſuch Option therein, and to certify their having ſo done, under their reſpective Hands and Seals, on the Back of ſuch Contract; which Contract, with ſuch Indorſement, being afterwards regiſtered in the Manner and within the Time directed by the ſaid Acts, in Caſes of entering into Contracts, the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments comprized therein, ſhall be wholly exonerated from Land Tax from the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred; and in every ſuch Caſe where it ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate of the Amount of Land Tax, and Contract for Redemption thereof reſpectively, that the Amount of Land Tax then charged upon the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments comprized therein, is either more or leſs than the Amount of Land Tax redeemed in ſuch Contract, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Commiſſioners, or any two of them, to reſcind ſuch Contract, and to enter into a new Contract for the Redemption of the Land Tax which ſhall be then charged upon the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to take place from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, without any Declaration of an Option being inſerted therein; and on the Back of ſuch new Contract to inſert a true Copy of any Receipt or Receipts indorſed on the original Contract, purporting to be given by any Caſhier or Caſhiers of the Bank of England, or by any Receiver or Receivers General of Land Tax, for the Conſideration, or any Part thereof, to be paid or transferred, and actually paid and transferred on ſuch original Contract; provided that no ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments ſhall be exonerated in any Caſe where any ſuch Land Tax ſhall have been encreaſed, unleſs the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, ſo applying

No ſuch Lands ſhall be exonerated where the Land Tax has plying as aforeſaid, ſhall contract to transfer, and ſhall, at the Time to be mentioned in ſuch Contract, accordingly transfer, at the Bank of England, ſo much three Pounds per Centum Conſolidated Bank Annuities, or pay to the Receiver General of the County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, Borough, Town, or Place, where the ſame ſhall be ſituate, ſo much Money as the Caſe may require, in addition to the Amount of Money that ſhall have been already paid, or of Stock already transferred in reſpect of ſuch Land Tax, as ſhall be neceſſary to redeem the Whole of the Land Tax contracted for in and by ſuch new Contract: Provided alſo, That in every ſuch Caſe where the Land Tax contracted for as aforeſaid ſhall have been in the mean Time decreaſed, and a new Contract ſhall be entered into for the Redemption of the Land Tax then charged as aforeſaid, in purſuance of this Act, the Commiſſioners who ſhall enter into ſuch laſt mentioned Contract ſhall certify, in Writing, ſigned by two or more of them to the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, the ſeveral Amounts of the Stock, or Money contracted, to be transferred or paid by, and actually transferred or paid in purſuance of the original and new Contracts reſpectively, and it ſhall thereupon be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes to order and direct the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Receiver or Receivers General of Land Tax of the County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, or Place, where ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments ſhall be ſituate reſpectively, in Caſes where more or a greater Conſideration has been transferred or paid on the original Contract than the Conſideration inſerted in the new Contract, to repay all ſuch Monies to the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, who ſhall appear to be entitled unto the ſame, as ſhall be due and payable in reſpect of ſuch Difference in the Conſiderations of Land Tax, if ſuch Monies ſhall not have been veſted in Stock, and in Caſes where ſuch Stock hath been purchaſed and placed in the Name of the Commiſſioners for the Reducton of the National Debt, then upon a Certificate, ſigned by any three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, of the Amount of Stock transferred upon the original Contract, and the Amount required to be transferred upon the new Contract, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or any one or more of them, and he and they is and are hereby required to transfer the Difference between ſuch Amounts of Stock ſo certified, to the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Corporate or Companies, entitled unto the ſame; which new Contracts being regiſtered in the Manner and within the Time directed by the ſaid Acts, the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments comprized therein, ſhall be wholly exonerated from Land Tax from the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred.

been encreaſed, unleſs the Party ſhall contract to transfer ſo much additional Three per Cents. or pay to the Receiver General of the Place ſuch additional Sums as ſhall be neceſſary; and where the Land Tax has been decreaſed, and a new Contract ſhall be entered into, the Commiſſioners ſhall certify the Amount of the Stock transferred, or Money paid, to the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, who ſhall order the Difference to be ſettled.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That any Deed or Deeds required by the ſaid Acts, or any of them, ſhall be valid and effectual, although the ſame ſhall not have been inrolled or regiſtered within ſix Calendar Months from the Time of the Execution thereof, provided the ſame ſhall be inrolled or regiſtered within ſix Months after the paſſing of this Act.

Deeds ſhall be valid if inrolled within ſix Months after paſſing this Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all and ſingular the Proviſions in this Act ſhall, in the Execution of the above mentioned Acts, be uſed, applied, and continued, as if the ſame Proviſions were ſpecifically enacted in the ſaid Acts; and all and every the Proviſions of the ſaid Acts in the Execution of this Act (except where the ſame are hereby expreſsly varied) ſhall be uſed, extended and conſtrued, in like Manner as if the ſame Proviſions (except as aforeſaid) were ſpecially enacted in this Act.

This Act, and recited Acts, to be conſtrued together as one Act.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act for indemnifying Perſons ſerving in Volunteer Corps, who have omitted to take out Certificates for wearing Hair Powder; and to amend ſo much of an Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majaſty, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty a Duty on Certificates iſſued for uſing Hair Powder, as relates to the exempting Perſons ſerving in Volunteer Corps, and certain Officers in his Maj ſty's Navy ſerving on the Eſtabliſhment of the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, from the ſaid Duty; and for obliging Perſons claiming to be exempt from the Duties on Horſes provided and furniſhed for Volunteer Corps to deliver Certificates thereof to the proper Officers.

[24th April 1800.]

35 Geo. 3. c. 49.

34 Geo. 3. c. 31.

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty a Duty on Certificates iſſued for uſing Hair Powder; it was amongſt other Things enacted, That nothing in the ſaid Act contained ſhould extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge with the Duty thereby impoſed any Officer or Private Man in any Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteers, either Cavalry or Infantry, raiſed by virtue of an Act paſſed in the thirty-fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for encouraging and diſciplining ſuch Corps or Companies of Men, as ſhall voluntarily inroll themſelves for the Defence of their Counties, Towns, or Coaſts, or for the General Defence of the Kingdom, during the preſent War: And whereas Doubts have ariſen on the ſaid firſt recited Act with reſpect to many Officers and Private Men in ſuch Corps as to ſuch Exemption: And whereas many Officers and Private Men in ſuch Corps uſing Hair Powder, have, through Ignorance, and conceiving themſelves to be exempt from the ſaid Duty, omitted to make ſuch Entries and obtain ſuch Certificates as are required by the ſaid firſt recited Act, whereby they are or may become liable to the Penalty contained therein; for Remedy whereof, May it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Perſon inrolled and ſerving in any Volunteer Corps, or in any Corps or Body of Men aſſociated for the Defence of any City, Town, or Place, and for maintaining publick Tranquillity and good Order within the ſame, whether of Cavalry or Infantry, and uſing Hair Powder, who ſhall have omitted to obtain a Certificate for that Purpoſe, as required by the ſaid recited Act of the thirty-fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, ſhall be, and is hereby indemnified, freed, and diſcharged, from and againſt all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred, or to be incurred, for or by reaſon of having uſed or worn Hair Powder, or for or by reaſon of wearing or uſing Hair Powder, until and upon the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred, without having obtained a Certificate for that Purpoſe, in purſuance of and according to the Directions of the ſaid firſt-recited Act.

Perſons inrolled and ſerving in any Volunteer Corps, indemnified for uſing Hair Powder without a Certificate, until April 5, 1800,

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to indemnify any Perſon againſt whom any final Judgment or Sentence ſhall have been given in any Action, Bill, Plaint or Information, or by any Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace, before the firſt Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, for any Penalty or Forfeiture for any ſuch Omiſſion or Neglect as aforeſaid.

except where Judgment ſhall have been given before March 1, 1800.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred, nothing in the ſaid recited Act of the thirty-fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge with the Duty thereby impoſed, any Perſon inrolled or to be inrolled, and actually ſerving in any Volunteer Corps, or in any Corps or Body of Men aſſociated for the Defence of any City, Town, or Place, and for maintaining Publick Tranquillity and good Order within the ſame, whether of Infantry or Cavalry, which now are or ſhall hereafter be raiſed; provided that ſuch Corps or Body of Men ſhall be within the Proviſions of an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for exempting, during the preſent War, Perſons ſerving in Volunteer Corps and Aſſociations from being balloted for the Militia, under certain Conditions; and that the Commanding Officer of ſuch Corps or Body of Men, and the Perſon claiming to be diſcharged of and from the ſaid Duty upon Hair Powder Certificates in purſuance of this Act, ſhall have reſpectively complied with and conformed to the ſeveral Proviſions and Regulations contained in the ſaid Act of the

After April 5, 1800, ſuch Perſons ſhall not be charged with the Duty if the Corps to which they belong be within the Proviſions of 39 Geo. 3. c. 35, and if they comply with the Regulations therein required to entitle them to be exempted from ſerving in the Militia.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Perſon claiming to be exempt by virtue of this Act, of and from the ſaid Duty upon Hair Powder Certificates, ſhall, in lieu and inſtead of delivering, or cauſing to be delivered, an Account of his Name and Place of Abode in the Manner required by the ſaid Act of the thirty-fifth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, deliver or cauſe to be delivered a Certificate in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (A), in like Manner in every Reſpect as is required with reſpect to the making of the Entries required to be made in purſuance of the ſaid Act; and the proper Officer appointed to iſſue Certificates under the ſaid laſt recited Act ſhall thereupon iſſue a Receipt for ſuch Certificate made out in the Name of ſuch Officer, which Receipt ſhall be in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (B).

Perſons claiming Exemption from Duty ſhall deliver a Certificate in the Form annexed marked (A), and a Receipt from the proper Officer agreeably to Form (B) ſhall be iſſued.

V. 'And whereas Doubts have ariſen whether Officers holding Commiſſions in his Majeſty's Navy under the Rank of Commander, employed on the Eſtabliſhment of the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich, are 'exempt from the Duty granted by the ſaid recited Act:' Be it therefore enacted, That nothing in the ſaid Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge with the Duty by the ſaid recited Act impoſed, any Officer holding a Commiſſion in his Majeſty's Navy under the Rank of Commander, who ſhall be employed on the Eſtabliſhment of the Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich.

Officers under the Rank of Commander employed on the Eſtabliſhment of Greenwich Hoſpital exempted from the Duty.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the fifth Day of April one thouſand eight hundred, every Perſon ſerving in any Volunteer Corps of Cavalry, and who ſhall uſe any Horſe, Mare, or Gelding for ſuch Service, and every Perſon furniſhing any Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, for any Perſons ſerving in any ſuch Corps as aforeſaid, who ſhall reſpectively claim to be exempt from the Payment of the Duties granted by an Act, paſſed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties upon Male Servants, Carriages, Horſes, Mules, and Dogs, and for granting to his Majeſty other Duties in lieu thereof, in reſpect of any ſuch Horſe, ſhall, between the fifth Day of April and the thirtieth Day of May in every Year, deliver or cauſe to be delivered by every Perſon for whom any ſuch Horſe ſhall be furniſhed as aforeſaid, a Certificate in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (A), at one of the reſpective Offices in the ſaid laſt recited Act mentioned, or to the Surveyor, Inſpector, or other Perſon appointed by the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes to receive Liſts under the ſaid recited Act as the ſame may require; and every ſuch Perſon, upon the Delivery of ſuch Certificate, ſhall be entitled to receive, and ſhall receive from the Surveyor, Inſpector, or other Perſon aforeſaid, to whom ſuch Certificate ſhall be delivered in purſuance of this Act, a Receipt in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed marked (B); and every perſon claiming to be exempt from the ſaid Duty ſhall be charged and chargeable to the Duties by the ſaid recited Act granted for every Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, ſo uſed or furniſhed as aforeſaid, in reſpect whereof ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid ſhall not have been delivered purſuant to the Proviſions of this Act; any Thing in any Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Perſons ſerving in any Volunteer Corps of Cavalry, and thoſe furniſhing Horſes for that purpoſe, ſhall, to entitle them to the Exemption from the Duty on ſuch Horſes under 38 Geo. 3. c. 41. deliver yearly, between April 5 and May 30, a Certificate in the Form annexed marked (A) to the Officer appointed to receive Liſts under recited Act, who ſhall give a Receipt in the Form marked (B).

An Act for granting a Bounty on the Importation of Oats, until the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred. [1ſt May 1800.]

[See c. 29. for Bounties on Wheat, Flour, and Rice, and c. 53. on Rye.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Encouragement ſhould be given for a limited Time, to the Importation of Oats into this Kingdom:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, for Oats imported or brought into this Kingdom in Britiſh Ships or Veſſels, or in Ships or Veſſels belonging to Perſons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majeſty, however the ſame may be navigated, there ſhall be paid and allowed the following Bounty; (that is to ſay), whenever the average Price of Oats, aſcertained and publiſhed in the London Gazette, under the Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament, ſhall be leſs than forty Shillings per Quarter, there ſhall be paid and allowed on every Quarter of Oats, (each Wincheſter Buſhel whereof ſhall weigh thirty-ſix Pounds Avoirdupois or upwards,) a Bounty equal to the Difference between ſuch average Price and forty Shillings per Quarter, and which ſhall be imported or brought into Great Britain before the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred, from any Port of Europe, or any Port in the Mediterranean, or in Africa, or from any of his Majeſty's Colonies in America, or the United States.

A Bounty granted on Oats imported before Oct. 1, 1800.

II. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Bounty ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, and ſhall be paid out of any Monies in their Hands, ariſing by any of the Duties or Revenues under their Management reſpectively, to the reſpective Importers or Conſignees of ſuch Oats: Provided always, That a due Entry ſhall be made with the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms, at the Port into which the ſame ſhall be imported: Provided alſo, That the Collector or other proper Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port where ſuch Oats ſhall be imported, do receive full and ſatisfactory Proof, that the ſaid Oats, for which the Bounty herein allowed is claimed, are wholly and entirely without Mixture of any other Corn or Grain, or of Grain the Growth of any other Country than in reſpect whereof the ſaid Bounty is claimed, and that in Default thereof, the ſaid Bounties ſhall not nor ſhall any of them be allowed or paid.

Bounty to be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms.

Entry to be made at the Port of Importation, and Proof given that the Oats are free from Mixture.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Bounty granted by this Act ſhall not be paid, allowed, or received, unleſs the Oats ſhall be imported or brought reſpectively into ſome one or other of his Majeſty's Ports, (that is to ſay,) the Ports of London, Aberyſtwith, Barnſtaple, Beaumaris, Berwick, Biddeford, Boſton, Bridgewater, Bridport, Briſtol, Cardiff, Caraigan, Carliſle, Carnarvon, Cheſter, Chicheſter, Colcheſter, Cowes, Dartmouth, Dover, Exeter, Falmouth, Fowey, Harwich, Hull, Ipſwich, Lancaſter, Liverpool, Lyme, Lynn, Malden, Milford, Newcaſtle, Newhaven, Penzance, Plymouth, Poole, Portſmouth, Preſton, Rocheſter, Sandwich, Scarborough, Shoreham, Southampton, Stockton, Sunderland, Swanſea, Wells, Weymouth, Whitehaven, Whitby, Wiſbeach, Yarmouth; Aberdeen, Ayr, Alloa, Borrowſtoneſs, Campbeltown, Dumfries, Dunbar, Port Dundas, Dundee, Grangemouth, Glaſgow, including Port Glaſgow, Greenock, Kirkcaldy, Kirkcudbright, Leith, Lerwick, Montroſe, Perth, and Wigton.

No Bounty to be allowed unleſs the Oats are imported at certain Places.

IV. And be it further enacted, That before any of the ſaid Oats, imported or brought into this Kingdom for Bounty under the Regulations of this Act, ſhall be delivered out of the Charge of the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms of the Port where the ſame ſhall be reſpectively ſo imported or brought, ſuch Oats ſhall be carefully and attentively inſpected or examined by ſuch Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms as the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively ſhall think fit to direct for that Duty, and two indifferent and diſintereſted Perſons experienced in the Nature of the Article to be ſo inſpected or examined; which two indifferent and diſintereſted Perſons ſhall be choſen by the principal Officers of the Cuſtoms at ſuch Port, or any two of them, whereof the Collector for the Time being ſhall be one; which ſaid Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms ſo directed by the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms reſpectively, and the ſaid two indifferent and diſintereſted Perſons ſo choſen as aforeſaid to inſpect and examine the ſaid Oats, ſhall, upon having reviewed the ſame, certify and declare upon their corporal Oaths, firſt adminiſtered by the ſaid principal Officers, or any two of them, whereof the Collector ſhall be one, (who are hereby

An Act to enable Courts of Equity to compel a Transfer of Stock in Suits, without making the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas or other Parts of America, Party thereto. [1ſt May 1800.]

' WHEREAS great Expence ariſes in Suits in Courts of Equity, from the Practice of making the Governor and Company of the Bank of England Parties thereto, for the mere Purpoſe of compelling or authorizing the ſaid Corporation to ſuffer any Transfer of Stock ſtanding in their Books to be made which Juſtice may require:' Be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall be lawful for any of his Majeſty's Courts of Equity, before or upon hearing any Cauſe depending therein, to order the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to ſuffer a Transfer of Stock ſtanding in their Books to be made, or to pay any accrued or accruing Dividends thereon, belonging to or ſtanding in the Names of any Party to a Suit, as ſuch Courts may deem juſt; or to iſſue an Injunction to reſtrain them from ſuffering any Transfer of ſuch Stock, or from paying any Dividends or Intereſt accruing or accrued thereon, although ſuch Governor and Company are not Parties to the Suit in which ſuch Decree or Order ſhall be made; ſuch Courts being ſatisfied by the Certificate of the Accountant of the ſaid Corporation, duly ſigned by him as hereinafter is directed, that the Stock required to be transferred is ſtanding in their Books in the Name of the Perſons or Perſon required to transfer the ſame, or of the Perſons or Perſon to whom they or he are or is the legal Repreſentative; and that after due Service of a ſhort Order upon the ſaid Governor and Company, or their proper Officer, which ſhall contain no Recital of their Pleadings, or other Matter than the Title of the Cauſe, and the ordering Part of ſuch Decree or Order which reſpects the ſaid Governor and Company, and for which the Sum of eighteen Shillings, and no more, ſhall be paid, like Proceſs ſhall iſſue to enforce ſuch Order or Decree as to enforce them againſt any Party to a Suit depending in ſuch Court.

Any Court of Equity may order the Bank of England to ſuffer a Transfer of Stock to be made, or to pay Dividends belonging to or ſtanding in the Names of any Party to a a Suit, or iſſue an Injunction to reſtrain ſuch Transfer or Payment, although the Bank be not a Party, &c.

II. ' And for the better enabling any Party to a Suit to obtain and produce ſuch Certificate in Court,' be it enacted, That upon Requeſt in Writing ſigned by the Clerk in Court (or other Officer anſwering thereto) and the Solicitor concerned in the Cauſe for the Party applying, which ſhall ſtate the Cauſe, and for what Parties they are concerned, the Governor and Company of the Bank of England ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered, to the ſaid Clerk in Court or other Officer and Solicitor, or one of them, a Certificate ſigned by their Accountant, ſtating the Amount of ſuch Stock or Dividends, and in whoſe Names or Name ſuch Stock is ſtanding in their Books, and if it be particularly required (but not otherwiſe) when ſuch Stock or any Part thereof was transferred, and by whom; for the ſigning of which Requeſt in Writing, there ſhall be paid to ſuch Clerk in Court, or other Officer, a Fee of ſix Shillings and eight Pence, and no more, and to ſuch Solicitor, for the drawing, copying, and delivering at the Bank a Fee of thirteen Shillings and four Pence, and no more, and to the Officer making and delivering ſuch Certificate, a Fee of Two Shillings and ſixpence, and no more: Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend to any Caſe where any further Diſcovery is wanted than what is herein-before expreſsly mentioned, nor to any Caſe where the ſaid Governor and Company claim any Intereſt in or Lien upon the ſaid Fund, but that in ſuch Caſes it ſhall be neceſſary to make them a Party to ſuch Suit as if this Act had never been made; and that if any Special Matter ſhall ariſe, which, in the Opinion of the ſaid Governor and Company, ſhall affect their Intereſts, or which might be objected againſt ſuffering ſuch Transfer of Stock or Payment of Dividends, it ſhall be lawful for them to ſtate ſuch Matter to the Court by Motion or Petition in ſuch Suit, and that Execution of Proceſs to compel ſuch Transfer or Payment, ſhall be ſuſpended until final Order ſhall be made thereon.

On Requeſt of the Clerk in Court and Solicitor of the Party, the Bank ſhall deliver a Certificate ſtating the Amount of ſuch Stock or Dividends, &c. for which the Fees herein ſpecified ſhall be paid.

Act not to extend to any further Diſcovery than herein mentioned; nor to any Caſe where the Bank claim an Intereſt in the Fund; and the Bank may ſtate their Objections to any Transfer by Motion or Petition.

III. And be it further enacted, That in all Suits now depending, in which the ſaid Governor and Company may have put in their Anſwer, not claiming any Intereſt in or Lien upon the Stock required to be transferred, no further Proceeding ſhall be had againſt them as a Party to ſuch Suits, but that the Bill ſhall ſtand

In Suits now depending where the Bank have put in their ſtand diſmiſſed as againſt them in ſuch Suits; and that in all ſuch Suits an Order may be made, upon Motion or Petition as of courſe, for the taxing of their Coſts already incurred, and for immediate Payment thereof by the Plaintiffs in any ſuch Suits, or any of them, ſubject however to any further Order as between the other Parties to ſuch Suits, reſpecting the final Payment of ſuch Coſts, as by the Court in which any Suit may be depending ſhall be deemed juſt.

Anſwer, not claiming any Intereſt in the Stock required to be transferred, Proceedings ſhall be ſtopped and the Bill diſmiſſed, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the ſeveral Regulations and Proviſions herein-before enacted, ſhall extend, mutatis mutandis, to every Caſe where the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas or other Parts of America, have any Stock ſtanding in the Books of ſuch reſpective Corporations, which may now be or hereafter may become the Subject of any Suit in Equity, or incidental thereto; ſaving to the ſaid Corporations reſpectively the like Right of being made a Party, or applying by Motion or Petition, in ſuch Suits as is before reſerved or given to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England.

The Proviſions aforeſaid ſhall extend to the East India Company and the South Sea Company, where they have Stock ſtanding in their Books, which may become the Subject of a Suit in Equity.

An Act for repealing ſo much of an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported from the East Indies to be warehouſed, and for repealing the Duties now payable thereon, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof; as relates to Saltpetre. [16th May 1800.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported from the East Indies to be warehouſed, and for repealing the Duties now payable thereon, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, Proviſion is made for Warehouſing any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, except Tea, Cotton, Wool, Nutmegs, Mace, Cloves, and Cinnamon, and Bullion, Diamonds, and other precious Stones, upon Importation and Landing thereof, by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, in Manner therein mentioned, and upon Payment of the new and additional Duties of Cuſtoms in the ſaid Act mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that Saltpetre ſhould be exempted from the Operation of the ſaid recited Act, and from the Duty thereby impoſed thereon;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid recited Act, ſo far as it relates to Saltpetre, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed; and that the Duty thereby impoſed on Saltpetre ſhall ceaſe and determine; and that, from and after the paſſing of this Act, all Saltpetre, which ſhall remain, or be unſold, in the Warehouſes of the ſaid United Company, and all Saltpetre hereafter imported by the ſaid United Company, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the ſame Rules, Regulations, and Proviſions, and charged and chargeable with the ſame Duties as were in force immediately before the paſſing of the ſaid recited Act; the ſaid Act, or any Thing therein contained, to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

39 Geo. 3. c. 59.

Recited Act, ſo far as reſpects Saltpetre repealed; and ſuch Saltpetre as remains in the East India Company's Warehouſes, and all hereafter imported ſhall be charged with the Duties payable previous to recited Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That immediately after the paſſing of this Act, the Duty or Duties which before the paſſing of the ſaid recited Act would have been payable on any Saltpetre which ſhall remain, or be unſold, in the Warehouſes of the ſaid United Company, on the Importation, ſhall be paid or ſecured by the ſaid United Company, in like Manner as if the ſame Saltpetre had been then imported by them.

Duty on Saltpetre in Warehouſes ſhall be paid or ſecured as if then imported.

Rates of Subsistence payable by c. 36. of last Session, to be payable until Commencement of this Act.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Rates of Subsistence directed to be paid to Inn-keepers and others, on quartering Soldiers by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, shall be payable until the Commencement of this Act.

Continuance of Act; from the passing thereof till March 25, 1801.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take place from the Day of the passing thereof, and be in force until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand eight hundred and one; and that this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XL.

An Act to enlarge the Powers of the Directors and Guardians of the Poor within the several Hundreds, Towns, and Districts, in that Part of Great Britain called England, incorporated by divers Acts of Parliament, for the Purpose of the better Maintenance and Employment of the Poor, as to the Assessments to be made upon the several Parishes, Hamlets, and Places therein mentioned, until the first Day of January one thou-thousand eight hundred and two. [16th May 1800.]

36 Geo. 3. c. 10.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Better Relief of the Poor within the several Hundreds, Towns, and Districts in that Part of Great Britain called England, incorporated by divers Acts of Parliament for the Purpose of the better Maintenance and Employment of the Poor; and for enlarging the Power of the Guardians of the Poor, within the said several Hundreds, Towns, and Districts, as to the Assessments to be made upon the several Parishes, Hamlets, and Places within their respective Hundreds, Towns, and Districts, for the Support and Maintenance of the Poor, Powers were given to the Directors and acting Guardians of the Poor, incorporated by Acts of Parliament, in certain Cases, to make such Assessments as might be necessary for the Support and Maintenance of the Poor, notwithstanding they might exceed the Assessments limited by the respective Acts; and it was by the said recited Act provided, that, from and after the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Sums to be assessed by virtue thereof on any Parish, Hamlet, or Place, should never exceed, in any one Year, the Amount of double the Sum at that Time raised by virtue of any incorporating Act then existing: And whereas, on account of the Scarcity of Corn, in consequence of the late unfavourable Harvest, and the advanced Price of almost every necessary Article of Subsistence or Utility, the Amount of the Rates and Assessments, so limited by the said recited Act to be collected, are become insufficient for the necessary Relief and Maintenance of such Poor, who have of late very much increased in Number; and it is expedient that so much of the said recited Act as directs such Limitation should be repealed,' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said recited Act as directs that, from and after the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Sums to be assessed on any Parish, Hamlet, or Place, should never exceed, in any one Year, the Amount of double the Sum at that Time raised by virtue of any incorporating Act then existing, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

So much of the recited Act as directs that, after Jan. 1, 1798, the Sums to be assessed on any Place should not exceed the Amount of double the Sum at that Time raised, shall be repealed.

Instead of the Assessments directed to be made under recited Act, according to an average Price of Wheat, the Directors and Guardians of the Poor may make those As-

II. 'And whereas by the said recited Act, the Directors and acting Guardians of the Poor, incorporated by Acts of Parliament as therein mentioned, were empowered, at any of their Annual, Quarterly, or other General Meetings, to make the said Assessments under the Limitation in the said Act mentioned, whenever the average Price of Wheat, at the Corn Market in Mark Lane, London, for the Quarter immediately preceding such Annual, Quarterly, or other General Meeting, should have exceeded the Average Price of Wheat at the said Market, during those Years from which the average Amount of the Poors' Rates was taken upon the passing of the several incorporating Acts respectively: And whereas it is proper that so much of the said recited Act as regulates the Average Price of Wheat in the Manner before mentioned should be repealed, and other Provisions made for that Purpose,' be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, the said Directors and acting Guardians of the Poor incorporated as aforesaid, shall be be empowered to make the ſaid Aſſeſſments, whenever the average Price of Wheat at the Corn Market in Mark Lane, London, ſhall exceed three Pounds per Quarter; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Aſſeſſments whenever the Price of Wheat at Mark Lane ſhall exceed 3l. per Quarter.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force until the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and two, and no longer.

Continuance of Act, Jan. 1, 1802.

CAP. XLI.

An Act for explaining and amending ſeveral Acts, made in the thirty-ſecond Year of King Henry the Eighth, and the firſt, thirteenth, and fourteenth Years of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, ſo far as reſpects Leaſes granted by Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Maſters and Fellows of Colleges, Deans and Chapters of Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, Maſters and Guardians of Hoſpitals, and others having any Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical Living or Promotion. [16th May 1800.]

'WHEREAS Doubts have ariſen whether Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Maſters and Fellows of Colleges, Deans and Chapters of Cathedral and Collegiate Churches, Maſters and Guardians of Hoſpitals, and others having any Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical Living or Promotion, who are by ſeveral Acts, paſſed in the Reigns of their late Majeſties King Henry the Eighth and Queen Elizabeth, reſtrained from granting any Leaſes of their Eſtates whereon the accuſtomed yearly Rent is not reſerved, can lawfully grant ſeparate Leaſes of Parts of Lands or Tenements which have been uſually demiſed by one Leaſe and under one Rent, reſerving on the ſeveral Parts ſo demiſed leſs than the Rent anciently reſerved on the Demiſe of the Whole, though the Aggregate Amount of the Rents ſo reſerved on ſuch ſeparate Demiſes ſhould be equal to or exceed the Amount of the annual accuſtomed Rent for the Whole: And whereas many ſuch ſeparate Leaſes have been granted, and great Inconvenience may ariſe to Perſons claiming under ſuch Leaſes, if ſuch Leaſes ſhould not be deemed valid and effectual, in caſe the Amount of the Rent anciently reſerved on Demiſes of the Whole ſhall appear to have been reſerved on the ſeparate Demiſes of the different Parts; and the Power of dividing Tenements, anciently ſo demiſed, in one Parcel at one Rent, may in many Caſes tend to improve the Value of the Eſtates belonging to ſuch Eccleſiaſtical Perſons and Bodies reſpectively, as well as to the Benefit of their Leſſees and the Publick;' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That in all Caſes where any Honours, Caſtles, Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tythes, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, being Parcel of the Poſſeſſions of any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Maſter and Fellows, Dean and Chapter, Maſter or Guardian of any Hoſpital, or any other Perſon or Perſons, or Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, having any Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical Living or Promotion, and having been anciently or accuſtomably demiſed by one Leaſe under one Rent, or divers Rents iſſuing out of the Whole, now are or ſhall hereafter be demiſed by ſeveral Leaſes to one or ſeveral Perſons under an apportioned or ſeveral Rents, or where a Part only of ſuch Honours, Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tythes, Tenements, or other Hereditaments as laſt mentioned, are or ſhall be demiſed by a ſeparate Leaſe or Leaſes, under a leſs Rent or leſs Rents than was or were accuſtomably reſerved for the Whole by ſuch former Leaſe, and the Reſidue thereof is or ſhall be retained in the Poſſeſſion or Occupation of the Leſſor or Leſſors, the ſeveral and diſtinct Rents reſerved on the ſeparate Demiſes of the ſeveral ſpecifick Parts thereof compriſed in and demiſed by ſuch ſeveral Leaſes, ſhall be deemed and taken to be the ancient and accuſtomed Rents for ſuch ſpecifick Parts reſpectively, within the Intent and Meaning of an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King Henry the Eighth, intituled, Leſſees to enjoy the Farm againſt the Tenants in Tail; and of an Act, paſſed in the firſt Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act giving Authority to the Queen's Majeſty, upon the Avoidance of any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, to take into her Hands certain of the Temporal Poſſeſſions thereof, recompenſing the ſame with Parſonages impropriate, and Tythes; and of another Act, paſſed in the thirteenth Year of the ſame Queen, intituled, Fraudulent Deeds made by Spiritual Perſons, to defeat their Succeſſors of Remedy for Dilapidations, ſhall be void, &c. and of another Act, paſſed in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of the ſame Queen, intituled, An Act for the Continuation, Explanation, perfecting, and enlarging of divers Statutes.

Where any Part of the Poſſeſſions of any Archbiſhop, &c. or Perſon having any Eccleſiaſtical Living, ſhall be demiſed by ſeveral Leaſes, which was formerly demiſed by one, or where a Part ſhall be demiſed for leſs than the ancient Rent, and the Reſidue ſhall be retained in the Poſſeſſion of the Leſſor, the ſeveral Rents reſerved on the ſeparate Demiſes of the ſpecifick Parts ſhall be taken to be the ancient Rents within the Meaning of 32 Hen. 8. c. 28. 1 Eliz. c. 19. 13 Eliz. c. 10. and 14 Eliz. c. 11.

II. Provided always, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend to confirm or render valid any Demiſe made before the paſſing of this Act, unleſs the ſeveral Rents reſerved upon the ſeparate Demiſes of ſeparate Parts of Tenements, theretofore accuſtomably demiſed under one entire Leaſe, ſhall be equal to or more than the Rent or Rents theretofore accuſtomably reſerved on the entire Demiſe of the Whole, or in caſe the Whole ſhould not be demiſed, but Part reſerved in the Poſſeſſion of the Leſſor or Leſſors, unleſs the Rents reſerved on the Parts demiſed ſhould be ſo far equal to or more than the whole Amount of the ancient Rent or Rents, that the Part not demiſed ſhould be ſufficient to anſwer the Difference.

Demiſe made before paſſing this Act not valid, unleſs the Rents reſerved be equal to or more than the Rents accuſtomably reſerved, &c.

III. Provided

Where the Whole of such Premiſes ſhall in future be demiſed in Parts, the aggregate Rents reſerved ſhall not be leſs than the old accuſtomed Rent, and ſo in Proportion where a Part ſhall be retained in Poſſeſſion by the Leſſor.

III. Provided alſo, That where the Whole of any ſuch Honours, Caſtles, Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tythes, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, accuſtomably demiſed by one Leaſe, ſhall be demiſed in Parts by ſeveral Leaſes, after the paſſing of this Act, the aggregate Amount of the ſeveral Rents which ſhall be reſerved by ſuch ſeparate Leaſes, be not leſs than the old accuſtomed Rent or Rents theretofore reſerved by ſuch entire Leaſe; and that where a Part only ſhall be ſo demiſed by any ſuch ſeparate Leaſe, and the Reſidue ſhall be retained in the Poſſeſſion of the Leſſor or Leſſors, the Rent or Rents to be reſerved by ſuch ſeparate Leaſe or Leaſes, ſhall not be leſs in Proportion to the Fine or Fines to be received on granting ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes, than the Rent or Rents accuſtomed to be reſerved for the Whole of the ſaid Premiſes, was in Proportion to the Fine received on granting the laſt entire Leaſe.

No greater Proportion of the accuſtomed Rent ſhall be reſerved by any ſeparate Leaſe than the Part of the Premiſes demiſed will bear.

IV. Provided alſo, That no greater Proportion of the accuſtomed Rent be reſerved by any ſeparate Leaſe hereby confirmed or allowed to be granted, than the Part of the Premiſes thereby ſeverally demiſed will reaſonably bear and afford a competent Security for.

Where any ſpecifick Thing ſhall have been reſerved by the Leſſor, it may be charged on a competent Part of the Premiſes, &c.

V. Provided alſo, That where any ſpecifick Thing, incapable of Diviſion or Apportionment ſhall have been reſerved or made payable to the Leſſor or Leſſors, his or their Heirs or Succeſſors, either by Way of Rent, or by any Covenant or Agreement contained in any ſuch entire Leaſe, the ſame may be wholly reſerved and made payable out of a competent Part of ſuch Lands or Tenements demiſed by any ſuch ſeveral Leaſe as aforeſaid; and in caſe, in any Leaſe already granted, and intended hereby to be confirmed, any ſuch Proviſion ſhall appear to have been made for the Payment and Delivery of any ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, Stipends, Augmentations, or other Things as aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall be deemed and taken to have been lawfully made, in caſe the Lands and Tenements charged therewith ſhall be of a greater annual Value than the Payment or other Things ſo charged, excluſive of the Rent or other annual Payment reſerved to the Leſſor or Leſſors.

No Leaſe confirmed whereon no annual Rent to the Leſſor is reſerved.

VI. Provided further, that nothing herein contained ſhall extend to authorize or confirm any Leaſe whereon no annual Rent is or ſhall be reſerved to the Leſſor or Leſſors, his or their Succeſſors or Aſſigns.

Not to authorize the Reſervation of any Rent on any ſuch Leaſe made by any Maſter, &c. of any College in the Univerſities, &c. in any other Manner than is required by 18 Eliz. c. 6.

VII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not authorize the Reſervation or Payment of any Rent or Rents upon any ſuch ſeveral Leaſe made or to be made under Authority of this Act, by any Maſter, Provoſt, Preſident, Warden, Dean, Governor, Rector, or Chief Ruler of any College, Cathedral Church, Hall or Houſe of Learning, in the Univerſities of Oxford and Cambridge, or by the Warden or other Head Officer of the Colleges of Wincheſter and Eton, in any other Manner or Proportions than is required by an Act paſſed in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act for the Maintenance of the Colleges in the Univerſities, and of Wincheſter and Eton.

Where Payments have been reſerved to Vicars, &c. other than the Leſſors, Proviſion ſhall be made in Leaſes for the future Payment thereof out of Premiſes of three Times the annual Value, excluſive of the Rent.

VIII. Provided alſo, That where any ſuch accuſtomably entire Leaſes as aforeſaid ſhall have uſually contained Covenants on the Part of the Leſſee or Leſſees for the Payment or Delivery, or ſhall have in any other Manner ſubjected or charged ſuch Leſſee or Leſſees to or with the Payment or Delivery, of any Sum or Sums of Money, Stipend, Augmentation, or other Thing, to or for the Uſe of any Vicar, Curate, Schoolmaſter, or other Perſon or Perſons, other than and beſides the Leſſor or Leſſors, and his or their Heirs or Succeſſors, all or any ſuch Leaſes as ſhall hereafter be granted of the ſame Lands or Tenements in Severalty as aforeſaid, ſhall and may lawfully provide for the future Payment and Delivery of ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, Stipends, Augmentations, or other Things, by and out of any Part or Parts of the Lands or Tenements accuſtomably charged therewith, not being of leſs annual Value than three Times the Amount of the Payment ſo to be charged thereon, excluſive of the Proportion of Rent or other annual Payments to be reſerved to the Leſſor or Leſſors.

Not to confirm the Claim of any Vicar, &c. to ſuch Payment, where it depends only on the Will of the Perſon granting or renewing the Leaſe.

IX. Provided always, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend to eſtabliſh or confirm the Claim of any Vicar, Curate, Schoolmaſter, or other Perſon or Perſons, to any ſuch Sum or Sums, Salary, Stipend, or other Thing as aforeſaid, the Payment and Continuance whereof ſhall depend only on the Will of the Perſon or Perſons, or Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, granting or renewing ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes reſpectively.

Perſons holding ſuch Leaſes in Truſt, or granting Under Leaſes of ſpecifick Parts under Covenants of Renewal, may ſurrender them, that ſeparate Leaſes may be

X. And be it further enacted, That where any Perſon or Perſons now holding, or who ſhall hereafter hold, any ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes as in this Act mentioned, ſhall or may hold the ſame, or any ſpecifick Part of the Lands or Tenements thereby demiſed, in Truſt for any other Perſon or Perſons, or for any Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, or ſhall have granted any Under Leaſe or Under Leaſes of any ſpecifick Part or Parts of his, her, or their reſpective Holdings, and be under any Covenant or Engagement for Renewal thereof, to any other Perſon or Perſons, Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, when and as often as his, her, or their own Leaſe or Leaſes ſhall be renewed, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Perſon or Perſons as firſt mentioned, at any Time or Times after the paſſing of this Act, to ſurrender his, her, or their Leaſe or Leaſes, in order that ſeparate and diſtinct Leaſes may be granted by the original Leſſor or Leſſors of ſuch ſpecifick Parts of the ſame Premiſes as ſhall have been held in Truſt, or ſubject to ſuch Covenants or Engagements for Renewal as aforeſaid, to the reſpective Under Leſſees and Ceſtuique Truſts, upon fair and reaſonable Terms, ſubject to an Apportionment of the accuſtomed Rent or Rents, and other Payments, according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act; and every ſuch Surrender ſo made, and the new Leaſes to be granted thereon, according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall be good and effectual in Law and Equity, notwithſtanding ſuch Under Leſſees and Ceſtuique Truſts, or any of them, ſhall or may be Infants, Iſſue unborn, Femes Covert, Perſons abſent from the Realm or otherwiſe incapacitated to act for themſelves, provided that ſuch new Leaſes reſpectively be for the Benefit of the ſeveral Perſons entitled to the Benefit of ſuch ſurrendered Leaſe or Leaſes reſpectively, and be expreſsly ſo declared in the Body of each ſuch new Leaſes reſpectively.

granted by the original Leſſors to the Ceſtuique Truſts and Under Leſſees on reaſonable Terms, ſubject to the accuſtomed Rent, &c.

CAP. XLII.

An Act for the better Obſervance of Good Friday in certain Caſes therein mentioned. [16th May 1800.]

'WHEREAS the Bank of England and Bankers in general are often under the Neceſſity of tranſ-'acting Buſineſs on Good Friday, for the Purpoſe of receiving Money for Bills of Exchange and 'Promiſſory Notes becoming payable on that Day, in conſequence whereof many Perſons are prevented 'obſerving the ſame with due Solemnity; now, therefore, for the better Obſervance of Good Friday,' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That where Bills of Exchange and Promiſſory Notes become due and payable on Good Friday, the ſame ſhall, from and after the firſt Day of June next enſuing, be payable on the Day before Good Friday; and the Holder or Holders of ſuch Bills of Exchange or Promiſſory Notes, may note and proteſt the ſame for Non-payment on the Day preceding Good Friday, in like Manner as if the ſame had fallen due and become payable on the Day preceding Good Friday; and ſuch Noting and Proteſts ſhall have the ſame Effect and Operation at Law as if ſuch Bills and Promiſſory Notes had fallen due and become payable on the Day preceding Good Friday, in the ſame Manner as is uſual in the Caſes of Bills of Exchange and Promiſſory Notes coming due on the Day before any Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, and before the Feaſt of the Nativity or Birth Day of our Lord, commonly called Chriſtmas Day.

Where Bills of Exchange and Promiſſory Notes become payable on Good Friday, the ſame ſhall be payable on the Day before, and the Holders thereof may proteſt the ſame for Non-payment on ſuch preceding Day.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act for granting, until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred and one, certain Allowances to Adjutants, Serjeant Majors, and Serjeants of Militia, diſembodied under an Act of this Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for enabling his Majeſty to accept the Services of an additional Number of Volunteers from the Militia, under certain Reſtrictions. [30th May 1800.]

* Cap. 1.

'WHEREAS in purſuance of an Act, made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament*, intituled, An Act for enabling his Majeſty to accept the Services of an additional Number of Volunteers from the Militia, under certain Reſtrictions, certain of the Adjutants and Serjeant Majors of the ſaid Militia have been and may be reduced, and certain of the Serjeants have been and may be diſembodied: And whereas it is expedient that ſome Proviſion ſhould be made for the ſaid Adjutants, Serjeant Majors, and Serjeants, during the Time and under the Reſtrictions hereinafter preſcribed:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That in every County, Riding, or Place, within that Part of Great Britain called England, where any Part of the Militia ſhall have been diſembodied in purſuance of the ſaid recited Act, the Receiver or Receivers General of the Land Tax, and other the Duties under the Management of the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, for ſuch County, Riding or Place reſpectively, ſhall iſſue and pay, or cauſe to be paid, the whole Sums required, in the Manner hereinafter expreſſed, to every reduced Adjutant and Serjeant Major, and to ſuch of the diſembodied Serjeants as ſhall have ſerved at leaſt one Year as Serjeants, and ſhall have obtained Certificates of their good Behaviour from their reſpective Commanding Officers; that is to ſay, to every reduced Adjutant an Allowance of three Shillings a Day, to every reduced Serjeant Major, an Allowance of one Shilling a Day, with the Addition of two Shillings and Sixpence a Week, and for every ſuch diſembodied Serjeant as aforeſaid, an Allowance of one Shilling a Day.

Receivers General of the Taxes to pay certain Allowances to Adjutants and Serjeant Majors reduced, and Serjeants diſembodied in purſuance of recited Act.

II. 'And in order that ſuch Allowances may be the more eaſily made at the reſpective Places of Reſi-dence of ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Majors, and Serjeants,' be it further enacted, That the Commanding Officer of every Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of ſuch Militia, ſhall make or cauſe to be made out in Writing, and ſhall ſign and cauſe to be delivered to the Adjutant, Serjeant Major, and each Serjeant entitled to the ſaid Allowance as aforeſaid, a Certificate of his Service as ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, in ſuch Form and with ſuch Deſcription as he ſhall think neceſſary, ſpecifying the Day on which ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, and Serjeant was reduced or diſembodied as aforeſaid, and the Period up to which he received Pay according to his Rank in the Militia; and every ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, and Serjeant, ſhall be entitled to the Allowance herein-before expreſſed, from the Termination of the Period laſt mentioned, at the Times and in the Manner, and for the Period herein-after mentioned, without Deduction or Abatement on any Account whatever.

Commanding Officers of Militia ſhall give to ſuch as are entitled to the Allowance, a Certificate, ſpecifying the Period to which they received Pay, from which their Allowances ſhall commence.

III. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, and Serjeant, upon obtaining ſuch Certificate, ſhall procure the ſame to be indorſed with a Certificate of the Pariſh or Place of his actual Reſidence, under the Signatures of the Miniſter and Churchwardens (or any two of them) of ſuch Pariſh or Place, which Certificate ſuch Miniſter and Churchwardens reſpectively are hereby required to give without Fee or Reward, and ſhall forthwith lodge the ſame ſo indorſed with the Receiver or one of the Receivers General of the County, Riding, or Place, within which he ſhall reſide, to be by ſuch Receiver General filed and preſerved for the Purpoſes herein-after mentioned, ſuch Receiver General giving a Receipt for the ſame to ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, and every ſuch Receiver General ſhall forthwith pay to every ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, and Serjeant, the full Amount of the Money then due to him under this Act, and ſhall within ſeven Days thereafter cauſe an Order to be delivered to one of the Collectors of the ſaid ſeveral Rates and Duties for the Pariſh or Place mentioned in the Indorſement upon any ſuch Certificate as the Reſidence of the Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, to whom the Certificate ſhall relate reſpectively, for the Payment from Time to Time of the Allowance given by this Act, either Weekly, Monthly, or Quarterly, as the Perſon entitled thereto may demand the ſame, and every ſuch Collector ſhall pay the Allowances, directed by any ſuch Order to be paid, out of any publick Monies he may then have in his Hands, or if he ſhall have no ſuch Monies then out of the Firſt publick Monies he ſhall thereafter receive, as long as any Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, ſhall reſide in the ſame Pariſh or Place, and ſhall continue entitled to the Allowance under this Act, ſuch Collector taking proper Receipts from Time to Time for ſuch Payments; and it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Collector to retain in his Hands, with the Conſent of ſuch Receiver General from Time to Time, ſufficient of the publick Monies received by him, for the Payment in full of all ſuch Allowances for the Period of one Quarter of a Year next enſuing; and all ſuch Payments made by ſuch Collector ſhall be allowed in his Accounts with the reſpective Commiſſioners of the ſaid Duties, and with the reſpective Receivers General, and the ſaid ſeveral Sums of Money, ſo paid by ſuch Collectors and Receivers General reſpectively ſhall be allowed in the Accounts of ſuch Receiver General out of the Monies ariſing by the Land Tax, which ſhall be received or receivable by ſuch Receiver General.

Certificates ſhall be indorſed by the Miniſter and Churchwardens of the Place of Reſidence of Adjutant, &c. and lodged with the Receiver General, who ſhall pay the Money then due, and give Order to the Collector of the Party's Place of Reſidence for Payment of the Allowance from Time to Time, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That as often as any ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, ſhall change his Place of Reſidence to any other Pariſh or Place within the ſame County or Riding in which he

he ſhall have lodged ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid, the Order upon the Collector of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant laſt reſided, ſhall be void; and in order to obtain a Continuance of his Allowance, ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, ſhall give or ſend Notice of his Change of Reſidence to the ſaid Receiver General, together with a like Certificate as is herein-before required from the Miniſter and Churchwardens of the Pariſh or Place where he ſhall intend to reſide; and ſuch Receiver General ſhall thereupon, and ſo from Time to Time, cauſe like Order to be given to the Collector of ſuch other Pariſh or Place, for the Continuance of ſuch Allowance to ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, ſo long as he ſhall be entitled to the ſame.

changing their Places of Reſidence within the ſame County, in order to obtain a Continuance of the Allowances.

V. And be it further enacted, That as often as any ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, ſhall change his Place of Reſidence into any other County or Riding than the One in which his Certificate ſhall have been lodged as aforeſaid, the Receiver General with whom the ſame was lodged ſhall, upon a Demand made for that Purpoſe, deliver up the Certificate of Service of ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, after indorſing thereon the Time up to which the Allowances thereon ſhall have been paid; and the Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, to whom ſuch Certificate ſhall relate, ſhall be entitled to receive his Allowance by this Act granted from the Receiver General of ſuch other County or Riding; and for the Purpoſe of obtaining and granting the ſame, every ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, and every ſuch Receiver General and Collector, and other Perſon, ſhall proceed reſpectively, in like Manner, in every Reſpect, as is herein-before directed on the firſt Delivery of ſuch Certificate.

Rules to be obſerved for the like Purpoſe, when Adjutants, &c. remove into any other County.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch reduced Adjutant, Serjeant Major, and Serjeant aforeſaid, ſhall at the Time of his tranſmitting the Certificate aforeſaid, to the Receiver General of any County, Riding, or Place, and alſo when and ſo often as he ſhall change his Place of Reſidence, make a Return to the Commanding Officer of the Militia of the County, Riding, or Place, to which he ſhall belong, of the Place at which he ſhall then reſide.

Adjutants, &c. ſhall make a Return to the Commanding Officer of the Militia of the Place of his Reſidence.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every reduced Adjutant, entitled to any Allowance under this Act may receive and take ſuch Allowance, together with the Pay of any ſuch other Commiſſion, or any ſuch other Allowance or Emolument as is allowed to be held or received by any Adjutant of any Militia raiſed, and ſerving under an Act paſſed in the twenty-ſixth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for amending and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, together with any Pay or Allowance to which he may be entitled as ſuch Adjutant.

Adjutants may take the Allowance, together with any Emolument they may receive under 26 Geo. 3. c. 107, and any Allowance they may be entitled to as Adjutants.

VIII. Provided always, That no reduced Adjutant aforeſaid ſhall be entitled to receive ſuch Allowance under this Act, who ſhall hold any Office of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majeſty, other than ſuch as aforeſaid.

Adjutants holding any other Office ſhall not be entitled to the Allowance.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, and Serjeant, ſhall remain liable to ſerve in the Militia of the County, Riding, or Place to which he ſhall have belonged, and ſhall join any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia ſerving for ſuch County, Riding, or Place, whenever called upon ſo to do by the Commanding Officer of ſuch Militia, either for the Purpoſe of ſupplying any Vacancy that may have ariſen in the Rank he ſhall have held in the ſaid Militia, or whenever the Militia in which he ſhall have ſerved ſhall be again augmented in purſuance of the ſaid recited Act of this Seſſion of Parliament; and that from the Time of any ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, being again called into actual Service, and becoming entitled to the Pay of the Rank in which he had formerly ſerved, or in Caſe any ſuch Adjutant ſhall be appointed Captain of a Company, or to any higher Rank than that of Captain, or in caſe any ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major or Serjeant, to whom ſuch Allowance ſhall have been granted, ſhall neglect to make ſuch Return of his Place of Reſidence to the Commanding Officer of the Militia of the County, Riding, or Place to which he ſhall belong, as is required by this Act, or ſhall neglect or refuſe to join ſuch Militia, according to any Notice that ſhall have been given to him for that Purpoſe, unleſs prevented by Sickneſs or other ſufficient Cauſe, to be allowed by the Commanding Officer of ſuch Militia, then, and in any ſuch caſe, the Allowance granted by this Act ſhall wholly ceaſe.

Adjutants, &c. ſhall remain liable to ſerve in the Militia, and to join when called upon by the Commanding Officer.

The Allowance to ceaſe in certain Caſes.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Allowances hereby granted ſhall continue until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred and one, and no longer.

Continuance of Allowances.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any ſuch Collector as aforeſaid ſhall at any Time refuſe or neglect to pay any ſuch Allowance that ſhall be demanded in purſuance of any Order of any Receiver General granted by virtue of this Act, it ſhall be lawful for the Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, entitled thereto, to make a Complaint of ſuch Neglect or Refuſal to any one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Place, in which ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant ſhall reſide, and ſuch Juſtice of the Peace ſhall thereupon cauſe ſuch Collector to come before him with the Order for Payment of ſuch Allowance, and ſhall make ſuch Order for the punctual Payment of ſuch Allowance then or to become due, as upon ſuch Enquiry he ſhall deem neceſſary; and if it ſhall appear to any ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, upon any ſuch Complaint as aforeſaid, that any ſuch Collector hath unneceſſarily and without any good Cauſe wilfully refuſed or delayed the Payment of any ſuch Allowance, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Juſtice of the Peace to fine inſtanter ſuch Collector in any Sum not exceeding the Sum of Ten Pounds, without any other or further Information than Summons or Proceſs as aforeſaid, and unleſs ſuch Fine ſhall be forthwith forthwith paid, to cauſe ſuch Fine and Coſts attending the ſame to be forthwith levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Collector, which Fine ſhall be paid to the Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, whoſe Allowance ſhall have ſo remained unpaid as aforeſaid, and the Surplus (if any) of the Money ſo levied ſhall be returned upon Demand to the Party.

If a Collector neglect to pay the Allowance, one Juſtice ſhall on Complaint order punctual Payment, and may fine the Collector, not exceeding 10 l. to be paid to the Party grieved.

No Certificate nor any Allowance ſhall be aſſignable.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Certificate given under this Act, nor any Allowance to any Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant, or any Part thereof, ſhall be aſſignable or aſſigned in Law or in Equity, in any Way whatever, nor ſhall any ſuch Allowance be receivable, or any Part thereof received, under any Power or Diſpoſition thereof, or any Part thereof, nor otherwiſe than to the ſole Uſe and Benefit of ſuch Adjutant, Serjeant Major, or Serjeant reſpectively, whoſe Receipt ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge for all Payments made to them reſpectively under this Act.

No Fee to be paid for any Thing done in relation to Allowances.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Fee or Gratuity whatever ſhall be given or paid by any Perſon entitled to any Allowance under this Act, for any Thing which ſhall be done in relation thereto.

CAP. XLVI.

An Act for the more eaſy and expeditious Recovery of Small Debts, and determining Small Cauſes in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland. [30th May 1800.]

35 Geo. 3. c. 123. recited,

' WHEREAS the Regulations introduced by the Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of ' his preſent Majeſty, for the more eaſy and expeditious Recovery of Small Debts, and determining ' Small Cauſes ariſing out of Perſonal Contract or Obligation, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ' and which Act is near expiring, having in general been found uſeful and beneficial to the Publick, it is ' proper that they ſhould be renewed and made perpetual, with ſuch Amendments as Experience has ' ſuggeſted, and that other and further Regulations ſhould be made for attaining the ſame ſalutary Ends:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Cauſes and Com-all Cauſes brought under Authority of that Act, and

plaints brought under the Authority of the ſaid Act, and depending at the Commencement of this Act, ſhall be carried on to a Concluſion, according to the Rules thereby preſcribed, notwithſtanding this preſent Act.

depending at the Commencement of this Act, ſhall be carried on according to the Rules of the former Act.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the firſt Day of June one thouſand eight hundred, (which is hereby declared to be the Commencement of this Act,) it ſhall be lawful and competent for any two or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of Peace in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, within their reſpective Counties or Stewartries, to hear, try, and determine, as ſhall appear to them agreeable to Equity and good Conſcience, all Cauſes and Complaints brought before them, concerning the Recovery of Debts or the making effectual any Demand: Provided always, That the Debt or Demand ſhall not exceed the Value of Five Pounds Sterling, excluſive of Coſts, and that in a ſummary Way, as more particularly hereinafter mentioned.

From June 1, 1800, two Juſtices may determine Cauſes for Sums not exceeding 5l. Sterling.

III. And be it enacted, That all ſuch Cauſes ſhall proceed upon Petition or Complaint, ſtating ſhortly the Cauſe or Ground of Action, and concluding againſt the Defender; which Petition or Complaint being ſigned by the Juſtice of Peace Clerk, or any Deputy by him appointed, or in caſe of his failing to appoint, by a Clerk to be appointed within the reſpective Diſtricts as hereinafter mentioned, ſhall be a Warrant for any Conſtable or Peace Officer, for ſummoning the Defender to appear and anſwer at the next Meeting of the Juſtices of Peace in the Diſtrict of the County or Stewartry where the Defender reſides, the ſame not being ſooner than upon the ſixth Day after the Date of the Citation, and alſo for ſummoning Witneſſes to the ſame Day and Place: Provided always, That a Copy of the ſaid Petition or Complaint, with the Citation annexed, and alſo a Copy of the Account, Document of Debt, or State of the Demand, with the Names of the Witneſſes, or other Means of Proof, ſhall be delivered by a Conſtable or Peace Officer to the Defender perſonally, or at his Dwelling Houſe or Place of Abode, in which laſt Caſe, if the Defender ſhall not appear, he ſhall be cited a ſecond Time perſonally, or at his Dwelling Houſe or Place of Abode, upon the Words de novo being either ſubjoined to the original Petition, and ſigned by any one Juſtice of the Peace, or written in the Procedure Book kept by the Clerk, and ſigned by the Juſtices, to appear either at the next ſtated Meeting, or at a Meeting to be held by Adjournment for that Purpoſe, and fixed by the Juſtices at the firſt Diet, which ſecond Meeting ſhall not be ſooner than three Days from the Date of the firſt, or in Default to be held as confeſſing the Debt or Juſtice of the Demand; and the Conſtable or Peace Officer, ſhall, in both Caſes, return an Execution of Citation ſigned by him, or ſhall appear and give Evidence upon Oath of his having duly cited the Defender in Manner aforeſaid: Provided nevertheleſs, That if the Defender ſhall appear at any Time before ſuch ſecond Citation, and the Parties and Witneſſes ſhall be then ready, the Juſtices may proceed to hear and determine the Cauſe.

How Cauſes ſhall be proceeded upon.

IV. And be it enacted, That the original Warrant, ſigned by the Juſtice of Peace Clerk, or his Deputy, ſhall contain an Authority to the Officer to ſummon Witneſſes, not only for the Purſuer but alſo for the Defender, if the Officer ſhall at any Time, before the Diet of Appearance, be required by the Defender to cite ſuch Witneſſes.

Warrant ſhall authorize Witneſſes to be ſummoned for both Parties.

V. And be it enacted, That if the Witneſſes cited, either upon the one Part or the other, do not appear at the Time and Place to which they are cited, it ſhall be competent to the Party or Parties to apply for a new Warrant for compelling them to attend at the next ſtated or adjourned Meeting, which Warrant may be ſigned by any one Juſtice of the Peace, and may require them to attend in order to give Evidence, under a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings Sterling, to be awarded by the Juſtice of Peace in Default of their Appearance, unleſs a reaſonable Excuſe be offered and ſuſtained, and to be recovered by the Party at whoſe Inſtance they were cited, in the ſame Form and Manner as is herein directed with regard to other Small Debts, or, in the Option of the Juſtice of Peace, to be impriſoned for a certain Time in the County Priſon, not exceeding ten Days.

Witneſſes not appearing on a ſecond Summons liable to Penalty.

VI. And be it enacted, That when the Parties ſhall appear, the ſaid Juſtices ſhall hear them viva voce, and examine Witneſſes upon Oath, and alſo the Parties by Declaration, or upon Oath: Provided always, That no Procurators, Solicitors, or any Perſons practiſing the Law, ſhall be allowed to plead for them, either viva voce or by Writing, nor ſhall any of the Pleadings, or Minutes or Evidence, be take down in Writing, or be entered upon any Record.

Parties and Witneſſes may be examined on Oath, but no Practiſer of the Law to plead, &c.

VII. And be it enacted, That if the Defender who has been perſonally cited, or who has been cited a ſecond Time on Default for Non-appearance on the firſt Citation, ſhall not appear by himſelf or by one of his Family, and ſhall not ſend an Excuſe to ſatisfy the Juſtices to give him a Delay, he ſhall be held as confeſſing the Debt or Juſtice of the Demand; but if a ſufficient Excuſe ſhall happen to be made, or if the Abſence of Witneſſes, or any other good Reaſon aſſigned, ſhall move the Juſtices to adjourn the Meeting to another Day, or to the next ſtated Time of meeting, it ſhall be competent for them to make ſuch Adjournment, and the Parties and Witneſſes ſhall be ordered then to attend.

Defender not appearing, or not ſending a ſufficient Excuſe, ſhall be held as confeſſing the Debt, but for good Reaſon the Juſtices may adjourn the Meeting.

VIII. And be it enacted, That where a Decree has gone in Abſence or by Default, it ſhall be ſtill competent for the Defendant, upon conſigning the Sums decreed for in the Clerk's Hands, and making Intimation of this to the Purſuer perſonally, or by two Citations at his Dwelling Houſe or Place of Abode, at any Time before the Days of the Charge elapſe, to have the Matter re-heard at the following Court Day; and in like Manner where Abſolvitor has paſſed in Abſence, it ſhall be competent for the Purſuer, upon conſigning Two Shillings and Sixpence into the Hands of the Clerk, and giving the like Notice to the other Party, to have the Cauſe again called at the next Court Day, the Two Shillings and Sixpence being paid over to the Defender, in order to defray his previous Expence.

Matters may be reheard on certain Conditions.

Juſtices may puniſh Officers for Failure of Duty.

IX. And be it enacted, That in caſe it ſhall be proved, to the Satisfaction of the Juſtices, that the Non-attendance of Parties or Witneſſes has been occaſioned by any Failure of Duty on the Part of the Officer, and that he has returned a falſe Execution, it ſhall be in the Power of the ſaid Juſtices to puniſh him, by a Fine to the Poor or Impriſonment, the Fine not exceeding Twenty Shillings Sterling, nor the Impriſonment not exceeding ten Days.

Clerk to enter Tranſcripts of Petitions and Decrees.

X. And be it enacted, That the Clerk or Depute Clerk ſhall keep a Book, wherein ſhall be entered a Tranſcript of the Petition or Complaint, with the Date of giving it in, the ſeveral Deliverances or Interlocutory Orders of the Juſtices, and the final Judgment or Decree, with the Date thereof, which laſt ſhall be ſigned by the Juſtices preſent, or by their Preſes if more than two are preſent, and a Copy of the ſaid Decree ſhall by the Clerk be annexed to the principal Petition or Complaint, containing Warrant for arreſting or poinding the Effects of the Defender, or for committing his Perſon to Priſon, which Copy or Extract, being ſigned by the Clerk or his Deputy, and delivered to the Party in whoſe Favour the ſame is granted, ſhall be a Warrant for Execution, after the Expiration of ſix free Days from the Date of pronouncing the Decree, if the Party againſt whom it is given has been preſent in Court when it was pronounced, or if he has not been preſent Execution ſhall only proceed after a Charge of ſix free Days given by the Officer, by leaving a Copy of the Decree or Judgment againſt the Party either perſonally or at his Dwelling Houſe, to which Charge the Officer ſhall make Oath if required.

Copy of Decree to be Warrant for Execution.

Form of Poinding.

XI. And be it enacted, That the Form of the Poinding ſhall be ſummary, videlicet, by carrying the Effects poinded to the neareſt Market Town or Kirk Town, or Village within the Pariſh, and after getting the ſame duly apprized, ſelling them between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve, Forenoon, at the Croſs or moſt publick Place, after one Hour's Notice given by a Crier by publick Roup, to the higheſt Bidder, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Owner, after deducting what is allowed by this Act for Poinding and Sale; and if the Effects are not ſold, delivering them over at the appraiſed Value to the Creditor, to the Amount of the Debt and the Allowance for Poinding: Provided always, That in caſe the Place of Sale is not a Market Town, but only a Kirk Town or Village, the Place and Time of Sale ſhall be advertized two Days at leaſt before the Day of Sale, at the Door of the Pariſh Church upon Sunday after the Forenoon Sermon.

Juſtices may order Debts to be paid by Inſtalments.

XII. And be it enacted, That the ſaid Juſtices may, if they think proper, direct the Sum or Sums found due to be repaid by Inſtalments, Weekly or Monthly, according to the Circumſtances of the Parties found liable, and under ſuch Conditions or Qualifications as they ſhall think fit to annex.

Decree not ſubject to Advocation, &c.

Caution to be found where an Action of Reduction is inſiſted on.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Decree given by the ſaid Juſtices ſhall not be ſubject to Advocation, nor to any Suſpenſion, Appeal, or other Stay of Execution; and in caſe either Party ſhall afterwards inſiſt in an Action of Reduction before the Court of Seſſion, for ſetting aſide the Proceedings on the Ground of alleged Iniquity or Oppreſſion, he ſhall, before he be heard in ſuch Action, be obliged to find ſufficient Caution, and to lodge the ſame in the Hands of the Clerk of Court, for Payment of ſuch Expences as may be awarded againſt him; nor ſhall any ſuch Action be at all competent after the Expiration of one Year from the Date of the Decree of the ſaid Juſtices.

The following Fees to be taken.

XIV. And be it enacted, That the following and no higher Fees, ſhall be allowed and taken; (videlicet.)

To the Clerk of the Court:
For drawing up Petition and Complaint	Sixpence.
For entering and tranſcribing the ſame in his Book	Sixpence.
To the Clerk, for a Copy of Service	Two Pence.
To him for ſigning and entering the ſame in his Book	Four Pence.
To the Clerk, for entering the Appearance of a Defender	Sixpence.
To him, for every Oath	Four Pence.
To him, for the Decree containing the Warrant of Execution	Sixpence.
To him, for Warrant to cite Defenders, Witneſſes, or any other Warrant or Order	Four Pence.
To the Crier, for calling the Action	One Penny.

To him and his Aſſiſtants, for ſelling the ſame	Two Shillings.
To him and Aſſiſtants, for Execution againſt the Defender's Perſon	Three Shillings.
To the Officer, for every Mile he ſhall travel into the Country	Four Pence.
And to each Aſſiſtant, where Aſſiſtance is neceſſary	Three Pence.

A Table of Fees to be hung up in the Courts: which may be modified by the Juſtices.

A Copy of which Table of Fees, ſigned by the Clerk, ſhall be hung up in every Place for holding of Courts, and in his Office; and the ſaid Fees ſhall be ſubject to the Modification of the Juſtices in very ſmall Caſes, or where one Petition and Complaint is directed againſt different Defenders.

Fines, except for Non-attendance of Witneſſes, to be paid to the Poor.

XV. And be it enacted, That an Account ſhall be kept by the Clerk of Court of all Fines awarded by the Juſtices, by virtue of this Act, (excepting Penalties for Witneſſes on Non-appearance, which are to be paid to the Parties at whoſe inſtance they were ſummoned,) and ſhall be paid to the Poor, in ſuch Way and Manner as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall direct.

XVI. And

Justices to make Divisions of Counties for carrying Act into Execution.

XVI. And be it enacted, That the Justices of Peace for each County or Stewartry in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall, at their first or any after Meeting of the Quarter Sessions, make suitable Divisions of the County or Stewartry into Districts, within which the Justices of the Peace shall meet, at a convenient Place in each District, upon the first Monday of every Month (or upon such other lawful Day of the first Week of every Month, as the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions shall fix as most convenient) at Eleven of the Clock, Forenoon, in order to carry the Purposes of this Act into Execution, and which Monthly Meetings may be adjourned, if necessary, to any other lawful Day or Days of the Month, to be held at the same Place: and the Quarter Sessions shall at the same Time appoint the Place of Meeting in each District, of which they shall order due Notice to be given to all concerned, by Advertisement at the Church Doors of every Parish in the County or Stewartry, at least two Sundays after the Places are certified.

Quarter Sessions to order Notice of Meetings to be given.

If the Justice of Peace Clerk fail to name a Deputy, the Justices may name one.

XVII. And be it enacted, That in case the Justice of Peace Clerk shall fail to name a Deputy in each of the said Districts, on or before the Time appointed for each District Meeting, or before any subsequent Meeting, of which the said Justice of Peace Clerk has had personal Notice, the said Justices who shall attend at such District Meeting or Meetings shall, and they are hereby empowered to name a Clerk for that District, who shall be removable by any subsequent Quarter Sessions, and another Clerk may then be appointed by the said Quarter Sessions, from Time to Time as they shall see Cause.

Justices at Quarter Sessions may make Rules for the Purposes of this Act.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That for the better regulating the Proceedings of the said Justices empowered to hear and determine the said Causes, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices at their Quarter Sessions, from Time to Time, to make such Rules and orders as shall seem to them most expedient and conducive for the Purposes of this Act, so as such Rules and Orders shall be agreeable to Law, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; which said Rules and Orders having been made by the said Justices at their Quarter Sessions, shall be in force, and kept and observed by the Justices empowered to hear and determine the said Causes, and their Officers and the Suitors before them, until the same shall be repealed or varied by the Justices at their said Quarter Sessions, or by the Lords of Session or Justiciary in Edinburgh, or by the Circuit Courts of Justiciary, upon Application of any two or more Justices of the Peace.

No Member of any other Court exempt from the Jurisdiction of the Justices.

XIX. And be it enacted, That no Privilege shall be allowed to exempt any Person liable to be summoned by virtue of this Act, from the Jurisdiction of the said Justices, on account of his being a Member of any other Court of Justice.

Act not to extend to certain Cases.

XX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend to any Debt for Rent, upon a Tack, or Lease, or real Contract, where the Title of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments can or may come to be brought in question, nor to any other Debt, Matter, or Thing, that shall or may arise upon or concerning the Validity of any Will, Testament, or Contract of Marriage, although the same shall not amount to the Sum of Five Pounds Sterling, nor to any Debt for any Money or Thing won at or by Means of any Horse Race, Cock Match, or any Kind of Gaming or Play, or any Debt or Demand for or on Account of any Spirituous Liquors: any Thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Magistrates of Edinburgh may determine Causes at their Weekly Courts against Residents within the City and its Liberties for Demands not exceeding 40l. Scots.

XXI. 'And whereas the Magistrates of the City of Edinburgh have long been in the Use and Possession of holding a Weekly Court, for determining in a summary Manner, according to Equity and good Conscience, all Causes and Complaints brought before them for Small Sums not exceeding ten Merks Scots Money, and of putting their Decrees into immediate Execution against all Persons residing within the said City and Liberties thereof: And whereas it would be expedient to extend their Jurisdiction so far as regards the Sum or Value of the Cause to be tried in that Manner at their said Weekly Courts;' be it therefore enacted, That the Magistrates of Edinburgh shall have full Power and Liberty as Justices of the Peace, and they are hereby authorized at their aforesaid Weekly Courts, to try, hear, and determine, in a summary Manner, all Causes and Complaints brought before them, concerning the Recovery of Debts, or the making effectual any Demand against all Persons residing within the said City of Edinburgh and Liberties thereof, as described in a Royal Charter in favour of the City, dated the twenty-third Day of October in the Year one thousand six hundred and thirty-six: Provided always, That the Debt or Demand shall not exceed the Value of Forty Pounds Scots.

Where the Claim shall not exceed 40l. Scots, the Provisions of this Act shall be observed by the Magistrates of Edinburgh.

XXII. And be it enacted, That in every Case where the Claim or Demand shall not exceed the aforesaid Sum of Forty Pounds Scots, the Provisions herein-before contained shall be, and the same are hereby directed to be observed and put in Execution by the said Magistrates of Edinburgh at their said Weekly Courts, and that their Decrees shall be put in Execution in the same Way and Manner as herein-before directed and authorized, relative to the Proceedings before and by the other Justices of the Peace.

The Jurisdiction of Justices of Peace not hereby regulated, shall remain entire.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That the Jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, so far as not regulated by this present Act, shall remain entire, and be exercised in the same Manner as they are entitled to exercise the same before the passing of this Act.

CAP. XLVII.

An Act for repealing the Rates and Fares taken by Licenſed Hackney Coachmen, and for eſtabliſhing other Rates and Fares in lieu thereof; and for explaining and amending ſeveral Laws relating to Hackney Coaches and Chairs. [30th May 1800.]

'WHEREAS the Rates and Fares to be taken by Hackney Coachmen, and Perſons legally acting under 'them, for the Hire of Hackney Coaches, have been found in ſome Inſtances to be inſufficient: And 'whereas it is therefore expedient that ſome of the Rates and Fares enumerated in an Act, paſſed in the 'twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for explaining and amending an 'Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, "An Act for laying an 26 Geo. 3. c. 72. recited. "additional Duty on Hackney Coaches, and for explaining and amending ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating "to Hackney Coaches," ſhould be increaſed:' Be it therefore enacted, by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, every Perſon who now is or ſhall hereafter be licenſed by the Commiſſioners for regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs, or the major Part of them, to drive, keep, and let to hire by the Hour or Day, or otherwiſe, any Hackney Coach with Horſes, Geldings, and Mares, within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or the Suburbs of the ſame, or within the Pariſhes or Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or any other Place or Places, which by any of the Laws now in being ſuch Hackney Coachmen are compellable to go, or any Perſon acting legally under any ſuch Licenſed Perſon ſhall be entitled to, and may demand, receive, and take for the Hire of any ſuch Hackney Coach, the Rates and Fares hereinafter mentioned; (that is to ſay,)

After paſſing this Act the following Fares to be taken;

Fares for Coaches taken any Diſtance between ſix in the Morning and twelve at Night:

For every Hackney Coach hired and taken any Diſtance, at any Time between the Hours of ſix of the Clock in the Morning and twelve of the Clock at Night, the Rates and Fares following, (that is to ſay,)

For every Diſtance within and not exceeding one Mile, the Sum of one Shilling:

For every further Diſtance within and not exceeding Half a Mile, computed as beyond the firſt Mile, the additional Sum of Sixpence; and ſo in like Manner the Sum of Sixpence for every further Diſtance within and not exceeding Half a Mile, to be computed through the whole Diſtance which ſuch Coach ſhall be driven or go:

Fares for Coaches kept in waiting between ſix in the Morning and twelve at Night:

And for every Hackney Coach hired and kept in waiting between the Hours of ſix of the Clock in the Morning and twelve of the Clock at Night, the ſeveral Rates and Fares following, (that is to ſay,)

For any Time not exceeding forty Minutes, the Sum of one Shilling; and for every further Period of Time not exceeding twenty Minutes, to be computed from the Expiration of the firſt forty Minutes during the whole of the Time which ſuch Coach ſhall be engaged, employed, or kept in waiting, the further Sum of Sixpence for every ſuch additional Period:

Fares for Coaches hired where there is a regular Continuation of Carriage Way Pavement, or at a Stand beyond ſuch Continuation, and diſcharged at a Place where they cannot be driven to ſuch neareſt Continuation, or ſuch Standing, before Sun ſet.

And for every Hackney Coach hired in any Part of the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or the Borough of Southwark, or any Place adjoining thereto, where there is a regular Continuation of Carriage Way Pavement from either of the ſaid Cities or Borough aforeſaid, or at any Standing for Hackney Coaches beyond any ſuch regular Continuation of Carriage Way Pavement, and taken to and diſcharged at any Place from which ſuch Coach cannot be driven to the neareſt Continuation of Carriage Way Pavement, or ſuch Standing as aforeſaid, before Sun-ſet, (eſtimating the Rate of driving of ſuch Coach at five Miles in the Hour,) then one Half Part of the Rate or Fare allowed by this Act, for all ſuch Diſtance as ſuch Coach can be ſo driven as aforeſaid, towards ſuch neareſt Continuation of Carriage Way Pavement before Sun-ſet; but nevertheleſs ſo as that no Fraction of any Sum leſs than Sixpence ſhall be demandable or demanded, or payable or paid, where by reaſon of any ſuch Half Rate or Fare as aforeſaid, any ſuch Fraction ſhall ariſe; and the full Rate or Fare allowed by this Act, for all ſuch Diſtance as ſhall remain for ſuch Coach to be driven at the Rate aforeſaid, to ſuch Continuation of regular Carriage Way Pavement after Sun-ſet, or where any ſuch Coach ſhall in either of ſuch laſt mentioned Caſes, have been hired or taken at any Standing beyond the regular Continuation of Carriage Way Pavement, then to ſuch Standing or to the neareſt Continuation of Carriage Way Pavement, at the Option of the Perſon diſcharging ſuch Coach:

Fares for Coaches hired for the Day.

And for every Hackney Coach hired or kept for the Day, (ſuch Day not to exceed twelve Hours, and to end before or at twelve of the Clock at Night, and the Diſtance which ſuch Coach ſhall be taken not to exceed twenty Miles,) the Sum of Eighteen Shillings for ſuch Day's Work, and for any further Time exceeding ſuch twelve Hours or Diſtance exceeding twenty Miles, and alſo for any Time after twelve of the Clock at Night, then ſuch further Rate or Fare for ſuch Time or Diſtance as is in any Caſe allowed for any further Time or Diſtance of the like Nature by this Act; and alſo if any ſuch Coach ſhall be taken to and diſcharged at any Place where there is not a regular Continuation of Carriage Way Pavement adjoining either of the Cities or Borough aforeſaid, exceeding one Mile from the extreme End of the neareſt regular Continuation of Carriage Way Pavement, ſo as that ſuch Coach cannot be driven to ſuch neareſt Continuation of of Carriage Way Pavement within ſuch twelve Hours, or before twelve of the Clock at Night, or where the Diſtance of any ſuch laſt mentioned Place where any ſuch Coach ſhall be diſcharged as aforeſaid, added to the Diſtance which ſuch Coach ſhall have before been driven, ſhall in the Whole exceed twenty Miles, then ſuch further and additional Rate or Fare as is allowed by this Act for any further Time or Diſtance of the like Nature:

Fares for Coaches hired or kept in waiting after 12 at Night, and before ſix in the Morning, or which ſhall be diſcharged at ſuch Time and Place that they cannot be driven to ſome regular continued Carriage Way Pavement before 12 at Night.

And for every Hackney Coach which ſhall be hired or taken, or kept in waiting for any Time, or taken to any Diſtance after twelve of the Clock at Night and before ſix of the Clock in the Morning, or which ſhall be diſcharged at any ſuch Time and Place, as that ſuch Coach cannot be driven to the extreme End of ſome regular continued Carriage Way Pavement before twelve of the Clock at Night, an additional Rate or Fare for ſuch Time or Diſtance as aforeſaid, over and above the Rate or Fare before mentioned, of one Sixpence upon every Shilling of ſuch Rate or Fare, but ſo as that ſuch additional Rate or Fare ſhall not be allowed, taken, or received, for any Coach hired between the Hours of ten and twelve of the Clock at Night in any Caſe unleſs the Rate or Fare according to the Time for which ſuch Coach ſhall be kept, or the Diſtance which ſuch Coach ſhall be taken, ſhall, according to the Rates and Fares before mentioned, amount to the Sum of Two Shillings or upwards although ſuch Coach ſhall not be diſcharged till after twelve of the Clock at Night.

When the Average Price of Oats, computed according to 31 Geo. 3. c. 30. ſhall exceed 25s. per Quarter, the Commiſſioners for licenſing Hackney Coaches may cauſe an Addition to be made to the Fares.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Average Price of Oats, made up, computed, and verified, and publiſhed in the London Gazette, according to the Proviſions of an Act, paſſed in the thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on Britiſh Corn exported, ſhall exceed twenty-five Shillings per Quarter, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners for licenſing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs, or the major Part of them, if they ſhall ſee fit, to cauſe an Addition to be made to the Rates and Fares hereinbefore mentioned and allowed, to be demanded, received, and taken, for the Hire of any Hackney Coach, in the Proportion hereinafter mentioned; that is to ſay, Additional Fares.

Upon every Rate or Fare, amounting to two Shillings, the additional Sum of Sixpence:

Upon every Rate or Fare amounting to four Shillings, the additional Sum of one Shilling:

And ſo, in like Manner, upon every Increaſe of two Shillings, or any Rate or Fare above the Rate or Fare of four Shillings aforeſaid, the additional Sum of Sixpence for every ſuch Increaſe of two Shillings.

Additional Fare not payable unleſs the Coach be taken the full Diſtance, or kept in waiting the full period, for which allowed.

III. Provided always, That ſuch additional Rate or Fare ſhall not be demandable, or payable or paid, in reſpect of any ſuch Rate or Fare as aforeſaid, unleſs ſuch Coach ſhall have been taken the full Diſtance, or kept in waiting the full Period, which ſuch Coach may be taken or kept reſpectively, for ſuch Sum of two Shillings or four Shillings reſpectively, or any ſuch further Increaſe of two Shillings as aforeſaid; which additional Rate or Fare ſhall and may be recovered in like Manner as any other Rate or Fare for the Hire of any Hackney Coach may be recovered; and ſuch Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, ſhall, whenever they ſhall think fit to increaſe ſuch Rates or Fares in Manner aforeſaid, publiſh Notice thereof in the London Gazette, ſpecifying in ſuch Notice the Period at which ſuch Increaſe is to commence, and for which ſuch Increaſe ſhall continue, ſo as that the Period of ſuch Commencement ſhall be ſeven Days at the leaſt from the Time of ſuch Notice being publiſhed in the Gazette; and it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Commiſſioners to continue ſuch Increaſe of Rates and Fares as aforeſaid, until the average Price of Oats, ſo publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be reduced to one Pound and one Shilling a Quarter, and for ſuch further Time, not exceeding thirty Days, after the average Price of Oats ſhall be reduced to one Pound and one Shilling per Quarter, as they ſhall ſee fit.

The Commiſſioners to publiſh Notice of Increaſe of Fares in the Gazette; which Increaſe may be continued till 30 Days after the Average Price of Oats ſhall be reduced to one Guinea per Quarter.

The Commiſſioners may appoint Inſpectors of Hackney Coaches and Horſes;

IV. 'And whereas it is expedient that ſome Regulations ſhould be made for the Purpoſe of more effectu-
' ally compelling Perſons licenſed to drive, keep, and let to hire Hackney Coaches, to provide ſafe and clean
' Coaches, and able and ſufficient Horſes, and ſuch as ſhall be fit for the Accommodation of Perſons hiring
' the ſame;' be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and they are hereby authorized to appoint ſome proper Perſon or Perſons of competent Skill and Judgment, with ſuch moderate Allowance as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think fit for his or their Pains and Trouble, to inſpect all Hackney Coaches licenſed by ſuch Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, and the Horſes which ſhall be uſed in drawing the ſaid Coaches; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, four Times at the leaſt in each and every Year, and alſo at all Times whenever the Commiſſioners ſhall think fit, ſurvey and inſpect all Hackney Coaches, and the Horſes which ſhall be uſed in drawing them, or ſuch and ſo many of ſuch Hackney Coaches and Horſes as they ſhall be required to ſurvey and examine by ſuch Commiſſioners, and aſcertain and examine the State and Condition of ſuch Hackney Coaches and Horſes, and report the ſame to the ſaid Commiſſioners; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and they are hereby authorized to ſuſpend the Licence of any Perſon or Perſons whoſe Hackney Coach ſhall be found defective, either in reſpect of the Safety, State of Repair, or Condition or Cleanlineſs thereof, or whoſe Horſes ſhall be deemed unfit or inſufficient, and to continue ſuch Suſpenſion of ſuch Licence until the ſame ſhall be properly rectified; and if any Perſon or Perſons to whom any ſuch Hackney Coach ſhall belong, or who ſhall be licenſed to drive, keep, or let ſuch Hackney Coach, or any Perſon or Perſons employed by or acting for him or them, ſhall refuſe to permit any Perſon or Perſons, (being ſo appointed by ſuch Commiſſioners as aforeſaid,) to ſurvey and examine any ſuch Hackney Coach, or the Horſes uſed in drawing them, or ſhall produce to any ſuch Perſon or Perſons any other Coach than the Coach bona fide and ordinarily driven under the Licence and ſuſpend the Licence of any Perſon whoſe Coach ſhall be defective or Horſes unfit; and may annul Licences if the Inſpectors are refuſed to examine Coaches, &c.

Licence granted for that Purpoſe, or the Horſes which they ſhall have ordinarily uſed in or for drawing the ſame, then and in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and they are hereby authorized to ſuperſede ſuch Licence, and render the ſame null and void.

Hackney Coachmen, where Coaches are ſtanding in any Place, compellable to go with any Perſon deſirous of hiring them; and in caſe of Refuſal liable to Penalty, unleſs they prove their being hired.

V. 'And whereas many Hackney Coachmen who are in the Streets with their Coaches, in the Courſe 'of their Employment withdraw from thoſe Parts of the Streets where they ought to ſtand and ply for Hire, 'and alſo attend with their Coaches about the Theatres, and Places of Publick Reſort, and under Pretence 'of being already hired, refuſe to go with Perſons deſirous of hiring ſuch Coaches;' be it therefore enacted, That every Hackney Coachman whoſe Coach ſhall be found ſtanding in any Street or Place, and whoſe Coach ſhall not be actually hired, ſhall be deemed and taken to be plying for Hire, although ſuch Coach ſhall not be on any Standing or Place uſually appropriated for the Purpoſe of Hackney Coaches ſtanding or plying for Hire; and every ſuch Coachman who ſhall not be actually hired, ſhall be obliged and compellable to go with any Perſon or Perſons deſirous of hiring ſuch Coach; and if any Complaint ſhall be made to the ſaid Commiſſioners, of the refuſal of any ſuch Hackney Coachman to go with any Perſon or Perſons deſirous of hiring ſuch Coach, ſuch Hackney Coachman ſhall be obliged to give Evidence of having been and being hired at the Time of the Application made to hire ſuch Hackney Coach; and in caſe any ſuch Hackney Coachman cannot or ſhall not produce ſufficient Evidence of having been ſo then hired as aforeſaid, he or they ſhall be ſubject and liable to ſuch and the like Penalty or Penalties, and Puniſhment, as may by any Act or Acts, or Law or Laws now in being, be impoſed or inflicted in Caſes of Refuſal to carry for Hire by licenſed Hackney Coachmen.

If a Coachman ſummoned for ſuch Refuſal ſhall prove his having been hired, the Commiſſioners may require the Party to make him ſatisfaction for Loſs of Time.

VI. Provided always, That in every ſuch Caſe, where any Coachman who ſhall have been ſummoned for any ſuch Refuſal, ſhall produce ſufficient Evidence of having been then hired as aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Commiſſioners, and they are hereby authorized to require the Perſon who ſhall have ſummoned ſuch Coachman, to make to ſuch Coachman ſuch reaſonable Allowance for his Loſs of Time, as to ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall in their Diſcretion ſeem proper in that Behalf.

The Commiſſioners may require Perſons licenſed to keep Hackney Coaches to enter at their Office the Names and Reſidences of the Drivers, to whom they may grant Leave to drive and revoke or ſuſpend the ſame, as alſo the Licences for keeping Hackney Coaches of Perſons who ſhall omit to enter the Names of their Drivers, or ſuffer any Perſon not entered to drive.

VII. 'And whereas it is expedient that ſome Proviſion ſhould be made for the better ordering and re-'gulating the Drivers of Hackney Coaches, and alſo the Perſons attending as Watermen and Aſſiſtants at 'Hackney Coach Standings, and at Places of publick Reſort,' be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and they are hereby authorized to require all and every Perſon and Perſons licenced to keep, drive, or let to hire any Hackney Coach, to enter, in a Book or Books, to be kept for that Purpoſe at the Office of the ſaid Commiſſioners, the Name and Names, and Reſidence or Reſidences reſpectively, of the Perſon or Perſons driving ſuch licenſed Hackney Coach, and it ſhall thereupon be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to grant Leave in ſuch Manner and Form as they ſhall think fit to ſuch Perſon or Perſons to drive ſuch Hackney Coach; and at any Time or Times upon Complaint made by any Perſon or Perſons, or Information given of any Miſconduct of any ſuch Driver as aforeſaid, or any Complaint made by the Owner of any ſuch Coach or Perſon employing ſuch Driver, to revoke or ſuſpend, for ſuch Time as they ſhall think neceſſary, ſuch Leave; and if any Perſon or Perſons licenſed to keep or let to hire any ſuch Hackney Coach ſhall omit to enter the Name or Names, and Reſidence or Reſidences, of the Driver or Drivers of any ſuch Hackney Coach, or ſhall permit or ſuffer any Perſon or Perſons not ſo duly entered as aforeſaid, and to whom no ſuch Leave ſhall have been granted as aforeſaid, (unleſs for any Period of Time between the Time of any ſuch Driver having left the Driving of any ſuch Hackney Coach, and the next Day of Meeting of ſuch Commiſſioners,) then and in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to revoke or to ſuſpend, for ſuch Time as they ſhall ſee fit, the Licence of ſuch Perſon or Perſons.

Perſons attending as Watermen to Hackney Coachmen, not authoriſed by the Commiſſioners, liable to Penalty.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall not be lawful for any Perſon to attend at any Hackney Coach Standing, or at any Place of Publick Reſort, as a Waterman or Aſſiſtant to Hackney Coachmen, unleſs ſuch Perſon ſhall be authorized under the Hand Writing of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſo to do; and if any ſuch Perſon ſhall preſume to attend as ſuch Waterman or Aſſiſtant as aforeſaid, without being ſo authorized as aforeſaid, he ſhall be liable to ſuch Penalty and Forfeiture for ſo doing, as ſhall be impoſed in that Behalf by the ſaid Commiſſioners, by any Order, Rule, or Ordinance made by them in purſuance of this Act.

The Commiſſioners may make Rules for regulating Hackney Coachmen and Watermen attending them, and annex Penalties for Breach thereof.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Time being ſhall have full Power and Authority to make, frame, and ſet down in Writing, ſuch reaſonable Rules, Orders, and Ordinances, for governing and regulating all Perſons who ſhall drive any Hackney Coaches, and alſo all Perſons who ſhall attend as Watermen or as Aſſiſtants to Hackney Coachmen, at any Hackney Coach Standings, or at any Places of publick Reſort, and to annex reaſonable Penalties and Forfeitures for the Breach of ſuch Rules, Orders, and Ordinances, not exceeding forty Shillings nor leſs than five Shillings, for any one Offence; and ſuch Rules, Orders, and Ordinances, or any of them, from Time to Time, to alter or amend.

No Perſon ſhall carry Perſons for Hire in a Sedan Chair, (unleſs hired for a Day,) within

X. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall preſume to carry any Perſon or Perſons for Hire in any Sedan Chair, (unleſs ſuch Sedan Chair ſhall have been or ſhall be hired by ſuch Perſon or Perſons for the Whole of the Day of twelve Hours at the leaſt, in which he, ſhe, or they ſhall be carried in ſuch Sedan Chair,) within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or the the Suburbs of the ſame, or within any of the Pariſhes or Places comprized within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, without having firſt obtained a Licence for ſuch carrying a Hackney Chair from the Commiſſioners for licenſing and regulating Hackney Coaches and Chairs; and if any Perſon ſhall offend herein, he ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of forty Shillings, to be recovered, levied, and applied, as any Penalty or Fine may by any Act or Acts, or Law or Laws now in force, be recovered, levied, and applied, for the carrying any Perſon or Perſons in any Hackney Chair for Hire within the ſame Cities, Suburbs, or Places, without ſuch Chairman or Carrier being licenſed by the Commiſſioners aforeſaid.

certain Limits, without a Licence, on Penalty of 40 s.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any ſuch Hackney Coachman, his Renter or Driver, ſhall exact or take more for his or their Hire than the ſeveral Rates hereby limited, he or they ſhall for every ſuch Offence be ſubject and liable to ſuch and the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Puniſhments, to be levied, recovered, ſuffered, and inflicted by ſuch Perſons, and in ſuch and the like Manner and Form, as by any Law or Laws now are in being reſpecting ſuch Hackney Coachmen, their Renters or Drivers; and that the ſeveral Rates and Fares herein-before mentioned ſhall and may be recovered in ſuch and the like Manner as the Fares of Hackney Coachmen are by any Act or Acts of Parliament now recoverable.

Hackney Coachmen exacting more than their Fare, liable to the Penalties, and the Fares recoverable, as by the Laws now in being.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Hackney Coachmen, his, her, or their Renter or Renters, ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, be in Arrear of Payment of any Rent or Rents, reſerved or made payable by any Licence or Licences granted, or to be hereafter granted by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, for any longer Time than is or ſhall be expreſſed in ſuch Licence or Licences, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the major Part of them, to revoke ſuch Licence or Licences. and to levy the Rents and Sums of Money reſerved, and thereby made payable, either upon the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Owner or Owners, or Renter or Renters, in ſuch and the like Manner and Form, as they may by any Law now in being do with reſpect to ſuch Owner or Owners.

In caſe of Arrears of Rent made payable by Licences, they may be revoked, and the Arrears levied either upon the Owner or Renter.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall at any Time or Times be ſued, moleſted, or proſecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, or of any Clauſe, Matter, or Thing, herein contained, ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence, for his and their Defence; and if upon the Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall become nonſuited, ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act to repeal the Duties on Sugar and Coffee exported, granted by an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for allowing Britiſh Plantation Sugar to be warehouſed; for reviving ſo much of an Act, made in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as relates to the aſcertaining the average Price of Sugar, and regulating the Allowance of Drawback on the Exportation thereof; and for allowing certain Drawbacks on Sugar exported, until the tenth Day of May one thouſand eight hundred and one. [30th May 1800.]

[See ante c. 12.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty certain additional Duties on Sugar imported and exported, and on Coffee exported, and for reducing the Drawbacks now allowed on the Exportation of Sugar, amongſt other Things, certain Duties were granted on the Exportation of Sugar and Coffee: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid Duties ſhould be repealed for a limited Time:' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, and during the Continuance thereof, ſo much of the ſaid recited Act as impoſes the ſaid Duties on the Exportation of Coffee and Sugar ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed; and that ſo much of the ſaid Duties impoſed by the ſaid recited Act as became due and payable between the thirteenth Day of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, and the Time of paſſing this Act, ſhall not be paid or payable, and that any Bonds which may have been entered into for Payment of any ſuch Duties ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby declared to be null and void, and the ſame ſhall be cancelled accordingly.

39 Geo. 3. c. 63. recited, and ſo much thereof as impoſes Duties on the Exportation of Coffee and Sugar repealed, and ſuch Duties as became payable between Oct. 13. 1799, and the paſſing this Act, ſhall not be payable.

II. 'And whereas it is expedient that further Time ſhould be given for the Payment of the Duties on Britiſh Plantation Sugar imported or to be imported into Great Britain after the thirty-firſt Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, for which the Duties have not already been paid;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, and until the tenth Day of May one thouſand eight hundred and one, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for the Time being in England and Scotland reſpectively, to take Bond to his Majeſty from the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees of any Britiſh Plantation Sugar, for the Payment of the Duties chargeable upon any ſuch Sugar

Till May 10, 1801, Bond may be taken for the Duties on Britiſh Plantation Sugar imported after March 31, 1800, or upon ſuch Sugar, the Duties whereon ſhall not have been paid before the paſſing this Act, which Sugar ſhall be warehouſed, and if the Duties be not paid within certain Periods from the Date of Bonds, it may be ſold.

Sugar imported into any Port in Great Britain at any Time after the thirty-firſt Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, or upon any ſuch Sugar in reſpect whereof ſuch Duties ſhall not have been paid before the paſſing of this Act; and all Sugar ſo bonded as aforeſaid ſhall be lodged and ſecured at the ſole Expence of the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees thereof under the joint Locks of his Majeſty and ſuch Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees thereof, in ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes as ſhall be fit for that Purpoſe, and ſhall be approved of by the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England and Scotland, as the Caſe may be; and ſuch Sugar ſhall not be delivered, cleared, or taken from any ſuch Warehouſe, unleſs or until the full Duties due and payable thereon, ſhall be firſt paid to the proper Officer of the Cuſtoms: and if the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees of ſuch Sugar, ſhall omit, neglect, or refuſe to pay and ſatisfy all the Duties due and payable in reſpect of ſuch Sugar as ſhall be entered in the uſual and accuſtomed Manner on or before the tenth Day of September one thouſand eight hundred, within ſix Months from the Date of any Bond given under this Act for the Payment of the Duties upon ſuch Sugar as aforeſaid, and with reſpect to any ſuch Sugar as ſhall be imported into the Port of London, and ſo entered between the ſaid tenth Day of September and the ſaid tenth Day of March, within three Months from the Date of any Bond ſo given, and with reſpect to any ſuch Sugar as ſhall be imported into any other Port of this Kingdom, and ſo entered between the ſaid tenth Day of September and the ſaid tenth Day of March, within two Months from the Date of any Bond ſo given, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, at the Expiration of ſuch Periods as aforeſaid, to cauſe ſuch Sugar to be publickly ſold to the beſt Bidder at ſuch Places as the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively ſhall think proper, and out of the Proceeds of ſuch Sale to ſatisfy ſuch Duties, together with all ſuch Expences as ſhall have ariſen, relating to any ſuch Sugar, and the Overplus (if any be) ſhall be paid to the Importer or Importers, Proprietor or Proprietors, Conſignee or Conſignees of ſuch Sugar, or ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be authorized to receive the ſame.

No Bond ſhall be diſcharged without Payment of Principal and Intereſt.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Bond taken by virtue and in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be diſcharged either in Law or Equity, without the full Payment or Satisfaction of the principal Money due or to become due thereon, together with Intereſt, at and after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be reckoned from the Date of ſuch Bond until the actual Payment or Satisfaction thereof.

Fees and Stamp Duties may be retained.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to deduct and retain out of the Principal and Intereſt that may become due on any Bond to be taken in purſuance of this Act, the Fees and Stamp Duties that ſhall have been paid on any ſuch Bond.

Recital of 39 Geo. 3. c 63. (§ 7) whereby certain Proviſions of 32 Geo. 3. c. 43. were repealed.

V. 'And whereas, by an Act paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for 'granting to his Majeſty certain additional Duties on Sugar imported and exported, and on Coffee exported, 'and for reducing the Drawbacks, allowed on the Exportation of Sugar, certain Proviſions of an Act paſſed 'in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for regulating the Allowance of the Draw-'back and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, and for other Purpoſes, as far as the ſame 'related to the aſcertaining the Average Price of Sugar in Manner in the ſaid Act mentioned, or of regulat-'ing the Allowance of the Drawback or the Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, were re-'pealed: And whereas it is expedient that the full Drawback and Bounty directed to be withheld by an Act 'of the thirty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and by an Act of the thirty-ninth Year of 'the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, ſhould be allowed in certain Caſes: And whereas it thereby becomes 'neceſſary that the ſeveral Proviſions of the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent 'Majeſty, ſo far as the ſame relate to the aſcertaining the Average Price of Sugar, and regulating the 'Allowance of Drawback or the Payment of Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, ſhould be revived:' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of May one thouſand eight hundred, the ſaid Act paſſed in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and all the Clauſes, Proviſions, Powers, Authorities, Directions, and Regulations therein contained, as far as the ſame relate to aſcertaining the Average Price of Sugar in the Manner therein mentioned, or of regulating the Allowance of Drawback, or the Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby revived, and ſhall be and remain in full Force during the Continuance of this Act, except as any ſuch Proviſions, Directions, or Regulations are herein altered, in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, as if all the ſaid Clauſes, Proviſions, Powers, Authorities, and Directions were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act; any Thing in the ſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

From May 5, 1800, 32 Geo. 3. c. 43. as far as relates to aſcertaining the average Price of Sugar, and regulating the Drawback on Exportation, revived.

From May 5, 1800, till Nov. 10, 1800, the Drawbacks on the Exportation of Sugar, withheld by recited Acts of 36 Geo 3. and 39 Geo. 3. ſhall be allowed, and the Duty impoſed by 39 Geo. 3. [c. 59.] upon Sugar imported by the East India Company, diſcontinued on ſuch as ſhall be exported.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of May one thouſand eight hundred, and until the tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, the Whole of the Drawbacks and Bounty paid or payable on the Exportation of Sugar, directed to be withheld by the ſaid Acts of the thirty-ſixth and thirty-ninth Years of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, ſhall be paid and allowed in like Manner in every reſpect, and ſubject to, and under and according to the like Rules and Regulations as any Drawbacks or Bounties were paid or allowed before the paſſing of the ſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and during all ſuch Time as aforeſaid, the Whole of the Duty impoſed by an Act of the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, upon Sugar imported into Great Britain by the United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the Eaſt Indies, and warehouſed according to Law, and ſold at the Sales of the ſaid Company, ſhall, as to all ſuch Sugar as ſhall be exported during the Time laſt aforeſaid, be, and the ſame is hereby wholly diſcontinued; any Thing contained in the ſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VII. And

VII. And be it further enacted, That if on the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, it ſhall appear by Notice in the London Gazette, in Manner directed in the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, that the average Prices of Brown or Muſcovado Sugar, taken in Manner directed by the ſaid Act made in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for the ſix Weeks preceding, ſhall not have exceeded ſeventy-five Shillings for an hundred Weight, incluſive of the Duties of Cuſtoms paid or payable thereon on the Importation into Great Britain, then and in every ſuch Caſe the Whole of the Drawbacks and Bounty paid or payable on the Exportation of Sugar directed to be withheld by the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, and by the ſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, ſhall be paid and allowed in like Manner in every Reſpect, and ſubject to, and under and according to the like Rules and Regulations as any Drawbacks and Bounties were paid and allowed before the paſſing of the ſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, except as any ſuch Rules or Regulations are altered by this Act; and the Whole of the Duty impoſed by an Act paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty upon Sugar imported into Great Britain by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, and warehouſed according to Law, and ſold at the Sales of the ſaid Company, ſhall, upon the Delivery thereof out of the Warehouſes for Exportation, during the Time of any Drawbacks or Bounties being paid or allowed under this Act, be, and the ſame are hereby wholly diſcontinued; any Thing in the ſaid Act paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

If on Nov. 10, 1800, the average Price of Muſcovado Sugar, taken as directed by 32 Geo. 3. c. 43 ſhall not have exceeded 75s. per Cwt. the Drawbacks withheld by 36 Geo. 3. and 39 Geo. 3. ſhall be paid, and the ſaid Duties on Sugar imported by the East India Company, ſhall be diſcontinued on Delivery for Exportation.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Drawback and Bounty payable on the Exportation of Sugar, by virtue and in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be paid and allowed on all Sugar which ſhall be ſhipped or laden on board any Ship or Ships, or Water-borne with Intent to be ſhipped or laden on board any Ship or Ships in Great Britain.

Drawback ſhall be paid on Sugar ſhipt or Water-borne with Intent to be ſhipt for Exportation.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall, as to all the Matters and Things herein contained relating to the paying and allowing any Drawback or Bounty, or diſcontinuing any Duty under this Act, have Continuance until the tenth Day of May one thouſand eight hundred and one.

Continuance of Act.

CAP. XLIX.

[See c. 96]

An Act for the better aſcertaining and collecting the Duties granted by ſeveral Acts paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, relating to the Duties on Income; and to explain and amend the ſaid Acts. [20th June 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Proviſion ſhould be made for better collecting the Duties upon Income, impoſed by ſeveral Acts of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament:' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be allowed to ſeparate or divide the Sum intended to be contributed, into ſeveral Portions, nor ſhall elect to pay the ſame by Payments to be made in different Diviſions in ſeparate Proportions; but all and every Perſon and Perſons, whether any ſuch Statement ſhall be made jointly by two or more Perſons, or ſeparately, ſhall deliver a Statement, comprehending the whole Sum intended to be contributed by him, her, or them, in reſpect of the Whole of his, her, or their Income, from whatever Source the ſame ſhall ariſe, or in reſpect of the Whole of the Income received or receivable by him, her, or them, as Truſtee, Agent, Receiver, Guardian, Committee, Tutor, or Curator, or in any other Capacity, on Account of any other Perſon or Perſons, in one and the ſame Diviſion, and to the Aſſeſſors for the ſame Pariſh or Place, or Commiſſioners, as the Caſe may require, for the ſame Diſtrict, whether they ſhall be Commercial Commiſſioners or Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the Acts on Income, except in the Caſes where the ſame Perſons ſhall be engaged in different Concerns of Trade or Manufacture in Partnerſhip, or ſeparately, in divers Places; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be charged and aſſeſſed to the Whole of ſuch Income by the ſame Deſcription of Commiſſioners, and not in different Portions by Commiſſioners of different Diſtricts or by different Commiſſioners (except as aforeſaid); any Thing in the ſaid Acts, or any of them, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

All Perſons ſhall deliver Statements, whether made jointly or ſeparately, comprehending the Sum intended to be contributed for their whole Income from whatever Source ariſing, or receivable as Truſtee, &c. in one and the ſame Diviſion, except where engaged in different Concerns; and ſhall be aſſeſſed for the Whole by the ſame Deſcription of Commiſſioners. [See 39 Geo. 3. c. 13 §75.]

II. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon carrying on Trade or Manufacture, within any City, Town, Place, or Diſtrict, where Commercial Commiſſioners have been or ſhall hereafter be appointed to act, and ſhall act as ſuch Commercial Commiſſioners, except as herein-after is otherwiſe provided, ſhall deliver in the Statement required to be returned by him or her, in purſuance of the ſaid Acts and this Act, to the Commercial Commiſſioners for ſuch City, Town, Place, or Diſtrict; and the Income of every ſuch Perſon ſhall be cognizable only by ſuch Commercial Commiſſioners.

Every Perſon carrying on Trade where Commercial Commiſſioners act (except as herein-after provided, ſee §7), ſhall deliver his Statement to them, and his Income ſhall be cognizable by them only. [See 39 Geo. 3. c. 13. § 96.]

III. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon engaged in Trade or Manufacture ſhall ſpecify and diſtinguiſh, in the Statement delivered by him or her under the ſaid Acts or this Act, (whether the ſame ſhall be delivered to Commercial Commiſſioners or Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, or to Aſſeſſors,) how much of the Sum of Money contained in ſuch Statement is payable in reſpect of Income ariſing from Trade,

Perſons in Trade ſhall diſtinguiſh in their Statements how much of the Sum is payable in respect of Income arising from Trade, and how much in respect of Income arising from other Sources,

Trade or Manufacture, and how much thereof in respect of Income derived from any other Source or Sources; and every such Person shall be assessed according to the same Rate to the Whole of the Duties payable in respect of the Whole of his or her Income in One Sum, from whatever Source or Sources the same shall arise, distinguishing nevertheless in such Assessment the Proportion assessed in respect of Income arising from Trade or Manufacture, and the Proportion thereof arising from any other Source or Sources, but shall be assessed according to the same Rate for the Whole in one Sum.

Persons in Trade shall specify in their Statements where and to whom they were delivered the preceding Year, and whether the Income was calculated on an Average of Years, and the Years and Number; and Partners shall specify the Name and Residence of each, and whether the Statements delivered in the preceding Year contained their joint or separate Income, and where assessed and how calculated.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Person engaged in Trade or Manufacture shall, in his or her Statement, specify the District where his or her Statement (if any) was delivered in the preceding Year, and whether the same was delivered to Assessors or to Commercial Commissioners, and also whether the Income in respect whereof the same was delivered, was calculated on an Average of Years, or on one Year only; and if on an Average of Years, then the particular Years and Number thereof; and where any two or more Persons shall be engaged in Trade or Manufacture as Partners together, then the Statement or Statements of such Partners, whether the same shall be delivered in jointly or separately, shall also specify the Name and Residence of every Partner, and each Partner shall respectively state whether the Statement or Statements delivered in by him in the preceding Year of such Partnership Income (if any such were delivered in) contained the joint or separate Income of such Partners, and also where and before what Commissioners such Partner was assessed; and whether such Statement or Statements was or were calculated on the Income of the preceding Year, or on an Average of any and what Number of preceding Years.

Statements of Partners shall be delivered in the Division where the Trade is carried on: and if carried on in divers Places, then at such one as the principal Partner resident in Great Britain shall elect; and where their Interests are equal, at the Election of the resident Partner first named in the Deed; and where there is no Deed, at the election of the resident Partner named first in the Firm: who is to give Notice thereof to every other resident Partner. Where there is no resident Partner, the Statement shall be delivered by the Agent. Where the resident Partners shall be desirous of delivering separate Statements, the principal Resident shall deliver the Statements of the non-resident Partners; and where the Partners are desirous of being charged jointly, the Statement shall comprize only the Income arising from the Trade and Premises; and a distinct Assessment shall be made upon the Partners jointly upon the Whole as a separate Income. If a Partner shall be chargeable in respect of his separate Income for less than 200l. he shall declare his Proportion in the Partnership, that an Assessment may be made on the Whole, or be liable to pay a tenth on his separate Income.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all Statements delivered by any Persons trading in Partnership together, whether joint or separate, shall be delivered in the Division or Place, and to the respective Commissioners, where the Trade or Manufacture shall be carried on, notwithstanding the same Person may be engaged in distinct Partnership Concerns; and if any such Trade or Manufacture shall be carried on in divers Places, then the same shall be delivered in at some one of such Places, at the Election of the principal Partner or Person having the larger Share or Interest in such Partnership Concern, and being resident in Great Britain; or if the respective Shares and Interests of several of such Partners in any such Partnership, who are respectively resident in Great Britain, shall be equal, then at the Election of such of the said Partners who shall be so resident, and who shall be first named in the Deed, Instrument, or other Agreement of Copartnership, or when there shall be no such Deed, Instrument, or Agreement of Copartnership, then at the Election of such of the said Partners who shall be so resident in Great Britain, and shall be named singly or with Priority to the other Partner or Partners in the usual Copartnership Name, Stile, and Firm; whereof such Partner is hereby required to give Notice to every other Partner in such Trade or Manufacture residing in Great Britain: Provided also, That where no such Partner shall be resident in Great Britain, then the Statement of the Income of such Partnership shall be delivered by their Agent, Manager, or Factor in Great Britain, jointly for such Partners: Provided also, That where certain of the Partners shall not be resident in Great Britain, and any other or others shall be resident therein, and the Partner or Partners who is or are so resident, shall be desirous of delivering separate Statements, the Partner or principal Partner of those who are resident in Great Britain, shall deliver the Statements of Income arising from such Partnership, of all the Partners not resident in Great Britain; and every Statement of the joint Income of any such Partnership, where the Partners shall be desirous of being charged jointly, shall comprize only the Income arising from such Trade or Manufacture as aforesaid, or from such Lands or Tenements occupied for the Purpose of such Trade or Manufacture; and a distinct Assessment shall be made upon the Partners jointly upon the Whole as a separate Income, without any Division thereof into Shares or Portions according to the respective Interests of such Partners, and without any Addition of any separate Income: Provided always, That if any or either of such Partners shall be chargeable in respect of his or her separate Income, amounting to less than two hundred Pounds, every such Partner shall declare his or her Proportion in such Partnership, in order that the separate Income may be added thereto in making the Assessment, or in Default thereof he or she shall be chargeable for the Tenth of such separate Income, whatever may be the Amount thereof.

The Commissioners acting within any District in which Persons in Trade shall be assessed, (except the Commercial Commissioners for London and its Vicinity,)

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting in the Execution of the Acts relating to Duties on Income, within any District in which any Person shall be assessed according to the Rules and Regulations in the said Acts or any or either of them or this Act contained, for assessing Persons engaged in Trade or Manufacture, (except the Commercial Commissioners for the City of London and its Vicinity,) to appoint some proper Person or Persons, and such as can give competent Security to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, (which Security the said Commissioners, or any two of them, are hereby authorized to require and take in their own Names, and insert therein such Conditions as shall be required by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes in that Behalf,) to receive the Duties assessed by such Commissioners in any such District upon Persons engaged in Trade or Manufacture, whose Assessment ſhall not be included in any Warrant to any Collector or Collectors of the ſaid Duties; or who ſhall not have given Notice to pay the ſame into the Bank of England; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners to allow to the Perſon or Perſons ſo appointed as aforeſaid ſuch Salary or Reward for his or their Attendance and Trouble therein, as ſhall be agreed upon between ſuch Commiſſioners and the Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, and as ſhall be approved of by the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, not exceeding the Rate of one Penny Halfpenny in the Pound of the Sum paid to the Receiver General as after mentioned; which Salary or Reward the Perſon or Perſons ſo appointed is and are hereby empowered to detain out of the Payments of the laſt Inſtalment payable in reſpect of the Duties receivable by him or them as aforeſaid; and every ſuch Perſon ſhall on ſome Day in every Week, to be named in the Security entered into by him, pay or remit to the Receiver General of the County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place where ſuch Duties ſhall be paid as aforeſaid, the whole Amount of the Duties that ſhall from Time to Time be collected by virtue of this Act.

may appoint Perſons to receive the Duties aſſeſſed upon Traders whoſe Aſſeſſments ſhall not have been included in any Warrant to the Collectors, or who ſhall not have given Notice to pay the ſame into the Bank, and may allow them ſuch Recompence (not exceeding 1½d. per Pound,) as ſhall be approved of by the Commiſſioners for Taxes. Such Perſons ſhall remit weekly to the Receiver General the Money collected.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Perſon engaged in Trade or Manufacture, and entitled by the ſaid Acts to be aſſeſſed by the Commercial Commiſſioners appointed within and for the City of London and its Vicinity, whoſe Contribution, in reſpect of Income ariſing from ſuch Trade or Manufacture, which ſhall be returned in the Statement delivered in by him or her, ſhall not amount to the Sum of twenty Pounds, ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, be entitled to be aſſeſſed by the ſaid Commercial Commiſſioners of the City of London and its Vicinity: Provided always, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to prevent any Perſons engaged in Trade or Manufacture in Partnerſhip, whoſe joint Contribution in reſpect of Income ariſing from ſuch Trade or Manufacture, which ſhall be returned in one Statement as upon a Partnerſhip Income, and to be aſſeſſed as ſuch, ſhall amount to the ſaid Sum of twenty Pounds, from being aſſeſſed by ſuch Commercial Commiſſioners, although the whole Income of any one of ſuch Partners might not amount to ſuch Sum as aforeſaid.

No Trader whoſe propoſed Contribution ſhall not amount to 20l. ſhall be entitled to be aſſeſſed by the Commercial Commiſſioners for London; but Partners whoſe joint Contribution amounts to that Sum may be aſſeſſed by them. [See poſt. c. 96. of this Seſſion.]

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Perſons engaged in Trade and Manufacture, whoſe Contribution, ſo returned as aforeſaid, as ariſing from Trade or Manufacture, ſhall not amount to the ſaid Sum of twenty Pounds, and reſiding or carrying on any ſuch Trade or Manufacture within the Juriſdiction of the Commercial Commiſſioners for the City of London and its Vicinity, ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, be aſſeſſed by the Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts and this Act, acting for the Diſtrict within which ſuch Perſons reſpectively ſhall carry on ſuch Trade or Manufacture; and it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Perſons reſpectively, by him, her, or themſelves, or his, her, or their Agents, to deliver or cauſe to be delivered their reſpective Statements to the Clerks to the ſaid laſt-mentioned Commiſſioners, in ſuch and the like Manner, in every Reſpect, as if ſuch Statements were delivered to the Commercial Commiſſioners; and ſuch Perſons ſhall thereupon be aſſeſſed by all or any of ſuch Rules, Directions, and Regulations, as are in any of the ſaid Acts and this Act contained, with reſpect to Perſons in Trade or Manufacture.

Traders whoſe propoſed Contribution ſhall not amount to 20l. reſiding within the Juriſdiction of the Commercial Commiſſioners for London, ſhall be aſſeſſed by the Commiſſioners for executing the Income Acts, to whoſe Clerks they may deliver Statements as to the Commercial Commiſſioners, and ſhall be aſſeſſed as Traders.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon engaged in Trade or Manufacture, within the Limits of the Diſtrict of the Commercial Commiſſioners for the City of London and its Vicinity, who, by reaſon of any of the Proviſions of this Act, ſhall not be entitled to be aſſeſſed by ſuch Commercial Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, and every Perſon engaged in Trade or Manufacture in any City, Town, Place, or Diſtrict, where no ſuch Commercial Commiſſioners as aforeſaid ſhall act, may on the Delivery of his or her Statement to the Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts in the Diſtrict where ſuch Trade or Manufacture ſhall be carried on, require to be aſſeſſed to the ſaid Duties, under the like Rules and in all Reſpects in like Manner as if ſuch Statements had been delivered to Commercial Commiſſioners; and the Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, in every ſuch Diſtrict, ſhall, on the Receipt of any ſealed Statement which ſhall have been delivered to them and not to the Aſſeſſors, proceed to charge ſuch Perſon in like Manner, and under the like Powers, Rules, Regulations, and Directions, in all Reſpects, as any Commercial Commiſſioners might have done; provided that ſuch Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, and their reſpective Clerks, and ſuch Receiver or Receivers as they ſhall appoint as herein-before provided, ſhall, before they act therein, take the Oath of Secrecy required to be taken by Commercial Commiſſioners and their reſpective Clerks, by virtue of the ſaid Acts or any of them, in addition to the Oath required to be taken by other Commiſſioners.

Traders within the Limits of the Commercial Commiſſioners for London not entitled to be aſſeſſed by them, and Traders in any Diſtrict where no Commercial Commiſſioners act, may, on Delivery of Statements to the Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the Income Acts, may be aſſeſſed as if they had been delivered to Commercial Commiſſioners; ſuch Commiſſioners, their Clerks, and the Receivers, taking the Oath of Secrecy. (See 39 Geo. 3. c. 42. § 8.)

X. And be it further enacted, That any Income ariſing from Property in any of the Britiſh Plantations in America, and imported into Great Britain from thence, ſhall be ſtated, proved, aſcertained, and aſſeſſed, before and by the reſpective Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts and this Act, acting for the Diſtrict within which the Perſon or Perſons to whom any ſuch Property ſhall belong ſhall reſide, in every Caſe where the Amount of Contribution in reſpect of the Income ariſing from ſuch Property as aforeſaid ſhall not Amount to the Sum of twenty Pounds, in like Manner and under the like Rules as Income ariſing from Trade or Manufacture.

Income ariſing from Property in the Britiſh Plantations in America, and imported into Great Britain, ſhall be aſſeſſed by the Commiſſioners for the Diſtrict within which the Owner ſhall reſide, where the Contribution ſhall not amount to 20l. as Income ariſing from Trade.

So much of Acts as reſtrains Commercial Commiſſioners from enquiring into Statements before 21 Days after Delivery, repealed. [See 39 Geo. 3. c. 13. § 97.]

XI. And be it further enacted, That ſo much of the ſaid recited Acts, or any of them, as reſtrain Commercial Commiſſioners from enquiring into Statements of Income delivered to them before the Expiration of twenty-one Days from the Day of receiving the ſame, ſhall be and the ſame is hereby repealed.

The Commercial Commiſſioners, and the Commiſſioners acting as ſuch, ſhall enter the Sums aſſeſſed in reſpect of Income ariſing from Trade, ſeparate from Aſſeſſments in reſpect of other Income, and tranſmit to the Tax Office, diſtinct Accounts of the Amount of Income aſſeſſed as ariſing from Trade, from Property in America, and from any other Source, and Liſts of the Names, &c. of all Perſons aſſeſſed by them, made out according to an alphabetical Arrangement of the Places of Reſidence.

XII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſeveral Commercial Commiſſioners, and the Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, acting as ſuch Commercial Commiſſioners, ſhall, in their reſpective Books of Aſſeſſments, enter and cauſe to be entered the ſeveral Amounts of the Sums aſſeſſed by them in reſpect of Income ariſing from Trade or Manufacture, ſeparate and apart from all Sums aſſeſſed by them in reſpect of Income ariſing from any other Source; and ſhall, from Time to Time, make out and cauſe to be made out, and ſhall tranſmit or cauſe to be tranſmitted to the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, diſtinct Accounts of the Amount of Income aſſeſſed by them as ariſing from Trade or Manufacture, and of the Amount of Income aſſeſſed by them as ariſing from Property in any of the Britiſh Plantations in America, and alſo from any other Source or Sources, diſtinguiſhing the Amount ariſing on each Head of Income; which Accounts ſhall be ſeverally made out with the Particulars and in the Manner required by the ſaid Acts for the like Accounts reſpectively; and ſhall alſo from Time to Time make out or cauſe to be made out, and ſhall tranſmit or cauſe to be tranſmitted to the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, Liſts containing the Name, Deſcription, and Place of Reſidence of all and every Perſons or Perſon aſſeſſed by them reſpectively, as ſoon as the ſame conveniently can be done; which Liſts ſhall be made out according to an alphabetical Arrangement of the reſpective Pariſhes or Places of Reſidence, claſſing together all Pariſhes and Places in the ſame County, Riding, Shire, or Stewartry.

In Addition to the Certificate required [by 39 Geo. 3. c. 13. § 99, and c. 22. § 14.] to be given to the Perſons aſſeſſed by the Commercial Commiſſioners, they ſhall deliver another, containing the Name, &c. of the Perſon aſſeſſed, and that he hath been charged to the Duties; which ſhall be ſigned by their Clerk, and exhibited by the Party charged to the general Commiſſioners of his Diſtrict, that a Copy may be taken and filed, and if not exhibited in a reaſonable Time, the general Commiſſioners may aſſeſs the Party as a Perſon not concerned in Trade.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in Addition to the Certificate required by the ſaid Acts to be given to every Perſon to be aſſeſſed by Commercial Commiſſioners, the ſaid Commercial Commiſſioners ſhall, at the ſame Time at which the Certificate before-mentioned ſhall be delivered, deliver to the Perſon ſo aſſeſſed, or to ſome Perſon on his or her Behalf, another Certificate, containing the proper Name, Deſcription, and Reſidence of the Perſon ſo aſſeſſed, and certifying that ſuch Perſon hath been charged to the ſaid Duties on Income, according to the Proviſions of the ſaid Acts by the Commiſſioners granting ſuch Certificate; which Certificate ſhall be ſigned by the Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners, and ſhall be exhibited forthwith by the Party, to the Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, within the Diſtrict where ſuch Perſon might otherwiſe lawfully be aſſeſſed, to be by them returned to the Party exhibiting ſuch Certificate after having taken a Copy thereof, to be by the ſaid Commiſſioners kept and filed; and in Default of ſuch Certificate being exhibited within a reaſonable Time, unleſs a ſufficient Excuſe be given to the Satisfaction of ſuch Commiſſioners, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts in ſuch Diſtrict, to proceed to aſſeſs ſuch Perſon to the ſaid Duties, in like Manner as Perſons not engaged in Trade or Manufacture may be aſſeſſed thereto.

When the Commercial Commiſſioners ſhall have granted a Certificate of an Abatement on account of Diminution of Income, the Bank may direct Payment of the Over payment. [See 39 Geo. 3. c. 13. § 78.]

XIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Commercial Commiſſioners ſhall, according to the Proviſions of the ſaid Acts, have allowed to any Perſon, any Abatement of the Sums aſſeſſed for the Year ending on the fifth Day of April in any Year, on Account of Diminution of Income, and ſhall have granted a Certificate thereof in the Manner directed by the ſaid Acts, or any Act relating to the ſaid Duties, or referred to and made applicable thereby, it ſhall be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to direct their Caſhier or Caſhiers to repay to ſuch Perſon ſuch Sum as it ſhall appear has been overpaid on ſuch Aſſeſſment, out of any publick Monies in the Hands of ſuch Caſhier or Caſhiers; who ſhall from Time to Time replace the ſame out of the firſt Monies that ſhall come into the Bank of England of the ſaid Duties upon Income; for which Payment the Certificate of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall be a ſufficient Authority.

The Rules preſcribed in the Schedules, as far as relates to aſcertaining Income ariſing from Land occupied by the Owner, or by a Tenant at Rack Rent, repealed. [See 39 Geo. 3. c. 22. Sched. A. Ca. I. and Ca. XI.]

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Rules preſcribed in the Schedules of the ſeveral Acts for granting Duties on Income, or either of them, as far as relates to the Mode for aſcertaining Income ariſing from Land occupied by the Owner, or by a Tenant at Rack Rent, ſhall be and are hereby repealed.

Income ariſing [to the Tenant] from Land occupied by a Tenant at Rack Rent, ſhall be taken in certain Proportions to the aggregate Amount of the following Articles, viz. Rent, Taxes, Tythes.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, the Income ariſing from Land occupied by a Tenant at Rack Rent, ſhall be taken in the Proportions herein-after ſpecified to the aggregate Amount of the following Articles; (videlicet,)

Rent for one Year payable to the Landlord or Landlords:

Parochial and other Rates and Aſſeſſments charged on the ſaid Lands, or upon the Occupiers in reſpect of ſuch Lands, on an Average of the three ſucceſſive Years ending on the twenty-ninth Day of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, or on an Average of the three ſucceſſive Years ending the twenty-ninth Day of September of the Year immediately preceding the Date of the exiſting Leaſe, Contract, or Agreement by virtue of which ſuch Lands are held or occupied; provided ſuch Leaſe, Contract, or Agreement bears Date of its Commencement within fifteen Years previous to the paſſing of this Act; or in caſe case the Date of the Commencement of the said Lease shall go beyond fifteen Years from the passing of this Act, then to an Average of any three successive Years within the said Period of fifteen Years; and provided the said parochial and other Rates and Assessments are payable by the Occupier for the Time being:

And the Value of all Tythes as the same would be worth to be let when taken in Kind, or the Sums paid or payable for the same, or agreed to be paid in Satisfaction for the same, within or for the last preceding or the current Year.

If such aggregate Amount be under three hundred Pounds a Year, then the Income shall be taken at one-half of such Amount; and if at three hundred Pounds a Year, or upwards, then at three-fifths of such Amount.

Income arising from Lands occupied by the Owner shall be taken at the aggregate Amount of Rent of like Lands in the Neighbourhood, and a Proportion of what would be computed to be the Income of the Tenant at Rack Rent.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in case of Lands occupied by the Owner, the Income arising therefrom shall be taken at the aggregate Amount of the Rent at which the same are worth to be let by the Year, according to the ordinary Rent of Lands of the like Quality, and under the like Circumstances, in the same Neighbourhood, and a certain Proportion of what would be computed to be the Income of the Tenant at Rack Rent, as above-mentioned; that is to say, if such aggregate Amount be under three hundred Pounds a Year, then the Income shall be taken at such Rent and two-fifths of such Amount, and if at three hundred Pounds a Year, or upwards, then at such Rent and one-half of such Amount; except always where the Lands shall have come into the Occupation of the Owner within eighteen Months past, on the Expiration of a Lease or the Death or Failure of a Tenant, in which Case the same shall be valued at one Year's Rent only of Lands of the like Quality as aforesaid.

Occupiers of Land thinking themselves aggrieved by such Assessments may appeal, as allowed by the Income Acts, and if it be proved that the Sum so estimated exceeds the clear Income, the Commissioners may amend the Assessment, so that no Occupier shall be charged with more than a Tenth of the actual Profits from the Lands. [See 39 Geo. 3. c. 13. § 94.]

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if by pursuing the Rules before-mentioned, any Occupier of Land shall think himself aggrieved by the Assessment to be made thereupon, it shall be lawful for such Occupier of Land to appeal from such Assessment, at such Time and in such Manner as Appeals may be made under the said Acts; and if upon the Hearing of such Appeal, it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners, that the Sum so estimated as the Income arising from such Lands by virtue of such Rule, doth exceed the Amount of the clear Income actually received by such Occupier from such Lands, on the Average of three Years preceding (if such Person shall have occupied such Lands during three Years) or on the Average of the Period for which he shall have occupied the same (if less than three Years) it shall be lawful for such Commissioners, and they are hereby required, to amend such Assessment in such Manner as according to all Circumstances proved to them, shall appear just and reasonable to be charged in respect of such actual Income, computed on the Average and in Manner aforesaid; so that in no such Case the Occupier shall be charged with more than one Tenth Part of his actual Profits from the Land so occupied by him.

Provisions in former Acts, [See 39 Geo. 3. c. 13. § 8, 9, 10.] which exempt temporary Residents, shall not extend to Persons who have continually resided in Great Britain six Months prior to the Time for Delivery of Statements; but they shall be chargeable to the Duties. Temporary Residents chargeable to the Duties granted by 38 Geo. 3. c. 16. shall be charged thereto as hereinafter directed.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the several Provisions of the said recited Acts, or any of them, which exempt from the Duties thereby granted Persons being in Great Britain for some temporary Purpose only, and not with any View or Intent of establishing their Residence therein, shall not be extended, in any Case, from and after the passing of this Act, to any Person who shall have continually resided in Great Britain for the Space of six Calendar Months prior to the Time required for the Delivery of his or her Statement of Income; but every Person who shall have continually so resided during the Period before-mentioned, shall be chargeable to the said Duties on Income in the Manner directed by the said recited Acts, as a Person actually residing in Great Britain, whether such Person shall be a Subject of his Majesty or not; any Thing in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding: And every Person who shall be adjudged, by reason of temporary Residence in Great Britain, to be chargeable to the Duties granted by an Act passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War, shall be charged thereto in the Manner herein-after directed.

Where the Commissioners shall adjudge any such Person chargeable to the Duties under 38 Geo. 3. c. 16. they shall issue Precepts to the Assessors of the Duties granted by 38 Geo. 3. cc. 40, 41. to cause a Return to be made of the Particulars and Amount of the Duties for which such Person shall stand charged by virtue of the

XX. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where the said respective Commissioners shall adjudge any Person to be chargeable to the Duties granted by the said last mentioned Act, as a Person residing in this Kingdom for a temporary Purpose only, it shall be lawful for them, in their respective Divisions or Districts, or any two or more of them, and they are hereby required, to issue their Precept or Precepts to the respective Assessors, or one of them, of the Duties on Houses, Windows, and Lights, and other the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, granted by two Acts passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, the one thereof intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties on Houses, Windows, and Lights, on inhabited Houses, and on Clocks and Watches; and for granting to his Majesty other Duties on Houses, Windows, and Lights, and on inhabited Houses, in lieu thereof; and the other thereof intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties upon Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs; and for granting to his Majesty other Duties in lieu thereof; and acting for the Parish or Place where the Person or Persons intended to be charged shall reside or be, or for any other Parish or Place where such Person or Persons shall have returned to pay the Duties or any of them charged by virtue of the said Acts, requiring such Assessors, or one or more of them respectively, to cause a Return to be made, on a Day and at a Place to be fixed in every such Precept, of the Particulars and Amount of the Duties for and to which such Person or Persons shall stand charged by virtue of the last Assessment or Assessments made upon such Person or Persons by virtue of the said last mentioned Acts within their respective Parishes and Places, in last Assessment under the said Acts; or if no Assessment has been made for the current or preceding Year, or the Party shall not have been charged to the full Amount, him.

in case any such Assessment or Assessments shall have been made; and if no such Assessment shall have been made upon such Person or Persons for the current or preceding Year, or if he, she, or they shall not have been charged to the full Amount that is or might be chargeable by virtue of the said Acts last mentioned, according to such Return as is directed to be made by this Act, then such Assessors, or one of them, shall cause a Return to be made of the House and Window Duties, and of the greatest Number of Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, and Dogs retained, kept, or used by such Person or Persons as aforesaid, at any Time during the Period herein-after mentioned, or which he, she, or they shall then retain, keep, or use respectively.

then to cause a Return to be made of the House and Window Duties, and of the greatest Number of Male Servants, &c. kept by

The Assessors to whom Precepts shall be delivered, shall cause previous Assessments to be computed upon such Parties, in Proportion to the Duties granted by 38 Geo. 3. cc. 40, 41. in respect of Dwelling Houses then occupied by them, and of the greatest Number of Male Servants, &c. kept by them, which shall be the Basis of an Assessment to be made by the Commissioners under the Income

XXI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where any such Enquiry as aforesaid shall have been directed, it shall be lawful for the respective Assessors to whom such Precepts shall be delivered, and they are hereby required, according to the Direction therein contained, to cause a previous Assessment or Assessments to be computed upon the Person or Persons mentioned in such Precepts respectively, in Proportion to the Duties granted by the said two Acts passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, in respect of all and every Dwelling Houses or House which, or any Part whereof, shall be then occupied by such Person or Persons, and whether any other Person or Persons shall have been charged for the same or not, and also in respect of the greatest Number of Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, and Dogs retained, kept, or used by him, her, or them, at any Time within the Period for which the before-mentioned Return is hereby directed to be made, according to the respective Descriptions, and at the respective Rates contained in the said last mentioned Acts; which Assessment or Assessments so computed, being confirmed as herein-after is directed, and returned to the said respective Commissioners appointed under the said Acts for granting Duties on Income, shall be the Basis of an Assessment to be made by the said Commissioners upon such Person or Persons to the said Duties on Income, according to the said Act for granting an Aid and Contribution to the War as aforesaid: Provided always, That no Assessment to the Duties granted by the said Acts of the thirty-eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign respectively, or either of them, made for the Purposes of this Act, shall be deemed a Charge upon any Person or Persons to the Duties granted by the said Acts, any farther than such Person would be liable to if this Act had not been made: Provided also, That in Cases where a sufficient Assessment shall have already been made upon such Person or Persons to the said last mentioned Duties as required by this Act, it shall be lawful for such Assessors to cause a Copy of such Assessment to be returned to the said respective Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, instead of making an Assessment as herein-before is directed.

Acts, according to 38 Geo 3. c. 16.; but no Assessments to the Duties under 38 Geo. 3. cc. 40, 41. made for the Purpose of this Act, shall be deemed a Charge to the said Duties further than the Person would be liable if this Act had not been made. Where a sufficient Assessment has already been made, the Assessors shall return a Copy to the Commissioners instead of making an Assessment.

Such Assessments under this Act shall be returned to the Commissioners of the Division for the Duties under 38 Geo. 3. cc. 40, 41. the Assessors giving Notice

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Assessment of the Sums computed under the Authority of this Act, shall be returned by the Assessors making the same to the proper Commissioners of the Division for the Duties granted by the said last mentioned Acts, for their Confirmation, such Assessors giving Notice thereof to the Party or Parties; which Assessment shall be subject to Appeal, within ten Days after such Notice, in the Manner directed by the said Acts; and which Appeal shall be determined by such Commissioners as soon as conveniently can be done, on ten Days general Notice to be given by them in the Manner directed or used in other Cases of assessed Taxes; and every such Assessment so confirmed or determined, shall be transmitted to the Commissioners for carrying into Execution the said Acts for granting Duties on Income, to be by them used and applied in the Execution thereof, as herein is directed.

thereof to the Parties, and shall be subject to Appeal, as in other Cases of assessed Taxes; and when confirmed, &c. shall be transmitted to the Commissioners for executing the Income Acts.

If any Person whose ordinary Residence is out of Great Britain, shall, during the Continuance of any Charge upon him on Account of temporary Residence, go beyond Sea, the Charge shall continue until the End of the current Year, unless Notice of Departure be delivered to the Commissioners' Clerk, and a

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, if any Person, whose ordinary Residence shall have been out of Great Britain, shall, during the Continuance of any Charge made upon him or her, under the said first-recited Acts or this Act, by reason of temporary Residence therein, depart from Great Britain and go into any Parts beyond the Seas, such Charge shall continue until the End of the current Year, unless Notice of the Time of such Departure be delivered to the Clerk of the Commissioners by whom such Charge was made, and a Receipt or Receipts be produced to such Clerk, of the Payment or Satisfaction of all Sums which had accrued or might accrue upon such Charge prior to the Time of such Departure; in which Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to vacate such Charge from and after the Period of the actual Departure of such Person from Great Britain, whenever the same shall be certified to the said Commissioners by the Collector of the Customs, or his Deputy, or by any Officer of the Customs authorized by such Collector or Deputy, at the Port of Departure of such Person; which Certificate every such Collector or Deputy shall give or cause to be given whenever required so to do by such Person for the Purposes aforesaid: Provided that no Person, being a Subject of his Majesty, shall be entitled to vacate such Charge in respect of Income arising in Great Britain, by occasion of his or her Departure from Great Britain within the Year for which such Charge was made: Provided also, that in Default of a Certificate upon such Departure, the said Duties may be levied for the Whole of the current Year as any Debt to his Majesty upon Record may be levied by Law.

Receipt produced for all Sums accrued prior thereto; in which Case the Charge may be vacated on Certificate from the Officer of the Customs at the Port of Departure; but no Subject shall be entitled to vacate such Charge in respect of Income arising in Great Britain within the Year. In Default of Certificate, the Duties may be levied as a Debt upon Record to his Majesty.

XXIV. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to extend to charge any Lodger in reſpect of the Amount of any Aſſeſſment computed upon the Duties on Houſes, Windows, or Lights, for any greater Proportion of the Houſe than what ſhall be in his or her actual Occupation; and that in every ſuch Caſe the Part actually occupied by ſuch Lodger ſhall be conſidered, for the Purpoſes of this Act, as a ſeparate and diſtinct Dwelling Houſe.

No Lodger chargeable in reſpect of the Houſe Tax, &c. in any greater Proportion than for the Part in his Occupation.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That in every Caſe where the Commercial Commiſſioners, or Commiſſioners acting for any Diviſion, ſhall aſſeſs any Perſon or Perſons at any greater Amount than the Sum delivered in, in the Statement of ſuch Perſon or Perſons; or where the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall at any Time within the Space of twelve Calendar Months after ſuch Aſſeſſment ſhall have been made, diſcover that any Increaſe ought to be made to ſuch Aſſeſſment, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, to charge ſuch Perſon or Perſons for every ſuch Increaſe beyond the Sums delivered in in ſuch Statement, or the Sum contained in ſuch Aſſeſſment, as the Caſe may require, with a Proportion not exceeding double the Amount by which the Duties with which ſuch Perſon would otherwiſe have been chargeable under or by virtue of the ſaid Acts or this Act, ſhall have been ſo encreaſed; unleſs ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall make it appear, that the Omiſſion complained of did not proceed from any Fraud, Covin, Art, or Contrivance whatever, or any groſs or wilful Neglect,

Where the Commiſſioners ſhall aſſeſs any Perſon at a greater Amount than that contained in his own Statement, or ſhall within twelve Months diſcover that any Increaſe ought to be made, they may charge for ſuch Increaſe a Proportion not exceeding double the Amount of the Increaſe, unleſs it be made appear that the Omiſſion did not proceed from Fraud, &c.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners acting in and for each Diviſion, upon any Enquiry into the Amount of any Income, or of any Deduction to be made from any Income, to ſummon all High Conſtables, Churchwardens, and Overſeers of the Poor, and all Clerks to Commiſſioners of Land Tax and Supply and Aſſeſſed Taxes, and all Collectors, Supervifors, and other Officers of Exciſe, or any of them reſpectively, within the Diviſion of the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners, and alſo all Inſpectors and Surveyors, Aſſeſſors and Collectors of Aſſeſſed Taxes acting for ſuch Diviſion or any Part thereof, whom the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall judge able to give Evidence of the Amount of Income or reputed Income then under Enquiry, or of the Amount of Deductions to be made thereout; and all Perſons ſo ſummoned ſhall attend the Meeting or Meetings of the ſaid Commiſſioners mentioned in ſuch Summons, and bring with them before the ſaid Commiſſioners, for their Inſpection, all ſuch Parochial and other publick Rates and Aſſeſſments, and all Books, Documents, and Papers relating thereto, and all other publick Books, Documents, and Papers, as to ſuch Commiſſioners reſpectively may ſeem neceſſary, and which they ſhall require; and it ſhall alſo be lawful for ſuch Commiſſioners to examine upon Oath, or ſolemn Affirmation, as the Caſe may require, all ſuch High Conſtables, Churchwardens, and Overſeers of the Poor, and Clerks to Commiſſioners, and all ſuch Collectors, Supervifors, and Officers of Exciſe, and Inſpectors and Surveyors, Aſſeſſors and Collectors of Taxes as aforeſaid, touching any Matter within the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Commiſſioners in the Execution of the ſaid Acts or this Act, and touching any Matter contained in ſuch Rates or Aſſeſſments, or ſuch Books, Documents, and Papers, as may in any way relate thereto, or that may better enable ſuch Commiſſioners to aſcertain the annual Amount of any Income, or which ought to be aſcertained or charged to the ſaid Duties, or to the Amount of any Deduction to be made from ſuch Income; and every Perſon ſo ſummoned as aforeſaid, who ſhall neglect to appear before any ſuch Commiſſioners, or to bring or produce any ſuch Rates or Aſſeſſments, or any Book, Document, or Paper required by any ſuch Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, or to anſwer to any ſuch Commiſſioners any Queſtion, on Oath or Affirmation, touching any Matter relating to the Execution of the ſaid Acts or this Act, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit any Sum not exceeding the Sum of twenty Pounds; and it ſhall be lawful for any Inſpector or Surveyor to inſpect at all ſeaſonable Hours, or demand a Copy gratis of any ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment, or any Book, Document, or Paper relating to any ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment, or any other publick Book, Document, or Paper, as the reſpective Commiſſioners in their reſpective Diviſions, or any two or more of them reſpectively may think neceſſary to further the Enquiry of ſuch Commiſſioners, or of ſuch Inſpector or Surveyor, in any Manner relating to the Execution of the ſaid Acts or this Act, and which ſhall be in the Hands of any ſuch Officer or Perſon aforeſaid, whenever the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, ſhall authorize any ſuch Inſpector or Surveyor ſo to do, by Writing under their Hands and Seals; and if any ſuch Officer or Perſon aforeſaid ſhall wilfully neglect, or refuſe to permit ſuch Inſpection, or to grant ſuch Copy of any ſuch Rate or Aſſeſſment, or any Book, Document, or Paper, required by ſuch Inſpector or Surveyor, under the Authority of this Act, every ſuch Officer or Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Upon Enquiry into the Amount of any Income, or of any Deduction, the Commiſſioners may ſummon High Conſtables, Churchwardens, Overſeers, Clerks to Commiſſioners of Land Tax, &c. who ſhall bring with them all ſuch Documents as may be required.

The Commiſſioners may examine High Conſtables, &c. on Oath.

Perſons ſummoned, neglecting to appear or to bring the Documents required, or to anſwer on Oath, ſhall forfeit not exceeding 20l.

Inſpectors or Surveyors may inſpect or demand a Copy gratis, of any ſuch Rate, &c. when authorized by the Warrant of two Commiſſioners. Perſons neglecting to permit ſuch Inſpection, or to grant ſuch Copy, to forfeit 20l.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, whenever it ſhall appear to any of the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, or to any Commercial Commiſſioners, that any Statement or Statements hath or have been delivered to them, or to any Aſſeſſor or Aſſeſſors, contrary to the Directions of the ſaid Acts or this Act, or by Miſtake, and contrary to the Intent of the Party, and ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall be of Opinion that the Income declared in ſuch Statement ought to be aſcertained by other Commiſſioners, or whenever it ſhall appear to any Commercial Commiſſioners, that any Perſon delivering a Statement to them, is not entitled to be aſſeſſed by them, then and in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for ſuch reſpective Commiſſioners, and they are hereby reſpectively required forthwith to tranſmit ſuch Statement or Statements to the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to be by them forthwith ſent to the Commiſſioners to whom ſuch Statement or Statements ought, in the Opinion of the Commiſſioners tranſmitting the ſame, to have been delivered; and the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners to whom ſuch Statements were firſt delivered, ſhall cauſe Notice thereof to be given to or left at the uſual Place of

Where any Statement has been delivered to any Commiſſioners or Aſſeſſors, contrary to the Income Acts, or by Miſtake, or to Commercial Commiſſioners by Perſons not entitled to be aſſeſſed by them; ſuch

Commissioners respectively shall transmit the Statements to the Tax Office, in order to being sent to the proper Commissioners, and Notice thereof shall be given to the Parties; of Abode of the Person or Persons who shall have delivered such Statement or Statements, if the same shall be known; and if the same shall not be known by such Commissioners, then for the said Commissioners of Taxes to cause Notice thereof to be given, in such Manner as they conveniently can, either by Delivery of Notice to the Party, or by leaving the same at his or her last or usual Place of Abode, or by publick Advertisement in one or more of the London Newspapers or Gazette; and it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners to whom any such Statement or Statements shall be transmitted by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes as aforesaid, and they are hereby required, within a reasonable Time after the Receipt thereof, to proceed to make an Assessment, upon the Person or Persons mentioned in such Statement, in like Manner in every Respect as if such Statement or Statements had been first delivered to them, or to the Assessor or Assessors within the Division of such Commissioners.

and the proper Commissioners shall thereupon make an Assessment upon the Parties accordingly.

The Commissioners may put Questions in Writing, and demand signed Answers relative to Income, and issue Precepts requiring them, and if not given in the Times limited may (unless applied to to proceed to viva voce Examination) make Assessments according to their Judgment.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in every Instance in which the Commissioners are authorized by the said Acts, or any of them, to put any Question to any Person or Persons relative to his, her, or their Income, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to put such Question or Questions in Writing, and to demand an Answer accordingly from such Person or Persons, signed by him, her, or them, and from Time to Time to issue their Precept or Precepts, requiring true and particular Answers to be given to such Questions; and if at the End of the Time or Times limited in such Precept or Precepts, no Answer in Writing shall be given to any such Question so put by the said Commissioners, or an Answer which shall not be satisfactory to the said Commissioners, it shall be lawful for them, or any two or more of them, and they are hereby required, (unless the said Commissioners shall be applied to by the Party to proceed to viva voce Examination, in which Case they shall summon the Party accordingly, and proceed to a viva voce Examination, as directed by the said Acts,) according to the best of their Judgment, to settle and ascertain in what Sums such Person or Persons ought to be charged by the said Acts or this Act, and to make an Assessment accordingly.

Where any Person resides in a District wherein he shall not have been before charged for the current Year, the Assessor, &c. shall leave Notice for him to deliver a signed Declaration, specifying the Place in which he shall have been assessed, and to produce the Certificate of Assessment, or in Default, to deliver a Statement of his Income, under Penalty of 20l.; and when it shall appear that such Person has not been assessed in any other Place, the Commissioners shall assess him as if he had been resident at the Time of Publication of Notices.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be resident in any District or Division wherein such Person or Persons shall not have been before charged to the said Duties on Income for the current Year, the Assessor or Assessors, Collector or Collectors, or any Inspector or Surveyor, shall give or leave Notice in Writing to or for every such Person so residing within the Limits for which such Assessors, Collectors, Inspectors, or Surveyors respectively act, to make out and deliver, within fourteen Days next ensuing the Day of giving of such Notice, a Declaration in Writing signed with his or her proper Name, which Declaration shall specify the Name of the Parish or Place, and County or Counties, wherein such Person shall have been assessed to the said Duties on Income for that Year; and also to produce the Certificate of such Assessment, or in Default thereof, to deliver a Statement of his or her Income, for the Purpose of being assessed to the Duties upon Income; and if any such Person as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to make out and sign and deliver such Declaration as aforesaid, within the Time before-mentioned, or shall make any false or untrue Return therein in any Particular thereof, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding the Sum of twenty Pounds; and when, in any such Case, it shall not appear that any such Person or Persons shall have been assessed to the said Duties upon Income in any other Parish or Place, then, and in such Case, it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners acting for the said District, and they are hereby required, to proceed to assess such Person to the said Duties on Income, in like Manner in every Respect as if such Person had been resident in such District at the Time of the Publication of Notices as directed by the said Acts; and if any Person or Persons assessed to the said Duties on Income, shall remove out of the Parish or Place where he, she, or they shall have been assessed to the said Duties, without first paying or discharging all the said Duties upon Income charged upon him, her, or them, which shall then be due and payable, or without leaving in such Parish or Place, sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon the said Duties in Arrear may be raised and levied, and the same shall remain in Arrear and unpaid for the Space of twenty Days after the Time appointed by the said Acts for Payment thereof, every such Person shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay (over and above the said Duties so left unpaid as aforesaid) the Sum of twenty Pounds; and also in every such Case it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to certify to the Commissioners of the District within which such Person or Persons shall then reside, the whole Amount of the Assessment made upon such Person or Persons, together with the Amount of what may be in Arrear and due thereon; and such last-mentioned Commissioners shall thereupon issue a Warrant of Distress for the Recovery of the Whole of the Duty that shall then be in Arrear, together with the whole Amount of the Remainder of the said Assessment for the Year for which such Assessment shall have been made as aforesaid; and if Goods or Chattels cannot be found whereon such Distress can be fully made, then and in every such Case the Whole of such Arrear of Duty, and Remainder of Assessment aforesaid, or such Part thereof as cannot be so levied and collected by Distress as aforesaid, shall be recoverable as a Debt upon record to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

Persons removing without paying the Duties, or leaving sufficient Effects to pay the same, shall (on the Duties remaining 20 Days in Arrear) forfeit 20l. and on Certificate from the Tax Office, the Commissioners of the District where the Party resides may issue a Warrant of Distress for the Arrears, and the Remainder of the Assessment for the Year; and on Failure of Distress, the Arrears, &c. shall be recoverable as a Debt upon Record to his Majesty.

Commissioners of Appeal, for Part of a County

XXX. And be it further enacted, That notwithstanding any Persons may have been appointed to be Commissioners for hearing and determining Appeals for Part of a County or Riding, or of the three Diviſions of the County of Lincoln, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Perſons, by virtue of ſuch Appointment, to act as ſuch Commiſſioners in the hearing and determining Appeals ariſing within any Part of ſuch County or Riding, or of the Diviſions in the ſaid County of Lincoln, and to ſelect and arrange amongſt themſelves for what Part of ſuch County, Riding, or Diviſion, they will ſo act, giving due Notice thereof to the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes; provided always, that no ſuch Perſon ſhall act as a Commiſſioner of Appeals, and alſo as a Commiſſioner for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, within the ſame Part of ſuch County, Riding, or Diviſion as laſt aforeſaid.

or Riding, or of the three Diviſions of Lincolnſhire, may act [as ſuch, or as general Commiſſioners] within any Part of ſuch County, &c. according to Arrangements of which Notice ſhall be given to the Tax Office; but no Perſon ſhall act as a Commiſſioner of Appeals, and as a General Commiſſioner within the ſame Diſtrict.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, any Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a Commiſſioner for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, or as a Commiſſioner for hearing and determining Appeals, within or for any of the Counties at large within the Dominion of Wales, or in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, who ſhall be poſſeſſed of a Perſonal Eſtate of the like Value, or be ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of an Eſtate in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the like Nature and of Two-fifths of the Value, as is required as the Qualification of a Commiſſioner for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, or of a Commiſſioner for hearing and determining Appeals reſpectively, within and for any other County at large in Great Britain, without being ſubject to the Penalties in the ſaid Acts contained for acting without the Qualification therein required in ſuch Caſes; any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Qualification of General Commiſſioners or Commiſſioners of Appeal for Counties at large in Wales or Scotland, a Perſonal Eſtate of the like Value, or a Real Eſtate of the like Nature and two Fifths of the Value required as a Qualification for Counties at large in Great Britain. [See 38 Geo. 3. c. 13. § 23. and c. 22. § 3, 4, 5.]

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the Proviſions or Directions of the ſaid Acts for nominating and appointing Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, or Commiſſioners for hearing Appeals, or any of them, ſhall have been or ſhall be found, reputed, or deemed inapplicable to any Liberty, Town, or Place in England, or to any Stewartry, Sheriffdom, or Place, or any Part thereof in Scotland, by occaſion whereof or for any other Cauſe ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall not have been appointed, or having been appointed ſhall have declined to act as ſuch Commiſſioners reſpectively, in ſuch Liberty, Town, or Place in England, or in ſuch Stewartry, Borough, or Place in Scotland, it ſhall be lawful for the Sheriff of ſuch Liberty, Town, or Place in England, for the Time being, or in caſe there be no Sheriff, for the Mayor, Bailiff, Coroner, or Chief Magiſtrate of ſuch Liberty, Town, or Place in England, for the Time being, and for the Sheriff or Sheriff Depute of ſuch Stewartry, Sheriffdom, or Place in Scotland for the Time being, and ſuch Officers reſpectively are hereby required, from Time to Time as often as there ſhall be Occaſion, to ſummon the Perſons named in the Commiſſion of the Peace, having Authority to act as Juſtices or Conſervators of the Peace within or for ſuch Liberty, Town, or Place in England, or ſuch Stewartry, Sheriffdom, or Place in Scotland; and ſuch Juſtices or Conſervators of the Peace ſo ſummoned reſpectively as aforeſaid, ſhall, if in England, ſelect a ſufficient Number of Perſons qualified as required by the ſaid Acts in the Caſes of Towns in England, not being Counties of themſelves, and if in Scotland, ſhall ſelect the like Number of Perſons qualified as required by the ſaid Acts in the Caſes of Stewartries in Scotland, to be Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, for ſuch Liberty, Town, or Place in England, or ſuch Stewartry, Sheriffdom, or Place in Scotland: and alſo a ſufficient Number of Perſons, qualified as required by the ſaid Acts, in the Caſes of Counties in England, and Shires and Stewartries in Scotland reſpectively to be Commiſſioners for hearing and determining Appeals therein reſpectively; which Perſons ſhall be ſo ſelected from the Liſts of Perſons ſo qualified, which ſhall be prepared and laid before them at ſuch Meeting by the reſpective Officers hereby required to ſummon ſuch Perſons, (and which Liſts every ſuch Officer is hereby required to prepare and make out and lay before ſuch Perſons at ſuch Meeting,) with Power for the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes in England, and the Barons of the Exchequer in Scotland, at the Requeſt of any Perſon ſo qualified, to require his and their Name and Names to be inſerted therein, and alſo for ſuch Perſons to ſelect a ſufficient Number of Perſons alſo ſo qualified to ſupply Vacancies ariſing therein from Time to Time; and if the Perſons preſent at the ſaid Meeting or Meetings ſhall not find in any ſuch Liſts ſufficient Numbers of Perſons qualified to be Commiſſioners, they ſhall ſelect ſuch Number of Perſons ſo qualified from any adjoining County in England, or Shire or Stewartry in Scotland; and the Names of ſuch Perſons ſhall be returned to the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and ſuch Perſons who ſhall be ſo ſelected ſhall be Commiſſioners reſpectively for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts, and for hearing and determining Appeals, in the Order in which their Names ſhall be returned as aforeſaid.

If the Directions for appointing general Commiſſioners or Commiſſioners of Appeals, ſhall be found inapplicable to any Liberty, &c. in England, or any Stewartry, &c in Scotland, and Commiſſioners ſhall not have been appointed, or ſhall have declined to act, the Sheriff, &c. ſhall ſummon the Perſons named in the Commiſſion of the Peace, who ſhall ſelect a ſufficient Number of Perſons to be Commiſſioners, from the Liſts of Qualified Perſons laid before them by the Officers required to ſummon ſuch Perſons, and the Commiſſioners for Taxes in England, and Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, at the Requeſt of any qualified Perſon, may require his Name to be inſerted therein, and if a ſufficient Number be not found they ſhall ſelect them from any adjoining County or Stewartry, and the Names of the Perſons ſhall be returned to the Tax Office.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever it ſhall happen that the Acts relating to the ſaid Duties upon Income cannot be executed in any Year previous to the Time appointed for the Payment of the firſt or any ſubſequent Inſtalment of the ſaid Duties, it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners who ſhall have made any Aſſeſſment after the Period appointed for any ſuch Payment, (which they are hereby declared to be competent to do whenever the ſame ſhall be neceſſary,) to ſettle and adjuſt at what Time and in what Proportions the Inſtalment or Inſtalments, of which the Time or Times for Payment ſhall then have elapſed, ſhall be paid, in ſuch Manner as to them ſhall appear juſt and reaſonable; Regard being had to the Amount of ſuch Aſſeſſment, and the Number of Days appointed for the Payment of Inſtalments then to come in ſuch Year.

When the Income Acts cannot be executed previous to the Time of paying any Inſtalment the Commiſſioners who ſhall have made any Aſſeſſment after the Period appointed for any Payment, may ſettle at what Time and in what Proportions the Inſtalments due ſhall be paid.

Every Court having Controul over any Income chargeable to Duties, may appoint proper Perſons with Salaries, with the Approbation of the Treaſury (to be paid out of the Duties) to make out and deliver to the Commiſſioners for executing the Income Acts, or the Commercial Commiſſioners, Statements of ſuch Income.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for every Court of Equity, or other Court having the Direction and Controul over any Income chargeable to the ſaid Duties on Income, whether ſuch Income ſhall be under the Controul and Direction of any ſuch Court by reaſon of any Suit depending therein in reſpect of ſuch Income, or of any Property from which any ſuch Income ſhall ariſe, or whether the ſame ſhall belong to any Infant, Lunatick, or other Perſon or Perſons, to appoint ſome proper Perſon or Perſons, with ſuch Aſſiſtants, as may by any ſuch Court be deemed neceſſary, and with ſuch reſpective Salaries or Rewards as to ſuch reſpective Courts ſhall, with the Conſent and Approbation of the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, ſeem reaſonable and fit; and which Salaries and Rewards ſuch Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any three or more of them for the Time being, are hereby authorized from Time to Time to direct the Caſhier or Caſhiers of the Bank of England, or any Receiver General, as may be moſt convenient, to advance and pay out of the Duties granted on Income, received or receivable by them reſpectively, and for Payment of which the Order of ſuch Commiſſioners of the Treaſury as aforeſaid ſhall be a ſufficient Voucher and Diſcharge, to make out and deliver to the reſpective Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts and this Act, or to the Commercial Commiſſioners, as the Caſe may require, acting for the reſpective Diſtricts within which ſuch Courts ſhall reſpectively ſit, Statements of all ſuch Incomes as aforeſaid; and the Perſons ſo reſpectively appointed as aforeſaid ſhall, as ſoon after they ſhall be ſo appointed as the ſame can conveniently be done, make out ſuch Statements, and from Time to Time, in making out the ſame, take the Direction of the Court, under the Direction and Controul whereof any ſuch Income ſhall be, and deliver the ſame to ſuch reſpective Commiſſioners as aforeſaid; and the reſpective Commiſſioners to whom any ſuch Statement ſhall be delivered, ſhall thereupon proceed to aſſeſs all ſuch Income as aforeſaid, and ſhall, as ſoon after ſuch Aſſeſſment ſhall have been made as aforeſaid as the ſame can be done, cauſe the ſame to be tranſmitted to the reſpective Courts having the Direction and Controul of ſuch Income as aforeſaid, in order that ſuch Courts reſpectively may give ſuch Directions therein as may be neceſſary for the Payment of ſuch Aſſeſſments.

Perſons ſo appointed ſhall make out Statements as ſoon as can be conveniently done, and deliver them to the Commiſſioners, who ſhall make the Aſſeſſments, and tranſmit them to the reſpective Courts, that Directions may be given for Payment.

Such Parts of the ſaid Acts as require certain Forms of Notices for and Returns of Income to be delivered by Aſſeſſors, repealed; and ſuch Forms ſhall be delivered from Time to Time as ſhall be requiſite.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That ſo much and ſuch Parts of the ſaid Acts as require certain Forms of Notices for and Returns of Income to be delivered by Aſſeſſors, ſhall be and the ſame are hereby repealed; and that, from and after the paſſing of this Act, ſuch Forms for Notices and Returns ſhall be delivered from Time to Time as ſhall be requiſite, and ſo as to be conformable to the Proviſions of the ſaid Acts and this Act, and the true Intent and Meaning thereof.

This Act to extend to Corporations, &c.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Matters and Things in this Act contained, relating to any Perſon or Perſons liable to be aſſeſſed to the ſaid Duties upon Income, ſhall be applied to, and the ſame are hereby declared to extend to all Bodies, Corporations, Companies, Fraternities, and Societies whatever, as far as any ſuch Matters and Things can be or are applicable to any Bodies, Corporations, Companies, Fraternities, or Societies, in like Manner in every Reſpect as if ſuch Matters had been expreſsly extended to ſuch Bodies, Corporations, Companies, Fraternities, or Societies.

Perſons aſſeſſed in one Diviſion, and again in another, may apply to the ſeveral Commiſſioners for Relief; and the Commiſſioners for the Diſtrict where the Party was firſt aſſeſſed ſhall gratis, certify the Amount of his Aſſeſſment there; upon Production of which to the other Commiſſioners they ſhall cauſe their Aſſeſſment to be vacated.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Perſon or Perſons ſhall have been or ſhall be aſſeſſed, in one Diviſion or Place, to the Duties on his, her, or their Income, and ſhall have been, or ſhall be again aſſeſſed in another Diviſion or Place for the ſame Income, or any Part thereof, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Perſon or Perſons to apply to the Commiſſioners acting for the ſeveral Pariſhes or Places in which ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall have been ſo aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, for the Purpoſe of being relieved from ſuch Double Aſſeſſment; and the Commiſſioners, acting for the Diviſion or Place within which ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall have been firſt aſſeſſed to the ſaid Duties, ſhall upon ſuch Application give, or cauſe to be given, a Certificate under the Hands of any two of ſuch Commiſſioners of the Amount of the Aſſeſſment there made, with the Particulars of the Income there aſſeſſed; which Certificate ſhall be given gratis; upon the Production of which Certificate to the Commiſſioners of any other Diviſion or Place within which ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall have been aſſeſſed in reſpect of the ſame Income, or any Part thereof, ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall, upon being ſatisfied that ſuch Perſon or Perſons has or have been ſo doubly aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, cauſe the Aſſeſſment made in ſuch Diviſion or Place to be vacated, ſo as that ſuch Perſon or Perſons may not remain charged by more than one Aſſeſſment for the ſame Income.

The Owners of Lodging Houſes chargeable for the Parts they occupy, and for the Profits ariſing from the Parts let out.

XXXVIII. 'And whereas Doubts have ariſen in what Manner the Income ariſing from Houſes kept by 'the Owners for the Purpoſe of being let out wholly or in Part in Lodgings, ought to be charged under the 'ſaid recited Acts;' be it declared and further enacted, That the Owner of any ſuch Houſe ſhall be chargable for ſuch Houſe, or ſuch Part thereof only which ſhall be actually occupied by him or her, for his or her own Uſe; and that for ſuch Houſe, or ſuch Part thereof which ſhall be let out in Lodgings, or kept for that Purpoſe, the Owner thereof ſhall be chargeable in reſpect of the Income ariſing from the Profits made thereby.

Perſons holding perpetual Curacies not to be charged in reſpect of Stipends paid for doing the Duty.

XXXIX. 'And whereas Doubts have ariſen whether Perſons having or holding any perpetual Curacy 'ſhould be charged to the ſaid Duties upon Income, in reſpect of any Stipend paid to a Curate;' be it therefore enacted, That no Perſon having or holding any perpetual Curacy ſhall be charged in reſpect of any Stipend which he ſhall pay to any Curate or Curates for doing the Duty, or any Part of the Duty of ſuch perpetual Curacy.

XL. And

XL. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting in the Execution of any Act or Acts relating to Duties upon Income, to hear and determine any Offence against the same, which subjects the Offender to any pecuniary Penalty, in like Manner in every Respect, and by all such Powers and Authorities, Ways and Means, as any Justice of the Peace might have exercised and used in pursuance or by virtue of the said Acts or any of them; and every such Penalty that shall be adjudged by such Commissioners in pursuance of any such Act or Acts or this Act, against any Person who shall have been or shall be liable to be assessed to the Duties granted by the said Acts, in respect of his or her Income, shall be added by such Commissioners to the Assessment of the Person who shall have forfeited the same, if such Penalty shall be forfeited within the District within which the final Assessment upon such Person shall have been or is to be made in pursuance of this Act; or if such Penalty shall be forfeited in any other District, then and in every such Case, the Commissioners by whom such Penalty shall be adjudged, shall certify the Conviction thereof to the Commissioners of the District by whom the final Assessment upon such Person shall have been or is to be made, and such Commissioners shall forthwith add the same to the final Assessment upon such Person, and such Penalty shall be levied and collected therewith and as Part of the said Assessment; subject nevertheless to such Distribution of the Penalty so levied, and to the like Costs as by the said Acts, or any of them, is or are directed.

The Commissioners for executing the Income Acts may determine Offences, subjecting to pecuniary Penalties as Justices of the Peace might, and the Penalty shall be added to the Assessment, and collected therewith.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Provisions of the said Acts, or any of them, except where the same are expressly varied by this Act, shall, in the Execution of this Act, be severally applied and construed, in like Manner as if the said Provisions were severally and specially enacted in this Act; and all and every the Provisions of this Act shall, in the Execution of the said recited Acts, be severally applied and construed in like Manner as if the same Provisions severally formed a Part of the said Acts, and were specially enacted therein.

Recited Income Acts, (except where varied by this) and this Act shall be construed together as one Act.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That this Act, or any of the Provisions herein contained, may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act made in the Seventeenth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled, An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction. [20th June 1800.]

'WHEREAS idle and disorderly Persons frequently assemble and associate themselves to support and assist each other in the Destruction of Game in the Night, and are, if interrupted, guilty of great Violence by shooting, maiming, and beating to the great Terror of his Majesty's Subjects, and to the Encouragement of Idleness and Immorality; and such Practices are found by Experience to lead to the Commission of Crimes and Felonies:' For the Suppression thereof, May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Persons to the Number of two or more shall, after the passing of this Act, enter into or be found in any Forest, Chase, Park, Wood, Plantation, Paddock, Field, Meadow, or other open or inclosed Ground, in the Night, that is to say, between the Hours of eight of the Clock at Night and six in the Morning from the first Day of October to the first Day of February, or between the Hours of ten at Night and four in the Morning from the first Day of February to the first Day of October in each and every Year, having any Gun, Net, Engine, or other Instrument for the Purpose and with the Intent to destroy, take, or kill, or shall wilfully destroy, take, or kill, any Hare, Pheasant, Partridge, Heath Fowl commonly called Black Game, or Grouse commonly called Red Game, or any other Game; or if any Person or Persons shall be found with any Gun, Fire Arms, Bludgeon, or with any other offensive Weapon, protecting, aiding, abetting, or assisting any such Persons as aforesaid; it shall and may be lawful to and for the Ranger and Rangers, and to and for the Owner and Owners, Occupier and Occupiers of any such Forest, Chase, Park, Wood, Plantation, Paddock, Field, Meadow, or other open or inclosed Ground, and also for his, her, or their Keeper and Keepers, Servant and Servants, and also for any other Person or Persons, to seize and apprehend, or to assist in seizing and apprehending such Offender or Offenders, by virtue of this Act, and by the Authority of the same to convey and deliver such Offender or Offenders into the Custody of a Peace Officer, who is hereby authorized and directed to convey such Offender or Offenders before some one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County or Place where such Offence shall be alleged to have been committed; or in case such Offender or Offenders shall not be so apprehended, then it shall and may be lawful for any such Justice, on Information before him on the Oath of any credible Witness or Witnesses, to issue his Warrant for the Apprehension of such Offender or Offenders: and if, upon the Apprehension of any such Offender or Offenders, it shall appear to such Justice on the Oath of any credible Witness or Witnesses, that the Person or Persons so charged hath or have been guilty of any or either of the said Offences, every such Person shall be deemed and taken to be a Rogue and a Vagabond, within the true Intent and Meaning of an Act, made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled, An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues and Vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly Persons, and to Houses of Correction, and shall suffer such Pains and Punishments as are directed to be inflicted by any Law or Sta-

Persons to the Number of two or more found in any Forest, &c. at the Times herein specified, having any Gun or Engine with Intent to kill or take Game, or Persons aiding with offensive Weapons, may be apprehended, and on Conviction before a Justice shall be deemed Rogues and Vagabonds within the Meaning of 17 Geo. 2. c. 5. &c.

tute in Force and Effect on Rogues and Vagabonds; and in case any Person or Persons being so convicted shall again offend against any of the Provisions of this Act, such Person or Persons shall be deemed and taken to be an incorrigible Rogue, and shall suffer such Pains and Punishments as by any Law or Statute in Force and Effect are directed to be inflicted on incorrigible Rogues.

CAP. LI.

An Act to permit Blubber from the Greenland Fishery and Davis's Streights to be boiled into Oil after the Arrival of the Ships from the Fishery, and for charging the Duty thereon; for altering the Convoy Duty now payable on the Importation of Opium; for repealing the Duties on the Importation of Oil of Turpentine and Tar, and charging other Duties in lieu thereof; for exempting Burr Stones, and Stones used for the Purpose of paving or the making or mending of Roads, from the Duties charged thereon when carried Coastwise; for obliging Masters of Ships laden with Tobacco to remove the same from their Moorings when their Cargoes are discharged; and for extending Bonds given on licensing Ships, Vessels, or Boats, to all Cases wherein Ships, Vessels, or Boats may be liable to Forfeiture. [20th June 1800.]

38 Geo. 3. c. 76.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for the better Protection of the Trade of this Kingdom, and for granting new and additional Duties of Customs on Goods imported and exported, and on the Tonnage of certain Ships entering outwards or inwards to or from foreign Parts, until the signing the Preliminary Articles of Peace; amongst other Things a Duty of Sixteen Shillings and ten-pence per Ton is imposed on the Importation of Oil or Blubber: And whereas it is the Practice on board Ships or Vessels employed in the Southern Whale Fishery to boil the Blubber (being the Produce of Whales and other Creatures caught and taken in the said Fishery) during the Voyage, and to import the Oil only into Great Britain, which Practice is not observed on board Ships or Vessels employed in the Greenland Whale Fishery; in consequence whereof the Importers of Blubber in the said last mentioned Fishery are liable to pay as much Duty for the Blubber as the Importers pay for the Oil in the said first mentioned Fishery; and it is therefore expedient that the Blubber (being the Produce of Whales and other Creatures living in the Sea, caught and taken in the said Fishery) should be permitted to be boiled into Oil, and afterwards to pay Duty accordingly;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful, upon the Return of any Ship or Vessel from the Greenland Seas or Davis's Streights, with any Blubber, being the Produce of Whales or other Creatures living in the Seas, caught and taken in the said Fishery, to boil such Blubber, under the Care and Inspection of the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, into Oil, and afterwards such Oil shall be admitted to Entry, and the Duties thereon paid, according to the Laws now in force; any Act or Acts of Parliament, or Custom or Usage, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

On Return of any Vessel from the Greenland and Davis's Streights, the Blubber may be boiled into Oil, and admitted to Entry;

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Blubber has been imported into Great Britain in any Ship or Vessel employed in the said Fishery since the twenty-eighth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and such Blubber has afterwards been boiled into Oil, such Oil shall be admitted to Entry, and shall be charged with Duty agreeably to the Regulations and Directions of this Act.

as may Blubber imported in any Vessel employed in the said Fishery since June 28, 1798.

From May 11, 1800, the Duty imposed by recited Act on Opium repealed, except Arrears;

III. 'And whereas by the said Act passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, 'amongst other Things, a Duty of one Shilling and two-pence Halfpenny the Pound Weight is imposed on 'the Importation of Opium: And whereas it is expedient to repeal the said Duty on Opium, and to im- 'pose in lieu thereof a Duty of three Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of 'such Opium imported;' be it therefore enacted, That from and after the eleventh Day of May one thousand eight hundred, the Duty imposed by the said recited Act on Opium imported into this Kingdom shall be, and the same is hereby repealed (save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering or paying any Arrears thereof which may remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture relating thereto, which shall have been incurred at any Time before the passing of this Act).

and instead thereof 3l. for every 100l. in Value of Opium imported shall be paid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the eleventh Day of May one thousand eight hundred, in lieu and instead of the said Duty hereby repealed, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in ready Money, without any Discount whatever, upon the Importation of Opium into this Kingdom, a Duty of Customs of three Pounds for every one hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of such Opium so imported.

The Value of Opium to be ascertained, and the Duty to be levied, as directed by re-

V. And be it further enacted, That the Value of such Opium so imported shall be ascertained by such Rules and Regulations, and shall be subject and liable to such and the like Conditions, Restrictions, Forfeitures, and Penalties, as are prescribed, directed, and imposed by the said recited Act, in the Case of Goods imported into this Kingdom, and thereby subject to Duty according to the Value thereof; and that the Duties by this Act imposed shall be managed, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, secured, recovered, appro-appropriated, and applied, in ſuch and the like Manner, and in and by the like Ways, Means, or Methods, as the Duties of Cuſtoms impoſed on Goods imported into this Kingdom, and which are ſubject to Duty according to the Value thereof, are by the ſaid recited Act managed, raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, paid, ſecured, recovered, appropriated, and applied.

cited Act, in the Caſe of Goods ſubject to a Duty ad valorem.

[See 38 Geo. 3. c. 76. § 16—23.]

VI. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall have Continuance with reſpect to the ſaid Duty impoſed on Opium during ſuch Time as the ſaid recited Act ſhall remain in force, and no longer.

Continuance of the Duty.

VII. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Duties payable on the Importation of Oil of Turpentine 'ſhould be repealed, and new Duties impoſed in lieu thereof, exeept ſo much of the ſaid Duties as are pay-'able by virtue of the ſaid Act paſſed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred, the Duties now payable by Law on the Importation of Oil of Turpentine, except ſo much of the ſaid Duties as are payable by virtue of the ſaid recited Act paſſed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby repealed: (ſave and except in all Caſes relating to the recovering or paying any Arrears thereof which may remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, relating thereto, which ſhall have been incurred at any Time before the paſſing of this Act).

From July 5, 1800, the Import Duties on Oil of Turpentine, except thoſe payable under recited Act, repealed; and inſtead thereof a Duty of 2d. 2q. per lb. ſhall be paid.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred, in lieu and inſtead of the ſaid Duties hereby repealed, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in ready Money, without any Diſcount whatever, upon the Importation of Oil of Turpentine into this Kingdom, a Duty of Cuſtoms of Two-pence Halfpenny the Pound Weight, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Duties upon Oil of Turpentine ſhall be ſubject and liable to the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum thereon, payable upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported, by virtue of an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for granting to his Majeſty certain Duties of Cuſtoms on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported into, exported from, or brought and carried Coaſtwiſe within Great Britain, and for other Purpoſes; and ſhall alſo be ſubject and liable to the further additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum thereon, payable upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported by virtue of another Act, paſſed in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties of Cuſtoms on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported into, exported from, or carried Coaſtwiſe in this Kingdom, and for other Purpoſes.

The new Duties on Oil of Turpentine ſhall be ſubject to the additional Duty of 5l. per Cent. and 5l. per Cent. granted by 37 Geo. 3. c. 15. and 37 Geo. 3. c. 110.

X. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Duties payable on the Importation, and the Drawbacks al-'lowed on the Exportation of Tar, ſhould be repealed, except ſo much of the ſaid Duties as are payable 'by virtue of the ſaid Act, paſſed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and that 'new Duties ſhould be impoſed, and Drawbacks allowed in lieu thereof;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred, the Duties now payable by Law on the Importation of Tar, except ſo much of the ſaid Duties as are payable by virtue of the ſaid recited Act, paſſed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby repealed, and the Drawbacks now allowed by Law, on the Exportation of Tar, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby repealed: (ſave and except in all Caſes relating to the recovering, paying, or allowing, any Arrears thereof which may remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, relating thereto, which ſhall have been incurred at any Time before the paſſing of this Act).

From July 5, 1800, the Duties payable on Tar imported, and the Drawbacks allowed on Exportation, (except thoſe payable and allowed under 38 Geo. 3. c. 36.) repealed;

XI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred, in lieu and inſtead of the ſaid Duties hereby repealed, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in ready Money, without any Diſcount whatever, upon the Importation of Tar, the following Duties of Cuſtoms, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; and on the Exportation of ſuch Tar to foreign Parts there ſhall be allowed the following Drawbacks, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; that is to ſay, Duties and Drawbacks.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Duties upon Tar ſhall be ſubject and liable to the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum thereon, payable upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported by virtue of an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for granting to his Majeſty certain Duties of Cuſtoms on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported into, exported from, or brought and carried Coaſtwiſe within Great Britain, and for other Purpoſes; and ſhall alſo be ſubject and liable to the further additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum thereon, payable upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported by virtue of another Act, paſſed in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties of Cuſtoms on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize

The Duties on Tar ſhall be ſubject to the additional Duty of 5l. per Cent. and 5l. per Cent. granted by 37 Geo. 3. c. 15. and 37 Geo. 3. c. 110.

Merchandize imported into, exported from, or carried Coaſtwiſe in this Kingdom, and for other Purpoſes.

The Duties and Drawbacks under this Act ſhall be managed, levied, and allowed as the former, and the Powers of 27 Geo. 3. c. 13. and all other Acts for ſecurring the Revenue of Cuſtoms ſhall extend to this Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties hereby impoſed, and the Drawbacks allowed, ſhall and may be managed, aſcertained, raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, paid, ſecured, recovered, appropriated, applied, and allowed, in ſuch and the like Manner, and in and by ſuch and the like Ways, Means, or Methods by which the Duties of Cuſtoms hereby repealed on the like Goods, Wares, or Merchandize impoſed and payable by an Act, paſſed in the twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the paſſing of this Act, were or might be managed, aſcertained, raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, paid, ſecured, recovered, appropriated, applied, and allowed; and the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize ſo by this Act made chargeable with the ſaid Duties, and on which the ſaid Drawbacks are allowed, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby made ſubject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Reſtrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to which any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, upon which any Duties of Cuſtoms are impoſed and payable, or any Drawbacks are allowed, were ſubject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the paſſing of this Act; and all and every Pain, Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture for any Offence whatever committed againſt or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the paſſing of this Act, made for ſecuring the Revenue of Cuſtoms, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, and Directions therein contained, ſhall, and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and ſhall be reſpectively applied, practiſed, and put in Execution, for and in reſpect of the Duties hereby charged, and the Drawback hereby allowed, as far as the ſame are applicable thereto, in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatever, as if all and every the ſaid Acts, Clauſes, Proviſions, Powers, Directions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

CAP. LIV.

An Act for more effectually charging Publick Accountants with the Payment of Interest; for allowing Interest to them in certain Cases; and for compelling the Payment of Balances due from them. [20th June 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to provide more effectually, in certain Cases, for charging Publick Accountants with the Payment of Interest upon Publick Monies received by and due from them:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases where any Person employed in the Collection or Receipt of any Part of his Majesty's Revenues, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, die, or go out of Office, being indebted to his Majesty at that Time, in respect of his said Office, to the Amount of five hundred Pounds or upwards, the proper Officer or Officers to whom it does or may belong by Law to ascertain the Balance due to his Majesty, and demandable from such Person or his lawful Representative or Representatives, shall compute Interest, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the Whole of such Balance, from three Months next after the Time of such Person going out of Office, or from twelve Months next after the Death of such Person (as the Case may be), unto the Day of ascertaining such Balance; and the said Officer or Officers shall thereupon forthwith cause a Notice in Writing to be given to such Person, or his lawful Representative or Representatives, or his or their Agent, specifying the Amount of such Balance, and also of such Charge for Interest; the total Amount of which said Balance and Interest shall and may be sued for and recovered, by such Process, and in such Manner, as any other Debt due to his Majesty, together with Interest thereon, to be computed in such Manner as herein-after directed: Provided nevertheless, That if such Accounting Party, or his Representative or Representatives, shall think himself or themselves aggrieved by such Charge for Interest, it shall and may be lawful for him or them to apply (within six Months from receiving such Notice,) to his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, by Motion in open Court; which Court shall proceed to hear and determine the said Matter, and allow or disallow the said Charge for Interest, in the Whole or in Part, as to the said Court shall seem just and reasonable: Provided also, That no such Proceeding touching such Charge for Interest shall prevent or delay the suing for or recovering the Balance aforesaid, exclusive of such Interest, in such Manner as the same might heretofore have been sued for or recovered.

Where Publick Accountants die or go out of Office indebted to his Majesty 500l. or upwards, the proper Officer shall compute Interest at 5 per Cent. on the Balance, and give the Party or his Representative Notice of the Amount of both.

Parties thinking themselves aggrieved by Charge of Interest, may within six Months apply to the Court of Exchequer; but no such Proceeding shall prevent recovering Balances, exclusive of Interest.

II. And

II. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſhall nevertheleſs neglect to apply within the ſaid Period of ſix Months to the ſaid Court of Exchequer, in Manner aforeſaid, or if upon Application to the ſaid Court the ſaid Charge for Intereſt or any Part thereof ſhall be allowed by the ſaid Court of Exchequer, thereupon the aforeſaid Officer or Officers to whom it does or may belong by Law to aſcertain the ſaid original Balance, ſhall, from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Period of ſix Months, or upon the Determination of the ſaid Court, (as the Caſe may be,) proceed to compute a further Sum, at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, for Intereſt upon the Amount of the ſaid Charge for Intereſt, or upon ſo much thereof as ſhall have been allowed by the ſaid Court, from the Time when the ſaid Balance was ſo aſcertained as aforeſaid, until the Expiration of the ſaid Period of ſix Months, (in caſe no Application ſhall have been made within that Time to the ſaid Court of Exchequer,) or until ſuch Application ſhall have been finally diſpoſed of by the ſaid Court (as the Caſe may be): which ſaid further Sum ſo computed for intermediate Intereſt ſhall be added to the Amount of the ſaid Charge for Intereſt, (or ſo much thereof as ſhall have been allowed by the ſaid Court,) and ſhall together therewith become a Debt due to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to be ſued for and recovered accordingly.

If the Party does not apply, or the Charge for Intereſt be allowed by the Court, Intereſt upon the Intereſt ſhall be charged for the intermediate Period.

III. And be it further enacted, That the aggregate Amount of the ſaid original Balance ſo aſcertained as aforeſaid, and of the Charge for Intereſt thereon, ſhall bear Intereſt after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the Time when the ſaid Balance was ſo aſcertained as aforeſaid, until the ſame ſhall have been paid by or recovered from the ſaid accounting Party, or his lawful Repreſentative or Repreſentatives; and in caſe the ſaid Balance ſhall have been paid, then and in that Caſe the aggregate Amount of the ſaid Charge for Intereſt, or ſo much thereof as ſhall have been allowed by the ſaid Court, and of the further Intereſt thereon, ſo directed to be computed and added thereto as aforeſaid, ſhall in like Manner bear Intereſt at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the Expiration of the ſaid Period of ſix Months, or Determination of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, until the ſame ſhall have been paid by or recovered from the ſaid Party or his lawful Repreſentative or Repreſentatives; the Amount of which growing Intereſt ſhall in either Caſe be deemed a Debt due to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and ſhall and may be ſued for and recovered accordingly.

The aggregate Amount of the original Balance, and of the Intereſt, ſhall bear Intereſt at 5 per Cent. till paid; and if the Balance has been paid, the aggregate of the Intereſt and of the further Intereſt ſhall bear Intereſt.

IV. And be it further enacted, That upon any Audit which ſhall take place after the paſſing of this Act, of any Ordinary or Extraordinary Account, where it ſhall appear to the Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts, that any Publick Accountant is indebted to his Majeſty, upon the Balance thereof, in the Sum of five hundred Pounds or upwards, (ſuch Account not being an Account Current,) it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, at their Diſcretion, to charge the ſaid accounting Party with Intereſt, upon the Whole or any Part of the ſaid Balance, for ſuch Period of Time paſt, and at ſuch Rate of Intereſt, as they ſhall deem to be juſt and reaſonable; ſo that the ſaid Rate of Intereſt do not exceed five Pounds per Centum per Annum; and the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby required, in all Caſes where they ſhall charge the accounting Party with Intereſt as aforeſaid, to cauſe a Notice in Writing to be given forthwith to ſuch accounting Party, or his lawful Repreſentative or Repreſentatives, or his or their Agent, ſpecifying the Amount of ſuch Balance, and alſo of ſuch Charge for Intereſt, and the Grounds upon which ſuch Charge for Intereſt has been made; and alſo to ſet forth the Amount of ſuch Charge for Intereſt, together with the Grounds thereof, in the ſaid Account, when they ſhall cauſe the ſame, according to the Nature thereof, either to be declared by their own Authority, or to be prepared for Declaration, or to be ſtated to the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for their Conſideration: Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing herein contained ſhall prevent or delay the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners from proceeding, and they are hereby required to proceed, to allow or diſallow the Amount of ſuch Balance, or any Part thereof, upon any Account ſo prepared for Declaration, or ſtated to them as aforeſaid, diſtinct and apart from the ſaid Charge for Intereſt; which ſaid Charge for Intereſt they ſhall and may nevertheleſs in ſuch Caſe proceed afterwards to allow or diſallow, in the Whole or in Part, as they ſhall think juſt and reaſonable.

The Commiſſioners for auditing Publick Accounts, where an Accountant owes a Balance of 500l. or upwards (Accounts Current excepted) may charge Intereſt, (not exceeding 5 per Cent.) for Time paſt at the paſſing ſuch Account, and ſhall cauſe Notice to be given to the Party, or his Repreſentative, of the Amount of the Balance, and of the Intereſt, and of the Grounds for charging it; and ſhall ſtate the ſame to the Treaſury. The Treaſury ſhall proceed to allow or diſallow Balances of Accounts prepared for Declaration, diſtinct from Intereſt; and may alſo allow or diſallow the Intereſt.

V. And be it further enacted, That after any Extraordinary Account ſhall have been ſtated to the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, and they ſhall have granted their Warrant to prepare the ſame for Declaration, the ſaid Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts ſhall proceed to compute Intereſt, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the Amount of the ſaid Balance ſo ſtated by them as aforeſaid, or ſo much thereof as ſhall have been allowed by the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, and ſhall then remain due; and alſo upon the Amount of the ſaid Charge for Intereſt ſo ſtated as aforeſaid, or upon ſo much thereof as ſhall have been allowed by the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury; ſuch Intereſt to be computed from the Time when the ſaid Account was ſo ſtated, until the fifth Day of January or the fifth Day of July (as the Caſe may be) next preceding the Time when the ſaid Account of Balance or Intereſt (as the Caſe may be) ſhall be preſented for Declaration; and the Amount of ſuch further Intereſt for the ſaid intermediate Period of Time ſhall be added to the Amount of the ſaid Balance and Charge for Intereſt reſpectively, which ſhall have been allowed by the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, and ſhall therewith form the total Sum with which the ſaid Accountant ſhall be charged as due to his Majeſty on the ſaid Accounts of Balance or Intereſt, when the ſame ſhall be reſpectively preſented for Declaration.

After Warrant granted by the Treaſury to prepare any Extraordinary Account for Declaration, the Commiſſioners ſhall compute intermediate Intereſt (at 5 per Cent.) from the Time of ſtating the Account to Jan. 5, or July 5, preceding the Time of preſenting it for Declaration, which ſhall be added to the Balance, and Intereſt allowed by the Treaſury.

When any Account (not being an Account Current) ſhall be declared, the Party ſhall be charged with further Intereſt (at 5 per Cent.) upon the Sum due till it is paid or recovered. The Intereſt to commence on Ordinary Accounts from the Time they were prepared for Declaration, and on Extraordinary Accounts ſtated to the Treaſury, from the 5th January or 5th July preceding the Time of preſenting for Declaration.

VI. And be it further enacted, That from and after the Time when any Account, not being an Account Current, ſhall be declared, the ſaid Party Accountant, or his lawful Repreſentative or Repreſentatives, ſhall be charged with Intereſt, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon the Amount of the Sum due upon every Account which ſhall be ſo declared (whether the ſame ſhall be for Principal or Intereſt) in Manner following; (that is to ſay,) Upon every Account declared by the ſaid Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts, the ſaid Intereſt ſhall commence at and be computed from the Time of ſuch Declaration; and upon every Ordinary Account prepared by them for Declaration, the ſaid Intereſt ſhall commence at and be computed from the Time when the ſame was ſo prepared; and upon every Extraordinary Account, ſtated by them to the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, the ſaid Intereſt ſhall commence at and be computed from the ſaid fifth Day of January or fifth Day of July (as the Caſe may be) next preceding the Time when the ſaid Account was preſented for Declaration; and in each and every of the ſaid Caſes, the ſaid Intereſt ſhall grow due and be payable from the Periods ſeverally above-mentioned, until the ſaid Sum ſhall be paid or recovered by due Courſe of Law; the Amount of which growing Intereſt ſhall be deemed a Debt due to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and may be recovered in the ſame Manner, and by the ſame Means, as the Sum due upon the ſaid declared Account; and no Accountant ſhall be deemed Even and Quit, according to the Courſe of his Majeſty's Exchequer, until he ſhall have fully paid and diſcharged the Amount of ſuch growing Intereſt, together with ſuch Sum ſo declared to be due as aforeſaid.

Balances aſcertained to be due from Revenue Officers, and Balances of Accounts declared by the Treaſury, before paſſing this Act and not yet paid, and Balances now depending, and not paid at the Time of Declaration, ſhall bear an Intereſt (at 5 per Cent.) from paſſing this Act until paid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Balances, which before the paſſing of this Act have been aſcertained to be due from Perſons employed in the Collection or Receipt of any of his Majeſty's Revenues, and alſo the Balances of all Accounts which before the paſſing of this Act have been declared, according to the Courſe of his Majeſty's Exchequer, by the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, or ſo much of the ſaid ſeveral Balances ſo aſcertained or declared reſpectively as hath not yet been paid or recovered to and for the Uſe of his Majeſty; and ſo much of any Sum now depending before the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners as ſhall be declared a Balance, and ſhall not have been paid or diſcharged at the Time of ſuch Declaration; ſhall ſeverally and reſpectively bear Intereſt at the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from and after the paſſing of this Act until they ſhall be duly paid or recovered; the Amount of which growing Intereſt ſhall alſo be deemed a Debt due to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and ſhall and may be ſued for and recovered accordingly.

No Surety ſhall be charged with Intereſt till called upon to anſwer for Default of the Principal.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein-before contained ſhall operate to charge any Surety with Intereſt for Delay of Payment by the principal Debtor, except from ſuch Time only as ſuch Surety ſhall be called upon to anſwer for the Default of the Principal.

The Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts, ſhall, within ſeven Days after Declaration of Accounts, tranſmit to the Auditor of the Exchequer a Schedule of the Sums declared to be due, and the Names of the Debtors; and he ſhall quarterly tranſmit to the Commiſſioners an Account of the Monies paid in by or on Behalf of the Parties.

IX. 'And, for the better enabling the ſaid Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts to aſcertain 'what Sums of Money have been or may be hereafter paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, by 'Publick Accountants, in or towards the Diſcharge of Balances which have been or may hereafter be de-'clared to be due to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors;' be it hereby further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, within ſeven Days after every Declaration of Accounts, tranſmit to the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer, for the Information of the Tellers of the ſaid Exchequer, a Schedule or Account, ſpecifying the Sums declared to be due upon ſuch Declaration of Accounts, and the Names of the Perſons from whom the ſaid Sums are declared to be due reſpectively; and the ſaid Auditor ſhall, within ſeven Days after the four uſual Quarterly Days of Payment, in every Year, tranſmit to the ſaid Commiſſioners an Account of all Monies paid into the Exchequer, within the preceding Quarter, by or on Behalf of the ſeveral Perſons whoſe Names have been ſo tranſmitted to him as herein-before directed.

Accounts of Repayments by Sub-Accountants to principal Accountants, ſhall be tranſmitted to the ſaid Commiſſioners half-yearly, and the principal Officers of the Ordnance, &c. ſhall tranſmit to them half-yearly Accounts of all Impreſts cleared by them.

X. And be it further enacted, That when any Re-payments ſhall be made by Sub-Accountants to the Paymaſter General of his Majeſty's Forces, the Treaſurer of the Navy, the Treaſurer of the Ordnance, or to any other principal Accountant, of any Sums of Money which ſhall have been iſſued by ſuch Principal Accountants to the Sub-Accountants reſpectively, Accounts of ſuch Re-payments, for the ſix Months preceding, ſhall be tranſmitted to the Commiſſioners for auditing Publick Accounts, on the fifth Day of January and the fifth Day of July in every Year, by the Principal Accountants, and that the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy, the Commiſſioners for Victualling his Majeſty's Navy, and the Commiſſioners for Sick and Hurt, ſhall, on the ſame Days in each Year, tranſmit to the ſaid Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts, an Account for the ſix Months preceding, of all Impreſts cleared by them for Money iſſued to any Sub-Accountants.

The Treaſury empowered to allow Intereſt (at 5 per Cent.) upon Sums amounting to

XI. 'And whereas it is juſt and reaſonable that Intereſt ſhould be allowed to Publick Accountants for 'Monies advanced by them for the Publick Service, and remaining due to them upon the Balance of their 'Accounts, not being Accounts Current;' be it therefore enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, and they are hereby required to allow and direct Intereſt to be paid, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, upon every Sum of Money amounting to five five hundred Pounds and upwards, which hath already been, or hereafter ſhall be ſo aſcertained or declared as aforeſaid, to be due upon the Balance of ſuch Accounts from the Publick to any Perſon or Perſons whatever; ſuch Intereſt, in reſpect of ſuch Sums as have been already ſo aſcertained or declared as aforeſaid, to commence at and be computed from the paſſing of this Act; and in reſpect of ſuch Sums as ſhall hereafter be ſo aſcertained or declared as aforeſaid, to commence at and be computed from the Time of the complete Delivery of ſuch Accounts into the Office for auditing the publick Accounts, which ſaid Intereſt ſhall in every Caſe continue to grow due, and be payable in reſpect of the ſaid Principal Sums of Money, until the ſaid Principal Sums and every Part thereof ſhall be fully ſatisfied and diſcharged.

5ool. and upwards, aſcertained or declared to be due to Publick Accountants, till the Whole be diſcharged; ſuch Intereſt to commence from the complete Delivery of the Accounts into the Auditor's Office.

XII. 'And whereas it is expedient to provide more effectually for compelling the Payment of Balances 'which are or may become due from publick Accountants;' be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms and Exciſe in England and Scotland reſpectively, and the Commiſſioners for Stamps, and for the Affairs of Taxes, and alſo his Majeſty's Poſtmaſter General, and the principal Officer or Officers employed in the Collection and Management of any other Branch of his Majeſty's Revenues, ſhall and they are hereby ſeverally required forthwith to proceed with all due Diligence, by legal Proceſs or other lawful Ways and Means, to recover all Balances and Sums of Money which have been aſcertained to be due and now remain due to his Majeſty from any Perſon or Perſons heretofore employed in the Collection or Receipt of any his Majeſty's Revenues, under the Management of ſuch ſeveral Commiſſioners and Officers reſpectively; and ſo from Time to Time, when and ſo ſoon as any Balance or Sum of Money ſhall be aſcertained to be due for Principal and Intereſt, or either of them, to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, from any Perſon dying or going out of Office, who now is or ſhall hereafter be employed in the Collection or Receipt of any of his Majeſty's Revenues under the Management of ſuch ſeveral Commiſſioners and Officers reſpectively.

'The Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, for Stamps, and for Taxes, the Poſt-Maſter General, and the Principal Officers employed in any other Branch of the Revenue, ſhall proceed to recover all Balances due from Perſons employed under them.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſaid Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts, and the Auditors of the Land Revenue of the Crown, ſhall, and they are hereby ſeverally required forthwith to proceed with all due Diligence, by legal Proceſs or other lawful Ways and Means, to recover all Balances and Sums of Money which have been heretofore declared to be due to his Majeſty, and now remain due; (except Balances due on Accounts Current;) and ſo from Time to Time when and ſo often as any Account of the Receipt or Expenditure of Publick Money, which ſhall have been audited by the ſaid Commiſſioners and Auditors above-mentioned, ſhall be declared to be due for Principal and Intereſt or either of them, (except in the Caſe of Accounts Current,) the ſaid Commiſſioners and Auditors ſhall without Delay cauſe the ſame to be recorded in the Offices of his Majeſty's Remembrancer, of the Lord Treaſurer's Remembrancer, and of the Clerk of the Pipe; and ſhall thereupon, by Notice in Writing, require the Parties indebted upon ſuch declared Accounts, or their Repreſentatives, to pay the Amount of the Balances due from them into the Receipt of the Exchequer within three Months from receiving ſuch Notice; and in caſe the ſaid Balances ſhall not be paid, and legal Proof of ſuch Payment be not exhibited to the ſaid Commiſſioners and Auditors, within the ſaid three Months, they the ſaid Commiſſioners and Auditors reſpectively are hereby required to proceed forthwith with all due Diligence, by legal Proceſs or other lawful Ways and Means to recover the ſaid Balances and Sums of Money in which the ſaid Parties or their Repreſentatives ſtand indebted.

'The Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts and the Auditors of the Land Revenue ſhall proceed to recover Balances now due, (except on Accounts Current,) and when any Account of Publick Money audited by them ſhall be declared to be due, they ſhall duly record the ſame, and require the Parties to pay the Balances into the Exchequer within three Months, and if not paid, ſhall proceed to recover the Money.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein-before contained, ſhall extend to prevent any Charge of Intereſt on any Accountant, on the Ground of any Special Circumſtances on which ſuch Accountant might have been charged with Intereſt if this Act had not paſſed.

This Act not to prevent any Charge of Intereſt where it might have been charged before this Act.

XV. Provided alſo nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend to abridge or alter the Rights and Powers of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to controul, ſuſpend, or prevent the Execution of any Proceſs or Proceeding under this Act, or otherwiſe, for recovering ſuch Balances or Monies, or any Part thereof; but that all ſuch Rights and Powers ſhall remain in full Force and Effect, ſo far as by Law they now exiſt; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Not to abridge the Rights of his Majeſty to controul, ſuſpend, or prevent the Execution of any Proceſs for recovering Balances, &c.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury ſhall cauſe to be laid before both Houſes of Parliament, within fourteen Days after the Commencement of every Seſſion, a Liſt of the Publick Accountants, in reſpect of whom the Execution of any Proceſs or Proceeding under this Act, or otherwiſe, for recovering any Balances ſo aſcertained or declared to be due from them for Principal or Intereſt, or any Part thereof, hath been controuled, ſuſpended, or prevented by the Authority of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, within one Year preceding the Commencement of ſuch Seſſion, ſpecifying in ſuch Liſt the Amount of the Balances originally aſcertained or declared to be due from ſuch Perſons reſpectively, and the ſeveral Sums ſtill remaining due from them, and the Cauſes for which the Execution of ſuch Proceſs or Proceeding has been controuled, ſuſpended, or prevented.

The Treaſury ſhall cauſe to be laid before Parliament, within 14 Days after the Commencement of every Seſſion, a Liſt of Publick Accountants in reſpect of whom the Execution of any Proceſs hath been controuled, ſuſpended, or prevented by Authority of his Majeſty within the preceding Year.

An Act to amend ſo much of an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for the Augmentation of the Salaries of the Judges of the Courts in Weſtminſter Hall, and alſo of the Lords of Seſſion, Lords Commiſſioners of Juſticiary, and Barons of Exchequer in Scotland, as relates to the Salaries of the Judges of the Courts of Seſſion, Juſticiary, and Exchequer in Scotland. [20th June 1800.]

39 Geo. 3. c. 110.

'WHEREAS Doubts have ariſen upon the Conſtruction of an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the Augmentation of the Salaries of the Judges in the Courts in Weſtminſter Hall; and alſo of the Lords of Seſſion, Lords Commiſſioners of Juſticiary, and Barons of Exchequer in Scotland; and for enabling his Majeſty to grant Annuities to Perſons in certain Offices in the ſaid Courts of Weſtminſter Hall, on their Reſignation of their reſpective Offices; ſo far as relates to the Lord Preſident of the Court of Seſſion, the Lord Chief Baron, the Lord Juſtice Clerk, the Lords of Seſſion, Lords Commiſſioners of Juſticiary, and Barons of Exchequer in Scotland:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, there ſhall be iſſued, paid, and applied in every Year, out of the Monies that ſhall ariſe from any of the Duties and Revenues in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, which, by ſeveral Acts made in the ſeventh and tenth Years of the Reign of Queen Anne, were charged or made chargeable with the Payment of the Fees, Salaries, and other Charges allowed, or to be allowed by her Majeſty, her Heirs or Succeſſors, for keeping up the Courts of Seſſion, Juſticiary, and Exchequer in Scotland, to the Judges after mentioned, ſo much Money as will make up their reſpective Salaries to the annual Sums herein-after mentioned; videlicet; to the Lord Preſident of the Court of Seſſion three thouſand Pounds; to each of the other Lords of Seſſion, who is not Lord Juſtice Clerk, or a Lord Commiſſioner of Juſticiary, one thouſand two hundred Pounds; to the Lord Juſtice Clerk, two thouſand four hundred Pounds; to each of the other Lords of Seſſion, who are Lords Commiſſioners of Juſticiary, one thouſand ſeven hundred Pounds; to the Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, three thouſand Pounds; and to each of the other Barons of the Court of Exchequer, one thouſand two hundred Pounds; which ſaid Sums of Money, to be iſſued in purſuance of this Act, ſhall from Time to Time, from thenceforth, be payable and paid Quarterly, clear from all Taxes and Deductions whatever; the firſt Payment to be made on the fifth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred.

The reſpective Salaries to be increaſed to the following Amount, viz. Lord Preſident 3000l. Lords of Seſſion (not being Lord Juſtice Clerk, or Commiſſioners of Juſticiary) 1200l. Lord Juſtice Clerk 2400l. Lords of Seſſion (being Commiſſioners of Juſticiary) 2700l. Lord Chief Baron 3000l. The other Barons 1200l. Salaries to be payable Quarterly, from July 5, 1800.

CAP. LVI.

An Act for Relief of Perſons entitled to entailed Eſtates to be purchaſed with Truſt Monies. [20th June 1800.]

'WHEREAS by the Practice of Courts of Equity, in Caſes in which Money under the Controul of ſuch Courts is ſubject to be laid out in the Purchaſe of Lands, to be limited to Uſes capable of being barred by Fine, the ſaid Courts direct ſuch Money to be paid to the Party or Parties who could by Fine bar the Uſes to which ſuch Lands, in caſe the ſame had been purchaſed, would have been limited; and do not require or compel the actual Inveſtment of ſuch Monies in the Purchaſe of Lands, notwithſtanding other Perſons might take Eſtates or Intereſts therein, if the ſame were purchaſed, and be entitled to hold ſuch Eſtates or Intereſts until ſuch Fine was actually levied: And whereas nevertheleſs, where Money under the Controul of the ſaid Courts is ſubject to be inveſted in the Purchaſe of Lands, to be limited to Uſes not capable of being barred by Fine, but capable of being barred by Recovery, the ſaid Courts, according to the Practice thereof, refuſe to direct the ſame to be paid to the Party or Parties who, in caſe ſuch Lands had been purchaſed, could by Recovery have barred all the Uſes to which the ſame would have been limited, and require and compel the actual Inveſtment of ſuch Monies in a Purchaſe or Purchaſes of ſome Lands; and ſuch laſt mentioned Practice is attended with great Inconvenience and Expence to the Party or Parties who by a Recovery could bar the Uſes to which ſuch Lands are to be limited when purchaſed, and the Intereſt and Benefit of others who might take Eſtates barrable by ſuch Recovery when ſuffered, is not according to ſuch laſt mentioned Practice materially promoted or ſecured, and it may therefore be expedient to alter ſuch Practice: And whereas it may alſo be expedient to provide ſome ſatisfactory and ſummary Proceeding, whereby Truſtees poſſeſſed of Money ſubject to be laid out in Lands, may be required in proper Caſes to pay ſuch Money to the Parties entitled, and under this Act to become entitled to receive the ſame:' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, in all Caſes where Money, under the Controul of any Court of Equity, or of or to which any Individuals as Truſtees are poſſeſſed or entitled, ſhall be ſubject to be inveſted in the Purchaſe of Freehold or Copyhold Hereditaments, or both, to be ſettled upon any Perſon or Perſons, in ſuch Manner that it would be competent in

in caſe ſuch Money had been inveſted in the Purchaſe of Real Eſtates for the Perſon or Perſons who would be the Tenant or Tenants of the firſt Eſtate or Eſtates Tail therein, either alone, or together with the Perſon or Perſons who would be the Owner or Owners of the particular preceding Eſtate or Eſtates therein, if any, by Deed, Fine, or Common Recovery, or any of them, or other lawful Act, in the caſe of Freehold Hereditaments, or by Surrender and Recovery, or either of them, or other lawful Act, in the caſe of Copyhold Hereditaments, to bar the firſt Eſtate or Eſtates Tail, and the Rights and Intereſts of all Perſons in Remainder, it ſhall not be neceſſary to have ſuch Money actually inveſted in Lands or Hereditaments, in order that ſuch Eſtates Tail and Remainders over may be ſo barred; but that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the High Court of Chancery, or ſuch Court of Equity, under the Controul of which ſuch Money ſhall be, and in the Caſe of Truſtees, to and for the ſaid High Court of Chancery, in a ſummary Way, upon Petition of the Perſon or Perſons who would be Tenant or Tenants of the firſt Eſtate or firſt Eſtates Tail, and of the Perſon or Perſons who would be the Owner or Owners of the antecedent particular Eſtate or Eſtates, if any, in the Lands and Hereditaments in caſe the ſame were purchaſed, ſuch Petitioners being Adults, and in caſe where any of the Parties are or is Femes Covert or a Feme Covert, they, ſhe, or they being firſt ſeparately examined in Court, or upon a Commiſſion, and conſenting to order the Monies ſubjected to ſuch Truſts to be paid to the Petitioners or any of them, or to be paid and applied in ſuch Manner and for ſuch Purpoſes as the Petitioners ſhall appoint and the Court ſhall approve of.

to be inveſted in the Purchaſe of freehold or copyhold Premiſes, to be ſettled in ſuch Manner that it would be competent to the firſt Tenant in Tail to bar Eſtates Tail and Remainders, it ſhall not be neceſſary to have ſuch Money ſo actually inveſted; but the Court, on Petition of the firſt Tenant in Tail, and the Party having any antecedent Eſtates, (being Adults, or if Femes Covert, ſeparately examined,) may order ſuch Money to be paid to them, or applied as they ſhall appoint.

II. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes where Monies ſubjected to be laid out in the Purchaſe of Hereditaments to be ſettled as aforeſaid, ſhall happen to be inveſted in Government or Real or other Securities, all ſuch Securities ſhall, for the Purpoſes of this Act, be conſidered as Money, and ſhall and may accordingly be transferred, aſſigned, and diſpoſed of, under an Order of the reſpective Courts aforeſaid, made in a ſummary Way upon the Petition of ſuch Perſons, and with ſuch Examination and Conſent, where neceſſary, as aforeſaid, in ſuch and the ſame Manner as Monies ſubjected to be laid out in the Purchaſe of Hereditaments, to be ſettled as aforeſaid, are herein-before authorized to be paid, applied, and diſpoſed of.

Securities for ſuch Money may be tranſferred under an Order of the Court of Chancery, &c.

CAP. LVII.

An Act for enabling the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Scotland to advance to the Lord Provoſt and Magiſtrates of the City of Edinburgh, for the Purpoſe of completing the Improvements of the Harbour of Leith, a certain Sum, being Part of the Money which by an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament was directed to be paid into the ſaid Court of Exchequer by the Proprietors of the Forth and Clyde Navigation. [20th June 1800.]

" 39 Geo. 3. (c. lxxi. of the Publick Local and Perſonal Acts,) recited. The Court of Exchequer in Scotland " ſhall pay 25,000*l.* due from the Forth and Clyde Navigation to the City of Edinburgh, to be applied in " completing the Harbour of Leith, and 5 l. per Cent. Intereſt ſhall be paid for the ſame Half yearly till re- " paid. § 1. The Money may be placed in the Royal Bank, &c. in Scotland till required for the Works. § 2. " The Court of Exchequer ſhall place the Money when repaid to them into the Royal Bank, &c. and the " Intereſt ſhall be applied towards the Roads in the Highlands of Scotland. § 3. Publick Act. § 4."

CAP. LVIII.

An Act for further continuing and amending an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for enabling his Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn; and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Proviſion without Payment of Duty. [30th June 1800.]

" 39 Geo. 3. c. 87. recited (continued by c. 9. § 2. of this Seſſion,) further continued till 40 Days after the " Commencement of the next Seſſion. § 1. Corn, &c. ſhall be admitted to Entry although imported ſub- " ſequent to the Period fixed by any Order in Council, Proof being made that the Veſſel importing the " ſame, from the Time of her ſailing, might have arrived before the ſaid Period. § 2."

CAP. LIX.

An Act to remove Doubts ariſing from the Conſtruction of an Act made in the thirty-ninth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported from the Eaſt Indies to be warehouſed, and for repealing the Duties now payable thereon, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof. [30th June 1800.]

" WHEREAS by an Act, made in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for permitting certain Goods imported from the Eaſt Indies to be warehouſed, and for repealing the Duties now payable thereon, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof; ſome of the Duties for or in reſpect of certain Goods imported from the Eaſt Indies, by the United Company of Merchants trading to the Eaſt Indies, are repealed, and certain new and additional Duties of Cuſtoms are impoſed for and in reſpect of ſuch Goods: And whereas Doubts may ariſe whether the Duties of Exciſe by the Laws in force immediately before the paſſing of the ſaid Act, impoſed for or in reſpect of Spirits, Wine, Glaſs, 39 Geo. 3. c. 57.

'Glaſs, Cocoa Nuts, and Coffee, reſpectively imported by the ſaid United Company from the Eaſt In- 'dies, are not by the ſaid recited Act repealed;' be it declared and enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, neither the ſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, nor any Clauſe, Matter, or Thing therein contained, was intended to extend, nor did nor doth extend, nor ſhall be deemed or conſtrued to extend, or to have extended, to repeal or alter any or either of the Duties of Exciſe which were by any or either of the Laws in force immediately before the paſſing of the ſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, impoſed for or in reſpect of Spirits, Wine, Glaſs, Cocoa Nuts, and Coffee reſpectively, or any or either of them, imported by the ſaid United Company from the Eaſt Indies; and that all and ſingular the Duties of Exciſe which were impoſed by any or either of the Laws in force immediately before the paſſing of the ſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, for or in reſpect of Spirits, Wine, Glaſs, Cocoa Nuts and Coffee reſpectively, or any or either of them, imported by the ſaid United Company from the Eaſt Indies ſince the paſſing of the ſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, remained and continued, and ſtill remain and continue in force, as the ſame reſpectively were immediately before the making of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act; any Thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

The Duties of Exciſe on Spirits, Wine, Glaſs, Cocoa Nuts, and Coffee, imported by the Eaſt India Company, not repealed or altered by the recited Act.

CAP. LX.

An Act to leſſen the Duties on Wine and Spirits the Produce of the Britiſh Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope; and to empower the Importers to land the ſame before Payment of the Duties of Exciſe, and to lodge the ſame in Warehouſes; and to allow the ſame to be ſhipped free of Duty as Stores, to be conſumed on board Merchants' Ships on their Voyages. [30th June 1800.]

'WHEREAS the Caſtle, Town, and Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, with the Territories
'and Dependencies thereof, are now in the Poſſeſſion of his Majeſty; and for the Encouragement
'of the Trade and Commerce to and from the ſame, it is expedient to leſſen the Duties payable on the 'Importation of Wine and Spirits, the Produce of the ſaid Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies
'thereof, and to make ſuch Proviſions as are herein-after mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Wine of the Produce of the Britiſh Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, and which, from and after the fifth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred, ſhall be imported into the Kingdom of Great Britain, ſhall be ſubject or liable to any greater or higher Duty or Duties, but the ſame ſhall be ſubject and liable to the ſame or the like Duties as are by Law impoſed for or in reſpect of Portugal Wime imported into this Kingdom; and upon the Exportation of any ſuch Wine, of the Produce of the ſaid Settlement, Territories, or Dependencies, and for or in reſpect whereof the Duties by this Act directed ſhall have been paid, and which ſhall be exported as Merchandize to any Port or Place beyond the Seas, there ſhall be paid and allowed the ſame or the like Drawback and Drawbacks as are by Law directed to be paid or allowed for or in reſpect of Portugal Wine exported from Great Britain as Merchandize to ſuch Port or Place, any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

From July 5, 1800, Wine of the Cape of Good Hope, imported into Great Britain, ſhall be liable to the ſame Duties only; and the ſame Drawback ſhall be allowed on Exportation as Portugal Wine.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Duties by this Act payable for or in reſpect of Wine of the Produce of the ſaid Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, ſhall be allowed for or in reſpect of ſuch Wine intended for the Uſe of Admirals, Captains, or other Commiſſioned Officers employed in his Majeſty's Service, for their actual Conſumption on board ſuch of his Majeſty's Ships as they ſhall reſpectively ſerve, in like Manner, and under the like Proviſions, Conditions, and Reſtrictions, as a Drawback of the former Duties paid on the Importation of Wines into Great Britain are directed to be allowed by an Act, paſſed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to allow the Drawback of the Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe upon Wines conſumed by Admirals, Captains and other Commiſſioned Officers on board Ships of War in actual Service, and to allow ſuch Ships to be ſupplied with Tobacco Duty free; or by another Act, paſſed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign aforeſaid, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties of Exciſe on Foreign Wines and Sweets.

A Drawback of the Duties ſhall be allowed on ſuch Wine for the Conſumption of Naval Officers on board Ships, as permitted by 33 Geo. 3. c. 48. & 35 Geo. 3. c. 10.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Spirits of the Produce of the ſaid Settlement, Territories, or Dependencies, and which ſhall, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred, be imported directly from thence into this Kingdom, ſhall be ſubject or liable to any greater or higher Duty or Duties of Cuſtoms or Exciſe, but the ſame ſhall be ſubject and liable to the ſame or the like Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, as are or ſhall be by Law impoſed for or in reſpect of Rum or Spirits of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the Britiſh Sugar Plantations in the Weſt Indies, imported into this Kingdom directly from the ſaid Sugar Plantations; and upon Exportation of any ſuch Spirits of the Produce of the ſaid Settlement, Territories, or Dependencies, and for or in reſpect whereof the Duties of Cuſtoms by this Act directed ſhall have been paid, and which ſhall be exported as Merchandize to foreign Parts, there ſhall be paid and allowed a Drawback of ſuch Cuſtoms Duty, any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Spirits of the Cape ſhall be liable to the ſame Duties only on Importation, and the ſame Drawback be allowed on Exportation, as Spirits of the Britiſh Weſt India Plantations;

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Duties of Exciſe by this Act directed for or in reſpect of Spirits imported directly from the ſaid Settlement, Territories, or Dependencies, may be bonded and ſecured, and ſhall be paid and payable in ſuch Manner only, and under ſuch Regulations and Reſtrictions as the Duties of Exciſe impoſed for or in reſpect of Spirits, being of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the Britiſh Sugar Plantations in the Weſt Indies may be now bonded and ſecured, and are by Law paid and payable.

and the Duties of Exciſe thereon may be bonded in the ſame Manner.

V. And be it further enacted, That all and ſingular the Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Proviſions, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, which in or by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force are contained, provided, ſettled, or eſtabliſhed, for or in reſpect of the importing Rum or Spirits of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the Britiſh Sugar Plantations in the Weſt Indies, or landing the ſame before Payment of the Duties of Exciſe, or lodging or ſecuring the ſame in Warehouſes for that Purpoſe provided, upon the Proprietor or Importer giving Bond as therein required; and all and ſingular the Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures for or in reſpect thereof, ſhall be uſed, applied, practiſed, and put in Execution for or in reſpect of Spirits imported directly from the ſaid Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purpoſes as if all and every the ſaid Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Proviſions, Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this preſent Act.

Regulations reſpecting imported Spirits of the Britiſh Weſt India Plantations ſhall be applied to Spirits from the Cape;

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Duties of Exciſe and Cuſtoms by this Act directed for or in reſpect of Spirits imported from the ſaid Settlement, Territories, or Dependencies, ſhall be allowed on the Shipping thereof as Stores, to be ſpent and conſumed on board in any Voyage to Parts beyond the Seas, in the ſame Manner as the ſaid Duties impoſed for or in reſpect of Rum or Spirits of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the Britiſh Sugar Plantations in the Weſt Indies, imported into this Kingdom directly from the ſaid Sugar Plantations, are by Law directed to be allowed.

and the Duties ſhall be allowed on ſhipping thereof to be conſumed in Voyages as for Weſt India Spirits.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Wine and Spirits of the Produce of the ſaid Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, which ſhall be taken and condemned as Prize, and ſold by the Captors or their Agents, and taken out of any Warehouſe, wherein the ſame ſhall have been ſecured, to be conſumed in this Kingdom, in purſuance of an Act paſſed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Captors of Prizes, with reſpect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe by this Act impoſed, or directed to be paid for or in reſpect of Wine or Spirits reſpectively the Produce of the ſaid Settlement, Territories, or Dependencies, imported; and ſuch Duties ſhall be paid and payable by ſuch Perſons, and in ſuch Manner as the former Duties, by the ſaid Act of the thirty-third Year aforeſaid impoſed, are payable by Law.

Wine and Spirits of the Cape condemned as Prize, and taken out of any Warehouſe, under 33 Geo. 3. c. 34. for Home Conſumption, ſhall be ſubject to the Duties impoſed by this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties of Cuſtoms payable under or by virtue of this Act, for or in reſpect of Wine or Spirits reſpectively, the Produce of the ſaid Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, ſhall be managed aſcertained, raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, and paid in ſuch and the like Manner, and in or by any or either of the Means, Ways, or Methods by which the former Duties of Cuſtoms for or in reſpect of ſuch Wines and Spirits reſpectively were or ought to be managed, aſcertained, raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, and paid; and the Drawbacks of Cuſtoms payable or allowable under or by virtue of this Act, for or in reſpect of any ſuch Wine or Spirits reſpectively, exported as Merchandize, ſhall be paid or allowed in ſuch and the like Manner, and in or by any or either of the Means, Ways, or Methods by which the former Drawbacks of the Cuſtoms for and in reſpect of ſuch Wines or Spirits reſpectively exported as Merchandize, were or ought to be paid or allowed; and that all ſuch Wine and Spirits reſpectively, for or in reſpect whereof, any Duty of Cuſtoms is by this Act impoſed or made payable, or for or in reſpect whereof any Drawback of Cuſtoms is by this Act directed to be paid or allowed, ſhall be, and ſuch Wine and Spirits reſpectively are hereby made ſubject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Proviſions, and Forfeitures reſpectively to which Goods, Wares, or Merchandize in general were ſubject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred, reſpecting the Revenue of Cuſtoms; and all and every Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture of any Nature or Kind whatever, for any Offence whatever committed againſt or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred, made for ſecuring the Revenue of Cuſtoms, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the ſeveral Powers, Directions, Clauſes, Matters, and Things therein contained, (unleſs where expreſsly altered by this Act,) ſhall and the ſame are hereby reſpectively directed and declared to extend to, and the ſame ſhall reſpectively be applied, practiſed, and put in Execution for and in reſpect of the ſeveral Duties of Cuſtoms by this Act impoſed or directed to be paid, and Drawbacks of Duties of Cuſtoms by this Act granted, or directed to be paid or allowed, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatever, as if all and every the ſaid Acts, Clauſes, Conditions, Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Proviſions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures reſpectively, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

The Duties of Cuſtoms payable under this Act, and the Drawbacks allowed, ſhall be managed as former Duties and Drawbacks, &c.

IX. CAP. LXII.

An Act to allow, for nine Months after the paſſing of the Act, the Uſe of Sugar in the brewing of Beer. [30th June 1800.]

'WHEREAS by ſeveral Acts now in force, Common Brewers or Retailers of Beer or Ale are prohibited from uſing Sugar in the brewing or making of Beer or Ale: And whereas it is expedient to allow the Uſe of Sugar in the brewing or making of Beer or Ale for a limited Time:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for the Space of nine Months, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any ſuch Common Brewer or Retailer of Beer or Ale, to make uſe of Sugar in the brewing or making of any Guile, or brewing of Beer, Ale, or Worts; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Common Brewers or Retailers of Beer may, for nine Months, make uſe of Sugar in brewing.

II. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be deemed or conſtrued to extend, to allow any Common Brewer or Retailer of Beer or Ale to make uſe of any Melaſſes in the brewing or making of Beer or Ale; or any Sugar, except in the State in which the ſame ſhall have been imported into this Kingdom, and without the ſame having been previouſly diluted with Water or other Liquor, or undergone any Proceſs or Manufacture to alter the ſame: Provided alſo, That no ſuch Brewer or Retailer, or Brewers or Retailers, ſhall be at Liberty, or be allowed or permitted to make uſe of any Sugar in the brewing or making of Beer, Ale, or Worts, unleſs he, ſhe, or they ſhall have given to the Officer of Exciſe, under whoſe Survey he, ſhe, or they ſhall then be, twenty-four Hours previous Notice of his, her, or their Intention ſo to make uſe of ſuch Sugar, and ſpecifying in ſuch Notice the exact Hour and Time of his, her, or their beginning to brew or make ſuch Guile, or brewing of Beer, Ale, or Worts, and the Weight of the Sugar to be made uſe of in the brewing or making of ſuch Guile.

But ſhall not be allowed to make uſe of Melaſſes; or any Sugar, except in the State in which it is imported: Nor unleſs 24 Hours' Notice be given to the Exciſe Officer of the Time of Brewing, and the Weight of Sugar to be uſed.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Common Brewer or Retailer of Beer or Ale ſhall, after the paſſing of this Act, make uſe of any Melaſſes, Sugar, Honey, Syrup, Compoſition, or Extract of Sugar, except Brown or Muſcovado Sugar made uſe of in the Manner herein-before allowed, or if any Common Brewer ſhall receive, or take into his, her or their Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, any Quantity of Melaſſes, Honey, Syrup, Compoſition, or Extract of Sugar, exceeding ten Pounds Weight, every ſuch Brewer and Retailer ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Offence reſpectively the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

If any Common Brewer, &c. make uſe of any other than Brown or Muſcovado Sugar, or take into his Poſſeſſion more than 10lb. of Melaſſes, Honey, &c. he ſhall forfeit 200l.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures impoſed by this Act, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by ſuch Ways, Means, or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, may be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland reſpectively; and that one Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall inform, diſcover, or ſue for the ſame.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered and applied.

CAP. LXVI.

An Act to repeal ſo much of an Act, paſſed in the ſecond Year of King James the Firſt, as prohibits the Uſe of Horſe Hides in making Boots and Shoes; and for better preventing the damaging of Raw Hides and Skins in the flaying thereof. [30th June 1800.]

2 Jac. 1. c. 22. and

'WHEREAS by Reaſon of the Skill and Improvement of the Tanners, Curriers, and other Perſons concerned in the manufacturing and dreſſing of Leather, many Hides formerly ſuppoſed unfit to be uſed in the making of Boots and Shoes are now become uſeful therein; and it is therefore expedient that ſo much of an Act paſſed in the ſecond Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King James the Firſt, intituled, An Act concerning Tanners, Curriers, Shoemakers, and other Artificers occupying the cutting of Leather, as prohibits Cordwainers and Shoemakers from putting into any Shoes, Boots, Buſkins, Startops, Slippers, or Pantofles, any Leather made of Horſe Hide, ſhould be repealed: And whereas it has been found, that the Proviſions of the ſaid recited Act, and alſo of another Act paſſed in the ninth Year of the Reign of her Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed, or dreſſed, and upon Vellum and Parchment, for the Term of thirty-two Years, for proſecuting the War, and other her Majeſty's moſt neceſſary Occaſions, ſo far as relates to preventing the gaſhing, cutting, and flawing of Hides and Skins in the flaying thereof, have been ineffectual to enforce the good Purpoſes thereby intended, in conſequence of which great Loſſes ariſe to the Dealers in Leather, and a great Increaſe in the Price thereof to the Publick: And whereas it is become neceſſary that ſo much of the ſaid recited Acts as relate to the Prevention of the cutting and gaſhing of Hides and Skins in the flaying thereof ſhould be repealed, and that other and more effectual Proviſions ſhould be made inſtead thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, ſo much of the ſaid firſt recited Act

9 Annæ, c. 21. recited.

So much of firſt recited Act

Act as prohibits any Cordwainer or Shoemaker from putting into any Part of any Shoes, Boots, Buſkins, Startops, Slippers, or Pantofles, any Part of any Horſe Hide, and alſo ſo much of the ſaid recited Acts as relates to the preventing the gaſhing and cutting of Hides and Skins in the flaying thereof, ſhall be and the ſame are reſpectively hereby repealed.

as prohibits the Uſe of Horſe Hides in Shoes, &c. and ſo much of the recited Acts as relates to gaſhing of Hides, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Mayor, Bailiff, or other Head Officer of every City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, having any ſuch Head Officer, or any two or more Juſtices of the Peace, or Magiſtrates having Juriſdiction to keep the Peace within and acting for any City, Liberty, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, where there ſhall be no ſuch Head Officer as aforeſaid; and in Cities, Liberties, Towns Corporate, Boroughs, and Market Towns, where there are not two ſuch Magiſtrates, then any two or more ſuch Juſtices of the Peace acting for any Diviſion of any County, Riding, Shire, or Stewartry, within or neareſt to which any ſuch City, Borough, or Market Town ſhall be ſituate, ſhall, and he and they is and are hereby reſpectively empowered and required within three Months after the paſſing of this Act, to chooſe and appoint ſome proper and convenient Place or Places for the examining and inſpecting all the Raw Hides and Skins of all Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Heifers, Steers, or Stirks, Calves, Hogs, or Pigs, Sheep, Lambs, Horſes, Mares, or Geldings, killed, ſlaughtered, or flayed within ſuch City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, or within ſuch Diſtance thereof as ſhall be aſcertained and fixed by the Perſon or Perſons chooſing and appointing ſuch Place or Places as aforeſaid, ſo as that ſuch Diſtance ſhall, in no Caſe, exceed three Miles, nor be leſs than two Miles from any ſuch City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town; and ſuch Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid ſhall alſo appoint proper and convenient Days and Hours for the Inſpection of Hides and Skins in ſuch Place or Places ſo appointed as aforeſaid; and ſhall cauſe Notice thereof, and of the Diſtance from ſuch City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, to which the Juriſdiction of the Inſpector or Inſpectors, appointed in purſuance of this Act to examine and mark Raw Hides and Skins in any Place or Places ſo appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall extend, to be put up in legible Characters, and in ſome conſpicuous Part of the Place or Places ſo appointed as aforeſaid; and the Perſon or Perſons appointing ſuch Place or Places as aforeſaid ſhall alſo at the Time of fixing and appointing ſuch Place or Places as aforeſaid, or as ſoon after as the ſame can be done, and annually in each Year, or oftener if neceſſary, appoint ſome Perſon or Perſons of competent Skill to be Inſpector or Inſpectors of Hides and Skins within ſuch City, Liberty, Borough, or Market Town, or the reſpective Diſtricts thereof; and alſo from Time to Time to appoint any other Inſpector or Inſpectors to ſupply any Vacancy that may ariſe by Death, Removal, or otherwiſe, of any ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors.

Mayors, &c. to appoint proper Places and Times for examining Raw Hides, and proper Perſons to be Inſpectors.

III. Provided always, That if any ſix or more, or in caſe of any Difference of Opinion of the Majority of the Tanners, Curriers, or other Perſons manufacturing of Leather, not being Journeymen or Apprentices or Perſons working with or for any Maſter Currier, or Manufacturer of Leather for Hire, and who ſhall be then reſiding and carrying on ſuch Trade or Manufacture within ſuch City, Liberty, Borough, or Market Town, or the Diſtrict thereof reſpectively, and who ſhall have reſpectively delivered in Writing their reſpective Names and Places of Abode, and Occupations in ſuch Manufacture of Leather as aforeſaid, ſhall recommend, in Writing, to the Perſon or Perſons authorized by this Act to appoint Inſpectors of Raw Hides and Skins, two Perſons proper to be appointed Inſpectors in every Place where one Inſpector ſhall be neceſſary, or four Perſons proper to be appointed Inſpectors as aforeſaid, where two Inſpectors ſhall be requiſite, then one or two of ſuch Perſons ſo recommended, as the Caſe may require, and no other, ſhall be appointed to be ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors as aforeſaid, provided that two or more Partners in Trade ſhall be conſidered as one Perſon only in the Recommendation of ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors: Provided alſo, That when any Complaint ſhall be made by any Perſon or Perſons intereſted or dealing in any Raw Hides or Skins, in any ſuch Place or Places appointed for the Inſpection thereof as aforeſaid, of any Miſconduct or Neglect of Duty in any ſuch Inſpector as aforeſaid, and due Proof thereof ſhall be made to the Satisfaction of the Perſon or Perſons authorized by this Act to appoint Inſpectors of Raw Hides and Skins for the City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, for which ſuch Inſpector as aforeſaid ſhall act, then and in every ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo authorized as aforeſaid, and he and they is and are hereby reſpectively authorized and required to diſcharge ſuch Inſpector from the Execution of his Office, and to appoint another Inſpector in like Manner as herein-before directed to ſupply the Vacancy occaſioned by ſuch Removal as aforeſaid.

If ſix or more Manufacturers of Leather ſhall recommend to the Perſons authorized to appoint Inſpectors, two proper Perſons to be appointed where one Inſpector ſhall be neceſſary, or four where two ſhall be requiſite, then one or two of them, as the Caſe may require, ſhall be appointed.

On Complaint of Miſconduct or Neglect in any Inſpector, he may be diſcharged and another appointed in his Room.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Butcher or other Perſon, or his or her Servant, ſhall, after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred, wilfully, negligently, or careleſsly cut or flaw or gaſh the Hide or Skin of any Ox, Bull, Cow, Heifer, Steer, or Stirk, or of any Horſe, Mare, Colt, or Gelding, or of any Calf, Hog, Pig, Sheep, or Lamb, ſo as to occaſion any Injury to the ſame, or render it leſs uſeful and valuable for the Purpoſe of making Leather, or ſhall flay any Hide of any Ox, Bull, Cow, Heifer, Steer, Stirk, or Calf below the Knee or Gambrel, and ſhall thereof be convicted before any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace of the County, City, or Town where ſuch Hide or Skin ſhall be found, upon the Oath of any Inſpector or Inſpectors of Raw Hides or Skins appointed under this Act, or any other Witneſs or Witneſſes, he or ſhe ſhall forfeit and pay for every Hide or Skin ſo cut, flawed, or gaſhed, and for every Hide of every Ox, Bull, Cow, Heifer, Steer, Stirk, or Calf ſo flayed below the Knee or Gambrel as aforeſaid, the ſeveral and reſpective Fines and Penalties following; (that is to ſay,) A Sum not exceeding ten Shillings and not leſs than one Shilling, for the Raw Hide or Skin of every Ox, Bull, Cow, Heifer, Steer, or Stirk, ſo wilfully or negligently cut, gaſhed, or flawed in the flaying thereof, or that ſhall be ſo flayed below the Knee or Gambrel as aforeſaid: A Sum not exceeding five Shillings nor leſs than Sixpence, for the Hide or Skin of every Calf ſo negligently or wilfully cut, gaſhed, or flawed in the flaying thereof, or that ſhall be ſo flayed or taken off below the Knee or Gambrel as aforeſaid: A Sum not exceeding five Shillings nor leſs than one Shilling, for the Hide or Skin of every Horſe, Mare, or Gelding; and a Sum not exceeding Sixpence and not leſs than three Pence, for the Hide or Skin of every Hog, Pig, Sheep, or Lamb, which ſhall be ſo wilfully, or negligently, or careleſsly damaged by Cuts, Gaſhes, or Flaws in the flaying thereof as aforeſaid.

If any Perſon ſhall, after Aug. 1, 1800, wilfully or careleſsly injure any Hide ſo as to render it leſs valuable for making Leather, &c. and ſhall be convicted thereof, he ſhall pay certain Penalties.

Inſpectors to take the following Oath.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon appointed an Inſpector of Hides and Skins under this Act ſhall, before he ſhall begin to execute his ſaid Office, take an Oath, duly and faithfully to execute the ſame, which Oath the Perſon or Perſons appointing ſuch Inſpector is and are hereby authorized to adminiſter, and which Oath ſhall be in the Words following: that is to ſay,

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I will faithfully and diligently execute the Office of Inſpector of Hides and Skins, according to the true Intent and Meaning of an Act, paſſed in the fortieth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Third, intituled, An Act, [here ſet forth the Title of the Act,] without Favour or Affection, Prejudice or Malice, to any Perſon whomſoever.

'So help me GOD.'

Inſpectors to examine and mark Raw Hides and to be entitled to certain Fees.

And every ſuch Inſpector ſhall, with all due Care, examine and mark in Manner by this Act directed, all Raw Hides and Skins flayed within the Diſtrict for which he ſhall be Inſpector as aforeſaid; and every ſuch Inſpector ſhall be entitled to demand and take for the examining and marking of the ſeveral and reſpective Sorts of Raw Hides and Skins examined and marked by him in purſuance of this Act, the ſeveral and reſpective Sums following; (that is to ſay,) for the Hide of every Ox, Bull, Cow, Heifer, Steer, or Stirk, Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, the Sum of one Penny; and for every Calf, Hog, or Pig Skin, the Sum of one Halfpenny; and for every Sheep or Lamb Skin, the Sum of one Farthing; and if any Perſon, to whom any ſuch Raw Hide or Skin ſhall belong as aforeſaid, or any other Perſon for him, or any other Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, other than ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors as aforeſaid, or ſome Perſon or Perſons authorized by him or them in that Behalf, ſhall ſtamp or mark any Raw Skin or Hide with any Stamp or Mark uſually the Stamp or Mark of any ſuch Inſpector, he or ſhe ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of twenty Pounds.

If any Perſon other than the Inſpector ſhall mark any Raw Hide he ſhall forfeit 20l.

Inſpectors may impoſe Penalties not exceeding Half of the higheſt impoſed by this Act for wilfully or careleſsly cutting of Hides without their being adjudged by a Magiſtrate, ſubject to the Determination of Arbitrators.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors as aforeſaid, upon the examining and inſpecting of any Raw Hide or Skin that ſhall have been damaged in the flaying thereof, to impoſe ſuch Penalty for the wilful, careleſs, or negligent cutting, gaſhing, or flawing, of ſuch Hide or Skin, or for the flaying of any Hide, contrary to the Proviſions of this Act, not exceeding one Half of the higheſt Amount of any Penalty impoſed by this Act, in reſpect of any ſuch Damage as ſhall in the Opinion of ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors be juſt and reaſonable, according to the State of ſuch Raw Hide or Skin, without having ſuch Penalty adjudged by any Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace in purſuance of the Proviſions of this Act, ſubject nevertheleſs to the Determination of any Arbitrators ſummoned in purſuance of this Act, in caſe the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Hide or Skin ſhall belong, or any Perſon or Perſons on his, her, or their Behalf, ſhall diſpute the Payment of ſuch Penalty, and give Notice in Writing of his, her, or their Determination of having ſuch Difference of Opinion or Diſpute determined by ſuch Arbitrators as aforeſaid.

If an Inſpector ſhall deem any Perſon liable to more than ſuch Half Amount, he ſhall proceed for Recovery thereof by Information before a Magiſtrate.

VII. Provided always, That in every Caſe where any ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors as aforeſaid ſhall deem any ſuch Perſon or Perſons liable to any higher Amount of Penalty, in reſpect of the Damage done to any ſuch Hide or Skin, than ſuch Half Amount as aforeſaid, then and in every ſuch Caſe, ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors ſhall proceed for the Recovery thereof by Information before any Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace, in Manner by this Act directed.

The whole Penalty to be paid to the Inſpector who ſhall impoſe or inform for it.

VIII. Provided alſo, That the whole Penalty impoſed by any ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors as aforeſaid, in reſpect of any ſuch damaged Hide or Skin, and alſo the whole Penalty that ſhall be adjudged by any Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace, upon the Information of any Inſpector or Inſpectors who ſhall have deemed it neceſſary to inform for the ſame, in Manner herein-before mentioned, ſhall go and be paid to the Inſpector or Inſpectors, who ſhall impoſe or inform for any ſuch Penalties reſpectively as aforeſaid.

Inſpectors to provide Stamps for marking Hides as herein directed.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Inſpector of Raw Hides and Skins appointed under this Act, ſhall provide two different and diſtinct Stamps or Marks, the one thereof (that is to ſay,) the Letter S. to denote good and perfect Raw Hides and Skins, and the other thereof, (that is to ſay,) the Letter D. to denote damaged Hides or Skins; with the firſt of which Stamps or Marks he ſhall ſtamp or mark on or near the Tail, every Raw Hide or Skin that is not damaged in the flaying thereof, and with the latter of which Stamps or Marks he ſhall ſtamp or mark on one of the Fore Shanks every Raw Hide or Skin that is damaged in the flaying thereof, upon being paid the Penalty by this Act impoſed for the wilful, careleſs, or negligent, cutting, gaſhing, or flawing of any Hide or Skin in the flaying thereof, or for the flaying of any Hide, contrary to the Proviſions of this Act; and if any Perſon or Perſons to whom any ſuch damaged Hide or Skin ſhall belong, ſhall refuſe to pay the Penalty by this Act impoſed for cutting, gaſhing, or flawing of Raw Hides or Skins in the flaying thereof, or for any Hide not allowed by this Act to be flayed below the Gambrel or Knee, that ſhall be ſo flayed as aforeſaid, or ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the ſeveral Sums of Money herein-before allowed to be taken for inſpecting, examining, and marking, any Raw Hides or Skins, it ſhall be lawful for the Inſpector or Inſpectors who ſhall examine any ſuch Hide or Skin, or for any other

If Penalty or Fee for marking Hides be not paid, any Inſpector may ſeize and ſell them, unleſs other Inſpector or Inſpectors, forthwith to ſeize any ſuch Raw Hide or Skin as aforeſaid, and unleſs ſuch Penalty ſhall be paid in leſs than forty-eight Hours after ſuch Seizure ſo made as aforeſaid, or unleſs Notice ſhall be given by the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Hide or Skin ſhall belong, or any Perſon on his, her, or their Behalf, of his, her, or their Intention of having ſuch Hide or Skin produced, and the Diſpute thereon decided by Arbitrators, to be appointed in purſuance of this Act, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors to ſell or cauſe to be ſold the ſame, and to retain the Penalty by this Act impoſed as aforeſaid, and every reaſonable Expence incurred therein, and the Overplus (if any ſuch there be) ſhall be returned to the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Raw Hide or Skin ſhall have belonged as aforeſaid.

Notice be given of having the Matter decided by Arbitrators.

X. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred, if any Butcher or other Perſon reſiding in any City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, or within the Diſtrict thereof, for which an Inſpector or Inſpectors ſhall have been appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall wilfully neglect or omit to bring any Raw Hide or Skin belonging to him or her of any Ox, Bull, Cow, Heifer, Steer, or Stirk, Horſe, Mare, or Gelding, Calf, Hog, Pig, Sheep, or Lamb, by this Act required to be ſtamped or marked, to ſome Place appointed in purſuance of this Act, in ſuch City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, for the examining and inſpecting Raw Hides and Skins, within the Hours preſcribed for that Purpoſe; or if any Butcher or other Perſon ſhall remove or take away from ſuch Place, any ſuch Raw Hide or Skin that ſhall have been flayed within any City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, or within any Diſtrict belonging thereto, for the Purpoſes of this Act, within or for which any ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors ſhall have been appointed under this Act as aforeſaid, that ſhall not have been examined and marked by ſome Inſpector of Raw Hides and Skins appointed under this Act, or by ſome Perſon authorized by him, and approved by any Magiſtrate of the Diſtrict for which ſuch Inſpector ſhall be appointed; every ſuch Butcher or other Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding five Pounds, nor leſs than forty Shillings, for every ſuch Raw Hide or Skin ſo neglected or omitted to be brought to ſuch Place appointed for the Inſpection thereof as aforeſaid, and within the Hours preſcribed for that Purpoſe, or ſo removed or taken away before ſuch Hide or Skin ſhall have been ſtamped or marked as aforeſaid.

From Aug. 1, 1800, if any Perſon within any Diſtrict where an Inſpector has been appointed ſhall neglect to bring any Raw Hide to the proper Place to be marked, or ſhall remove therefrom any that ſhall not have been marked, he ſhall be liable to a Penalty, not exceeding 5l. nor leſs than 40s. for each Skin.

XI. Provided always, That if any ſuch Butcher, or other Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, ſhall give Notice in Writing to the Inſpector or Inſpectors of ſuch City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Market Town, of his or her Intention of carrying his or her Raw Hides or Skins to any other Place where any Inſpector or Inſpectors ſhall be appointed under this Act, for any Period not leſs than one Calendar Month, following the Date of ſuch Notice; then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Butcher, or other Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, to carry ſuch Raw Hides or Skins to any ſuch other Place as aforeſaid, during the Period mentioned in ſuch Notice, for the Purpoſe of having the ſame Hides or Skins examined and marked in purſuance of this Act, and from Time to Time to renew ſuch Notice for any further Period, not leſs than one Calendar Month as aforeſaid.

If any Perſon ſhall give Notice to the Inſpector of his Intention to carry his Raw Hides to any other Place for Inſpection for not leſs than a Month, he may do ſo.

XII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Difference of Opinion or Diſpute ſhall ariſe between any Butcher or other Perſon or Perſons, and any Inſpector or Inſpectors, whether any Hide or Skin has been injured in the flaying thereof, or rendered leſs uſeful and valuable for the Purpoſe of Leather, within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, then and in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for any Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace, before whom ſuch Difference or Diſpute ſhall be brought by any ſuch Inſpector or Inſpectors, or Butcher or other Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, and he is hereby authorized, empowered, and required within forty-eight Hours to ſummon any five impartial and reſpectable Perſons, who ſhall be engaged or concerned in the working or manufacturing of Leather, to whom, or to any three or more of ſuch Perſons ſo ſummoned as aforeſaid, ſuch Difference or Diſpute ſhall be referred, and who are hereby authorized and required to hear and finally determine the ſame within the Space of twenty-four Hours; and before any ſuch Perſon ſo ſummoned ſhall act in hearing or determining any ſuch Diſpute, he ſhall take an Oath before ſuch Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace as aforeſaid, (which Oath the ſaid Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace is hereby empowered to adminiſter,) that he will do equal Juſtice between the Parties concerned in ſuch Difference or Diſpute, and ſuch Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace ſhall cauſe the Raw Hide or Skin, or Raw Hides or Skins whereon ſuch Difference or Diſpute ſhall ariſe, to be produced to ſuch Perſons as aforeſaid, and ſuch Difference or Diſpute to be heard before them; and the Deciſion of ſuch Perſons, or the major Part of them thereon, ſhall be binding and concluſive on all the Parties intereſted in ſuch Difference or Diſpute, and the Party or Parties againſt whom ſuch Deciſion ſhall be given ſhall be liable to and pay the Coſts of ſummoning, and Attendance of ſuch Perſons before-mentioned, and all incidental Expences incurred thereby, to be ſettled, aſcertained, and allowed by the Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace who ſhall ſummon ſuch Perſons as aforeſaid.

In caſe of Diſpute whether Hides have been injured, the Magiſtrate ſhall ſummon five Perſons engaged in the working of Leather, three of whom may determine finally the ſame.

Such Perſons to take an Oath to do equal Juſtice.

The Party againſt whom the Deciſion ſhall be given ſhall pay all Expences, to be aſcertained by the Magiſtrate.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon who ſhall be duly ſummoned upon any ſuch Difference or Diſpute as aforeſaid, ſhall nevertheleſs refuſe or neglect to attend at the Time and Place mentioned in ſuch Summons, unleſs he ſhall give ſuch Reaſon for his Non attendance as may be deemed ſatisfactory by the Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace ſummoning ſuch Jury, he ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch Offence the Sum of forty Shillings.

Perſons ſummoned and not attending to forfeit 40s.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted and impoſed by this Act, and not otherwiſe diſpoſed of *, ſhall go and be diſtributed in Manner following; (that is to ſay,) one Half of every ſuch Penalty or Forfeiture ſhall go and be paid to the Perſon who ſhall inform againſt, and proſecute

Application of Penalties.

proſecute to Conviction, every ſuch Offender or Offenders as aforeſaid; and the other Half thereof ſhall go and be applied for the better carrying into Execution the Purpoſes of this Act, either in rewarding, with any Proportion thereof, any Inſpector or Inſpectors of Raw Hides and Skins, acting in the Diſtrict within which any ſuch Penalties ſhall have been incurred, or in the paying any ſuch Charges or Expences as have ariſen in eſtabliſhing any ſuch Place or Places for the Inſpection of Raw Hides and Skins as aforeſaid, or for any Purpoſe relating to the Care, Improvement, or continuing of any ſuch Place or Places, in ſuch Proportion, and in ſuch Ways, and towards ſuch of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Purpoſes, as the Perſon or Perſons appointing any ſuch Place or Places, to whom ſuch laſt mentioned Moiety, when recovered, ſhall be paid for the Purpoſes herein mentioned, ſhall, with the Approbation and Conſent of any ſix or more, or in caſe of any Difference of Opinion, of the Majority of the Perſons dealing in the Manufactory of Leather, (not being Journeymen or Apprentices, or Perſons working with or for any Maſter Currier or Manufacturer of Leather for Hire,) who ſhall deliver their Opinions in Writing to ſuch Perſon or Perſons in Manner herein-before directed * with reſpect to the Recommendation of any Inſpector or Inſpectors, direct; and if any Perſon or Perſons, to whom any ſuch Moiety of any ſuch Penalties or Forfeitures ſhall be paid for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall miſapply ſuch Monies, or neglect or refuſe to apply the ſame to the Purpoſes of this Act, in Manner herein-before directed, he ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit double the Sum ſo retained or miſapplied as aforeſaid, to be ſued for, recovered, and applied as any Penalty, by this Act impoſed, may be ſued for, recovered, and applied.

[* See § 3.]

Act not to extend to London, Weſtminſter, Southwark, or any Place within 15 Miles of the Royal Exchange.

XV. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or the Borough of Southwark, or any of the Liberties thereof, or to any Place or Places within fifteen Miles of the Royal Exchange of the ſaid City of London.

Penalties recoverable before one Magiſtrate by Diſtreſs and Sale; and for Default of Diſtreſs the Offender to ſuffer not exceeding one Month's Impriſonment.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That every Penalty and Forfeiture impoſed by this Act ſhall and may be recoverable before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Diviſion, or any Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates of any City, Town Corporate, Borough, Liberty, or Juriſdiction or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, upon Conviction or Confeſſion of the Party, or on the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, and ſuch Penalty and Forfeiture ſhall be levied by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, and in caſe ſuch Diſtreſs cannot be found, and ſuch Penalty and Forfeiture and the ſaid Coſts and Charges ſhall not be forthwith paid, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to commit ſuch Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol or Houſe of Correction for the County or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, for any Time not exceeding one Month, until the ſaid Penalty and Forfeiture, and Coſts and Charges, ſhall reſpectively be ſooner paid and ſatisfied.

Perſons aggrieved by any Judgment, where the Penalty exceeds 10s. may appeal to the Seſſions.

XVII. Provided always, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall find himſelf or themſelves aggrieved by the Judgment of any ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, in any Caſe where the Penalty adjudged ſhall exceed the Sum of ten Shillings, then he or they ſhall or may, upon giving Security to the Amount of the Value of ſuch Penalty and Forfeiture, together with ſuch Coſts as ſhall be awarded in caſe ſuch Judgment ſhall be affirmed, appeal to the Juſtices at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place as aforeſaid, who are hereby empowered finally to hear and determine the ſame, and in caſe the Judgment of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Juſtices at their General or Quarter Seſſions as aforeſaid, to award the Perſon or Perſons to pay ſuch Coſts occaſioned by ſuch Appeal as to them ſhall ſeem meet; and no ſuch Judgment or Conviction ſhall be removable by Certiorari into any Court whatſoever.

No Certiorari allowed.

Information for Offences to be laid within three Days after committed.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Information for any Offence committed againſt this Act ſhall be laid before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, within three Days after the ſaid Offence has been committed, and that otherwiſe ſuch Information ſhall be of no Effect.

Convictions may be made in the following Form.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Conviction before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices, may be made in the Form following; to wit,

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year A. B. was, upon the Complaint of C. D., convicted before of the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County of [or, for the Riding or Diviſion of the ſaid County of or, for the ſaid City, Liberty, Diſtrict, or Town of (as the Caſe ſhall happen to be,)] in purſuance of an Act, paſſed in the fortieth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Third, for (or, as the Caſe may be). Given under Hand and Seal, the Day and Year above written.'

Conviction to be filed.

Which Conviction ſhall be certified to the next General Quarter Seſſions, there to be filed amongſt the Records of the County, Riding, or Diviſion.

Publick Act.

XX. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act; and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch, by all Judges, and all other Perſons whomſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

CAP. LXVII.

An Act for the Union of Great Britain and Ireland. [2d July 1800.]

'WHEREAS in purſuance of his Majeſty's moſt gracious Recommendation to the two Houſes of 'Parliament in Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively, to conſider of ſuch Meaſures as might beſt 'tend to ſtrengthen and conſolidate the Connection between the two Kingdoms, the two Houſes of the 'Parliament of Great Britain and the two Houſes of the Parliament of Ireland have ſeverally agreed and 'reſolved, that, in order to promote and ſecure the eſſential Intereſts of Great Britain and Ireland, and to 'conſolidate the Strength, Power, and Reſources of the Britiſh Empire, it will be adviſable to concur in 'ſuch Meaſures as may beſt tend to unite the two Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland into one King-'dom, in ſuch Manner, and on ſuch Terms and Conditions, as may be eſtabliſhed by the Acts of the re-'ſpective Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland:

'And whereas, in furtherance of the ſaid Reſolution, both Houſes of the ſaid two Parliaments reſpectively 'have likewiſe agreed upon certain Articles for effectuating and eſtabliſhing the ſaid Purpoſes, in the Tenor 'following:'

The Parliaments of England and Ireland have agreed upon the Articles following.

ARTICLE FIRST.

That it be the firſt Article of the Union of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, that the ſaid Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland ſhall, upon the firſt Day of January which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred and one, and for ever after, be united into one Kingdom, by the Name of The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Royal Stile and Titles appertaining to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid United Kingdom and its Dependencies, and alſo the Enſigns, Armorial Flags and Banners thereof, ſhall be ſuch as his Majeſty, by his Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, ſhall be pleaſed to appoint.

That Great Britain and Ireland ſhall, upon Jan. 1. 1801, be united into one Kingdom; and that the Titles appertaining to the Crown, &c. ſhall be ſuch as his Majeſty ſhall be pleaſed to appoint.

ARTICLE SECOND.

That it be the ſecond Article of Union, that the Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid United Kingdom, and of the Dominions thereunto belonging, ſhall continue limited and ſettled in the ſame Manner as the Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of the ſaid Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland now ſtands limited and ſettled, according to the exiſting Laws, and to the Terms of Union between England and Scotland.

That the Succeſſion to the Crown ſhall continue limited and ſettled as at preſent.

ARTICLE THIRD.

That it be the third Article of Union, that the ſaid United Kingdom be repreſented in one and the ſame Parliament, to be ſtiled The Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

That the United Kingdom be repreſented in one Parliament.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

That it be the fourth Article of Union, that four Lords Spiritual of Ireland by Rotation of Seſſions, and twenty-eight Lords Temporal of Ireland, elected for Life by the Peers of Ireland, ſhall be the Number to ſit and vote on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of Lords of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; and one hundred Commoners (two for each County of Ireland, two for the City of Dublin, two for the City of Cork, one for the Univerſity of Trinity College, and one for each of the thirty-one moſt conſiderable Cities, Towns, and Boroughs), be the Number to ſit and vote on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom:

That four Lords Spiritual, and 28 Lords Temporal, and 100 Commoners, ſhall ſit and vote on the Part of Ireland in the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

That ſuch Act as ſhall be paſſed in the Parliament of Ireland previous to the Union, to regulate the Mode by which the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, to ſerve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Ireland, ſhall be ſummoned and returned to the ſaid Parliament, ſhall be conſidered as forming Part of the Treaty of Union, and ſhall be incorporated in the Acts of the reſpective Parliaments by which the ſaid Union ſhall be ratified and eſtabliſhed:

That ſuch Act as ſhall be paſſed in Ireland to regulate the Mode of ſummoning and returning the Lords and Commoners to ſerve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, ſhall be conſidered as Part of the Treaty of Union.

That all Queſtions touching the Rotation or Election of Lords Spiritual or Temporal of Ireland to ſit in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, ſhall be decided by the Houſe of Lords thereof; and whenever, by reaſon of an Equality of Votes in the Election of any ſuch Lords Temporal, a complete Election ſhall not be made according to the true Intent of this Article, the Names of thoſe Peers for whom ſuch Equality of Votes ſhall be ſo given, ſhall be written on Pieces of Paper of a ſimilar Form, and ſhall be put into a Glaſs, by the Clerk of the Parliaments at the Table of the Houſe of Lords, whilſt the Houſe is ſitting; and the Peer or Peers, whoſe Name or Names ſhall be firſt drawn out by the Clerk of the Parliaments, ſhall be deemed the Peer or Peers elected, as the Caſe may be:

That all Queſtions touching the Rotation or Election of Lords of Ireland to ſit in the United Parliament ſhall be decided by the Houſe of Lords thereof. Equality of Votes.

That

That any Peer of Ireland may be elected to ſerve in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, unleſs previouſly elected to ſit in the Houſe of Lords, but ſhall not be entitled to the Privilege of Peerage, &c.

That any Perſon holding any Peerage of Ireland now ſubſiſting, or hereafter to be created, ſhall not thereby be diſqualified from being elected to ſerve if he ſhall ſo think fit, or from ſerving or continuing to ſerve, if he ſhall ſo think fit, for any County, City, or Borough of Great Britain, in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, unleſs he ſhall have been previouſly elected as above, to ſit in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom; but that ſo long as ſuch Peer of Ireland ſhall ſo continue to be a Member of the Houſe of Commons, he ſhall not be entitled to the Privilege of Peerage, nor be capable of being elected to ſerve as a Peer on the Part of Ireland, or of voting at any ſuch Election; and that he ſhall be liable to be ſued, indicted, proceeded againſt, and tried as a Commoner, for any Offence with which he may be charged:

His Majeſty may create Peers, and make Promotions in the Peerage of Ireland after the Union, under certain Regulations.

That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, and to make Promotions in the Peerage thereof after the Union; provided that no new Creation of any ſuch Peers ſhall take place after the Union until three of the Peerages of Ireland, which ſhall have been exiſting at the Time of the Union, ſhall have become extinct; and upon ſuch Extinction of three Peerages, that it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create one Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; and in like Manner ſo often as three Peerages of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland ſhall become extinct, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create one other Peer of the ſaid Part of the United Kingdom; and if it ſhall happen that the Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, ſhall, by Extinction of Peerages or otherwiſe, be reduced to the Number of One Hundred, excluſive of all ſuch Peers of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, as ſhall hold any Peerage of Great Britain ſubſiſting at the Time of the Union, or of the United Kingdom created ſince the Union, by which ſuch Peers ſhall be entitled to an Hereditary Seat in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, then and in that Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to create one Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland as often as any one of ſuch One Hundred Peerages ſhall fail by Extinction, or as often as any one Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland ſhall become entitled, by Deſcent or Creation, to an Hereditary Seat in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom; it being the true Intent and Meaning of this Article, that at all Times after the Union it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to keep up the Peerage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland to the Number of one hundred, over and above the Number of ſuch of the ſaid Peers as ſhall be entitled, by Deſcent or Creation, to an Hereditary Seat in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom:

Peerages in Abeyance ſhall be deemed exiſting Peerages; and no Peerage ſhall be deemed extinct but on Default of Claim for a Year after the Death of the laſt Poſſeſſor. If a Claim be after that Period made and allowed, and a new Creation ſhall have taken place in the Interval, no new Right of Creation ſhall accrue to his Majeſty on the next Extinction of a Peerage.

That if any Peerage ſhall at any Time be in Abeyance, ſuch Peerage ſhall be deemed and taken as an exiſting Peerage; and no Peerage ſhall be deemed extinct, unleſs on Default of Claimants to the Inheritance of ſuch Peerage for the Space of one Year from the Death of the Perſon who ſhall have been laſt poſſeſſed thereof; and if no Claim ſhall be made to the Inheritance of ſuch Peerage, in ſuch Form and Manner as may from Time to Time be preſcribed by the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, before the Expiration of the ſaid Period of a Year, then and in that Caſe ſuch Peerage ſhall be deemed extinct; provided that nothing herein ſhall exclude any Perſon from afterwards putting in a Claim to the Peerage ſo deemed extinct; and if ſuch Claim ſhall be allowed as valid, by Judgment of the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, reported to his Majeſty, ſuch Peerage ſhall be conſidered as revived; and in caſe any new Creation of a Peerage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, ſhall have taken place in the Interval, in conſequence of the ſuppoſed Extinction of ſuch Peerage, then no new Right of Creation ſhall accrue to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, in conſequence of the next Extinction which ſhall take place of any Peerage of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland:

Queſtions touching the Election of Members to ſit in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom on the Part of Ireland ſhall be decided as Queſtions touching ſuch Elections in Great Britain;

That all Queſtions touching the Election of Members to ſit on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom ſhall be heard and decided in the ſame Manner as Queſtions touching ſuch Elections in Great Britain now are, or at any Time hereafter ſhall by Law be heard and decided; ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch particular Regulations in reſpect of Ireland, as, from local Circumſtances, the Parliament of the United Kingdom may from Time to Time deem expedient:

and their Qualifications in reſpect of Property ſhall be the ſame as in England.

That the Qualifications in reſpect of Property of the Members elected on the Part of Ireland to ſit in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, ſhall be reſpectively the ſame as are now provided by Law in the Caſes of Elections for Counties and Cities and Boroughs reſpectively in that Part of Great Britain called England, unleſs any other Proviſion ſhall hereafter be made in that reſpect by Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom:

When his Majeſty ſhall declare his Pleaſure for holding a Parliament of the United Kingdom a Proclamation ſhall iſſue to cauſe the Lords and Commons who are to ſerve on the Part of Ireland, to be returned as ſhall be provided by any Act of the preſent Seſſion in Ireland.

That when his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall declare his, her, or their Pleaſure for holding the firſt or any ſubſequent Parliament of the United Kingdom, a Proclamation ſhall iſſue, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to cauſe the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, who are to ſerve in the Parliament thereof on the Part of Ireland, to be returned in ſuch Manner as by any Act of this preſent Seſſion of the Parliament of Ireland ſhall be provided; and that the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of Great Britain ſhall, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons ſo returned as aforeſaid on the Part of Ireland, conſtitute the two Houſes of the Parliament of the United Kingdom:

That if his Majeſty, on or before the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, on which Day the Union is to take place, ſhall declare, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons of the preſent Parliament of Great Britain ſhould be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain; then the ſaid Lords and Commons of the preſent Parliament of Great Britain ſhall accordingly be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain; and they, together with the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, ſo ſummoned and returned as above on the Part of Ireland, ſhall be the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom; and ſuch firſt Parliament may (in that Caſe) if not ſooner diſſolved, continue to ſit ſo long as the preſent Parliament of Great Britain may now by Law continue to ſit, if not ſooner diſſolved: Provided always, That until an Act ſhall have paſſed in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, providing in what Caſes Perſons holding Offices or Places of Profit under the Crown of Ireland, ſhall be incapable of being Members of the Houſe of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, no greater Number of Members than twenty, holding ſuch Offices or Places as aforeſaid, ſhall be capable of ſitting in the ſaid Houſe of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; and if ſuch a Number of Members ſhall be returned to ſerve in the ſaid Houſe as to make the whole Number of Members of the ſaid Houſe holding ſuch Offices or Places as aforeſaid more than twenty, then and in ſuch Caſe the Seats or Places of ſuch Members as ſhall have laſt accepted ſuch Offices or Places ſhall be vacated, at the Option of ſuch Members, ſo as to reduce the Number of Members holding ſuch Offices or Places to the Number of twenty; and no Perſon holding any ſuch Office or Place ſhall be capable of being elected or of ſitting in the ſaid Houſe, while there are twenty Perſons holding ſuch Offices or Places ſitting in the ſaid Houſe; and that every one of the Lords of Parliament of the United Kingdom, and every Member of the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, in the firſt and all ſucceeding Parliaments, ſhall, until the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall otherwiſe provide, take the Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the Declaration, and take and ſubſcribe the Oath now by Law enjoined to be taken, made, and ſubſcribed by the Lords and Commons of the Parliament of Great Britain:

If his Majeſty, on or before Jan. 1, 1801, ſhall declare it expedient that the preſent Parliament of Great Britain ſhould be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, they and the Lords and Commons returned on the Part of Ireland may continue to ſit ſo long as the preſent Parliament of Great Britain may; but until an Act ſhall have paſſed in the United Parliament, providing in what Caſes Perſons holding Offices of Profit under the Crown in Ireland, ſhall be incapable of ſitting in the Houſe of Commons of the United Kingdom, no more than 20 ſuch Members ſhall ſit therein; and if there are more than that Number the Seats or Places of ſuch as ſhall have laſt accepted ſuch Offices ſhall be vacated, ſo as to reduce them to 20. The Lords and Commons of the United Parliament ſhall take the Oaths, &c. as enjoined to be taken by the Lords and Commons of the Britiſh Parliament.

That the Lords of Parliament on the Part of Ireland, in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, ſhall at all Times have the ſame Privileges of Parliament which ſhall belong to the Lords of Parliament on the Part of Great Britain; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal reſpectively on the Part of Ireland ſhall at all Times have the ſame Rights in reſpect of their ſitting and voting upon the Trial of Peers, as the Lords Spiritual and Temporal reſpectively on the Part of Great Britain; and that all Lords Spiritual of Ireland ſhall have Rank and Precedency next and immediately after the Lords Spiritual of the ſame Rank and Degree of Great Britain, and ſhall enjoy all Privileges as fully as the Lords Spiritual of Great Britain do now or may hereafter enjoy the ſame (the Right and Privilege of ſitting in the Houſe of Lords, and the Privileges depending thereon, and particularly the Right of ſitting on the Trial of Peers, excepted); and that the Perſons holding any temporal Peerages of Ireland, exiſting at the Time of the Union, ſhall, from and after the Union, have Rank and Precedency next and immediately after all the Perſons holding Peerages of the like Orders and Degrees in Great Britain, ſubſiſting at the Time of the Union; and that all Peerages of Ireland created after the Union ſhall have Rank and Precedency with the Peerages of the United Kingdom, ſo created, according to the Dates of their Creations: and that all Peerages both of Great Britain and Ireland, now ſubſiſting or hereafter to be created, ſhall in all other Reſpects, from the Date of the Union, be conſidered as Peerages of the United Kingdom; and that the Peers of Ireland ſhall, as Peers of the United Kingdom, be ſued and tried as Peers, except as aforeſaid, and ſhall enjoy all Privileges of Peers as fully as the Peers of Great Britain; the Right and Privilege of ſitting in the Houſe of Lords, and the Privileges depending thereon, and the Right of ſitting on the Trial of Peers, only excepted:

The Lords of Parliament on the Part of Ireland ſhall have the ſame Privileges as the Lords on the Part of Great Britain; and all Lords Spiritual of Ireland ſhall have Rank next after the Lords Spiritual of the ſame Rank of Great Britain, and ſhall enjoy the ſame Privileges, (except thoſe depending upon ſitting in the Houſe of Lords); and the Temporal Peers of Ireland, at the Time of the Union, ſhall have Rank next after the Peers of the like Rank in Great Britain; and all Peerages of the United Kingdom created after the Union, ſhall have Rank according to Creation; and all Peerages of Great Britain and of all other Reſpects, be conſidered as Peerages of the United Kingdom; and the Peers of Ireland ſhall enjoy all Privileges, except upon ſitting in the Houſe of Lords.

of Ireland and of Ireland ſhall, in thoſe depending ARTICLE FIFTH.

That it be the Fifth Article of Union, That the Churches of England and Ireland, as now by Law eſtabliſhed, be united into one Proteſtant Epiſcopal Church, to be called, The United Church of England and Ireland; and that the Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline, and Government of the ſaid United Church ſhall be, and ſhall remain in full force for ever, as the ſame are now by Law eſtabliſhed for the Church of England; and that the Continuance and Preſervation of the ſaid United Church, as the eſtabliſhed Church of England and Ireland, ſhall be deemed and taken to be an eſſential and fundamental Part of the Union; and that in like Manner the Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline, and Government of the Church of Scotland, ſhall remain and be preſerved as the ſame are now eſtabliſhed by Law, and by the Acts for the Union of the two Kingdoms of England and Scotland.

The Churches of England and Ireland ſhall be united into one Proteſtant Epiſcopal Church, and the Church of Scotland ſhall remain as now eſtabliſhed.

ARTICLE SIXTH.

That it be the Sixth Article of Union, That his Majeſty's Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland ſhall, from and after the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, be entitled to the ſame Privileges,

The Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland ſhall be on the same Footing in respect of Trade and Navigation, and in all Treaties with Foreign Powers the Subjects of Ireland shall have the same Privileges as British Subjects.

vileges, and be on the same Footing, as to Encouragements and Bounties on the like Articles being the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of either Country respectively, and generally in respect of Trade and Navigation in all Ports and Places in the United Kingdom and its Dependencies; and that in all Treaties made by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with any Foreign Power, his Majesty's Subjects of Ireland shall have the same Privileges, and be on the same Footing as his Majesty's Subjects of Great Britain:

From January 1, 1801, all Prohibitions and Bounties on the Export of Articles the Produce or Manufacture of either Country to the other shall cease.

That, from the first Day of January one thousand eight hundred and one, all Prohibitions and Bounties on the Export of Articles, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of either Country, to the other, shall cease and determine; and that the said Articles shall thenceforth be exported from one Country to the other, without Duty or Bounty on such Export:

All Articles the Produce or Manufacture of either Country, not herein-after enumerated as subject to specific Duties, shall be imported into each Country from the other, Duty free, other than the Countervailing Duties in the Schedule No. 1. or to such as shall hereafter be imposed by the United Parliament; and for 20 Years from the Union, the Articles in Schedule No. 2. shall be subject, on Importation into each Country, to the Duties in the said Schedule; and Old and New Drapery shall pay, on Importation into each Country, the Duty now payable on Importation into Ireland; Salt, Hops, and Coals, on Importation into Ireland, not exceeding the present Duties.

That all Articles, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of either Country, (not herein-after enumerated as subject to specific Duties,) shall from thenceforth be imported into each Country from the other, free from Duty, other than such Countervailing Duties on the several Articles enumerated in the Schedule Number One A. and B. hereunto annexed, as are therein specified, or to such other Countervailing Duties as shall hereafter be imposed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom, in the Manner herein-after provided; and that, for the Period of twenty Years from the Union, the Articles enumerated in the Schedule Number Two hereunto annexed, shall be subject, on Importation into each Country from the other, to the Duties specified in the said Schedule Number Two; and the Woollen Manufactures, known by the Names of Old and New Drapery, shall pay, on Importation into each Country from the other, the Duties now payable on Importation into Ireland: Salt and Hops, on Importation into Ireland from Great Britain, Duties not exceeding those which are now paid on Importation into Ireland; and Coals, on Importation into Ireland from Great Britain, shall be subject to Burthens not exceeding those to which they are now subject:

Callicoes and Muslins on Importation into either Country shall be subject to the Duties now payable on the Importation thereof from Great Britain into Ireland, till January 5, 1808, which shall then be annually reduced so as to stand at 10 per Cent. from January 5, 1816, until January 5, 1821: Cotton Yarn and Twist shall, on Importation into either Country, be subject to the Duties now payable on Importation from Great Britain into Ireland, until January 5, 1808, and shall then be annually reduced, so as that all Duties shall cease from January 5, 1816.

That Callicoes and Muslins shall, on their Importation into either Country from the other, be subject and liable to the Duties now payable on the same on the Importation thereof from Great Britain into Ireland, until the fifth Day of January one thousand eight hundred and eight; and from and after the said Day, the said Duties shall be annually reduced, by equal Proportions as near as may be in each Year, so as that the said Duties shall stand at ten per Centum from and after the fifth Day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, until the fifth Day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-one: And that Cotton Yarn and Cotton Twist shall, on their Importation into either Country from the other, be subject and liable to the Duties now payable upon the same on the Importation thereof from Great Britain into Ireland, until the fifth Day of January one thousand eight hundred and eight; and from and after the said Day, the said Duties shall be annually reduced, by equal Proportions as near as may be in each Year, so as that all Duties shall cease on the said Articles from and after the fifth Day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixteen:

Articles of the Produce or Manufacture of either Country, subject to Internal Duty, or to Duty on the Materials, may be subjected on Importation into each Country to Countervailing Duties, and upon their Export a Drawback of the Duty shall be allowed.

That any Articles of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of either Country, which are or may be subject to Internal Duty, or to Duty on the Materials of which they are composed, may be made subject, on their Importation into each Country respectively from the other, to such Countervailing Duty as shall appear to be just and reasonable in respect of such Internal Duty or Duties on the Materials; and that for the said Purposes the Articles specified in the said Schedule Number One, A. and B. shall be subject to the Duties set forth therein, liable to be taken off, diminished, or increased, in the Manner herein specified; and that upon the Export of the said Articles from each Country to the other respectively, a Drawback shall be given equal in Amount to the Countervailing Duty payable on such Articles on the Import thereof into the same Country from the other; and that in like Manner in future it shall be competent to the United Parliament to impose any new or additional Countervailing Duties, or to take off or diminish such existing Countervailing Duties as may appear, on like Principles, to be just and reasonable in respect of any future or additional Internal Duty on any Article of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of either Country, or of any new or additional Duty on any Materials of which such Article may be composed, or of any Abatement of Duty on the same; and that when any such new or additional Countervailing Duty shall be so imposed on the Import of any Article into either Country from the other, a Drawback, equal in Amount to such Countervailing Duty, shall be given in like Manner on the Export of every such Article respectively from the same Country to the other:

Articles the Produce or Manufacture of either Country when exported through the other, shall be subject to the same Charges as if exported directly from the Country of which they were the Produce or Manufacture.

That all Articles, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of either Country, when exported through the other, shall in all Cases be exported subject to the same Charges as if they had been exported directly from the Country of which they were the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture:

That all Duty charged on the Import of Foreign or Colonial Goods into either Country ſhall, on their Export to the other, be either drawn back, or the Amount, (if any be retained,) ſhall be placed to the Credit of the Country to which they ſhall be ſo exported, ſo long as the Expenditure of the United Kingdom ſhall be defrayed by proportional Contributions: Provided always, That nothing herein ſhall extend to take away any Duty, Bounty, or Prohibition, which exiſts with reſpect to Corn, Meal, Malt, Flour, or Biſcuit; but that all Duties, Bounties, or Prohibitions, on the ſaid Articles, may be regulated, varied, or repealed, from Time to Time, as the United Parliament ſhall deem expedient.

Duty on the Import of Foreign or Colonial Goods into either Country ſhall be drawn back, or if any be retained ſhall be credited to the Country to which exported, ſo long as the Expenditure of the United Kingdom ſhall be defrayed by proportional Contributions: Act ſhall not take away any Duty, Bounty, or Prohibition with reſpect to Corn, &c. which may be regulated as the United Parliament ſhall deem expedient.

SCHEDULE, Number One.

Of the Articles to be charged with Countervailing Duties upon Importation from Ireland into Great Britain, and from Great Britain into Ireland, reſpectively, according to the Sixth Article of Union.

ARTICLE SEVENTH.

The Intereſt and the Sinking Fund for Reduction of the Debt of either Kingdom, ſhall continue to be defrayed ſeparately.

That it be the ſeventh Article of Union, that the Charge ariſing from the Payment of the Intereſt, and the Sinking Fund for the Reduction of the Principal, of the Debt incurred in either Kingdom before the Union, ſhall continue to be ſeparately defrayed by Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively, except as hereinafter provided:

The Expenditure of the United Kingdom ſhall be defrayed and provided for as herein ſpecified.

That for the Space of twenty Years after the Union ſhall take place, the Contribution of Great Britain and Ireland reſpectively, towards the Expenditure of the United Kingdom in each Year, ſhall be defrayed in the Proportion of fifteen Parts for Great Britain and two Parts for Ireland; and that at the Expiration of the ſaid twenty Years, the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom (other than the Intereſt and Charges of the Debt to which either Country ſhall be ſeparately liable) ſhall be defrayed in ſuch Proportion as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall deem juſt and reaſonable upon a Compariſon of the real Value of the Exports and Imports of the reſpective Countries, upon an Average of the three Years next preceding the Period of Reviſion: or on a Compariſon of the Value of the Quantities of the following Articles conſumed within the reſpective Countries, on a ſimilar Average, videlicet, Beer, Spirits, Sugar, Wine, Tea, Tobacco, and Malt; or according to the aggregate Proportion reſulting from both theſe Conſiderations combined; or on a Compariſon of the Amount of Income in each Country, eſtimated from the Produce for the ſame Period of a general Tax, if ſuch ſhall have been impoſed on the ſame Deſcriptions of Income in both Countries; and that the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall afterwards proceed in like Manner to reviſe and fix the ſaid Proportions according to the ſame Rules, or any of them, at Periods not more diſtant than twenty years, nor leſs than ſeven Years from each other; unleſs, previous to any ſuch Period, the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall have declared, as herein-after provided, that the Expenditure of the United Kingdom ſhall be defrayed indiſcriminately, by equal Taxes impoſed on the like Articles in both Countries: That, for the defraying the ſaid Expenditure according to the Rules above laid down, the Revenues of Ireland ſhall hereafter conſtitute a Conſolidated Fund, which ſhall be charged, in the firſt Inſtance, with the Intereſt of the Debt of Ireland, and with the Sinking Fund, applicable to the Reduction of the ſaid Debt, and the Remainder ſhall be applied towards defraying the Proportion of the Expenditure of the United Kingdom, to which Ireland may be liable in each Year: That the Proportion of Contribution to which Great Britain and Ireland will be liable, ſhall be raiſed by ſuch Taxes in each Country reſpectively, as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall from Time to Time deem fit: Provided always, That in regulating the Taxes in each Country, by which their reſpective Proportions ſhall be levied, no Article in Ireland ſhall be made liable to any new or additional Duty, by which the whole Amount of Duty payable thereon would exceed the Amount which ſhall be thereafter payable in England on the like Article: That, if at the End of any Year any Surplus ſhall accrue from the Revenues of Ireland, after defraying the Intereſt, Sinking Fund, and proportional Contribution and ſeparate Charges to which the ſaid Country ſhall then be liable, Taxes ſhall be taken off to the Amount of ſuch Surplus, or the Surplus ſhall be applied by the Parliament of the United Kingdom to local Purpoſes in Ireland, or to make good any Deficiency which may ariſe in the Revenues of Ireland in Time of Peace, or be inveſted, by the Commiſſioners of the National Debt of Ireland, in the Funds, to accumulate for the Benefit of Ireland at Compound Intereſt, in caſe of the Contribution of Ireland in Time of War; provided that the Surplus ſo to accumulate ſhall at no future

ture Period be ſuffered to exceed the Sum of five Millions: That all Monies to be raiſed after the Union, by Loan, in Peace or War, for the Service of the United Kingdom by the Parliament thereof, ſhall be conſidered to be a joint Debt, and the Charges thereof ſhall be borne by the reſpective Countries in the Proportion of their reſpective Contributions; provided that, if at any Time, in raiſing their reſpective Contributions hereby fixed for each Country, the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall judge it fit to raiſe a greater Proportion of ſuch reſpective Contributions in one Country within the Year than in the other, or to ſet apart a greater Proportion of Sinking Fund for the Liquidation of the Whole or any Part of the Loan raiſed on account of the one Country than of that raiſed on account of the other Country, then ſuch Part of the ſaid Loan, for the Liquidation of which different Proviſions ſhall have been made for the reſpective Countries, ſhall be kept diſtinct, and ſhall be borne by each ſeparately, and only that Part of the ſaid Loan be deemed Joint and Common, for the Reduction of which the reſpective Countries ſhall have made Proviſion in the Proportion of their reſpective Contributions: That, if at any future Day the ſeparate Debt of each Country reſpectively ſhall have been liquidated, or, if the Values of their reſpective Debts (eſtimated according to the Amount of the Intereſt and Annuities attending the ſame, and of the Sinking Fund applicable to the Reduction thereof, and to the Period within which the whole Capital of ſuch Debt ſhall appear to be redeemable by ſuch Sinking Fund) ſhall be to each other in the ſame Proportion with the reſpective Contributions of each Country reſpectively; or if the Amount by which the Value of the larger of ſuch Debts ſhall vary from ſuch Proportion, ſhall not exceed one hundredth Part of the ſaid Value; and if it ſhall appear to the Parliament of the United Kingdom, that the reſpective Circumſtances of the two Countries will thenceforth admit of their contributing indiſcriminately, by equal Taxes impoſed on the ſame Articles in each, to the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom, it ſhall be competent to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to declare, that all future Expence thenceforth to be incurred, together with the Intereſt and Charges of all joint Debts contracted previous to ſuch Declaration, ſhall be ſo defrayed indiſcriminately by equal Taxes impoſed on the ſame Articles in each Country, and thenceforth from Time to Time, as Circumſtances may require, to impoſe and apply ſuch Taxes accordingly, ſubject only to ſuch particular Exemptions or Abatements in Ireland, and in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, as Circumſtances may appear from Time to Time to demand: That, from the Period of ſuch Declaration, it ſhall no longer be neceſſary to regulate the Contribution of the two Countries towards the future Expenditure of the United Kingdom, according to any ſpecifick Proportion, or according to any of the Rules herein-before preſcribed: Provided nevertheleſs, that the Intereſt or Charges which may remain on account of any Part of the ſeparate Debt with which either Country ſhall be chargeable, and which ſhall not be liquidated or conſolidated proportionably as above, ſhall, until extinguiſhed, continue to be defrayed by ſeparate Taxes in each Country: That a Sum, not leſs than the Sum which has been granted by the Parliament of Ireland on the Average of ſix Years immediately preceding the firſt Day of January in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred, in Premiums for the internal Encouragement of Agriculture or Manufactures, or for the maintaining Inſtitutions for pious and charitable Purpoſes, ſhall be applied, for the Period of twenty Years after the Union, to ſuch local Purpoſes in Ireland, in ſuch Manner as the Parliament of the United Kingdom ſhall direct: That, from and after the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, all Publick Revenue ariſing to the United Kingdom from the territorial Dependencies thereof, and applied to the General Expenditure of the United Kingdom, ſhall be ſo applied in the Proportions of the reſpective Contributions of the two Countries:

ARTICLE EIGHTH.

That it be the eighth Article of Union, That all Laws in force at the Time of the Union, and all the Courts of Civil and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction within the reſpective Kingdoms, ſhall remain as now by Law eſtabliſhed within the ſame; ſubject only to ſuch Alterations and Regulations from Time to Time as Circumſtances may appear to the Parliament of the United Kingdom to require; provided that all Writs of Error and Appeals depending at the Time of the Union or hereafter to be brought, and which might now be finally decided by the Houſe of Lords of either Kingdom, ſhall, from and after the Union, be finally decided by the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom; and provided, that, from and after the Union, there ſhall remain in Ireland an Inſtance Court of Admiralty, for the Determination of Cauſes, Civil and Maritime only, and that the Appeal from Sentences of the ſaid Court ſhall be to his Majeſty's Delegates in his Court of Chancery in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; and that all Laws at preſent in force in either Kingdom, which ſhall be contrary to any of the Proviſions which may be enacted by any Act for carrying theſe Articles into Effect, be from and after the Union repealed.

All Laws in force at the Union, and all Courts of Juriſdiction within the reſpective Kingdoms, ſhall remain ſubject to ſuch Alterations as may appear proper to the United Parliament. All Appeals ſhall be finally decided by the Peers of the United Kingdom. There ſhall remain in Ireland an Inſtance Court of Admiralty, and Appeals therefrom ſhall be to the Delegates in Chancery there. All Laws, contrary to the Proviſions enacted for carrying theſe Articles into Effect repealed.

'And whereas the ſaid Articles having, by Addreſs of the reſpective Houſes of Parliament in Great Britain and Ireland, been humbly laid before his Majeſty, his Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to approve the ſame; and to recommend it to his two Houſes of Parliament in Great Britain and Ireland to conſider of ſuch Meaſures as may be neceſſary for giving Effect to the ſaid Articles: In order, therefore, to give full Effect and Validity to the ſame,' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, the ſaid foregoing recited Articles, each and every one of them, according to the true Import and Tenor thereof, be ratified, confirmed, and approved, and be and they are hereby declared to be, the Articles of the Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and the ſame ſhall be

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to approve of the foregoing Articles, it is enacted, That they ſhall be the Articles of Union, and be in force for ever, from Jan. 1, 1801; provided that before that Period an Act shall have been passed in Ireland for carrying them into Effect.

be in force and have effect for ever, from the first Day of January which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and one; provided that before that Period an Act shall have been passed by the Parliament of Ireland, for carrying into effect, in the like Manner, the said foregoing recited Articles.

Recital of an Act of the Parliament of Ireland, to regulate the Mode by which the Lords and the Commons, to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Ireland, shall be summoned and returned.

II. 'And whereas an Act, intituled, An Act to regulate the Mode by which the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Ireland, shall be summoned and returned to the said Parliament, has been passed by the Parliament of Ireland; the Tenor whereof is as follows: 'An Act to regulate the Mode by which the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, to serve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Ireland, shall be summoned and returned to the said Parliament. Whereas it is agreed by the fourth Article of Union, That four Lords Spiritual of Ireland, by Rotation of Sessions, and twenty-eight Lords Temporal of Ireland, elected for Life by the Peers of Ireland, shall be the Number to sit and vote on the Part of Ireland in the House of Lords of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, and one hundred Commoners (two for each County of Ireland, two for the City of Dublin, two for the City of Cork, one for the College of the Holy Trinity of Dublin, and one for each of the thirty-one most considerable Cities, Towns, and Boroughs) be the Number to sit and vote on the Part of Ireland in the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That the said four Lords Spiritual shall be taken from among the Lords Spiritual of Ireland in the Manner following; that is to say, That one of the four Archbishops of Ireland, and three of the eighteen Bishops of Ireland, shall sit in the House of Lords of the United Parliament in each Session thereof, the said Right of sitting being regulated as between the said Archbishops respectively by a Rotation among the Archiepiscopal Sees from Session to Session, and in like Manner that of the Bishops by a like Rotation among the Episcopal Sees: That the Primate of all Ireland for the Time being shall sit in the first Session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, the Archbishop of Dublin for the Time being in the Second, the Archbishop of Cashel for the Time being in the third, the Archbishop of Tuam for the Time being in the fourth; and so by Rotation of Sessions for ever, such Rotation to proceed regularly and without Interruption from Session to Session, notwithstanding any Dissolution or Expiration of Parliament: That three suffragan Bishops shall in like Manner sit according to their Rotation of Sees, from Session to Session, in the following Order; the Lord Bishop of Meath, the Lord Bishop of Kildare, the Lord Bishop of Derry, in the first Session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; the Lord Bishop of Raphoe, the Lord Bishop of Limerick, Ardfert, and Aghadoe, the Lord Bishop of Dromore, in the second Session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; the Lord Bishop of Elphin, the Lord Bishop of Down and Connor, the Lord Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, in the third Session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; the Lord Bishop of Leighlin and Ferns, the Lord Bishop of Cloyne, the Lord Bishop of Cork and Ross, in the fourth Session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; the Lord Bishop of Killaloe and Kilfenora, the Lord Bishop of Kilmore, the Lord Bishop of Clogher, in the fifth Session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; the Lord Bishop of Ossory, the Lord Bishop of Killala and Achonry, the Lord Bishop of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh, in the sixth Session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; the said Rotation to be nevertheless subject to such Variation therefrom from Time to Time as is herein-after provided: That the said twenty-eight Lords Temporal shall be chosen by all the Temporal Peers of Ireland in the Manner herein-after provided; that each of the said Lords Temporal so chosen shall be entitled to sit in the House of Lords of the Parliament of the United Kingdom during his Life; and in case of his Death, or Forfeiture of any of the said Lords Temporal, the Temporal Peers of Ireland shall, in the Manner herein-after provided, choose another Peer out of their own Number to supply the Place so vacant. And be it enacted, That of the one hundred Commoners to sit on the Part of Ireland in the United Parliament, sixty-four shall chosen for the Counties, and thirty-six for the following Cities and Boroughs, videlicet: For each County of Ireland two; for the City of Dublin two; for the City of Cork two; for the College of the Holy Trinity of Dublin one; for the City of Waterford one; for the City of Limerick one; for the Borough of Belfast one; for the County and Town of Drogheda one; for the County and Town of Carrickfergus one; for the Borough of Newry one; for the City of Kilkenny one; for the City of Londonderry one; for the Town of Galway one; for the Borough of Clonmell one; for the Town of Wexford one; for the Town of Youghall one; for the Town of Bandon-Bridge one; for the Borough of Armagh one; for the Borough of Dundalk one; for the Town of Kinsale one; for the Borough of Lisburne one; for the Borough of Sligo one; for the Borough of Catherlough one; for the Borough of Ennis one; for the Borough of Dungarvan one; for the Borough of Downpatrick one; for the Borough of Colraine one; for the Town of Mallow one; for the Borough of Athlone one; for the Town of New Ross one; for the Borough of Tralee one; for the City of Cashel one; for the Borough of Dungannon one; for the Borough of Portarlington one; for the Borough of Enniskillen one. And be it enacted, That in case of the summoning of a new Parliament, or if the Seat of any of the said Commoners shall become vacant by Death or otherwise, then the said Counties, Cities, or Boroughs, or any of them, as the Case may be, shall proceed to a new Election; and that all the other Towns, Cities, Corporations, or Boroughs, other than the aforesaid, shall cease to elect Representatives to serve in Parliament; and no Meeting shall at any Time hereafter be summoned, called, convened, or held, for the Purpose of electing any Person or Persons to serve or act, or be considered, as Representative or Representatives of any other Place, Town, City, Corporation, or Borough, other than the aforesaid, or as Representative or Representatives of the 'Freemen,

'Freemen, Freeholders, Houſeholders, or Inhabitants thereof, either in the Parliament of the United Kingdom or elſewhere, (unleſs it ſhall hereafter be otherwiſe provided by the Parliament of the United Kingdom); and every Perſon ſummoning, calling, or holding any ſuch Meeting or Aſſembly, or taking any Part in any ſuch Election or pretended Election, ſhall, being thereof duly convicted, incur and ſuffer the Pains and Penalties ordained and provided by the Statute of Proviſion and Præmunire, made in the ſixteenth Year of the Reign of Richard the Second. For the due Election of the Perſons to be choſen to ſit in the reſpective Houſes of the Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Ireland, be it enacted, That on the Day following that on which the Act for eſtabliſhing the Union ſhall have received the Royal Aſſent, the Primate of all Ireland, the Lord Biſhop of Meath, the Lord Biſhop of Kildare, and the Lord Biſhop of Derry ſhall be, and they are hereby declared to be the Repreſentatives of the Lords Spiritual of Ireland in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, for the firſt Seſſion thereof; and that the Temporal Peers of Ireland ſhall aſſemble at Twelve of the Clock on the ſame Day as aforeſaid, in the now accuſtomed Place of Meeting of the Houſe of Lords of Ireland, and ſhall then and there proceed to elect twenty-eight Lords Temporal to repreſent the Peerage of Ireland in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, in the following Manner; that is to ſay, the Names of the Peers ſhall be called over according to their Rank, by the Clerk of the Crown, or his Deputy, who ſhall then and there attend for that Purpoſe; and each of the ſaid Peers, who, previous to the ſaid Day, and in the preſent Parliament, ſhall have actually taken his Seat in the Houſe of Lords of Ireland, and who ſhall there have taken the Oaths, and ſigned the Declaration, which are or ſhall be by Law required to be taken and ſigned by the Lords of the Parliament of Ireland before they can ſit and vote in the Parliament hereof, ſhall, when his Name is called, deliver, either by himſelf or by his Proxy, (the Name of ſuch Proxy having been previouſly entered in the Books of the Houſe of Lords of Ireland, according to the preſent Forms and Uſages thereof,) to the Clerk of the Crown, or his Deputy, (who ſhall then and there attend for that Purpoſe,) a Liſt of twenty-eight of the Temporal Peers of Ireland; and the Clerk of the Crown or his Deputy ſhall then and there publickly read the ſaid Liſts, and ſhall then and there caſt up the ſaid Liſts, and publickly declare the Names of the twenty-eight Lords who ſhall be choſen by the Majority of Votes in the ſaid Liſts, and ſhall make a Return of the ſaid Names to the Houſe of Lords of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom; and the twenty-eight Lords ſo choſen by the Majority of Votes in the ſaid Liſts ſhall, during their reſpective Lives, ſit as Repreſentatives of the Peers of Ireland in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, and be entitled to receive Writs of Summons to that and every ſucceeding Parliament; and in caſe a complete Election ſhall not be made of the whole Number of twenty-eight Peers, by reaſon of an Equality of Votes, the Clerk of the Crown ſhall return ſuch Number in favour of whom a complete Election ſhall have been made in one Liſt, and in a ſecond Liſt ſhall return the Names of thoſe Peers who ſhall have an Equality of Votes, but in favour of whom, by reaſon of ſuch Equality, a complete Election ſhall not have been made, and the Names of the Peers in the ſecond Liſt, for whom an equal Number of Votes ſhall have been ſo given, ſhall be written on Pieces of Paper of a ſimilar Form, and ſhall be put into a Glaſs by the Clerk of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, at the Table of the Houſe of Lords thereof, whilſt the Houſe is ſitting, and the Peer whoſe Name ſhall be firſt drawn out by the Clerk of the Parliament, ſhall be deemed the Peer elected; and ſo ſucceſſively as often as the Caſe may require; and whenever the Seat of any of the twenty-eight Lords Temporal ſo elected ſhall be vacated by Deceaſe or Forfeiture, the Chancellor, the Keeper or Commiſſioners of the Great Seal of the United Kingdom for the Time being, upon receiving a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of any two Lords Temporal of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, certifying the Deceaſe of ſuch Peer, or on View of the Record of Attainder of ſuch Peer, ſhall direct a Writ to be iſſued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to the Chancellor, the Keeper or Commiſſioners of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being, directing him or them to cauſe Writs to be iſſued, by the Clerk of the Crown in Ireland, to every Temporal Peer of Ireland, who ſhall have ſat and voted in the Houſe of Lords of Ireland before the Union, or whoſe Right to ſit and vote therein, or to vote at ſuch Elections, ſhall, on Claim made on his Behalf, have been admitted by the Houſe of Lords of Ireland before the Union, or after the Union by the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom; and Notice ſhall forthwith be publiſhed by the ſaid Clerk of the Crown, in the London and Dublin Gazettes, of the iſſuing of ſuch Writs, and of the Names and Titles of all the Peers to whom the ſame are directed; and to the ſaid Writs there ſhall be annexed a Form of Return thereof, in which a Blank ſhall be left for the Name of the Peer to be elected, and the ſaid Writs ſhall enjoin each Peer, within fifty-two Days from the Teſte of the Writ, to return the ſame into the Crown Office of Ireland with the Blank filled up, by inſerting the Name of the Peer for whom he ſhall vote, as the Peer to ſucceed to the Vacancy made by Demiſe or Forfeiture as aforeſaid; and the ſaid Writs and Returns ſhall be bipartite, ſo as that the Name of the Peer to be choſen ſhall be written twice, that is, once on each Part of ſuch Writ and Return, and ſo as that each Part may alſo be ſubſcribed by the Peer to whom the ſame ſhall be directed, and likewiſe be ſealed with his Seal of Arms; and one Part of the ſaid Writs and Returns ſo filled up, ſubſcribed and ſealed as above, ſhall remain of Record in the Crown Office of Ireland, and the other Part ſhall be certified by the Clerk of the Crown to the Clerk of the Parliament of the United Kingdom; and no Peer of Ireland, except ſuch as ſhall have been elected as Repreſentative Peers on the Part of Ireland in the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom, and ſhall there have taken the Oaths, and ſigned the Declaration preſcribed by Law, ſhall, under pain of ſuffering ſuch Puniſhment as the Houſe of Lords of the United Kingdom may award and adjudge, make a Return to ſuch Writ, unleſs he ſhall, after the iſſuing thereof, and before the Day on which the Writ is returnable, have taken the Oaths and ſigned the Declaration which are or ſhall be by Law required to be taken and ſigned by the Lords of the United Kingdom, before they can ſit and

And be it enacted, That in caſe any Lord Spiritual, being a 'Temporal Peer of the United Kingdom, or being a Temporal Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom 'called Ireland, ſhall be choſen by the Lords Temporal to be one of the Repreſentatives of the Lords 'Temporal, in every ſuch Caſe, during the Life of ſuch Spiritual Peer being a Temporal Peer of the 'United Kingdom, or being a Temporal Peer of that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, ſo 'choſen to repreſent the Lords Temporal, the Rotation of Repreſentation of the Spiritual Lords ſhall 'proceed to the next Spiritual Lord, without Regard to ſuch Spiritual Lord ſo choſen a Temporal Peer, 'that is to ſay, if ſuch Spiritnal Lord ſhall be an Archbiſhop, then the Rotation ſhall proceed to the 'Archbiſhop whoſe See is next in Rotation, and if ſuch Spiritual Lord ſhall be a ſuffragan Biſhop, then 'the Rotation ſhall proceed to the ſuffragan Biſhop whoſe See is next in Rotation. And whereas by the 'ſaid fourth Article of Union it is agreed, that, if his Majeſty ſhall, on or before the firſt Day of January 'next, declare, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, that it is expedient that the Lords and Commons 'of the preſent Parliament of Great Britain ſhould be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt 'Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain, then the Lords and Commons of the 'preſent Parliament of Great Britain ſhall accordingly be the Members of the reſpective Houſes of the firſt 'Parliament of the United Kingdom on the Part of Great Britain; be it enacted, for and in that Caſe 'only, That the preſent Members of the thirty-two Counties of Ireland, and the two Members for the City 'of Dublin, and the two Members for the City of Cork, ſhall be, and they are hereby declared to be, by 'virtue of this Act, Members for the ſaid Counties and Cities in the firſt Parliament of the United King-'dom; and that, on a Day and Hour to be appointed by his Majeſty under the Great Seal of Ireland, pre-'vious to the ſaid firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, the Members then ſerving for 'the College of the Holy Trinity of Dublin, and for each of the following Cities or Boroughs, that is to 'ſay, the City of Waterford, City of Limerick, Borough of Belfaſt, County and Town of Drogheda, County 'and Town of Carrickfergus, Borough of Newry, City of Kilkenny, City of Londonderry, Town of Gal-'way, Borough of Clonmell, Town of Wexford, Town of Youghall, Town of Bandon-Bridge, Borough of 'Armagh, Borough of Dundalk, Town of Kinſale, Borough of Liſburne, Borough of Sligo, Borough of Cather-'lough, Borough of Ennis, Borough of Dungarvan, Borough of Downpatrick, Borough of Coleraine, Town 'of Mallow, Borough of Athlone, Town of New Roſs, Borough of Tralee, City of Caſhel, Borough of 'Dungannon, Borough of Portarlington, and Borough of Enniſkillen, or any five or more of them, ſhall 'meet in the now uſual Place of Meeting of the Houſe of Commons of Ireland, and the Names of the Mem-'bers then ſerving for the ſaid Places and Boroughs, ſhall be written on ſeparate Pieces of Paper, and the 'ſaid Papers being folded up, ſhall be placed in a Glaſs or Glaſſes, and ſhall ſucceſſively be drawn thereout 'by the Clerk of the Crown, or his Deputy, who ſhall then and there attend for that Purpoſe; and the 'firſt drawn Name of a Member of each of the aforeſaid Places or Boroughs ſhall be taken as the Name 'of the Member to ſerve for the ſaid Place or Borough in the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom; 'and a Return of the ſaid Names ſhall be made by the Clerk of the Crown, or his Deputy, to the Houſe 'of Commons of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom; and a Certificate thereof ſhall be given 'reſpectively by the ſaid Clerk of the Crown, or his Deputy, to each of the Members whoſe Names ſhall 'have been ſo drawn: Provided always, That it may be allowed to any Member of any of the ſaid Places 'or Boroughs, by perſonal Application, to be then and there made by him to the Clerk of the Crown or 'his Deputy, or by Declaration in Writing under his Hand, to be tranſmitted by him to the Clerk of the 'Crown previous to the ſaid Day ſo appointed as above, to withdraw his Name previous to the drawing of 'the Names by Lot; in which Caſe, or in that of a Vacancy by Death or otherwiſe of one of the Members 'of any of the ſaid Places or Boroughs, at the Time of ſo drawing the Names, the Name of the other 'Member ſhall be returned as aforeſaid as the Name of the Member to ſerve for ſuch Place in the firſt 'Parliament of the United Kingdom; or if both Members for any ſuch Place or Borough ſhall ſo withdraw 'their Names, or if there ſhall be a Vacancy of both Members at the Time aforeſaid, the Clerk of the 'Crown ſhall certify the ſame to the Houſe of Commons of the firſt Parliament of the United Kingdom, 'and ſhall alſo expreſs, in ſuch Return, whether any Writ ſhall then have iſſued for the Election of a 'Member or Members to ſupply ſuch Vacancy; and if a Writ ſhall ſo have iſſued for the Election of one 'Member only, ſuch Writ ſhall be ſuperſeded, and any Election to be thereafter made thereupon ſhall be 'null and of no Effect; and if ſuch Writ ſhall have iſſued for the Election of two Members, the ſaid two 'Members ſhall be choſen accordingly, and their Names being returned by the Clerk of the Crown to the 'Houſe of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, one of the ſaid Names ſhall then be drawn, 'by Lot, in ſuch Manner and Time as the ſaid Houſe of Commons ſhall direct; and the Perſon whoſe 'Name ſhall be ſo drawn, ſhall be deemed to be the Member to ſit for ſuch Place in the firſt Parliament of

'the United Kingdom; but if, at the Time aforeſaid, no Writ ſhall have iſſued to ſupply ſuch Vacancy, 'none ſhall thereafter iſſue until the ſame be ordered by Reſolution of the Houſe of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom, as in the Caſe of any other Vacancy of a Seat in the Houſe of Commons 'of the Parliament of the United Kingdom. And be it enacted, That whenever his Majeſty, his Heirs and 'Succeſſors, ſhall, by Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, ſummon a new Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Chancellor, Keeper, or Commiſſioners of 'the Great Seal of Ireland, ſhall cauſe Writs to be iſſued to the ſeveral Counties, Cities, the College of 'the Holy Trinity of Dublin, and Boroughs in that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, ſpecified in 'this Act, for the Election of Members to ſerve in the Parliament of the United Kingdom, according to 'the Number herein-before ſet forth; and whenever any Vacancy of a Seat in the Houſe of Commons of 'the Parliament of the United Kingdom, for any of the ſaid Counties, Cities, or Boroughs, or for the ſaid 'College of the Holy Trinity of Dublin, ſhall ariſe, by Death or otherwiſe, the Chancellor, Keeper, or 'Commiſſioners of the Great Seal, upon ſuch Vacancy being certified to them reſpectively, by the proper 'Warrant, ſhall forthwith cauſe a Writ to iſſue for the Election of a Perſon to fill up ſuch Vacancy; and 'ſuch Writs, and the Returns thereon, reſpectively being returned into the Crown Office in that Part of 'the United Kingdom called Ireland, ſhall from thence be tranſmitted to the Crown Office in that Part of 'the United Kingdom called England, and be certified to the Houſe of Commons in the ſame Manner as the 'like Returns have been uſually or ſhall hereafter be certified; and Copies of the ſaid Writs and Returns, 'atteſted by the Chancellor, Keeper or Commiſſioners of the Great Seal of Ireland for the Time being, 'ſhall be preſerved in the Crown Office of Ireland, and ſhall be Evidence of ſuch Writs and Returns, in 'caſe the original Writs and Returns ſhall be loſt;' be it enacted, That the ſaid Act, ſo herein recited, be taken as a Part of this Act, and be deemed to all Intents and Purpoſes incorporated within the ſame.

Recited Act to be taken as a Part of this Act.

III. And be it enacted, That the Great Seal of Ireland may, if his Majeſty ſhall ſo think fit, after the Union, be uſed in like Manner as before the Union, except where it is otherwiſe provided by the foregoing Articles, within that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland; and that his Majeſty may, ſo long as he ſhall think fit, continue the Privy Council of Ireland to be his Privy Council for that Part of the United Kingdom called Ireland.

The Great Seal of Ireland may, if his Majeſty ſhall think fit, after the Union, be uſed there in like Manner as before, except where otherwiſe provided by the foregoing Articles; and his Majeſty may continue the Privy Council of Ireland.

wise,) as Commissioners of the Land Tax for the several and respective Shires, Stewartries, and Places of Great Britain, mentioned and expressed in the said recited Act of this Session of Parliament, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if their Names and Descriptions had been particularly repeated in the Body of this Act, and together with and as if they had been named with the other Commissioners named in two several Acts of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, for appointing Commissioners of the Land Tax; the said Persons in the said recited Act of this Session of Parliament mentioned, being nevertheless subject and liable to such and the same Qualifications, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are in the same Act of the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty appointed and required with respect to the Commissioners therein named.

Persons named in c. 31. of this Session indemnified for having acted as Commissioners of Land Tax previous to passing this Act; and all Acts done by them shall be valid.

II. 'And whereas many of the Persons, named in the said recited Act of this Session of Parliament, conceiving that they were thereby intended to have been appointed, and were appointed Commissioners for putting in Execution the aforesaid Acts of the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, and for making the same perpetual, may have acted as Commissioners in the Execution of the same Acts since the passing of the said Act of this present Session of Parliament, by making Assessments, electing Clerks, voting at Elections, tendering their Votes or otherwise; and it is expedient that such Persons should be indemnified for such acting or offering to act, and that all such Acts by them done should be confirmed and made valid;' be it therefore enacted and declared, That all such Persons so named as aforesaid in the said Act of this Session of Parliament, who have acted or offered to act in the Execution of the said two last-mentioned Acts, shall be, and are hereby indemnified for all such Acts, and against all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred thereby; and that all Acts whatsoever done by any of the aforesaid Persons as Commissioners of the Land Tax, since the passing of the said Act of this Session of Parliament, shall be, and are hereby declared to be valid and effectual in all Respects, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if such Acts had been done after the passing of and by virtue of the Authority of this present Act; and that all personal Actions, and all Proceedings whatsoever, which have been or shall be prosecuted against any Person or Persons, for or by reason of such acting or offering to act, shall be made void by virtue of this Act; and if any Action or Suit shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons, for or by reason of such acting or offering to act as aforesaid, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence in his or their Behalf.

CAP. LXIX.

An Act for repealing the Duties on Perfumery and on Licences for vending the same.

26 Geo 3. c. 49.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Stamp Duties on Perfumery, Hair Powder, and other Articles therein mentioned, and on Licences to be taken out by Persons uttering or vending the same, it was amongst other Things enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and eighty-six, there should be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, certain Stamp Duties on the several Wares and other Articles therein mentioned, which should be uttered, vended, or exposed to Sale in Great Britain, according to the respective Prices thereof therein mentioned, and on Licences taken out by Persons uttering or vending the same: And whereas it is expedient that the Duties granted by the said recited Act should be repealed:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted, by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand eight hundred, the several and respective Duties granted by the said Act on the several Wares and other Articles therein mentioned, and on Licences for vending the same, shall cease and determine; and that then and from thenceforth all the Powers and Authorities given and granted, and the Rules and Regulations established and prescribed by the said recited Act, in relation to the managing, securing, ascertaining, collecting, recovering, levying, and paying the said Duties, and all Penalties and Forfeitures in respect thereof, shall also cease and determine; save and except in all Cases relating to the recovering of any Arrears which may at that Time remain unpaid of the said Duties, and to the accounting for the same, or to any Penalty or Forfeiture which shall have been incurred upon or at any Time before the said fifth Day of July one thousand eight hundred.

From July 5, 1800, the Duties on Perfumery, and Licences imposed by recited Act repealed, except Arrears.

II. 'And whereas many Persons dealing in Perfumery may have in their Custody or Possession divers Covers, Wrappers, or Labels, stamped or marked according to the Provisions of the said recited Act, which shall not have been used in the Sale or Disposal of any Wares;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Persons who shall have in their Custody or Possession any such stamped Covers, Wrappers, or Labels as aforesaid, to bring or send the same unto the Commissioners of the Stamp Duties at their Head Office, and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamps, and they are hereby authorized, upon due Proof upon Oath made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners (which Oath the said Commissioners, or any one or more of them, are hereby authorized to administer) that such stamped Covers, Wrappers, or Labels have bona fide not been used in the Sale or Disposal of any Wares within the Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act, to stamp and mark, or cause to be stamped or marked, for the several Persons who shall so bring or deliver any Quantity of such stamped Covers, Wrappers, or Labels, any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, stamped with any Stamps of the like Value, with the Amount of the said stamped Covers, Wrappers, or Labels, and of such Description of Stamps as shall be required by any such Person or Persons as aforesaid, without demanding or taking, directly or indirectly for the same, any Sum or Sums of Money or other Consideration whatever.

Persons having Stamps, under the recited Act, in their Possession, which have not been used, may bring the same to the Stamp Office, and the Commissioners are authorized to order other Stamps to be delivered to them of the like Value in lieu thereof.

CAP. LXX.

An Act to exempt from Duty Waſte Paper imported into this Kingdom, for the Purpoſe of being re-manufactured, except the Duty impoſed by an Act of the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for the better Protection of the Trade of this Kingdom, and for granting new and additional Duties of Cuſtoms on Goods imported and exported. [9th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to encourage the Importation of Waſte Paper, for the Purpoſe of being re-manufactured in this Kingdom;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, no Duty, except the Duty impoſed by an Act of the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the better Protection of the Trade of this Kingdom, and for granting new and additional Duties of Cuſtoms on Goods imported and exported, and on the Tonnage of certain Ships entering Outwards or Inwards to or from Foreign Parts, until the ſigning the Preliminary Articles of Peace, ſhall be paid or payable upon the Importation of any Waſte Paper whatever; provided the ſame ſhall, upon the Importation thereof, be in a State ſo as to render it wholly and entirely unfit for any other Purpoſe than that of being remanufactured; and provided alſo, that the ſame ſhall be duly entered and regularly landed in the Preſence of the proper Officers appointed for that Purpoſe.

No Duty except that impoſed by 38 Geo. 3. c. 76. ſhall be paid on the Importation of Waſte Paper, provided it be in a State fit for no other Purpoſe than re-manufacture.

CAP. LXXI.

An Act to authorize Bakers and other Perſons to ſell Bread to his Majeſty's Forces on their March, which ſhall not have been baked twenty-four Hours, and to indemnify all Perſons by whom ſuch Bread may have been ſo ſold. [9th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS an Act was made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to prohibit, until the Expiration of ſix Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament, any Perſon or Perſons from ſelling any Bread which ſhall not have been baked a certain Time: And whereas it may have been neceſſary to ſupply his Majeſty's Troops on their March, and on their firſt Arrival in any Town or Place, with Bread which had not been baked for the Period of Time required by the ſaid Act, whereby Bakers and other Perſons may have incurred divers Penalties: And whereas it is expedient that ſuch Bakers and other Perſons ſhould be relieved from ſuch Penalties, and that it ſhould be lawful to ſupply his Majeſty's Troops during their March, and on their firſt Arrival in any Town or Place, with Bread which ſhall not have been baked for the Period mentioned in the ſaid Act;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid recited Act ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Baker or other Perſon who, ſince the paſſing of the ſaid Act, has ſold or delivered, or offered or expoſed to Sale, or who during the Continuance of the ſaid Act ſhall ſell or deliver, or offer or expoſe to Sale, any Bread which had not or ſhall not have been baked twenty-four Hours, to or for the Uſe of any of his Majeſty's Troops on their March, or within twenty-four Hours after their Arrival, at any Quarter, Barrack, or Cantonment; and every ſuch Baker or other Perſon ſhall be and is hereby freed and diſcharged from all Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted by the ſaid recited Act, in reſpect of any Bread ſold, or offered or expoſed to Sale, to or for the Uſe of his Majeſty's Troops as aforeſaid; and all Proceedings already had for the Recovery of any ſuch Penalty or Forfeiture ſhall be forthwith ſtayed.

C. 18. of this Seſſion.

Recited Act not to extend to Bakers ſelling to his Majeſty's Troops on their March, &c. Bread which has not been baked 24 Hours.

CAP. LXXII.

An Act to amend ſeveral Laws relating to the Duties on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper. [9th July 1800.]

See c. 84.

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to enable the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaſter to ſell and diſpoſe of certain Fee Farm Rents and other Rents, and to enfranchiſe Copyhold and Cuſtomary Tenements within their Survey, and to encourage the Growth of Timber on Lands held of the ſaid Duchy, it is enacted, That where the Money to be paid as the Conſideration Money for any Grant, Conveyance, or Aſſurance of the ſaid Rents, ſhall not exceed the Sum of ten Pounds, ſuch Grants, Conveyances, and Aſſurances, under the Seal of the ſaid Duchy, ſhall be ſubject to no Stamp Duty for the ſame: And whereas ſince the paſſing of the ſaid Act, certain additional and new Stamp Duties have been granted: And whereas Doubts have ariſen whether the ſaid Proviſions of the ſaid recited Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty continue in force; and alſo whether the ſaid Grants and Aſſurances, which are thereby exempted from Stamp Duty, are alſo exempted from the Stamp Duties granted ſince the paſſing of the ſaid Act;' be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby declared and enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all ſuch Grants, Aſſurances, and Conveyances as aforeſaid ſhall be, remain, and continue exempted from the ſeveral Stamp Duties granted, as well ſince the paſſing of the ſaid recited Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty as before the paſſing thereof, any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

19 Geo. 3. c. 45. [§ 10.] recited.

Grants exempted from Stamp Duties by recited Act ſhall continue exempted from all Duties, impoſed as well ſince as before that Act.

37 Geo. 3. c. 90. recited;

II. 'And whereas, by an Act made in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act for granting to his Majeſty certain Stamp Duties on the ſeveral Matters therein mentioned, and for better 'ſecuring the Duties on Certificates to be taken out by Solicitors, Attornies, and others, practiſing in certain Courts 'of Juſtice in Great Britain, a Stamp Duty of ſix Shillings and eight Pence is chargeable upon every Skin or 'Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, on which any Copy, purporting to be a true 'Copy, or atteſted to be a true Copy, of any Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed, or any Part thereof, for the 'Security or Uſe of any Perſon other than the Perſon having or being entitled to the Cuſtody of ſuch Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed, ſhould, from and after the fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and 'ninety-ſeven, be ingroſſed, printed, or written: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid Duty ſhould 'be repealed, except as herein-after is provided, and other Duties granted in lieu thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred, the ſaid Stamp Duty of ſix Shillings and eight Pence, charged and payable by the ſaid recited Act as aforeſaid, ſhall ceaſe and determine, and be no longer paid or payable, ſave and except as herein-after is mentioned and provided; and ſave alſo and except as to any Arrears of the ſaid Duties which may, on the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, relating thereto, which ſhall have been incurred at any Time before or on the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, and the ſeveral Powers, Proviſions, and Remedies for recovering the ſame reſpectively.

and from Aug. 1, 1800, the Stamp Duty of 6s. 8d. upon every Sheet of a Copy of any Indenture, for the Uſe of any but the Perſon entitled to the Cuſtody of the Indenture, repealed; except as to Arrears;

but this not to repeal the Duties on Copies for the Security of any Party to an Indenture not having the Cuſtody of the Original, &c.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to repeal, or in any Manner affect the Duties granted by the ſaid Act, ſo far as the ſame relate to any Copy of any Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed, or any Part thereof, made or to be made for the Security or Uſe of any Perſon or Perſons being a Party or Parties to the ſame Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed, and not having the Cuſtody of the original Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed, or of any Counterpart or Duplicate thereof, or where ſuch Copy ſhall not be made in lieu of ſuch original Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed.

From Aug. 1, 1800, in lieu of the Duties repealed, there ſhall be paid a Stamp Duty of 6d. on every Sheet of ſuch Copy intended for any other than the Parties to the Indenture, not having the Cuſtody thereof, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Auguſt, there ſhall, in lieu of the Duties hereby repealed, be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, a Stamp Duty of Sixpence upon every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Copy, purporting to be a true Copy, or atteſted to be a true Copy, of any Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed, or any Part thereof, ſhall be ingroſſed, written, or printed, for, or for the Security or Uſe of, any Perſon or Perſons, other than any or either of the Parties to the ſame Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed or Deeds, and not having the Cuſtody of ſuch original Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed, or any Duplicate or Counterpart thereof, or where ſuch Copy ſhall not be made in lieu of any ſuch original Indenture, Leaſe, or other Deed.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commiſſioners for Stamps.

V. And be it further enacted, That for the more effectually levying, collecting, and paying the ſaid Duties herein-before granted, the ſame ſhall be under the Government, Care, and Management of the Commiſſioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are required and empowered to employ the neceſſary Officers under them for that Purpoſe, and to cauſe ſuch new Stamp to be provided to denote the ſaid new and additional Duty as ſhall be requiſite in that Behalf, and to alter or renew the ſame reſpectively from Time to Time, and to do all other Things neceſſary to be done for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the Duties herein-before granted, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner, as they or the major Part of them are authorized to put in Execution any former Law concerning ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper.

Number of Stamps to be put upon every Copy to be calculated according to laſt recited Act, [§8.] which ſhall extend to the Duty hereby granted. [See as to ſtamping Copies after they are made: Poſt c. 84. § 2.]

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Number of Stamps to be put on every ſuch Copy ſhall be calculated and aſcertained in like Manner, and according to ſuch and the like Rules, in every Reſpect, as are contained in the ſaid herein laſt-before recited Act, with reſpect to the ſaid Duty of ſix Shillings and eight Pence; and all the Clauſes, Proviſions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters and Things, relating to the ſaid Duty of ſix Shillings and eight Pence, or preſcribed in the ſaid laſt recited Act, with reſpect to any Copies, purporting to be true Copies, or atteſted to be true Copies, of any Indentures, Leaſes, or other Deeds, ſhall be extended, applied, and put in Practice, and ſhall continue and be in force, for the ſtamping every ſuch Copy as aforeſaid, charged with any Duty by this Act, or for the raiſing, levying, and collecting the Duty hereby granted reſpectively, in the like Manner and as fully and effectually as if the ſaid Clauſes, Proviſions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things, had been re-enacted in this Act.

37 Geo. 3. c. 90.

VII. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, 'intituled, An Act for Granting to his Majesty certain Duties on Certificates, to be taken out by Attornies, Solicitors, and others, practising in certain Courts of Justice in Great Britain, and certain other Duties with respect to Warrants, Mandates, and Authorities, to be entered or filed of Record, as therein mentioned; 'and of another Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act 'for granting to his Majesty certain Stamp Duties on the several Matters therein mentioned; and for better 'securing the Duties on Certificates to be taken out by Solicitors, Attornies, and others, practising in certain 'Courts of Justice in Great Britain, certain Duties are granted on Certificates to be taken out by certain Notaries therein described: And whereas Doubts have arisen, whether Notaries, not being admitted in any Courts, are liable to the said Duties;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That, from and after the first Day of November one thousand eight hundred, every Person who shall act as a Public Notary, or use or exercise the Office of a Notary in any Manner, or do any notarial Act whatsoever, without having been duly admitted in the Court or Courts wherein Notaries are usually admitted, and without having delivered in his Name and usual Place of Residence, and taken out such Certificate as is directed in and by the said last recited Acts of the twenty-fifth and thirty-seventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, or one of them, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, and shall be and is hereby made incapable to do any Act, Matter, or Thing as a Notary Publick, or recover any Fee or Reward on Account of any such Act, Matter or Thing, without such Certificate as aforesaid; and every such Penalty shall be recoverable and recovered, and applied in like Manner in every Respect as any Penalty of the like Value imposed by the said last recited Acts, or either of them, may be recovered and applied.

From Nov. 1, 1800, Notaries acting without having taken out their Certificate shall forfeit 50l and be rendered incapable of acting.

35 Geo. 3. c. 63. [§ 5.] recited; and so much as enacts that the Commissioners, &c. shall not be required to provide Blank Policies of Insurance for Sums not amounting to 10,000l. repealed; and from August 1, 1800, stamped Policies to be provided for 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9000l. respectively.

VIII. 'And whereas the Provision contained in an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of 'his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Stamp Duties on Sea Insurances, by 'which it is enacted, That the Commissioners or Officers in the said Act mentioned shall not be required 'to provide, at the publick Charge, any stamped Parchment for Policies of Insurance, where the Sum to 'be insured thereon shall not amount to ten thousand Pounds or upwards, has been found to be productive 'of great Inconvenience: And whereas it is expedient that certain Provisions of the said Act, relating 'to the cancelling of certain Policies of Insurance in certain Cases, and to the making an Allowance of 'the Stamps thereon, should be amended in certain Particulars herein-after mentioned; and that Provi'sion should be made to permit the said Commissioners of Stamps to make an Allowance of the Value 'of certain Stamps on Policies of Insurance, issued on former Acts of Parliament, prior to the said last 'recited Act, that have never been used, and have been rendered useless by the said Act:' Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as enacts, that the said Commissioners or Officers in the said Act mentioned, should not be required to provide, at the Publick Charge, any Parchment stamped for Blank Policies of Insurance, as in the said Act is particularly mentioned, where the Sum to be insured thereon should not amount to ten thousand Pounds or upwards, shall, from and after the first Day of August one thousand eight hundred, be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that, from and after the said first Day of August, the said Commissioners shall provide sufficient Quantities of Parchment or Paper only, and not of Vellum, adapted for Policies of Insurance, with the several Forms for Blank Policies of Insurance printed thereon, and stamped according to the Provisions of the said Act, for the several and respective Sums of five thousand Pounds, six thousand Pounds, seven thousand Pounds, eight thousand Pounds, and nine thousand Pounds respectively, to be insured thereon.

§ 9 of 35 Geo. 3. c. 63. empowering the Commissioners to cancel Policies brought within 10 Days after Departure of the Vessel repealed.

IX. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Period within which any stamped Vellum, Parchment, or 'Paper, delivered in pursuance of the said last recited Act, may be brought or sent to the Commissioners 'of Stamp Duties, at their Head Office, to be cancelled, on the Terms and according to the Regulations in 'the said last recited Act contained, should be extended:' Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for all and every Person or Persons, to whom any stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, shall have been delivered in pursuance of the said Act, bearing the Date of the Delivery thereof by the proper Officer, in the Manner in the said Act directed, to bring or send to be cancelled any such stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, allowed by the said Act to be cancelled, unto the Commissioners of the Stamp Duties, at their Head Office, at any Time within six Calendar Months after the Date of the Delivery thereof as aforesaid; and the said Commissioners or their Officers shall have the like Authority as is in the said Act contained, to cancel the Policies so brought as aforesaid, and to exchange the same for other stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, with Stamps of the like Value with the stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper so cancelled; in like Manner in every Respect as if the same had been brought to be cancelled within the Period prescribed by the said last recited Act; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Policies may be brought to the Stamp Office to be cancelled within six Months from the Date of Delivery. [See § 8. of 35 Geo. 3. c. 63.]

X. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said last recited Act as empowers the said Commissioners to cause any Policy that shall have been made and subscribed on any Ship or Ships bound on a Voyage outwards from any Port or Place in Great Britain, or any Part, Share, or Interest therein, or arising thereout, or on any Goods or Merchandizes laden on board such Ship or Ships which shall be brought to be cancelled within ten Office Days after the Departure of such Ship or Ships from any such Port or Place in like Manner, and under the like Powers, as if such Policy had been brought to be cancelled within ten Office Days from the Date of the first Subscription, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

If an Insurance be made on a Ship that does

XI. 'And whereas it is expedient, That the Provisions in the said recited Act, empowering the said 'Commissioners to make Allowances for Stamps on Policies of Insurance, where the Sum insured shall not proceed upon her Voyage, or upon Goods that ſhall not have been ſhipped, &c. the Commiſſioners may cancel the Policies. [See § 10 of 35 Geo. 3. c. 63.]

'exceed the Intereſt of the Aſſured in any ſuch Policy, ſhould be further extended:' Be it further enacted, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, in caſe any Inſurance ſhall have been made on any Ship, that is to ſay, on the Body, Tackle, Apparel, Ordnance, Munition, Artillery, Boat, and other Furniture thereof, or upon the Freight of any Ship, or in caſe any Inſurance ſhall be made on any Goods, Merchandizes, or other Effects laden or to be laden on board of any Ship or Ships, whether ſuch Ship or Ships ſhall be ſpecifically named in ſuch Policy or not, and it ſhall happen that any ſuch Ship ſo inſured as aforeſaid, ſhall not have proceeded upon the Voyage inſured, or that any Goods, Merchandizes, or other Effects ſo inſured as aforeſaid have not been ſhipped on board any Ship or Ships, whether ſpecifically named in the Policy or not, or in caſe of any Inſurance made on any Ship or on any Freight, or on any Goods, Merchandizes, or other Effects, the Sum inſured ſhall be found to exceed the Intereſt of the Aſſured on which the Riſk attached, and in caſe the ſeparate Intereſt of one Perſon, or the joint Intereſt of two or more Perſons aſſured in ſuch Policy, ſhall fall ſhort of the Sum inſured on ſuch Account by the Sum of one thouſand Pounds or upwards, where the Duty payable thereon ſhall be at and after the Rate of one Shilling and three Pence per Centum, or of five hundred Pounds and upwards, when the Duty payable thereon ſhall be at and after the Rate of two Shillings and Sixpence per Centum, then and in every ſuch Caſe as aforeſaid, upon due Proof on Oath or Affirmation to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any one of them, that any ſuch Ship hath not proceeded upon the Voyage inſured, or that any ſuch Goods, Merchandizes, or other Effects aforeſaid, have not been ſhipped on board any Ship or Ships, whether ſpecifically named or not, and that no Riſk hath, in either of ſuch Caſes, attached, or on ſuch due Proof as aforeſaid of the Value of the Intereſt, if any, aſſured in any ſuch Ship, Freight, Goods, Merchandizes, or other Effects as aforeſaid, on which any Riſk has attached, and on the Production of the Policy whereby ſuch Inſurance was made, and alſo on ſuch due Proof as aforeſaid being made of the bonâ fide Return of the Premiums by the ſeveral Underwriters or Inſurers on ſuch Policy, on Account only of ſuch no Riſk, no Intereſt, or ſhort Intereſt, as the Caſe may be, or of the Proportion of the Premium ſo returned on any ſuch Account as aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to make an Allowance to the Aſſured or Aſſureds of the Stamps on any ſuch Policies, in reſpect of the Sums thereby inſured, when the Whole of the Premiums ſhall have been returned on any ſuch Account as aforeſaid, or of ſuch Part of the Sums thereby inſured as ſhall be found to exceed the Intereſt of the Aſſured or Aſſureds in any ſuch Policy; and the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby authorized and required to cancel any ſuch Policies, and to deliver other ſtamped Papers or Parchment of the Value of the Stamps ſo allowed as aforeſaid, in the Manner in the ſaid Act directed with reſpect to Policies brought to be cancelled: Provided always, That no ſuch Allowance ſhall be made as aforeſaid, in any Caſe where the Intereſt of the Aſſured or Aſſureds in any ſuch Ship, or in any ſuch Freight, or on any ſuch Goods, Merchandizes, or other Effects, ſhall be valued in or by any ſuch Policy ſo brought to be cancelled as aforeſaid.

Policies of Inſurance ſtamped according to the Proviſions of Acts prior to the laſt recited Act, and Policies ſtamped according to recited Act; not carried to be cancelled within the Period thereby preſcribed, [§ 8.] may be cancelled by the Commiſſioners.

XII. 'And whereas divers Perſons have in their Poſſeſſion certain Policies of Inſurance ſtamped in purſuance of certain Acts of Parliament in force at and immediately before the paſſing of the ſaid recited Act, and which Policies of Inſurance were, and are, by the ſaid laſt recited Act, rendered uſeleſs and of no Value whatever to the Perſons poſſeſſing the ſame: And whereas alſo divers Perſons have in their Poſſeſſion many Policies of Inſurance ſpoiled, obliterated, or rendered unfit for Uſe, and allowed, according to the Proviſions of the ſaid recited Act, to be cancelled; but in as much as the ſame, through Inadvertence and undeſignedly have not been carried or ſent to be cancelled within the Period by the ſaid recited Act preſcribed, the Commiſſioners of Stamps are not, by the ſaid Act, authorized to cancel ſuch Policies, or allowed Stamps to the Amount of the Value thereof: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhould be empowered to cancel the ſaid ſtamped Policies, and to provide other Policies, ſtamped according to the Proviſions of the ſaid laſt recited Act:' Be it therefore enacted, That on the Production to the ſaid Commiſſioners of any Policies of Inſurance, ſtamped according to the Proviſions of any Act or Acts paſſed prior to the ſaid laſt recited Act, or of any ſuch Policies of Aſſurance ſtamped in purſuance of the ſaid laſt recited Act, that ſhall not have been carried or ſent to be cancelled within the Period by the ſaid Act preſcribed, and on due Proof made to the ſaid Commiſſioners, in the Manner in the ſaid laſt recited Act preſcribed, with reſpect to Policies of Inſurance brought to be cancelled, that ſuch ſtamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, whereon any ſuch Policy hath been written or printed, hath not been ſubſcribed or underwritten by any Perſon or Perſons, or uſed for any other Purpoſe or in any other Manner whatſoever, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and they are hereby required to cancel the ſame; and to ſtamp, or cauſe to be ſtamped, for the uſe of the Perſon or Perſons producing the ſame, any Quantity of other Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, fit for the like Uſes, with Stamps amounting to the like Value, and to mark the Date and Time of the Delivery thereof, in Manner in the ſaid laſt recited Act preſcribed, without demanding or taking, directly or indirectly, for the ſame, any Sum or Sums of Money, or other Conſideration whatſoever.

Duties granted by 37 Geo. 3. c. 111. ſhall extend to every Deed which by Law may form, or is intended to form, a Part of any Conveyance of Lands, &c. whereby a great-

XIX. ' And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to enable the Commissioners of his Majesty's Stamp Duties to stamp the Paper used for the printing Newspapers thereon in Sheets of Single Demy Paper, instead of Sheets of Double Demy Paper, it was among other Things provided, That no Sheet of Single Demy Paper, stamped in pursuance of the said last recited Act, for the Printing of Newspapers, should exceed twenty-eight Inches in Length and twenty Inches in Breadth: And whereas it is expedient to permit the Commissioners and Officers in the said Act mentioned, to stamp and mark, in Manner by the said Act directed, Single Demy Paper for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned, of a larger Size than in and by the said Act is allowed:' Be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners and Officers in the said Act mentioned, and they are hereby authorized to stamp and mark, in the Manner in the said Act directed, any Single Demy Paper, not exceeding thirty Inches and one Half Inch in Length, and twenty Inches in Breadth; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

34 Geo. 3. c. 72. [§ 2.] recited.

Single Demy Paper not exceeding 30 Inches and an Half [instead of 28 Inches] in Length, and 20 Inches in Breadth, may be stamped.

CAP. LXXIII.

An Act for repealing the Duties of Exciſe on Diſtilleries in Scotland, and on the Exportation of Britiſh-made Spirits from England to Scotland, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof; and for altering, amending, and continuing certain Acts of Parliament for the Regulation of Diſtilleries in Scotland. [9th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS by the Laws now in force certain Duties of Exciſe are payable for or in reſpect of Stills 'uſed for diſtilling Low Wines or Spirits, and for rectifying, compounding, or mixing Spirits for 'Conſumption in Scotland, and alſo for making Spirits for Exportation from England to Scotland; and a 'certain Duty is now alſo payable for or in reſpect of Britiſh Spirits, diſtilled for Conſumption in Scot-'land, and for or in reſpect of unmalted Grain uſed in Diſtillation in Scotland: And whereas it is expe-'dient to repeal the ſaid Duties, and to impoſe other Duties in lieu thereof:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, all and ſingular the ſaid Duties ſhall ceaſe and determine, and be no longer payable or paid; ſave and except the Duties of ſix Pounds and ten Shillings, impoſed by ſeveral Acts of the thirty-third, thirty-fifth, and thirty-ſeventh Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, on Stills uſed in diſtilling Spirits in the Highland Diſtrict of Scotland; and ſave and except in all Caſes relating to the recovering or paying of any Arrears of the ſaid Duties hereby repealed, which may at that Time remain unpaid, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture relating thereto reſpectively, which ſhall have been incurred at any Time before or on the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred.

From November 10, 1800, the preſent Duties on Diſtilleries in Scotland ſhall ceaſe, except the Duties on Stills in the Highland Diſtrict, under 33 Geo. 3. c. 61. § 21, &c. 35 Geo. 3. c. 59, and 37 Geo. 3. c. 102;

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, in lieu and in ſtead of the ſaid Duties by this Act repealed, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſeveral Duties of Exciſe herein-after reſpectively mentioned; that is to ſay, for and upon each and every Gallon Engliſh Wine Meaſure, (and ſo in proportion for any leſs Quantity or Meaſure,) of the cubical Content or Capacity of each and every Still, (including the Head, and every Part thereof, and of any Horn, Pipe, Tube, or other Apparatus therewith connected, under whatever Name or Denomination the ſame may be called or known, as high as the Steam can aſcend, and until the Top of the Head ſhall turn downwards, and form an Angle of forty-five Degrees,) which ſhall be uſed or employed for any or either of the Purpoſes herein-after mentioned: that is to ſay, and the Duties following ſhall be paid for each Gallon of the Content of every Still uſed for the Purpoſes herein-after mentioned, viz.

For making Spirits (except in the Highland Diſtrict, [ſee 37 Geo. 3. c. 102. § 1—6.]) for Conſumption in Scotland from Britiſh Materials, 108l. annually.

For the making or diſtilling of Low Wines or Spirits for Conſumption in Scotland from Corn, Grain, Malt, Tilts, Cyder or Perry, or other Waſh or Liquor made or brewed from any Sort of Britiſh Materials, or any Mixture therewith, in any Part or Place in Scotland, (other than and except the Highland Diſtrict, as particularly ſpecified and deſcribed in an Act made in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty,) the annual Sum of one hundred and eight Pounds:

For making ſuch Spirits from Melaſſes or Sugar in any Part of Scotland, 670l; [See poſt. § 40, &c.]

For the making or diſtilling of Low Wines or Spirits for Conſumption in Scotland from Melaſſes or Sugar, or any Mixture therewith, in any Part or Place in Scotland, the annual Sum of ſix hundred and ſeventy Pounds:

and from other foreign Materials, 760l.;

For the making or diſtilling of Low Wines or Spirits for Conſumption in Scotland from foreign refuſed Wines, or foreign Cyder, or Waſh prepared from foreign Materials, (except Melaſſes and Sugar,) or any Mixture therewith, in any Part or Place in Scotland, the annual Sum of ſeven hundred and ſixty Pounds: And,

and for rectifying any Kind of Spirits, 108l.

For the rectifying, compounding, or mixing in any Part or Place in Scotland, of any Kind of Spirits, or Strong Waters for Conſumption in Scotland, the annual Sum of one hundred and eight Pounds:

For each Gallon of Spirits of a certain Strength (not exceeding a limited Number) made for Conſumption in Scotland, 6d. above the Duty on the Still and on the Waſh.

For and upon every Gallon, Engliſh Wine Meaſure, of Spirits of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, (and ſo in proportion for any higher or lower Degree of Strength,) which ſhall be made or diſtilled in any Part or Place in Scotland for Conſumption in Scotland, (not exceeding the Number of Gallons of Spirits herein-after limited, and reſtricted to be diſtilled annually by or from each Still,) the Sum of Sixpence, to be paid by the Diſtiller of the ſaid Spirits, over and above the aforeſaid Duty on the Content of the Still, and the herein-after mentioned Duty on the Worts or Waſh from which ſuch Spirits may be or may have been made or diſtilled:

For each Gallon of Waſh made for Conſumption in

For and upon every Gallon, Engliſh Wine Meaſure, of all Worts or Waſh which ſhall be brewed or made in any Part or Place in Scotland, (other than and except in the Highland Diſtrict aforeſaid,) for extracting Spirits for Conſumption in Scotland from any Malt, Corn, Grain, Tilt, Cyder, or Perry, or other Worts,

Worts, Waſh, or Liquor, made or brewed from any Sort of Britiſh Materials, or any Mixture therewith, the Sum of two-pence and one Halfpenny, to be paid by the Brewer, Maker, or Diſtiller thereof:

Scotland, (except in the Highland Diſtrict,) from Britiſh Materials, 2d. 2q.

For and upon every Gallon, Engliſh Wine Meaſure, of all Worts or Waſh which ſhall be brewed or made in any Part or Place in Scotland for extracting Spirits for Conſumption in Scotland from Melaſſes or Sugar, or any Mixture therewith, or from Foreign refuſed Wines or Foreign Cyder, or Waſh prepared from Foreign Materials, or any Mixture therewith, the Sum of two-pence and one Halfpenny, to be paid by the Brewer, Maker, or Diſtiller thereof:

For each Gallon made in any Part of Scotland for Conſumption in Scotland from foreign Materials, 2d. 2q.

For and upon every Gallon, Engliſh Wine Meaſure, of Spirits of a Strength not exceeding that of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, and ſo in proportion for any higher Degree of Strength which ſhall be made or diſtilled in England, and imported or brought from thence into Scotland, there ſhall be paid by the Importer thereof, before the landing thereof, an Exciſe Duty of three Shillings.

For each Gallon of Spirits made in England and imported into Scotland, 3s.

III. And be it further enacted, That from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, Spirits made or diſtilled in England for Exportation to Scotland, under, ſubject, and according to the ſeveral Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions provided by and contained in an Act made in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for diſcontinuing, for a limited Time, the ſeveral Duties payable in Scotland upon Low Wines and Spirits, and upon Worts, Waſh, and other Liquors there uſed in the Diſtillation of Spirits, and for granting to his Majeſty other Duties in lieu thereof; and for better regulating the Exportation of Britiſh-made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England; and to continue for a limited Time, an Act made in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, to diſcontinue, for a limited Time, the Payment of the Duties upon Low Wines and Spirits for Home Conſumption; and for granting and ſecuring the due Payment of other Duties in lieu thereof, and for the better Regulation of the making and vending Britiſh Spirits; and for diſcontinuing, for a limited Time, certain Impoſts and Duties upon Rum and Spirits imported from the Weſt Indies, ſhall not be charged or chargeable in England, with any Duty whatever, either upon the Content or Capacity of the Still or Stills which ſhall or may be uſed or employed in making the ſame, or upon the Worts or Waſh from which ſuch Spirits may or ſhall be made or diſtilled; any Thing in this Act, or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anyways notwithſtanding.

From November 10, 1800, Spirits diſtilled in England for Exportation to Scotland according to 28 Geo. 3. c. 46. ſhall not be chargeable with any Duty in England.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the ſeveral and reſpective Duties by this Act impoſed ſhall (except as is herein-after excepted, or otherwiſe directed or provided) be raiſed, collected, recovered, ſecured, and paid by ſuch Perſons, at ſuch Times, in ſuch Manner, and by ſuch Ways and Means, and under ſuch Management, and under and ſubject to ſuch Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and with ſuch Power of adjudging and mitigating Penalties and Forfeitures, and with and ſubject to ſuch Powers, and to the like Rules and Directions, and by ſuch Methods, and in ſuch Manner and Form, (except as aforeſaid,) as by ſeveral Acts, made in the twenty-eighth, thirty-third, thirty-fifth, and thirty-ſeventh Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for the Regulation of Diſtilleries in Scotland, and the Exportation of Britiſh-made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force concerning the ſeveral Matters and Things reſpectively for or in reſpect whereof any Duty is by this Act impoſed, is directed or preſcribed; and that all the Proviſions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, and Directions, mentioned and contained in the ſaid Acts reſpectively, (except as aforeſaid,) ſhall be practiſed and put in Execution, for the raiſing, receiving, levying, recovering, ſecuring, or paying the ſeveral and reſpective Duties by this Act impoſed, in Manner in the ſaid Acts directed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame were particularly repeated and enacted in this Act.

Duties to be raiſed as preſcribed by the Acts for the Regulation of Diſtilleries in Scotland, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies ariſing by the Duties by this Act impoſed, (the neceſſary Charges for raiſing and accounting for the ſame excepted,) ſhall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter; and the ſaid Monies ſo paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer as aforeſaid, ſhall be carried to and made Part of the Conſolidated Fund.

Duties to be carried to the Conſolidated Fund.

VI. 'And whereas the Monies ariſing from the reſpective Duties hereby repealed, were directed to be 'entered ſeparate and apart in the Books kept at the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of his Majeſty's 'Exchequer for a limited Time;' be it further enacted, That during the Period of ten Years, to be computed from the paſſing of an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty *, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty certain additional Duties on Diſtilleries in Scotland, and on the Exportation of Britiſh-made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England, there ſhall be ſeparately entered in the Books provided and kept in the ſaid Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, at the End of every Quarter of a Year, ending on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, yearly, the Proportions herein-after mentioned of the Duties hereby granted; that is to ſay, there ſhall be reſerved in the Conſolidated Fund for the Account exiſting prior to the paſſing of an Act paſſed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, out of the Duties hereby granted, one ſixth Part thereof; and that after reſerving ſuch ſixth Part as aforeſaid, one other ſixth Part of the ſaid Duties ſhall be entered in the ſeparate Account directed to be kept by ſeveral Acts paſſed in the ſaid thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and the Remainder of the ſaid Duties ſhall be entered in the ſeparate Account, directed to be kept by ſeveral Acts paſſed in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as the ſame ſhall ariſe at the End of each Quarter.

Duties to be entered in the Books of the Auditor of the Exchequer as herein directed.

* [c. 17.]

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Duties by this Act impoſed ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Scotland for the Time being.

Management of the Duties.

No Perſon ſhall ſet up a Still in Scotland without a Licence on Penalty of 500l. and Forfeiture of the Still, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons whatever, ſhall, by him, her, or themſelves, or by any other Perſon or Perſons whatever employed by him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Uſe or Benefit, erect, ſet up, uſe, employ, or work, any Still or Stills for diſtilling, making, or manufacturing of Low Wines or Spirits from Malt, Corn, Sugar, or Melaſſes, or any of the Materials aforeſaid, or for the rectifying, compounding, or mixing of any Kind of Spirits or Strong Waters, in any Part of Scotland, without firſt taking out a Licence for that Purpoſe, in the Manner herein-after mentioned and directed, ten Days at leaſt before he, ſhe, or they ſhall ſo erect, ſet up, uſe, employ, or work any ſuch Still or Stills, on pain to forfeit five hundred Pounds, together with all and every ſuch Still and Stills, with the Tubs and Utenſils thereto belonging, and all Worts, Waſh, Low Wines, and Spirits, and alſo all Materials for brewing or manufacturing Worts, Waſh, Low Wines, or Spirits, or for rectifying or compounding Spirits in the Poſſeſſion of ſuch Perſon or Perſons; and all and every ſuch Still and Stills, Tubs, Utenſils, Worts, Waſh, Low Wines, Spirits, and Materials, ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of Excife.

Manner of granting Licences.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Licence ſhall be granted in the Manner following; that is to ſay, if ſuch Licence ſhall be applied for to authorize the Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers, Rectifier or Rectifiers, Compounder or Compounders of Spirits to whom the ſame ſhall be granted, to make, diſtil, rectify, or compound Spirits within the Limits of the Chief Office of Excife in Edinburgh, the ſame ſhall be granted under the Hands and Seals of two or more of the Commiſſioners of Excife in Scotland for the Time being, or of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as they the ſaid Commiſſioners of Excife, or the major Part of them for the Time being, ſhall from Time to Time appoint for that Purpoſe; but if ſuch Licence ſhall be applied for to authorize the Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers, Rectifier or Rectifiers, Compounder or Compounders of Spirits, to whom the ſame ſhall be granted, to make, diſtil, rectify, or compound Spirits in any Part of Scotland not within the ſaid Limits, the ſame ſhall be granted under the Hands and Seals of the Collector and Supervifor of Excife of the Collection and Diſtrict within which the ſame ſhall authorize the Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers, Rectifier or Rectifiers, Compounder or Compounders of Spirits, to whom the ſame ſhall be granted, to make, diſtil, rectify, or compound Spirits; and ſuch Commiſſioners of Excife, or two or more of them, and the Perſon or Perſons to be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Excife in Scotland, or the major Part of them, and alſo all ſuch Collectors and Supervifors, are hereby reſpectively authorized and required to grant (without Fee or Reward) Licences to the Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers, Rectifier or Rectifiers, Compounder or Compounders of Spirits, applying for and duly qualified to receive the ſame, on his, her, or their finding the Security, and complying with the Conditions herein-after mentioned, and firſt paying into the Hands of the proper Officer of Excife ſuch Proportion of the yearly Rate or Duty hereby impoſed as herein-after is directed, according to the Content or Capacity of the Still or Stills ſo to be erected, ſet up, made uſe of, employed, or worked as aforeſaid.

No Licence ſhall be granted till Security be given for Payment of the Duty.

X. And be it further enacted, That no ſuch Licence ſhall be granted to any Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers, Rectifier or Rectifiers, Compounder or Compounders of Spirits for Conſumption in Scotland, until he, ſhe, or they reſpectively ſhall have found Security by Bond to his Majeſty in the penal Sum of five hundred Pounds, with at leaſt one ſufficient Surety, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or the proper Collector of Excife, that he, ſhe, or they ſhall make due and regular Payment of the whole annual Duty by this Act impoſed on the Capacity or Content of his, her, or their Still or Stills ſo to be licenſed as aforeſaid, at the Time and Times, and in the Manner herein-after mentioned and directed, without any Allowance, Abatement, or Deduction on Account of any Loſs, Accident, or Interruption that may happen during the Currency or Period of ſuch Licence, except in or through the Deſtruction of the Diſtillery, and total Stoppage of the Work by Fire, or as is herein-after excepted and provided.

Licences ſhall be in force for one Year from the 10th Nov. yearly.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Licence for the diſtilling, making, or manufacturing of Low Wines or Spirits from Malt, Corn, Grain, or Britiſh Materials in the Lowlands of Scotland, or from Melaſſes, Sugar, or other Foreign Materials, or for the rectifying, compounding, or mixing of any Kind of Spirits in any Part or Place in Scotland which ſhall be granted or renewed upon or after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred inclufive, ſhall be and continue in force from the ſaid tenth Day of November inclufive to the tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred and one excluſive, and for no longer or ſhorter Period; and every ſuch Licence to be afterwards granted or renewed ſhall be and continue in force for one Year from the tenth Day of November yearly, and for no longer or ſhorter Period.

Duty for Licences ſhall be paid by Monthly Inſtalments in Advance.

XII. And be it further enacted, That upon or previous to the granting of any ſuch Licence for the diſtilling, making, or manufacturing of Low Wines or Spirits from Malt, Corn, Grain, or Britiſh Materials in the Lowlands of Scotland, or from Melaſſes, Sugar, or other Foreign Materials, or for the rectifying, compounding, or mixing of any Kind of Spirits in any Part or Place in Scotland, the Perſon or Perſons applying for the ſame ſhall, before he, ſhe, or they be entitled to ſuch Licence, pay down in Advance in Ready Money to the proper Officer of Excife, one-twelfth Part of the annual Duty by this Act impoſed for or in reſpect of the Capacity or Content of his, her, or their Still or Stills ſpecified in ſuch Licence, for one Year, computed as aforeſaid; and ſhall afterwards, at or before the End of every Month, pay down in Ready Money in Advance as aforeſaid, another twelfth Part of the ſaid yearly Duty payable for or in reſpect of ſuch Still or Stills, until the Whole thereof ſhall be fully paid, over and above the Sum paid in Advance at the Time of granting ſuch Licence.

Penalty of not paying the Licence Duty duly. Forfeiture of the Still and 500l.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons licenſed as aforeſaid ſhall neglect, delay, or refuſe to pay the Licence Duty impoſed by this Act for or in reſpect of the Capacity or Content of his, her, or their licenſed Still or Stills, or any Part thereof, in Advance, in the Manner, and at the Time or Times herein-before directed, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe his, her, her, or their Still or Stills, and alſo the Sum of five hundred Pounds; which Still or Stills ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of Exciſe.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons in any Part or Place in Scotland ſhall erect, work, or make uſe of any other Still or Stills except ſuch as ſhall be ſpecified in his, her, or their Licence or Licences, whether of the ſame or of a different Deſcription, Capacity, or Content, either in the Body, or in the Head, or any other Part thereof, than ſhall have been ſo ſpecified, ſuch Still or Stills ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of Exciſe; and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe for every ſuch Offence the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

The ſame Penalty for erecting any other Still than ſpecified in the Licence.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in Scotland to grant Licences to all Perſons applying for the ſame, and duly recommended and qualified, to erect, keep, and work Stills for diſtilling from Barley, Beer, or Big, in the Highlands of Scotland, within the reſpective Counties, Parts of Counties, and Limits particularly ſpecified and deſcribed, in the before-mentioned Acts of the thirty-ſeventh and thirty-ninth * Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as the Highland Diſtrict, and as contradiſtinguiſhed from the intermediate Diſtrict herein-after mentioned, and from the Lowlands of Scotland, for one Year, from the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred inclusive, to the tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred and one excluſive, and ſo from Year to Year thereafter upon Payment of the ſame, and no higher yearly Rate of Duty for or in reſpect of the Capacity or Content of the Stills ſpecified in ſuch Licences to which Diſtillers in the ſaid Highland Diſtrict were ſubject and liable under the Acts of the thirty-third, thirty-fifth, and thirty-ſeventh Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and alſo ſubject to and upon the ſame Terms, Conditions, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Proviſions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as were contained in the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and in the before-mentioned Acts of the thirty-eighth † and thirty-ninth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, or any of them, ſave and except as is herein-after excepted or altered.

Licences may be granted for erecting Stills within the Highland Diſtrict, upon Payment of the old Duty.

†[See poſt. §39.]

XVI. 'And whereas by the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties on Diſtilleries in the ſeveral Parts of the Highlands of Scotland, herein particularly deſcribed, for a limited Time; and for regulating the Duties on Diſtilleries in the reſpective Diſtricts in Scotland,' it was enacted, That all Stills to be licenſed to be ſet up in any other Part of the Highlands of Scotland, as deſcribed in an Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, (except the Counties, Parts of Counties, and Places in the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty particularly ſpecified and deſcribed,) ſhould be licenſed for the Term therein mentioned, on Payment of the Compoſition or Licence Duty, at and after the Rate of ſix Pounds and ten Shillings, in addition to the Duties already impoſed thereon by any Act or Acts in force before the paſſing of the ſaid Act; and certain other Proviſions and Regulations were therein, and in the aforeſaid Act of the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, made in relation to Stills and Diſtillers within the Line or Boundary betwixt the Lowland or Southern and the Highland or Northern Diſtricts of Scotland, and commonly called or known by the Name of the Intermediate Diſtrict: And whereas it is now expedient and neceſſary to diſcontinue and aboliſh the Diſtinction thereby introduced and eſtabliſhed: be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, the Duties by the ſaid Acts impoſed or continued on Stills to be licenſed and ſet up or uſed within the aforeſaid Intermediate Diſtrict, and all the Regulations, Proviſions, Clauſes, Matters, and Things ſpecially regarding the ſaid Diſtrict, ſhall be, and they are hereby repealed, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred; and that, from and after the ſaid Day, all and every Perſon and Perſons who, within the ſaid Intermediate Diſtrict, ſhall brew or make Worts or Waſh for Diſtillation, or who ſhall diſtil Low Wines or Spirits, or who ſhall uſe or employ any Still or Stills for diſtilling Waſh, Low Wines, or Spirits, or for rectifying, compounding, or mixing Spirits within the ſaid Diſtrict, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the ſame Duties, Regulations, Proviſions, Conditions, Reſtrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as is or are impoſed or provided by this Act, or by any former Act or Acts of Parliament, in the Caſe of Diſtillers or Stills in the Lowlands of Scotland not by this Act repealed; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary in anyways notwithſtanding.

37 Geo 3. c. 102. recited.

From Nov. 10, 1800, the Duties on Stills impoſed by recited Act on Stills within the intermediate Diſtrict repealed, and the Stills therein ſubject to the ſame Duties as thoſe in the Lowlands.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That when the Licence Duty, at and after the yearly Rate of one hundred and eight Pounds ſhall be paid for or upon each Gallon of the cubical Content or Capacity of a Still in the Lowlands of Scotland, ſuch Duty ſhall be held to be the Licence Duty on the Spirits manufactured in ſuch Still for and during one Year, from and after the Day on which ſuch Licence ſhall commence and take Effect at the Rate of two thouſand and twenty-five Gallons, and no more, Engliſh Wine Meaſure, of Spirits of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof for each Gallon Content of ſuch Still; that when the Licence Duty, at and after the yearly Rate of ſix hundred and ſeventy Pounds, ſhall be paid for or upon each Gallon of the cubical Content or Capacity of a Still in any Part or Place of Scotland, ſuch Duty ſhall be held to be the Licence Duty on the Spirits manufactured in ſuch Still for and during one Year, from and after the Day on which ſuch Licence ſhall commence and take Effect, at the Rate of four thouſand and fifty Gallons, and no more, Engliſh Wine Meaſure, of Spirits of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, for each Gallon Content of ſuch Still; that when the Licence Duty, at and after the yearly Rate of ſeven hundred and ſixty Pounds, ſhall be paid for or upon each Gallon of the cubical Content or Capacity of a Still in any Part or Place in Scotland, ſuch Duty ſhall be held to be the Licence Duty on the Spirits manufactured in ſuch Still for and during one Year, from and after the Day on which ſuch Licence ſhall commence and take Effect, at the Rate of three thouſand ſix hundred and forty-five Gallons, and no more, Engliſh Wine Meaſure, of Spirits of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, for each Gallon Content of ſuch Still; and that when the Licence Duty, at and after the yearly Rate of ſix Pounds and ten Shillings, ſhall be paid for and upon each Gallon of the cubical Content or Capacity of a Still Licence Duty ſhall be held the Duty for certain Quantities of Spirits, viz. the Duty of 108l. for 2025 Gallons per An. per Gallon Content.

67ol. for 4050 Gallons per An.

76ol. for 3645 Gallons per An.

6l. 10s. for 52 Gallons per An.

a Still in the Highland Diſtrict, ſuch Duty ſhall be held to be the Licence Duty on the Spirits manufactured in ſuch Still, for and during one Year from and after the Day on which ſuch Licence ſhall commence and take Effect, at the Rate of fifty-two Gallons, and no more, Engliſh Wine Meaſure, of Spirits of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof for each Gallon Content of ſuch Still; and when any ſuch Licence Duties ſhall be reſpectively paid for any ſhorter Period of Time than one Year, (not being leſs than one Calendar Month,) the like Proportions ſhall be obſerved reſpectively, as to the Quantity of Spirits for which ſuch Licence Duty ſhall be held to have been paid, according to the full Content or Capacity of each and every ſuch Still; and that for and upon all Spirits which ſhall be manufactured from any ſuch licenſed Still reſpectively, during one Year as aforeſaid, over and above the reſpective Quantities aforeſaid, for each Gallon Content of each ſuch Still, and in and according to the ſame Proportions for and during any ſhorter Period, (not being leſs than one Month as aforeſaid,) there ſhall be paid on Demand, by every ſuch Diſtiller, the Sum of three Shillings for every Gallon of ſuch ſurplus Spirits of the Strength aforeſaid, which ſhall be diſtilled from Malt, Corn, or Britiſh Materials; of four Shillings and nine Pence, for every Gallon of ſuch ſurplus Spirits of the Strength aforeſaid, which ſhall be diſtilled from Melaſſes or Sugar; and of five Shillings and nine Pence, for every Gallon of ſuch ſurplus Spirits of the Strength aforeſaid, which ſhall be diſtilled from other Foreign Materials, over and above the ſaid reſpective Licence Duties, and all other Duties whatſoever.

Duties on every extra Gallon diſtilled: viz. 3s. if from Britiſh Corn, &c.; 4s. 9d. from Sugar; and 5s. 9d. from other Foreign Materials.

Officers of Exciſe ſhall monthly take an Account of Stock of Diſtillers for Conſumption in Scotland, and charge for the Exceſs.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Officers of Exciſe ſhall once in every Calendar Month at the leaſt, and oftener when it ſhall appear neceſſary, or when directed by any principal or general Officer of Exciſe, or by the Surveyor or Superviſor of the Diſtrict, take an Account of the Stock of Spirits in the Poſſeſſion of all Diſtillers for Conſumption in Scotland; and if on taking ſuch Account the Quantity of Spirits found in any ſuch Stock, added to the Quantity for which Permits ſhall have been granted, ſhall be found to exceed the Quantity of Spirits which ought only to have been made and diſtilled by ſuch Diſtiller from any licenſed Still according to its Size during the ſaid Period, and according to the Proportions herein-before reſpectively eſtabliſhed and allowed, ſuch Exceſs ſhall be immediately charged at and after the aforeſaid Rate of three Shillings, four Shillings and nine Pence, or five Shillings and nine Pence reſpectively, as the Caſe may require, for every Gallon of ſuch ſurplus Spirits of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof; and ſuch Duty ſhall be paid on Demand by the Diſtiller, over and above all other Duties, on Pain of forfeiting for every Refuſal or Neglect to make ſuch Payment, the Sum of ten Shillings for each and every Gallon of ſuch ſurplus Spirits.

If the Quantity of Spirits for which the Duty of 6d. per Gallon ſhall be charged, ſhall fall ſhort of what it ought to be, the Deficiency ſhall be charged with the Duty.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if the Quantity of Spirits computed at the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, which ſhall be produced to the proper Officer or Officers of Exciſe, by any Diſtiller or Diſtillers of Spirits, and actually charged with the Duty of Sixpence for every Gallon thereof, ſhall at the End of the Year for which any ſuch Licence as aforeſaid ſhall have been granted, or ſooner Termination of ſuch Licence, be found to fall ſhort of the Quantity of Spirits which ought to have been produced and charged with the ſaid Duty according to the Proportions herein-before mentioned, then and in every ſuch Caſe ſuch Deficiency ſhall be immediately charged at and after the Rate of Sixpence for every Gallon of Spirits ſo deficient as aforeſaid, to be paid by the Diſtiller for or in reſpect of ſuch deficient Quantity of Spirits, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of ten Shillings for each and every Gallon ſo deficient, in Default of making ſuch Payment as aforeſaid.

Licences may be given up to be vacated under certain Conditions.

XX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons licenſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe to erect, keep, and work any Still or Stills for the diſtilling, making, or manufacturing of Low Wines or Spirits from Malt, Corn, Grain, or Britiſh Materials in the Lowlands of Scotland, or from Melaſſes, Sugar, or other foreign Materials, or for the rectifying, compounding, or mixing of any Kind of Spirits in any Part or Place in Scotland, or for any Perſon or Perſons licenſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe, to erect, keep, and work Stills for diſtilling from Barley, Beer, or Big in the Highlands of Scotland, to deliver up his, her, or their Licence or Licences to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or to the proper Superviſor or Surveyor of the Diſtrict, or Officer of the Diviſion, to be vacated upon the Condition herein-after expreſſed, and at the Time herein-after particularly mentioned; that is to ſay, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons intending to deliver up his, her, or their Licence or Licences to be vacated, ſhall give to the ſaid Commiſſioners, Superviſor, Surveyor, or Officer, fifteen Days' previous Notice in Writing ſigned by ſuch Perſon or Perſons of ſuch Intention before he, ſhe, or they ſhall be entitled to diſcontinue the working of his, her, or their Still or Stills licenſed as aforeſaid; and thereupon the ſaid Commiſſioners, Superviſor, Surveyor, or Officer ſhall, and they are hereby reſpectively authorized to vacate the ſaid Licence or Licences, but not ſooner than at and from the End of any one Calendar Month for which Time the Licence Duty has been actually paid in Advance by ſuch Perſon or Perſons; and in that Caſe the Proportion of the Licence Duty payable for or in reſpect of ſuch Still or Stills for the unexpired Time of his, her, or their Licence or Licences, during which the working of the ſaid Still or Stills ſhall be diſcontinued, ſhall not be charged or chargeable upon, or payable or paid by, ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have given ſuch Notice as aforeſaid, and have ceaſed to work ſuch Still or Stills from and after the Time ſpecified in ſuch Notice; but the Stock of Spirits then remaining on Hand of ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers ſhall be taken by the proper Officer of Exciſe; and if on balancing the Account thereof as aforeſaid, any Exceſs ſhall be found above the Proportions herein-before mentioned, or any Deficiency therefrom ſhall be diſcovered, the ſame ſhall be immediately chargeable and charged with at and after the Rate reſpectively herein-before mentioned, on the Event of a ſurplus or Deficiency, as the Caſe may require, and the ſame ſhall be forthwith paid by ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers under the Penalty aforeſaid.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That after any licenſed Still has been gauged and meaſured, and its Capacity or Content aſcertained by the proper Officer of Exciſe, no Alteration or Addition ſhall be made thereon or thereto, either in the Body or in the Head, or any Part thereof, for and during one Calendar Month at the leaſt, nor even then or afterwards, but at the Beginning of each Month, nor without previous Notice in Writing, ſigned by the Diſtiller, being given to ſuch Officer at leaſt three Days before ſuch Alteration or Addition is attempted to be made, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

No Alteration ſhall be made in any licenſed Still without previous Notice, on Penalty of 500l.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the Officers of Exciſe, and each and every of them, ſhall be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, and have Right, by Night or by Day, to enter into, and continue in every Still Houſe or other Place made uſe of by any Diſtiller, or Maker, or Rectifier, or Compounder of Spirits for Home Conſumption in any Part of Scotland, for making, keeping, brewing, or diſtilling Worts, Waſh, Low Wines, or Spirits, or for rectifying or compounding Spirits, and alſo to examine every Still, and the Materials therein, if not at Work; and if at Work, to ſtay and continue in ſuch Still Houſe or Place, until ſuch Still ſhall be wrought off, and then to examine the ſame, and what Materials were wrought therein, and alſo to re-gauge or re-meaſure any Still or Stills, or the Head or Heads, or any Part thereof, ſo as to diſcover whether any Alteration or Addition has been made thereon or thereto, without ſuch Notice as aforeſaid; and in caſe any ſuch Diſtiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, ſhall refuſe to permit ſuch Officer of Exciſe to enter into or to continue in his or her Still Houſe or other Place aforeſaid, or to make ſuch Examination as aforeſaid, or to re-gauge or re-meaſure any Still or Stills for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, or ſhall obſtruct or hinder ſuch Officer in the due Execution of any Part of his Duty, in every ſuch Caſe ſuch Diſtiller, Rectifier, or Compounder ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and loſe the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Officers of Exciſe may enter into Still Houſes, &c. by Night or Day to examine.

Penalty of 200l. for Refuſal to permit them to enter, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, every Diſtiller of Spirits in the Lowlands of Scotland for Home Conſumption ſhall, five Days at the leaſt before he or ſhe ſhall begin to brew any Corn or Grain, or to prepare or mix any other Materials for the making of Worts or Waſh to be diſtilled into Low Wines or Spirits, make a true and particular Entry in Writing, at the next Office of Exciſe within the Limits whereof his or her Still Houſe is or ſhall be ſituated, of all Places, Coppers, Tuns, Backs, Coolers, Stills, Caſks, Veſſels, and other Utenſils, which he or ſhe ſhall make uſe of for the brewing, mixing, fermenting, working, diſtilling, holding, laying, or keeping any Malt, Corn, Grain, Cyder, Perry, Sugar, Melaſſes, or other Materials or Ingredients for brewing or making Worts, Waſh, Low Wines, or Spirits; and in ſuch Entry ſhall ſpecify the particular Uſe and Purpoſe to and for which each ſuch Place, Veſſel, or Utenſil is intended to be applied and appropriated; and if any ſuch Diſtiller ſhall neglect to make ſuch Entry, ſpecifying as aforeſaid, he or ſhe ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and loſe the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

From November 10, 1800, Diſtillers in the Lowlands ſhall ſhall make previous Entry of all Places and Utenſils uſed for diſtilling, on Penalty of 200l.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no ſuch Diſtiller who ſhall have made ſuch Entry as aforeſaid, ſhall be permitted to withdraw his or her Entry whilſt any Worts, Waſh, Low Wines, or other Materials preparing or fit for Diſtillation, are remaining in any of the Places, or in any of the Utenſils ſo by him or her reſpectively entered as aforeſaid; but in every ſuch Caſe the Officers of Exciſe under whoſe Survey ſuch Diſtiller ſhall then be, ſhall continue to ſurvey the Places and Utenſils mentioned in each ſuch Entry until all the Worts, Waſh, Low Wines, and other Materials ſhall be worked off, and the Duties charged on the ſaid Worts or Waſh, and on the Spirits the Produce thereof, or until the ſame ſhall be removed from and out of the ſaid entered Places, and then, and not till then, ſhall any ſuch Entry made as aforeſaid, be withdrawn.

No Diſtiller ſhall withdraw his Entry whilſt any Materials for Diſtillation are remaining in any entered Place or Utenſils, but the Exciſe Officer ſhall continue his Survey till the Materials are worked off or removed.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Diſtiller ſhall be, and he or ſhe is hereby required to ſhew to the Officer of Exciſe who ſurveys his or her Diſtillery, every Still, Copper, Tun, Waſh Back, Cooler, Caſk, or other Veſſel or Utenſil ſo entered as aforeſaid; and he the ſaid Officer is hereby required to mark the ſame with a particular, diſtinct, and durable Mark; and every Still, Copper, Tun, Waſh Back, Cooler, Caſk, or other Veſſel or Utenſil which ſhall at any Time or Times be uſed by any ſuch Diſtiller without being ſo ſhewn or marked, ſhall be deemed a Veſſel or Utenſil of which no Entry has been made; and if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall at any Time or Times after ſuch Still, Copper, Tun, Waſh Back, Cooler, Caſk, or other Veſſel or Utenſil, ſhall have been ſo marked by ſuch Officer as aforeſaid, rub out or deface any ſuch Mark ſo fixed upon any ſuch Still, Copper, Tun, Waſh Back, Cooler, Caſk, or other Veſſel or Utenſil, by ſuch Officer as aforeſaid, he, ſhe, or they ſo offending ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and loſe the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Diſtillers ſhall ſhew to the Exciſe Officer all Stills, &c. which he ſhall mark.

Stills, &c. not marked ſhall be deemed unentered.

Penalty of 50l. for defacing Marks.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Diſtiller of Spirits in the Lowlands of Scotland, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, ſhall, twelve Hours before he or ſhe ſhall begin to mix, maſh, or brew any Malt or Grain, Melaſſes or Sugar, or other Materials, to be fermented or made into Worts or Waſh, or to prepare Worts or Waſh for Diſtillation, give to the proper Officer of Exciſe under whoſe Survey he or ſhe ſhall then be, a Notice in Writing, ſpecifying therein the particular Time and Hour when he or ſhe intends ſo to begin to prepare, mix, or maſh, and the true Quantity or Weight of Malt, and of unmalted Grain, and of Melaſſes, Sugar, or Foreign Materials, intended to be prepared, mixed, or maſhed, as the Caſe may require; on Pain of forfeiting for every Neglect of giving ſuch Notice, and ſpecifying as aforeſaid, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

From Nov. 10, 1800, Diſtillers in the Lowlands ſhall give 12 Hours' previous Notice of their Intention to mix Materials, &c. on Penalty of 50l.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Waſh Back which, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, ſhall be uſed or kept by any Diſtiller of Spirits in the Lowlands of Scotland for Home Conſumption, ſhall have a Hole or Dipping Place in the Top, and alſo a Braſs Cock in the Middle thereof, and every ſuch Waſh Back ſhall be ſo placed and conſtructed as that the Officer of Exciſe

From Nov. 10, 1800, every Waſh Back for diſtilling in the Lowlands for Home Conſumption ſhall have a Hole in the Top and a Braſs Cock in the Middle, and be ſo placed that the Officer may conveniently may be conveniently enabled to take his Dip or Gauge at ſuch Hole or Dipping Place at the Top thereof, and to draw off a Sample of the Waſh therein; and if any ſuch Diſtiller ſhall keep or uſe, any Waſh Back, without ſuch Hole or Dipping Place at the Top, or ſuch Cock in the Middle thereof, or ſhall have, keep, or uſe, any Waſh Back ſo placed or conſtructed as that the Officer of Exciſe cannot conveniently be enabled to take his Dip or Gauge, or to take ſuch Sample as aforeſaid, he or ſhe ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and loſe the Sum of fifty Pounds.

No ſuch Diſtiller ſhall keep any privatePipe, &c. by which Liquors fit for Diſtillation may be conveyed from one Veſſel to another on Penalty of 200l.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no ſuch Diſtiller ſhall have or keep any private Pipe, Stop Cock, or other private Conveyance by which any Worts, Waſh, or other Liquors fit for Diſtillation may be conveyed from one Back or other Veſſel to another, or from any ſuch Back or other Veſſel to his or her Still or Stills, or into any other Place; nor ſhall have or keep any Hole other than as aforeſaid, in any ſuch Back or Waſh Back, by which any Worts, Waſh, or any other Liquor fit for Diſtillation may be conveyed into or out of ſuch Back or Waſh Back, or any of them; on Pain to forfeit for every ſuch Pipe, Stop Cock, Conveyance, and Hole, the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Officers of Exciſe in the Day Time and Preſence of a Peace Officer may break up Ground to ſearch for any private Pipe, &c.

XXIX. 'And for the better Diſcovery of all private Pipes, Stop Cocks, and other private Conveyances 'or Utenſils;' be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of Exciſe or any of them, in the Day Time, and in the Preſence of a Conſtable or other lawful Officer of the Peace, (who is hereby required to be aiding and aſſiſting therein,) on Requeſt firſt made, and Cauſe declared, to break up the Ground in any diſtilling Houſe, or the Ground near adjoining, or any Wall, Partition, or other Place, to ſearch for any ſuch Pipe, Stop Cock, or any other private Conveyance or Utenſil; and upon finding ſuch Pipe or other Conveyance, to break up the Ground, Houſe, Wall, or other Partition or Place through or into which any ſuch Pipe or other Conveyance ſhall lead; and to break up or cut any ſuch Pipe or other Conveyance, and to turn any Cock or Cocks, to try and examine whether ſuch Pipe or other Conveyance may or can convey any Worts, Waſh, or other Liquors fit for Diſtillation out of one Back or Veſſel into another, or from any ſuch Back or Veſſel into any Still or Stills, or into any other Place.

No ſuch Diſtiller ſhall keep any Trunk, &c. for receiving Materials for Diſtillation, on Forfeiture of the ſame and 200l.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no ſuch Diſtiller ſhall erect, ſet up, have, or keep any Trunk, or any other cloſe Veſſel or Utenſil, for receiving, keeping, or making Worts, Waſh, or other Materials preparing or fit for Diſtillation, on Pain to forfeit for every ſuch Trunk, or other cloſe Veſſel or Utenſil, ſo erected, ſet up, had, or kept, the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

No Wort for diſtilling for Home Conſumption in the Lowlands ſhall be put into the Still or removed from where fermented till the Duty be charged, on Penalty of 100l.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, no Worts, Waſh, or Tilts, or other Liquor or Preparation for the Diſtillation of Spirits for Home Conſumption in the Lowlands of Scotland, ſhall be put into the Still, or otherwiſe removed from the Back or Veſſel wherein the ſame was or were fermented, until the ſame ſhall have been gauged, and the Duty charged thereon by the proper Officer of Exciſe; and if any Diſtiller ſhall, contrary to the Directions of this Act, put into any Still, or otherwiſe remove or cauſe to be removed, any ſuch Worts, Waſh, Tilts, or other Liquor or Preparation, from the Back or Veſſel wherein the ſame was or were fermenting or fermented, before the ſame ſhall have been gauged, and the Duty charged thereon, ſuch Diſtiller ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and loſe the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Worts fraudulently removed or concealed, ſhall be forfeited, and the Party forfeit 100l.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid tenth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred, no Worts, Waſh, Tilts, or Low Wines, in the Poſſeſſion of any Diſtiller of Spirits in any Part or Place in Scotland, ſhall be removed or taken away from his or her entered and licenſed Diſtillery, nor ſhall any Worts, Waſh, or Tilts be depoſited, hid, or concealed in any Place whatſoever, with Intent to defraud the Duty; and when and ſo often as any Worts, Waſh, Tilts, or Low Wines ſhall be removed or taken away, or any Worts, Waſh, or Tilts ſhall be depoſited, hid, or concealed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſuch Worts, Waſh, Tilts, and Low Wines reſpectively ſhall be forfeited and loſt, and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer of Exciſe; and over and beſide ſuch Forfeiture, ſuch Diſtiller ſo removing or taking away any Worts, Waſh, Tilts, or Low Wines, or ſo depoſiting, hiding, or concealing any Worts, Waſh, or Low Wines, or cauſing the ſame ſo to be removed, taken away, or depoſited, hid, or concealed, and the Perſon or Perſons employed ſo to remove or take away, or ſo to depoſit, hide, or conceal the ſame, or who ſhall receive the ſame, ſhall ſeverally forfeit and loſe the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Officers may take Samples of Wort on paying for the ſame;

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the Officers of Exciſe ſhall, and they are hereby empowered, as often as to them or any of them ſhall ſeem expedient, to take a Sample or Samples, of all Worts, Waſh, or other Liquors in the Poſſeſſion of any Diſtiller or Diſtillers, either in the Coolers, Waſh Backs, or other Veſſels or Utenſils whatſoever, or before the ſame ſhall be conveyed into the Waſh Still or Stills, not exceeding at any one Time one Gallon of ſuch Worts, Waſh, or other Liquors from each ſuch Cooler, Waſh Back, or other Veſſel or Utenſil, on paying for the ſame, if demanded, after the Rate of two Shillings by the Gallon of ſuch Worts, Waſh, or other Liquors.

and of Spirits in Stock.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Exciſe to take a Sample or Samples of Low Wines or Spirits in the Stock or Poſſeſſion of any Diſtiller or Diſtillers, not exceeding Half a Pint out of each Caſk or Veſſel, paying for ſuch Sample, if demanded, at and after the Rate of ſix Shillings by the Gallon.

XXXV. And

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller in the Lowland of Scotland shall, for every one hundred Gallons of Wash prepared from Malt, Corn, Grain, or any Sort of British Materials, or any Mixture therewith, for extracting Spirits for Consumption in Scotland, found in his or her Custody, produce to the proper Officer of Excise, at least eleven Gallons English Wine Measure, of Spirits of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof; that every Distiller in any Part or Place in Scotland shall, for every one hundred Gallons of Wash prepared from Melasses or Sugar, or any Mixture therewith, for extracting Spirits for Consumption in Scotland, found in his or her Custody, produce to the said Officer at least twenty-two Gallons English Wine Measure, of such Spirits of the Strength aforesaid; that every Distiller in any Part or Place in Scotland shall, for every one hundred Gallons of Wash prepared from any other Foreign Materials, or any Mixture therewith, for extracting Spirits for Consumption in Scotland, found in his or her Custody, produce to the said Officer at least twenty Gallons, English Wine Measure, of Spirits of the Strength aforesaid; and that every Distiller in the Highland District of Scotland shall, for every one hundred Gallons of Wash prepared from Barley, Bear, or Bigg of the Growth of the said Highlands, or any Mixture therewith, found in his or her Custody, produce to the said Officer at least six Gallons English Wine Measure of Spirits of the Strength aforesaid; and that in every Case where the Spirits extracted by any such Distiller respectively, and produced to the proper Officer of Excise, and actually charged with the Duty by this Act imposed of Sixpence for every Gallon, shall fall short of the respective Proportions herein-before mentioned, every such Distiller shall, and he or she is hereby made chargeable with and shall pay at and after the Rate of one Shilling and Sixpence for every Gallon of Spirits * in which the Deficiency shall be discovered shall have been made or distilled from Malt, Corn, or British Materials; or three Shillings and nine Pence, if the Spirits in which the Deficiency shall be discovered shall have been made or distilled from Melasses or Sugar; and of four Shillings and eight Pence, if the Spirits in which the Deficiency shall be discovered, shall have been made or distilled from other foreign Materials; and if Default shall be made in such Payment, the Distiller making such Default shall forfeit ten Shillings for every Gallon of such Spirits so deficient.

Distillers shall produce to the Officer certain Quantities of Spirits for certain Quantities of Wash, or be chargeable for the Deficiency at certain Rates.

* [if the Spirits]

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said tenth Day of November one thousand eight hundred, all and every Person whatsoever, who shall make or distil Low Wines or Spirits in the Lowlands of Scotland for Home Consumption, shall be, and he or she is hereby required to make monthly and every Month, upon Oath before the proper Supervisor or Surveyor of the District in which his or her Distillery is carried on, (and which Oath such Supervisor or Surveyor is hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time to administer,) a true and particular Entry or Return in Writing, of the Quantity of Worts, Wash, or other Materials which he or she shall have distilled or made into Spirits, and of the Quantity of Spirits which he or she shall have made or distilled, within such Month respectively; and also of the true and exact Number of Times which he or she shall have actually charged and worked his or her Still or Stills in each Day of twenty-four Hours, within such Month respectively, on Pain to forfeit for every Neglect or Refusal to make monthly and every Month such true Entry or Return upon Oath, specifying the several Particulars aforesaid, the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Distillers in the Lowlands for Home Consumption shall make monthly upon Oath a Return of the Quantity of Worts they shall have distilled, &c. on Penalty of 200l.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Officers of Excise shall monthly and every Month make a Return to the Commissioners of Excise or such Person as they shall appoint, of all the Worts or Wash, and of all the distilled Spirits taken account of by them, and charged with Duty; which Return shall be a Charge upon the Brewer, Maker, or Distiller thereof respectively.

Officers shall make a monthly Return to the Commissioners of the Worts and Spirits taken an Account of, which shall be a Charge upon the Distiller.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Brewer, Maker, or Distiller, who shall not pay and clear off the Duty by this Act imposed upon such Worts or Wash, and upon distilled Spirits, or either of them respectively, within one Week after he or she shall have made or ought to have made his or her Entry thereof as aforesaid, he or she shall forfeit and lose double the Amount of the said Duty not so paid.

If Duty be not paid within a Week after Time for Entry, double the Amount shall be paid.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That so much and such Parts of two Acts of Parliament, made in the thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, and which were to continue in force until the tenth Day of November one thousand eight hundred, as are not herein-before expressly altered, repealed, or changed, or are not repugnant thereto, shall be, and they are hereby, from and after the said tenth Day of November one thousand eight hundred, continued in full Force and Effect.

So much of 38 Geo. 3. c. 92. and 39 Geo. 3. 78. as is not hereby altered, shall be continued in force from Nov. 10, 1800.

XL. 'And whereas it is expedient to allow for a limited Time the Distillation of Spirits from Melasses or Sugar at a reduced Rate of Duty,' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the said tenth Day of November one thousand eight hundred, until the first Day of July one thousand eight hundred and one, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon each and every Gallon English Wine Measure, (and so in proportion for any less Quantity or Measure,) of the cubical Content or Capacity of each and every Still, (including the Head and every Part thereof, and of any Horn, Pipe, Tube, or other Apparatus therewith connected, under whatever Name or Denomination the same may be called or known, as high as the Steam can ascend, and until the Top of the Head shall turn downwards and form an Angle of forty-five Degrees,) which shall be used or employed for making or distilling of Low Wines or Spirits for Consumption in Scotland from Melasses or Sugar, or any Mixture therewith, in any Part or Place in Scotland, a Sum at and after the yearly Rate of three hundred and sixteen Pounds; any Thing in this Act or in any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anyways notwithstanding.

From Nov. 10, 1800, to July 1, 1801, a Duty at the reduced Rate of 316l. per Ann. shall be paid for each Gallon of the Content of Stills used in Scotland, for distilling Spirits for Home Consumption from Melasses or Sugar.

XLI. And

Such Duty shall be held to be the Duty for 4050 Gallons of Spirits, per Ann. per Gallon Content, and 1s. per Gallon to be paid for the Excess.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said tenth Day of November one thousand eight hundred, until the said first Day of July one thousand eight hundred and one, when the before mentioned Licence Duty, at and after the yearly Rate of three hundred and sixteen Pounds shall be paid for or upon each Gallon of the Content or Capacity of a Still in any Part or Place in Scotland such Duty shall be held to be the Licence Duty on the Spirits manufactured in such Still for and during one Year, from and after the Day on which such Licence shall commence and take Effect at the Rate of four thousand and fifty Gallons and no more, English Wine Measure, of Spirits of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof for each Gallon Content of such Still; and for every Gallon of Spirits at the Strength aforesaid, which during the said Period shall be found to exceed the above mentioned Proportion, there shall be charged and paid on Demand by the Distiller who shall make or produce the same, the Sum of three Shillings over and above all other Duties, on Pain of forfeiting for every Neglect or Refusal to make such Payment the Sum of ten Shillings for each and every Gallon of such surplus Spirits.

On Spirits delivered after Nov. 1, 1800, on Contracts made before the Duties under this Act become chargeable, their Amount may be added to the Price.

XLII. 'And whereas Contracts may have been made for the Sale of British Spirits before the same shall 'have been charged, or become chargeable with the Duties by this Act imposed;' be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where any Spirits whereon the Duties by this Act imposed shall be charged, shall be after the first Day of November one thousand eight hundred, delivered in pursuance of such Contracts or Sales, it shall be lawful for the Distillers, Rectifiers, or Compounders of such Spirits, delivering the same, to charge so much Money as shall be equivalent to the Duties by this Act imposed in respect thereof, in addition to the Price of such Spirits, and such Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to demand and be paid the same accordingly.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture is or may be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him, her, or them who shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

12 Car. 2. c. 24. shall extend to this Act.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers, Directions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in force relating to his Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, are provided and established for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining the Duties thereby granted, or any of them, shall be practised and put in Execution in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying the Duties hereby granted as fully and effectually as if all and every the said Powers, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

Act shall not alter c. 22. of this Session.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to repeal or alter an Act, or any Part thereof, made in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to continue, until the first Day of February one thousand eight hundred and one, an Act made in the present Session of Parliament, to prohibit the making of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat, or other Sort of Grain, or from Meal, Flour, or Bran, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

CAP. LXXIV.

An Act for amending several Acts for regulating the Price and Assize of Bread.

[9th July 1800.]

31 Geo. 2. c. 29. and subsequent Acts for regulating the Price and Assize of Bread, recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty, and by several 'subsequent Acts, for regulating the Price and Assize of Bread, it is enacted, That the Assize and 'Weight of the several Sorts of Bread shall be set according to the Tables in the said Acts contained: And 'whereas fourteen Shillings and Sixpence is the highest Sum mentioned in the said Tables as the Price of a 'Bushel of Wheat, together with the Baker's Allowance for baking the same; and Doubts may arise whether 'the Courts, or Person or Persons now authorized by the said Acts to set and ascertain, within their several 'Jurisdictions, the Assize and Weight of all Sorts of Bread made for Sale or exposed to Sale, may continue to 'do the same when the Price of the Bushel of Wheat, together with the Baker's Allowance for baking, shall 'exceed the said Sum of fourteen Shillings and Sixpence:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for all Courts, and Person or Persons duly authorized, to continue to set and ascertain, within their several Jurisdictions, the Assize and Weight of all Sorts of Bread made for Sale or exposed to Sale, whatever the Price of the Bushel of Wheat may be: Provided always, That in setting and ascertaining the same, such Courts, or Person or Persons respectively, duly observe the Proportions of the several Tables contained in the said Acts, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the Schedule to this Act annexed.

The Assize and Weight of Bread may be set, whatever the Price of Wheat may be, the Proportions of the Tables in the recited Acts being observed according to the Intent of the annexed Schedule.

II. 'And

II. 'And whereas by an Act made in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, relative to the Aſſize and Making of Bread to be ſold in the City of London and the Liberties thereof, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, fourteen Shillings and nine Pence Halfpenny is the higheſt Price mentioned in the Table contained in the ſaid Act as the Price of a Buſhel of Wheat, and one hundred and ten Shillings as the higheſt Price of the Sack of Flour, together with the Baker's Allowance for baking the ſame reſpectively:' Be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, on every Tueſday if the ſaid Court ſhall then ſit, and if ſuch Court ſhall not then ſit, for the Lord Mayor of the ſaid City for the Time being, to continue to ſet and aſcertain the Aſſize and Weight of all Sorts of Bread made for Sale, or expoſed to Sale, within the Limits of their Juriſdiction under the ſaid Act, whatever the Price of the Buſhel of Wheat or Sack of Flour may be: Provided always, That in ſetting and aſcertaining the ſame, ſuch Court or Lord Mayor duly obſerve the Proportions contained in the Tables in the ſaid Act as near as can be.

37 Geo 3. c. 98. recited.

The Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London may ſet the Aſſize and Weight of Bread, whatever the Price of Wheat or Flour may be.

III. And be it further enacted, That all and ſingular the Penalties and Forfeitures enacted and preſcribed by the ſaid ſeveral Acts, againſt ſuch Perſons as ſhall ſell any Bread deficient in Weight, or at higher Prices than according to the Aſſize that ſhall be ſet thereon, ſhall be in full Force and Effect againſt all Perſons who ſhall act contrary to the Proviſions of this Act, or of the Schedule hereunto annexed.

The Penalties for ſelling Bread deficient in Weight, or higher than the Aſſize Price, to extend to Perſons acting contrary to this Act.

IV. 'And whereas it is expedient that all Magiſtrates, Juſtices of the Peace, Wardmote Inqueſts of the City of London, the Maſter and Wardens of the Bakers Company, or the major Part of them, and other Perſons authorized by any Act or Acts now in force relating to Bread, to ſearch for, try, and weigh any Bread, ſhould be authorized to ſearch for, try, and weigh any Bread made for Sale, at any Time after the ſame ſhall have been baked, and whether the ſame ſhall have been expoſed to Sale or not: And whereas it is expedient that the Period of twenty-four Hours now by Law eſtabliſhed, within which any Magiſtrate, Juſtice, Wardmote Inqueſt of the City of London, the Maſter and Wardens of the Bakers Company, and other Perſons authorized as aforeſaid, may weigh any Bread within the ſaid City of London, or any other City, Town Corporate, Borough, Liberty, or Franchiſe, or the Juriſdiction thereof, for the Purpoſe of aſcertaining whether the ſame is wanting in the due Weight, ſhould be extended to forty-eight Hours;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall be lawful for any Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or for any Wardmote Inqueſt of the City of London, or the Maſter or Wardens of the Bakers Company, or the major Part of them, or other Perſon authorized as aforeſaid, within their reſpective Juriſdictions, to weigh any Bread made for Sale, (although the ſame ſhall not have been expoſed to Sale,) for the Purpoſe of aſcertaining whether the ſame is wanting in the due Weight thereof, at any Time after the ſame ſhall have been baked, and within forty-eight Hours after the Baking thereof, any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding; and all Powers, Authorities, and Proviſions relating to the entering into any Houſe, Shop, Stall, Bakehouſe, Warehouſe, Outhouſe, or other Place of or belonging to any Baker or Maker of Bread, or Seller of Bread, or to the trying or weighing any Loaves of Bread, and all Penalties or Forfeitures now in force, relating to Deficiency of Weight in Bread, ſhall be and are hereby declared to be in full Force in relation to this Act, as far as the ſame are reſpectively applicable in the ſeveral and reſpective Juriſdictions mentioned, in any Act or Acts relating to the Aſſize of Bread; in like Manner in every Reſpect as if ſuch Powers, Authorities, Proviſions, Penalties, and Forfeitures had been ſeverally and ſeparately re-enacted in this Act: Provided always, That every Magiſtrate, Juſtice of the Peace, Wardmote Inqueſt of the ſaid City of London, the Maſter and Wardens of the Bakers Company, and Perſons authorized as aforeſaid, ſhall, in weighing any ſuch Bread for the Purpoſe of aſcertaining whether the ſame is wanting in the due Weight thereof, have Regard to the Time when ſuch Bread was baked, and the Period that has elapſed between the baking and weighing thereof, and ſhall, on due Proof made by the Baker or Maker of Bread to whom any ſuch Bread ſhall belong, of the Time of baking thereof, make ſuch Allowance for Loſs in Weight, not exceeding the Proportion of Allowances in the ſaid laſt recited Act * mentioned, as ſhall be juſt and reaſonable, ſo as to beſt aſcertain that ſuch Bread was originally made and baked of the due Weight required by Law.

Magiſtrates, &c. may weigh Bread made for Sale at any Time within 48 Hours after it has been baked, for aſcertaining whether it be deficient in Weight, &c.

[* See 39 and 40 Geo. 3. c. 18. § 2.]

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers:

The Courts, Perſon or Perſons, authorized to ſet the Aſſize of Bread, are to obſerve, that the reſpective Weights of the ſeveral aſſized Loaves will decreaſe in the ſame Proportion as the Price of the Buſhel of Wheat, together with the Allowance for baking the ſame, increaſes; and that ſuch Weights may be deduced from the preſent Tables, as in the following Examples:

Example I. Required the Weight of the Twelve-penny Wheaten Loaf, when the Price of the Buſhel of Wheat and Baking is ſixteen Shillings:

The Price in the Table of Stat. 31 Geo. II. C. 29. oppoſite to 8*s.* is - - -	5	11	8
But the Price of the Buſhel and Baking being now twice as much, the Weight of the Loaf can be only Half what it then was, and therefore will be - - -	2	13	12

Example

Example II. Required the Weight of the Twelve-penny Wheaten Loaf, when the Price of a Buſhel of Wheat and Baking is ſixteen Shillings and three Pence.

When the given Sum has an odd Three-pence, its preciſe Half cannot be found in the Tables; in which Caſe proceed thus—Find as in the preceding Example:

	lb.	oz.	drms.
The Weight, when the Price of the Buſhel and Baking is ſixteen Shillings -	2	13	12
And alſo the Weight, when the Price of the Buſhel and Baking is ſixteen Shillings and Sixpence - - - - - -	2	11	14
	5	9	10
One Half the Weight, at 16*s.* 3*d.* is -	2	12	13

For the Prices of the Peck Loaf and its Subdiviſions, obſerve that the Price increaſes in the ſame Proportion as the Price of the Buſhel of Wheat, together with the Allowance for Baking.

Example III. Required the Price of the Peck Loaf, Wheaten Bread, when the Price of the Buſhel and Baking is ſixteen Shillings:

The Price of ſuch Loaf by the Table, when the Buſhel and Baking is eight Shillings -	0	3	0½
Therefore at ſixteen Shillings it muſt be double, or - - - -	0	6	1

Example IV. Required the Price of the Peck Loaf, when the Buſhel and Baking is ſixteen Shillings and three Pence:

	£.	s.	d.
The Price of the Peck Loaf, when the Buſhel and Baking is ſixteen Shillings -	0	6	1
Do. - - - - Do. - - - is 16*s.* 6*d.* - -	0	6	4
	0	12	5
One Half, or Price, at 16*s.* 3*d.* -	0	6	2½

CAP. LXXVII.

An Act for the Security of Collieries and Mines, and for the better Regulation of Colliers and Miners. [9th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS from the Situation of the Veins and Mines of Coal and Iron Stone in many Parts of this Kingdom, the ſame are greatly expoſed to the Depredations of wicked and evil-diſpoſed Perſons, and the Laws now in being are inadequate to the Protection thereof:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, at any Time after the firſt Day of September one thouſand eight hundred, wilfully and maliciouſly pull down, fill up, or begin or attempt to pull down or fill up any Airway, Waterway, Drain, Pit, Level, or Shaft, or damage or deſtroy any Rail Way, Tram Road, or other Road leading to or from, or intended to lead to or from any Coal or other Mine Work, or if any Perſon or Perſons (not having or bonâ fide claiming a Right to poſſeſs or work the ſame reſpectively) ſhall, from and after the Time above mentioned, wilfully and unlawfully cut, dig, raiſe, take, or carry away any Coal, Culm, or other Mineral, from any Bed, Band, Vein, or Mine, lying and being in any Waſte, Open, or Unincloſed Lands, or ſhall wilfully and unlawfully enter into any Level, Pit, or Shaft, with an Intent to dig, cut, raiſe, take, or carry away therefrom any Coal, Culm, or other Mineral, or ſhall aid, abet, aſſiſt, hire, or command any Perſon or Perſons to commit any ſuch Offence or Offences as aforeſaid, that then and in every ſuch Caſe all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be deemed and adjudged to be

After Sept. 1, 1800, if any Perſon ſhall pull down or fill up any Airway, &c. or damage any Road leading to or from any Mine, or, not having a Right, ſhall dig any Mineral lying in any Waſte, &c.

be guilty of a Misdemeanour; and the Court or Judge before whom any such Person or Persons shall be tried and convicted, shall have Power and Authority to cause such Person or Persons to be imprisoned for any Term not exceeding six Months.

he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanour, and may be imprisoned six Months.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Trespass or Damage which shall be done or committed underground, by any Owner or Owners of any adjoining Coal or other Mine, in working the same, or by any Person or Persons duly authorized, and employed in such Working as aforesaid.

Act not to extend to any Damage done under Ground by Owners of adjoining Mines in working the same.

III. 'And whereas it often happens that Colliers and Miners, disregarding their Agreements, wilfully and 'obstinately work Coal and Iron Stone in a different Manner to what they stipulated, or otherwise aban-'don the Agreement they have entered into, to the great and lasting Prejudice of their Employers;' be it therefore further enacted, That if any Person or Persons making any Bargain, or entering into any Contract or Agreement in Writing, for raising or getting any Coal, Culm, Iron Stone, or Iron Ore, shall wilfully, and to the Prejudice of the Owner, raise, get, or work, or cause to be raised, got, or worked, any such Coal, Culm, Iron Stone, or Iron Ore, in a different Manner to his or their Stipulations in respect thereto, and contrary to the Directions, and against the Will of the Owner, or his Agent or Agents having the Care thereof, or shall desist or refuse to fulfil the Engagements they have entered into, every Person or Persons so offending, and being thereof convicted, either by the Confession of the Party offending, or upon the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County wherein such Offence shall have been committed, shall, for every such Offence, on Complaint of the Owner or Owners, or his or their Agent or Agents, and not otherwise, forfeit and pay such Sum of Money, not exceeding Forty Shillings, as to such Justice or Justices shall seem meet, together with the Charges previous to and attending such Conviction, to be ascertained by such Justice or Justices who shall convict the Offender or Offenders; and upon Nonpayment thereof, such Justice or Justices shall commit the Offender or Offenders to the common Gaol of the County or Place where the Offence shall be committed, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding six Months, or until the Penalty and Charges shal be paid; and upon such Conviction, every such Bargain, Contract, or Agreement shall become void.

If any Collier or Miner shall work any Coal, &c. different to his Agreement, or contrary to the Directions of the Owner, or shall refuse to fulfil his Engagements, he shall on Conviction before one Justice forfeit not exceeding 40 s. and for Nonpayment may be imprisoned.

IV. 'And whereas the Owners and Lessees of Coal, Iron Stone, or Iron Ore, contracting to get the 'same raised by Weight, are often under the Necessity of advancing Money to the Colliers and Miners upon 'the Measure thereof in Heaps, at or near the Colliery or Mine Work, before the same can be carried to 'be weighed, and great Frauds are practised in the walling and stacking of such Coal, Iron Stone, and Iron 'Ore, by which the Colliers and Miners obtain Money beyond what they earn, or are able to repay, and 'Miners often defraud each other by conveying away Iron Stone from one Heap into another;' be it therefore enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wall or stack, or cause to be walled or stacked, any Coal, Iron Stone, or Iron Ore, in any false or fraudulent Manner, with an Intent to deceive his or their Employer or Employers, or if any Person or Persons shall take and remove any Iron Stone or Iron Ore with Intent to defraud the Person or Persons who shall have raised the same, and shall be thereof convicted, either by the Confession of the Party offending, or upon the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County wherein such Offence shall have been committed, it shall and may be lawful for such Justice or Justices to commit any such Person to the House of Correction or Common Gaol for the same County, for any Time not exceeding three Months.

If any Collier or Miner, &c. shall stack any Coal, &c. in a fraudulent Manner, to defraud his Employer, or shall remove any Iron Stone to defraud his fellow Workmen, &c. he may be imprisoned, not exceeding three Months.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall steal or take away any Coal, Culm, or Coak, Wood, Iron, Ropes, or Leather, not exceeding the Value of five Shillings, from any Bank, Yard, Wharf, or other Place, belonging to any Manufacturer or Coal Dealer, or off or out of any Boat, Barge, Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, or shall wilfully break, destroy, or damage any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, used for carrying Coal, Culm, Coak, Iron, or Iron Stone, or shall steal, break, destroy, damage, or embezzle any Tools or Implements used for cutting or getting Coal, Culm, or other Minerals, not exceeding the Value above mentioned, and shall, on Complaint of the Owner or his Agent, be thereof convicted, either by the Confession of the Party offending, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County where the Offence shall be committed, every Person so offending, and being thereof convicted as aforesaid, shall, for the first Offence, forfeit and pay such Sum of Money, not exceeding ten Shillings, as to such Justice or Justices shall seem meet, over and above the Charges previous to and attending such Conviction, to be ascertained by such Justice or Justices who shall convict the Offender, and upon Nonpayment thereof such Justice or Justices shall commit the Offender to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for one Month, or until the Penalty and Charges shall be paid; and if any Person so convicted shall be guilty of the like Offence a second Time, and shall be thereof convicted in like Manner, such Person shall forfeit and pay such Sum of Money, not exceeding twenty Shillings, as to such Justice or Justices shall seem meet, over and above the Charges previous to and attending such Conviction, to be ascertained by such Justice or Justices who shall convict the Offender, and upon Nonpayment thereof, such Justice or Justices shall commit the Offender to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for three Months, or until the Penalty and Charges shall be paid; and if any Person so convicted shall be guilty of the like Offence a third Time, or oftener, and shall be thereof convicted in like Manner, such Person shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, such Sum of Money, not exceeding forty Shillings, as to such Justice

If any Person shall steal any Coal, or Materials, &c. not more than 5 s. CAP. LXXIX.

An Act for eſtabliſhing further Regulations for the Government of the Britiſh Territories in India, and the better Adminiſtration of Juſtice within the ſame.

'WHEREAS the Territorial Poſſeſſions of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, in the Peninſula of India, have become ſo much extended as to require further Regulations to be made for the due Government of the ſame: And whereas by an Act of Parliament, made and paſſed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for continuing in the Eaſt India Company, for a further Term, the Poſſeſſion of the Britiſh Territories in India, together with their excluſive Trade, under certain Limitations; for eſtabliſhing further Regulations for the Government of the ſaid Territories, and the better Adminiſtration of Juſtice within the ſame; for appropriating to certain Uſes the Revenues and Profits of the ſaid Company; and for making Proviſion for the good Order and Government of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; it is enacted, That the whole Civil and Military Government of the Preſidency of Fort Saint George, on the Coaſt of Coromandel, and the Ordering, Management, and Government of all the Territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues on the ſaid Coaſt, and alſo ſo much and ſuch Parts of the Territories and Poſſeſſions on the Coaſt of Oriſſa, with the Revenues of the ſame, as had been and then were under the Adminiſtration of the Government of the Preſidency of Fort Saint George, ſhould be and were thereby veſted in a Governor and three Counſellors of and for the ſaid Preſidency of Fort Saint George, ſubject to ſuch Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions, as were therein mentioned; and that the Whole Civil and Military Government of the Preſidency and Iſland of Bombay, on the Coaſt of Malabar, and the Ordering, Management, and Government, of all the Territorial Acquiſitions and Revenues on the ſaid Coaſt of Malabar, ſhould be and were thereby veſted in a Governor and three Counſellors of and for the ſaid Preſidency and Iſland of Bombay, ſubject to the Proviſion therein mentioned:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Court of Directors of the ſaid Company for the Time being, to declare and appoint what Part or Parts of the ſaid Territorial Acquiſitions, or of any other now ſubject to the Government of the ſaid Preſidency of Fort Saint George, or the ſaid Preſidency of Bombay, together with the Revenues ariſing therefrom, and the Eſtabliſhment of Civil Servants connected therewith reſpectively, ſhall from thenceforth hereafter be ſubject to the Government of either and which of the ſaid Preſidencies, or of the Preſidency of Fort William in Bengal, and from Time to Time, as Occaſion may require, to revoke or alter in the Whole or in Part ſuch Appointment, and to make ſuch new Diſtribution of the ſame as to them ſhall ſeem fit and expedient, ſubject nevertheleſs, in all Caſes, to the Superintendance, Direction, and Controul of the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of India, in like Manner as any Acts or Orders of the ſaid Court of Directors are now by Law ſubject; and all ſuch Territorial Acquiſitions, and the Revenues ariſing therefrom, and the Eſtabliſhment of Civil Servants connected therewith, ſhall, from and after the Time, and ſubject as to ſuch Time to the Conditions and Limitations, to be by the ſaid Court of Directors limited and appointed for ſuch Purpoſes reſpectively, be to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever annexed to and made ſubject to ſuch Preſidency and to the Court or Courts of Judicature eſtabliſhed or to be eſtabliſhed therein reſpectively.

33 Geo. 3. c. 52. [§ 24.] recited.

The Court of Directors may appoint what Parts of the Territorial Acquiſitions, Revenues, &c. ſhall be ſubject to either, and which of their Preſidencies, ſubject to the Controul of the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of India.

II. 'And whereas his late Majeſty King George the Second did, by his Letters Patent, bearing Date at Weſtminſter the eighth Day of January in the twenty-firſt Year of his Reign, grant unto the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, his Royal Charter, thereby amongſt other Things conſtituting and eſtabliſhing Courts of Civil, Criminal, and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction at the United Company's reſpective Settlements at Madras-Patnam, Bombay, or the Iſland of Bombay, and Fort William in Bengal: And whereas the ſaid Charter, in ſo far as it reſpects the Adminiſtration of Juſtice at Madras, has been altered and changed, by virtue of an Act paſſed in the thirty-ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the better Adminiſtration of Juſtice at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; and for preventing Britiſh Subjects from being concerned in Loans to the Native Princes in India: And whereas the ſaid Charter, ſo far as it reſpects the Adminiſtration of Juſtice at Fort William in Bengal, has alſo been altered and changed, by virtue of an Act paſſed in the thirteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for eſtabliſhing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the Eaſt India Company, as well in India as in Europe, and by divers ſubſequent Statutes: And whereas it may be expedient, for the better Adminiſtration of Juſtice in the ſaid Settlement of Madras, that a Supreme Court of Judicature ſhould be eſtabliſhed at Madras, in the ſame Form, and with the ſame Powers and Authorities, as that now ſubſiſting, by virtue of the ſeveral Acts before-mentioned, at Fort William in Bengal:' Be it therefore enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by Charter or Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to erect and eſtabliſh a Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras aforeſaid, to conſiſt of ſuch and the like Number of Perſons, to be named from Time to Time by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with full Power to exerciſe ſuch Civil, Criminal, Admiralty, and Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdictions, both as to Natives and Britiſh Subjects, and to be inveſted with ſuch Powers and Authorities, Privileges and Immunities, for the better Adminiſtration of the ſame, and ſubject to the ſame Limitations, Reſtrictions, and Controul within the ſaid

37 Geo. 3. c. 142. recited.

13 Geo. 3. c. 63.

His Majeſty may eſtabliſh a Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, to conſiſt of the like Number of Perſons, &c. as the Supreme ſaid Fort Saint George and Town of Madras, and the Limits thereof, and the Factories Subordinate thereto, and within the Territories which now are or hereafter may be ſubject to or dependant upon the ſaid Government of Madras, as the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, by virtue of any Law now in force and unrepealed, or by this preſent Act, doth conſiſt of, is inveſted with, or ſubject to, within the ſaid Fort William, or the Kingdoms or Provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Oriſſa.

Governor and Council at Madras exempted from the Authority of the Court to be there erected; in the ſame Manner as the Governor General and Council at Fort William. [See 13 Geo. 3. c. 63. § 17.]

III. Provided always, That the Governor and Council at Madras, and the Governor General of Fort William aforeſaid, ſhall enjoy the ſame Exemption, and no other, from the Authority of the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature to be there erected, as is enjoyed by the ſaid Governor General and Council at Fort William aforeſaid, from the Juriſdiction of the Supreme Court of Judicature there already by Law eſtabliſhed.

If his Majeſty ſhall erect a Supreme Court at Madras, the Records directed by 37 Geo. 3. c. 142. to be delivered over to the new Courts, erected under that Act, and thoſe belonging thereto, ſhall be delivered over to the Supreme Court.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall grant ſuch Charter as aforeſaid, and erect ſuch Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras as aforeſaid, all the Records, Muniments, and Proceedings whatſoever, of and belonging to the late Mayor's Court at Madras, or to the late Court of Oyer and Terminer, and Gaol Delivery, which were, by the ſaid Act paſſed in the thirty-ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, directed to be delivered over, preſerved, and depoſited in the new Courts erected by virtue of the ſaid Act; and all the Records, Muniments, and Proceedings whatſoever, of and belonging to any of the ſaid new Courts, ſhall, from and immediately after ſuch Supreme Court of Judicature as his Majeſty is hereby empowered to erect, ſhall be eſtabliſhed at Madras, be delivered over to be preſerved and depoſited for ſafe Cuſtody in the ſaid new Court of Judicature; to which all Parties concerned ſhall and may have Reſort and Recourſe upon Application to the ſaid Court.

So much of the Charter of his Majeſty for erecting the Courts of the Recorder of Madras, as relates to the Appointment of a Recorder, &c ſhall be void on the granting and publiſhing the new Charter, and the Powers granted by 37 Geo. 3. c. 142. may be exerciſed by the Supreme Court.

V. And be it further enacted, That ſo much of the Charter granted by his preſent Majeſty, for erecting the Courts of the Recorder of Madras and Bombay, as relates to the Appointment of ſuch Recorder, and the erecting of ſuch Courts of Judicature at Madras, in caſe a new Charter ſhall be granted by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, and ſhall be openly publiſhed at Madras, from and immediately after ſuch Publication, ſhall ceaſe and determine and be abſolutely void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; and all Powers and Authorities granted by the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſeventh of his preſent Majeſty to the ſaid Courts of the Recorder at Madras, ſhall ceaſe and determine, and be no longer exerciſed by the ſaid Court, but the ſame ſhall and may be exerciſed by the Supreme Court of Judicature to be erected by virtue of this Act, in the Manner and to the Extent herein-before directed.

The Court of Directors ſhall cauſe to be paid certain Salaries, viz. 6000 l. to the Chief Juſtice and 5000 l. to each of the Judges of the Supreme Court when eſtabliſhed by the new Charter, out of the territorial Revenues of Madras.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature which his Majeſty is hereby empowered to erect, ſhall be erected, the Court of Directors of the ſaid United Company ſhall, and they are hereby required to, direct and cauſe to be paid certain and eſtabliſhed Salaries to the Chief Juſtice, and each of the Judges of ſuch Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, as ſhall be by the ſaid new Charter eſtabliſhed; that is to ſay, to the Chief Juſtice ſix thouſand Pounds by the Year; and to each of the Judges at the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras five thouſand Pounds by the Year; and that ſuch Salaries ſhall be paid and payable to each and every of them reſpectively out of the territorial Revenues of the ſaid Settlement of Madras, at an Exchange of eight Shillings for the Pagoda of that Settlement.

When Salaries ſhall commence, which ſhall be in lieu of all Perquiſites.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Salaries ſhall commence and take place in reſpect of ſuch Perſons who ſhall be reſident in Great Britain at the Time of their Appointment, upon and from the Day on which ſuch Perſon ſhall embark from Great Britain, and that the Salaries of all ſuch Perſons who ſhall at the Time of their Appointment be reſident in India, ſhall commence and take place from and after their reſpectively taking upon them the Execution of their Office as aforeſaid; and that all ſuch Salaries ſhall be in lieu of all Fees of Office, Perquiſites, Emoluments, and Advantages whatſoever, and that no Fees of Office, Perquiſites, Emoluments, or Advantages whatſoever ſhall be accepted, received, or taken in any Manner, or on any Account or Pretence whatſoever, other than ſuch Salaries and Allowances as are in and by this Act directed to be paid.

If the Chief Juſtice, or any of the Puiſne Judges, ſhall return to Europe, his Majeſty may directed Allowances to be made to them out of the Revenues of the Britiſh Territories in India;

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if the Chief Juſtice, or any or either of the Puiſne Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature to be erected at Madras by virtue of this Act, ſhall return to Europe, from Age, Infirmity, or other Cauſe to be approved of by his Majeſty, it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, by Warrant under the Sign Manual, to direct and authorize an Allowance to be made out, of the Revenues of the Britiſh Territories in India, to ſuch Chief Juſtice or Judge ſo returning: Provided always, That it ſhall not be lawful for his Majeſty to direct any larger Allowance to be made to ſuch Chief Juſtice than the Sum of one thouſand ſix hundred Pounds Sterling, nor to any of the ſaid Puiſne Judges ſo returning, than the Sum of one thouſand two hundred Pounds Sterling per Annum; nor ſhall it be lawful for his Majeſty to direct any Allowance to be made to any Perſon who has not reſided in India for ſeven Years, either as Chief Juſtice or one of the Puiſne Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature of Fort William, or of the Supreme Court of Judicature to be erected as aforeſaid at Madras, nor to authorize the Payment of any Sum which, with the Sums already directed and authorized to be paid at the Date of such Grant, shall in the Whole exceed the Amount of the Salary to be paid to one of the Puisne Judges of the said Supreme Court.

not exceeding 1600l. per Ann. to a Chief Justice, or 1200l. to a Puisne Judge, provided they have resided in India seven Years in their Offices.

IX. Provided always, and be it hereby further enacted, That when either of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, or of the Supreme Court of Judicature which his Majesty is hereby empowered to erect at Madras, or the Recorder of Bombay, shall respectively leave India, the Salary now payable, or which may become payable under and by virtue of this Act, to any such Judge or Recorder respectively, shall cease and be no longer paid; any Thing herein or in any former Act or Acts contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

The Salaries of the Judges of the Supreme Courts, and of the Recorder of Bombay, shall cease on their leaving India.

X. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Office of Recorder of Bombay shall become vacant, and no Person shall be upon the Spot who shall have been appointed by his Majesty to succeed to such Recordership, in such Case, and as soon as the same shall be made known to the Supreme Court of Judicature which his Majesty is hereby empowered to erect at Madras, the junior Puisne Judge of the said Court shall, and he is hereby directed and authorized to proceed with all convenient Speed to the said Settlement of Bombay, and shall take upon himself the Office of Recorder of the said Settlement, and shall hold and exercise the same in as full and ample a Manner, and with the like Allowances and Exemptions, as if he had been appointed Recorder of the said Settlement by his Majesty, or provisionally by virtue of the Act passed in the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, and shall continue to hold and exercise the said Office until a Recorder shall have been appointed by his Majesty, and until such Recorder shall arrive at the said Settlement and no longer: Provided always, That if at the Time of the Notification of such Vacancy, the Establishment of the said Supreme Court at Madras shall not be full, and the Establishment of the Supreme Court at Fort William shall be full, then and in such Case only, the junior Puisne Judge of the said Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, as soon as the Vacancy in the said Office of Recorder is made known to the said Supreme Court, shall in like Manner proceed to take upon himself the said Office of Recorder at Bombay, and shall continue to hold and exercise the same in like Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as is herein-before provided; any Thing in the said Act, or in any other Act or Acts, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

The vacant Office of Recorder at Bombay shall, in case no Successor shall be upon the Spot, be supplied by the junior Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court at Madras; or if that Court is not full, and the Court at Fort William is full, then by the junior Puisne Judge of that Court.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Governor and Council at Fort Saint George aforesaid, to frame Regulations from Time to Time for the Provincial Courts and Councils within the Territories and Provinces which now are, or shall at any Time hereafter be (and while the same shall so be) annexed to or made subject to the said Presidency, in like Manner, and subject to all the Regulations, Provisions, and Confirmations touching the same, as the Governor General and Council at Fort William aforesaid are, by any Act now in force, authorized and empowered to do, for the better Administration of Justice among the native Inhabitants and others being within the Provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa.

The Governor and Council at Fort Saint George may frame Regulations for the Provincial Courts and Councils annexed to that Presidency, in the same Manner as the Governor General and Council at Fort William may now do.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if the Governor General of Fort William in Bengal for the Time being, or the Governor of the said Presidency of Fort Saint George, and of the said Presidency and Island of Bombay respectively for the Time being, shall happen to be absent from any Council to be assembled for the said respective Presidencies of Fort William and Fort Saint George, and the said Presidency and Island of Bombay, owing to Indisposition or any other Cause whatsoever, and shall signify such his intended Absence to such Council so to be assembled, then and in every such Case the senior Member for the Time being who shall be present at the Council so assembled, shall preside at such Council, in such Manner, and with such full Powers and Authorities, during the Time that such Council shall continue to be assembled, as such Governor General or Governor might or would have had in case such Governor General or Governor were himself actually present at such Council: Provided nevertheless, That no Act of any Council so held shall be valid to any Effect whatsoever, unless the same shall be signed by such Governor General or Governor respectively, if such Governor General or Governor shall at the Time be resident at the Presidency at which such Council shall be so assembled, and shall not be prevented by such Indisposition from signing the same: Provided always, That in case such Governor General or Governor, not being so prevented as aforesaid, shall decline or refuse to sign such Act of Council, he and the several Members of the Council who shall have signed the same, shall mutually exchange with and communicate in Writing to each other the Grounds and Reasons of their respective Opinions, in like Manner, and subject to such Regulations and ultimate Responsibility of such Governor General or Governor respectively, as are by the said Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, provided and directed in Cases where such Governor General or Governor respectively shall, when present, dissent from any Measure proposed or agitated in such Council respectively: Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed to prevent such Governor General, in case he shall be absent from his own Government of Bengal, to nominate a Vice President and Deputy Governor of Fort William, according to the Provision for that Purpose in the said Act passed in the thirty-third Year of his present Majesty*.

If the Governor General of Fort William, or the Governor of Fort Saint George, or of Bombay, shall signify his intended Absence from the Council, the senior Member present shall preside; but no Act of such Council shall be valid, unless signed by the Governor General, or Governor respectively, if resident at the Presidency, and not prevented by Indisposition: and if not so prevented, and he shall refuse to sign, he, and the Members who shall have signed, shall mutually communicate the Grounds of their Opinions as directed by 33 Geo. 3. c. 52. [§ 47.] * [§ 53.]

XIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons shall have been convicted at any Session of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, or any Session of the Peace which shall have been holden for which they would have been liable by the Laws of this Realm, before the paſſing of this Act, to be tranſported, may be tranſported to New South Wales, &c. and Perſons who ſhall hereafter be convicted of any Crimes excluding them from Benefit of Clergy may, inſtead of being executed, be ordered to be tranſported for Life, &c.

for any of the ſaid Preſidencies or Settlements of Fort William and Fort Saint George, and the ſaid Preſidency or Iſland of Bombay, of the Crime of Perjury, or of Grand or Petit Larceny, or of any other Offence for which ſuch Perſon or Perſons would, before the paſſing of this Act, have been liable by the Laws of this Realm to be tranſported, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Court before which any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſo convicted as aforeſaid, or any ſubſequent Court holden at any of the Preſidencies above mentioned reſpectively, with like Authority, to order and adjudge that ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall be tranſported to the Eaſtern Coaſt of New South Wales, or ſome one or other of the Iſlands adjacent, or elſewhere, and for ſuch Term of Years as the ſaid Court ſhall direct; and where any Perſon or Perſons ſhall hereafter be convicted of any Crimes whatſoever, for which he, ſhe, or they is, are, or ſhall be by the Laws of this Realm, as extending to the Britiſh Dominions in India, excluded from the Benefit of Clergy, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Court reſpectively, as they ſhall ſee fit, inſtead of awarding Sentence of Execution againſt ſuch Offender or Offenders, to order ſuch Offender or Offenders to be in like Manner tranſported, either for Life, or for ſuch Number of Years as ſuch Court ſhall award and order; and the Governor and Council of ſuch Preſidency reſpectively ſhall, and they are hereby required to take Order for the due Performance of all ſuch Sentences of Tranſportation accordingly: Provided always, That it ſhall not be lawful for any ſuch Court to order the Tranſportation of any Perſon or Perſons, being Natives of India and not born of European Parents, to the Eaſtern Coaſt of New South Wales, or any of the Iſlands adjacent thereto.

No Offence ſhall be puniſhed by Tranſportation (except ſubſtituted for capital Puniſhment) unleſs committed three Months after this Act ſhall have been publiſhed at Fort William, &c.

XIV. Provided nevertheleſs, That no Offence whatſoever ſhall be liable to be puniſhed by ſuch Sentence of Tranſportation as aforeſaid, (except in caſe the ſame ſhall be ſubſtituted as aforeſaid in the Place of a capital Puniſhment,) unleſs ſuch Offence ſhall have been committed three Months after this Act, and all the Clauſes and Proviſions therein contained ſhall have been openly publiſhed in the ſaid Preſidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George, and Bombay reſpectively; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Perſons returning from Tranſportation into the Territories of the Company, &c. puniſhable as Felons without Benefit of Clergy.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender ſo ordered by any ſuch Court to be tranſported for any Term of Life or Years, or other Time or Times as aforeſaid, ſhall return into any of the ſaid Territories or Acquiſitions of the ſaid United Company, or ſhall come into any Part of Great Britain or Ireland, before the End of his or her ſaid Term, he or ſhe ſo returning as aforeſaid ſhall be liable to be puniſhed as a Perſon attainted of Felony, without the Benefit of Clergy, and Execution may and ſhall be awarded againſt ſuch Offender accordingly.

His Majeſty may extend his Mercy to Offenders.

XVI. Provided nevertheleſs, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued or taken to prevent his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, from extending his or their Royal Mercy to any ſuch Offender or Offenders, and from allowing of the Return of any ſuch Offender or Offenders from ſuch Place of Tranſportation.

The Governor General and Council of Fort William, and the Governor and Council of Fort Saint George, may order in what Manner the Courts of Requeſts ſhall in future be formed, and to what Amount (not exceeding 400 Sicca Rupees) the Juriſdiction ſhall extend, &c.

XVII. 'And whereas great Inconveniencies have reſulted from the Manner in which the Courts of Requeſts for the Recovery of Small Debts in the reſpective Settlements of Fort William and Fort Saint George are conſtituted;' be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Governor General and Council of Fort William, and for the Governor and Council of Fort Saint George aforeſaid for the Time being reſpectively, to order and appoint in what Manner the ſaid Courts reſpectively ſhall in future be formed, and to what Amount in Value, not exceeding the Sum of four hundred Sicca Rupees, the Juriſdiction of the ſame ſhall extend, and to frame and make ſuch new Rules and Orders and to eſtabliſh and declare ſuch new Modes and Forms of Proceeding, as to them ſhall appear to be neceſſary and expedient for new-modelling, altering, and reforming the preſent Conſtitution and Practice of the ſaid Courts reſpectively, and by their Proclamation, to be made and publiſhed in due Form of Law, to declare, and notify to all Perſons concerned, ſuch new Conſtitution, Rules, Orders, Modes, and Forms of Proceeding, and the Time from whence they are to have Force and Effect; and from and after ſuch Time as ſhall be ſo reſpectively notified for that Purpoſe, the preſent Courts of Requeſts, as well as the Rules, Orders, Modes, and Forms of Proceeding which are now uſed and obſerved therein, ſhall be aboliſhed and ceaſe, and thenceforth the new Court, Rules, Orders, Modes, and Forms of Proceeding which the ſaid Governor General and Council are authorized and empowered, under and by virtue of this Act, to make and publiſh, ſhall be in full Force and Effect; any former Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

The Governor General and Council at Fort William may order Corporal Puniſhment for Breach of Rules, made under Authority of 13 Geo. 3. c. 63.

XVIII. 'And whereas the Powers given by the Act of the thirteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty to the Governor General and Council of the ſaid United Company's Settlement at Fort William aforeſaid, to enforce the Obſervance of ſuch Rules, Ordinances, or Regulations, for the good Order and Civil Government of the ſaid Settlement, and other Factories and Places ſubordinate to or to be ſubordinate thereto, as they are thereby authorized to make, by ſetting, impoſing, and levying reaſonable Fines and Forfeitures for the Breach or Non-obſervance of ſuch Rules, Ordinances, and Regulations, have not been found ſufficient for the Preſervation of good Order in the ſaid Settlement;' be it therefore enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Governor General and Council for the Time being, in addition to, or inſtead of ſuch Fines and Forfeitures as above mentioned, to order or appoint ſuch moderate and reaſonable Corporal Puniſhment, by publick or private Whipping, or otherwiſe, as to them ſhall ſeem ſeem fit and expedient, for the Breach or Non-obſervance of any ſuch Rules heretofore made or hereafter to be by them made, by virtue of the Authority herein-before recited; ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Regiſtry, Publication, Approbation, Power of Appeal, and other Regulations, as in and by the ſaid recited Act, paſſed in the thirteenth Year of his preſent Majeſty, are preſcribed and provided touching the Rules, Ordinances, Regulations, Fines, and Forfeitures therein and herein-before mentioned.

No Corporal Puniſhment to be ordered except on Conviction before two Juſtices.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no ſuch Corporal Puniſhment ſhall in any Caſe be ordered to be inflicted, except only in caſe of due Conviction of the Offender before two Juſtices of the Peace acting in and for the ſaid Settlement, Preſidencies, and Places thereto ſubordinate, which Offence ſuch two Juſtices of the Peace are hereby authorized and empowered to hear and determine, and to order ſuch Puniſhment upon Conviction as aforeſaid: Provided alſo, That no ſuch Conviction, Judgment, or Order, ſhall be reviewed or brought into any ſuperior Court by Writ of Certiorari or Appeal, or any other Proceſs whatſoever; any Thing in any former Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

No Conviction to be reviewed.

From March 1, 1801, the Power of the Supreme Court of Judicature of Fort William ſhall extend over the Province of Benares, and all Places ſubordinate thereto, and all Diſtricts hereafter annexed to the Preſidency.

XX. 'And whereas the Province or Diſtrict of Benares has been ceded to the ſaid United Company, and 'been annexed to the ſaid Preſidency of Fort William in Bengal, ſince the Eſtabliſhment of the ſaid Su-'preme Court of Judicature at Fort William aforeſaid, and it is expedient that the ſame ſhould be ſubject 'to the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Court, in like Manner as the Kingdoms or Provinces of Bengal, Bahar, 'and Oriſſa; and that the ſaid Province or Diſtrict, and all other Provinces or Diſtricts, which may here-'after be at any Time annexed and made ſubject to the ſaid Preſidency, ſhould be ſubject to ſuch Regula-'tions as the Governor General and Council of Fort William aforeſaid have framed or may frame for the 'better Adminiſtration of Juſtice among the native Inhabitants and others within the ſame reſpectively;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the firſt Day of March which will be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred and one, the Power and Authority of the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature in and for the ſaid Preſidency of Fort William aforeſaid, as now and by virtue of this Act eſtabliſhed, and all ſuch Regulations as have been or may be hereafter, according to the Powers and Authorities, and ſubject to the Proviſions and Reſtrictions before enacted, framed, and provided, ſhall extend to and over the ſaid Province or Diſtrict of Benares, and to and over all the Factories, Diſtricts, and Places, which now are or hereafter ſhall be made ſubordinate thereto, and to and over all ſuch Provinces and Diſtricts as may at any Time hereafter be annexed and made ſubject to the ſaid Preſidency of Fort William aforeſaid.

From March 1, 1801, when ever any Britiſh Subject ſhall die within either of the Preſidencies or ſubordinate Territories, and no next of Kin or Creditor ſhall appear, the Regiſtrar of the Eccleſiaſtical Court ſhall apply for Letters of Adminiſtration, and ſhall collect the Aſſets of the Deceaſed, and bring them into Court, and account for them.

XXI. 'And whereas great Inconveniencies have ariſen from the Practice of granting Letters of Admini-'ſtration by the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William aforeſaid, in Caſes where the next of Kin, 'or any of the Creditors of the Deceaſed, do not apply for the ſame, to Perſons calling themſelves Friends of 'the Deceaſed;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the firſt Day of March, which will be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred and one, whenever any Britiſh Subject ſhall die inteſtate within either of the Preſidencies of Fort William, Fort Saint George, or Bombay, or the Territories ſubordinate to either of the ſaid Preſidencies, or to become ſubordinate thereto, and on Return of the Citation to be iſſued from the proper Eccleſiaſtical Court, no next of Kin or Creditor ſhall appear and make out their Claim to the Adminiſtration of the Effects of the Inteſtate deceaſed to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Court, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Regiſter of ſuch Court reſpectively, and he is hereby required to apply for, and ſuch Court is hereby required and directed to grant ſuch Letters ad Colligenda or of Adminiſtration, as to ſuch Court ſhall ſeem meet, by virtue whereof ſuch Regiſter ſhall collect the Aſſets of the Deceaſed, and ſhall bring them for ſafe Cuſtody into ſuch Court, and account for them regularly, in like Manner as is now by Law provided in Caſes where Aſſets are veſted in the Hands of any Officer of the Court, under or by virtue of the equitable Juriſdiction of any ſuch Court.

When any next of Kin, or Creditor, who ſhall have been abſent ſhall make out his Claim, the Letters of Adminiſtration to the Regiſtrar ſhall be recalled, and Letters granted to the Claimant.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That when any next of Kin or Creditor, who, at the Time of the Return of the above Citation, ſhall have been abſent in Europe or elſewhere, ſhall make and eſtabliſh their Claim to the Adminiſtration of the Aſſets of ſuch Inteſtate, the Letters ad Colligenda or of Adminiſtration, granted by virtue of this Act to the ſaid Regiſter, ſhall be recalled, and Adminiſtration in due Form granted to ſuch next of Kin or Creditor reſpectively.

The Judge of the Supreme Court at Fort William, and of the Supreme Court to be erected at Madras, and the Court of the Recorder at Bombay, may make Rules for extending to Inſolvent Debtors, the Relief intended by Act 32 Geo. 2.

XXIII. 'And whereas Doubts may have ariſen whether any of the Courts of Judicature eſtabliſhed in 'India by virtue of his Majeſty's Charter, are competent to adminiſter adequate Relief to inſolvent Debtors, 'who ſtand charged in Execution for Debts under a certain Amount, according to the Proviſions of an Act 'paſſed in the thirty-ſecond Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, commonly called The Lord's Act,' be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Judge of the ſaid Supreme Court at Fort William, and of the Supreme Court which his Majeſty is empowered by this Act to erect at Madras, or for the Court of the Recorder at Bombay, to make and publiſh ſuch Rules and Orders as to them reſpectively ſhall ſeem meet, for extending to ſuch Inſolvent Debtors as ſhall be in Execution under the Proceſs of ſuch reſpective Courts, or of any Court previouſly eſtabliſhed at ſuch Preſidency reſpectively, for Sums under the Amount to be preſcribed by ſuch Rules and Orders, the Relief intended by the ſaid Act; and to preſcribe and order what weekly Sum the Creditor or Creditors at whoſe Suit ſuch Debtor ſtands charged in Execution, ſhall be obliged to pay and allow, in caſe ſuch Creditor or Creditors ſhall inſiſt on ſuch Debtor being detained in Cuſtody, and to adopt and proportion the ſame, as well as the Amount of ſuch Debt as above-mentioned, to the general State and Condition of ſuch Debtors, whether Natives or Europeans, under the Juriſdiction

c. 28. commonly called the Lord's Act. Such Rules shall be transmitted to the Board of Controul for his Majesty's Revision.

Jurisdiction of such Court respectively; and such Courts are hereby authorized and empowered, as soon as such Rules and Orders shall have been made and established, to proceed to act upon the same accordingly as Cases may arise to require the same; and to make such Orders in such Cases as may be necessary to carry the same fully into Effect: Provided always, That all such Rules and Orders as are first above mentioned, for prescribing the Mode in which such Relief shall be administered, shall be transmitted to the President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, to be laid before his Majesty for his Royal Approbation, Correction, or Revision, and such Rules and Orders shall be observed until the same shall be repealed or varied, and in the last Case with such Variation as shall be made therein.

All Rules made previous to the Notification of this Act in the Presidencies, for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, confirmed, and all Suits commenced for acting under them shall be void.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all Rules and Orders heretofore made or hereafter to be made, previous to the Notification of this present Act, in such Presidencies respectively, by any of the Courts above-mentioned, or any Court previously established in either of the said Presidencies for the Relief and Discharge of such Insolvent Debtors, and all Acts by them, or either of them, done or commanded in pursuance thereof, shall be, and they are hereby ratified and confirmed, and all present Actions and Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all Molestations, Prosecutions, and Proceedings whatsoever, which may have been, or may be had, commenced, or prosecuted, against any Person whomsoever, for acting or having acted under and in Obedience to any such Rules or Orders, are and shall be discharged, annulled, and utterly made void and of no Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, by virtue of this Act.

His Majesty may appoint the Judges of the Supreme Courts, &c. Commissioners for carrying into Execution a Commission for the Trial and Adjudication of Prize Causes, &c. in India.

XXV. 'And whereas it may be expedient for his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to issue a Commission 'from his High Court of Admiralty in England, for the Trial and Adjudication of Prize Causes, and other 'Maritime Questions arising in India;' be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to nominate and appoint all or any of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William aforesaid, or of the Supreme Court of Judicature to be erected as aforesaid at Madras, or the Court of the Recorder at Bombay, either alone or jointly with any other Persons to be named in such Commission, to be Commissioners for the Purpose of carrying such Commission so to be issued as aforesaid into Execution; any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

CAP. LXXX.

An Act for erecting a Lazaret on Chetney Hill, in the County of Kent; and for reducing into one Act the Laws relating to Quarantine; and for making further Provision therein. [28th July 1800.]

39 Geo. 3. c. 99.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the first Session of the thirty-ninth Year of his present Majesty's 'Reign, intituled, An Act to encourage the Trade into the Levant Seas, by providing a more convenient 'Mode of performing Quarantine; and for reducing the Duty, granted by an Act of the last Session, on Goods 'the Manufacture of Great Britain, exported to any Place within the Streights of Gibraltar, it was enacted, 'That it should and might be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, by any Order or Orders to be issued from Time to Time, to grant 'Licence and Permission for the Importation into Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, coming from the Levant Seas, without 'clean Bills of Health, without such Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes having been opened and aired in 'any of the Lazarets of Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles, as was before by 'Law required; and that all such Goods and Merchandizes should and might be admitted to an Entry in any 'of the Ports of Great Britain, or the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, subject 'nevertheless to such Regulations, Rules, Orders, and Directions, with respect to opening and airing such 'Goods and Merchandizes previous to the landing thereof, and to the Performance of Quarantine by the 'Crews or other Persons belonging to or being on board of the Ships or Vessels in which such Goods or 'Merchandizes should be imported, as his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, should, 'by any Order or Orders to be issued as aforesaid, make, prescribe, or direct: And whereas by the Laws 'of this Kingdom, all Ships or Vessels coming without such clean Bill of Health from any other Place li'able to the Plague, or any other infectious Disorder of the Nature of the Plague, except from the Levant, 'were not, previous to the passing of the said Act of the thirty-ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, 'nor are now restrained from entering into any of the Ports of this Kingdom, in none of which, nevertheless, has sufficient Provision been made for the Performance of Quarantine by Ships so coming without such 'clean Bills of Health: And whereas certain Ships did so arrive from the Port of Mogadore, in the Course 'of last Autumn, which, for Want of such Provision, it was necessary to destroy, and the Publick thereby

26 Geo. 2. c. 6.

'became subject to a great Charge: And whereas by an Act, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign 'of his Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act to oblige Ships more effectually to perform their 'Quarantine; and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into Great Britain 'or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; it was enacted, That whenever his 'Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice and Consent of Parliament, should direct 'Houses or Lazarets to be provided for the receiving and entertaining of Persons obliged to perform Quarantine, or for the depositing, opening, and airing of Goods and Merchandizes liable to perform Quarantine, as therein mentioned, it should and might be lawful for his Majesty to erect the same in such Places, 'and

'and in such Manner as his Majesty should judge necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, paying such Rate, 'Rent, or other Consideration as should be agreed upon, or assessed and adjudged, in such Manner as therein 'prescribed: And whereas by an Act passed in the fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, a certain Sum 'of Money was granted by Parliament towards building a Lazaret: And whereas, Doubts having arisen 'whether his Majesty was sufficiently enabled, by the Powers in the said last-mentioned Acts contained, to 'contract and agree for the absolute Purchase of Lands, Messuages, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to 'be settled unalienably in the Crown, for the Purpose of making, erecting, and establishing such Lazaret, 'it was by an Act passed in the twelfth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to explain 'and amend so much of an Act made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George 'the Second as relates to the establishment of Lazarets, enacted, That it should be lawful to and for the Lords 'Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, then or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, 'or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, on the Behalf of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, 'from Time to Time, and at all Times thereafter, to treat, contract, and agree for the absolute Purchase or 'Sale, Release or Surrender, to or for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, of any Estate or 'Estates of Inheritance in any Lands, Messuages, Tenements, or Hereditaments which they should judge 'to be, by their Situation and in other Respects, convenient and fit for the Purposes intended by the said 'Act, for such Sum or Sums of Money, or upon such other Terms or Conditions, as they should think 'fitting, and to make Payment of the same out of the before-mentioned Sum of Money: And whereas the 'Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury have, in pursuance and under the Authority of the said 'last-mentioned Act, made Purchase of certain Lands on Chetney Hill, in the County of Kent, for the Pur-'pose of erecting a Lazaret thereon: And whereas it is expedient that a Fund should be provided for en-'abling his Majesty to defray the Charges of erecting a proper Lazaret on the said Lands on Chetney Hill, 'and also such Charges as shall arise from the necessary Establishment and Expences incident to such Lazaret 'when completed, as well as from those of a Floating Lazaret to be made use of in the mean Time, until such 'Lazaret shall be so erected and completed:' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this pre-sent Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, from and after the passing of this Act, to give Directions, and make any Contract or Contracts for erecting or causing to be erected a Lazaret upon the said Lands so purchased on Chetney Hill, in the County of Kent, with all necessary and convenient Accommodations for the Purpose of performing Quarantine, according to such Plan as his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, may from Time to Time approve and direct; and for defraying the Expences attending the same, to cause any Sum of Money to be issued out of the Consolidated Fund, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of sixty-five thousand Pounds, of which a Part, not exceeding thirty thousand Pounds, may be issued within the Space of twelve Months from the passing of this Act; and the said Lazaret when completed, and all the Buildings and Accommodations thereto belonging, and until the same shall be completed, the said Floating Lazaret, shall be under the Management, Order, and Direction of such Officers as shall be appointed by the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, for keeping the same fit and ready for the Reception of Persons and Goods, and for their due Performance of Quarantine; and such Officers respectively shall have such Salaries as shall from Time to Time be appointed by his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council; and the Salaries of the said Officers, and all contingent Expences, shall be defrayed out of the Funds, and in the Manner in which the Charges and Expences of performing Quarantine are at present defrayed, until such Time as a Revenue shall be raised sufficient for those Purposes, in the Manner herein-after mentioned.

12 Geo. 3. c. 37.

The Treasury may contract for erecting a Lazaret upon Chetney Hill, and may defray the Expence out of the Consolidated Fund, not exceeding 65,000l.

Lazaret shall be under the Management of Officers to be appointed by the Treasury, &c.

II. 'And whereas it is reasonable that the Owners of Ships, Vessels, and Cargoes, which in future shall 'have to perform Quarantine, should defray the Charge incurred thereby;' be it further enacted, That, from and after the first Day of October one thousand eight hundred, there shall be raised, levied, collect-ed, and paid to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several and respective Duties of Customs herein-after mentioned; that is to say, for every Ton Burthen of every Ship or Vessel, the Cargo of which, or any Part thereof, shall have performed Quarantine in this Kingdom, and which shall have arrived from any Part of Turkey, or from any Port or Place in Africa within the Streights of Gibraltar, or in the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, with a clean Bill of Health, seven Shillings and Sixpence; for every Ton Burthen of every such Ship or Vessel, which shall have so arrived without a clean Bill of Health, fifteen Shillings; for every Ton Burthen of every Ship or Vessel, the Cargo of which, or any Part thereof, shall have performed Quarantine in this Kingdom, and which shall have arrived from any Port or Place whatever, except from any Part of Turkey, or from any Port or Place in Africa, within the Streights of Gibraltar, or in the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, with a clean Bill of Health, three Shillings; for every Ton Bur-then of every such Ship or Vessel which shall have so arrived, without a clean Bill of Health, ten Shillings; for every Ton Burthen of every such Ship or Vessel arriving in this Kingdom, with a Cargo which in Whole or in Part shall consist of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of Turkey, or of any Port or Place in Africa within the Streights of Gibraltar, or in the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and which shall have performed Quarantine in this Kingdom, and which shall have arrived from any Port or Place in Holland, or from any Port or Place whatever at which there is not a regular Establishment for the Performance of Quarantine, seven Shillings and Sixpence; for every Ton Burthen of every Ship or Ves-sel which shall have so arrived under such Circumstances as shall induce his Majesty, by and with the Ad-vice of his Privy Council, to subject them to the like Quarantine as Ships arriving from Turkey without clean Bills of Health, fifteen Shillings; for every Ton Burthen of every Ship or Vessel, the Cargo of which,

From October 1, 1800, the Owners of Ships performing Quarantine shall pay the Duties of Customs herein specified.

or any Part thereof, ſhall have performed Quarantine in this Kingdom, and which Ship or Veſſel ſhall enter Inwards in the Port of London, an additional Duty of one Shilling: all which ſeveral and reſpective Duties ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, and ſhall be ſued for, recovered, and accounted for, in the ſame Manner, and ſubject to the ſame Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Duties of Cuſtoms are now ſubject to by Law, as far as the ſame are applicable thereto: Provided always, That no Ship or Veſſel arriving in this Kingdom from any Port or Place whatever, except from any Part of Turkey, or from any Part or Place in Africa within the Streights of Gibraltar, or in the Weſt Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, with a clean Bill of Health, in Ballaſt, or whoſe Cargo ſhall conſiſt wholly of Salt, ſhall be liable to or charged with any Duty under this Act: Provided alſo, That no Ship or Veſſel which ſhall, together with its Cargo, have duly performed Quarantine in the Lazarets of Malta, Ancona, Venice, Meſſina, Leghorn, or one of them, and ſhall ſail from thence, and arrive in this Kingdom, with proper Documents and Vouchers atteſting the ſame, to the Satisfaction of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or of his or their Privy Council, ſhall be liable to or charged with any Duty under this Act.

Certain Veſſels exempted from Payment of ſuch Duties.

Treaſury may order the Duties to be reduced, and afterwards raiſed again.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if after the Repayment (in the Manner hereinafter mentioned) to the Conſolidated Fund, of the ſaid Sum of ſixty-five thouſand Pounds, hereby directed to be iſſued out of the ſame, it ſhall appear to the Lord High Treaſurer or the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, that the Duties hereby granted are more than ſufficient to defray the neceſſary Expences of carrying the ſeveral Purpoſes of this Act into Execution, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners for the Time being, from Time to Time, by any Warrant or Warrants under the Hands of the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer, or of the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners for the Time being, or of any three or more of the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners, to order and direct that the Duties hereby garnted ſhall be reduced in ſuch Proportion and Manner as they ſhall think proper; and alſo by like Warrant or Warrants (in caſe the ſaid neceſſary Expences ſhould afterwards require an Increaſe of the ſaid Duties) to order and direct that the ſame ſhall be again raiſed and increaſed to any Amount, not exceeding the Sums hereby authorized to be raiſed and levied; and ſuch Warrant or Warrants ſhall be ſufficient Authority to the Commiſſioners and Officers of the Cuſtoms for raiſing, levying, collecting, and recovering the ſeveral and reſpective Duties ſpecified and contained in ſuch Warrant or Warrants; any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Veſſel upon which the Duty is impoſed ſhall be cleared Inwards unleſs it be firſt paid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Ship or Veſſel, upon which the Tonnage Duty by this Act impoſed ſhall be due and payable, ſhall be permitted to be cleared Inwards in any Port of Great Britain, or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, unleſs the ſaid Tonnage Duty ſhall have been firſt duly paid to the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms appointed to receive the ſame, or the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms ſhall otherwiſe direct; and that the Tonnage of every Ship or Veſſel ſhall be computed and taken, for the Purpoſe of aſcertaining the ſaid Duties, according to the Regiſter thereof, under the Proviſions of an Act, paſſed in the twenty-ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Increaſe and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation; and in caſe of any Diſpute or Doubt relative thereto the ſame ſhall be aſcertained by Admeaſurement, in the Mode and Manner preſcribed in the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act.

Tonnage ſhall be aſcertained according to the Regiſter under 26 Geo. 3. c. 60.

Owners of Veſſels may demand from Importers a Proportion of Duties.

V. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Owner or Owners of any Ship and Veſſel, in reſpect of which any of the Duties impoſed by this Act ſhall have been paid, to demand and receive from the reſpective Importers, Proprietors, or Conſignees of any Goods or Merchandizes brought or imported in any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as ſhall be equal to the juſt and reaſonable Contribution, which the Proportion that ſuch Goods and Merchandize bear to the Tonnage Burthen of the Ship ſhall require, and no more; ſuch Proportion to be aſcertained according to the Uſage of Merchants in like Caſes.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, and a ſeparate Account to be kept

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Monies ariſing from the Duties hereby granted, ſhall be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, and carried to and made Part of the Conſolidated Fund; and that in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, there ſhall be provided and kept a Book or Books, in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid Duties, and paid into the ſaid Receipt, ſhall be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, upon any Account whatſoever.

Application of Duties.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Money ſo raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, ſhall be applied in the firſt Place to defray the annual Expences of the ſaid Floating Lazaret and Land Lazaret, and all other annual Expences which ſhall be incurred in the Execution of this Act; and in the next Place, to make good any Money that ſhall have been iſſued from the Conſolidated Fund for the firſt erecting of the ſaid Lazaret, and for providing the neceſſary and convenient Accommodations thereto belonging in Manner herein-before mentioned, and to no other Purpoſe whatſoever.

From October 1, 1800, the following recited and all other Acts, in ſo far as they relate to the Performance of Quarantine, repealed. 26 Geo. 2. c. 6. 29 Geo. 2. c. 8.

VIII. 'And whereas it is expedient that the ſeveral Acts of Parliament now in force for performing Quarantine, ſhould be reduced into one Act, and that further Proviſion ſhould be made for obliging Ships and Perſons coming from Places infected with or ſubject to the Plague, or any infectious Diſeaſe or Diſtemper of the Nature of the Plague, to perform Quarantine in ſuch Manner as ſhall be directed by Proclamation or by Order of his Majeſty in Council, and for puniſhing Offenders againſt ſuch Orders;' be it enacted, That, from and after the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred, an Act, paſſed in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act to oblige Ships more effectually to perform their Quarantine, and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from Foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; another Act, paſſed in the twenty-ninth Year of the ſame Reign, intituled, An Act, to repeal a Clauſe in an Act, made in the twenty-ſixth Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, 'An Act to oblige Ships more effectually to perform their Quarantine, and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from Foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or the Iſles of Guern-

'sey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man,' whereby the stationing of Ships infected with the Plague to the Northward of Cape Finisterre, is confined to the Harbour of New Grimsby, and removable to no other Place, and for appointing a more safe and commodious Place instead thereof; an Act passed in the twelfth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, as relates to the Establishment of Lazarets; so much of an Act passed in the twenty-eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act more effectually to secure the Performance of Quarantine, and for amending several Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs, as relates to the Performance of Quarantine; and also so much, as relates to the Performance of Quarantine, of an Act passed in the thirty-eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to amend two Acts made in the twenty-sixth Year of King George the Second, and the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, respecting the Performance of Quarantine; for punishing Persons acting contrary to any Order in Council, which may be made for laying any Embargo on Ships or Vessels, or for prohibiting or regulating the Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize; to prevent the fraudulent Importation of Glass into this Kingdom; for permitting the Removal of Coffee and Cocoa Coastwise, for the greater Convenience of Exportation; to authorize the Commissioners of the Customs to return the Duties paid on Goods imported, which shall be lost or destroyed before the landing thereof; to prevent Vessels licensed by the Admiralty from being engaged in any Trade or Employment not permitted by their Licences; for permitting Wines put on board any of his Majesty's Ships to be removed from one Ship to another, without being first landed and warehoused; and for extending the Provisions of an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, to Wines delivered into the Charge of the Collector and Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs at the Port of Falmouth; and also so much, as relates to the Performance of Quarantine, of an Act, passed in the thirty-ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to encourage the Trade into the Levant Seas, by providing a more convenient Mode of performing Quarantine; and for reducing the Duty, granted by an Act of the last Session, on Goods, the Manufacture of Great Britain, exported to any Place within the Streights of Gibraltar; and every other Act or Acts heretofore pflaed, in so far as the same do or may be deemed or construed to relate to the Performance of Quarantine, and to be contrary to the Provisions of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

IX. 'And whereas infectious Diseases and Distempers which may not be deemed the Plague, have raged 'and may rage in Foreign Parts, the Communication whereof may be highly dangerous to the Health of his 'Majesty's Subjects of this Kingdom;' be it declared and enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, by his Royal Proclamation, from Time to Time to declare any such infectious Disease or Distemper to be of the Nature of the Plague.

His Majesty by Proclamation may declare any infectious Disease to be of the Nature of the Plague.

X. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the first Day of October one thousand eight hundred, all Ships and Vessels arriving, and all Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes whatsoever coming or imported into any Port or Place within Great Britain, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any Place from whence his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, shall judge it probable that the Plague, or other infectious Disease or Distemper, which his Majesty, with the Advice of his Privy Council, shall from Time to Time declare to be of the Nature of the Plague, may be brought, shall be liable and obliged to make their Quarantine in such Place and Places, for such Time and in such Manner as shall from Time to Time be directed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, and notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette; and that until such Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes shall have respectively performed and shall be duly discharged from such Quarantine, no such Person, Goods, or Merchandizes, or any of them, shall come or be brought on Shore, or go or be put on board any other Ship or Vessel in any Place within his Majesty's Dominions, unless in such Manner, and in such Cases, and by such Licence as shall be directed or permitted by such Order or Orders made by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in Council as aforesaid; and that all such Ships and Vessels, and the Persons or Goods coming or imported in, or going or being put on board the same, and all Ships, Vessels, Boats, and Persons receiving any Goods or Persons out of the same, shall be subject to such Orders, Rules, and Directions concerning Quarantine, and the Prevention of Infection, as shall be made by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, and notified by his Royal Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette.

All Vessels, Persons, and Goods coming into any Place in Great Britain, Guernsey, &c. from any Place from whence his Majesty shall judge the Plague may be brought, shall perform Quarantine as shall be directed by his Majesty's Orders in Council.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if the Plague, or other infectious Disease or Distemper as aforesaid, shall appear on board any Ship or Vessel within the Streights of Gibraltar, the Master, Commander or other Person having Charge thereof, shall immediately proceed to some one of the Foreign Lazarets, and there perform Quarantine, until such Time as the Land Lazaret, to be erected as aforesaid, shall, by his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, and by Order of the same notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, have been declared to be fit for the due Performance of Quarantine therein; but if such Plague or other such infectious Disease or Distemper as aforesaid, shall appear on board any Ship or Vessel without the Streights of Gibraltar, then the Master, Commander, or other Person having the Charge or Command thereof, shall (unless such Land Lazaret shall have been so declared to be fit for the due Performance of Quarantine therein) immediately proceed to the Harbour of Saint Helens Pool, between the Islands of Saint Helens Tean and North Withel, being two of the Islands commonly called The Islands of Scilly, or to such other Place as his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, shall from Time to Time direct and appoint; where, being arrived, he shall make known his Case to some Officer of the Customs there, who shall immediately acquaint the Governor, Deputy Governor, or other Principal Magistrate thereof, and also some Custom House Officer of some Port of England near thereunto; and the said Custom House Officer of ſuch near Port in England ſhall, with all poſſible Speed, ſend Intelligence thereof to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in the Port of London; and the ſaid Governor, Deputy Governor, or other Principal Magiſtrate, ſhall in like Manner, with all poſſible Speed, ſend Intelligence thereof to one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to the End that ſuch Meaſures may be taken for the Comfort and Support of the Crew and Paſſengers on board ſuch Ship ſo infected, and ſuch Precautions uſed to prevent the ſpreading of the Infection, as the Caſe ſhall require; and the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſhall there remain until his Majeſty's Pleaſure be known; nor ſhall any of the Crew or Paſſengers on board thereof go on Shore: But in caſe the ſaid Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon having Charge of the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſo infected, ſhall not be able to make the ſaid Iſlands of Scilly or other Place ſo appointed by his Majeſty as aforeſaid, or ſhall be forced by Streſs of Weather, or otherwiſe, to go up either of the Channels, it ſhall not be lawful for him to enter with ſuch Ship or Veſſel into any Port, but he ſhall remain in ſome open Road till he receives Directions by ſome Order of the Privy Council, and he ſhall uſe every neceſſary Means in his Power to prevent any of his Ship's Company or Paſſengers from going out of his Ship, and to avoid all Intercourſe with other Ships, Veſſels, or Perſons; and ſuch Ship's Company or Paſſengers ſhall, until ſuch Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon ſhall have received ſuch Directions, remain in ſuch Ship, and ſhall avoid all Intercourſe with other Ships, Veſſels, or Perſons; and the ſaid Maſter or any other Perſon on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel as aforeſaid, who ſhall be diſobedient herein, ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and ſhall ſuffer Death as in Caſes of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Maſters of Veſſels, &c. diſobedient herein, ſhall ſuffer Death.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Commander, Maſter, or other Perſon having the Charge of any Ship or Veſſel liable to the Performance of Quarantine, ſhall be and is hereby required, from and after the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred, at all Times when ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall meet with any other Ship or Veſſel at Sea, or ſhall be within four Leagues of the Coaſt of Great Britain or Ireland, or the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, to hoiſt a Signal to denote that his Ship or Veſſel is liable to the Performance of Quarantine, which Signal ſhall be in the Day Time, if the ſaid Ship or Veſſel ſhall have a clean Bill of Health, a large Yellow Flag of ſix Breadths of Bunting at the Main Topmaſt Head; and if ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall not have a clean Bill of Health, then a like Yellow Flag, with a circular Mark or Ball entirely Black thereon, whoſe Diameter ſhall be equal to two Breadths of Bunting, and in the Night Time the Signal ſhall, in both Caſes, be a large Signal Lantern, ſuch as is commonly uſed on board his Majeſty's Ships of War, with a Light at the ſame Maſt Head; and ſuch Commander, Maſter, or other Perſon ſhall keep ſuch Signals reſpectively, as the Caſe ſhall be, hoiſted during ſuch Time as the Ship or Veſſel ſhall continue within Sight of ſuch other Ship or Veſſel, or within four Leagues of the ſaid Coaſts or Iſlands, and while ſo in Sight or within ſuch Diſtance, until ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall have arrived at the Port or Place where it is to perform Quarantine, and until it ſhall have been legally diſcharged from the Performance of Quarantine: on Failure whereof ſuch Commander, Maſter, or other Perſon having Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſo liable to the Performance of Quarantine, ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Maſters of Veſſels liable to Performance of Quarantine, meeting other Veſſels at Sea, or being within four Miles of the Coaſt of Great Britain, Ireland, Guernſey, &c. ſhall hoiſt a Signal on Penalty of 200l.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Veſſel, not liable to the Performance of Quarantine, ſhall hoiſt ſuch Yellow Flag, whereby other Ships may be put to the Inconvenience of changing their Courſe, ſuch Maſter, Commander, or other Perſon as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalty of 50l. on Maſters of Veſſels not liable to Quarantine hoiſting a Yellow Flag.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Pilot ſhall bring or conduct, or cauſe to be brought and conducted, any Ship or Veſſel liable to the Performance of Quarantine, into any Place which is not, or which ſhall not be ſpecially appointed for the Reception of Ships and Veſſels ſo liable to the Performance of Quarantine, unleſs compelled by Streſs of Weather, adverſe Winds, or Accidents of the Seas, ſuch Pilot ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Pilots conducting Veſſels liable to Quarantine into Places not appointed, to forfeit 100l.

XV. 'And, to the End that it may be better known whether any Ship or Veſſel be actually infected with 'the Plague, or other infectious Diſeaſe or Diſtemper as aforeſaid, or whether ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or the 'Mariners or Paſſengers coming, or the Cargo imported in the ſame, are liable to any Orders touching 'Quarantine;' be it further enacted, That when any Country or Place ſhall be infected with the Plague, or other ſuch infectious Diſeaſe or Diſtemper as aforeſaid, or when any Order or Orders ſhall be made by his Majeſty in Council concerning Quarantine, and the Prevention of Infection as aforeſaid, then and in ſuch Caſe, as often as any Ship or Veſſel ſhall attempt to enter into any Port or Place in Great Britain, or of the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, whether ſuch Port ſhall have been appointed for the Performance of Quarantine or not, the Principal Officer of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in ſuch Port or Place, or ſuch Perſon as ſhall be authorized to ſee Quarantine duly performed, ſhall go off, or cauſe ſome other Perſon to be by him appointed for that Purpoſe to go off, to ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and ſuch Officer or other Perſon authorized to ſee Quarantine performed as aforeſaid, or the Perſon ſo by him appointed for that Purpoſe, ſhall, at a convenient Diſtance from ſuch Ship or Veſſel, demand of the Commander, Maſter, or other Perſon having Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and ſuch Commander, Maſter, or other Perſon having Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall, upon ſuch Demand, give a true Anſwer in Writing or otherwiſe, and upon Oath or not upon Oath, according as he ſhall by ſuch Officer or other Perſon be required, to all ſuch Queſtions and Interrogatories as ſhall be put to him, by virtue and in purſuance of ſuch Regulations and Directions as his Majeſty, by Order in Council, ſhall be pleaſed to preſcribe; and in caſe ſuch Commander, Maſter, or other Perſon having Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall, upon ſuch Demand made as aforeſaid, refuſe to make a true Diſcovery in any of the Particulars concerning which he ſhall be interrogated in Man-

When any Place ſhall be infected with the Plague, or when any Order ſhall be made by his Majeſty concerning Quarantine, the Perſon authorized to ſee it performed at the Ports of Great Britain ſhall make certain Enquiries of the Maſter of every Veſſel, who, on Refuſal to anſwer, ſhall forfeit 200l.

ner aforesaid, such Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, for every such Offence shall forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

If it shall appear that any such Vessel is liable to perform Quarantine, the Officers of any Ship of War, &c. shall compel it to go to the appointed Place.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall appear upon such Examination or otherwise, that such Ship or Vessel is under such Circumstances as shall render it liable to perform Quarantine, and that the Port where it so arrives is not the Port where it ought so to perform Quarantine, in such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of any of his Majesty's Ships of War, or any of his Majesty's Forts or Garrisons, and all other his Majesty's Officers whom it may concern, upon Notice thereof given to them, or any of them respectively, and to and for any other Person or Persons whom they shall call to their Aid and Assistance, and such Officers and other Persons are hereby required, to oblige such Ship or Vessel to go and repair to such Place as hath been or shall be appointed for Performance of Quarantine, and to use all necessary Means for that Purpose, either by firing of Guns upon such Ship or Vessel, or by any other Kind of necessary Force whatsoever; and in case any such Ship or Vessel shall come from any Place visited with the Plague, or other infectious Disease or Distemper as aforesaid, or shall have any Person on board actually infected, and the Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel shall conceal the same, such Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Masters of Vessels coming from Places visited with the Plague, or having any infected Person on board, and concealing the same, shall suffer Death.

Masters of Vessels ordered to perform Quarantine, shall deliver to the Chief Officer appointed to see it performed, their Bill of Health, &c. on Penalty of 500l.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That every Master, Commander, or other Person having Charge of any Ship or Vessel which shall be ordered to perform Quarantine as aforesaid, shall forthwith, after his Arrival at the Place appointed for the Performance of his Quarantine, deliver on Demand to the Chief Officer appointed to see Quarantine Duty performed there, or Person acting for him, and which Officer or Person is hereby required to make such Demand, such Bill of Health and Manifest as he shall have received from any British Consul during his Voyage, together with his Log Book and Journal, under Pain of forfeiting the Sum of five hundred Pounds if he shall wilfully refuse and neglect so to do.

Masters of Vessels liable to Quarantine, shall deliver to the Consul, &c. at the Port where they shall take on board any Articles, a Manifest, who shall transmit it to the Commissioners of the Customs, and the Master, on his Arrival, shall make Oath before the Officers of the Customs at the Port, that he has not received on board any Articles or Letters but what are contained in the Manifest. Penalty on Masters not producing all such Articles, from 500l. to 100l. The same Penalty on Persons landing, or receiving any Articles or Letters from on board such Vessels.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Master, Commander, or other Person having the Charge or Command of any Ship or Vessel liable to perform Quarantine, shall deliver to the Consul or other Person acting as such, and where there is none such residing there, then to two known British Merchants at the Port at which he shall take on board any Articles, a List, Schedule, or Manifest, retaining one or more true Copies thereof in his own Possession, of all such Articles of every Description, whether brought as Baggage, Presents, or otherwise, and of all Packets, Parcels, or Letters, which List, Schedule, or Manifest shall by him be verified on Oath, and subscribed before the British Consul, or other Person or Merchants as aforesaid, who shall attest the same by subscribing his or their Name or Names thereto; and such British Consul, or other Person or Merchants as aforesaid, shall transmit the said List, Schedule, or Manifest so signed by him or them, as the Case may be, to the Commissioners of the Customs in the Port of London, for their Information; and the said Master, Commander, or other Person as aforesaid, on his Arrival in this Kingdom, shall declare upon Oath before the Collector or Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port where he shall arrive, or at the Port nearest thereto, that he has not received any Goods, Packages, or Articles whatever on board, either as Baggage, Presents, or otherwise, nor any Letter or Packets, or Parcels of Letters, but such as are specified in such Lists, Schedules, or Manifests; and in case the Master, Commander, or other Person as aforesaid, shall not, on Demand by such Collector or Principal Officer of the Customs, produce all or any of the Articles so specified in such Lists, Schedules, or Manifests as aforesaid, or make it appear that the same have been unavoidably lost, destroyed, or consumed, such Master, Commander, or other Person shall forfeit and pay, for every such Default, a Sum not exceeding the Sum of five hundred Pounds, nor less than the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and if any Person shall land or unship, or shall move, in order to the landing or unshipping thereof, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or any small Articles brought as Baggage, Presents, or otherwise, or any Letters or Packets, or Parcels of Letters whatever from on board such Ship or Vessel, or shall receive the same after they have been so landed or unshipped, he shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding the Sum of five hundred Pounds, nor less than the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Masters, &c. quitting, or suffering Persons to quit Vessels, or not in due Time carrying them into the Places appointed for Quarantine, shall forfeit 500l.

Persons quitting such Vessels may be

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Commander, Master, or other Person having Charge of any Ship or Vessel liable to perform Quarantine, and having Notice that such Ship or Vessel is so liable, shall himself quit, or shall knowingly permit or suffer any Seaman or Passenger coming in such Ship or Vessel to quit such Ship or Vessel, by going on Shore, or by going on board any other Ship, Boat, or Vessel, before such Quarantine shall be fully performed, unless in such Cases, and by such proper Licence as shall be directed and granted by and by virtue of such Order or Orders made or to be made concerning Quarantine and the Prevention of Infection as aforesaid; or in case any Commander, Master, or other Person having Chage of such Ship or Vessel, shall not, within a convenient Time after due Notice given for that Purpose, cause such Ship or Vessel, and the Lading thereof, to be conveyed into the Place or Places appointed for such Ship, Vessel, and Lading, to perform their Quarantine respectively; then and in every such Case every such Master, Commander, or other Person as aforesaid, for every such Offence shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds; and if any Person shall so quit such Ship or Vessel by going on Shore, or by going on board any other Ship or Vessel contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for all compelled by any one to return on board, and shall be liable to Imprisonment, and Penalty of 200l.

all Persons whatsoever, by any Kind of necessary Force, to compel such Person to return on board such Ship or Vessel; and every such Person so quitting such Ship or Vessel shall, for every such Offence, suffer Imprisonment for the Space of six Months, and shall also forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

When a Vessel arrives with a clean Bill of Health, the Master shall immediately give Notice thereof, and of the Contents of his Manifest, and of the Port in which he has performed Quarantine, to the Officer of the Customs, that the same may be laid before the Privy Council.

XX. And be it further enacted, That when any Ship or Vessel which has performed Quarantine in any Foreign Lazaret, shall arrive in any of the Ports of Great Britain or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, with a clean Bill of Health, no Goods or Merchandize liable to retain the Infection of the Plague, or other infectious Disease or Distemper as aforesaid, shall be permitted to be landed or unshipped, unloaded or moved, in order to be landed out of such Ship or Vessel; but the Master, Commander, or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel shall, immediately upon his Arrival, give Notice thereof, and of the Contents of his Lists, Schedules, or Manifests as aforesaid, and of the Foreign Port in which such Ship or Vessel hath performed Quarantine, to the Principal Officer of his Majesty's Customs at the Port where he shall arrive, or at the Port nearest thereto, in order that the same may be forthwith laid before his Majesty's Privy Council; and if the Master, Commander, or other Person as aforesaid, or any Person whatsoever, shall land, or shall unship, unload, or move, in order to land, any Goods or Merchandize out of the said Ship or Vessel, before an Order of his Majesty's Privy Council shall be made, giving Directions therein, or otherwise than shall be directed in the said Order, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 200l. for landing, &c. Goods before an Order of Council is made, or contrary thereto.

Persons liable to Quarantine shall be subject to the Orders of the Officers authorized to direct the Performance thereof, who may enforce Obedience thereto, and call in Aid.

If any Person shall neglect to duly repair to the Place appointed for him, or shall escape, he shall be compelled to return, and every Person refusing to return, or escaping, shall suffer Death.

XXI. 'And whereas Disobedience or refractory Behaviour in Persons under Quarantine may be attended with very great Danger to his Majesty's Subjects;' be it further enacted, That all Persons liable to perform Quarantine, whether in Ships or in a Lazaret, or elsewhere, shall be subject, during the said Quarantine, to such Orders as they shall receive from the proper Officers authorized to direct and superintend the due Performance thereof; and the said Officers are hereby empowered and required to enforce all necessary Obedience to the said Orders; and in case of Necessity to call in others to their Assistance; and all Persons so called in are hereby required to assist accordingly; and such Officers shall and they are hereby empowered and required to compel all Persons obliged to perform Quarantine as aforesaid, to repair, and to cause all Goods and Merchandizes comprized within any such Orders made or to be made as aforesaid, to be conveyed, to the said Lazaret or other Place duly appointed in that Behalf, in such Manner, and according to such Directions as shall be made by Order of his Majesty in Council as aforesaid; and if any Person obliged to perform Quarantine as aforesaid, shall wilfully refuse or neglect to repair within convenient Time, after due Notice for that Purpose given to him or her by the proper Officer to the said Lazaret, or other Place duly appointed, for him or her, or having been placed in the said Lazaret or other Place, shall escape, or attempt to escape out of the same before Quarantine duly performed, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Watchmen and other Persons appointed to see Quarantine performed, and they are hereby required, by such necessary Force as the Case shall require, to compel every such Person so refusing or neglecting as aforesaid, and every such Person so escaping or attempting to escape as aforesaid, to repair or return into such Lazaret or other Place so appointed for him or her as aforesaid; and every Person so refusing or neglecting to repair, within convenient Time after such Notice as aforesaid, into the said Lazaret, or other Place, and also every Person actually escaping as aforesaid, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Officers of the Customs, &c. for Breach or Neglect of Duty shall forfeit their Office, and 100l; and if they shall desert from their Duty when employed, or permit any Person or Vessel, &c. to depart out of the Lazaret, &c. or if the Persons authorized shall give false Certificates, they shall suffer Death.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer of his Majesty's Customs, or any other Officer or Person whatsoever to whom it doth or shall appertain to execute any Order or Orders made or to be made concerning Quarantine, or the Prevention of Infection, and notified as aforesaid, or to see the same put in Execution, shall be guilty of any wilful Breach or Neglect of Duty in that Behalf, every such Officer and Person so offending shall forfeit such Office or Employment as he may be possessed of, and shall become from thenceforth incapable to hold or enjoy the same, or to take a new Grant thereof, and every such Officer and Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and if any such Officer or Person shall desert from his Duty when employed as aforesaid, or shall knowingly and willingly permit any Person, Ship, Vessel, Goods, or Merchandize, to depart or be conveyed out of the said Lazaret, Ship, or other Place as aforesaid, unless by Permission under an Order of his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, or if any Person hereby authorized and directed to give a Certificate of a Ship having duly performed Quarantine or Airing, shall knowingly give a false Certificate thereof, every such Officer and Person so offending shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and suffer Death as in Cases of Felony without Benefit of Clergy; and if any such Officer or Person shall knowingly and wilfully damage any Goods performing Quarantine under his Direction, he shall be liable to pay treble Damages and full Costs of Suit to the Owner of the same.

Penalty of treble Damages for wilfully injuring Goods performing Quarantine.

If any found Person, shall without Licence enter a Lazaret, he shall perform Quarantine; and if he escape,

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person not infected with the Plague, or other infectious Disease or Distemper as aforesaid, nor liable to perform Quarantine, shall enter the said Lazaret or other Place so appointed as aforesaid, whilst any Person or Persons infected with the Plague, or being under Quarantine, shall be therein, and shall return or attempt to return from thence, unless in such Cases and by such Licence as shall be directed and granted by virtue of such Order or Orders of his Majesty in Council as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Watchmen or other Persons appointed to guard or secure the said ſaid Lazaret or other Place ſo appointed as aforeſaid, by ſuch neceſſary Force as the Caſe ſhall require, to compel ſuch Perſon ſo returning or attempting to return, to repair into the ſaid Lazaret or other Place ſo appointed as aforeſaid, there to continue and perform Quarantine; and in caſe ſuch Perſon ſhall actually eſcape out of the ſaid Lazaret or other Place where he or ſhe ſhall be ſo placed for Performance of Quarantine, before he or ſhe ſhall have fully performed the ſame, he or ſhe ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and ſhall ſuffer Death as in Caſes of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy. ſhall ſuffer Death.

XXIV. 'And whereas certain Sorts of Goods and Merchandizes are more eſpecially liable to retain Infection, and may be brought from Places infected into other Countries, and from thence imported into his Majeſty's Dominions, in Ships not obliged to perform Quarantine;' be it enacted, That all ſuch Goods and Merchandizes as ſhall be particularly ſpecified for that Purpoſe in any Order or Orders of his Majeſty in Council, made or to be made concerning Quarantine and the Prevention of Infection as aforeſaid, which ſhall be imported into any of his Majeſty's Dominions from any Foreign Country or Place in any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, ſhall be ſubject and liable to ſuch Regulations and Reſtrictions as ſhall be made by Order of his Majeſty in Council reſpecting the ſame, for performing Quarantine and the Prevention of Infection as aforeſaid. Goods, when ſpecified in any Order in Council as liable to retain Infection, ſhall be liable to Quarantine.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That after Quarantine ſhall have been duly performed by any Ship or Veſſel, Perſon or Perſons obliged to perform Quarantine as aforeſaid, according to this Act, and to ſuch Order or Orders made as aforeſaid, and upon Proof to be made by the Oaths of the Maſter or other Perſon having Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and of two of the Perſons belonging thereto, or upon Proof to be made by the Oaths of two or more credible Witneſſes before the Collector, or Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port where ſuch Quarantine ſhall be performed, or at the Port neareſt thereunto, or before any Juſtice of the Peace living near to the Port or Place, or when ſuch Quarantine ſhall have been performed, within any of the ſaid Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, before any two Jurats or Magiſtrates of any of the ſaid Iſles reſpectively, that ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons reſpectively, have duly performed Quarantine as aforeſaid, and that the Ship or Veſſel, and all and every Perſon and Perſons, are free from Infection, and after producing a Certificate to that Purpoſe, ſigned by the Chief Officer who ſuperintended the Quarantine of the ſaid Ship, or Perſon acting for him, then and in the ſaid reſpective Caſes ſuch Collector, or Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms, or ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, or ſuch Jurats or Magiſtrates as aforeſaid reſpectively, are hereby required to give a Certificate thereof; and thereupon ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and all and every ſuch Perſon and Perſons ſo having performed Quarantine, ſhall be liable to no further Reſtraint or Detention upon the ſame Account for which ſuch Ship or Veſſel, Perſon or Perſons, ſhall have performed Quarantine as aforeſaid. After Proof of the Performance of Quarantine, and on Certificate to that Effect, Veſſels and Perſons ſhall not be liable to farther Reſtraint.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes liable to Quarantine as aforeſaid, ſhall be opened and aired in ſuch Place or Places, and for ſuch Time and in ſuch Manner as ſhall be directed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by ſuch Order or Orders to be made as aforeſaid; and after ſuch Orders ſhall have been duly complied with, a Certificate thereof ſhall be given by the Chief Officer appointed to ſuperintend the Quarantine and airing of ſuch Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, or by the Perſon acting for him, and Proof thereof ſhall be made by the Oaths of two or more credible Witneſſes before the Collector or other Principal Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port lying next to ſuch Place or Places where ſuch Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes ſhall have been opened and aired as aforeſaid, or before any Juſtices of the Peace living near the ſame, or before any two Jurats or Magiſtrates of the ſaid Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man reſpectively, which Collector, or other Principal Officer, or ſuch Juſtice, or two Jurats or Magiſtrates reſpectively, as the Caſe may be, ſhall alſo make Certificate of ſuch Proof having been made; and upon the Production of ſuch Certificates to his Majeſty's Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England or Scotland reſpectively, or to the Governor or Lieutenant Governor, Commander in Chief, or Chief Magiſtrate of any of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Iſlands, as the Caſe may be, ſuch Goods, Wares, and Merchandize ſhall be forthwith diſcharged from any Reſtraint or Detention upon the ſame Account, by Order of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, or of the ſaid Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Commander in Chief, or Chief Magiſtrate reſpectively. Goods liable to Quarantine opened and aired according to Orders in Council; and on Certificate of Proof of Compliance, they ſhall be diſcharged from Reſtraint.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall knowingly and wilfully forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any Certificate directed and required to be granted by this Act, or ſhall publiſh as true any ſuch forged or counterfeited Certificate, knowing the ſame to be forged or counterfeited, he ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and ſhall ſuffer Death as in Caſes of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy. Perſons forging, &c. any Certificate under this Act ſhall ſuffer Death.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall knowingly or wilfully conceal from the Officers of Quarantine, or ſhall clandeſtinely convey any Letters, Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes in or from any Ship under Quarantine, or liable to perform Quarantine, or from the ſaid Lazaret, or other Place where Goods ſhall be performing Quarantine, every ſuch Perſon ſo offending ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and ſhall ſuffer Death as in Caſes of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy. Perſons concealing, or conveying any Articles or Letters from any Veſſel under Quarantine, or from the Lazarets, ſhall ſuffer Death.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That in caſe it ſhall at any Time happen that any Part of Great Britain, Ireland, or the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or France, Spain, Portugal, or the Low Countries, ſhall be infected with the Plague, or any other infectious Diſeaſe or Diſtemper as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by his or their Proclamation, to prohibit and reſtrain all ſmall Boats and Veſſels, under the Burthen of twenty Tons, from ſailing or paſſing out of any Port or Place of Great Britain, or the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or any of them, until Security be firſt given by the Maſter of every ſuch Boat or Veſſel reſpectively, to the Satisfaction During the Plague in Great Britain, Ireland, France, Spain, Portugal, or the Low Countries, Veſſels under 20 Tons may be prohibited by his Ma-

tion of the Principal Officer of the Customs, or the Chief Magistrate of the Port or Place from whence such Boat or Vessel shall sail, by Bond taken by such Officer or Magistrate, to the King, his Heirs or Successors, with sufficient Sureties in the Penalty of three hundred Pounds, with Condition that if such Boat or Vessel shall not go to or touch at any Country, Port, or Place to be mentioned for that Purpose in such Proclamation; and if neither the Master or other Person having Charge of such Boat or Vessel, nor any Mariner or Passenger in such Boat or Vessel shall, during the Time aforesaid, go on board any other Ship or Vessel at Sea; and such Master or other Person having Charge of such Boat or Vessel shall not permit or suffer any Person or Persons to come on board such Boat or Vessel at Sea from any other Ship or Vessel, and shall not, during the Time aforesaid, receive any Goods and Merchandizes whatsoever out of any other Ship or Vessel, then such Bond shall be void; for the making of which Bond no Fee or Reward whatsoever shall be taken; and in case any Boat or Vessel, for which such Security shall be required by such Proclamation, shall set sail or pass out of any Port or Place of Great Britain, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, or any of them respectively, before such Security be given as aforesaid, every such Boat or Vessel so sailing or passing out of any Port or Place, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, together with her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, shall be forfeited to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and the Master of, and every Mariner sailing in, any such Boat or Vessel shall severally forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds.

If any such Vessel shall sail before Security be given it shall be forfeited, and 20*l.* by the Master and each Mariner on board.

Publication in the Gazette or Proclamation of any Order shall be sufficient Notice.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That the Publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Council made in pursuance of this Act, or his Majesty's Royal Proclamation made in pursuance of the same, shall be deemed and taken to be sufficient Notice to all Persons concerned, of all Matters therein respectively contained.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That all Forfeitures and Penalties aforesaid, that shall be incurred by any Offence committed against any Part of this Act, shall and may be recovered by Suit in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in which no Essoign, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be granted, or in Scotland by summary Action in the Court of Session, or by Prosecution before the Court of Justiciary there, or by Suit in any of his Majesty's Courts in the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, by or by Information before any two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, City, or Place where the Offence was committed, and may be levied of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, and if he shall not have Goods and Chattels equal in Value to the Amount of such Forfeiture or Penalty, then such Offender shall be committed to Gaol till Payment thereof; and every such Forfeiture and Penalty shall belong and be given, one Moiety to the Person who shall sue for the same, and the other Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to be applied towards defraying the Expences of erecting and maintaining the Lazaret as aforesaid.

Persons authorized to take Examinations may administer Oaths.

Penalty of Perjury, &c. on Persons swearing falsely, or procuring others to do so.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases wherein, by or by virtue and in pursuance of any of the Provisions of this Act, any Examinations or Answers shall be directed to be taken or made upon Oath, the Person who shall by or by virtue of the same be authorized and required to take such Examinations and Answers, shall and shall be deemed to have full Power and Authority to administer such Oath; and if any Person who shall be so interrogated or examined, shall wilfully swear falsely to any Matter concerning which such Person shall depose, or make Oath on such Examination, or if any Person shall procure any other Person so to do, he or she shall be deemed to have been guilty of, and shall be liable to be prosecuted for wilful and corrupt Perjury, or Subornation of wilful and corrupt Perjury, as the Case may be, and shall suffer the Penalties of the Law in such Cases respectively made and provided.

Offences, not felonious, against this Act or any Order of Council, may be tried before two Justices, who may fine or imprison the Offender.

Application of Penalty.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Offences committed against any of the Provisions of this Act, (not being Felony,) and every Offence or Disobedience to any Order of Council made for better carrying into Execution this Act, for which no specific Penalty, Forfeiture, or Punishment is provided by this Act, shall and may be tried, heard, and determined before any two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, City, or Place where such Offence or Disobedience shall happen; and if any Person shall be convicted of any such Offence or Disobedience, he or she shall be liable to such Forfeiture and Penalty, not exceeding the Sum of fifty Pounds for any one Offence, or to such Imprisonment, not exceeding three Months for any one Offence, as shall in the Discretion of the two Justices who shall have heard and determined the same, be judged proper; and such Forfeiture and Penalty shall be paid, one Moiety to the Person suing for the same, and the other to his Majesty, to be applied as the Moieties of other Forfeitures and Penalties are herein-before directed to be applied.

No Attainder of Felony shall work Corruption of Blood, &c.

XXXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That no Attainder of Felony by virtue of this Act shall be extended to work any Corruption of Blood, or Forfeiture of any Goods, Chattels, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments.

Offences committed upon the High Seas may be prosecuted within the nearest County.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That all Offences committed upon the High Seas against this Act, or against any Order of Council made for carrying this Act into Execution, shall be deemed to be done within the Body of the County nearest to the Place where such Offence was committed, and shall and may be prosecuted within such County.

Defendants may plead the General Issue.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance and Execution of this present Act, or of any Order of Council made made by virtue thereof, the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance and in the Execution of the said Act; and if it shall appear so to have been done, then the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if Judgment shall have been given upon any Verdict or Demurrer against the Plaintiff, the Defendant or Defendants shall and may recover Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as the Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases by Law; and that no such Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person for any Matter or Thing done in pursuance or Execution of this Act, but within the Space of two Years after such Matter or Thing shall have been done.

Treble Costs.

Limitation of Actions two Years.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and take Effect, except as is hereinbefore otherwise provided, on the first Day of October one thousand eight hundred.

Commencement of Act.

CAP. LXXXI.

An Act to repeal an Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to prevent Frauds in the buying and selling of Hops, and for the better Collection of the Duty on Hops; and to prevent Frauds and Abuses in the Trade of Hops. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS an Act, made in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to prevent Frauds in the buying and selling of Hops, has been found insufficient to answer the Purposes thereby intended, and it is therefore expedient to repeal the said Act, and in lieu thereof to make such Provision as is herein-after directed;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the said Act shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

14 Geo. 3. c. 68. recited,

and repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Owner, Planter, or Grower of Hops, before he, she, or they shall begin to put any Hops into any Bag or Pocket, shall mark, or cause to be marked on the Outside of each and every such Bag or Pocket, in large, plain, and legible Letters or Characters, with durable Ink or Paint, his, her, or their Name or Names, and Place of Abode; and if any Owner, Planter, or Grower of Hops, shall begin to put any Hops into any Bag or Pocket without having marked, or caused to be marked in Manner herein-before directed, the several Matters and Things herein-before required and prescribed, every such Owner, Planter, or Grower, or other Person or Persons so offending, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Owners, &c. shall mark the Bags with their Names, &c. before they put in any Hops, on Penalty of 20l.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Owner, Planter, or Grower of Hops shall bag any Hops in any Bag, the Weight of which Bag shall be greater in Proportion to the gross Weight of such Bag and the Hops contained therein than ten Pounds for every one hundred and twelve Pounds of the said gross Weight of such Bag and the Hops contained therein; and if any Owner, Planter, or Grower of Hops shall bag any Hops in any Bag, the Weight of which Bag shall be greater in Proportion to the gross Weight of such Bag and the Hops contained therein than ten Pounds for every one hundred and twelve Pounds of the gross Weight of such Bag and the Hops contained therein, then and in every such Case every Owner, Planter, or Grower so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Hops shall not be bagged in Bags of greater Weight than in the Proportion of 10lb. for every 112lb. of the gross Weight of Bag and Hops, on Penalty of 20l.

IV. And be it further enacted, That when and as soon as any Officer of Excise shall have weighed and taken Account of any Hops for the Purpose of ascertaining and charging the Duty thereon, such Officer shall, and he is hereby authorized and required to mark, or cause to be marked, in large legible Figures, with durable Ink or Paint, on the Outside of each and every Bag or Pocket, containing such Hops, the true gross Weight of such Bag or Pocket of Hops, together with the Date of the Year in which such Hops were grown; and also with the true progressive Number of such Bag or Pocket, according to the Numbers of the Bags or Pockets of Hops weighed and charged to each Owner, Planter, or Grower of Hops, during the then current Year or Hop Season; such Number to be taken progressively, beginning One, Two, and so onwards, according to the Number of Bags or Pockets of Hops weighed and charged to each Owner, Planter, or Grower as aforesaid, in each such current Year or Hop Season; and if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit or alter, or cause, procure, or suffer to be counterfeited or altered, any or either of the Matters or Things herein-before directed to be marked, or caused to be marked and so marked, or cause to be marked by any such Owner, Planter, or Grower of Hops, or so herein-before directed to be marked, and so marked by any such Officer as aforesaid, the Person or Persons so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, severally forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and if any Person or Persons shall wilfully deface or obliterate any or either of the Matters or Things herein-before directed to be marked, or caused to be marked, and so marked, by any such Owner, Planter, or Grower of Hops, or herein-before directed to be marked, and so marked by any such Officer as aforesaid, or shall cause or procure any such Matter or Thing to be defaced or obliterated, or shall connive at any such Matter or Thing being so defaced or obliterated, the Person or Persons so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, severally forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Officer of Excise shall mark on the Bags the gross Weight with the Year of Growth, and the progressive Number according to the Number of Bags charged to each Owner for the Season.

Persons counterfeiting the Marks aforesaid shall forfeit 100l.; and for defacing Marks shall forfeit 20l.

Hops ſhall not be removed from the Place of weighing before the Expiration of 12 Hours, unleſs the ſame ſhall have been reweighed by the Superviſor, on Penalty of 50l.

V. 'And whereas it is expedient that no Planter or Owner of Hops to grow in Great Britain ſhould remove or convey away any Hops from his, her, or their Ouſts, Storehouſes, or other Places where ſuch Hops ſhall have been weighed by any inferior Officer of Exciſe until ſuch Time as is herein-after preſcribed;' be it therefore enacted, That no Owner, Planter, or Grower of Hops, growing or to grow in Great Britain, ſhall remove or convey away, or cauſe or ſuffer to be removed or conveyed away, any Hops from the Ouſt, Storehouſe, or other Place where the ſame ſhall have been weighed, for the Purpoſe of charging the Duty, before the Expiration of twelve Hours next after ſuch Hops ſhall have been ſo weighed, unleſs the ſame ſhall ſooner have been weighed or reweighed by the Superviſor of Exciſe; to the End that ſuch Superviſor may have an Opportunity to reweigh the ſame; and if upon the reweighing of any ſuch Hops, any additional Weight ſhall be found, ſuch Hops ſhall be liable to and chargeable with the Duty of Exciſe impoſed for or in reſpect of ſuch Hops, according to ſuch laſt mentioned Weight; and if any ſuch Owner, Planter, or Grower ſhall remove or convey away, or cauſe or ſuffer to be removed or conveyed away, any ſuch Hops, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Owner, Planter, or Grower of ſuch Hops ſo offending ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Owner of Hops ſhall not be obliged to give more than 24 Hours' Notice of his Intention to weigh them.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Planter or Owner of Hops to grow in Great Britain ſhall at any Time be obliged to give more than twenty-four Hours' Notice of his or her Intention to weigh Hops: Provided always, That the particular Time to be ſpecified in any ſuch Notice for the weighing of Hops, ſhall be between the Hours of Four in the Morning and Five in the Evening; any Thing in this or any other Act of Parliament to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Time of weighing between four in the Morning and five in the Evening.

No Officer inferior to a Superviſor ſhall be ſuffered to weigh Hops between Five in the Evening and Four in the Morning, on Penalty of 20l.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Officer of Exciſe, inferior to the Rank or Degree of a Superviſor of Exciſe, ſhall be at Liberty to weigh, or ſhall be permitted to weigh any Hops at any Ouſt, Storehouſe, or other Place of any Owner, Planter, or Grower of Hops, between the Hours of Five in the Evening and Four in the Morning; and if any ſuch Owner, Planter, or Grower ſhall permit or ſuffer any ſuch inferior Officer to weigh any ſuch Hops between the Hours aforeſaid, contrary to the Directions of this Act, every ſuch Owner, Planter, or Grower ſo offending ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit and loſe the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Owners of Hops ſhall keep Scales and Weights at the Place of weighing, and permit any Superviſor to uſe them, on Penalty of 50l.

If unjuſt Scales or Weights, &c. ſhall be uſed, they ſhall be forfeited, and the Owner ſhall forfeit 100l.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Owner, Planter, and Grower of Hops growing or to grow in Great Britain ſhall, and he, ſhe, and they reſpectively is and are hereby required to keep ſufficient and juſt Scales and Weights at his, her, or their Ouſts, Storehouſes, or other Places, where ſuch Hops ſhall have been ſo weighed, and alſo to permit and ſuffer any Superviſor of Exciſe to uſe the ſame for the Purpoſe of reweighing ſuch Hops; and if any ſuch Owner, Planter, or Grower ſhall neglect to keep ſuch Scales and Weights, or either of them, or ſhall not permit or ſuffer any Superviſor of Exciſe to uſe the ſame for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, he, ſhe, or they ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; and if any ſuch Owner, Planter, or Grower ſhall, for the reweighing of any ſuch Hops, provide or make uſe of, or cauſe or procure, or ſuffer to be provided or made uſe of, any falſe, unjuſt, or inſufficient Scales or Weights, or ſhall practiſe any Act, Device, or Contrivance by which any ſuch Superviſor of Exciſe may be hindered or prevented from taking the juſt and true Weight of any ſuch Hops, then and in every ſuch Caſe ſuch Owner, Planter, or Grower ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, together with all ſuch falſe, unjuſt, or inſufficient Scales and Weights reſpectively, and the ſame ſhall and may be ſeized by any Superviſor or Officer of Exciſe.

Owners, when required by Superviſor, ſhall put Hops into the Scale to be reweighed, and aſſiſt him therein, on Penalty of 50l.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Owner, Planter, and Grower of Hops growing or to grow in Great Britain, ſhall, when and ſo often as he, ſhe, or they ſhall be thereunto required by any Superviſor of Exciſe, bring, or cauſe to be brought to, and be put into and taken out of, the Scale, all Hops belonging to ſuch Owner, Planter, or Grower, and which ſuch Superviſor ſhall be deſirous to reweigh, and ſhall alſo, on the Requeſt of ſuch Superviſor, by themſelves reſpectively, and with a ſufficient Number of their Servants, aid and aſſiſt, to the utmoſt of their Power, ſuch Superviſor of Exciſe in reweighing all ſuch Hops of ſuch Owner, Planter, or Grower, on Pain of forfeiting, for every Neglect or Refuſal thereof, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Perſons obſtructing Officers in the Execution of their Duty, ſhall forfeit 100l.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall aſſault, oppoſe, moleſt, obſtruct, or hinder, any Officer or Officers of Exciſe in the due Execution of this Act, or of any of the Powers or Authorities given by this Act, all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, ſeverally forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Penalties and Forfeitures, how to be levied and applied.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures impoſed by this Act, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by ſuch Ways, Means, or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, may be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland reſpectively, and that one Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall inform, diſcover, or ſue for the ſame.

CAP. LXXXII.

An Act for ſuſpending, until the twentieth Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred, the Duties on Foreign Hops imported, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for repealing the ſeveral Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for other Purpoſes, a Duty of Cuſtoms of five Pounds eighteen Shillings and ten Pence is impoſed upon every Hundred Weight of Hops imported into Great Britain, and by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts certain other Duties have been impoſed in Addition thereto: And whereas it is expedient that ſo much of the ſaid Acts as impoſes the Duties on Hops imported ſhould be ſuſpended for a limited Time, and that other Duties ſhould be impoſed in lieu thereof during ſuch Suſpenſion;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, ſo much of the ſaid Acts as impoſes the ſaid Duties upon the Importation of Hops ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby ſuſpended unto and until the twentieth Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred. 27 Geo. 3. c. 13.

So much of recited Act, and of ſubſequent Acts, as impoſes Duties on the Importation of Hops ſhall be ſuſpended till Aug. 20, 1800;

II. And be it further enacted, That, until the ſaid twentieth Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred, inſtead and in lieu of the ſaid Duties hereby ſuſpended, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, a Duty of Cuſtoms upon every Pound Weight Avoirdupois of Hops imported into Great Britain, the Sum of one Penny and twelve Twentieth Parts of a Farthing, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; and that ſo much of the ſaid Duties hereby ſuſpended, as became due and payable between the firſt Day of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine and the Time of the paſſing of this Act, ſhall not be paid or payable, but inſtead and in lieu thereof, the Duty by this Act granted ſhall be paid, and upon the Payment thereof, any Bonds that ſhall have been entered into for Payment of the Duties hereby ſuſpended ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby declared to be null and void, and ſhall be cancelled accordingly.

And inſtead of the Duties ſo ſuſpended there ſhall be paid a Cuſtom Duty on every lb. of Hops imported of 1d. and 12-20ths of a Farthing; which Duty ſhall alſo be paid in lieu of thoſe payable between Nov. 1, 1799, and the paſſing of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duty by this Act granted ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and applied in like Manner and under ſuch and the ſame Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Duties on the Importation of Hops are now raiſed, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and applied by virtue and in purſuance of the ſaid Act, paſſed in the twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty.

Duty ſhall be levied and applied in the ſame Manner as the Duties under recited Act.

CAP. LXXXIII.

An Act for permitting French Wines to be imported into this Kingdom from the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, or Alderney, in Bottles or Flaſks. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for repealing the ſeveral Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the ſaid Duties, together with the other Duties compoſing the Publick Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt, amongſt other Things, Proviſion is made reſpecting the Importation of French Wine into Great Britain from the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, or Alderney, for a limited Time, (which has expired,) on Payment of certain Duties therein enumerated: And whereas it is expedient that ſuch Wine ſhould be permitted to be ſo imported;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the tenth Day of May one thouſand eight hundred, it ſhall and may be lawful to import into Great Britain from the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, or Alderney, any French Wines in Bottles or Flaſks, as well for Sale as for private Uſe, on Payment of the ſeveral and reſpective Duties as the ſame are reſpectively inſerted, deſcribed, and ſet forth in the Table and Schedule annexed to the ſaid recited Act, marked C. and F., and all other Duties, as well Cuſtoms or Exciſe, as are now due and payable on the Importation of ſuch Wines by any other Act or Acts of Parliament; provided that ſuch Wines ſhall be imported in Britiſh-built Ships or Veſſels, owned, navigated, and regiſtered according to Law, and in ſuch Manner, and under the like Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Reſtrictions, and ſhall be ſubject and liable to ſuch and the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are provided and enacted in the ſaid recited Act. 27 Geo. 3. c. 13. [§ 22.]

From May 10, 1800, French Wines in Bottles or Flaſks may be imported in Britiſh Ships from Guernſey, Jerſey, or Alderney, on Payment of the Duties ſet forth in the Table of the recited Act marked C. and F. and all other Duties payable on ſuch Wines imported;

II. And be it further enacted, That if any French Wines in Bottles or Flaſks ſhall have been ſo imported into Great Britain, from Guernſey, Jerſey, or Alderney, ſince the Expiration of the Time limited in the ſaid recited Act as aforeſaid, the ſame ſhall be ſubject and liable to the Payment of, and ſhall be charged with ration of the Time limited by the recited Act shall be charged with the same Duties.

with the several and respective Duties, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the said Table and Schedule annexed to the said recited Act, marked C. and F., any Law to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

CAP. LXXXIV.

An Act to render valid Indentures of Apprenticeship of Poor Children and others, made upon improper Stamps, upon certain Conditions, and to indemnify all Persons who may have incurred Penalties thereby; and for allowing attested Copies of Indentures, Leases, or Deeds to be stamped after the ingrossing, writing, or printing thereof. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS divers Indentures of Apprenticeship, made for the binding Poor Children and others, have through Mistake and Inadvertency, and without any Intention to defraud the Revenue, been made out and executed upon Stamps of a different Denomination and Value than is required by the several Acts relating to the Stamp Duties charged and payable upon Indentures of Apprenticeship, and by Reason thereof great Inconvenience has arisen and may arise to the Masters and Mistresses of such Apprentices, and to such Apprentices, by Reason that such Indentures are not valid or binding upon any of the Parties thereto: And whereas it is expedient that the same should be rectified:' For Remedy whereof, May it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That upon Payment, on or before the first Day of January one thousand eight hundred and one, of the full Rate or Duty payable in respect of any such Indenture, or on the Production at the Head Office of Stamps of any such Indentures of Apprenticeship where the same shall have been stamped with any Stamp of a higher Value though of a different Denomination than is required by Law, every such Indenture shall, on being tendered at the proper Place in the Stamp Office where such Indentures are stamped, during the Time of Office Hours, be stamped with the proper Stamp for such Indentures, without the Payment of any Penalty whatever; and every such Indenture being so stamped as aforesaid with the proper Stamp (whether the same shall be so stamped during the Time mentioned in any such Indenture, or after the Expiration thereof) shall thereupon be good, valid, and available in Law and Equity, and shall be binding upon all the Parties thereto, and shall be deemed to have been in full Force from the Execution thereof, and shall and may be given in Evidence in any Court or Courts whatsoever, and the several Clerks, Apprentices, or Servants, therein respectively named, shall be capable of following and exercising their respective intended Profession, Trade, Employment, or Business, as fully as if the said Indenture had been properly stamped at or after the Execution thereof; and all and every Person or Persons who hath or have incurred any Penalty or Forfeiture by any such Neglect or Omission as aforesaid, shall be acquitted and discharged of and from, and indemnified against the same, except only in such Cases where any Prosecution shall be now depending; any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Indentures of Apprenticeship improperly stamped, on Payment by Jan. 1, 1801, of the full Duty payable thereon, or such as have been stamped with a Stamp of a higher Value, shall be stamped with the proper Stamp, without Payment of any Penalty, and shall then be valid.

II. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, certain Stamp Duties were granted upon every Copy purporting to be a true Copy, or attested to be a true Copy, of any Indenture, Lease, or other Deed, or any Part thereof, for the Security or Use of any Person other than the Person having or being entitled to the Custody of such Indenture, Lease, or other Deed: And whereas by an Act, passed in this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to amend several Laws relating to the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, the said Stamp Duties were repealed as to certain Copies in the said Act described, and other Duties granted in lieu thereof: And whereas it would greatly tend to increase the Number of Copies of Indentures, Leases, and other Deeds liable to the said Duties, if the same were allowed to be stamped after the ingrossing, writing, or printing thereof, to the great Increase of the said Stamp Duties thereon;' be it therefore enacted, That in case any Copy, purporting to be a true Copy, or attested to be a true Copy, of any Indenture, Lease, or other Deed, and liable to either of the Duties granted by either of the said recited Acts, shall, within sixty Days after the Date of the Attestation of such Copy, be brought to the Head Office of the said Commissioners of Stamps to be stamped with either of the said Duties, according to the Nature and Description of such Copy, then and in such Case it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized to cause the same to be stamped with the proper Stamp, upon Payment of the Duty only, and without any Penalty whatsoever.

Copies of Indentures or other Deeds liable to the Duties granted by 37 Geo. 3. c. 90. and c. 72. of this Session, may be stamped within 60 Days after Date of Attestation, on Payment of the Duty only.

CAP. LXXXV.

An Act to continue, until the fifth Day of April one thousand eight hundred and one, and amend, an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for continuing several Acts for the Encouragement of the British Fisheries. [28th July 1800.]

39 Geo. 3. c. 100.

'WHEREAS an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to revive and continue, until the End of the next Session of Parliament, an Act made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, to continue and amend an Act made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the British Fisheries," and to amend

'amend an Act made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for extending the Fisheries, 'and improving the Sea Coasts of this Kingdom, will expire at the End of the present Session of Parliament: 'And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be further continued;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, and all the Powers and Provisions therein contained, shall continue and be in force until the fifth Day of April one thousand eight hundred and one.

Recited Act shall continue in force till April 5, 1801.

II. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to continue and amend an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the British Fisheries," an additional Bounty of one Shilling per Barrel was directed to be paid for all Herrings which should be landed from any Boat or Vessel not entitled to the Bounty of twenty Shillings per Ton, but entitled to the Bounty of one Shilling per Barrel, granted by an Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the British Fisheries: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether Fishers and Curers of Fish, residing in the Isle of Man, are entitled to the Benefits of the said additional Bounty;' be it hereby enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, and during the Continuance thereof, the said Fishers and Curers of Fish, residing in the said Island, shall have and receive the said last mentioned additional Bounty for all Herrings landed in the said Island, in like Manner as Fish Curers residing in Great Britain are entitled to receive such Bounty for Herrings landed in Great Britain: Provided always, That in every such Case the said additional Bounty shall be payable and paid out of the Surplusage of the annual Customs of the said Island, in such Manner as is prescribed and directed by the said Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and not otherways.

The Fishers and Curers of Fish in the Isle of Man shall be entitled to the additional Bounty of 1s. granted by 35 Geo. 3 c. 56. [§ 3] for every Barrel of Herrings landed in that Island, to be paid out of the Surplusage of the Customs there, in Manner directed by 26 Geo. 3. c. 81. [§ 33. &c.]

CAP. LXXXVI.

An Act for the better Preservation of Timber in the New Forest, in the County of Southampton; and for ascertaining the Boundaries of the said Forest, and of the Lands of the Crown within the same. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the Increase and Preservation of Timber in the New Forest, in the County of Southampton, divers Provisions and Regulations were made for preserving and increasing the Growth of Timber in the said Forest; but notwithstanding the said Act, the Timber and Woods in the said Forest have not been properly preserved, and many Trespasses are frequently committed therein; and it is expedient that some further Provisions and Regulations should be made for preventing the same, and for preserving the Growth of the Timber and Woods in the said Forest: And whereas the Boundaries of the said Forest, and of the Lands of his Majesty's Subjects within the same, are in some Parts disputed, and in other Parts are not clearly ascertained and distinguished, and several Purprestures, Encroachments, and Trespasses have been made on the Soil of his Majesty within the Boundaries of the said Forest;' for Remedy thereof, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty to issue or cause to be issued, one or more Commission or Commissions under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and thereby to appoint Nathaniel Bond Esquire, one of his Majesty's Council learned in the Law, John Lens Esquire, Serjeant at Law, and James Burrough Esquire, Barrister at Law, to be Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, and to authorize and empower the said Commissioners so to be appointed, or any two of them, to ascertain and distinguish the Boundaries of the said Forest called the New Forest, and of the Lands of his Majesty's Subjects within the same, and to enquire of Purprestures, Encroachments, and Trespasses on the Soil of his Majesty within the Boundaries of the said Forest; and the said Commissioners, or any two of them, shall and may, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to meet at such Time, and at such Place within the said County of Southampton, as they or any two of them shall appoint, and then and there to proceed in a summary way, and by the Testimony of Witnesses upon Oath, (which Oath any one of the said Commissioners is hereby empowered to administer,) and by the Inspection and Examination of Records, Deeds, and Writings, or by any other legal Proof or Evidence, to enquire of and ascertain the Boundaries of the said Forest, and of the Lands and Grounds belonging to his Majesty within the same, and the Boundaries between Lands belonging to his Majesty and Lands of any of his Majesty's Subjects, and in like Manner to enquire of and examine all Claims or Titles that shall or may be made to any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which shall be claimed on Behalf of his Majesty as Purprestures, Encroachments, or Trespasses in or upon the Soil of his Majesty within the said Forest.

9 and 10 Gul. 3. c. 36. recited.

His Majesty may appoint Commissioners to ascertain and distinguish the Boundaries of the New Forest, and of the Lands of his Majesty and his Subjects within the same, and to enquire of Purprestures, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That if the said Commissioners, in ascertaining and settling the Matters aforesaid, shall find any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Boundary, to be in Dispute between his Majesty and any other Person or Persons, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to receive Proposals, from the Person and Persons claiming against his Majesty, for compromising such Dispute; and if the said Commissioners shall approve of the Compromise proposed, and the Value of so much of the Matter in Dispute, as shall not be proposed by such Compromise to be yielded to his Majesty, shall not in the Judgment of the said Commissioners exceed the Sum of one thousand Pounds, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners,

The Commissioners may compromise Disputes where the Value of so much of the Matter in Dispute, as shall not be proposed to be yielded to his Majeſty, ſhall not exceed 1000l. but if it exceed that Sum, they ſhall tranſmit a Report of the Matter to the Treaſury, with their Opinion; and if the propoſed Compromiſe be approved, they may ſettle the Matter accordingly.

miſſioners, and they are hereby authorized to compromize ſuch Diſpute on Behalf of his Majeſty, and to ſettle and fix the Matter in Diſpute accordingly by Writing under their Hands and Seals; which Writing ſhall be inrolled in Manner herein-after directed, and ſhall be binding and concluſive on his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and on the Party or Parties propoſing ſuch Compromiſe, and all Perſons claiming under them; but if the Matter in Diſpute ſhall be of greater Value than the Sum of one thouſand Pounds beyond the Value of what ſhall be propoſed to be yielded to his Majeſty, then the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, as ſoon as conveniently may be, prepare and make a Report of the Matter ſo in Diſpute, and of the Value thereof, and alſo of the Propoſals which ſhall have been made to them for compromiſing the ſame, and ſhall tranſmit ſuch Report to the Lord High Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, together with their Opinion whether ſuch Propoſals for compromiſe ought to be accepted or refuſed, or whether the Matter ought to be otherwiſe diſpoſed of; and if the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, ſhall ſignify their Approbation of the Compromiſe propoſed, then it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to be appointed in purſuance of this Act, to accept ſuch Terms of Compromiſe, and to ſettle and fix the Matters in Diſpute accordingly, in the Manner hereinbefore directed with reſpect to ſuch Caſes, in which the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby authorized to accept Terms of Compromiſe without making any ſuch previous Reports as aforeſaid.

If a Claimant ſhall not make any Propoſal, or a Propoſal ſhall not be approved, the Commiſſioners ſhall aſcertain the Rights of his Majeſty; and if a Claimant ſhall ſignify his Submiſſion to the Matter being ſettled by their Award, their Deciſion (inrolled as directed by § 10. poſt.) ſhall be final. Where Parties ſhall not ſubmit to the Judgment of the Commiſſioners, the Matter may be tried in the Court of Exchequer, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That if the Perſon or Perſons claiming any Matter in Diſpute as aforeſaid ſhall not make any Propoſal to the ſaid Commiſſioners for ſettling ſuch Diſpute, or in caſe a Propoſal for ſuch Purpoſe ſhall be made which ſhall not be approved and accepted as aforeſaid, then and in any of the ſaid Caſes the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall proceed to aſcertain, as far as they ſhall be able, the Rights of his Majeſty in the Matters ſo in Diſpute; and in caſe the Perſon or Perſons claiming againſt his Majeſty ſhall ſignify his or their Submiſſion that the Matters ſo in Diſpute ſhall be ſettled by the Award of the ſaid Commiſſioners, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners not only to proceed to examine the Matters in Diſpute, and to receive ſuch Evidence as the Nature of the Caſe ſhall admit, but alſo thereupon to decide upon the Rights of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, and of his Majeſty reſpectively, and ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall make their Award accordingly, in Writing under their Hands and Seals, to be inrolled as herein-after mentioned, and ſuch Deciſion ſhall in ſuch Caſes be final; and if the Parties ſhall not think fit to ſubmit to the Judgment of the ſaid Commiſſioners, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to direct any Matter which they ſhall be unable otherwiſe to adjuſt and ſettle between the ſeveral Claimants and his Majeſty, to be tried in an Action or Actions in his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, upon any feigned Iſſue or Iſſues, to be ſettled by the ſaid Court, in caſe there ſhould be any Difference about the ſame, or by any Suit or Suits in Equity in the Court of Exchequer Chamber, or by making Entries or throwing open Incloſures, taking down Fences or removing Obſtructions, or by any other lawful Ways or Means as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think fit, and beſt adapted to produce a fair and ſpeedy Deciſion of the Matters ſo in Diſpute as aforeſaid; and if any Perſon or Perſons claiming againſt his Majeſty, ſhall be deſirous of trying his or their Rights in an Action at Law, or upon a feigned Iſſue or Iſſues, and ſhall ſignify his or their Intention ſo to do to the ſaid Commiſſioners, it ſhall be lawful to make the ſaid Commiſſioners Defendants in ſuch Action or Iſſue for that Purpoſe; and the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, and they are hereby required to appear to ſuch Action, and defend the ſame in their own Names, and to accept a Declaration and plead to Iſſue therein: Provided always, That the Venue in ſuch Action or Iſſue, ſhall be laid in the County of Southampton; and that the Plaintiff therein ſhall proceed in ſuch Action ſo as that the ſame may be tried at the firſt or ſecond Aſſizes to be holden for the ſaid County next after the Defendants therein ſhall have pleaded to Iſſue.

In Actions the Venue ſhall be laid in the County of Southampton, and ſhall be tried at the firſt or ſecond Aſſizes after the Defendants ſhall have pleaded to Iſſue.

If Timber, &c. not exceeding the Value of 1000l. be ſtanding upon any Lands in Diſpute, the Commiſſioners may agree with the Claimant for the Application thereof, though the ſame, with the Land, ſhall exceed that Value.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Timber, or other Trees or Wood, not exceeding the Value of one thouſand Pounds, ſhall be ſtanding or being on any Lands in Diſpute between his Majeſty and any other Perſon or Perſons, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to receive Propoſals from the Perſon or Perſons claiming againſt his Majeſty, for the Diſpoſition or Application of ſuch Timber, or other Tree or Wood, not exceeding the Value aforeſaid; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners on the Behalf of his Majeſty, to enter into any Agreement with ſuch Perſon or Perſons for the felling, cutting down, Diſpoſition and Application of ſuch Timber, and other Trees and Wood, although the ſame, together with the Land whereon the ſame ſhall be ſtanding, ſhall exceed the Value of one thouſand Pounds; which Agreement, ſo to be made by the ſaid Commiſſioners on Behalf of his Majeſty, ſhall be binding on him, his Heirs and Succeſſors.

Corporations, Truſtees, &c. may compromiſe Diſputes with the Commiſſioners.

V. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for all Bodies Politick, and Corporations Aggregate or Sole, and all Truſtees for charitable or publick Purpoſes, and all Huſbands on Behalf of their Wives, and all Committees of Lunaticks, and all Guardians of Infants, and all Perſons having Authority to act for Perſons incapable of acting for themſelves, to make Propoſals to the ſaid Commiſſioners for compromiſing any Diſpute between his Majeſty and ſuch Bodies Politick, Corporations, Truſtees, married Women, Lunaticks, Infants, and other Perſons incapable of acting for themſelves, reſpecting any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within or adjoining to the ſaid Foreſt, or any Timber or other Trees or Wood ſtanding or growing thereon, and to compromiſe all or any of ſuch Diſputes with the ſaid Commiſſioners on Behalf of his Majeſty; and every ſuch Compromiſe, if made, ſhall be binding and concluſive on all ſuch Bodies Politick and Corporations, and all Perſons having any beneficial Intereſt in any ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Timber, Trees, and Wood, held in Truſt, and all ſuch married Women, Lunaticks, Infants, and other Perſons incapable of acting for themſelves, in ſuch and the ſame Manner as if the Perſons making ſuch Compromiſe had been ſeiſed in Fee Simple of and entitled to ſuch Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, Timber, Trees, and Wood, for his and their own Uſe and Benefit reſpectively.

Timber Trees cut down and allotted to Corporations, &c. not entitled to cut Timber, ſhall be ſold under the Direction of the Commiſſioners, and the Money (if amounting to 20l.) be inveſted in Land to be ſettled to the ſame Uſes as the Land in reſpect of which the Timber is claimed, &c.; and till ſuch Inveſtment the Money ſhall be paid into the Bank, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Timber Trees hereby authorized to be cut down for the Purpoſe of any ſuch Compromiſe as aforeſaid, ſhall be claimed in reſpect of any Land belonging to any Corporation, Truſtees, or Feoffees, or other Perſons who ſhall not be entitled to cut down Timber, then and in ſuch Caſe ſo much of ſuch Timber Trees as ſhall be conſidered by the ſaid Commiſſioners as to be allotted to ſuch Corporation, Truſtees, Feoffees, or other Perſons not entitled to cut Timber as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſold by or under the Direction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, in ſuch Manner as they ſhall appoint, and the Money ariſing from ſuch Sale ſhall, in caſe the ſame ſhall amount to the Sum of two hundred Pounds, with all convenient Speed, be inveſted in the Purchaſe of Lands or Hereditaments, which ſhall be conveyed in and ſettled upon, and ſubject to the like Uſes, Truſts, and Limitations as the Lands, in reſpect whereof ſuch Timber Trees ſhall be claimed, were ſettled or limited; and in the mean Time and until ſuch Purchaſe can be made, ſuch Money ſhall be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account there, ex parte the ſaid Commiſſioners, to the Intent that ſuch Money ſhall be applied under the Direction and with the Approbation of the ſaid Court, to be ſignified by an Order made upon Application, to be preferred in a ſummary Way, by the Perſon or Perſons claiming an Intereſt in ſuch Timber Trees, either in or towards the Purchaſe of Land Tax, or towards the Diſcharge of Debts or Incumbrances affecting Lands or Hereditaments ſettled to the ſame Uſes to which the Lands in reſpect of which ſuch Timber ſhall be claimed ſhall be ſettled; or until the ſame ſhall, upon the like Application, in a ſummary Way, be laid out by Order of the ſaid Court, in the Purchaſe of Lands or Hereditaments to be ſettled as aforeſaid; and in the mean Time, and until ſuch Order can be made, ſuch Money may, by Order of the ſaid Court, be laid out in ſome of the publick Funds, or on Government or Real Securities, and the Dividends or Intereſt ariſing therefrom ſhall, by Order of the ſaid Court, be paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as would, for the Time being, be entitled to the Rents and Profits of ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments ſo to be purchaſed, conveyed, and ſettled.

If the Commiſſioners ſhall find any Land belonging to his Majeſty which has been for 15 Years incloſed, and enjoyed without Interruption, and which has been improved, they may grant a Leaſe thereof: But if they ſhall direct the Incloſure to be thrown open, they may direct a Compenſation to be made for the Improvements.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall find that any Land within the ſaid Foreſt, which ſhall appear to them to belong to his Majeſty, hath been for fifteen Years or more incloſed and enjoyed by the Perſons in Poſſeſſion thereof, or thoſe under whom they claim, without any Interruption by or on the Part of his Majeſty, and that ſuch Lands have been conſiderably improved ſince the Incloſure thereof, at the Expence of the Perſons in Poſſeſſion thereof, or thoſe under whom they claim, and if the Perſon or Perſons in Poſſeſſion of ſuch Land, or claiming Title thereto, ſhall ſignify a Deſire to accept a Leaſe thereof from his Majeſty, upon reaſonable Terms, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, if they ſhall be of Opinion that the Continuance of ſuch Incloſures will not be prejudicial to the Growth, Increaſe, or Preſervation of the Timber Trees and Wood in the ſaid Foreſt, to order and direct that ſuch Lands ſhall continue incloſed, and ſhall be demiſed for ſuch Term of Years as ſhall appear to the ſaid Commiſſioners a reaſonable Compenſation for the Expence of Improvement; but nevertheleſs upon Payment of ſuch annual Rent or Rents to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall in their Judgment think proper and reaſonable; and a Leaſe ſhall be made accordingly, without any Fine, Fee, or Reward to be paid for the ſame; and ſuch Leaſe ſhall not be ſubject to any Stamp Duty: But if in any ſuch Caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall order or direct any ſuch Incloſure to be thrown open, and at the ſame Time ſhall be of Opinion that a Compenſation ought to be made to the Perſon or Perſons in Poſſeſſion thereof, or claiming Title thereto, for the Improvements made thereon, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to aſcertain the Compenſation which in their Opinion ought to be made for the ſame, although it ſhall appear to the ſaid Commiſſioners that the ſaid Incloſure was originally a Treſpaſs on the Soil of his Majeſty, and made without any lawful Authority, and the Compentation which the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall ſo direct to be made, ſhall be paid out of the firſt Money which ſhall be raiſed by Sale of Timber and Wood within the ſaid Foreſt.

The Commiſſioners ſhall give Notice of their Meetings in the London Gazette, and certain Newſpapers. Adjourned Meetings may be held without public Notice.

VIII. 'And to the Intent that no Perſon may have any juſt Cauſe or Pretence for not appearing before the ſaid Commiſſioneas at their Meetings, to be held for the Purpoſe of carrying this Act into Execution,' be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall give publick Notice of the Time and Place of every intended Meeting, by Publication of ſuch Notice fourteen Days at leaſt before ſuch Meeting, in the London Gazette, and in two or more publick Newſpapers publiſhed daily in London or Weſtminſter, and in two or more of the publick Newſpapers publiſhed in the ſaid County of Southampton, and in one or more of the publick Newſpapers publiſhed in the County of Wilts: Provided always, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any one of them, ſhall and may, from Time to Time, adjourn their Meetings to any future Day, and to any Place within the ſaid County of Southampton, as they ſhall think proper, and meet accordingly, without giving any publick Notice thereof in any Newſpaper.

Two Commiſſioners may appoint and hold Meetings, and the Majority preſent may do all Acts.

IX. And be it further enacted, That any two of the Commiſſioners ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall have full Power and Authority to appoint and hold Meetings for the Purpoſe of carrying this Act into Execution; and that at all Meetings of the ſaid Commiſſioners under the Authority of this Act, or the ſaid Commiſſion or Commiſſions, the major Part of the Commiſſioners then preſent ſhall have full Power and Authority to do, exerciſe, and perform all ſuch Acts, Powers, Authorities, Matters, and Things, as in and by this Act, or the ſaid Commiſſion or Commiſſions to be iſſued in purſuance thereof, are or ſhall be directed, authorized, or empowered to be done, exerciſed, or performed by the ſaid Commiſſioners.

The Proceedings of the Commiſſioners

X. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners acting under the ſaid Commiſſion, ſhall and they are hereby required to cauſe all their Enquiries, Examinations, and Proceedings under this Act, to be shall be entered in Books, which shall be returned into the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue, and all Contracts be enrolled there.

be fairly entered in Books to be kept for that Purpose; all which Books, duly signed and certified by the said Commissioners, or any two of them, shall be returned into the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue, there to remain and be kept; and all Contracts and Agreements by Way of Compromise or otherwise, under the Authority of this Act, shall be inrolled, by Warrant signed by one or more of the said Commissioners, with the Auditor of the Land Revenue.

If Boundaries cannot be ascertained by sufficient Marks or Descriptions in Writing, the Commissioners shall cause them to be marked with Stones placed at proper Distances. Penalty on Persons pulling up such Stones or defacing the Marks thereon, from 10l. to 40s. * [See § 24. 27.]

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any of the Boundaries of the said Forest, or of any of the Lands of the Crown within the same, shall be so situate that the said Commissioners shall not be able fully to ascertain them by permanent, plain, and sufficient Marks, or Descriptions in Writing, so that the same may thereby be fully known at all Times, the said Commissioners shall cause all such Boundaries to be marked with Stones, to be placed at proper Distances from each other; and if the Land whereon such Boundary Stones shall be placed shall not be the Soil of the Crown, although within the Boundaries of the said Forest, shall cause the Letters N. F. in large Roman Characters, and the Date of the Year in which such Stones shall be put up, and also a Number (in numerical Order) to be cut or engraven on each of the said Stones; and if the Land whereon such Boundary Stones shall be placed shall be Land of the Crown, the Letters C. L. N. F. in large Roman Characters, shall be cut or engraven on such Stones: and if any Person shall wilfully or wantonly pull up, break down, remove, or damage any of the said Mark Stones, or destroy, spoil, or deface any of the Letters, or other Marks engraven or cut thereon by Order of the said Commissioners, such Person shall be guilty of an Offence, and shall for every such Offence, being lawfully convicted thereof, forfeit and lose any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds nor less than forty Shillings; to be recovered and applied in Manner herein-after mentioned *.

When the Commissioners shall have ascertained the Boundaries, they shall cause a Map to be made, in which the Boundaries of the Forest and the Lands therein belonging to his Majesty shall be distinguished, as also the Lands of other Persons as far as can be ascertained; and one certified Copy shall be transmitted to the Steward of the Forest, and the other to the Auditor of the Land Revenue.

XII. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the said Commissioners shall have ascertained and settled the Boundaries of the said Forest, and the Lands within the same which belong to his Majesty, they shall cause a Map or Plan to be made of the said Forest, in which Map or Plan, the Boundaries of the said Forest, and the Lands within the same belonging to his Majesty, as ascertained and settled by the said Commissioners, shall be accurately and distinctly marked, set out, and distinguished, and the Lands within the Bounds of the said Forest belonging to other Persons, shall also be marked and distinguished in the said Map or Plan, so far as the said Commissioners shall be able to ascertain the same; and the said Commissioners shall cause two Parts, to be made of such Map or Plan, and they or any two of them shall attest and certify the Truth and Accuracy of both such Parts, by signing their Names thereto; and one Part of the said Map or Plan so certified by the said Commissioners, or any two of them, shall be transmitted by them to the Steward of the said Forest, or his Under Steward, to be deposited amongst and kept with the Records of the Court of Attachments of the said Forest, held at Lyndhurst in the said County of Southampton, and the other Part of the said Map or Plan, certified as aforesaid, shall be transmitted to the Auditor of the Land Revenue, to be kept in his Office.

The Commissioners on Request shall certify in what Manner disputed Boundaries shall have been settled, and return such Certificate to the Auditor of the Land Revenue, and also deliver a Copy to the Party interested, he paying for the same.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the said Commissioners shall have ascertained and settled the Boundaries of any Part of the said Forest, or of any Lands within the same, which have been disputed, they shall, if requested so to do by any Person or Persons interested therein, certify in Writing under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands and Seals of two of them, in what Manner such disputed Boundaries shall have been so ascertained and settled, and return such Certificate to the Auditor of the Land Revenue, to be filed in his Office, and shall also, at the Request of any Person or Persons so interested, deliver a Copy of such Certificate to such Person or Persons, he, she, or they paying for the same, to the Clerk of the said Commissioners, at and after the Rate of three Pence per Sheet and no more.

After one Part of the Map shall have been deposited amongst the Records of the Court of Attachments of the Forest, all unlawful Inclosures, &c. shall be inquired of by the Verderers in the said Court, who may fine Offenders not exceeding 10l. and order the Inclosures to be abated.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That after the said Map or Plan of the said Forest shall have been made and completed, and one Part thereof, signed and certified by the said Commissioners, shall have been deposited amongst the Records of the said Court of Attachments of the said Forest as aforesaid, all unlawful Inclosures, Purprestures, Encroachments, and Trespasses whatsoever within the said Forest, shall and may be enquired of by the Verderers of the said Forest, in the Court of Attachments of the said Forest; and the Person or Persons guilty of any such Inclosure, Purpresture, Encroachment, or Trespass, shall and may be prosecuted for the same in the said Court, and upon Proof being made thereof by the Oath of one credible Witness, the Verderers of the said Forest, or any two of them present at the said Court, shall have Power, and they are hereby authorized, to fine any Person or Persons so offending, for every such Offence, in any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, to be recovered and applied in the Manner herein-after provided for; and to order and direct every such Inclosure, Purpresture, Encroachment, and Trespass, to be abated by the Regarders, Under Keepers, or other Officers of the said Forest, who shall abate the same accordingly:

If any Question shall arise respecting the Boundaries of the Forest &c. they shall be

XV. And be it further enacted, That after the said Map or Plan shall have been made and completed, and one Part thereof, signed and certified by the said Commissioners, shall have been deposited amongst the Records of the said Court of Attachments of the said Forest as aforesaid, if any Question shall arise or be made respecting the Boundaries of the said Forest or any Part thereof, or whether any Piece or Parcel of Land decided by the Map, which ſhall be admitted as concluſive Evidence.

Land is within the ſaid Foreſt, or whether any Piece or Parcel of Land being within the ſaid Foreſt belongs to his Majeſty, or to any Perſon or Perſons claiming againſt him, all ſuch Queſtions ſhall be tried and decided by the ſaid Map or Plan, and either Part thereof being produced ſhall be admitted and received in all Actions, Suits, and Proceedings, brought, commenced, or had in any Court of Law or Equity, or before any Juſtice of the Peace or other ſummary Juriſdiction, as concluſive Evidence of the Boundaries of the ſaid Foreſt and of the local Situation of ſuch Lands, as to the ſaid Foreſt and the Right of Property to or in the ſame as between his Majeſty and any of his Majeſty's Subjects.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if after the ſaid Map or Plan ſhall have been made and completed, and one Part thereof ſhall have been depoſited as aforeſaid, any Order ſhall be made by the Verderers, at any Court of Attachments or Swainmote Court to be holden for the ſaid Foreſt, for the Abatement of any unlawful Incloſure, and pulling down the Fences thereof, or for pulling down any Building or Erection thereon, by the proper Officer or Officers of the ſaid Court or Foreſt, if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall retain, or attempt to retain, the poſſeſſion of any ſuch Incloſure or Building ſo ordered to be thrown open or taken down by the ſaid Court, or again to incloſe any Land ſo ordered to be, and actually thrown open, or again to ſet up or erect any Fence or Building ordered to be, and actually pulled down, removed, or abated, or ſhall obſtruct, oppoſe, or moleſt any Officer of the ſaid Court or Foreſt in throwing open any ſuch Incloſure, or in pulling down, removing, or abating any Fence, Building, or Erection, purſuant to any ſuch Order, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be guilty of an Offence, and ſhall and may be proſecuted for every ſuch Offence by Indictment or Information, and being thereof duly convicted, ſhall and may be puniſhed for the ſame by Fine or Impriſonment at the Diſcretion of the Court before whom he or they ſhall be tried.

If any Perſon ſhall retain Poſſeſſion of any Incloſure or Building ordered to be thrown open or taken down by the Court of Attachments, or again incloſe ſuch Land or ſet up ſuch Building, or ſhall obſtruct any Officer inforcing ſuch Order, he ſhall be proſecuted by Indictment or Information, and puniſhed by Fine or Impriſonment, at the Diſcretion of the Court before which he is tried.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Verderers of the ſaid Foreſt, or any two of them, at any Court of Attachments holden for the ſaid Foreſt, by Warrant or Warrants under the Hands and Seals of them, or any two of them, to nominate and appoint any Perſon or Perſons to be the Officer or Officers of the ſaid Court and Foreſt, for the Purpoſe of executing the Judgments and Orders of the ſaid Court from Time to Time given and made; and the Perſon or Perſons ſo appointed ſhall, during the Time mentioned in ſuch Warrants, or until the ſame be recalled, or their Appointment revoked by the Officer or Officers of the ſaid Court and Foreſt, have full Power and Authority to execute the Judgments and Orders of the ſaid Court within the ſaid Foreſt, in ſuch and the ſame Manner, and by ſuch and the ſame Means, as any Conſtable or other Peace Officer can or may by Law execute the Warrant of any Juſtice of the Peace, for any County; and the ſaid Verderers, or any two of them, ſhall and may fix and allow proper Fees to be paid to or taken by ſuch Officer or Officers, as the ſaid Verderers ſhall in their Diſcretion think fit.

The Verderers at any Court of Attachments may appoint Officers for executing the Orders of the Court, who ſhall have the Authority of Peace Officers.

The Verderers may fix the Fees to be taken by the Officers.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Under Foreſter and Groom Keeper of the ſaid Foreſt ſhall, within the Space of one Calendar Month next before the holding of the firſt Court of Attachments in each Year, and within a reaſonable Time before the holding any other Court of Attachments for the ſaid Foreſt, carefully ſurvey ſuch Part thereof as lies or is ſituate within his Walk, and take an Account of all Incloſures, Purpreſtures, Encroachments, and Treſpaſſes whatever, made, done, or committed within the ſame ſince the preceding Survey of the ſame Walk, or which were not noticed in ſuch preceding Survey; and every ſuch Under Foreſter and Groom Keeper ſhall, at every Court of Attachments holden for the ſaid Foreſt, make and deliver to the Verderers thereof then preſent, a true Return and Preſentment of all the Incloſures, Purpreſtures, Encroachments, and Treſpaſſes which ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper ſhall find to have been made, done, or committed within his Walk ſince the laſt Survey of the ſame Walk, or which he ſhall not have returned or preſented at the preceding or ſome former Court, or which, having been made before ſuch laſt Survey, ſhall not have been abated, and at what Time or Times, and in what Particular Part or Parts of the Walk, and by whom, all ſuch Incloſures, Purpreſtures, Encroachments, and Treſpaſſes have been made, done, or committed, ſo far as ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper hath been able to aſcertain the ſame; and every ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper ſhall at the Time of making or delivering in his ſaid Return or Preſentment, make Oath before the ſaid Verderers (which Oath they or any one of them is hereby authorized to adminiſter) that, to the beſt of his Knowledge, Information, and Belief, no Incloſure, Purpreſture, Encroachment, or Treſpaſs, hath been made, done, or committed, or then exiſts, within his Walk, other than ſuch as are contained and deſcribed in the Return or Preſentment then made, and delivered in by him, or made or delivered in at the preceding or ſome former Court, ſpecifying the Time at which the ſame was held.

Under Foreſters and Groom Keepers ſhall, before the holding of Courts of Attachments, ſurvey ſuch Parts of the Foreſt as lie within their Walks, and take an Account of all Incloſures, &c. ſince their laſt Survey, and ſhall deliver to the Verderers at the Court Preſentments of Incloſures, &c. and make Oath as to certain Particulars.

XIX. 'And whereas the quantity of Land which hath been incloſed for the planting of Timber Trees 'under the Authority of the ſaid Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King 'William, doth not amount to more than three thouſand three hundred Acres; and it would probably be highly 'advantageous to the Growth of Timber in the ſaid Foreſt, if a proper Quantity of Land were incloſed 'and cultivated for the Purpoſe of ſupplying the Deer of the ſaid Foreſt with Food during the Winter 'Seaſon, in order to prevent the Deſtruction of Timber by the cutting of Browſe Wood; and that, after 'a Time to be limited, the Practice of cutting Browſe Wood ſhould be wholly aboliſhed:' Be it enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty to cauſe ſuch Quantities of Land within the ſaid Foreſt as his Majeſty ſhall think fit, not exceeding in the Whole four hundred Acres, to be incloſed and perpetually preſerved for the Purpoſe of producing Hay for the Uſe of the Deer kept within the ſaid Foreſt; which Land ſo to be incloſed ſhall be deemed and taken to be Part of the Land authorized to be incloſed by the ſaid Act of

Not more than 3300 Acres of Land incloſed for planting Timber Trees under Authority of Act of 9 and 10 Gul. 3. c. 36.

His Majeſty may cauſe 400 Acres of Land within the Foreſt to be of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King William, notwithſtanding the ſame ſhall be cultivated and uſed for the Production of Hay as aforeſaid; and the ſame ſhall be continually kept in his Majeſty's Hands, for the Purpoſe of producing Hay for the Deer, and ſhall not be let or occupied in any other Manner, or for any other Purpoſe; and ſuch Land ſo to be incloſed ſhall be taken in ſuch Parcels and in ſuch Places as ſhall be found to be moſt convenient to be incloſed, and to be moſt fit for the Purpoſe, and which may be ſpared from the Commons and Highways of the County.

Incloſed for producing Hay for the Deer, which ſhall be deemed Part of the Land authorized to be incloſed by recited Act, and ſhall be continually kept in his Majeſty's Hands for that Purpoſe.

The Under Foreſters or Groom Keepers for three Years after paſſing this Act, ſhall deliver to the Verderers at the firſt Attachment Court in each Year, an Account of the Number of Deer within their reſpective Walks, &c. and the Court, if thought expedient, ſhall aſſign the Quantity, &c. of Browſe Wood to be cut by each for the enſuing Seaſon; and after the ſaid three Years no Browſe Wood ſhall be cut. If during that Term any Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper ſhall cut or take any Wood not ſo aſſigned, or ſhall apply to his own Uſe any Wood ſo aſſigned, or after that Term ſhall cut or take any Wood or Browſe Wood, he ſhall forfeit every Office within the Foreſt or the Courts thereof. His Majeſty, &c. may re appoint the Offender to his Office.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Under Foreſters or Groom Keepers of the ſeveral Walks within the ſaid Foreſt ſhall, at every Court of Attachments or Swainmote Court holden for the ſaid Foreſt for the Space of three Years after the paſſing of this Act, deliver to the Verderers of the ſaid Foreſt, at the firſt Attachment Court in each Year, an Account in Writing of the Number or Head of Deer then being within their reſpective Walks, and of the Quantity of Browſe Wood which will be wanted for the Uſe of the ſaid Deer for the enſuing Seaſon, and in what Places or Parts of the ſaid Foreſt they the ſaid Under Foreſters or Groom Keepers propoſe to take the ſaid Browſe Wood; and the ſaid Court, upon examining the Accounts and Propoſals, and alſo the ſaid Under Foreſters or Groom Keepers, (if it ſhall be thought neceſſary or expedient ſo to do), ſhall aſſign and ſet out, and make Orders in Writing reſpecting the Quantity of Browſe Wood to be taken and cut by each of the ſaid Under Foreſters or Groom Keepers, for the Uſe of the Deer within his Walk for the enſuing Seaſon, and the particular Kind of Wood to be taken for Browſe, and the particular Part or Place within the ſaid Foreſt from which the ſame ſhall be taken; and from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of three Years after the paſſing of this Act, no Wood ſhall be cut for Browſe under any Authority or Pretence whatever; and if, during the ſaid Term of three Years, any Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper ſhall cut or take, or cauſe or procure to be cut or taken, any Limb or Branch of any Tree, or any other Wood within the ſaid Foreſt, which, either in Quantity, Kind, or Locality, ſhall not have been aſſigned or ſet out and ordered by the ſaid Court to be taken or cut by ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper as Browſe Wood for the Uſe of the Deer within his Walk, or ſhall ſell, or in any Manner apply to his own Uſe or Benefit, any Wood aſſigned or ſet out as aforeſaid to be taken or cut for Browſe Wood, or if, after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of three Years, any ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper ſhall cut or take any Wood or Browſe Wood under any Authority or Pretence whatever, every ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper ſhall be deemed and taken to offend againſt this Act, and being thereof lawfully convicted by or in the ſaid Court, he ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and be deprived of his Office of Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper, and every other Office which he ſhall have within the ſaid Foreſt, or in the Courts thereof: Provided always, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, or the Perſon entitled to appoint to the Office of Under Foreſter, Groom Keeper, or other Office ſo forfeited, to re-appoint or reſtore ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper to ſuch Office, if his Majeſty or the Perſon entitled to the Appointment ſhall think fit.

While Browſe Wood ſhall be allowed to be cut, every Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper ſhall at every Court of Attachments deliver to the Verderers an Account of the Browſe Wood cut and taken by him ſince the preceding Court, &c. Penalty not exceeding 20 l. for neglecting to make ſuch Return, or for making a falſe one.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That during ſo long Time as Browſe Wood ſhall be allowed to be cut or taken under the Authority of this Act, every Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper of the ſaid Foreſt ſhall, at every Court of Attachments holden for the ſaid Foreſt, make and deliver in to the Verderers then preſent, upon Oath to be adminiſtered by one of ſuch Verderers, a true Return and Account of all the Wood cut or taken by ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper as Browſe Wood for the Deer within his Walk, ſince the holding of the preceding Court of Attachments, and the Quantities and Kinds thereof, and in what particular Parts of the ſaid Foreſt the ſame was cut or taken, and whether any and what Quantity of the Wood aſſigned or ſet out, and ordered or allowed by or at ſuch preceding Court to be cut or taken by him as Browſe Wood, remains uncut or not actually taken, conſumed, or uſed for that Purpoſe, and where the ſame is ſituate; and if any Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper, ſhall refuſe or neglect to make and deliver in ſuch Return and Account at every ſuch Court of Attachments, or ſhall fraudulently or wilfully make or deliver in any falſe or untrue Return or Account of ſuch Browſe Wood, he ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, being thereof duly convicted by or in the ſaid Court of Attachments, forfeit and loſe any Sum not exceeding the Sum of twenty Pounds; to be recovered and applied in Manner herein-after directed.

If any Foreſter, &c. ſhall unlawfully cut down, top, browſe, &c. any Tree, &c. he ſhall for the firſt Offence forfeit his Offices, but may be reſtored; and for a ſecond Offence ſhall

XXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Foreſter, Keeper, Under Keeper, or other Officer of the ſaid Foreſt, or any other Perſon, ſhall at any Time after the paſſing of this Act, unlawfully cut down, top, lop, or browſe, or wilfully deſtroy, ſpoil, or damage, any Tree or any Branch or Limb thereof, or any Hawthorn or Whitethorn, or other Wood or Shrub within the ſaid Foreſt, ſuch Foreſter, Under Keeper, and other Officer or Perſon, ſhall for every ſuch Offence, being thereof lawfully convicted by or in the Court of Attachments for the ſaid Foreſt, forfeit and be deprived of all and every Offices and Office which he ſhall have or hold within the ſaid Foreſt, or in the Courts thereof; but nevertheleſs he ſhall be capable of being re-appointed or reſtored to his Offices by his Majeſty, or ſuch other Perſon as herein-before mentioned; and in caſe any ſuch Foreſter, Keeper, or other Officer, having been convicted of any ſuch Offence as aforeſaid, ſhall be again convicted of ſuch Offence, he ſhall forfeit and loſe any Sum not exceeding the Sum of twenty twenty Pounds, to be recovered and applied in Manner herein-after directed; and ſhall alſo forfeit and be deprived of all and every Offices and Office which he ſhall have or hold within the ſaid Foreſt or in the Courts thereof, and ſhall be incapable of being re-appointed or reſtored to ſuch Offices or any of them, or of being appointed to any other Office within the ſaid Foreſt, or in the Courts thereof, or in any Manner relating thereto.

forfeit not exceeding 20l. and his Offices, and be incapable of holding any Office within the Foreſt or the Courts thereof.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Verderers of the ſaid Foreſt, or any of them, at any Court of Attachments to be holden for the ſaid Foreſt, to enquire into the Conduct and Behaviour of the Under Foreſters and Groom Keepers of the ſaid Foreſt in their ſaid Offices; and if the ſaid Verderers ſhall find that any Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper hath wilfully given or delivered in to the Verderers of the ſaid Foreſt any untrue Return or Preſentment, or hath concealed or wilfully omitted to inſert in ſuch Return or Preſentment any Incloſure, Purpreſture, Encroachment, or other Treſpaſs which ought to have been deſcribed or noticed therein, or hath wilfully and without good Cauſe neglected to make ſuch Survey of his Walk as herein-before directed, or hath been guilty of any wilful Neglect, in the Care of the Timber or other Trees, Woods, Thorns, or Buſhes, ſituate within his Walk, or in any other Reſpect hath wilfully omitted or neglected to perform the Duty of his Office, it ſhall be lawful for the Verderers of the ſaid Foreſt, or any two of them (having due Proof made before them on Oath of any ſuch wilful Act, Neglect, Omiſſion or Default), and they are hereby authorized, to ſet and impoſe a Fine, not exceeding the Sum of ten Pounds, on ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper, for every ſuch his wilful Act, Neglect, Omiſſion, or Default, to be recovered and applied as herein-after mentioned; and for the ſecond Offence, ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper ſhall forfeit and be deprived of his Office, and ſhall not at any Time afterwards be reſtored to ſuch Office, unleſs the Verderers of the ſaid Foreſt, or any two of them, ſhall, by Order to be made by them at a Court of Attachments of the ſaid Foreſt, ſignify that in their Judgment ſuch Under Foreſter or Groom Keeper may properly be re-appointed or reſtored to his ſaid Office; and if any ſuch Officer ſhall be again convicted of a like Offence whereby his Office ſhall become forfeited, he ſhall be incapable of being again appointed to ſuch Office, or of holding any Office or Employment whatſoever within the ſaid Foreſt.

The Verderers at any Court of Attachments may enquire into the Conduct of the Under Foreſters and Groom Keepers, and for Neglect of Duty may fine them not exceeding 10l. for the firſt Offence; for a ſecond Offence they ſhall forfeit their Offices, but may be reſtored by Conſent of the Verderers; but if again convicted ſhall be incapable of holding any Office within the Foreſt.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties impoſed by this Act, and not herein-before directed to be recovered before the Verderers of the ſaid Foreſt, or in the ſaid Court of Attachments, ſhall and may be recovered in a ſummary Way before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Southampton, or for any County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, in which the Perſon having incurred the ſame ſhall happen to be; and in caſe any Penalty recovered before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or before the Verderers of the ſaid Foreſt, or any two of them, or in the ſaid Court of Attachments, or any Fine ſet or impoſed by the ſaid Verderers, or any two of them, or the ſaid Court, either in purſuance of this Act, or of the ſaid Act made in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King William ſhall not be paid forthwith, it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtice or Juſtices, or Verderers, or the ſaid Court by whom ſuch Fine ſhall be ſet or impoſed, or before whom ſuch Penalty ſhall be recovered, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, or their Hands and Seals, and directed by ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices to any Conſtable or other Peace Officer, and by the ſaid Verderers to the proper Officer or Officers to be appointed for the ſaid Foreſt, to cauſe ſuch Fine or Penalty to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, together with all Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale; and in caſe no ſufficient Diſtreſs can be had or made, ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, Verderers or Court, ſhall, if he or they ſhall think proper, commit the Offender to the Common Gaol for, or ſome Houſe of Correction within, the ſaid County of Southampton, or for ſuch other County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Town, or Place as aforeſaid, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Time not exceeding ſix Calendar Months.

Penalties not directed to be recovered before the Verderers or in the Court of Attachments, may be recovered before a Juſtice.
If any Penalty or Fine, ſhall not be paid, it may be levied by Diſtreſs; and in Defaul of Diſtreſs, the Offender may be committed not exceeding ſix Months.

XXV. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be deemed or conſtrued to extend, to defeat, alter, or infringe all or any the Rights, Privileges, or Advantages which may be enjoyed or claimed under any Letters Patent granted by his ſaid Majeſty of any Bailiwick, Walk, or Lodge within the ſaid Foreſt.

Act not to infringe any Right under any Letters Patent.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing by him, her, or them done or executed in purſuance of this Act, or for any Cauſe, Matter, or Thing herein contained, ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be commenced within three Calendar Months next after the Matter or Thing done, and ſhall be laid in the proper County; and the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action may plead the General Iſſue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon Trial a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs become nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Proſecution, or Judgment ſhall be given againſt him, her, or them, upon Demurrer, or otherwiſe, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have treble Coſts awarded to him or them againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

Limitation of Actions; three Months.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties recovered, and all Fines impoſed by virtue or in purſuance of this Act, or of the ſaid Act, made in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty King William, ſhall be, by the Juſtice or Juſtices, Verderers, or other Perſon or Perſons receiving the ſame, forthwith paid over to the Steward of the ſaid Foreſt, to be applied in defraying the Penalties ſhall be paid over to the Steward of the Foreſt.

Expences attending the Execution of this Act, or any other Laws concerning the said Forest, as the Verderers of the said Forest, or any two or more of them, shall, at a Court of Attachments of the said Forest, direct.

The Commissioners may treat for the Sale of small Parcels of Lands belonging to or claimed by the Crown, which are intermixed with the Land of Individuals, and are not valuable for the Purpose of the Forest.

XXVIII. 'And whereas there may be in various Parts of the said Forest many small Parcels of Land 'belonging to or claimed by the Crown, which are intermixed with the Lands of Individuals, and are of 'little Value to the Crown for any Purpose of the Forest, and it may conduce to the readier and clearer 'marking the Boundaries of the said Forest, and of the Lands of his Majesty's Subjects within the same, 'and to the more easy Care of the Rights of the Crown, as well as to the Convenience of his Majesty's 'Subjects, if such small Parcels of Land were alienated from the Crown;' be it therefore enacted, That if it shall appear to the said Commissioners that any small Parcels within the said Forest, belonging to or claimed by the Crown, and intermixed with the Lands of Individuals, are not valuable to the Crown for the Purpose of raising Timber or any other Purpose of the said Forest, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized, to treat, on the Part of the Crown for the Sale of such small Parcels of Land so intermixed, and to make good and effectual Conveyances thereof, for such Prices as they shall think just and reasonable, such Prices to be applied for defraying the Expences of this Act: Provided always, That the Land of the Crown so to be sold shall not exceed in Value, in any Instance, the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Such Land to be sold shall not exceed in any Instance the Value of 500l.

The Treasury, before the Expiration of ten Years after passing this Act, may contract for exchanging any Waste Lands of the Crown within the Forest, for any other Lands therein, not more than two Miles from such Wastes, fit for the Growth of Timber, or to be enclosed for producing Hay for the Deer.

XXIX. 'And whereas it might also be of mutual Advantage to the Crown and to his Majesty's Sub'jects, if Exchanges of Land to a limited Extent should be permitted between the Crown and Owners of 'Land within the said Forest,' be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, at any Time before the Expiration of ten Years after the passing of this Act, to contract and agree on the Behalf of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, for granting in Exchange any of the Waste Lands of the Crown within the said Forest, for any other Lands within the said Forest, whereof such Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, shall or may be seised in Fee Simple, or absolutely entitled to an Estate of Copyhold, or Customary or Leasehold Tenure, the Reversion thereof being in the Crown, and not being more than two Miles distant from the Waste belonging to the Crown, to be given in Exchange, and at the least of equal Value to such Lands, and fit and proper for the Growth of Timber, or to be enclosed for the Purpose of producing Hay for the Deer, and conveniently situated for those Purposes respectively; and that all and every Exchange and Exchanges so made shall be good, valid, and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, any Infancy, Coverture, or other Disability in the Parties interested in such Exchange, or any Law or Statute to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and that all Deeds for such Exchanges, together with a Map or Plan of the Lands so exchanged, shall be enrolled in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue; and that from and after such Inrollment, his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Right of the Crown, shall be deemed and taken to be in the actual and lawful Seisin and Possession of the Lands so agreed to be taken in Exchange, and that the Party with whom such Agreement of Exchange shall be so made, shall have, hold, and enjoy the Lands and Premises so given in Exchange, as Lands within the said Forest, of the same Tenure as the Land taken in Exchange was before such Exchange, but freed and discharged from any other Right, Title, or Claim of the Crown to the Soil, than such as shall be incident to the Nature of such Tenure, and from all Common of Pasture, and other Rights of Common: Provided always, That the Land of the Crown to be exchanged shall not exceed, in any Instance, the Value of five hundred Pounds; and in order to secure a true and just Price being set on the Lands of the Crown, and of those of Individuals to be given in Exchange, the same shall in every Instance be valued by able and practical Surveyors of Land, on their Oaths, which Oaths may be administered by any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the said County of Southampton; and that all such other cautionary Proceedings shall be had for ascertaining the true Value thereof as are required by an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for the better Management of the Land Revenue of the Crown.

Deeds for such Exchanges, with a Map of the Lands exchanged shall be enrolled in the Office of the Auditor of the Land Revenue, &c.

Land of the Crown to be exchanged shall not exceed in any Instance the Value of 500l.

All Lands to be exchanged shall be valued by able Land Surveyors on Oath, and all other cautionary Proceedings shall be had as required by 34 Geo. 3. c. 75.

Publick Act.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Publick Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons, without specially pleading the same.

CAP. LXXXVII.

An Act for the more effectual Prevention of Depredations on the River Thames, and in its Vicinity; and to amend an Act, made in the second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, to prevent the committing of Thefts and Frauds by Persons navigating Bum Boats, and other Boats upon the River Thames. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS for the more effectual Prevention of Depredations on the Cargoes, Stores, and Materials of Ships and Vessels lying and being in the River Thames, it may be expedient to establish 'in a convenient Place near the said River, a Publick Office of the Nature of the several Offices commonly 'called Police Offices, instituted under the Authority of an Act made in the thirty-second Year of the Reign 'of

'of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Adminiſtration of the Office of a Juſtice of the Peace in ſuch Parts of the Counties of Middleſex and Surrey as lie in or near the Metropolis; and for the more effectual Prevention of Felonies:' May it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty to cauſe a Publick Office to be eſtabliſhed at or near Wapping New Stairs, in the Pariſh of Saint John of Wapping, in the County of Middleſex, under the Name of The Thames Police Office, and to appoint three fit and able Perſons, being each of them a Juſtice of the Peace for the Counties of Middleſex, Surrey, Kent, and Eſſex, and for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, and for the Liberty of the Tower of London, to ſit and act, by the Special Appointment of his Majeſty, for the Purpoſe of hearing and determining Complaints of Offences committed on the River Thames, within the Limits of the aforeſaid Counties, City, and Liberties reſpectively, or elſewhere within the Limits aforeſaid, and of executing all other Powers appertaining to the Office of a Juſtice of the Peace, and ariſing within the ſaid Limits.

32 Geo. 3. c. 53.

His Majeſty may cauſe a Publick Office to be eſtabliſhed at or near Wapping New Stairs, and appoint three Special Juſtices for determining Complaints of Offences committed on the River Thames.

II. And be it further enacted, That one or more of the ſaid Special Juſtices to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall diligently attend at the ſaid Publick Office every Day, from ten in the Morning until eight in the Evening, and at ſuch other Times and Places as ſhall be found neceſſary; and that two of the ſaid Juſtices ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall in like Manner attend together at the ſaid Office from eleven in the Forenoon until one in the Afternoon, and from ſix in the Evening until eight in the Evening of every Day: Provided always, That the Attendance of one of the ſaid Juſtices may be ſupplied during the Hours at which the Attendance of two is required as aforeſaid, by any other Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid Counties, City, and Liberties reſpectively.

Juſtices to attend at certain Hours.

III. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Special Juſtices ſo appointed to attend at the ſaid Publick Office as aforeſaid, and their Clerks, ſhall, in Books to be provided for that Purpoſe, keep a full, true, and particular Account of all the Fees taken and received at the ſaid Office, as alſo of all Penalties and Forfeitures which ſhall have been recovered, levied, or received in purſuance of any Adjudication, Conviction, or Order, had or made at the ſaid Publick Office, or any Proceſs or Warrant iſſuing from the ſame, and alſo of all other Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall be at any Time received by the ſaid Juſtices, their Clerks or Officers, under and by virtue of this Act, to which ſaid Books and Accounts, the Receiver to be appointed in Manner herein-after mentioned, ſhall at all Times have free Acceſs, and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall once in every Month deliver unto ſuch Receiver ſuch Account, verified upon Oath by ſuch Juſtices, or one of them, their Clerk or Clerks, and ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be employed in keeping ſuch Accounts reſpectively, or any Part thereof, before ſome Juſtice of the Peace for one of the ſaid Counties of Middleſex, Surrey, Kent, or Eſſex, which Oath ſuch Juſtice is hereby authorized and required to adminiſter, and ſhall pay and cauſe to be paid the Amount of all ſuch Fees unto ſuch Receiver, to be applied in Manner herein after mentioned: any Law, Statute, or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Account of Fees, &c. taken at the Office to be delivered Monthly to the Receiver, and the Amount paid to him.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Eſtabliſhment of the ſaid Publick Office, all ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, and Shares of Penalties and Forfeitures, as are or ſhall be limited and made payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or to any Deſcription of Perſons other than the Informer or Informers who ſhall ſue for the ſame, or any Party grieved, and which ſhall be recoverable in a ſummary Way before a Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, and which ſhall be recovered or adjudged before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace at the ſaid Publick Office, ſhall be accounted for and paid into the Hands of the Receiver, to be appointed in Manner herein-after mentioned, by the Juſtice, Clerk, Conſtable, Officer, or other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall levy or receive the ſame, to be applied by ſuch Receiver in Manner herein-after-mentioned; any Law, Statute, or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

All Penalties, (except to Informers and Parties grieved) recovered at the Office ſhall be paid to the Receiver.

V. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, to direct Salaries to be paid to the Juſtices ſo appointed to attend the ſaid Publick Office, for their Time and Trouble, and ſuch further Sums for their Expences in the ſaid Offices, and for the Payment of Clerks and others therein employed, in ſuch Manner as to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, ſhall ſeem meet: Provided always, That the yearly Salary to be paid to each of the Juſtices, ſhall be four hundred Pounds, clear of all Taxes and Deductions whatever: Provided alſo, That the whole Charges attending the ſaid Office (the ſaid Salaries being included) ſhall not exceed the annual Sum of eight thouſand Pounds.

His Majeſty, by Advice of his Privy Council, may direct Salaries to be paid to the Juſtices, &c.

Salary to each 400l. clear.

The whole Expence of the Office not to exceed 8000l.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to appoint any proper Perſon to be the Receiver of the ſaid Publick Office; which ſaid Receiver ſhall receive all Fees, Penalties, Forfeitures, and all and every other Sum and Sums of Money applicable to the Purpoſes of this Act; and from the Produce of ſuch Fees, Penalties, Forfeitures, Sum and Sums of Money, ſhall pay, diſcharge, and diſburſe all the Salaries, Expences, and Charges attending the ſaid Publick Office, and the carrying this Act into Execution, and ſhall make all ſuch Contracts as ſhall from Time to Time be neceſſary for that Purpoſe; and ſhall every ſix Months, and oftener if required, deliver to his Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, but to no other Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, a full and particular Account of all Monies by him received and paid as aforeſaid, with Vouchers for the ſame, which Account ſhall be verified upon Oath before any Juſtice or Baron of any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and ſuch Receiver ſo to be appointed under this Act, ſhall have and be entitled

His Majeſty may appoint a Receiver of all Fees, &c.

Duty of the Receiver.

Receiver to have ſuch

Salary as his Majeſty ſhall appoint, and to poſſeſs the ſame Powers as the Receiver under 32 Geo. 3. c. 53. [§ 9, &c.]

entitled to ſuch Salary and Allowances as his Majeſty ſhall from Time to Time be pleaſed to direct and appoint; and ſhall alſo poſſeſs and exerciſe the ſame Powers and Remedies for recovering all Fees and Penalties, Sum and Sums of Money whatever, to be due and payable to the ſaid Receiver under and by virtue of this Act, as are given by the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty to the Receiver appointed under that Act: Provided always, That if it ſhall appear that the Monies applicable by the ſaid Receiver to be appointed under this Act, in Diſcharge of the Salaries, Expences, and Charges attending the ſaid Publick Office, and the carrying this Act into Execution, ſhall not amount to the annual Sum of eight thouſand Pounds, the Deficiency ſhall be made up and ſupplied out of the Conſolidated Fund; and if at the End of any Year there ſhall be any Surplus beyond the ſaid Sum of eight thouſand Pounds in the Hands of ſuch Receiver, he ſhall pay the Amount of ſuch Surplus into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, and the ſame ſhall be carried to and made Part of the Conſolidated Fund.

If the Monies applicable by the Receiver ſhall not amount to 8000l. the Deficiency ſhall be ſupplied out of the Conſolidated Fund, and if they exceed, he ſhall pay the Surplus into the Exchequer.

Juſtices may employ a ſufficient Number of ſworn Conſtables, and may ſuſpend or diſmiſs them;

VII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful to and for ſuch Special Juſtices ſo to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, or any two of them, as ſoon as conveniently may be after ſuch their Appointment, to appoint, retain, and employ a ſufficient Number of fit and able Men as Conſtables, to be employed on Land, or on board Ships, Lighters, or Craft, in and upon the ſaid River, within the Limits aforeſaid, or in Boats to be hired for the Purpoſe; which ſaid ſeveral Perſons ſhall reſpectively take an Oath duly to execute their reſpective Offices, and ſuch Oath ſhall be adminiſtered by one of the ſaid Special Juſtices; and each of ſuch Perſons being ſo appointed and ſworn, ſhall have Power to act as a Conſtable for the Preſervation of the Peace, and for the Security of Property againſt felonious and other unlawful Modes of obtaining and receiving the ſame, as well on the ſaid River within the Limits aforeſaid, as on Land within any and every of the ſaid ſeveral Counties, City, and Liberties aforeſaid; and for apprehending Offenders againſt the Peace, as well by Night as by Day, and within the Limits aforeſaid, every ſuch Conſtable ſhall have all ſuch Powers and Authorities, Privileges and Advantages, as any Conſtable duly appointed now has, or hereafter may have within his Conſtablewick; and ſhall obey all ſuch lawful Commands as he ſhall from Time to Time receive from ſuch Special Juſtices, or any one of them, or from the Thames Police Surveyors, as herein-after mentioned, for the apprehending of Offenders, or otherwiſe conducting himſelf in the Execution of ſuch Office of Conſtable; and two or more of ſuch Special Juſtices may at any Time ſuſpend or diſmiſs from his Employment every ſuch Conſtable whom they ſhall think remiſs or negligent in the Execution of his Office, or otherwiſe unfit for the ſame, and appoint ſuch other fit Perſon in his Stead as to the ſaid Juſtices ſhall ſeem meet; and upon every ſuch Diſmiſſion, all Powers and Authorities, Allowances, Emoluments, Privileges, and Advantages, veſted in the Perſon ſo diſmiſſed, by virtue of his Appointment as aforeſaid, ſhall immediately ceaſe and determine.

and alſo any Number of Men not exceeding thirty under the Name of Thames Police Surveyors, for inſpecting the Conduct of the Conſtables, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Special Juſtices, or any two of them, ſhall and may from Time to Time, at their Diſcretion, appoint, retain, and employ any Number of fit and diſcreet Men not exceeding thirty at any one Time, who, under the Name of Thames Police Surveyors, ſhall each of them (being firſt duly ſworn in Manner above mentioned) have the Power, Authority, and Privileges and Advantages of a Conſtable as aforeſaid, within the Limits aforeſaid, for the Purpoſe of directing and inſpecting the Conduct of the ſaid ſeveral Conſtables, and of all Perſons to be employed in and about Ships and Veſſels lying and being in the ſaid River, or in and on the ſeveral Wharfs, Quays, and Landing Places thereto adjacent, and within the Limits of the aforeſaid Counties, City, and Liberties reſpectively, under the Authority or Superintendance of the ſaid Special Juſtices, who may, when they think proper, ſuſpend or diſmiſs any ſuch Thames Police Surveyors, and appoint others in their Stead.

The Court of Aſſiſtants of the Trinity Houſe may diſmiſs Conſtables or Surveyors.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of the Guild, Fraternity, or Brotherhood of the Moſt Glorious and Undivided Trinity, and of Saint Clement in the Pariſh of Deptford Strond, in the County of Kent, ſhall at any Time be diſſatisfied with the Conduct of any ſuch Conſtable or Surveyor, ſo appointed as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, by Order of their Court of Aſſiſtants, to diſmiſs from his ſaid Employment every ſuch Conſtable or Surveyor as aforeſaid, with whoſe Conduct they ſhall reſpectively be diſſatisfied; and every ſuch Conſtable or Surveyor ſo diſmiſſed ſhall, from and after the Time when any ſuch Order ſhall have been produced and made known to him, be incapable of exerciſing either of the ſaid Offices, unleſs and until ſuch Court of Aſſiſtants, who ſhall have made ſuch Order, ſhall think fit to revoke the ſame.

Receiver to pay the Conſtables and Surveyors ſuch Salaries as the Juſtices ſhall appoint, with the Approbation of the Secretary of State.

X. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Receiver (out of the Monies applicable by virtue of this Act in Diſcharge of the Salaries, Expences, and Charges attending the ſaid Publick Office) ſhall and may pay to the Conſtables and Surveyors, ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, for their Trouble and Attendance as aforeſaid, ſuch Salaries and Allowances as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall from Time to Time direct and appoint, with the Approbation and Conſent of his Majeſty's Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Duty of the Surveyors.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every ſuch Thames Police Surveyor, in virtue of ſuch his Office, (ſubject to the Orders of the ſaid Juſtices to be appointed as aforeſaid,) to enter at all Times, as well by Night as by Day, into and upon every Ship, Hoy, Barge, Lighter, Boat, or other Veſſel, (not being then actually employed in his Majeſty's Service,) lying or being in the ſaid River, and within the Limits of the aforeſaid Counties, City, and Liberties reſpectively, and into every Part of all ſuch Veſſels, for the Purpoſe of inſpecting, and upon Occaſion directing, the Conduct of any Conſtable or Conſtables, who ſhall or may from Time to Time be ſtationed on board ſuch Ships or Veſſels;

as alſo for the Purpoſe of inſpecting and obſerving the Conduct of all and every or any other Perſon and Perſons who ſhall from Time to Time be employed on board of any Ship or Veſſel in or about the lading or unlading thereof as the Caſe may be; and for the Purpoſe of taking all ſuch Meaſures as may be neceſſary for providing againſt Fire and other Accidents, as alſo for the Purpoſe of preſerving Peace and good Order on board of any Ship or Veſſel, and for the effectual Prevention in all Caſes of any Felonies or Miſdemeanors being committed on board any Ship or Veſſel, and for the effectual Detection of any Felonies or Miſdemeanors whatſoever which may have been committed, or which the ſaid Surveyor may have reaſonable Cauſe to ſuſpect to have been committed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Suſpected Perſons and reputed Thieves frequenting the River, and the Quays and Warehouſes, &c. adjoining, with a felonious Intent, may be apprehended by the Conſtables or Surveyors, and conveyed before the Special Juſtices, or any other Juſtice; and if it ſhall appear that there is juſt Ground to ſuſpect ſuch was their Intent, they ſhall be deemed Rogues and Vagabonds within the Meaning of 17 Geo. 2. c. 5. [See 32 Geo. 3. c. 53. § 17.]

XII. 'And whereas divers ill diſpoſed and ſuſpected Perſons, and reputed Thieves, frequent the ſaid 'River, and the Quays and Warehouſes near and adjoining thereunto, and the Avenues to the ſame Quays 'and Warehouſes, and the Streets and Highways leading thereto, with Intent to commit Felony on the 'Perſons and Property of his Majeſty's Subjects there being; and although their evil Purpoſes are ſuffi-'ciently manifeſt, the Power of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace to demand of them Securities for their 'good Behaviour hath not been of ſufficient Effect to prevent them from carrying their evil Purpoſes into 'Execution;' be it enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Conſtable or Surveyor appointed under the Authority of this Act within the Limits aforeſaid, to apprehend every ſuch Perſon, and convey him or them before any of the ſaid Special Juſtices to be appointed as aforeſaid, or any other Juſtice of the Peace; and if it ſhall appear before the ſaid Juſtice, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, that ſuch Perſon or Perſons is or are a Perſon or Perſons of evil Fame, and a reputed Thief or Thieves, and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall not be able to give a ſatisfactory Account of himſelf or themſelves, and of his or their Way of living, and it ſhall alſo appear to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Juſtice that there is juſt Ground to believe that ſuch Perſon or Perſons was or were on or in the ſaid River, Quays, or Warehouſes, or in ſuch Avenue, Street, or Highway as aforeſaid with ſuch Intent as aforeſaid, every ſuch Perſon ſhall be deemed a Rogue and Vagabond, within the Intent and Meaning of the Statute made in the ſeventeenth Year of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act to amend and make more effectual the Laws relating to Rogues, Vagabonds, and other idle and diſorderly Perſons, and to Houſes of Correction: Provided always, That if any Perſon ſhall think himſelf aggrieved by the Judgment of ſuch Juſtice as aforeſaid, ſuch Perſon may appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the County or Place wherein the Cauſe of Complaint ſhall have ariſen, ſuch Perſon at the Time of his Conviction entering into a Recognizance, with two ſufficient Sureties, conditioned perſonally to appear at the ſaid Seſſions to try ſuch Appeal, and abide the further Judgment of the Juſtices at ſuch Seſſions aſſembled; and in caſe ſuch Conviction ſhall be affirmed at ſuch Seſſions, the ſaid Juſtices may adjudge ſuch Perſon to be a Rogue and Vagabond, and proceed againſt ſuch Perſon in the ſame Manner as they might have done if ſuch Rogue and Vagabond had been committed to the Houſe of Correction until ſuch General or Quarter Seſſions: Provided always, That no Perſon convicted under this Act ſhall thereby become liable to any other Puniſhment than Impriſonment to hard Labour for a Term not exceeding ſix Months, taking into the Computation any actual Impriſonment which ſuch Perſon ſhall have ſuffered by his Commitment until ſuch Seſſion.

Perſons thinking themſelves aggrieved, may appeal to the Quarter Seſſions. If the Conviction be affirmed, the Juſtices may proceed againſt the Offender as if he had been committed until the Seſſions. Perſons convicted not liable to any other Puniſhment than Impriſonment not exceeding ſix Months.

Penalty for damaging, &c. Boats belonging to the Juſtices.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall wilfully deſtroy or damage, or endeavour to deſtroy or damage, or be wilfully concerned in deſtroying or damaging, or endeavouring to deſtroy or damage, any Boat or Boats then belonging to, or hired or employed by or by Authority of the ſaid Special Juſtices, or any Part of the Sails, Oars, or other Tackle, Stores, Goods, or Furniture contained in or belonging to any ſuch Boat, every Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Boat ſo deſtroyed or damaged, or attempted to be deſtroyed or damaged, or of which any of the Tackle or other Contents ſhall have been ſo deſtroyed or damaged, or attempted to be deſtroyed or damaged as aforeſaid, any Sum not exceeding fifteen Pounds, or ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment for any Time not exceeding three Months, over and above any ſuch Damages as may be recoverable by Action at Law againſt any ſuch Offender.

Penalty for breaking, &c. Packages, with an Intent that the Contents may be ſpilled.

XIV. 'And whereas, for the Purpoſe of increaſing the Facility of Depredation, it hath been a common 'Practice amongſt various Claſſes of Perſons concerned in the landing and warehouſing of Merchandize 'from on board Ships and Veſſels in the ſaid River, wilfully to injure and promote the opening and break-'ing of Caſks, Bags, and other Packages, and the Spilling of their Contents;' for Remedy thereof, be it further enacted, That if any Perſon employed in the landing or warehouſing of any Goods and Merchandizes, or any other Perſon, ſhall wilfully, or through culpable Negligence or Careleſſneſs, cauſe or ſuffer, or be concerned in cauſing or ſuffering to be broken, bruiſed, pierced, ſtarted, cut, torn, or otherwiſe injured, any Caſk, Box, Cheſt, Bag, or other Package, containing, or being deſigned and prepared for containing any ſuch Goods or Merchandizes, while on board of any Barge, Lighter, or other Craft lying or being in the ſaid River, or any Quay, Wharf, or Landing Place adjacent to the ſame, or in, or in the Way to or from any Warehouſe to or from which ſuch Package ſhall have been removed, removing, or about to be removed, with Intent that the Contents of ſuch Package, or any Part thereof, may be ſpilled or dropped from ſuch Package, then and in ſuch Caſe every Perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor leſs than ten Shillings, and ſhall on Conviction be committed for any Term not exceeding one Calendar Month, determinable upon the Payment of ſuch Penalty ſo impoſed; and moreover, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall have taken place, at his and their Diſcretion, to cauſe to be publiſhed in ſome Newſpaper Newſpaper or Newſpapers an Account of ſuch Conviction, with the Name and Deſcription of the Offender.

Perſons letting fall, &c. any Articles for the Purpoſe of preventing the Seizure or Diſcovery of any unlawfully obtained, guilty of a Miſdemeanor; and if any of apparent Value ſhall be let fall from any Ship into any Boat, or from any Boat or Wharf, &c. without the Privity of the Owner, the Boat may be ſeized, and every Perſon therein, or any ſuſpected Perſon near to any Wharf, &c. conveyed before the Special Juſtices, or Juſtices of the Juriſdiction; and if not made appear that it did not proceed from a fraudulent Deſign, the Parties ſhall be deemed guilty.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if for the Purpoſe of preventing the Seizure or Diſcovery of any Materials, Furniture, Stores, or Merchandizes belonging to, or having been Part of the Cargo of any Ship or Veſſel lying in the ſaid River, or of any other Articles unlawfully obtained from any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, any ſuch, or any other Article or Articles, ſhall be wilfully let fall, or thrown into the River, or in any other Manner, directly or purpoſely, conveyed away, or endeavoured to be conveyed away, from any Ship or Veſſel, Boat, Barge, Lighter, Craft, Wharf, Quay, or other Landing Place, every Perſon being Party or Acceſſary to ſuch letting fall, throwing, or Conveyance, or to any previous Inſtructions or premeditated Deſign ſo to let fall, throw, or convey away, any ſuch Article or Articles, with any ſuch Purpoſe as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Miſdemeanor; and if any Article or Articles whatever of apparent Value ſhall be wilfully let fall, thrown, conveyed away, or endeavoured to be conveyed away, from any Ship or Veſſel, into any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or Craft, or from any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or Craft, or from any Wharf, Quay, or other Landing Place, without the Order, Aſſent, or Privity of the Perſon or Perſons being the Owner, or having the lawful Charge of ſuch Article or Articles, then and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any ſuch Conſtable or Surveyor as aforeſaid, or for any Conſtable of the City of London, within the Juriſdiction of the ſaid City, to ſeize, apprehend, and ſecure, any ſuch Boat, Barge, Lighter, or other Craft, and every or any Perſon therein, or who, by reaſon of his or her Nearneſs to the Place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, ſhall be reaſonably ſuſpected by ſuch Conſtable or Surveyor of being Party or Acceſſary thereto, and forthwith to convey every ſuch Perſon ſo apprehended before the ſaid Juſtices, or ſome other Juſtices in whoſe Juriſdiction ſuch Offences ſhall be committed, and if upon Examination it ſhall not be made appear, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Juſtices, that ſuch letting fall, throwing, or conveying away, or Endeavour to convey away, proceeded either from mere Accident, or from ſome lawful Cauſe, and not from any ſuch fraudulent or evaſive Deſign as aforeſaid, every Perſon ſo appearing to be Party, privy, or acceſſary as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Miſdemeanor, and ſhall ſuffer as herein-after mentioned.

If on Information on Oath it ſhall appear to the Juſtices that there is reaſonable Cauſe for ſuſpecting that any Part of the Cargo of any Veſſel, or any of his Majeſty's Stores, &c have been unlawfully obtained, and are concealed, they, or any Juſtices in their Juriſdictions, may cauſe the Place to be ſearched, by Day or by Night, and by Force if neceſſary, and if any are found, and it be not made appear by what lawful Means they came depoſited, the Perſon in whoſe Houſe found and the Perſons appearing to have been privy to the depoſiting, ſhall be deemed guilty of a Miſdemeanor. [See 2 Geo. 3. c. 28. § 7.]

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if on Information given on Oath it ſhall appear to the ſaid Juſtices that there is reaſonable Cauſe for ſuſpecting that any Materials, Furniture, Stores, or any Part of the Cargo of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel lying or being in the ſaid River, or any Stores belonging to his Majeſty, or conſigned to any Perſon or Perſons for his Majeſty's Service, have been ſtolen, or unlawfully obtained from or out of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or from or out of any Boat, Barge, Lighter, or Craft, lying or being in the ſaid River, or from any Wharf, Quay, or other Landing Place adjacent to the ſame, and within the Limits of the aforeſaid Counties, City, and Liberties, or from or in the Way to or from any Warehouſe, into or from which ſuch Articles had been removing or removed, to or from any ſuch Wharf, Quay, or Landing Place, and that ſuch Articles, after having been ſo ſtolen or unlawfully obtained, are concealed or otherwiſe lodged in any Dwelling Houſe, Warehouſe, Yard, Garden, or any other Place, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices, or other Juſtices in their reſpective Juriſdictions, or any one of them, by ſpecial Warrant under their Hands and Seals, directed to any ſuch Thames Police Conſtable or Surveyor as aforeſaid, or other Conſtable within their reſpective Juriſdictions, to cauſe every ſuch Place to be ſearched, at any Time of the Day, or by Night, if Power for that Purpoſe be eſpecially given in and by ſuch Warrant; and the ſaid Juſtices, if it ſhould appear to them requiſite and neceſſary, may moreover empower ſuch Conſtable or Surveyor, with any ſuch Aſſiſtance as to them the ſaid Juſtices may appear, or by ſuch Conſtable or Surveyor be found, neceſſary (ſuch Conſtable or Surveyor having previouſly made known ſuch his Authority) to uſe Force for the effecting of ſuch Entry, whether by breaking open Doors or otherwiſe; and if upon Search thereupon made, any ſuch ſuſpected Article or Articles ſhall accordingly be found, then and in ſuch Caſe to convey the ſame forthwith to and before the ſaid Juſtices, or to guard the ſame on the Spot while the Offenders are taken before the ſaid Juſtices, or otherwiſe diſpoſe thereof in ſome Place of Safety, ſubject to the Orders of the ſaid Juſtices in Manner as above mentioned, and moreover to apprehend and convey before the ſaid Juſtices the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Houſe, Lodging, or other Place as aforeſaid the ſame ſhall ſo have been found, as alſo every ſuch other Perſon ſo found in ſuch Houſe, Lodging, or Place, as ſhall appear to have been privy to the depoſiting of ſuch Articles, or any of them, in ſuch Place, knowing or having reaſonable Cauſe to ſuſpect the ſame to have been ſtolen, or otherwiſe unlawfully obtained; and if ſuch Perſons reſpectively ſhall not immediately, or within ſome reaſonable Time, to be aſſigned by the ſaid Juſtices, make it appear, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Juſtices, by what lawful Means ſuch Article or Articles came to be depoſited or ſituated in ſuch Place as aforeſaid, without any Default on the Part of ſuch Perſons reſpectively, or that they reſpectively did not know that the ſame were, or by what Means the ſame were depoſited or ſituated in ſuch Place, then and in ſuch Caſe the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Houſe, Lodging, or other Place, ſuch ſuſpected Article or Articles was or were found, as alſo every other Perſon ſo appearing to have been privy to the depoſiting thereof, knowing, or having Cauſe to ſuſpect the ſame to have been ſtolen, or otherwiſe unlawfully obtained, ſhall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a a Miſdemeanor, and ſhall ſuffer as herein-after mentioned.

Every Perſon who to prevent any Articles from being ſeized on Suſ-

XVII. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon who, for the Purpoſe of protecting or preventing any Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or other Articles whatſoever from being ſeized, on Suſpicion of their being ſtolen or otherwiſe unlawfully obtained, or of preventing the ſame from being produced or made to ſerve as Evidence of or concerning any Felony or Miſdemeanor, ſhall frame or cauſe to be framed, or be any any Ways concerned in framing or causing to be framed, any Bill of Parcels containing any false Statement in regard to the Name or Abode of any alleged Vendor, the Quantity or Quality of such Goods or Valuables, the Place from whence, or Conveyance by which the same were furnished, the Price agreed upon or charged for the same, or any other Particular or Particulars, knowing such Statement to be false, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and shall suffer as herein-after mentioned; and may moreover, at the Discretion of the said Justices, or such other Justices in whose Jurisdiction such Offences shall be committed, be published and advertised as a Fabricator of false Bills of Parcels, or as a convicted or reputed Receiver of Goods stolen, or otherwise unlawfully obtained, as the Case may be.

picion of being stolen, or being produced as Evidence, shall frame, &c. any false Bill of Parcels, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and may be advertised.

XVIII. 'And whereas in and by an Act passed in the second Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to prevent the committing of Thefts and Frauds by Persons navigating Bum Boats and other Boats upon the River Thames, it is amongst other Things provided, that a Person in whose Possession Goods suspected of having been stolen or otherwise unlawfully come by, are found, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, if he do not either give an Account, to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices as are therein mentioned, how he came by the same, or else produce the Party or Parties from whom he bought or received the same; under which Provision no Receiver of stolen Goods, who shall produce a Person of whom he received the same, can be adjudged guilty, although he shall not give such Account to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices as aforesaid;' be it further enacted, That in every Case where the Production of the Party from whom any Goods or Things have been bought or received, would at present be sufficient to exempt any Person from being adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor under the said Act, by reason of any such Goods or Things being found in any Way in his or her Possession, such Production shall not be deemed sufficient to exempt such Person from being adjudged guilty as aforesaid, unless the Account so given of the Manner of his or her coming by such Goods or Things shall, upon a full Investigation, be satisfactory to such Justice or Justices; and if any Person on being so produced shall declare himself or herself to have bought, received, or otherwise obtained such Goods of some other Person, such Justice or Justices are hereby authorized and required to examine every such other Person, and also every other prior Purchaser or pretended Purchaser; and if upon the Whole of the Evidence it shall appear to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, that the Party so informed against or suspected did, at the Time of his or her receiving such Goods or Things into his or her Possession, believe, or had reasonable Cause to believe, that the same were at any Time and by any Person unlawfully come by or obtained, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice or Justices to adjudge such Party to be guilty of a Misdemeanor, and such Party so convicted shall thereupon suffer as herein-after mentioned.

2 Geo. 3. c. 28. [§ 6, 7.] recited.

Where the Production of the Party from whom any Goods have been bought would, under the last recited Act, exempt any Person from being adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, such Production shall not be deemed sufficient unless the Account given be satisfactory to the Justice, who otherwise may examine all Purchasers, and adjudge the Party guilty of a Misdemeanor.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case of every Offence herein-before declared to be a Misdemeanor, or for which no special pecuniary Penalty is herein-before appointed, the Offender shall forfeit and pay, at the Discretion of the said Justices to be appointed as aforesaid, or of such other Justice or Justices before whom any Conviction shall from Time to Time take place, within their respective Jurisdictions, any Sum not exceeding five Pounds, nor less than twenty Shillings, or shall suffer Imprisonment for any Time not exceeding eight Weeks, nor less than two Weeks; or shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor less than ten Shillings, and shall besides suffer Imprisonment for any Time not exceeding four Weeks, nor less than one Week; and if the Payment of such Penalty shall not immediately upon Conviction be made or secured to the Satisfaction of such Justice or Justices, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justice or Justices forthwith, or at any other Time or Times within one Calendar Month after such Conviction, to commit the Offender to any lawful Place of Imprisonment within his or their Jurisdiction, for any Time not exceeding eight Weeks in the Whole, determinable upon the making or securing such Payment as aforesaid; and one Moiety of Money recovered on Account of every such Forfeiture or Penalty shall be paid to such Receiver as aforesaid, for the Purposes of this Act, and the other Moiety thereof, under the Direction of the Justice or Justices by whom the same shall have been levied, shall either be paid and applied to the Use of the Informer alone, or be distributed between or amongst all such Persons as shall have contributed to the Conviction of the Offender, in such Shares and Proportions as such Justice or Justices in their Discretion shall think fit: Provided always, That no Informer or other Person shall be deemed incompetent to give Evidence touching any such Offence as aforesaid, by reason of any Chance or Expectation of any such Moiety, Share, or Proportion as aforesaid.

Misdemeanors under this Act punishable, 1st, by a Penalty not exceeding 5l. nor less than 20s. or by Imprisonment not exceeding eight Weeks, nor less than two— or 2dly, by a Penalty from 40s. to 10s. coupled with Imprisonment from four Weeks to one. If Penalty be not paid or secured the Offender may be committed. Application of Penalties.

No Person to be deemed incompetent Evidence on account of Chance of Share of Penalty.

XX. And be it further enacted, That in every Case in which Complaint shall be made, or Information given of any Offence, by this Act declared to be a Misdemeanor, or for which any pecuniary Penalty or Forfeiture is herein-before appointed, with or without Imprisonment in Addition thereto or in lieu thereof, the Matter of such Complaint or Information, if the Offence shall have been committed, or the Offender apprehended within the Limits aforesaid, shall or may be heard and determined either by the said Justices to be appointed as aforesaid, or either of them, or by any other Justice or Justices acting in and for the County or other Place of separate Jurisdiction within which the Offence shall have been committed, or the Offender apprehended; and if any such Offence shall have been committed, or the Offender apprehended, within the Jurisdiction of the City of London, then the Matter of such Complaint or Information shall and may be heard and determined by the Lord Mayor, Recorder, or one of the Aldermen of the said City, and not elsewhere; and every Conviction thereupon had shall be certified, filed, and entered in such Manner as is Complaints of Offences declared Misdemeanors, or for which pecuniary Penalties are appointed, shall be heard and determined, either by the Special Justices at their Office, or by any Jus-

is directed in and by the ſaid Act of the ſecond Year of his Majeſty's Reign, with reſpect to Convictions under that Act, and may alſo be drawn up in ſuch Form and Manner as is appointed in and by the ſaid Act; and neither ſuch Conviction, or any Proceeding previous thereto, ſhall be removed by Certiorari or otherwiſe into any Court of Record, but ſuch Conviction ſhall be final and concluſive to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Conviction to be certified, &c. as directed by 2 Geo. 3. c. 28. [§ 11.] and may be drawn up in the Form appointed thereby, and ſhall be final.

Miſdemeanors under 2 Geo. 3. c. 28. [See § 10. of that Act,] may be puniſhed either under that Act or under this.

XXI. 'And whereas the Puniſhments for Miſdemeanors, provided in and by the ſaid Act of the ſecond 'Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, have been found inſufficient for the preventing of ſuch Offences;' be it enacted, That every Perſon who ſhall be guilty of any of the ſeveral Offences reſpectively made and declared to be Miſdemeanors in and by the ſaid Act, ſnall and may be puniſhed, at the Diſcretion of the Juſtice or Juſtices by or before whom the ſaid Offender ſhall be convicted, either with the Puniſhment appointed in and by the ſaid Act, or by ſuch other Puniſhment or Puniſhments as is and are hereby appointed for and in Caſes of Offences declared to be Miſdemeanors in and by this preſent Act.

Perſons guilty of Offences puniſhable by laſt recited Act [§ 12.] by Tranſportation for 14 Years, ſhall plead to Indictments without having Time to traverſe.

XXII. 'And whereas in and by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act, Perſons guilty of certain Offences are puniſhable by Tranſportation for fourteen Years, but the ſaid Offences not being by the ſaid Act declared to 'be Felony, the Trial thereof may in all Caſes be put off, by Means of a Traverſe, to the next Seſſions after 'the finding of the Bill of Indictment for the ſame, and the Offender be in the mean Time liberated, on being 'admitted to Bail, whereby Juſtice has been in many Inſtances eluded;' for Remedy thereof, be it further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, whenever any Indictment ſhall be found againſt any Perſon or Perſons for the ſaid Offences, or any of them, the Perſon or Perſons ſo indicted ſhall plead to the ſame Indictment without having Time to traverſe the ſame, as is uſual in Caſes of Miſdemeanors.

Nothing herein to deprive the Lord Mayor, &c. of London, of their Rights.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to deprive the Lord Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, of any Right, Privilege, or Juriſdiction heretofore lawfully claimed, exerciſed, or enjoyed, within the Town and Borough of Southwark, or the Liberties thereof, or to prevent the ſaid Lord Mayor for the Time being, or the Aldermen of the ſaid City for the Time being, and the Recorder of the ſaid City for the Time being, from acting as Juſtices of the Peace within the ſaid Town and Borough of Southwark and the Liberties thereof, in ſuch and the like Manner as they could or might have done in caſe this Act had not been made; nor to deprive the Lord Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſaid City, of any Right, Privilege, Immunity, or Juriſdiction which they have heretofore lawfully claimed, exerciſed, or enjoyed upon the River Thames, or the Lord Mayor of the ſaid City for the Time being as Conſervator of the ſaid River; nor to prevent the ſaid Lord Mayor for the Time being, and the Aldermen and Recorder of the ſaid City, from acting as Juſtices of the Peace upon the ſaid River, or taking Cognizance of Offences committed upon or within the Limits of the ſame, in ſuch Manner as they might or would have done in caſe this Act had not been made.

All the Powers and Proviſions of 32 Geo. 3. c. 53. and 2 Geo. 3. c. 28. extended to this Act; except as far as the ſame are varied hereby.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all the Clauſes and Proviſoes mentioned and contained in the ſaid Act of the thirty-ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, touching and concerning the Prohibition relative to the taking of Fees to the Uſe of Individuals, the Incapacity of the Juſtices with regard to their ſitting in Parliament, and the Reſtrictions and Penalties impoſed on the Juſtices, Receiver, and Conſtables, with regard to their interfering in Parliamentary Elections; and alſo all the Clauſes and Proviſoes mentioned and contained in the ſaid Act of the ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, reſpecting the ſearching and detaining of Boats on the ſaid River, or the ſeizing and detaining of Goods ſuſpected to be ſtolen, and the Perſons ſuſpected to be guilty of ſtealing the ſame, and the Mode of proceeding with reſpect thereto, and reſpecting the Diſcovery, Apprehenſion, and Puniſhment of Offenders, and reſpecting the obſtructing the Execution of the ſaid Act, and reſpecting the commencing or proſecuting of Actions againſt Juſtices or their Officers, ſhall be deemed, conſtrued, and taken to be, and the ſame are hereby declared to extend to and to be Parts of this Act, as if the ſame were herein ſpecially repeated and re-enacted; and that all Juſtices to be from Time to Time appointed under and by virtue of this Act, and all Conſtables and Surveyors to be from Time to Time appointed by the ſaid Juſtices, ſhall have all ſuch Powers, Privileges, and Protections, in all Reſpects whatſoever, in the Execution of the ſaid Acts and of this Act, as any Juſtice, Conſtable, or other Officers or Perſons could or might by Law have under the ſaid Acts, or either of them, except in as far as the ſame are varied in and by this preſent Act.

Publick Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be a Publick Act, and ſhall be judicially taken Notice of as ſuch by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whomſoever, without the ſame being ſpecially pleaded.

Continuance of Act to March 25, 1807.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be and continue in force from the paſſing thereof until the twenty-fifth Day of March which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred and ſeven, and no longer.

CAP.

CAP. LXXXVIII.

An Act concerning the Diſpoſition of certain Real and Perſonal Property of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and alſo of the Real and Perſonal Property of her Majeſty, and of the Queen Conſort for the Time being. [28th July 1800.]

WHEREAS in and by an Act paſſed in the firſt Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the better Support of her Majeſty's Houſehold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, it was (amongſt other Things) enacted, That all and every Grant, Leaſe, or other Aſſurance, which, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and two, ſhould be made or granted by her ſaid Majeſty, her Heirs or Succeſſors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, under the Great Seal of England, Exchequer Seal, Seals of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaſter, or any of them, or by Copy of Court Roll, or otherwiſe howſoever, of any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, Woods, or other Hereditaments (Advowſons of Churches and Vicarages only excepted), within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or any of them, or any Part thereof, then belonging or thereafter to belong to her Majeſty, her Heirs or Succeſſors, or to any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for her Majeſty, her Heirs and Succeſſors, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, Remainder, Uſe, or Expectancy, whether the ſame were or ſhould be in Right of the Crown of England, or as Part of the Principality of Wales, or of the Duchy or County Palatine of Lancaſter, or otherwiſe howſoever, to any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate whatſoever, whereby any Eſtate or Intereſt whatſoever in Law or Equity ſhould or might paſs from her Majeſty, her Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhould be utterly void and of none Effect, unleſs ſuch Grant, Leaſe, or other Aſſurance ſhould be made for ſome Term or Eſtate not exceeding thirty-one Years or three Lives, or for ſome Term of Years determinable on one, two, or three Lives, and unleſs ſuch Grant, Leaſe, or Aſſurance reſpectively ſhould be made to commence from the Date of making thereof; and if ſuch Grant, Leaſe, or Aſſurance ſhould be made to take Effect in Reverſion or Expectancy, that then the ſame, together with the Eſtate or Eſtates in Poſſeſſion of and in the Premiſes therein contained, ſhould not exceed three Lives, or the Term of thirty-one Years in the Whole, with various other Proviſions and Reſtrictions; but in the ſaid Act there is a Proviſo *, that the ſaid Act ſhould not extend to diſable her Majeſty, her Heirs or Succeſſors, to make certain Leaſes, Copies, or Grants of Offices, Lands, or Hereditaments, Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, as therein mentioned, or to diſable her Majeſty, her Heirs or Succeſſors, to make any Grant or Reſtitution of any Eſtate or Eſtates thereafter to be forfeited for any Treaſon or Felony whatſoever, or to diſable her Majeſty, her Heirs or Succeſſors, to grant, demiſe, or aſſign any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which ſhould be ſeized or taken into her or their Hands upon any Outlawry at the Suit of her or their Subjects, as had been uſual, or any Eſtate whatſoever which was or ſhould be ſeized, extended, or taken in Execution for any Debt owing or to be due to the Crown, as ſhe or they ſhould think fit, or to make any Grants or Admittances which of Right or Cuſtom ought to be made of any Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, Parcel of any Manor or Manors of her Majeſty, her Heirs or Succeſſors, or to diſable the Truſtees for Sale of Fee Farm and other Rents therein mentioned, from executing the Powers veſted in them as therein mentioned: And whereas in and by an Act made in the firſt Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Support of his Majeſty's Houſehold, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That the Revenue ariſing to his Majeſty by Rents of Lands, or for Fines of Leaſes of the ſame, or any of them, (except the Revenue of the Duchy of Cornwall,) ſhould, from and immediately after the Demiſe of his late Majeſty King George the Second, be, during his preſent Majeſty's Life, carried to and made Part of the general Aggregate Fund eſtabliſhed by the Act of the firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt †, and be, during the ſaid Term, iſſued and applied, in the Manner therein-after mentioned, to the Uſes to which the ſaid Fund was or ſhould be made applicable: And whereas in and by another Act made in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the better Management of the Land Revenue of the Crown, and for the Sale of Fee Farm, and other improveable Rents, further Proviſions are made touching Grants, Leaſes, and other Aſſurances, which ſhould be made or granted by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, under the Great Seal, or Seal of the Exchequer, or either of them, of any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Kingdom of England and Dominion of Wales, or any of them, or any Part thereof, then belonging or thenafter to belong to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, and being within the ordering and Survey of the Exchequer in England: And whereas his Majeſty has purchaſed certain Freehold, and Cuſtomary or Copyhold and Leaſehold Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, out of the Monies iſſued and applied for the Uſe of his Privy Purſe, or with other Monies not appropriated to any particular Service, and which ſaid Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments have been conveyed or ſurrendered to his Majeſty, or to ſome Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for his Majeſty, and his Majeſty hath hitherto held and enjoyed the ſame as his ſole and excluſive Property; but by reaſon of the general Words uſed in the ſaid Act in the firſt Year of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, the Freehold Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments ſo purchaſed by his Majeſty, and ſuch as may hereafter be purchaſed out of ſuch Monies as aforeſaid, may be deemed ſubject to the Reſtrictions and Proviſions contained in the ſaid Acts; and it may be doubted whether ſuch Copyhold or Cuſtomary and Leaſehold Purchaſes, by or in Truſt for his Majeſty as aforeſaid, do not alſo fall within the ſaid recited Acts: And whereas it is

* [§ 8.]

1 Geo. 3. c. 1. [§ 3.]

and 34 Geo. 3. c. 75. recited.

'is reaſonable that all Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of any Tenure whatſoever, which 'have been or ſhall be purchaſed by and conveyed to or in Truſt for his Majeſty, or which ſhall be pur-'chaſed by and conveyed to or in Truſt for his Majeſty's Heirs and Succeſſors, out of Monies iſſued and ap-'plied for the Uſe of his or their Privy Purſe, or with any Monies not appropriated to any publick Ser-'vice, and alſo all Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which have come to his Majeſty, or 'ſhall or may hereafter come to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, by the Gift or Deviſe of, or by De-'ſcent, or otherwiſe, from any Anceſtor or other Perſon not being King or Queen of this Realm, ſhould 'be held and enjoyed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, freed and diſcharged from all the Proviſions 'and Reſtrictions of the ſaid recited Acts of the firſt Year of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, and the firſt and 'thirty-fourth Years of his preſent Majeſty, (except as herein-after provided,) and ſhould be ſaleable and 'diſpoſeable either by Grant or otherwiſe in his or their Lifetime, or by his or their laſt Will and Teſta-'ment in Writing, in ſuch Manner as he or they ſhall think fit:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That none of the Proviſions or Reſtrictions contained in the ſaid Acts of the firſt Year of her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Anne, and the firſt and thirty-fourth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, ſhall extend to any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of whatſoever Tenure the ſame may be, which have at any Time heretofore been purchaſed by his Majeſty, or ſhall at any Time hereafter be purchaſed by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, out of any Monies iſſued and applied for the Uſe of his or their Privy Purſe, or with any other Monies not appropriated to any Publick Service, or to any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or other Hereditaments, of whatſoever Tenure the ſame may be, which have come to his Majeſty, or ſhall or may come to him, his Heirs or Succeſſors, by the Gift or Deviſe of, or by Deſcent or otherwiſe, from any of his, her, or their Anceſtors, or any other Perſon or Perſons not being Kings or Queens of this Realm; and the Intent of this Enactment is, that the ſame ſhall operate, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as from the Birth of his preſent Majeſty.

None of the Proviſions in the recited Acts ſhall extend to Lands, &c. purchaſed by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, out of Monies from the Privy Purſe, or not appropriated to any Publick Service, nor to Lands, &c. coming to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors from any Perſon not being Kings or Queens of the Realm. Enactment to operate as from the Birth of his Majeſty.

Copyhold or Leaſehold Lands, &c. ſo purchaſed, &c. ſhall be veſted in the Earl of Cardigan in Truſt, and ſuch as ſhall be purchaſed, &c. ſhall be veſted in Truſtees to be appointed by his Majeſty.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and ſingular the Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of Copyhold or Cuſtomary Tenure, or of Leaſehold Tenure, which have been purchaſed by his Majeſty as aforeſaid, or which have come to his Majeſty by the Gift or Deviſe of, or by Deſcent or otherwiſe from any of his Anceſtors, or any other Perſons not being Kings or Queens of this Realm, whether the ſame have been ſurrendered or aſſigned to his Majeſty, or to any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for his Majeſty, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby veſted in James Earl of Cardigan, his Heirs, Executors, and Adminiſtrators, according to the Tenure of ſuch Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments reſpectively, in Truſt, nevertheleſs for his Majeſty; and that all ſuch Copyhold or Cuſtomary, and Leaſehold Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments reſpectively, as ſhall be purchaſed in Manner aforeſaid by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or ſhall come to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, by Gift or Deviſe of, or by Deſcent or otherwiſe from any of his or their Anceſtors, or any other Perſons not being Kings or Queens of this Realm, ſhall be veſted in ſome Truſtee or Truſtees for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, from Time to Time, to be reſpectively named or appointed by Inſtrument in Writing under the Sign Manual of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors reſpectively; and the ſaid James Earl of Cardigan, and ſuch other Truſtee or Truſtees as aforeſaid, ſhall be duly admitted to ſuch Copyhold or Cuſtomary Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as aforeſaid, by the Lords or Ladies of the Manor or Manors of which the ſame ſhall be holden, according to the Nature of the Eſtate therein, on Payment of ſuch Fines, and ſubject to ſuch Rents, Services, and Cuſtoms, as of Right ſhall be due and accuſtomed in reſpect thereof; and the ſaid James Earl of Cardigan and ſuch other Truſtee or Truſtees as aforeſaid ſhall be deemed, as in reſpect of the Lords or Ladies of ſuch Manors reſpectively, and all other Perſons whatſoever, to be the true and only Tenants of ſuch Copyhold or Cuſtomary Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments reſpectively, ſo that no Lord or Lady of any Manor, or any other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall be prejudiced thereby.

Truſtees ſhall be admitted to the Lands according to the Nature of the Eſtate therein, and ſhall be deemed the Tenants.

Grants already made by his Majeſty ſhall not be defeated by this Act.

III. Provided always, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend to defeat or impeach any Grant or Diſpoſition which hath been already made by his Majeſty, or by his Direction, of any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments ſo purchaſed by his Majeſty as aforeſaid, and conveyed, ſurrendered, or aſſured to or in Truſt for his Majeſty, but all ſuch Grants and Diſpoſitions reſpectively ſhall be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes, as the ſame would have been if they have been made after the paſſing of, or were conformable to the Proviſions in this Act contained.

His Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, may ſell or deviſe ſuch Eſtates as his Majeſty's Subjects may like Eſtates belonging to them.

IV. And be it further enacted, That notwithſtanding any Thing in the ſaid recited Acts contained, or any other Statute, Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, from Time to Time, by any Inſtrument under his and their Royal Sign Manual, atteſted by two or more Witneſſes, or by his and their laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing, or any Writing in the Nature of a laſt Will or Teſtament, to be ſigned and publiſhed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors reſpectively, in the Preſence of and to be atteſted by three or more Witneſſes, at his and their free Will and Pleaſure, to grant, ſell, give, or deviſe all and every or any of the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments ſo purchaſed or to be purchaſed by, or which have or ſhall ſo come to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors as aforeſaid, whether of Freehold, or Copyhold or Cuſtomary, or Leaſehold Tenure, and whether conveyed or aſſured to, or otherwiſe veſted in his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or to or in any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, as aforeſaid, unto any Perſon or Perſons, for any Eſtate or Eſtates, or for any Intents or Purpoſes, his Majeſty, his Heirs Heirs or Succeſſors reſpectively ſhall think fit, as any of his Majeſty's Subjects may grant, ſell, give, or deviſe any the like Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments reſpectively, belonging to ſuch Subjects reſpectively, by their reſpective Deeds or other Inſtruments, or laſt Wills and Teſtaments reſpectively; and all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall be ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of, or entitled to any ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments reſpectively, or any Eſtate or Intereſt therein reſpectively, in Truſt for his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors reſpectively, ſhall convey, ſurrender, aſſign, or otherwiſe aſſure the ſame, in ſuch Manner as his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, under his or their Royal Sign Manual reſpectively, to be atteſted as aforeſaid, ſhall direct; and all and every the Proviſions made by Law for the Conveyance of Truſt Eſtates by Infants, Idiots, and Lunaticks, ſhall extend to ſuch Perſons as are or ſhall be a Truſtee or Truſtees for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors reſpectively, and ſuch Truſt Eſtates ſhall be conveyed, ſurrendered, and aſſured by ſuch Infants, Idiots, and Lunaticks, or the Committees of ſuch Idiots or Lunaticks accordingly.

Proviſions for Conveyance of Truſt Eſtates by Infants ſhall extend to Truſtees for his Majeſty.

V. And be it further enacted, That if no Diſpoſition by Grant, Will, or otherwiſe, ſhall be made in purſuance of this Act by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, of any ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments as aforeſaid, or if any Diſpoſition which ſhall be ſo made ſhall not exhauſt the whole Eſtate or Intereſt of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors reſpectively in the ſame, then and in every ſuch Caſe all ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, whereof no ſuch Diſpoſition ſhall be made as aforeſaid, or ſo much of the Eſtate and Intereſt therein reſpectively as ſhall not have been ſo diſpoſed of, ſhall deſcend and go in ſuch and the ſame Manner, on the Demiſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors reſpectively, as the ſame would have deſcended and gone if this Act had not been made, ſubject nevertheleſs to the Proviſions herein-after contained*, as to ſo much thereof as ſhall be Perſonal Eſtate of his Majeſty and his Succeſſors; and all and every of ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, being of Freehold Tenure in Fee Simple, which ſhall ſo deſcend on the Demiſe of his Majeſty, or any King or Queen of this Realm, ſhall be ſubject to all the Reſtrictions in the ſaid recited Acts contained, in the ſame Manner as the ſame would have been ſubject thereto if this Act had not been made.

If no Diſpoſition of ſuch Eſtates be made by his Majeſty, or a Diſpoſition be made which ſhall not exhauſt the Whole, the Eſtate undiſpoſed of ſhall deſcend as if this Act had not been made, ſubject to certain Proviſions.

Freeholds which ſhall ſo deſcend ſhall be ſubject to the Reſtrictions of the recited Acts.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all and every of ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, whether of Freehold, or Copyhold, or Cuſtomary, or Leaſehold Tenure, which ſhall be ſo as aforeſaid from Time to Time veſted in his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or in any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors reſpectively, ſhall from Time to Time be ſubject and liable to all ſuch Taxes, Rates, Duties, Aſſeſſments, and other Impoſitions, Parliamentary and Parochial, as the ſame would have been ſubject and liable to if the ſame had been the Property of any Subject of this Realm; and all ſuch Rates, Taxes, Aſſeſſments, and Impoſitions ſhall, ſo long as the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments ſhall be veſted in his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or in any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors as aforeſaid, be aſcertained, rated, aſſeſſed, or impoſed thereon, in the ſame Manner and Form, in all reſpects, as if the ſame Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments reſpectively were the abſolute and beneficial Eſtate of any of his Majeſty's Subjects; but nevertheleſs ſuch Rates, Taxes, Aſſeſſments, and Impoſitions, ſhall be paid and payable in the Manner herein-after * directed, and not otherwiſe.

Eſtates ſo veſted in his Majeſty or in his Truſtees ſhall be ſubject to all Taxes.

VII. And be it further enacted, That ſo long as any ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments ſhall be or remain veſted in his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or in any Truſtee or Truſtees for his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors as aforeſaid, freed and diſcharged from the Proviſions and Reſtrictions in the ſaid recited Acts reſpectively, all Taxes, Rates, Duties, Aſſeſſments, Impoſitions, Rents, and other annual Payments, Fines, and other Outgoings, which ſhall from Time to Time be charged and chargeable upon, or be or become due and payable in reſpect of all ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments reſpectively, ſhall be paid and diſcharged out of the Privy Purſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors reſpectively, and Accounts thereof ſhall from Time to Time be returned to the Perſon or Perſons for the Time being executing the Office of his Majeſty's Privy Purſe, or his or their Deputy, who ſhall, by and out of any Monies in his or their Hands applicable for the Uſe of his Majeſty, pay and diſcharge the ſame.

Taxes, &c. charged upon ſuch Eſtates ſhall be paid out of the Privy Purſe.

VIII. 'And whereas by the Law of England the Queen Conſort, Wife of the King, is capable of taking, 'granting, or diſpoſing of Property as if ſhe were a Feme Sole; but Doubts may ariſe how far this Ca'pacity of granting or diſpoſing of Property extends, and eſpecially whether, during the Life of the King 'her Huſband, it includes the Power of deviſing and bequeathing by laſt Will and Teſtament: And 'whereas his Majeſty is deſirous that her Majeſty Queen Charlotte, his Majeſty's Royal Conſort, during 'his Majeſty's Life, ſhould have full and complete Power, as well by her laſt Will and Teſtament as by 'Deed, to grant, alien, and diſpoſe of any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, and 'Hereditaments, which have been purchaſed by or in Truſt for or otherwiſe veſted in her Majeſty, or 'which ſhall hereafter be purchaſed by or in Truſt for, or ſhall be otherwiſe veſted in or in Truſt for her 'Majeſty, under and by virtue of any Deed, Gift, Will, or otherwiſe, except as herein-after is mentioned, 'and of any Goods and Chattels, whether Real or Perſonal, and Perſonal Eſtate of what Kind ſoever, be'longing to her Majeſty, in the ſame Manner as her Majeſty might diſpoſe thereof if ſhe were ſole and 'unmarried; and it may be convenient that the like Power ſhould be ſecured to every Queen Conſort of this 'Realm for the Time being:' Now therefore be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for her Majeſty, at any Time or Times during the joint Lives of their Majeſties, by Deed under her Hand and Seal, to be

Her Majeſty empowered during the joint Lives of their Majeſties, by Deed, or by Will, to diſpoſe of Eſtates purchaſed by or in Truſt for, or that may veſt in her Majeſty, or in Truſt for her, and alſo to bequeath all her Chattels and Perſonal Eſtate, as if ſhe were ſole; be executed in the Preſence of and atteſted by two or more Witneſſes, or by her laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing, or any Writing in the Nature of a laſt Will and Teſtament, to be ſigned and publiſhed by her in the Preſence of and atteſted by three or more Witneſſes, to grant, give, alien, and diſpoſe of, convey, or deviſe any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which have at any Time heretofore been purchaſed, or which ſhall at any Time hereafter be purchaſed by or in Truſt for her Majeſty, or which ſhall hereafter come to or devolve upon or veſt in her Majeſty, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for her, for any Eſtate of Inheritance or Freehold, or for any Copyhold or Cuſtomary Eſtate, under or by virtue of any Deed, Gift, Will, or otherwiſe, for all or any Part of ſuch Eſtate, Right, and Intereſt, as her Majeſty, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for her, now hath or have, or ſhall or may have in any ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments; and alſo by her laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing to give and bequeath all ſuch Chattels and Perſonal Eſtate whatſoever as aforeſaid, unto any Perſon or Perſons, and for any Intents and Purpoſes, and in any Manner ſhe ſhall think fit, as fully and effectually, in all Reſpects, as ſhe could or might grant, convey, alien, diſpoſe of, give, deviſe, or bequeath the ſame if ſhe were ſole and unmarried.

The like Power given to any Queen of this Realm during the joint Lives of the King and ſuch Queen Conſort.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any Queen for the Time being of this Realm, being the Conſort of his Majeſty, or any of his Succeſſors, in like Manner, at any Time or Times during the joint Lives of the King and ſuch Queen Conſort for the Time being, by Deed under her Hand and Seal, or by her laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing, to be reſpectively executed, ſigned, publiſhed, and atteſted as aforeſaid, to grant, convey, alien, diſpoſe of, give or deviſe, any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which ſhall be purchaſed by or in Truſt for her, or which ſhall come to or devolve upon or veſt in her, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for her, for any Eſtate of Inheritance or Freehold, or any Copyhold or Cuſtomary Eſtate, and by virtue of any Deed, Gift, Will, or otherwiſe, for all or any Part of ſuch Eſtate, Right, and Intereſt as ſhe, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for her, ſhall have in any ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments; and alſo by her laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing to give and bequeath all ſuch her Chattels, whether real or perſonal, and Perſonal Eſtate whatſoever, to any Perſon or Perſons, and for any Intents and Purpoſes ſhe ſhall think fit, as fully and effectually, in all reſpects, as if ſhe were ſole and unmarried: Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to enable her Majeſty, or any Queen Conſort of this Realm, to make any Grant, Conveyance, or Diſpoſition of any Palace, or capital Manſion Houſe, Gardens, Lands, or Hereditaments belonging to his Majeſty, or any of his Succeſſors, in Right of the Crown, which now are or hereafter ſhall be veſted in her Majeſty, or in any ſuch Queen Conſort, for her Life, as and for her Jointure or otherwiſe, under any Letters Patent of his Majeſty, or any of his Succeſſors, or by Act of Parliament, or to make any Grant, Conveyance, or Diſpoſition, which her Majeſty and ſuch Queen Conſort could not make if ſole and unmarried.

Act not to enable her Majeſty or any Queen Conſort to diſpoſe of any Palace, &c. belonging to the King in Right of the Crown, veſted in her for Life; or to make any Grant but ſuch as ſhe might make if ſole.

Monies for the Privy Purſe, or not appropriated to any Publick Service, or Effects which ſhall not come to his Majeſty, or to his Succeſſors in Right of the Crown, ſhall be deemed Perſonal Eſtate, and ſubject to Diſpoſition by Will in Writing, under the Sign Manual, and ſhall be liable to all Debts payable out of the Privy Purſe.

In Default of ſuch Diſpoſition ſuch Perſonal Eſtate ſhall go as before this Act was made.

X. 'And whereas it is his Majeſty's moſt gracious Deſire that all ſuch Perſonal Eſtate and Effects as his Majeſty ſhall be poſſeſſed of or entitled to at the Time of his Demiſe, and over which he ſhall have the full and abſolute Power of Diſpoſition by his laſt Will and Teſtament, ſhould be ſubject and liable to the Payment of all ſuch Debts of his Majeſty as ſhall, during his Lifetime, be properly payable out of his Privy Purſe: And whereas it is reaſonable that all ſuch Perſonal Eſtate and Effects as any of his Majeſty's Succeſſors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, ſhall be poſſeſſed or entitled to in like Manner, ſhould alſo be ſubject and liable to the like Charge; and it is expedient to fix and regulate what Perſonal Eſtate and Effects of his Majeſty and his Succeſſors are ſubject to ſuch Teſtamentary Diſpoſition, and in what Form ſuch Diſpoſition ſhall be made:' Now therefore be it further enacted and declared, That all ſuch Perſonal Eſtate of his Majeſty and his Succeſſors reſpectively, as ſhall conſiſt of Monies which may be iſſued or applied for the Uſe of his or their Privy Purſe, or Monies not appropriated to any Public Service, or Goods, Chattels, or Effects which have not or ſhall not come to his Majeſty, or ſhall not come to his Succeſſors reſpectively, with or in Right of the Crown of this Realm, ſhall be deemed and taken to be Perſonal Eſtate and Effects of his Majeſty and his Succeſſors reſpectively, ſubject to Diſpoſition by laſt Will and Teſtament; and that ſuch laſt Will and Teſtament ſhall be in Writing, under the Sign Manual of his Majeſty and his Succeſſors reſpectively or otherwiſe ſhall not be valid; and that all and ſingular the Perſonal Eſtate and Effects whereof or whereto his Majeſty or any of his Succeſſors ſhall be poſſeſſed or entitled at the Time of his and their reſpective Demiſes, ſubject to ſuch Teſtamentary Diſpoſition as aforeſaid, ſhall be liable to the Payment of all ſuch Debts as ſhall be properly payable out of his or their Privy Purſe, and that, ſubject thereto, the ſame Perſonal Eſtate and Effects of his Majeſty and his Succeſſors reſpectively, or ſo much thereof reſpectively as ſhall not be given or bequeathed, or diſpoſed of as aforeſaid, ſhall go in ſuch and the ſame Manner on the Demiſe of his Majeſty and his Succeſſors reſpectively, as the ſame would have gone if this Act had not been made.

Any Will made by his Majeſty before the paſſing of this Act, ſhall be valid.

XI. And be it further enacted, That any Inſtrument in Writing made and executed by his Majeſty before the paſſing of this Act, as and for his laſt Will and Teſtament, or a Codicil thereto in Manner and Form herein-before provided, ſhall be as effectual to diſpoſe of the Property Real or Perſonal intended to be diſpoſed of thereby, as if the ſame had been made after the paſſing of this Act.

His Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, may by Warrant under

XII. 'And whereas divers Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments have become and may hereafter become veſted in his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by Eſcheat or otherwiſe, in Right of the Crown, which in the Hands of any of his Majeſty's Subjects would be chargeable with certain Truſts, or applicable

'cable to certain Purpoſes, and his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, may be deſirous that the ſame 'ſhould be applied accordingly, notwithſtanding any Right which he or they may have to hold the ſame 'diſcharged from ſuch Truſts, or without applying the ſame to ſuch Purpoſes; but by reaſon of the Pro-'viſions contained in the ſaid Acts of the firſt Year of her ſaid late Majeſty Queen Anne, and the thirty-'fourth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, Doubts may be raiſed whether his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, 'can direct ſuch Application thereof: And whereas divers Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, as well 'Freehold as Copyhold, have eſcheated and may eſcheat to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, for 'Want of Heirs of the Perſons laſt ſeiſed thereof or entitled thereto, or by reaſon of ſome Forfeiture, or 'otherwiſe, although not forfeited for Treaſon or Felony; and it is expedient to enable his Majeſty to 'direct the Execution of any ſuch Truſts or Purpoſes as aforeſaid, and to make any Grants of any ſuch 'Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as aforeſaid, notwithſtanding the Proviſions contained in 'the ſaid recited Acts;' be it enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by Warrant under his or their Sign Manual, to direct the Execution of any Truſts or Purpoſes to which any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which have eſcheated or ſhall eſcheat to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall have been liable at the Time the ſame ſo eſcheated reſpectively, or would have been liable in the Hands of any of his Majeſty's Subjects, and to make any Grants of ſuch Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments reſpectively to any Truſtee or Truſtees, or otherwiſe, for the Execution of ſuch Truſts, and to make any Grants of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which have eſcheated or ſhall eſcheat as aforeſaid, to any Perſon or Perſons, either for the Purpoſe of reſtoring the ſame to any of the Family of the Perſon or Perſons whoſe Eſtates the ſame had been, or of rewarding any Perſons or Perſon making Diſcovery of any ſuch Eſcheat, as to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors reſpectively, ſhall ſeem fit; any Thing in the ſaid Acts, or any of them, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

the Sign Manual, direct the Execution of any Truſts, to which Lands becoming veſted in them by eſcheat, &c. in Right of the Crown would have been liable in caſe they had not eſcheated, &c. and to reſtore ſuch Lands, or Reward the Perſons diſcovering ſuch Eſcheats, &c.

CAP. LXXXIX.

An Act for the better preventing the Embezzlement of his Majeſty's Naval Ordnance, and Victualling Stores. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the twenty-ſecond Year of the Reign of 'King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Benefit of Clergy from ſuch as ſteal 'Cloth from the Rack, and from ſuch as ſhall ſteal or embezzle his Majeſty's Ammunition and Stores, it is 'amongſt other Things enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons who ſhall felonioufly ſteal or embezzle any of 'his Majeſty's Sails, Cordage, or any other of his Majeſty's Naval Stores, to the Value of twenty Shillings, 'and be thereupon found guilty in Manner therein mentioned, ſhall be admitted to have the Benefit of 'his or their Clergy, but utterly be excluded thereof, and ſhall ſuffer Death in ſuch Manner and Form as 'they ſhould if they were no Clerks: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the ninth 'and tenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the better preventing the 'Embezzlement of his Majeſty's Stores of War, and preventing Cheats, Frauds, and Abuſes in paying Sea-'men's Wages, a Penalty of two hundred Pounds, with Coſts of Proſecution, is inflicted upon Perſons in 'whoſe Cuſtody, Poſſeſſion, or Keeping, ſhall be found, or who ſhall conceal contrary to the ſaid Act any 'Warlike, Naval, or Ordnance Stores, marked in ſuch Manner as therein mentioned: And whereas by 'another Act of Parliament made and paſſed in the ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Firſt, in-'tituled, An Act for continuing ſome Laws and reviving others therein mentioned, for exempting Apothe-'caries from ſerving Pariſh and Ward Offices and upon Juries, and relating to Jurors, and to the Payment 'of Seamen's Wages, and the Preſervation of Naval Stores and Stores of War, and concerning the Militia 'and Trophy Money, and againſt clandeſtine Running of Uncuſtomed Goods, and for the more effectual preventing 'Frauds relating to the Cuſtoms, and Frauds in mixing Silks with Stuffs to be exported, it is enacted, That 'if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be lawfully convicted of having in his, her, or their Cuſtody, or of con-'cealing, any Timber, Thick Stuff, or Plank, marked with the Broad Arrow, by Stamp, Brand, or other-'wiſe, every ſuch Perſon ſhall ſuffer, forfeit, and pay as for having, keeping, or concealing any other War-'like, Naval, or Ordnance Stores, contrary to the ſaid Act of the ninth and tenth Years of King William 'the Third; and by the ſaid laſt recited Act Power is given to the Judge, Juſtice or Juſtices before 'whom any Offender ſhall be convicted of any of the Crimes or Offences before recited, to mitigate the 'Penalty for the ſame as he or they ſhall ſee Cauſe, or to puniſh ſuch Offence corporally, by cauſing 'him, her, or them to be publickly whipt or committed to ſome Publick Workhouſe, there to be kept to 'hard Labour for the Space of ſix Months, or a leſs Time, as to ſuch Judge, Juſtice or Juſtices, in his or 'their Diſcretion ſhall ſeem meet: And whereas by another Act of Parliament, made and paſſed in the 'ſeventeenth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, intituled, An Act to continue the ſeveral Laws 'therein mentioned, for preventing Theft and Rapine on the Northern Borders of England, *for the more ef-'fectual puniſhing wicked and evil-diſpoſed Perſons going armed in Diſguiſe, and doing Injuries and Violences to 'the Perſons and Properties of his Majeſty's Subjects, and for the more ſpeedy bringing the Offenders to Juſ-'tice; for continuing two Clauſes to prevent the cutting or breaking down the Bank of any River or Sea 'Bank; and to prevent the malicious cutting of Hop Binds, and for the more effectual Puniſhment of Perſons 'maliciouſly ſetting on Fire any Mine, Pit, or Delph of Coal or Cannel Coal; and of Perſons unlawfully 'hunting, or taking any Red or Fallow Deer in Foreſts or Chaces, or beating or wounding the Keepers or 'other Officers in Foreſts, Chaces, or Parks; and for granting a Liberty to carry Sugars of the Growth, Pro'duce, or Manufacture of any of his Majesty's Sugar Colonies in America, from the said Colonies directly 'to foreign Parts in Ships built in Great Britain, and navigated according to Law; and to explain two Acts 'relating to the Prosecution of Offenders for embezzling Naval Stores or Stores of War; and to prevent the re- 'tailing of Wine within either of the Universities in that Part of Great Britain called England, without 'Licence; it is amongst other Things declared and enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for 'any Judge, Justice or Justices at the Assizes, or Justices of the Peace at General Quarter Sessions to be 'holden as therein mentioned, to hear, try, and determine, by Indictment or otherwise, all or any of the 'Crimes or Offences mentioned in the therein and herein recited Acts of the ninth and tenth Years of the 'Reign of King William the Third, and the ninth Year of the Reign of King George the First; and that the 'said Judge, Justice or Justices of Assize, or Justices of the Peace, may impose any Fine not exceeding the Sum 'of two hundred Pounds on such Offender or Offenders, and may mitigate the said Penalty and Forfeitures 'inflicted by the said recited Acts or either of them, or in lieu thereof punish such Offender or Offenders 'in the Premises corporally, by causing him, her, or them to be publickly whipt and committed to some 'House of Correction or publick Workhouse, there to be kept to hard Labour for the Space of three Months, 'or less Time, as to such Judge, Justice or Justices of Assize, or Justices of the Peace, shall in his or their Dis- 'cretion seem meet: And whereas notwithstanding the Penalties and Punishments inflicted by the said re- 'cited Acts, the Stealers, Embezzlers, and Receivers of his Majesty's Warlike and Naval Ordnance and 'Victualling Stores have greatly increased, so that it has become necessary to make some further and more 'effectual Provision for preventing their wicked Practices in future:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Person or Persons (such Person or Persons not being a Contractor or Contractors, or employed as in the said recited Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third is mentioned,) who shall willingly or knowingly sell or deliver, or cause or procure to be sold or delivered, to any Person or Persons whomsoever, or who shall willingly or knowingly receive or have in his, her, or their Custody, Possession, or Keeping, any Stores of War, or Naval, Ordnance, or Victualling Stores, or any Goods whatsoever marked as in the said recited Acts are expressed, or any Canvas marked either with a blue Streak in the Middle, or with a blue Streak in a serpentine Form, or any Bewper, otherwise called Buntin, wrought with one or more Streaks of raised Tape (the said Stores of War, or Naval, Ordnance, or Victualling Stores or Goods above mentioned, or any of them, being in a raw or unconverted State, or being new or not more than one third worn), and such Person or Persons who shall conceal such Stores or Goods, or any of them, marked as aforesaid, shall be deemed Receivers of Stolen Goods knowing them to have been stolen, and shall, on being convicted thereof in due Form of Law, be transported beyond the Seas for the Term of fourteen Years, in like Manner as other Receivers of Stolen Goods are directed to be transported by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, unless such Person or Persons shall upon his, her, or their Trial, produce a Certificate under the Hands of three or more of his Majesty's Principal Officers or Commissioners of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, expressing the Numbers, Quantities, or Weights of such Stores or Goods, as he, she, or they shall then be indicted for, and the Occasion and Reason of such Stores or Goods coming to his, her, or their Hands or Possession.

Every Person (not being a Contractor, &c.) who shall sell or receive any new Stores of War, &c. or who shall conceal them, shall be deemed Receivers of Stolen Goods, and as such transported for 14 Years, unless he produces on the Trial a Certificate from the Navy Board, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Person or Persons (not being a Contractor or Contractors, or employed as aforesaid), in whose Custody, Possession, or Keeping any of the said Stores called Canvas, marked with a blue Streak in a serpentine Form, or Bewper, otherwise called Buntin, wrought as above-mentioned, shall be found, (such Canvas or Bewper, otherwise called Buntin, not being charged to be new, or not more than one-third worn,) and all and every Person and Persons who shall be convicted of any Offence contrary to so much of the said recited Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, as relates to the making, or the having in Possession or concealing any of his Majesty's Warlike, or Naval, or Ordnance Stores, marked as therein specified, shall, besides forfeiting such Stores, and the Sum of two hundred Pounds, together with Costs of Suit as therein mentioned, be corporally punished by Pillory, Whipping, and Imprisonment, or by any or either of the said Ways and Means in such Manner and for such Space of Time as to the Judge or Justices before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, shall seem meet; any Thing in the said last-mentioned Act, or in the before-recited Acts of the ninth Year of King George the First, and the seventeenth Year of King George the Second, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful to and for such Judge or Justices to mitigate the said Penalty of two hundred Pounds, as he or they shall see Cause.

Persons in whose Custody shall be found Canvas or Buntin marked as herein mentioned (not being charged to be new, or not more than one third worn), and Persons who shall be convicted of any Offence contrary to so much of the recited Act of 9 & 10 Gul. 3. as relates to warlike Stores, shall, besides the Forfeiture thereby imposed, suffer corporal Punishment. Penalty of 200l. may be mitigated.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act or in the said recited Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, contained, shall extend, or be deemed, taken, or construed to extend to exempt from the Operation of this Act, or the said recited Act respectively, any Person or Persons being a Contractor or Contractors, or employed as in the said last-mentioned Act is mentioned, except only so far as concerns Stores or Goods marked as aforesaid, which shall be bonâ fide provided, made up, or manufactured by such Person or Persons, or by their Order, and which shall not have been before delivered into his Majesty's Store, unless having been so delivered, they shall have been sold or returned to such Person or Persons by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling respectively.

Nothing herein or in recited Act of 9 and 10 Gul. 3. shall exempt Contractors, &c. except so far as concern Stores which shall not have been before delivered into his Majesty's Store, unless they have been sold or returned by the Commissioners.

IV. And

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, wilfully and fraudulently deſtroy, beat out, take out, cut out, deface, obliterate, or eraſe, wholly or in Part, any of the Marks in the ſaid Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, or in this Act mentioned, or any other Mark whatſoever, denoting the Property of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, in or to any Warlike or Naval, Ordnance or Victualling Stores, or cauſe, procure, employ, or direct any other Perſon or Perſons ſo to do, for the Purpoſe of concealing his Majeſty's Property in ſuch Stores, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be deemed guilty of Felony, and ſhall, on being convicted thereof, be tranſported to Parts beyond the Seas for the Term of fourteen Years in like Manner as other Felons are directed to be tranſported by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

If any Perſon ſhall deface any Mark denoting the Property of his Majeſty in any Stores, or ſhall employ any perſon ſo to do, he ſhall be deemed guilty of Felony, and tranſported for 14 Years.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall hereafter be convicted of any Offence contrary to this Act, for which he ſhall not have been tranſported beyond the Seas, or contrary to the ſaid recited Act of the ninth and tenth Years of King William the Third, ſhall be guilty of a ſecond Offence, either contrary to that Act or to this preſent Act, which would not otherwiſe, as the firſt Offence, ſubject him, her, or them to Tranſportation, and ſhall be thereof legally convicted, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, by Judgement of the Court wherein he, ſhe, or they ſhall be ſo convicted, be tranſported to Parts beyond the Seas for the Term of fourteen Years, in like Manner as other Offenders may be tranſported by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm now in force.

If any Perſon convicted of any Offence contrary to this Act, for which he ſhall not have been tranſported, or contrary to the recited Act of 9 and 10 Gul. 3. ſhall be convicted of a ſecond Offence, which would not, as the firſt, ſubject him to Tranſportation, he ſhall be tranſported for 14 Years.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons tranſported in purſuance of this Act ſhall return into any Part of Great Britain or Ireland before the End or Expiration of the Term for which he or ſhe ſhall have been ſo tranſported, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo returning ſhall ſuffer as Felons, and ſhall have Execution awarded againſt him, her, or them, as Perſons attainted of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

Perſons returning from Tranſportation under this Act ſhall ſuffer as Felons without Benefit of Clergy.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Court before whom any Offender or Offenders ſhall be indicted and convicted of all or any of the Crimes or Offences herein before mentioned to be puniſhable with Tranſportation, to mitigate or commute ſuch Puniſhment, by cauſing the Offender or Offenders to be ſet on the Pillory, publickly whipt, fined or impriſoned, or by all or any one or more of the ſaid Ways and Means, as ſuch Court in its Diſcretion ſhall think fit; one Moiety of which Fine (if any impoſed) ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to the Informer, and alſo to order ſuch Offender or Offenders to be impriſoned until ſuch Fine be paid; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

The Court may mitigate the Puniſhment of Tranſportation by Pillory, Whipping, Fine, or Impriſonment; Application of Fines, one Half to the Informer, and one Half to the King.

VIII. 'And whereas the eſtabliſhing by Law a certain Reward to the Diſcoverers of Perſons guilty of ſtealing or embezzling any of his Majeſty's Naval, Ordnance, or Victualling Stores, or of any of the Crimes or Offences mentioned in the ſaid recited Act of the ninth and tenth Years of King William the Third, or in this Act, might tend greatly to the Detection of ſuch Offenders;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall diſcover to his Majeſty's Principal Officers or Commiſſioners of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, for the Time being, or apprehend, or firſt inform againſt any Offender or Offenders who ſhall have been guilty of ſtealing or embezzling his Majeſty's Stores of War, or Naval, Ordnance, or Victualling Stores, or of any of the Offences mentioned in the ſaid recited Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, or in this preſent Act herein-before mentioned, which ſhall not be proſecuted in a ſummary Way herein-after preſcribed*, ſo as ſuch Offender or Offenders be convicted thereof, ſuch Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers, Apprehenders or Informers, ſhall have and receive a Reward for ſuch his, her, or their Diſcovery, or for ſo apprehending or firſt informing as aforeſaid, the Sum of twenty Pounds for every ſuch Offence ſo diſcovered; over and above any Share of Penalty or Fine which he, ſhe, or they may be entitled to as the Informer or Informers; ſo as ſuch Share of Penalty or Fine do not amount to more than the Sum of twenty Pounds, or (if amounting to more than that Sum) ſhall fail to be paid by the Offender or Offenders upon whom the ſame ſhall be inflicted for the Space of three Calendar Months next after his, her, or their Conviction, provided ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall not be detained in purſuance of any Sentence of Impriſonment; and if ſo detained, ſuch Share of Penalty or Fine ſhall fail to be paid within three Calendar Months next after the Expiration of ſuch Sentence of Impriſonment.

If any Perſon ſhall diſcover to the Navy Board, &c. or apprehend any Offender guilty of ſtealing or embezzling his Majeſty's Stores, or of any Offence againſt recited Act of 9 and 10 Gul. 3. or this Act, which ſhall not be proſecuted in a ſummary Way, he ſhall, on Conviction, receive a Reward of 20l. over his Share of Penalty, if not more than that Sum.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Diſpute ſhall ariſe between or among any Perſons who ſhall have diſcovered, apprehended, or informed againſt any Offender or Offenders as to their Title to the ſaid Reward of twenty Pounds, ſuch Diſpute ſhall be determined by any one or more of the Commiſſioners either of his Majeſty's Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, as the Offence may have related to their Departments reſpectively, upon the Oaths of the Claimants, to be taken in Writing either before ſuch Commiſſioner, or before one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, (which Oaths the ſaid Commiſſioner or Juſtice is hereby authorized to adminiſter,) and whatſoever Deciſion or Adjudication ſhall be made by ſuch Commiſſioner, touching the Premiſes, ſhall be final between the Parties.

If any Diſpute ſhall ariſe reſpecting the Title to ſuch Reward, it ſhall be determined by any of the Commiſſioners of the Navy, &c.

Reward ſhall be paid on Certificate from the Officer of the Court where the Offender ſhall be tried, for which he may charge 5s.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, as the Caſe may require, ſhall cauſe the ſaid Reward of twenty Pounds to be paid by the Treaſurer of the Navy or Ordnance reſpectively for the Time being, out of any Publick Money in his Hands, upon producing to them a Certificate, under the Hand of the Clerk of Aſſize, or his Deputy, or other proper Officer of the Court before whom ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be tried, certifying the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, and that the Informer's Share of any Penalty or Fine inflicted upon ſuch Offender or Offenders doth not amount to more than the Sum of twenty Pounds, or if amounting to more, hath failed to be paid by ſuch Offender or Offenders for the Space of three Months next after his or their Conviction; unleſs ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall then be detained in purſuance of any Sentence of Impriſonment, and then for the Space of three Months next after the Expiration of ſuch Sentence; which Certificate the ſaid Clerk of Aſſize, or other proper Officer is hereby required to give, and for which he ſhall charge the Sum of five Shillings, and no more; and the Money paid by any ſuch Treaſurer on account of ſuch Rewards, ſhall be allowed in his Accounts, and he ſhall be diſcharged thereof accordingly; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Any Commiſſioner of the Navy, &c. or any Juſtice of the Peace may grant Warrants for ſearching Houſes, &c. where Oath is made that there is Reaſon to ſuſpect Stores belonging to his Majeſty are concealed.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Commiſſioner of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, for the Time being, (who, for the Purpoſes hereinafter mentioned, is hereby authorized to act in every Reſpect as if he had been named as a Juſtice of the Peace in the Commiſſion of the Peace for the County, City, Diviſion, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place in which he ſhall be reſident, or into which his Warrant ſhall be iſſued,) or any Juſtice of the Peace for any County, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place, within this Kingdom, upon the Oath of one or more credible Perſon or Perſons, that there is Reaſon or Cauſe to ſuſpect that any Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling Stores or Goods belonging to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, are concealed in any Dwelling Houſe, Warehouſe, Workſhop, Outhouſe, Yard, Garden or other Place, or on board any Ship, Veſſel, Barge, Boat, or other Craft, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to cauſe every ſuch Dwelling Houſe, Warehouſe, Workſhop, Outhouſe, Yard, Garden, or Place, Ship, Veſſel, Barge, Boat, or other Craft, in whatſoever County, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place, the ſame or any of them ſhall be, (in caſe ſuch Warrant ſhall be granted by a Commiſſioner as aforeſaid,) to be ſearched in the Day Time, by any Police Officer, Conſtable, Headborough, or other Peace Officer, either of the County, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place in which the Premiſes, Ship, Veſſel, Barge, Boat, or other Craft ſhall be, or in which the Commiſſioner granting ſuch Warrant (if granted by a Commiſſioner) ſhall then reſide; and in caſe any Stores or Goods marked as herein-before or in the ſaid recited Act of the ninth and tenth Years of King William the Third is mentioned, ſhall upon ſuch Search be found, to cauſe the ſame, and the Offender or Offenders, to be brought before ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace, who is hereby required to commit or bind over, or otherwiſe to deal with ſuch Offender or Offenders according to Law, for ſuch his or their Offence; and that in caſe, upon any ſuch Search, or upon any Seizure whatſoever of Stores or Goods, marked as aforeſaid, any Naval, Ordnance or Victualling Stores, not ſo marked as aforeſaid, ſhall be found, which may reaſonably be ſuſpected to belong to his Majeſty, the Party or Parties in whoſe Poſſeſſion or keeping the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall be required to give to the Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace reſpectively before whom the ſaid Stores or Goods ſhall and may be brought, an Account to the Satisfaction of ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice, that the ſame were not embezzled or ſtolen from any of his Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels, Yards, Storehouſes, or other Places, or that if the ſame were embezzled or ſtolen, the ſame had come to the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Party or Parties honeſtly, and without any Knowledge or Suſpicion that the ſame had been embezzled or ſtolen; on Failure whereof by a reaſonable Time to be ſet by ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace, the ſaid Stores or Goods ſhall thereupon become forfeited, and ſuch Party or Parties ſhall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Miſdemeanor.

If any Stores or Goods (marked as herein-before, or in the recited Act of 9 and 10 Gul. 3. mentioned) ſhall be found, the Offender ſhall be dealt with according to Law; and if upon ſuch Search, or any Seizure of Stores or Goods marked as aforeſaid, any not marked ſhall be found ſuſpected to belong to his Majeſty, and the Party ſhall not give a ſatisfactory Account thereof, they ſhall be forfeited, and he ſhall be deemed guilty of a Miſdemeanor.

Perſons deputed by the Commiſſioners of the Navy, &c. may detain any Craft in which may be ſuſpected to be contained any Articles ſtolen from his Majeſty's Veſſels, &c. and the Parties; who ſhall be dealt with according to Law reſpecting marked Stores, and thoſe not marked, ſuſpected to belong to his Majeſty, and

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons deputed or appointed by the principal Officers or Commiſſioners of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, or any three of them reſpectively, at any Time or Times from and after the paſſing of this Act, to ſtop, ſearch, and detain in ſome Place of Safety, any Barge, Boat, or other Craft, which there ſhall be Reaſon to ſuſpect doth contain any Naval, Ordnance, or Victualling Stores, Ropes, Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, Arms, Ammunition, Materials, and Things ſtolen, embezzled, or unlawfully procured from or out of any of his Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels, Yards, Storehouſes, or other Places, and alſo to apprehend and detain, or cauſe to be apprehended and detained, any Perſon or Perſons who may be reaſonably ſuſpected of having or conveying any ſuch Stores or other Things in ſuch Barge, Boat, or Craft, and ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo apprehended ſhall be (as ſoon as conveniently may be) conveyed before any Commiſſioner of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling for the Time being, or before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place in which ſuch Seizure ſhall be made, together with the Stores, Ropes, Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, Arms, Ammunition, Materials, and Things ſo found in ſuch Boat or other Craft; which ſaid Commiſſioner or Juſtice is hereby required to commit or bind over, or otherwiſe to deal with ſuch Perſon or Perſons according to Law, in reſpect to any of the ſaid laſt mentioned Stores and Things which ſhall be ſo marked as aforeſaid; and in reſpect to any of ſuch Stores and Things which ſhall not be ſo marked, but which ſhall nevertheleſs be reaſonably ſuſpected to be the Property of his Majeſty, the ſaid Perſon or Perſons on whom the ſame ſhall be found ſhall be required quired to give an Account, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice, that the ſame were not embezzled or ſtolen as aforeſaid, or that if they were embezzled or ſtolen, the ſame had come to his or their Poſſeſſion honeſtly, and without any Knowledge or Suſpicion that the ſame had been embezzled or ſtolen; on Failure whereof, by a reaſonable Time to be ſet as aforeſaid *, the ſaid laſt mentioned Stores or Things ſhall thereupon become forfeited, and the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſo apprehended ſhall be deemed and adjudged guilty of a Miſdemeanor; and in caſe the ſaid Perſon or Perſons ſhall be convicted of ſtealing, embezzling, or unlawfully having in his, her, or their Poſſeſſion any of the ſaid Stores or Things which ſhall be ſo marked as aforeſaid, or ſhall be adjudged guilty of a Miſdemeanor for not giving a ſatisfactory Account as aforeſaid, with reſpect to ſuch of the ſaid Stores or Things as ſhall not be ſo marked as aforeſaid, ſuch Barge, Boat, or other Craft in which ſuch Stores or Things, or any of them, ſhall be found, with its Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, ſhall, upon ſuch Conviction or Adjudication, become and be adjudged by ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice forfeited, and ſhall be diſpoſed of in Manner herein-after mentioned †.

If the Perſons be convicted of ſtealing marked Articles, or adjudged guilty of a Miſdemeanor with reſpect to unmarked ones, the Craft in which found ſhall be forfeited. †[§ 15.]

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons deputed or appointed as aforeſaid, or any Police Officer, Conſtable, Headborough, or other Peace Officer, or any Beadle or Watchman, (during ſuch Time as he ſhall be on Duty,) of every Pariſh and Place where he ſhall be an Officer, to apprehend and detain, or cauſe to be apprehended and detained, all and every Perſon and Perſons who may reaſonably be ſuſpected of having or carrying, or anyways conveying any Naval, Ordnance, or Victualling Stores, Ropes, Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, Arms, Ammunition, Materials, and Things ſtolen or unlawfully procured from or out of any of his Majeſty's Ships or Veſſels, Yards, Storehouſes, or other Places, and alſo to ſeize and detain in ſome Place of Safety, ſuch Stores, Materials, or Things as laſt aforeſaid; and as ſoon as conveniently may be to convey, or cauſe the Perſon or Perſons ſo apprehended to be conveyed before any Commiſſioner of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, or before any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for any County, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place in or near to the Place of Seizure, together with the ſaid Stores and other Things; and ſuch and the like Proceedings ſhall and may be had and taken againſt the ſaid Perſon or Perſons, in reſpect of ſuch laſt mentioned Stores or Things, whether marked or not marked, and ſuch Forfeiture be incurred, and Adjudication made, as are above directed with reſpect to Stores found in any Barge, Boat, or other Craft as aforeſaid.

Perſons ſo deputed, or any Police or Peace Officer, may apprehend Perſons ſuſpected of having Articles ſtolen from his Majeſty's Veſſels, &c. and may ſeize the Articles, and convey them and the Parties before a Juſtice, and the like Proceedings ſhall be had as with reſpect to Stores found in any Craft.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Stores, Ropes, Tackle, Apparel, Furniture, Arms, Ammunition, Materials, and Things, which are herein-before declared to be forfeited on the Party or Parties not giving to the Commiſſioner or Juſtice a ſatisfactory Account that the ſame were not embezzled or ſtolen as aforeſaid, ſhall be forthwith returned into his Majeſty's Store, and ſhall be applied for the Uſe and Benefit of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, unleſs Proof ſhall be made within three Calendar Months next following ſuch Seizure, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace, that the ſame Stores and other Things are the Property of any other Perſon or Perſons; in which Caſe the ſaid Commiſſioner or Juſtice ſhall cauſe the ſame to be forthwith delivered up to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, on his or their giving a proper Receipt or Diſcharge for the ſame, and paying the reaſonable Coſts and Charges, (to be ſet by ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice,) attending the Conveyance thereof to and from his Majeſty's Store, and the Warehouſing or ſafe Cuſtody thereof from the Time of the Seizure.

Articles herein declared to be forfeited on the Parties not giving a ſatisfactory Account of them, ſhall be returned into his Majeſty's Stores, and applied for his Uſe, unleſs Proof be made within three Months to the contrary.

XV. And be it further enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace reſpectively by whom any Barge, Boat, or other Craft ſhall be adjudged to be forfeited in purſuance of this Act, and he is hereby authorized and required forthwith after ſuch Adjudication, to iſſue his Warrant to the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port at or neareſt to the Place where ſuch Seizure ſhall be made, for the Sale of ſuch Barge, Boat, or other Craft; which ſaid Collector or other Chief Officer, by virtue thereof ſhall, and is hereby authorized and required within one Month then next following, to cauſe ſuch Barge, Boat, or other Craft, together with its Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, to be publickly ſold to the higheſt Bidder, Notice of which Sale ſhall be given in ſome or one of the Publick Papers in Circulation in the City, Town Corporate, or Place where ſuch Sale ſhall be made; and the Money ariſing from ſuch Sale, after Payment of the reaſonable Expences and Charges attending the ſame, and of ſecuring ſuch Barge, Boat, or other Craft from the Time of the Seizure thereof (to be aſcertained by ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace) ſhall thereupon be forthwith paid by ſuch Collector or other Officer of the Cuſtoms into the Hands of ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace reſpectively, and be by ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice within one Calendar Month then next following paid and diſpoſed of in the Manner following; (that is to ſay,) one Moiety thereof to the Perſon or Perſons (or his or their Repreſentatives, if dead) who ſhall have made Seizure of ſuch Barge, Boat, or other Craft, and the other Moiety thereof to the Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Navy for the Time being (in caſe the Stores ſeized ſhall be Naval or Victualling Stores) to be by him applied in ſuch and the ſame Manner as the Monies ariſing from the Sale of Old Stores in his Majeſty's Dock Yards now are, or for the Time being ſhall be applicable; and in caſe the Stores ſeized ſhall be Ordnance Stores, then the ſaid other Moiety ſhall be paid to the Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Ordnance for the Time being, to be by him applied in ſuch Manner for the Uſe of his Majeſty, as the Maſter General and Principal Officers of his Majeſty's Ordnance for the Time being ſhall order and direct.

The Commiſſioner or Juſtice by whom any Craft ſhall be adjudged to be forfeited, ſhall iſſue his Warrant to the Officer of the Cuſtoms for the Sale thereof, who ſhall cauſe it and the Furniture to be publickly ſold, and the Produce ſhall be paid to the Commiſſioner or Juſtice, and diſpoſed of, one Half to the Seizor of the Craft, and the other to the Navy Board, &c.

Persons guilty of Misdemeanors shall forfeit for the first Offence 40s. for the second 5l. for the third 10l. which may be levied by Distress, to be applied, one Half to the Informer and one Half to the Navy Board, &c. and if Distress cannot be found, the Offender, (who shall be kept in Custody,) shall be committed for three Months.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person deemed and adjudged guilty of any of the Misdemeanors aforesaid, before any Commissioner or Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, shall for every such Misdemeanor forfeit for the first Offence the Sum of forty Shillings; for the second Offence the Sum of five Pounds, and for the third and every subsequent Offence the Sum of ten Pounds, over and above the other Forfeitures above mentioned; all which said respective Forfeitures shall and may be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every such Offender, (rendering to him or them the Overplus, after the Charges of the said Distress and Sale deducted,) by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Commissioner or Justice of the Peace, before whom such Offender was convicted, directed to any Constable or other Peace Officer of the County, Division, City, Town Corporate, Liberty or Place, and shall be disposed of in Manner following; (that is to say,) one Moiety to the Person or Persons apprehending such Offender or Offenders, or giving Information, as the Case shall be, and the other Moiety thereof to the Treasurer of the Navy or Ordnance for the Time being, as the Case may require, to be applied as before mentioned; and in case the Constable or other Peace Officer to whom such Warrant shall be directed, shall return to such Commissioner or Justice of the Peace that the Offenders or Offender named therein have not or hath not any Goods or Chattels in his County or Constablewick, whereby he can levy the said Penalty, (which Return the said Constable or other Peace Officer is hereby required in that Case to make within a reasonable Time to be set by the said Commissioner or Justice of the Peace, and during which Time the said Offenders or Offender shall be kept in safe Custody by the Order of such Commissioner or Justice of the Peace,) then and in such Case the said Commissioner or Justice shall, and he is hereby required by Warrant under his Hand and Seal directed, as aforesaid, to cause such Offenders or Offender to be committed to the Common Gaol of the County, Division, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place, in which such Seizure shall have been made, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for the Space of three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid.

Adjudications in Misdemeanors shall be certified to the next General Quarter Sessions, and shall be final.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That every Adjudication in any of the said Misdemeanors shall be certified by the Commissioner or Justice of the Peace making the same, to the next General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County, Division, City, Town Corporate or Place in which such Seizure shall be made, to be filed and entered amongst the Records of the said Session; and such Conviction shall not be set aside or quashed for Want of Form, nor be liable to be removed by Certiorari, Advocation, or Suspension into any other Court, but shall be deemed and taken to be final to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Any Commissioner of the Navy, &c. or Justice of the Peace may determine any Complaint (against Persons not being Contractors, &c.) for unlawfully selling or receiving Stores not exceeding 20 Shillings Value, and may fine the Offender 10l.

XVIII. 'And whereas it might tend to prevent the Commission of Offences if Power were given to the 'Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, Ordnance, and Victualling, and his Majesty's Justices of the Peace 'out of Sessions, to hear and determine Offences in a summary Way in Cases where the Stores found are 'of small Value, and to fine or otherwise punish the Offenders accordingly;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Principal Officer or Commissioner of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling for the Time being, or any Justice of the Peace for any County, Division, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place within this Kingdom, to hear and determine any Complaint against any Person or Persons (not being a Contractor or Contractors, or employed as aforesaid) for unlawfully selling or delivering, or causing or procuring to be sold or delivered, or for receiving or having in his, her, or their Custody, Possession, or Keeping, or for concealing any Stores of War, or Naval, Ordnance, or Victualling Stores or Goods marked with such Marks respectively as are herein-before mentioned, of any Value in the Whole not exceeding twenty Shillings; which said Commissioner or Justice respectively is hereby authorized and required upon any Information exhibited or Complaint made in that Behalf, at any Time within three Calendar Months next after any such Offence shall have been committed, to cause the Party or Parties accused to be apprehended and brought before him; or if he, she, or they shall have absconded, or cannot be found, then to be summoned to appear before such Commissioner or Justice, by a Notice or Summons left at his, her, or their last or usual Place of Abode; and also to cause the Witnesses on either Side to be summoned; and such Commissioner or Justice shall examine into the Matter of Fact, and upon due Proof made thereof, either by the voluntary Confession of the Party or Parties, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, (which Oath the said Commissioner or Justice respectively is hereby authorized to administer,) give Judgment or Sentence accordingly; and in case the Party or Parties accused shall be convicted of such Offence, then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Commissioner or Justice of the Peace respectively to inflict a Fine of ten Pounds upon him, her, or them, for such his, her, or their Offence; which said Fine so inflicted shall be divided and distributed, one Moiety thereof to the Informer or Discoverer of the Offence, and the other Moiety thereof (the necessary Charges for the Recovery thereof being first deducted) to the Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy or Ordnance, as the Case may be, to be by him applied in such Manner as herein before mentioned with respect to the Produce of Barges, Boats, or other Craft seized and sold under the Authority of this Act, and to award and issue out his Warrant under his Hand and Seal for levying such Fine so adjudged on the Goods of the Offender or Offenders, and to cause Sale to be made thereof for Payment of such Fine and the reasonable Charges of Distress, (to be judged of by such Commissioner or Justice respectively,) in case they shall not be redeemed within six Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus, if any; and where sufficient Goods of the Party cannot be found to answer the said Fine, to commit the said Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol of the County, Division, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place, for the Space of three Calendar Months, unless such Fine shall be sooner paid, or in lieu of such Fine, to cause such Offender or Offenders to be imprisoned and kept to hard Labour in the House of Correction for the Space of three Calendar Months, as to such Commissioner or Justice of the Peace respectively shall be Fine may be levied by Distress, and applied, one Half to the Informer, and one Half to the Navy Board, &c. (See § 15.)

be thought fit; and every ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice ſhall cauſe the Amount of every ſuch laſt mentioned Moiety of Fine which he ſhall ſo receive, and alſo the Moiety of every Sum ariſing from the Sale of any Barge, Boat, or other Craft ſold under the Authority of this Act and paid into his Hands as aforeſaid, to be paid into the Hands of the ſaid Treaſurer of the Navy or Ordnance, within thirty Days after the Expiration of the Year in which ſuch Fines ſhall be received by him, or in Default thereof ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice reſpectively ſhall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be recovered with double Coſts of Suit, by any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, or Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance ſhall be allowed; one Moiety of which laſt mentioned Fine ſhall go to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them who ſhall ſue for the ſame as aforeſaid.

mitted to the Common Gaol, or in lieu of the Fine may be kept to hard Labour in the Houſe of Correction for three Months. How the Moieties payable to the Navy Board, &c. ſhall be paid in by the Juſtices.

XIX. Provided always nevertheleſs, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioner or Juſtice before whom any Perſon ſhall be convicted in a ſummary Way as aforeſaid (if he ſhall ſee Cauſe), to mitigate and leſſen any ſuch before-mentioned Fine of ten Pounds, to be inflicted in that Behalf as he ſhall think fit, (the reaſonable Coſts of the Officers and Informers, as well in making the Diſcovery as in proſecuting the ſame, being always allowed over and above ſuch Mitigation,) and ſo as ſuch Mitigation do not reduce the Fine to leſs than one Moiety of the ſaid Sum of ten Pounds, over and above the ſaid Coſts and Charges; any Thing contained in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Fine of 10l may be mitigated to one Half, beſides Expences.

XX. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That in caſe ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace ſhall, upon the hearing and determining of ſuch Complaint as aforeſaid, adjudge the Offender or Offenders, in lieu of a Fine, to be impriſoned and kept to hard Labour as aforeſaid, that then the Informer, or Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have diſcovered ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall have and receive, as a Reward for ſuch his, her, or their Diſcovery, the Sum of five Pounds for every ſuch Offence ſo diſcovered; and the Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, as the Caſe may require, ſhall cauſe the ſaid Reward of five Pounds to be paid by the Treaſurer of the Navy or Ordnance reſpectively for the Time being, out of any publick Money in his Hands, upon ſuch Informer or other Perſon producing to them a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace who ſhall have convicted ſuch Offender or Offenders as aforeſaid, certifying ſuch Conviction and the Puniſhment which he hath inflicted upon the Offender or Offenders; and the Name or Names of the Perſon or Perſons who in his Judgment is entitled, and in what Proportion or Proportions to ſuch Reward; which Certificate the ſaid Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace reſpectively is hereby required to give without Fee or Reward; and the Money paid by any ſuch Treaſurer on Account of ſuch laſt mentioned Rewards ſhall be allowed in his Accounts, and he ſhall be diſcharged thereof accordingly; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding: Provided alſo, That no ſuch ſummary Proceeding as before mentioned ſhall be had before any Juſtice of the Peace under the Authority of this Act, without the Conſent in Writing of the Principal Officers or Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling for the Time being, or one of them, for that Purpoſe firſt had and obtained; and that every Adjudication or Sentence to be had or given without ſuch Conſent as aforeſaid, ſhall be null and void to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

If in lieu of a Fine the Offender be impriſoned, the Informer ſhall receive 5l. Reward from the Navy Board, &c. upon Production of a Certificate from the Commiſſioners or Juſtices who convicted him.

No ſummary Proceeding to be had before any Juſtice without the Conſent of the Commiſſioners of the Navy, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall find himſelf, herſelf, or themſelves aggrieved by the Judgement of any ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice, touching or concerning any ſuch Stores as laſt aforeſaid, under the Value of twenty Shillings, then he, ſhe, or they ſhall or may, upon entering into a Recognizance to his Majeſty, with one or more Surety or Sureties, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice, to the Amount of treble the Value of ſuch Fine, appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace at their next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place wherein the Offence was committed, who are hereby empowered to ſummon and examine Witneſſes upon Oath, and finally to hear and determine the ſame; and in caſe the Judgement ſhall be affirmed, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Juſtices of the Peace to award the Perſon or Perſons ſo appealing to pay ſuch Coſts occaſioned by ſuch Appeal as to them the ſaid Juſtices ſhall ſeem meet, and to enforce Payment thereof, according to the Courſe and Practice of ſuch Court.

Perſons thinking themſelves aggrieved by any Judgement touching Stores under the Value of 20s. may appeal to the Quarter Seſſions.

XXII. 'And in order to avoid frivolous and vexatious Appeals,' be it further enacted, That the Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace before whom any Offender ſhall be convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall cauſe the ſaid Conviction to be made out in the Manner and Form following, or in any other Form of Words to the like Effect mutatis mutandis; which Conviction ſhall be good and effectual to all Intents and Purpoſes, without ſtating the Caſe, or the Facts or Evidence, in any more particular Manner; (that is to ſay,) Convictions ſhall be made out in the following Form, or to the like Effect.

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord A. B. of in the of was convicted before me C. D. one of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's [or, one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the of as the Caſe may be] for that the ſaid A. B. on the Day of now laſt paſt, at the of in the ſaid of did [here ſtate the Offence againſt the Act] contrary to the Statute in ſuch Caſe made and provided.

Form of Conviction.

'Given under my Hand and Seal the Day of in the Year of our Lord

Which

Convictions to be returned to the next General Quarter Seſſions to be filed, and ſhall not be removed by Certiorari, &c.

Which Conviction the ſaid Commiſſioner or Juſtice ſhall cauſe to be written fairly upon Parchment or Paper, and returned to the next General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace for the County, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place where ſuch Conviction was made, to be filed by the Clerk of the Peace, and there to remain and be kept among the Records of the ſame County, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Liberty, or Place, and the ſame ſhall not be removed by Certiorari, Advocation, or Suſpenſion, into any Court whatſoever.

Witneſſes neglecting to attend ſhall forfeit 10l.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſummoned as a Witneſs or Witneſſes, to give Evidence before ſuch Commiſſioner, or Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, touching any of the Matters relative to this Act, either on the Part of the Proſecutor or the Party or Parties accuſed, and ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear at the Time and Place to be for that Purpoſe appointed, without a reaſonable Excuſe for ſuch his, her, or their Neglect or Refuſal, to be allowed by ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace before whom the Seizure, Complaint, or Proſecution ſhall be depending, that then every ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered, levied, and paid and applied, in ſuch Manner and by ſuch Means as is above directed with reſpect to Fines on ſummary Convictions.

Nothing herein ſhall prevent Parties accuſed of ſelling or receiving Stores under the Value of 20s. from being proſecuted as Receivers of ſtolen Goods, ſo as the Offender be not twice puniſhed for the ſame Offence.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That nothing herein-before contained which gives to any Commiſſioner or Juſtice of the Peace Power or Authority to hear and determine Offences in a ſummary Way, ſhall extend or be deemed, conſtrued, or taken to extend, to prevent the Party or Parties accuſed of ſelling or delivering, or of having in his, her, or their Cuſtody, Poſſeſſion, or Keeping, or of receiving or concealing any of the Stores marked as above mentioned, under the Value of twenty Shillings, from being proſecuted as Receivers of ſtolen Goods under this Act, or for unlawfully having the ſame in his, her, or their Cuſtody, or concealing the ſame under the ſaid recited Acts of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, the ninth Year of the Reign of King George the Firſt, or the ſeventeenth Year of the Reign of King George the Second, in any Court of Record, Oyer and Terminer, or otherwiſe, as they might have been if no ſuch Power or Authority had been given; or to take away from any Perſon or Court whatſoever any Power, Right, Juriſdiction, Pre-eminence, or Authority, which he or they, or any of them, ought lawfully to have had and enjoyed for the hearing and determining of ſuch Offences, in caſe no ſuch Power or Authority to hear and determine the ſame in a ſummary Way had been given, ſo as that the ſame Perſon ſhall not be puniſhed twice for the ſame Offence.

The Commiſſioners of the Navy, &c. may ſell marked Stores, and the Buyers may keep them, without incurring any Penalty, on producing a Certificate of their having bought them.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, for the Time being, may ſell and diſpoſe of any of the Stores aforeſaid ſo marked as aforeſaid, as they did or might have done before the making of this Act; and that ſuch Perſon or Perſons as heretofore have or ſhall hereafter buy any ſuch Stores or other Stores ſo marked as aforeſaid, of the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners, may keep and enjoy the ſame, without incurring the Penalty of this Act, or any Law to the contrary whatſoever, upon producing a Certificate or Certificates, under the Hand and Seal of three or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, that they bought ſuch Goods or Stores from them at any Time before they ſold or delivered the ſame, or before the ſame were found in their Cuſtody, or a Certificate from ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall appear to have bought the ſaid Stores from them the ſaid Commiſſioners, that the Stores ſo ſold or delivered by them, or ſo found in their Cuſtody, were the Stores or Part of the Stores ſo bought of the ſaid Commiſſioners as aforeſaid; in which Certificate or Certificates, the Quantities of ſuch Stores ſhall be expreſſed, and the Time when and where bought of the ſaid Commiſſioners, who, or any three or more of them for the Time being, and alſo the Perſon or Perſons afterwards ſelling the ſame, are hereby empowered and directed from Time to Time to give ſuch Certificate to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall deſire the ſame, and have bought and ſhall hereafter buy any of the aforeſaid Stores within thirty Days after the Sale and Delivery thereof.

Penalty for giving or publiſhing falſe Certificates 200l. and corporal Puniſhment, (as under § 2.)

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall make, ſign, or give any falſe Certificate, Bill of Parcels, or other Inſtrument, purporting the Identity or the Sale or Diſpoſal of any Goods or Stores as Goods or Stores ſo purchaſed of the ſaid Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall utter or publiſh any ſuch falſe Certificate, Bill of Parcels, or other Inſtrument purporting as aforeſaid, knowing the ſame to be falſe, every ſuch Offender, upon Conviction thereof in due Form of Law, ſhall forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, and be further corporally puniſhed, as by this Act is directed with reſpect to Perſons having in their Poſſeſſion or concealing his Majeſty's Warlike, Naval, or Ordnance Stores, contrary to the ſaid Act of the ninth and tenth Years of King William the Third; one Moiety of which Penalty ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Coſts of Suit, to the Informer, to be recovered in ſuch Manner as the Penalty of two hundred Pounds, inflicted by the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, is by that Act or any Law now in force, made recoverable.

Penalty Half to the King and Half to the Informer.

If any Perſon ſhall be ſued for any Seizure, and ſhall prove on the Trial that the Stores were marked, or if not marked might be ſuſpected to belong to his Majeſty, or if the Plaintiff ſhall

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſued or proſecuted for or by reaſon of their ſeizing any ſuch Stores or Goods as aforeſaid, or any Barge, Boat, or other Craft in which the ſame ſhall have been depoſited, and upon the Trial of the Iſſue ſhall make Proof, that ſuch Goods or Stores ſo ſeized by him or them, or any Part thereof, were ſo marked as aforeſaid, or if not ſo marked, might reaſonably be ſuſpected to belong to his Majeſty, or in caſe the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, in ſuch Action or Suit, ſhall not at ſuch Trial make good Proof that he or they was or were ſo employed, or had ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid, and that he or they did ſhew ſuch Certificate to the Defendant or Defendants before the Action or Suit was commenced or brought, and that ſuch Defendant or Defendants did not thereupon deliver or offer to deliver back unto the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, at their Requeſt, all ſuch Goods and Stores as aforeſaid, and the Barge, Boat, or other Craft (if any) in which the ſame had been depoſited, in as good Plight and Condition as they were were at the Time of the Seizure thereof, such Defendant or Defendants shall be acquitted and found not guilty thereupon.

not prove that he had a Certificate, &c. the Defendant shall be acquitted.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Commissioner of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling, acting in the Execution of this Act, shall have and be entitled to the Benefit and Protection given to the Justices of the Peace in and by an Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of the Reign of the late King James the First, intituled, An Act for Ease in pleading troublesome and contentious Suits prosecuted against Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Constables, and certain other his Majesty's Officers, for the lawful Execution of their Office; and also in and by one other Act of Parliament, made in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of the said late King James, intituled, An Act to enlarge and make perpetual the Act, made for Ease in pleading against troublesome and contentious Suits prosecuted against Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Constables, and certain other his Majesty's Officers, for the lawful Execution of their Office, made in the seventh Year of his Majesty's most happy Reign; and also in and by one other Act of Parliament, made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for rendering Justices of the Peace more safe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Constables and others acting in Obedience to their Warrants, in as full and ample Manner and Form as if such Commissioner had been a Justice of the Peace within the true Intent and Meaning of the said Acts of Parliament, or any of them; and that all and every Constable, Headborough, or other Peace Officer, or Person acting under the Warrant or Authority of such Commissioner in pursuance of this Act, shall, besides the Protection given to Persons making Seizures as above mentioned, have and be entitled to the full Benefit and Protection of the said several last mentioned Acts of Parliament, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if he or they had acted under the Warrant or Authority of a Justice of the Peace within the Meaning of the same Acts.

The Commissioners shall have the Benefit given to Justices of the Peace by 7 Jac. 1. c. 5. 21 Jac. 1. c. 12. and 24 Geo. 2. c. 44. and the Peace Officers acting under them shall have the Protection of the said Acts.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this present Act shall extend to that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland; and it is hereby declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that all Persons who shall commit within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland any of the Offences against this Act herein-before expressed, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, shall be liable to the same Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities which by this present Act are declared to be applicable to similar Offences committed within that Part of Great Britain called England.

Act to extend to Scotland.

XXX. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons accused of having committed any of the Offences against this Act, herein-before described, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be tried according to the Forms used and observed by the Law of Scotland in Trials for Theft or Reset of Theft.

Offenders in Scotland to be tried according to the Forms in Trials for Theft or Reset of Theft.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Persons accused of Offences and Misdemeanors against this Act within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and for which when committed in England, a summary Mode of Trial and Conviction is herein-before established, may be tried in the same summary Manner within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, before the Judge Ordinary of the Bounds, or before two or more Justices of the Peace in or out of Sessions, and being lawfully convicted thereof, by their own Confession, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses, shall be punished in the Manner herein-before directed in Cases of such summary Trial and Conviction in England.

Persons accused of Offences in Scotland, for which in England a summary Mode of Trial is established, may be so tried there.

XXXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such summary Prosecutions within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall proceed, either at the Instance of the Procurator Fiscal of the Court before which the Party is to be tried, or at the Instance of his Majesty's Naval Storekeeper at Leith for the Time being, with Concourse of such Procurator Fiscal.

At whose Instance summary Prosecutions in Scotland shall proceed.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures to be imposed on any Person by virtue of this Act, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be applied in the Manner herein-before directed with regard to similar Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures to be imposed by virtue of this Act in that Part of Great Britain called England.

Penalties in Scotland to be applied as in England.

XXXIV. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases in which by this present Act or otherwise it is necessary or lawful to institute any Suit, Plaint, Bill, or Action, before any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, for any Thing done contrary to or in pursuance of this Act within that Part of Great Britain called England, it shall be lawful in all similar Cases occurring within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Party to bring his Action before the Court of Exchequer there, according to the Forms and Usages observed in that Court: Provided always, That such Action or Suit be brought within the Time above specified for bringing such Actions in England.

In Cases where in England Suits may be instituted in any Court of Record at Westminster, in similar Cases in Scotland they may be instituted in the Court of Exchequer there.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Questions whatsoever occurring within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland upon all Matters and Things done contrary to or in pursuance of this Act, and which are not herein-before expressly provided for, Regard shall be had to the Laws and Usages observed in Scotland in like Cases; any Thing herein expressed to the contrary notwithstanding.

In Questions in Scotland upon Matters not herein provided for, the Laws there to be observed.

XXXVI. And

If any Perſon ſhall forſwear himſelf he ſhall be liable to the Penalties of wilful Perjury.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon upon Examination upon Oath or Affirmation before any Commiſſioner of the Navy, Ordnance, or Victualling reſpectively, or before any Juſtice of the Peace in Great Britain, in any Matter relating to the Execution of this Act, ſhall wilfully and corruptly give falſe Evidence, or ſhall, in any Information or Depoſition ſworn, or Affirmation taken in Writing before any ſuch Commiſſioner or Juſtice, wilfully and corruptly ſwear or affirm any Matter or Thing which ſhall be falſe or untrue, every ſuch Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall be and is hereby declared to be ſubject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties as any Perſons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are by any Law now in force ſubject and liable to.

CAP. XC.

An Act for ſettling Diſputes that may ariſe between Maſters and Workmen engaged in the Cotton Manufacture in that Part of Great Britain called England.

[28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS conſiderable Abuſes have for ſeveral Years laſt paſt ſubſiſted in the Trade or Manufacture of Cotton Weaving, in that Part of Great Britain called England, to the great Oppreſſion of the Perſons employed in the Manufacture thereof and concerned therein, and manifeſt Hindrance and Injury of the Trade: And whereas it will be a great Convenience and Advantage to all Parties concerned in ſuch Trade, and an Encouragement to the Manufacture, that a cheap and ſummary Mode be eſtabliſhed for ſettling all Diſputes that may ariſe in reſpect thereof, between the Maſters and Workmen engaged in the ſaid Trade:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That,

From Aug. 1, 1800, in Caſes of Difference between Maſters and Workmen in the Cotton Manufacture in England, which cannot be mutually adjuſted, the Matter in Diſpute may be referred to Arbitration.

from and after the firſt Day of Auguſt in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred, in all Caſes that ſhall or may ariſe within that Part of Great Britain called England, where the Maſters and Workmen cannot agree reſpecting the Price or Prices to be paid for Work done, or to be done, in the ſaid Manufacture, whether ſuch Diſpute ſhall happen or ariſe between them reſpecting the Reduction or Advance of Wages or any Injury or Damage done, or alleged to have been done by the Workmen to the Work, or reſpecting any Delay, or ſuppoſed Delay, on the Part of the Workmen in finiſhing the Work or the not finiſhing ſuch Work in a good and workmanlike Manner; and alſo in all Caſes where the Workmen are to be employed to work any new Pattern which ſhall require them to purchaſe any new Implements of Manufacture for the working thereof, and the Maſters and Workmen cannot agree upon the Compenſation to be made to ſuch Workmen for or in reſpect thereof, and alſo reſpecting the Length of all Pieces of Cotton Goods, or the Wages or Compenſation to be paid for all Pieces of Cotton Goods that are made of any great or extraordinary Length, and reſpecting the Manufacture of Cravats, Shawls, Polycat, Romall, and other Handkerchiefs, and the Number to be contained in one Piece of ſuch Handkerchiefs, and the Wages to be paid in reſpect thereof, and in all Caſes of Diſpute or Difference ariſing or happening by and between the Maſters and Workmen employed in ſuch Manufacture, out of, for, or touching ſuch Trade or Manufacture, which cannot be otherwiſe mutually adjuſted and ſettled by and between them; it ſhall and may be lawful, and it is hereby declared to be lawful, for ſuch Maſters and Workmen, between whom ſuch Diſpute or Difference ſhall ariſe as aforeſaid, or either of them, to demand and have an Arbitration or Reference of ſuch Matter or Matters in Diſpute, and each of them is hereby authorized and empowered forthwith to nominate and appoint an Arbitrator for and on his reſpective Part and Behalf, to arbitrate and determine ſuch Matter or Matters in Diſpute as aforeſaid, and ſuch Arbitrators ſo appointed as aforeſaid, after they ſhall have accepted and taken upon them the Buſineſs of the ſaid Arbitration, are hereby authorized and required to ſummon before them, and examine upon Oath the Parties and their Witneſſes, (which Oath the ſaid Arbitrators are hereby authorized and required to adminiſter according to the Form ſet forth in the Schedule to this Act,) and forthwith to proceed to hear and determine the Complaints of the Parties, and the Matter or Matters in Diſpute between them, and the Award to be made by ſuch Arbitrators ſhall in all Caſes be final and concluſive between the Parties; but in caſe ſuch Arbitrators ſo appointed cannot agree to decide ſuch Matter or Matters in Diſpute ſo to be referred to them as aforeſaid, and do not make and ſign their Award within the Space of three Days after the ſigning of the ſaid Submiſſion, that then they ſhall forthwith, and without Delay, go before and attend upon one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace acting in and for the County, Riding, City, Liberty, Diviſion, Townſhip, or Place, and reſiding neareſt to the Place where ſuch Diſpute ſhall happen and be referred, and ſtate to ſuch Juſtice the Points in Difference between them the ſaid Arbitrators, which Points in Difference the ſaid Juſtice ſhall and he is hereby authorized and required to hear and determine, which Determination of ſuch Juſtice ſhall be made and ſigned within the Space of three Days after the Expiration of the Time hereby allowed the Arbitrators to make and ſign their Award, and ſhall be final and concluſive between the Parties ſo differing as aforeſaid; and if either of the ſaid Parties, or their reſpective Witneſſes, having been duly ſummoned, ſhall neglect or refuſe to attend ſuch Arbitrators at the Time and Place by them for that Purpoſe appointed, it ſhall and may be lawful for any one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace acting in and for the County, Riding, City, Liberty, Diviſion, Townſhip, or Place, where ſuch Diſpute ſhall happen, and he or they is or are hereby required, upon Proof on Oath being made before him or them of the Service of ſuch Summons, either perſonally or by leaving the ſame at the laſt or uſual Place of Abode of ſuch Perſon ſummoned, and alſo upon the like Proof of the Neglect or Refuſal of ſuch Perſon to attend the ſaid Arbitrators in purſuance of ſuch Sum-

Arbitrators empowered to ſummon Witneſſes and adminiſter Oaths.

If they do not agree and ſign the Award within 3 Days after Submiſſion, they ſhall ſtate the Points in Difference to a Juſtice, who ſhall finally decide therein.

Parties or Witneſſes refuſing to attend Arbitrators, and after being brought before a Juſtice, refuſing to give Evidence, may mons,

mons, (unleſs a reaſonable Excuſe be made for ſuch Non-attendance to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices,) to iſſue his or their Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands for the apprehending and bringing ſuch Perſon before him or them, and if any ſuch Perſon ſo being brought before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall ſtill refuſe to be examined, or to give his or their Teſtimony before ſuch Arbitrators touching the Premiſes, ſuch Perſon ſo refuſing ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices committed to the Houſe of Correction within his or their Juriſdiction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize until he, ſhe, or they, ſhall ſubmit to be examined and give Evidence before the Arbitrators touching the Premiſes aforeſaid.

be committed to the Houſe of Correction till they ſubmit.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Parties who ſhall have ſigned any Submiſſion to Arbitration ſhall think it expedient, or be minded and deſirous to extend the Time hereby limited for the making of the Award or Umpirage, it ſhall and may be lawful for them to extend the ſame accordingly by Indorſement on the Back of ſuch Submiſſion, to be ſigned by both of them in the Preſence of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes; any Thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Time of making Award may be extended by the Parties.

III. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That the Submiſſion to ſuch Arbitration, and the Award or Umpirage to be made thereon, ſhall and may be drawn up, and written at the Foot of ſuch Submiſſion, upon unſtamped Paper, in the reſpective Forms ſet forth in the Schedule to this Act; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Submiſſion and Award may be drawn on unſtamped Paper agreeably to Schedule annexed;

IV. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That there ſhall, in all Caſes, be written or engroſſed two Parts of the Submiſſion to Arbitration, one for each of the Parties ſubſcribing the ſame.

and each Party to have a Copy.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in every Caſe of Diſpute or Difference between any ſuch Maſter and Workman in ſuch Trade or Manufacture as aforeſaid, if an Arbitration ſhall be demanded, and the Submiſſion thereto ſigned, and an Arbitrator therein named by either of the ſaid Parties, and the other of them ſhall refuſe or neglect to ſign the ſaid Submiſſion, and appoint his Arbitrator; or if, after making of the ſaid Award or Umpirage, either Party ſhall refuſe to ſubmit thereto, for the Time or Term of two Days next after the ſigning ſuch Submiſſion in Manner aforeſaid, or refuſing to ſubmit to ſuch Award or Umpirage reſpectively as aforeſaid, the Party ſo neglecting, or refuſing to ſign the ſaid Submiſſion, or to appoint his Arbitrator, or refuſing to ſubmit to ſuch Award or Umpirage as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and pay to the Party who ſhall have demanded ſuch Arbitration, ſigned his Submiſſion thereto, and named his Arbitrator therein as aforeſaid, or in whoſe Favour ſuch Award or Umpirage ſhall be made and ſigned as aforeſaid, the Sum of ten Pounds, to be recovered in a ſummary Way before one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, City, Liberty, Diviſion, Townſhip, or Place, where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed; and the Conviction for the ſame may be had and made upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes; and in caſe any ſuch Forfeiture or Penalty ſhall not be forthwith paid purſuant to ſuch Conviction, ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, cauſe the ſame to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, together with all Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale; and in caſe no ſufficient Diſtreſs can be had, ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, commit the Offender to the Common Gaol, or ſome Houſe of Correction, within his or their Juriſdiction, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months, nor leſs than two Calendar Months.

If any Party refuſe, for two Days, to ſign the Submiſſion or to appoint an Arbitrator, or to ſubmit to the Award, he ſhall forfeit to the other Party 10l. to be recovered before one Juſtice, and leviable by Diſtreſs and Sale, or the Offender to be committed for not more than 3 Months nor leſs than 2.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be convicted of any Offence againſt this Act, ſhall cauſe all ſuch Convictions to be drawn up according to the Form, or to the Effect ſet forth in the Schedule to this Act; and the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall cauſe the ſame to be fairly written on Parchment, and tranſmitted to the next General Seſſions, or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be holden for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Townſhip, or Place, wherein ſuch Conviction was had, to be filed and kept amongſt the Records of the ſaid General or General Quarter Seſſions.

Convictions to be drawn up agreeably to the Form ſet forth in the Schedule; and filed, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon convicted before any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, of any Offence againſt this Act, to appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace aſſembled at the next General Seſſions or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be holden for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Townſhip, or Place, wherein ſuch Conviction ſhall be made, ſuch Perſon ſo appealing giving immediate Notice of ſuch Appeal, and finding two ſufficient Sureties in the Sum of five Pounds each, and entering into his or her own Recognizance before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſo convicting as aforeſaid, in the Sum of ten Pounds, to appear and proſecute every ſuch Appeal with Effect; and the Juſtices of the Peace at ſuch General or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, are hereby authorized and required on every ſuch Appeal being made, and on reaſonable Notice thereof given to the other Party, finally to hear and determine the Matter of every ſuch Appeal, and to make ſuch Order, and to award ſuch Coſts therein, as they in their Diſcretion ſhall ſee meet; and which ſaid Order and Determination ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties; and no Certiorari ſhall be allowed to remove any ſuch Proceedings or Determination.

Appeal may be made to Quarter Seſſions.

VIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Action ſhall be brought againſt any Arbitrator, Juſtice of the Peace, Conſtable, Headborough, or other Officer, or againſt any other Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, for any Matter or Thing whatſoever done or committed under or by virtue or in the Execution of this Act, unleſs ſuch Action ſhall be brought within ſix Calendar Months next after the doing or committing of ſuch Matter or Thing.

Limitation of Actions; ſix Months.

General Iſſue.

IX. Provided alſo, That if any Action or Suit ſhall hereafter be commenced or proſecuted againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done under, by virtue, or in the Execution of this Act, ſuch Perſon or Perſons may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff ſhall become nonſuited, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or forbear further Proſecution, or if Judgment ſhall be given for the Defendant or Defendants, ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover his, her, or their full Coſts, for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall have like Remedy as in Caſes where Coſts by Law are given to Defendants.

Full Coſts.

Juſtices who are Cotton Manufacturers not to act.

X. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Juſtice of the Peace, being alſo a Maſter Cotton Weaver or Manufacturer, ſhall act as ſuch Juſtice under this Act; any Thing herein contained, or any former Statute, Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Nothing herein ſhall repeal any Proviſions of the Acts of 1 Anne, ſt. 2. c. 18; 13 Geo. 2. c. 8; 22 Geo. 2. c. 27. [and ſee 23 Geo. 2. c. 13. § 9.] 17 Geo. 3. c. 56. or of any other Act, ſo far as they provide Penalties on ſuch Workmen, or afford Remedies to Maſters (except where they relate to Wages).

XI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to repeal, abridge, annul, or make void any of the Clauſes, Proviſions, Remedies, or Powers contained in the ſeveral Acts made and paſſed in the firſt Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, and in the thirteenth and twenty-third Years of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, and in the ſeventeenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, or in any or either of them, or in any other Act or Acts relating to the ſaid Trade heretofore made and paſſed, ſo far as the ſame enact, provide, or inflict any Pains, Penalties, and Puniſhments upon or againſt ſuch Workmen, and ſo far as the ſame enact, provide, or afford any Remedy or Remedies to the Maſters againſt the Workmen engaged in the ſaid Trade or Manufacture (ſave and except where ſuch Remedy and Remedies relate to Wages); any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Publick Act.

XII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be taken and allowed to be a Publick Act in all Courts within this Kingdom, and all Judges and Juſtices of the Peace are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers:

CAP. XCI.

An Act to prohibit, until the fifteenth Day of October one thouſand eight hundred, the Exportation of Rice. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament *, a Bounty was granted, in certain Caſes, on Rice imported into this Kingdom, in order to encourage a Supply of the ſame; and it is expedient to prevent the Exportation thereof ſo long as the ſaid Act ſhall be in force:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifteenth Day of July one thouſand eight hundred, no Perſon or Perſons whatever ſhall, directly or indirectly, export, carry, or convey, or cauſe or procure to be exported, carried, or conveyed, out of or from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, or ſhall load or lay on board, or cauſe or procure to be laden or laid on board, in any Ship or other Veſſel or Boat, any Rice, in order to be exported, carried, or conveyed, out of any ſuch Port or Place.

From July 15, 1800, no Rice ſhall be exported.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Rice which ſhall be ſo exported, carried, or conveyed, or be laden or laid on board in any Ship or other Veſſel or Boat, in order to be exported, carried, or conveyed out of this Kingdom, contrary to this Act, ſhall be forfeited; and that every Offender therein ſhall forfeit alſo the Sum of Sixpence for every Pound Weight of ſuch Rice which ſhall be ſo exported, carried, or conveyed, or ſo laden or laid on board in any Ship or other Veſſel or Boat, in order to be exported, carried, or conveyed out of this Kingdom, and alſo the Ship, Veſſel, or Boat wherein the ſame ſhall be exported, or in or upon which the ſame ſhall be laden or laid in order to be exported, together with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, ſhall be forfeited, and the ſame reſpectively may be ſeized by any Officer or Officer of the Cuſtoms.

Rice exported or put on board any Veſſel for that Purpoſe, ſhall be forfeited, and the Offender ſhall forfeit 6d. for every lb. of ſuch Rice, and the Veſſel.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures created and incurred by this Act ſhall and may be ſued for, proſecuted, recovered, and diſpoſed of in ſuch Manner, and by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalties incurred on any Goods, Ships, or Veſſels forfeited for any Offence againſt the Laws of Cuſtoms, may now be legally ſued for, proſecuted, recovered, and diſpoſed of; and the Officer or Officers concerned in Seizures or Proſecutions under this Act, ſhall be entitled to and receive ſuch Share of the Produce ariſing from the Seizures, as they are now by Law entitled to upon Proſecution of Seizures for unlawful Importation, and to ſuch Share of the Produce ariſing from any pecuniary Fine, or Penalty, or Compoſition paid for any Offence againſt this Act, as they are now by any Law or Regulation entitled to, upon Proſecution for pecuniary Penalties.

Penalties and Forfeitures may be recovered, &c. as under the Laws of Cuſtoms.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Perſonal Actions and Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all Proſecutions and Proceedings whatſoever, which have been or ſhall be hereafter proſecuted or commenced againſt fuſing to receive any Entry for clearing out any Veſſel laden with Rice ſhall be void, &c.

Actions brought againſt Perſons for re-

againſt any Perſon or Perſons for having refuſed to receive any Entry or Entries for the Exportation of any Rice, or to clear out any Ship or Veſſel laden with Rice, intended to be exported before the paſſing of this Act, be, are, and ſhall be diſcharged and made void, by virtue of this Act; and that if any Action or Suit ſhall be proſecuted or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for or by reaſon of any ſuch Act, Matter, or Thing, he, ſhe, or they may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any Action or Suit ſo to be proſecuted or commenced, ſhall become nonſuit, or forbear further Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover his, her, or their Double Coſts; for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall have the like Remedy as in Caſes where the Coſts by Law are given to the Defendants.

Continuance of Act till Oct. 15, 1800.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue in force until the fifteenth Day of October one thouſand eight hundred.

CAP. XCII.

An Act for eſtabliſhing certain Regulations in the Offices of the Houſe of Commons.

[28th July 1800.]

Recital of Letters Patent to John Hatſell Eſquire and John Ley Eſquire, Clerks of the Houſe of Commons, and to Edward Coleman Eſquire, Serjeant at Arms.

'WHEREAS it is expedient that after the Intereſts, which the Perſons herein-after mentioned enjoy, by virtue of Letters Patent granted by his Majeſty, in the Office of Clerk of the Houſe of Commons, ſhall have expired, a different Diſtribution ſhould be made of the Fees and Emoluments now belonging thereto; and that for this Purpoſe further Regulations ſhould be eſtabliſhed in other Offices of the ſaid Houſe: And whereas by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Weſtminſter the third Day of June, in the eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, the Office of Clerk of the Houſe of Commons, with an Annuity of ten Pounds, and all other Rewards, Dues, Rights, Profits, Commodities, Advantages, and Emoluments whatſoever to the ſaid Office, after what Manner ſoever or howſoever then or thentofore anciently appertaining, incident, accuſtomed or belonging, was granted to John Hatſell Eſquire for and during his natural Life: And whereas alſo by certain other Letters Patent, bearing Date at Weſtminſter the fourth Day of July in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, the ſaid Office was granted to John Ley Eſquire for and during his natural Life, to take Effect from and after the Deceaſe of the ſaid John Hatſell, in as full, ample, and beneficial a Manner as the ſame had been granted to the ſaid John Hatſell as aforeſaid: And whereas by certain other Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing Date at Weſtminſter the ſixteenth Day of November, in the ſixteenth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, the Office of Serjeant at Arms attending the Houſe of Commons, with a Salary and all other Fees, Perquiſites, and Emoluments to the ſaid Office belonging, was granted to Edward Coleman Eſquire:' May it therfore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons for the Time being, and the Secretary or Secretaries of State, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Maſter of the Rolls, and the Attorney and Solicitor General for the Time being, being alſo Members of the Houſe of Commons, ſhall be, and they are hereby nominated, conſtituted, and appointed Commiſſioners for the Purpoſes of this Act; any three of the ſaid Commiſſioners, whereof the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons for the Time being ſhall be one, ſhall be, and they are hereby authorized to carry this Act into Execution.

The Speaker, the Secretaries of State, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Maſter of the Rolls, and the Attorney and Solicitor General, being alſo Members of the Houſe of Commons, appointed Commiſſioners for this Act.

After Expiration of recited Letters Patent, the Fees and Emoluments of the Clerk, Clerk Aſſiſtant, and Serjeant of the Houſe of Commons ſhall be paid to the Commiſſioners, to be by them applied in Manner herein directed, in Payment of Salaries to the Clerk and Clerk Aſſiſtant.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Letters Patent ſo granted to the ſaid John Hatſell, John Ley, and Edward Coleman as aforeſaid, all Fees, Perquiſites, and Emoluments which would have been due and payable to any future Clerk or Clerk Aſſiſtant of the Houſe of Commons, or Serjeant at Arms attending the Houſe of Commons for the Time being, in caſe this Act had not been made, ſhall be paid into the Hands of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to be by them applied and diſtributed in the Manner herein-after directed; that is to ſay, the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, and they are hereby directed to pay to the Clerk of the Houſe of Commons for the Time being, the nett annual Sum of three thouſand Pounds, for and during the firſt five Years which the ſaid Clerk of the Houſe of Commons ſhall hold his ſaid Office; and from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of five Years, to pay to ſuch Clerk of the Houſe of Commons, the further nett Sum of five hundred Pounds annually, making together the Sum of three thouſand five hundred Pounds; and to pay to the Clerk Aſſiſtant of the ſaid Houſe for the Time being, the nett annual Sum of one thouſand five hundred Pounds, for and during the firſt five Years which the ſaid Clerk Aſſiſtant ſhall hold his ſaid Office; and from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of five Years, to pay to ſuch Clerk Aſſiſtant, the further nett annual Sum of five hundred Pounds, making together the Sum of two thouſand Pounds; and which Sums ſo paid by the ſaid Commiſſioners to the Clerk and Clerk Aſſiſtant of the Houſe of Commons reſpectively, ſhall be taken and accepted by them in full Satisfaction and Diſcharge of all Fees, Perquiſites, and Emoluments to which he or they might or could have been entitled, or which he or they may have been accuſtomed to receive, by virtue or in reſpect of his or their ſaid Office or Offices, previous to the paſſing of this Act; any Form, Practice, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding: Provided always, That in caſe a Vacancy ſhall happen in the Office of Clerk of the Houſe of Commons, after the Expiration of the ſaid Letters Patent, and the Clerk Aſſiſtant for the Time being ſhall ſucceed thereto, and ſhall then have held the Office of Clerk Aſſiſtant more than five Years, the Exceſs beyond five Years ſhall be reckoned as Part or the Whole, as the Caſe may be, of the five five Years which the Clerk of the House of Commons is herein required to have held his Office, before he shall be entitled to have and receive of the said Commissioners the said Sum of three thousand five hundred Pounds; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Clerk Assistant who shall be in Possession of that Office at the Expiration of the said Letters Patent, shall continue in such Office after the Expiration of the said Letters Patent, or shall then or at any Time thereafter be appointed Clerk of the House of Commons, the Amount of his Salary or Allowance agreeably to the Provisions herein-before contained, shall be estimated according to the whole Number of Years, as well before as after the Expiration of the said Letters Patent, during which he shall in any of the said Cases have held the said Office; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

If the Clerk Assistant shall continue in Office after the Expiration of Letters Patent, the Amount of his Salary shall be estimated according to the whole Number of Years he had held the Office.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, and they are also hereby further authorized and directed from and after the Expiration of the Interest of the said Edward Coleman in the said Office of Serjeant at Arms, to pay to the Serjeant at Arms attending the House of Commons for the Time being, the nett annual Sum of two thousand three hundred Pounds, which said Sum of two thousand three hundred Pounds shall be taken and accepted by the said Serjeant at Arms for the Time being, in full Satisfaction and Discharge of all Fees, Perquisites, and Emoluments to which he might or could have been entitled, or which he may have been accustomed to receive, by virtue or in respect of his said Office, previous to the passing of this Act; any Form, Practice, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, That in case the said Serjeant at Arms for the Time being shall have or employ any Deputy, he shall make an Allowance to such Deputy, at the Rate of not less than three hundred Pounds per Annum, out of the said Sum of two thousand three hundred Pounds; but if he shall not have or employ any such Deputy, he shall account to the said Commissioners for the said Sum of three hundred Pounds per Annum, or such Part thereof as shall not have been paid to such Deputy in any one Year.

Salary to be paid the Serjeant at Arms and his Deputy, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby authorized and required to prepare and lay before the House of Commons, within the first twenty sitting Days after the Expiration of the said Letters Patent, and so within twenty sitting Days after the Commencement of every subsequent Session of Parliament, a Plan of the Manner in which the Residue (if any, or so much thereof as to them shall seem sufficient for the Purposes herein-after mentioned) of the Monies so to be by them received, or which it shall appear to them, from an Average of the three preceding Years, will probably be received by them, shall be applied and disposed of towards making a more certain and regular Provision for the Support of such Officers in the Departments of the Speaker of the House of Commons, and of the Clerk of the said House, and Serjeant at Arms, as may from casual Circumstances appear to require the same, and for affording Relief to such Persons belonging to, or who may have belonged to the said Departments, and who may have been disabled by Age or Infirmity from the Discharge of their respective Duties, which said Plan shall be binding and conclusive on the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and directed to carry the same into Effect, unless the said House, within twenty sitting Days after the said Plan shall have been so laid before them, shall have otherwise ordered and directed; and then and in such Case, with such Variations as shall have been so made therein, and so from Time to Time as often as such Plan shall as above required be laid before the House.

A Plan of the Manner of applying the Residue of the Money received by the Commissioners, for the Support of such Officers as appear to require the same, shall be laid before Parliament by the Commissioners from Time to Time.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall prepare and lay before the House of Commons, within twenty sitting Days after the Commencement of every Session of Parliament, an Account of the Monies so received by them, by virtue of this Act, and of the Manner in which the same shall have been applied and disposed of; and that in case it shall appear from the said Account that there is in the Hands of the said Commissioners a Surplus remaining, after carrying into Effect the Plan or Orders herein-before mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the said House to direct such a Disposition to be made thereof, as to them shall appear most proper towards providing, in case the House shall see fit, a Remuneration for the Person or Persons by whom the Duties of Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means shall have been discharged during the then Session of Parliament, and for the better Support of Persons belonging to any of the Departments herein-before mentioned, those Persons belonging thereto excepted, whose Salaries may have been or may be fixed by the Authority of Parliament, and so in such Case, from Time to Time, in every subsequent Session of Parliament, as Circumstances shall admit of and require.

An Account of the Money received and disbursed under this Act shall be laid before the House of Commons annually, who may direct the Application of the Balance.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed to prevent the said Commissioners, upon the Expiration either of the said Letters Patent granted to the said John Hatsell and John Ley Esquires, or of the said Letters Patent granted to the said Edward Coleman Esquire, whichever may first happen, from carrying the Purposes of this Act into Execution, as far as the Nature of the respective Cases will admit; and that thereupon all Fees, Perquisites, and Emoluments which would have been due and payable to such of the said Officers, whose Patents or Patent shall have so expired, shall be paid into the Hands of the said Commissioners in the Manner herein-before directed.

On Expiration of either of the recited Letters Patent, the Commissioners may carry this Act into Execution, &c.

CAP. XCIII.

An Act for regulating Trials for High Treason and Misprision of High Treason, in certain Cases. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that in Cases of High Treason in compassing or imagining the Death of 'the King, and of Misprision of such Treason, where the Overt Act or Overt Acts of such Trea- 'son alleged in the Indictment for such Offence shall be the Assassination or killing of the King, or any di- 'rect Attempt against his Life, or any direct Attempt against his Person, whereby his Life may be endangered, 'or his Person may suffer bodily Harm, the Trial for such Offence should not be different from Trials for Murder 'or wilful and malicious Shooting;' be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases of High Treason in compassing or imagining the Death of the King, and of Misprision of such Treason, where the Overt Act or Overt Acts of such Treason which shall be alleged in the Indictment for such Offence shall be Assassination or killing of the King, or any direct Attempt against his Life, or any direct Attempt against his Person whereby his Life may be endangered or his Person may suffer bodily Harm, the Person or Persons charged with such Offence shall and may be indicted, arraigned, tried, and attainted, in the same Manner and according to the same Course and Order of Trial, in every Respect, and upon the like Evidence, as if such Person or Persons stood charged with Murder; and none of the Provisions contained in the several Acts of the seventh Year of King William the Third and the seventh Year of Queen Anne respectively, touching Trials in Cases of Treason and Misprision of Treason respectively, shall extend to any Indictment for High Treason in compassing and imagining the Death of the King, or for Misprision of such Treason, where the Overt Act or Overt Acts of such Treason alleged in the Indictment shall be such as aforesaid; but upon Conviction on such Indictment, Judgement shall be nevertheless given and Execution done as in other Cases of High Treason; any Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

In Cases of High Treason, and Misprision of Treason, where the Overt Act alleged in the Indictment shall be Assassination of the King, or any direct Attempt against his Life, &c. the Offender shall be tried in the same Manner as if charged with Murder, but punishable as in Cases of High Treason (notwithstanding 7 Gul. 3. c. 3. or 7 Ann. c. 21.)

CAP. XCIV.

An Act for the safe Custody of Insane Persons charged with Offences. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS Persons charged with High Treason, Murder, or Felony, may have been or may be of 'unsound Mind at the Time of committing the Offence wherewith they may have been or shall be 'charged, and by reason of such Insanity may have been or may be found not guilty of such Offence, and 'it may be dangerous to permit Persons so acquitted to go at large:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in all Cases where it shall be given in Evidence upon the Trial of any Person charged with Treason, Murder, or Felony, that such Person was insane at the Time of the Commission of such Offence, and such Person shall be acquitted, the Jury shall be required to find specially whether such Person was insane at the Time of the Commission of such Offence, and to declare whether such Person was acquitted by them on account of such Insanity; and if they shall find that such Person was insane at the Time of the committing such Offence, the Court before whom such Trial shall be had, shall order such Person to be kept in strict Custody, in such Place and in such Manner as to the Court shall seem fit, until his Majesty's Pleasure shall be known; and it shall thereupon be lawful for his Majesty to give such Order for the safe Custody of such Person, during his Pleasure, in such Place and in such Manner as to his Majesty shall seem fit; and in all Cases where any Person, before the passing of this Act, has been acquitted of any such Offences on the Ground of Insanity at the Time of the Commission thereof, and has been detained in Custody as a dangerous Person by Order of the Court before whom such Person has been tried, and still remains in Custody, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to give the like Order for the safe Custody of such Person, during his Pleasure, as his Majesty is hereby enabled to give in the Cases of Persons who shall hereafter be acquitted on the Ground of Insanity.

The Jury, in case of any Person charged with Treason, &c. proving to be insane, shall declare whether he was acquitted by them on account of Insanity, and the Court shall order him to be kept in Custody till his Majesty's Pleasure be known, and his Majesty may give an Order for the safe Custody of such insane Person, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Person indicted for any Offence shall be insane, and shall upon Arraignment be found so to be by a Jury lawfully impannelled for that Purpose, so that such Person cannot be tried upon such Indictment, or if upon the Trial of any Person so indicted such Person shall appear to the Jury charged with such Indictment to be insane, it shall be lawful for the Court before whom any such Person shall be brought to be arraigned or tried as aforesaid, to direct such Finding to be recorded, and thereupon to order such Person to be kept in strict Custody until his Majesty's Pleasure shall be known; and if any Person charged with any Offence shall be brought before any Court to be discharged for Want of Prosecution, and such Person shall appear to be insane, it shall be lawful for such Court to order a Jury to be impannelled to try the Sanity of such Person; and if the Jury so impannelled shall find such Person to be insane, it shall be lawful for such Court to order such Person to be kept in strict Custody, in such Place and in such Manner as to such Court shall seem fit, until his Majesty's Pleasure shall be known; and in all Cases of Insanity so found, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to give such Order for the safe Custody of such Person Insane Persons indicted for any Offence, and found to be insane by a Jury to be impannelled on their Arraignment, &c. shall be ordered by the Court to be kept in Custody till his Majesty's Pleasure be known, &c.

Perſon ſo found to be inſane, during his Pleaſure, in ſuch Place and in ſuch Manner as to his Majeſty ſhall ſeem fit.

III. 'And, for the better Prevention of Crimes being committed by Perſons inſane,' be it further enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall be diſcovered and apprehended under Circumſtances that denote a Derangement of Mind, and a Purpoſe of committing ſome Crime, for which, if committed, ſuch Perſon would be liable to be indicted, and any of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace before whom ſuch Perſon may be brought ſhall think fit to iſſue a Warrant for committing him or her as a dangerous Perſon ſuſpected to be inſane, ſuch Cauſe of Commitment being plainly expreſſed in the Warrant, the Perſon ſo committed ſhall not be bailed except by two Juſtices of the Peace, one whereof ſhall be the Juſtice who has iſſued ſuch Warrant, or by the Court of General Quarter Seſſions, or by one of the Judges of his Majeſty's Courts in Weſtminſter Hall, or by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Commiſſioners of the Great Seal.

Perſons committed by any Juſtice on account of being dangerous and inſane ſhall not be bailed except by two Juſtices, (one being the Juſtice committing,) or by the Quarter Seſſions, or one of the Judges.

IV. 'And whereas inſane Perſons have, at different Times, endeavoured to gain Admittance to his Ma-'jeſty's Preſence, by Intruſion on his Majeſty's Palaces and Places of Reſidence and otherwiſe, and his 'Majeſty's Perſon may be endangered by Reaſon of the Inſanity of ſuch Perſons:' Be it therefore enacted, That if any Perſon who ſhall appear to be inſane ſhall endeavour to gain Admittance to his Majeſty's Preſence, by Intruſion on any of his Majeſty's Palaces or Places of Reſidence, or otherwiſe, ſo that there may be Reaſon to apprehend that his Majeſty's Perſon may be endangered, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty's Privy Council, or one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to cauſe ſuch Perſon to be brought before them or him; and if upon Examination it ſhall appear that there is Reaſon to apprehend ſuch Perſon to be inſane, and that the Perſon of his Majeſty may be endangered by Reaſon of the Inſanity of ſuch Perſon, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty's Privy Council, or one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to order ſuch Perſon to be kept in ſafe Cuſtody in ſuch Place, and in ſuch Manner, as according to Circumſtances ſhall be aſcertained; and for ſuch Purpoſe, it ſhall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal of Great Britain, to award a Commiſſion under the ſaid Great Seal, directed to certain Commiſſioners to be therein named, to enquire into the Sanity of ſuch Perſon, and whether the Perſon of his Majeſty may be endangered by Reaſon of the Inſanity of ſuch Perſon, and for ſuch Purpoſe, to direct the Sheriff of the County where ſuch Perſon ſhall be, to ſummon a Jury to try the Sanity of ſuch Perſon, and whether his Majeſty's Perſon may be endangered by Reaſon of the Inſanity of ſuch Perſon, in the ſame Manner as Juries are ſummoned to try the Sanity of Perſons on a Commiſſion in the Nature of a Writ de lunatico inquirendo; and if upon the Inquiſition ſo taken it ſhall be found that ſuch Perſon is ſo far inſane that the Perſon of his Majeſty may be endangered by Reaſon of the Inſanity of ſuch Perſon, it ſhall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal for the Time being, to take Order for the ſafe Cuſtody of ſuch Perſon ſo long as there ſhall be Reaſon to apprehend that the Perſon of his Majeſty may be endangered by Reaſon of the Inſanity of ſuch Perſon; and if it ſhall afterwards appear that ſuch Perſon ſhall have recovered the Uſe of his or her Reaſon, ſo that there ſhall be no longer any Reaſon to apprehend any Danger to his Majeſty's Perſon from the Inſanity of ſuch Perſon, it ſhall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lords Commiſſioners for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal for the Time being, to enquire into the Fact by ſuch Means as to him or them ſhall ſeem proper; and if it ſhall appear to his or their Satisfaction, that ſuch Perſon has ſo far recovered the Uſe of his or her Reaſon, that there is no Ground for apprehending any Danger to his Majeſty's Perſon from the Inſanity of ſuch Perſon, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, and Lords Commiſſioners reſpectively, to direct ſuch Perſon to be diſcharged from Cuſtody, either abſolutely or conditionally, or under Reſtrictions, as to him or them ſhall ſeem meet.

The Privy Council or one of the Secretaries of State may cauſe Perſons appearing to be inſane and endeavouring to gain Admittance to his Majeſty to be kept in Cuſtody till the Inſanity of ſuch Perſons be enquired into, and ſuch Perſons may be committed and diſcharged in Manner herein directed, &c.

CAP. XCV.

An Act to indemnify all Perſons who have printed, publiſhed, or diſperſed, or who ſhall publiſh or diſperſe, any Papers printed under the Authority of the Commiſſioners or Head Officers of any Publick Boards from all Penalties incurred by Reaſon of the Name and Place of Abode of the Printer of ſuch Papers not being printed thereon.

[28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS in an Act paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Suppreſſion of Societies eſtabliſhed for ſeditious and treaſonable Purpoſes, and for the better preventing treaſonable and ſeditious Practices, certain Proviſions are contained to reſtrain the printing or publiſhing of any Papers or Books whatſoever, which ſhould be meant or intended to be publiſhed or diſperſed, without the Name and Place of Abode of the Printer thereof being printed thereon, with a certain Penalty on the Perſon printing, publiſhing, or diſperſing, or aſſiſting in publiſhing or diſperſing the ſame, contrary to the ſaid Act: And whereas divers Papers printed by Order or under the Authority of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, the Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and the Commiſſioners and Head Officers of divers other publick Offices and Boards, have, through Inadvertency and Miſtake, and on the Suppoſition that ſuch Papers were not within the Proviſions of the ſaid Act, been printed without the Name and Place of Abode of the Printer thereof being printed thereon, as required by the ſaid Act:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That every Perſon who ſhall, before the paſſing of this Act, have printed any Paper whatſoever, by Order or under the Authority of any ſuch Commiſſioners or Head Officers as aforeſaid, or ſhall have publiſhed or diſperſed, or aſſiſted in publiſhing or diſperſing, or ſhall hereafter publiſh or diſperſe, or aſſiſt in publiſhing or diſperſing, any Paper whatſoever that ſhall have been printed before the paſſing of this Act, by Order or under the Authority of any ſuch Commiſſioners or Head Officers as aforeſaid, ſhall be and is hereby declared to be freed and diſcharged of and from all Suits, Informations, Proſecutions, Judgements, Fines, and Penalties whatſoever, commenced, proſecuted, adjudged, or incurred, or which may be commenced, proſecuted, adjudged, or incurred, for or by Reaſon of any Offence alleged to have been committed againſt the ſaid recited Act, by Occaſion of ſuch printing, publiſhing, or diſperſing, or of aſſiſting in publiſhing or diſperſing any ſuch Paper as aforeſaid, as fully, freely, and effectually, as if the ſame had been printed according to the Proviſions of the ſaid Act.

Perſons who have printed any Papers under the Authority of Commiſſioners of Publick Boards, or who have publiſhed them, or ſhall hereafter publiſh any Paper ſo printed before the paſſing of this Act, ſhall be indemnified from any Penalties incurred by Reaſon of any Offence againſt the recited Act.

CAP. XCVI.

An Act for explaining and amending ſo much of an Act, paſſed in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, relating to the Duties on Income, as reſpects the Delivery of the Statements to the Commercial Commiſſioners of London, under the Amount of Twenty Pounds. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the preſent Seſſion of Parliament *, intituled, An Act for the better aſcertaining and collecting the Duties granted by the ſeveral Acts paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament relating to the Duties on Income, and to explain and amend the ſaid Acts, the Commercial Commiſſioners for the City of London and its Vicinity are reſtrained from aſſeſſing Perſons whoſe Contribution, in reſpect of Income ariſing from Trade or Manufacture, ſhall not amount to the Sum of twenty Pounds: And whereas it is expedient to allow Perſons whoſe Contributions in the preceding Year ſhall have amounted to twenty Pounds to be aſſeſſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, although the Contribution returned in the Statement delivered or to be delivered by them reſpectively for the ſucceeding Year may not amount to that Sum:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That any Perſon carrying on Trade or Manufacture within the Diſtrict of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Number of Perſons carrying on Trade or Manufacture there in Partnerſhip together, whoſe Contribution in reſpect of Income ariſing from ſuch Trade or Manufacture, whether ſeparate or joint, returned in the Statement delivered in by him, her, or them in any preceding Year to the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhall have amounted to the ſaid Sum of twenty Pounds or upwards, ſhall be entitled to be aſſeſſed in every ſubſequent Year by the ſaid Commiſſioners, although in ſuch ſubſequent Year the Contribution of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, whether ſeparate or joint, as ariſing from ſuch Partnerſhip, returned in his, her, or their Statement, may not amount to the ſaid Sum of twenty Pounds; any Thing contained in the ſaid recited Act, or any other Act relating to the ſaid Duties on Income, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Any Perſon or Partners in Trade, whoſe Contribution on Income in any preceding Year, on their Statement delivered to the Commercial Commiſſioners for London ſhall have amounted to 20l. or upwards, ſhall be entitled to be aſſeſſed by them, although in any ſubſequent Year it may not amount to that Sum.

CAP. XCVII.

An Act to incorporate certain Perſons by the Name of The London Company for the Manufacture of Flour, Meal, and Bread, for a limited Time. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS the Eſtabliſhment of a Manufactory for Flour, Meal, and Bread, in London, or its Neighbourhood, would be of conſiderable Benefit and Utility, and would greatly tend to inſure to the Metropolis, and its Neighbourhood, a more regular Supply of Flour, Meal, and Bread at reaſonable Prices: And whereas ſuch Manufactory cannot be advantageouſly eſtabliſhed and carried on, unleſs a conſiderable Joint Stock is raiſed for that Purpoſe: And whereas the ſeveral Perſons herein-after named, and very many other Perſons, have already agreed to become Subſcribers thereto: And whereas it is expedient, for the more eaſily carrying on the ſaid Manufactory, that the ſaid ſeveral Perſons, and ſuch others as ſhall hereafter become Subſcribers thereto, ſhould be incorporated:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That Sir Richard Neave, Sir John Call, Sir Robert Preſton, Sir Frederick Eden, Baronets, John Hatſell, William Dewaynes, Robert Biddulph, John Julius Angerſtein, John Frere, Thomas William Coke, John Fane, Samuel Boſanquet, Magens Dorrien Magens, Edward Forſter, George Hibbert, Job Mathew, Brook Watſon, William Robinſon, William Mackintoſh, Thomas Boddington, Thomas King, Eſquires, and Robert Sherſon Doctor of Phyſick, and every other Perſon and Perſons who ſhall hereafter either in their own Right, as original Subſcribers to the ſame, or as Executors Subſcribers incorporated.

Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, or Aſſigns, in Right of any ſuch original Subſcriber or Subſcribers, become Proprietors of or intereſted in any Part or Share of the Joint Capital Stock or Fund herein-after mentioned, ſhall be one diſtinct and ſeparate Body Politick and Corporate, in Deed and in Name, by the Name and Style of The London Company for the Manufacture of Flour, Meal, and Bread, and by the ſame Name they ſhall have Succeſſion, and a Common Seal, and that they and their Succeſſors may from Time to Time break, alter, make new, or change ſuch Common Seal, as ſhall be found expedient; and that ſuch Corporation ſhall be able and capable in Law to have, purchaſe, receive, take, and enjoy Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, of what Kind, Nature, or Quality ſoever, not exceeding the annual Value of two thouſand Pounds, above all Charges and Reprizes, for the Uſe of the ſaid Manufactory, without Licence to hold or enjoy the ſame in Mortmain, and that ſuch Corporation may grant, ſell, demiſe, alien, or diſpoſe of ſuch Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, at their free Will and Pleaſure; and in their Corporate Name ſhall and may ſue and implead, and may be ſued and impleaded, anſwer and be anſwered, in all or any Courts of Record, and Places of Judicature within this Kingdom, in all Cauſes and Actions whatſoever, for, touching, or concerning the ſaid Corporation, or the Manufactory to be by them carried on as aforeſaid.

Their Style and Powers.

" Company may raiſe not exceeding 120,000l. to be divided into 4800 Shares, or Shares of 25l. each, " which ſhall be deemed Perſonal Eſtate. but no such Officer when reduced shall receive Half Pay, &c.

at the Time of his accepting such Commission; any Thing in any Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

The Officers and others on board such Ships shall be entitled to Prize Money, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Officers, Seamen, Soldiers, and others on board the said four Ships or Vessels, shall have and be entitled to Prize Money, Head Money, Salvage, and all other Benefit and Advantage to accrue from Prize, in all and every the same Cases, and under the same Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are or may be established for the Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers in and on board his Majesty's Ships of War, whether such Prize Money, Head Money, Salvage, or other Benefit or Advantage shall accrue from Captures made solely by the said four Ships or Vessels or any of them, or by them or any of them in Conjunction with any of his Majesty's Sea or Land Forces, or with any Private Ship of War or Letter of Marque; and that all such Captures shall be proceeded against, and in case of Condemnation, be entitled to the like Privileges, and subject to the like Rules and Regulations, and also be appraised and sold in like Manner as if they had been made by any of his Majesty's Ships; and that the Shares of Prize Money, Head Money, and Salvage shall become due and payable to the Treasurer of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, in the like Cases and under the like Circumstances, in which Shares of Prize Money, Head Money, and Salvage become due and payable to the same, when the Captures or Recaptures have been effected by any of his Majesty's Ships of War; and that the Agents for Appraisements and Sales shall be subject and liable to all such Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as if they had been Agents to any of his Majesty's Ships; and that all the Penalties and Forfeitures above mentioned shall be applied in like Manner as if the Subject Matter had related to the Ships, Officers or Seamen of his Majesty, or to the Captures made by any such Ships, Officers or Seamen; any Law or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Offences shall be tried, as if committed by any Person belonging to his Majesty's Fleet.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Offences committed by any Officer, Seaman, or Soldier belonging to any of the said four Dutch Ships or Vessels, shall be tried and punished in such Manner as the like Offences are or ought to be tried and punished, when committed by any Person belonging to his Majesty's Fleet.

Admiralty shall cause the Articles of War (under 22 Geo. 2. c. 33.) to be printed in the Dutch Language; and the Captain of each Ship shall affix a Copy on the most publick Place therein, and cause the same to be from Time to Time read over to the Seamen.

IV. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, shall cause the Articles of War mentioned and contained in a certain Act of Parliament, made and passed in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for amending, explaining, and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Government of his Majesty's Ships, Vessels, and Forces by Sea, to be translated into the Dutch Language and printed, and a competent Number of Copies thereof to be delivered to the Captain or Commander of each of the said Dutch Ships or Vessels, which Captain or Commander, as soon as the Ship or Vessel by him commanded, shall be put into Sea Pay, shall cause one of the said printed Copies to be hung up and affixed to the most publick Place of such Ship or Vessel, and the same to be constantly kept up and renewed, and from Time to Time read over in the Presence of the Officers and Seamen of such Ship or Vessel, in the same Manner as is used on board his Majesty's Ships.

Number of Dutch Officers necessary to constitute a Court Martial.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That on every Court Martial for the Trial of any Dutch Officer, Seaman, or Soldier belonging to any of the said four Dutch Ships or Vessels, three Dutch Officers of the Rank or Denomination of a Captain or Commander belonging to the said Ships, if so many of such Officers shall then be present at the Port or Place where such Court Martial shall be held, and can attend on such Court Martial, shall sit, and in every Respect act as Members at such Court Martial; and if so many of such Dutch Officers of such Rank as aforesaid, shall not be present, or cannot attend on such Court Martial, then so many (less than three) as shall be present and can attend as aforesaid, shall sit and act as Members of such Court Martial: Provided always, That the whole Number of the Members of any such Court Martial, including such Dutch Officers as aforesaid, who shall so sit and act, shall not, in any Case, exceed thirteen; and that the like Excuses shall be allowed to any of such Dutch Officers for not sitting at such Court Martial, as is allowed to Officers in his Majesty's Service; and in case no such Dutch Officer shall be present as aforesaid, or can attend on such Court Martial, then such Court Martial shall consist of such Number of British Officers, as by the Law and Usage of the British Navy would constitute or be entitled to sit at any Court Martial held for the Trial of any Person serving in the British Navy.

Natives of the Seven United Provinces may accept Commissions from his Majesty to serve as Officers or Engineers, to fulfil the Agreement for receiving 6000 Dutch Troops

VI. 'And whereas an Agreement has been signed, by his Majesty's Command, between his Serene 'Highness the Prince Stadtholder and the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, one of his Majesty's Principal 'Secretaries of State, for receiving into his Majesty's Pay and Service a Body of Troops not exceeding 'six thousand Men, consisting of Natives of the Seven United Provinces, or of Subjects of the Here-'ditary States of his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange as aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient to en-'able his Majesty to fulfil the Terms of the said Agreement, and to make Provision for the due Regulation 'and Government of the said Troops;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for such Persons who are Natives of the Seven United Provinces, or are Subjects of the Hereditary States of his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, as shall be willing to serve his Majesty, to enlist as Soldiers, and to accept Commissions or Letters of Service, to serve as Officers or Engineers, from his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, Succeſſors, or from any Perſons duly authorized by his Majeſty, to grant ſuch Commiſſions or Letters of Service, which Commiſſions and Letters of Service, it ſhall be lawful for his ſaid Majeſty, or for any Perſon duly authorized in that Behalf as aforeſaid to grant: Provided alſo, That no ſuch Officer when he ſhall be reduced, ſhall be entitled to receive Half Pay: Provided nevertheleſs, That when any ſuch Officer ſhall be rendered incapable of Military Service, by Wounds or Infirmities, contracted while he ſhall be diſcharging his Military Duty during the Period of his continuing to ſerve as ſuch Officer under the Proviſions of this Act; then and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty to make ſuch Proviſion for ſuch Officer as he ſhall think proper and neceſſary, ſo that ſuch Proviſion ſhall in no Caſe exceed the Half Pay of the Rank in the Britiſh Service, ſimilar to what ſuch Officer ſhall have held at the Time of becoming ſo incapable as aforeſaid: Provided alſo, That no ſuch Perſon as aforeſaid ſhall be liable to any Pain, Penalty, or Forfeiture whatever, for having accepted any ſuch Commiſſion, or inliſted as a Soldier in any ſuch Regiment as aforeſaid, by reaſon of his having profeſſed the Popiſh Religion, and not having declared the ſame at the Time of his inliſting.

into his Majeſty's Service.

No ſuch Officer, when reduced, ſhall be entitled to Half Pay; but if rendered incapable of Service while diſcharging his Duty, his Majeſty may provide for him, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, in every Caſe where he ſhall deem it neceſſary or expedient, to bring any ſuch Troops as aforeſaid, to any Port or Place in Great Britain for the Purpoſe of Rendezvous, or with a View to Operations abroad, and alſo to land ſuch Troops in any Part of Great Britain for Health or Exerciſe, ſo that there ſhall not be, within this Kingdom, more in the Whole than ſix thouſand Men at any one Time; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding: Provided nevertheleſs, That ſuch Troops ſhall not, excepting during their March from one Part of Great Britain to another, be ſtationed at any greater Diſtance from the Sea Coaſt than twenty Miles: Provided alſo, That ſuch Troops ſhall in no Caſe be billetted or quartered, either during their March or otherwiſe, but ſhall be encamped or ſtationed in Barracks, as may be moſt expedient.

His Majeſty may bring ſuch Troops to Great Britain for Rendezvous, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all ſuch Officers and Soldiers aforeſaid reſpectively ſhall, whilſt in his Majeſty's Service as aforeſaid, be ſubject and liable to ſuch Articles of War as his Majeſty ſhall think fit to eſtabliſh, for the better Government of ſuch Forces, and for bringing Offenders againſt the ſame to Juſtice, and for conſtituting Courts Martial, with Power to try, hear, and determine any Crimes or Offences by ſuch Articles of War, and inflict Penalties by Sentence or Judgment of the ſame: Provided always, That no Officer ſhall, by ſuch Articles of War, be ſubject to any Puniſhment extending to Life or Limb, for any Crime which is not expreſſed to be ſo puniſhable by an Act of this Seſſion of Parliament, (intituled, An Act for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters,) nor for ſuch Crimes as are expreſſed to be ſo puniſhable in the ſaid Act, in any Manner, or under any Regulations which ſhall not accord with the Proviſions of the ſaid Act: Provided alſo, That every Perſon who ſhall be enliſted as a Soldier under the Authority of this Act, ſhall be atteſted in ſuch Manner as his Majeſty ſhall direct by ſuch Articles of War, and not otherwiſe; and that ſuch Officers and Soldiers reſpectively ſhall take ſuch Oath for their Fidelity, during their Continuance in his Majeſty's Service, as his Majeſty ſhall in like Manner direct, and no other.

Officers and Soldiers ſhall be ſubject to the Articles of War eſtabliſhed by his Majeſty, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be in force, and have Continuance during the Term of the ſaid Agreements reſpectively ſigned by his Majeſty's Commands between his Serene Highneſs the Prince Stadtholder and the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, and from the End thereof to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. CV.

An Act for the better regulating the Practice, and for preventing Delays in the Proceedings of the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaſter. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS many Delays and Difficulties exiſt in the Practice of the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaſter, in and for the County Palatine of Lancaſter, by reaſon that the Commencement and Continuance of Suits and Proceedings in the ſaid Court have relation to the Times of the Teſte of the original Writs whereupon ſuch Suits and Proceedings are grounded, and to the Aſſizes at which ſuch Writs are returnable, and at or of which ſuch Suits and Proceedings are inrolled or recorded, and alſo by reaſon of the Want of more frequent Days of Return of Writs of Inquiry of Damages and Scire facias, and of judicial Proceſs, iſſuing out of the ſame Court;' for Remedy whereof, may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants reſpectively, in any perſonal Suit or Action, or in any Action of Treſpaſs and Ejectment hereafter to be depending in the ſaid Court, to declare upon, plead, and give Evidence of any Cauſe or Cauſes of Action, or any Matter or Thing, Matters or Things, in Bar or Preclusion of any ſuch Suit or Action, or any other Matters or Things whatſoever, provided the ſame ſhall have accrued or happened, or ſhall hereafter accrue or happen, prior to the Day of the actual ſigning and iſſuing of the Writ of Capias ad reſpondendum, or other Proceſs, firſt actually iſſued forth in ſuch perſonal Suit or Action, or prior to the Day of the actual ſerving of any Declaration or Declarations in any ſuch Action of Treſpaſs and Ejectment, notwithſtanding ſuch Cauſe or Cauſes of Action, Matters or Things, ſhall or may not have accrued prior to the Teſte and Return of the original Writ or Writs whereupon or whereby ſuch Suit or Action is or ſhall be, either really or by Fiction of Law, grounded or warranted, or prior to the Aſſizes or Time wherein or whereof ſuch Declaration or Declarations is or are, or ſhall or may be filed and recorded; and that no Advantage ſhall be taken by Reaſon of any ſuch Cauſe or Cauſes of Action, Matters or Things as aforeſaid, having accrued or being ſtated to have accrued ſubſequent to the Teſte and Return of ſuch Original Writ or Writs, or ſubſequent to the Aſſizes or other the Time laſt above mentioned, or any of them, by or upon Demand of Oyer of any original Writ, Plea in Abatement, Demurrer to any Pleading or Pleadings, Demurrer to Evidence, Bill of Exceptions, Writ of Error, or any other Proceſs or Proceedings whatſoever.

Plaintiffs or Defendants may plead and give Evidence of any Cauſe of Action, or any Thing in Bar of any Suit, provided the ſame ſhall happen prior to the iſſuing of the Writ of Capias ad reſpondendum, &c. or prior to the Day of actual Service of any Declaration in Ejectment; notwithſtanding the Cauſe of Action ſhall not have accrued prior to the Teſte and Return of the original Writ, &c. No Advantage ſhall be taken by reaſon of any Action having accrued ſubſequent to ſuch Teſte and Return, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, any Writ or Writs of Inquiry of Damages, Scire facias, and any judicial or other Proceſs whatſoever hereafter to be iſſued forth and out of the ſame Court in any Action or Suit hereafter to be depending in the ſaid Court, (except ſuch Proceſs as may, according to the preſent Courſe and Practice of the ſaid Court, be made returnable on the firſt Wedneſday of any Month,) ſhall and may be awarded, made, and iſſued forth returnable either upon or at the ſeveral Days and Times whereupon the ſame may now be made returnable reſpectively, according to the preſent Courſe and Practice of the ſaid Court, or returnable on any of the Return Days in Eaſter and Michaelmas Terms reſpectively, according to the Courſe of his Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas at Weſtminſter; and that ſuch Writs may be proceeded upon, and Judgment entered, and Execution iſſued thereon, Proceſs iſſuing out of Court may be returnable according to the preſent Practice, or on any of the Return Days in Eaſter and Michaelmas Terms, according to the thereon, teſted on the Returns of ſuch Writs of Inquiry, or Scire facias, or judicial Proceſs, in ſuch and the like Manner as if the ſame had been made returnable at the preceding Seſſion of Aſſizes of the ſaid County Palatine. Court of Common Pleas at Weſtminſter, &c.

III. Provided always, That no final Judgment be entered, or Execution iſſued, within the Space of ten Days next after the Day of the Return of any ſuch Writ of Inquiry of Damages or Scire facias, made returnable under the Authority of this Act, excluſive of the Day of ſuch Return and the Day of entering ſuch final Judgment, or iſſuing forth of ſuch Execution. No final Judgment ſhall be entered or Execution iſſued within 10 clear Days after the Day of the Return of the Writ of Inquiry or Scire facias, &c.

IV. And Provided always, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to debar any Party or Parties from moving in Arreſt of Judgment, or bringing a Writ of Error, in the ſame Manner as he or they might have done before the making of this Act. Parties not debarred from moving in arreſt of Judgment.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall alter, vary, or affect any Proceedings in any Action already commenced, and now depending in the ſaid Court of Common Pleas at Lancaſter. Proceedings commenced ſhall not be affected.

VI. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Publick Act, and ſhall be judicially taken taken Notice of as ſuch, by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whomſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame. Publick Act.

CAP. CVI.

An Act to repeal an Act, paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to prevent unlawful Combinations of Workmen; and to ſubſtitute other Proviſions in lieu thereof. [29th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to explain and amend an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to prevent unlawful Combinations of Workmen;' be it therefore enacted, by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the ſaid Act ſhall be repealed; and that all Contracts, Covenants, and Agreements whatſoever, in Writing or not in Writing, at any Time or Times heretofore made or entered into by or between any Journeymen Manufacturers or other Perſons within this Kingdom, for obtaining an Advance of Wages of them or any of them, or any other Journeymen Manufacturers or Workmen, or other Perſons in any Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, or for leſſening or altering their or any of their uſual Hours or Time of Working, or for decreaſing the Quantity of Work, (ſave and except any Contract made or to be made between any Maſter and his Journeyman or Manufacturer, for or on Account of the Work or Service of ſuch Journeyman or Manufacturer with whom ſuch Contract may be made,) or for preventing or hindering any Perſon or Perſons from employing whomſoever he, ſhe, or they ſhall think proper to employ in his, her, or their Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, or for controlling or any Way affecting any Perſon or Perſons carrying on any Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, in the Conduct or Management thereof, ſhall be and the ſame are hereby declared to be illegal, null, and void, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever. 39 Geo. 3. c. 81. repealed. All Contracts heretofore entered into for obtaining an Advance of Wages, altering the uſual Time of working, decreaſing the Quantity of Work, &c. (except Contracts between Maſters and Men) ſhall be illegal.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Journeyman, Workman, or other Perſon ſhall at any Time after the paſſing of this Act make or enter into, or be concerned in the making of or entering into any ſuch Contract, Covenant, or Agreement, in Writing or not in Writing, as is herein-before declared to be an illegal Covenant, Contract, or Agreement; and every Journeyman and Workman or other Perſon who, after the paſſing of this Act, ſhall be guilty of any of the ſaid Offences, being thereof lawfully convicted, upon his own Confeſſion, or the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before any two Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, (which Oath either of ſuch Juſtices is hereby authorized and empowered to adminiſter in ſuch Caſe, and in all other Caſes where an Oath is to be taken before any Juſtices of the Peace in purſuance of this Act,) within three Calendar Months next after the Offence ſhall have been committed, ſhall, by Order of ſuch Juſtices, be committed to and confined in the Common Gaol within his or their Juriſdiction, for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months, or at the Diſcretion of ſuch Juſtices ſhall be committed to ſome Houſe of Correction within the ſame Juriſdiction, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding two Calendar Months. Every Workman, after paſſing this Act, who ſhall be guilty of any ſuch Offence, ſhall be committed to the Common Gaol for not more than three Months, or the Houſe of Correction, for not more than two; on Conviction before two Juſtices;

III. And be it further enacted, That every Journeyman or Workman, or other Perſon, who ſhall at any Time after the paſſing of this Act, enter into any Combination to obtain an Advance of Wages, or to leſſen or alter the Hours or Duration of the Time of Working, or to decreaſe the Quantity of Work, or for any other Purpoſe contrary to this Act, or who ſhall, by giving Money, or by Perſuaſion, Solicitation, or Intimidation, or any other Means, wilfully and maliciouſly endeavour to prevent any unhired or unemployed Journeyman or Workman, or other Perſon, in any Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, or any other Perſon wanting Employment in ſuch Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, from hiring himſelf to any Manufacturer, or Tradeſman, or Perſon conducting any Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, or who ſhall, for the Purpoſe of obtaining an Advance of Wages, or for any other Purpoſe contrary to the Proviſions of this as alſo any Workman entering into any Combination for advancing Wages, &c. or who ſhall wilfully and maliciouſly endeavour to prevent any Workman from hiring himself, or prevail on him to quit his Employ, or who shall hinder any Master from employing any Person, or without reasonable Cause, shall refuse to work with any other Workman;

Act, wilfully and maliciously decoy, persuade, solicit, intimidate, influence, or prevail, or attempt or endeavour to prevail, on any Journeyman or Workman or other Person hired or employed, or to be hired or employed in any such Manufacture, Trade, or Business, to quit or leave his Work, Service, or Employment, or who shall wilfully and maliciously hinder or prevent any Manufacturer or Tradesman, or other Person, from employing in his or her Manufacture, Trade, or Business, such Journeymen, Workmen, and other Persons as he or she shall think proper, or who, being hired or employed shall, without any just or reasonable Cause, refuse to work with any other Journeyman or Workman employed or hired to work therein, and who shall be lawfully convicted of any of the said Offences, upon his own Confession, or the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any two Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where such Offence shall be committed, within three Calendar Months next after the Offence shall have been committed, shall, by Order of such Justices be committed to and be confined in the Common Gaol within his or their Jurisdiction, for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months; or otherwise be committed to some House of Correction, within the same Jurisdiction, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding two Calendar Months.

and also all Persons who shall attend any Meeting for the Purpose of making any such illegal Contract, or who shall summon or by Intimidation, &c. endeavour to induce any Journeyman to attend any such Meeting, or who shall collect any Money, &c.

IV. 'And for the more effectual Suppression of all Combinations amongst Journeymen, Workmen, and 'other Persons employed in any Manufacture, Trade or Business,' be it further enacted, That all and every Persons and Person whomsoever, (whether employed in any such Manufacture Trade, or Business, or not,) who shall attend any Meeting had or held for the Purpose of making or entering into any Contract, Covenant, or Agreement, by this Act declared to be illegal, or of entering into, supporting, maintaining, continuing, or carrying on any Combination for any Purpose by this Act declared to be illegal, or who shall summons, give Notice to, call upon, persuade, entice, solicit, or by Intimidation, or any other Means, endeavour to induce any Journeyman, Workman, or other Person employed in any Manufacture, Trade, or Business, to attend any such Meeting, or who shall collect, demand, ask, or receive any Sum of Money from any such Journeyman, Workman, or other Person, for any of the Purposes aforesaid, or who shall persuade, entice, solicit, or by Intimidation, or any other Means, endeavour to induce any such Journeyman, Workman, or other Person to enter into or be concerned in any such Combination, or who shall pay any sum of Money, or make or enter into any Subscription or Contribution, for or towards the Support or Encouragement of any such illegal Meeting or Combination, and who shall be lawfully convicted of any of the said Offences, upon his own Confession, or the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, before any two Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place where such Offence shall be committed, within three Calendar Months next after the Offence shall have been committed, shall, by Order of such Justices, be committed to and confined in the Common Gaol within his or their Jurisdiction, for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months; or otherwise be committed to some House of Correction within the same Jurisdiction, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding two Calendar Months.

No Person shall contribute for any Expences incurred for acting contrary to this Act, or towards the Support of any Person to induce him not to work, on Penalty not exceeding 10l and any Person collecting Money for such Purposes, shall forfeit, not exceeding 5l. one Moiety to his Majesty, and the other to the Informer and the Poor of the Parish.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Person (whether employed as a Journeyman or Workman in any Manufacture, Trade, or Business, or not) shall at any Time after the passing of this Act wilfully pay or give any Sum of Money, as a Subscription or Contribution for the Purpose of paying Expences incurred or to be incurred by any Person or Persons acting contrary to the Provisions of this Act, by Payment of Money, or other Means, support or maintain any Journeyman, Workman, or other Person, or contribute towards his Support or Maintenance, for the Purpose of inducing him to refuse to work, or to be hired or employed in any Manufacture, Trade, or Business; and every Person who shall be guilty of any such Offence shall forfeit and lose any sum not exceeding the Sum of ten Pounds; and every Journeyman, Workman, and other Person, who shall collect or receive any Money or valuable Thing for any of the Purposes aforesaid, shall forfeit and lose any Sum not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds; such Penalties of ten Pounds and five Pounds respectively to be forfeited, one Moiety to his Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Informer and Poor of the Parish where such Offence has been committed, to be equally divided between them; and all and every of the said Offences shall be heard and determined in a summary Way, before two Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where such Offence shall be committed, and the Conviction for the same may be had and made upon the Oath or Oaths of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses; and the Amount of the Forfeiture or Penalty for every such Offence shall be fixed and determined by such Justices, but not exceeding the several Sums herein-before mentioned; and in case any such Forfeiture or Penalty shall not be forthwith paid pursuant to such Conviction, such Justices shall, by Warrant under their Hands, cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, together with all Costs and Charges attending such Distress and Sale; and in case no sufficient Distress can be had, such Justices shall, by Warrant under their Hands, commit the Offender to the Common Gaol within his or their Jurisdiction, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding three Calendar Months nor less than two Calendar Months; or otherwise, at the Discretion of such Justices, to some House of Correction within their Jurisdiction, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding two Calendar Months.

Offences shall be determined in a summary Way before two Justices who shall fix the Penalty, and if not paid, shall cause it to be levied by Distress, or in Default thereof shall commit the Offender to the Common Gaol or House of Correction.

Contributions already made for any prohibited Purposes, and not divided

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Sums of Money which at any Time heretofore have been paid or given as a Subscription or Contribution for or towards any of the Purposes prohibited by this Act, and shall, for the Space of three Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act, remain undivided in the Hands of

of any Treaſurer, Collector, Receiver, Truſtee, Agent, or other Perſon, or placed out at Intereſt, and all Sums of Money which ſhall at any Time after the paſſing of this Act, be paid or given as a Subſcription or Contribution for or towards any of the Purpoſes prohibited by this Act, ſhall be forfeited, one Moiety thereof to his Majeſty, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon as will ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and any Treaſurer, Collector, Receiver, Truſtee, Agent, or other Perſon in whoſe Hands or in whoſe Name any ſuch Sum of Money ſhall be, or ſhall be placed out, or unto whom the ſame ſhall have been paid or given, ſhall and may be ſued for the ſame as forfeited as aforeſaid.

for three Months after paſſing this Act, ſhall be forfeited, as alſo all future Contributions for the like Purpoſes, one Moiety to his Majeſty, and the other to the Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame.

VII. 'And, for the better Diſcovery of all Sums of Money which have been or ſhall be paid or given 'by way of Subſcription or Contribution for any Purpoſe prohibited by this Act,' be it further enacted, That all and every the Perſons and Perſon who ſhall or may be liable by virtue of this Act to be ſued for the ſame, ſhall be obliged and compellable to anſwer upon Oath to any Information which ſhall or may be preferred againſt them or him in any Court of Equity, by or in the Name of his Majeſty's Attorney General on the Part of his Majeſty, or at the Relation of any Informer, for diſcovering the Sum and Sums of Money ſo paid or given for any of the prohibited Purpoſes aforeſaid, and ſuch Court ſhall and may make ſuch Orders and Decrees therein as to ſuch Court ſhall ſeem juſt, and no Perſon ſhall demur to or refuſe to anſwer ſuch Information by reaſon of any Penalty or Forfeiture to which ſuch Perſon may be liable in conſequence of any Diſcovery which may be ſought thereby.

Perſons liable to be ſued for Contribution Money, ſhall be obliged to anſwer on Oath to any Information preferred againſt them.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That upon Payment, into the Court in which ſuch Information ſhall be filed, of all the Money paid or given unto any ſuch Treaſurer, Collector, Receiver, Truſtee, Agent, or other Perſon for any of the prohibited Purpoſes aforeſaid, and remaining in his Hands at the Time of filing ſuch Informations, and upon making a full Diſcovery of all the Securities in or upon which all ſuch Money which ſhall not be ſo remaining in his Hands ſhall have been placed out or inveſted, the Perſon or Perſons paying ſuch Money into Court and making ſuch Diſcovery ſhall be acquitted and diſcharged from all Forfeitures and Penalties which ſhall or may have been incurred by him or them by reaſon of having collected or received ſuch Money, or otherwiſe acted concerning the ſame, and from all Actions and other Suits reſpecting the ſame by any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, any Statute, Law, or Uſage, or any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding; nor ſhall any Perſon be liable to any Forfeiture or Penalty or to any Proſecution whatſoever, for or in reſpect of any Sum of Money which ſuch Perſon ſhall diſcover to have been paid, received, or given by any Anſwer to any ſuch Information as aforeſaid.

Upon Payment into Court of the Money remaining in the Hands of any Perſon at the Time of filing Information and making Diſcovery of the Securities upon which other Monies ſhall have been placed, the Party ſhall be diſcharged from Penalty. No Perſon liable to Penalty for Money diſcovered by any Anſwer to an Information.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Perſons and Perſon who ſhall or may offend againſt this Act, ſhall and may, equally with all other Perſons, be called upon and compelled to give his or her Teſtimony and Evidence, as a Witneſs or Witneſſes on Behalf of his Majeſty, or of the Proſecutor or Informer, upon any Information to be made or exhibited under this Act againſt any other Perſon or Perſons, not being ſuch Witneſs or Witneſſes as aforeſaid; and that in all ſuch Caſes, every Perſon having given his or her Teſtimony or Evidence as aforeſaid, ſhall be and hereby is indemnified of, from, and againſt any Information to be laid, or Proſecution to be commenced againſt him or her for having offended in the Matter wherein or relative to which he, ſhe, or they ſhall have given Teſtimony or Evidence as aforeſaid.

Offenders may be compelled to give Evidence, and ſhall be indemnified from Proſecution, for any Offence relative to which they give Teſtimony.

X. 'And for the more effectually enforcing and carrying into Execution the Proviſions of this Act,' be it further enacted, That on Complaint and Information on Oath before any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, of any Offence having been committed againſt this Act within his or their reſpective Juriſdictions, ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices are hereby authorized and required to ſummon the Perſon or Perſons charged with being an Offender or Offenders againſt this Act, to appear before any two ſuch Juſtices, at a certain Time or Place to be ſpecified, and if any Perſon or Perſons ſo ſummoned ſhall not appear according to ſuch Summons, then ſuch Juſtices (Proof on Oath having been firſt made before them or him of the due Service of ſuch Summons upon ſuch Perſon or Perſons, by delivering the ſame to him or them perſonally, or leaving the ſame at his or their uſual Place of Abode, provided the ſame ſhall be ſo left twenty-four Hours at the leaſt before the Time which ſhall be appointed to attend the ſaid Juſtices upon ſuch Summons) ſhall make and iſſue their or his Warrant or Warrants for apprehending the Perſon or Perſons ſo ſummoned and not appearing as aforeſaid, and bringing him or them before ſuch Juſtices, or it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Juſtices, if they ſhall think fit, without iſſuing any previous Summons, and inſtead of iſſuing the ſame, upon ſuch Complaint and Information on Oath as aforeſaid, to make and iſſue their Warrant or Warrants for apprehending the Perſon or Perſons by ſuch Information charged to have offended againſt this Act, and bringing him or them before ſuch Juſtices; and upon the Perſon or Perſons complained againſt appearing upon ſuch Summons, or being brought by virtue of ſuch Warrant or Warrants before ſuch Juſtices, or upon Proof on Oath of ſuch Perſon or Perſons abſconding, ſo that ſuch Warrant or Warrants cannot be executed, then ſuch Juſtices ſhall, and they are hereby authorized and required, forthwith to make Enquiry touching the Matters complained of, and to examine into the ſame, by the Oath or Oaths of any credible Perſons, as ſhall be requiſite, and to hear and determine the Matter of every ſuch Complaint, and upon Confeſſion by the Party, or Proof by one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, upon Oath, to convict or acquit the Party or Parties againſt whom Complaint ſhall have been made as aforeſaid.

Juſtices may ſummon Offenders, and on their not appearing, or in the firſt Inſtance, may iſſue Warrants for their Apprehenſion, and on their appearing, or on Proof of their abſconding may convict or acquit the Parties.

Juſtices may ſummon Witneſſes, and for Non-appearance or Refuſal to give Evidence, may commit them.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace before whom any ſuch Complaint and Information ſhall be made as aforeſaid, and they are hereby authorized and required, at the Requeſt in Writing of any of the Parties, to iſſue his or their Summons to any Witneſs or Witneſſes to appear and give Evidence before ſuch Juſtices at the Time and Place appointed for hearing and determining ſuch Complaint, and which Time and Place ſhall be ſpecified in ſuch Summons; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſo ſummoned to appear as a Witneſs or Witneſſes as aforeſaid, ſhall not appear before ſuch Juſtices at the Time and Place ſpecified in ſuch Summons, or offer ſome reaſonable Excuſe for the Default, or appearing according to ſuch Summons, ſhall not ſubmit to be examined as a Witneſs or Witneſſes, and give his or their Evidence before ſuch Juſtices touching the Matter of ſuch Complaint, then and in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Juſtices, and they are hereby authorized, (Proof on Oath in the Caſe of any Perſon not appearing according to ſuch Summons having been firſt made before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices of the due Service of ſuch Summons on every ſuch Perſon, by delivering the ſame to him or her, or by leaving the ſame twenty-four Hours before the Time appointed for ſuch Perſon to appear before ſuch Juſtices, at the uſual Place of Abode of ſuch Perſon,) by Warrant under the Hands of ſuch Juſtices, to commit ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo making Default in appearing, or appearing and refuſing to give Evidence, to ſome Priſon within the Juriſdiction of ſuch Juſtices, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall ſubmit himſelf, herſelf, or themſelves to be examined, and give his, her, or their Evidence before ſuch Juſtices as aforeſaid.

Convictions and Commitments to be drawn up in the Form in the firſt Schedule.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Juſtices before whom any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be convicted of any Offence againſt this Act, or by whom any Perſon ſhall be committed to Priſon for not appearing as a Witneſs, or not ſubmitting to be examined, ſhall cauſe all ſuch Convictions, and the Warrants or Orders for ſuch Commitment to be drawn up in the Form, or to the Effect ſet forth in the firſt Schedule to this Act.

Convictions to be tranſmitted to the next General or Quarter Seſſions to be filed, and if Appeal be made the Juſtices ſhall then proceed to hear it.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Juſtices before whom any ſuch Conviction ſhall be had, ſhall cauſe the ſame (drawn up in the Form or to the Effect herein-before directed) to be fairly written on Parchment, and tranſmitted to the next General Seſſions or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place wherein ſuch Conviction was had, to be filed and kept amongſt the Records of the ſaid General Seſſions, or General Quarter Seſſions; and in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall appeal, in Manner herein-after mentioned, from the Judgment of the ſaid Juſtices to the ſaid General Seſſions or General Quarter Seſſions, the Juſtices in ſuch General Seſſions, or General Quarter Seſſions, are hereby required, upon receiving ſuch Conviction, to proceed to the Hearing and Determination of the Matter of the ſaid Appeal, according to the Directions of this Act.

Act not to abridge Powers now given by Law to Juſtices touching Combinations of Manufacturers, &c.;

XIV. Provided always and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to repeal, take away, or abridge the Powers and Authorities given to any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace in and by any Act or Acts of Parliament heretofore made and now in force touching any Combinations of Manufacturers, Journeymen, or Workmen, or for ſettling and adjuſting Diſputes or Differences between Maſters and their Journeymen, Workmen, or other Perſons employed by them in any Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, or the Rate or Amount of Wages to be paid to ſuch Journeymen, Workmen, or other Perſons, or the Mode or Time of their working or being employed, or the Quantity of Work to be done, or touching any Matter whatſoever alſo provided for by this Act; but that all Juſtices of the Peace ſhall continue to uſe, exerciſe, and execute all the Powers and Authorities given to them in and by ſuch Acts of Parliament, or any of them, in ſuch and the ſame Manner as they could or might have done if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

nor to empower Manufacturers to employ Workmen contrary to the Proviſions now in force for regulating the Conduct of any particular Manufacture, without Licence from a Juſtice, who is empowered to grant the ſame in caſe of the Miſconduct of qualified Workmen,

XV. Provided always, That this Act ſhall not extend to authorize or empower any Perſon or Perſons carrying on any Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, to employ therein any Journeyman or Workman contrary to the Regulations and Proviſions contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament which hath or have been heretofore made, and is and are now in force, for ſettling, regulating, or directing the Manner or Method of conducting, managing, or carrying on any particular Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, or the Work or Service of the Perſons employed therein, without the previous Licence and Conſent in Writing of one Juſtice of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place in which ſuch Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs ſhall be carried on, expreſſing the Cauſe or Reaſon of giving or granting the ſame; which Licence it ſhall be lawful for one ſuch Juſtice to grant whenever the qualified Journeymen or Workmen uſually employed in any Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, ſhall refuſe to work therein for reaſonable Wages, or to work for any particular Perſon or Perſons, or to work with any particular Perſons, or ſhall, by refuſing to work for any Cauſe whatſoever, or by miſconducting themſelves when employed to work, in any Manner impede or obſtruct the ordinary Courſe of any Manufacture, Trade, or Buſineſs, or endeavour to injure the Perſon or Perſons carrying on the ſame.

No Maſter in the Trade in which any Offence is charged to have been committed, ſhall act as Juſtice under this Act.

XVI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Juſtice of the Peace, being alſo a Maſter in the particular Trade or Manufacture in or concerning which any Offence is charged to have been committed under this Act, ſhall act as ſuch Juſtice under this Act; any Thing herein contained, or any former Statute, Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

All Contracts between Maſters or other Perſons, for re-

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Contracts, Covenants, and Agreements whatſoever, in Writing or not in Writing, made or to be made by or between any Maſters or other Perſons, for reducing the Wages of Workmen, or for adding to or altering the uſual Hours or Time of working

An Act to permit, until six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, the Importation of Swedish Herrings into Great Britain. [29th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient under the present Circumstances to permit, for a limited Time, the Importation of Swedish Herrings into Great Britain in British Ships, or in Ships belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of Duty;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of May one thousand eight hundred, and until six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons whatever, to import into Great Britain from any Port or Place in Sweden in any British Ship or Vessel, or in any other Ship or Vessel belonging to Persons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majesty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, any Herrings caught and cured on any of the Coasts of Sweden, without the Payment of any Duty whatever; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

From May 1, 1800, until six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session, Herrings caught on the Coasts of Sweden may be imported without Payment of Duty.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That a due Entry shall be made of all such Herrings that shall be imported by virtue of this Act, with the proper Officers of the Customs at the Port into which the same shall be imported, and in Default thereof the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs.

Such Herrings shall be duly entered at the Port of Importation, on Forfeiture thereof.

III. Provided always, That it shall not be lawful to export Swedish Herrings to any of his Majesty's Colonies in the West Indies.

Swedish Herrings not to be exported to the British West Indies.

CAP. CVIII.

An Act for indemnifying the Governor of Surinam, or the Person acting as such, for having permitted the Importation and Exportation of Goods and Commodities in Foreign Bottoms; and for making void all Seizures of Ships, Vessels, or Goods, for any Thing done in pursuance of such Permission. [29th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, and by other Acts of Parliament now in force, no Goods or Commodities whatsoever can be imported into or exported out of any Lands, Islands, Plantations, or Territories to his Majesty belonging, or in his Possession, or which may hereafter belong unto, or be in the Possession of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Asia, Africa, or America, in any other Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels whatsoever, but in such Ships or Vessels as do truly, and without Fraud, belong only to the People of Great Britain, or of any of the Territories thereof, in the Manner, and under the Penalties, and subject to the Exceptions and Regulations in the said Acts respectively contained: And whereas the Settlement of Surinam and its Dependencies, on the Continent of South America, hath been surrendered to his Majesty's Arms, and is now in his Majesty's Possession, and at the Time of such Surrender such Settlement was in great Want of various Necessaries, and great Quantities of the Produce remained in the said Settlement, by Reason of the Interruption of the Commerce to and from the same previous to such Surrender, and under such Circumstances his Majesty's Governor, or the Person acting as such, thought fit to permit the Importation into the said Settlement of certain Articles of Provisions, Lumber, and other Stores for the Supply of the said Settlement, in Neutral and Foreign Bottoms, and also to permit the Exportation of certain Articles, the Produce of the said Settlement, in Neutral and Foreign Bottoms, under certain Regulations and Restrictions: And whereas under such Permission, some Ships cleared at the said Colony with Cargoes for this Country, but were detained by Ships in the Service of his Majesty, although they had received sailing Instructions in order to proceed to Great Britain, under the Convoy about to proceed from the Leeward Islands: And whereas such Importation and Exportation as aforesaid were rendered necessary by the peculiar Situation of the said Settlement, and having been permitted from the Necessity of the Occasion, the Parties who were interested in the same should be protected against Loss; and all Persons issuing, advising, or acting under or in Obedience to any Order or Permission of the said Governor, or of any Person acting as Governor of the said Settlement, and all Persons concerned in any Importation or Exportation as aforesaid, shall be respectively justified and indemnified therein, and released from all Penalties and Forfeitures in respect thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, &c.

12 Car. 2. c. 18.

"Seizures made subsequent to Feb. 26, 1800, of Vessels navigated by Order of the Governor of Surinam, and of Goods imported or exported under the Regulations therein contained, shall be void; and all Actions brought against Persons for having issued or advised such Order, shall be discharged.—General

" Iſſue may be pleaded to Actions, and Defendants ſhall recover double Coſts, &c. § 1. Where Seizures " have been made, or Proceedings commenced for Condemnation, or if diſpoſed of under the Direction of " any Court, the Owner or Defendant may apply to ſuch Court to ſtay Proceedings, and to obtain Reſto- " ration of the Veſſels and Goods, &c. § 2. Nothing herein to prevent Owners of Veſſels, &c. from " bringing Actions for Damages againſt Perſons making illegal Seizures. § 3. But no ſuch Actions au- " thorized, except in Caſes where they might have been proſecuted, if this Act had not paſſed. § 4."

Cap. x.

An Act for the Appointment and Regulation of Pilots for the conducting of Ships and Vessels into and out of the Port of Kingston-upon-Hull; and for ascertaining the Salvage for Anchors, Cables, and other Ships' Materials, found in the River Humber; and for the better ascertaining the Tonnage of Ballast Lighters employed at the said Port. [4th April 1800.]

WHEREAS the Corporation of Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of the Guild or Brotherhood of The Trinity House of Kingston-upon-Hull, have for a long Period of Years, by Usage, as well as by virtue of Letters Patent or Charters granted to them by the Crown, exercised the Power of appointing Pilots to conduct Ships and Vessels from the River Humber to cross the Seas, or to pass from the said River Humber beyond Flamborough Head Northward and Wintertonness Southward; but they are not invested with sufficient Powers to prevent other Persons from acting as Pilots within the said Limits: And whereas it would greatly tend to the Safety of Ships and Vessels sailing or trading from and to the Port of Kingston-upon-Hull, if effectual Powers were given for appointing and regulating of Pilots for conducting of such Ships and Vessels between the said Port and the Sea, and for a small Distance out at Sea; and for preventing Persons not so appointed, from acting as Pilots of any such Ships and Vessels, or of any Ships or Vessels destined from the said Port to cross the Seas, or to pass beyond Flamborough Head Northward, or Wintertonness Southward; and also for settling and ascertaining the Salvage for Anchors, Cables, and other Ships' Materials, found in the said River Humber; and for the better ascertaining the Tonnage of Ballast Lighters employed at the said Port:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants of the said Trinity House, and they are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time, by Writing under their Common Seal, to license and appoint such Persons as they shall, upon Examination touching their Skill and Abilities, approve of and think properly qualified for that Purpose, to be Pilots for the conducting of Ships and Vessels into and out of the Port of Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, and upon any Part of the River Humber below the said Port, and so far out at Sea as to bring the Northness of Dimlington on the Coast of Holderness to bear or be seen a sufficient Distance clear or open of the Land to the Southward thereof, so as to pass clear of the New Sand; and the Persons so licensed shall for the Purposes of this Act be called River Pilots: and if any Person, without having such Licence to act as a River Pilot as aforesaid, shall, after the Expiration of one Calendar Month from the passing of this Act, take upon himself to conduct or pilot any Ship or Vessel into or out of the said Port, or at any Place between the said Port and the Place at Sea where the said Northness of Dimlington bears as aforesaid; or if any Person, other than such as shall have been examined and declared by the said Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants, under their Common Seal, to be properly qualified and capable of conducting Ships and Vessels as a Pilot at Sea, shall, after the Expiration of the said one Calendar Month from the passing of this Act, take upon himself to act as Pilot of any Ship or Vessel destined on a Voyage from the said Port of Kingston-upon-Hull, in conducting such Ship or Vessel from the Place near the Entrance of the said River Humber, where the said Northness of Dimlington bears as aforesaid, to cross the Seas, or to pass from Flamborough Head Northward, or Wintertonness Southward; every such Person shall respectively forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, any Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds.

Trinity House of Kingston-upon-Hull empowered to license Pilots.

Penalty on acting as Pilots without Licence not exceeding 20l.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to oblige the Master or other Person having the Command of any Ship or Vessel outward-bound, after she has been piloted out of the said River Humber to Sea, to employ or make use of any Pilot to conduct such Ship or Vessel to cross or pass further out at Sea; or to oblige the Master or other Person having the Command of any Ship or Vessel in the Coal Trade, or other Coasting Trade, whether laden or in Ballast, or of any British Ship or Vessel of less than six Feet Draught of Water, or of any Ship or Vessel coming into any of the Roadsteads within the said River Humber for the Purpose of Shelter, or of obtaining Stores or Provisions only, to employ or make use of any Pilot; nor to prevent or hinder any Owner, Part Owner, Master, or Mate of, or any Person belonging to any Ship or Vessel inward-bound, from conducting or piloting the Ship or Vessel to which he shall belong, Certain Vessels may be piloted by the Masters, &c.

into and up the said River Humber, in case none of the said River Pilots shall be ready and offer to conduct and pilot the same; nor to prevent or hinder any Person or Persons from assisting any Ship or Vessel in Distress.

" Pilots shall pay for their first License six Guineas, and afterwards three Guineas, §. 3. Trinity House may " suspend Pilots. §. 4. Commissioners named for the Purposes of the Act. §. 5. First Meeting of Com- " missioners. §. 6. Commissioners to settle the Clerks and other Officers' Salaries. §. 7. Commissioners to " acknowledge their Acceptance of the Trust. §. 8. Future Meetings of Commissioners. §. 9. On the " Death of any of the Commissioners, &c. others to be elected. §. 10."

Pilots to assist King's Ships in preference to others.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every such River Pilot as aforesaid, shall at all Times afford every Assistance in his Power to any of his Majesty's Ships, and when any of them shall by Signal or otherwise appear to be in Want of a Pilot, shall go to assist and pilot such Ships in Preference to any other Ship or Vessel whatsoever; and in case any such River Pilot shall refuse or neglect to take the Charge or Conduct of any of his Majesty's Ships, or any other Ship or Vessel whatsoever, upon a proper Signal being made, or a Gun or Guns fired by any Ship or Vessel inward-bound, or at the Request of the Master, Commander, Owner, Agent, or Consignee of any Ship or Vessel outward-bound; or if any such River Pilot shall refuse or neglect to give every Assistance in his Power to any Ship or Vessel in Distress, or in Want of any extra Assistance; or in case it shall appear to the said Commissioners that any such River Pilot shall have misbehaved himself in the Conduct of any Ship or Vessel, or in the Execution of his Duty as a River Pilot; or if any such River Pilot shall (without some reasonable Excuse) refuse to obey any Summons issued in pursuance of the Order of any five or more of the said Commissioners, requiring his Appearance before them, or to obey such Orders as shall be made and passed at any of their Meetings for the Purposes of this Act, every such Pilot shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds for every such Offence; and if the said Commissioners, upon Examination of the Cause of Complaint, shall think that the Pilot so offending should be suspended or broke, and shall state the Matter of Complaint and such their Opinion to the said Corporation of Wardens, Elder Brethren, and Assistants, the said Corporation are hereby required to inquire into the Matter of Complaint, and upon Proof of the Offence complained of, by the Oath of any credible Witness, (which Oath the said Mayor and Aldermen, Acting Warden or his Deputy, Elder Brother or Assistant, or any one of them, is hereby empowered to administer,) according to their Discretion, either to suspend or to entirely break and dismiss such Pilot, and to declare his Licence to be void; and such Pilot shall be accordingly either suspended, or broke and dismissed, and his Licence shall be from thenceforth utterly void, as the Case shall be; and if any such River Pilot, after being suspended, or broke and dismissed as aforesaid, and Notice thereof in Writing, signed by the Clerk, given to such Pilot, or left at his usual Place of Abode, shall, during the Time of such Suspension, or after such Dismission, take upon himself to pilot or conduct any Ship or Vessel into or out of the said Port of Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, or upon any Part of the said River below the said Port, or out at Sea between the Entrance into the said River and the Place where the Northness of Dimlington bears as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, any Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds.

Pilots misbehaving shall forfeit not exceeding 20*l.*; and, on Complaint by Commissioners to the Trinity House, such Pilots may be suspended.

Rates for piloting British Ships.

XII. ' And, for ascertaining the Rates to be paid to the said River Pilots for the conducting or piloting ' any Ships or Vessels as aforesaid,' be it further enacted, That no greater Rates shall be demanded or taken by any such River Pilot, than what shall be from Time to Time ascertained, fixed, and settled by the said Commissioners at any of their Meetings, so that the Rate so to be ascertained, fixed, and settled for piloting or conducting any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of his Majesty's Subjects, into the said Port of Kingston-upon-Hull, from the Place at Sea where the Northness of Dimlington bears as aforesaid, be not less than three Shillings nor more than five Shillings for every Foot of Water such Ship or Vessel shall draw, and so in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, such Fraction not being less than Half a Foot; and for piloting and conducting any such Ship or Vessel into the said Port from the Place within the said River Humber where the Spurn Lighthouse bears North-east, or from any Distance within the said River Humber to the Buoy of the Burcome, not less than two Shillings and Sixpence nor more than three Shillings and Sixpence for every Foot of Water such Ship or Vessel shall draw, and so in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, such Fraction not being less than Half a Foot; and for piloting and conducting any such Ship or Vessel into the said Port from the Distance of the said Buoy, not less than two Shillings nor more than three Shillings for every Foot of Water such Ship or Vessel shall draw, and so in Proportion for every Fraction of a Foot, such Fraction not being less than Half a Foot; and for piloting and conducting any such Ship or Vessel into the said Port from Whitebooth Road to the said River Humber, not less than one Shilling nor more than two Shillings for every Foot of Water such Ship or Vessel shall draw, and so in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, such Fraction not being less than Half a Foot; and for piloting and conducting any such Ship or Vessel from the said Port, so far out to Sea as to bring the said Northness of Dimlington to bear as aforesaid, not less than three Shillings nor more than five Shillings for every Foot of Water such Ship or Vessel shall draw, and so in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, such Fraction not being less than Half a Foot.

Rates for piloting Alien Ships.

XIII. ' And, for ascertaining the Rates to be paid to the said River Pilots, for the conducting or piloting ' any Alien Ship or Vessel,' be it further enacted, That no greater Rates shall be demanded or taken by any such River Pilots, than what shall be from Time to Time ascertained, fixed, and settled by the said Commissioners, so that the Rate to be ascertained, fixed, and settled, for piloting or conducting any Ship or Vessel belonging to Aliens in the said Port of Kingston-upon-Hull, from the Place at Sea where the Northness of Dimlington bears as aforesaid, be not less than five Shillings nor more than seven Shillings for every Foot of Water such Ship or Vessel shall draw, and so in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, such Fraction not being less than Half a Foot; and for piloting and conducting any such Alien Ship or Vessel into the said Port from the Place within the Humber where the Spurn Lighthouse bears North-east, or from any Distance within the the ſaid River Humber to the Buoy of the Burcome, not leſs than four Shillings nor more than five Shillings for every Foot of Water ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw, and ſo in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, ſuch Fraction not being leſs than Half a Foot; and for piloting and conducting any ſuch Ship or Veſſel into the ſaid Port from the Diſtance of the ſaid Buoy, not leſs than three Shillings nor more than ſix Shillings for every Foot of Water ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw, and ſo in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, ſuch Fraction not being leſs than Half a Foot; and for piloting and conducting any ſuch Ship or Veſſel into the ſaid Port from Whitebooth Road in the ſaid River Humber, not leſs than one Shilling and Sixpence nor more than three Shillings for every Foot of Water ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw, and ſo in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, ſuch Fraction not being leſs than Half a Foot; and for piloting and conducting any ſuch Alien Ship or Veſſel from the ſaid Port ſo far out to Sea as to bring the ſaid Northneſs of Dimlington to bear as aforeſaid, not leſs than five Shillings nor more than ſeven Shillings for every Foot of Water ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw, and ſo in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, ſuch Fraction not being leſs than Half a Foot.

" Fraction of Half a Foot, ſhall be conſidered as Half a Foot. §. 14. Commiſſioners empowered to vary " and regulate the Prices of Pilotage; within the Rates mentioned. §. 15."

Ships outward-bound in Ballaſt, pay only two Thirds of the Rates.

XVI. Provided always, That every Maſter or other Perſon, having the Command of any Ship or Veſſel ſailing from the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull with Ballaſt only, and not laden or Part laden with Goods or Merchandize liable to the Payment of Freight, which ſhall be conducted or piloted out of the ſaid Port by any of the ſaid River Pilots, ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid two Third Parts only of the Rates which ſuch Ship or Veſſel would be liable to if laden or Part laden for ſuch reſpective Pilotage.

Coaſters to pay only Half of the Rates.

XVII. Provided alſo, That the Maſter or other Perſon having the Command of any Ship or Veſſel employed in the Coaſting Trade, and which ſhall have been actually ſo employed for ſix Calendar Months or upwards then next preceding, which ſhall be conducted or piloted into or out of the ſaid Port by any of the ſaid River Pilots, ſhall be ſubject to the Payment of one Half Part only of the ſaid reſpective Rates payable in reſpect of Britiſh Ships or Veſſels.

Veſſels drawing leſs than ſix Feet Water to pay for ſix Feet.

XVIII. Provided alſo, That if any Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, whether trading Coaſtwiſe or otherwiſe, which ſhall be conducted or piloted into, out of, or upon the ſaid River Humber, by any of the ſaid River Pilots, ſhall not draw ſo much as ſix Feet Water, ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall nevertheleſs, in aſcertaining the Rate of Pilotage payable for the ſame by virtue of this Act, be deemed and conſidered to draw ſix Feet Water; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proportioning the Rates of Pilotage.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Ship or Veſſel of any of his Majeſty's Subjects, or of Aliens, not bound to the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, ſhall, on account of contrary Winds and bad Weather, or otherwiſe, be piloted from or to the Northneſs of Dimlington, bearing as above-mentioned, into or out of any of the Roadſteads of the ſaid River Humber below the Roadſtead of the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, the following Proportions of the Rates for Pilotage, which ſhall for the Time being be payable as herein-before mentioned for or in reſpect of Britiſh and Alien Ships reſpectively, and no more ſhall be demanded by or paid to any ſuch River Pilot ſo piloting ſuch Ship or Veſſel; (that is to ſay,) if ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be piloted from or to the Place where the Northneſs of Dimlington bears as aforeſaid, into or from the Hawk Road, or Grimſby Road, in the ſaid River Humber, one Third Part of the ſaid Rates hereby impoſed for piloting Britiſh and Alien Ships reſpectively the whole Extent of the firſt above-mentioned Diſtance; and if ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall be piloted from or to the ſaid Diſtance, into or from Whitebooth Road, two Third Parts of ſuch Rates.

Rewards for Pilots aſſiſting Ships in Diſtreſs to be ſettled by Commiſſioners.

XX. And, as an Encouragement to the ſaid River Pilots, to ply out at Sea, be it further enacted, That in caſe any Ship or Veſſel ſhall be met with in Diſtreſs, by any of the ſaid River Pilots, and ſhall be aſſiſted by ſuch Pilot, or any of his Crew or Boat, then ſuch Compenſation ſhall be made for ſuch Aſſiſtance, as ſhall be ſettled and determined by the ſaid Commiſſioners at their next Meeting after Application ſhall have been made to them by either Party for that Purpoſe; and if any Agreement for ſuch extraordinary Aſſiſtance ſhall have been made, ſuch Agreement ſhall be null and void; or in caſe any Britiſh or Alien Ship or Veſſel ſhall, at the particular Requeſt of the Maſter or other Perſon having the Command thereof, be piloted or aſſiſted by any of the ſaid River Pilots into the ſaid Port from any further Diſtance than what is hereby provided for, every ſuch River Pilot ſhall be paid for ſuch extra Pilotage, ſuch Sum as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall order and direct, not leſs than Nine-pence nor more than one Shilling and Three-pence for every Foot of Water any ſuch Britiſh Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw, and ſo in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, ſuch Fraction not being leſs than Half a Foot; and not leſs than one Shilling nor more than two Shillings for every Foot of Water any ſuch Alien Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw, and ſo in Proportion for the Fraction of a Foot, ſuch Fraction not being leſs than Half a Foot; over and above the ſaid Rates of Pilotage by this Act impoſed for piloting ſuch Ships or Veſſels reſpectively from the Diſtance of the ſaid Northneſs of Dimlington bearing as aforeſaid, or into the ſaid Port.

Additional Pilotage for piloting extra Diſtance.

Maſters of inward or outward-bound Ships refuſing Pilots, ſhall pay them the Pilotage.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the Maſter or Commander of any Ship or Veſſel drawing ſix Feet Water or upwards which ſhall be outward-bound and about to proceed down the ſaid River Humber, or which ſhall be inward-bound, ſhall refuſe to take on board and employ one of the ſaid River Pilots who ſhall offer his Service (except ſuch Ships or Veſſels as are employed on the Coal or Coaſting Trade) ſuch Maſter or Commander ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid to the River Pilot who firſt or who only ſhall offer his Service as aforeſaid, and ſhall be ſo refuſed, the full Pilotage which ſuch Maſter or Commander would have been ſubject or liable to pay by virtue of this Act if the ſaid Pilot had been received and employed in conducting or piloting ſuch Ship or Veſſel into or out of the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, together with the Expence to be incurred in the Recovery of the ſame.

XXII.

Pilots leading the Way in any Veſſel to be entitled to full Pilotage.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in caſe any Ship or Veſſel coming into or going out of the ſaid Port ſhall be in Want of a Pilot, and none of the ſaid River Pilots can be procured, and there ſhall be any of the ſaid River Pilots on board any other Ship or Veſſel paſſing into or out of the ſaid Port, ſuch Pilot on board any ſuch other Ship or Veſſel may lead the Way for, and conduct the Ship or Veſſel ſo in Want of a Pilot either into or out of the ſaid Port, or ſo far in her Courſe until another River Pilot can be obtained; and the Maſter or Commander of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel which ſhall be ſo piloted or conducted by any Pilot leading the Way in ſuch other Ship or Veſſel, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the Payment of the Whole, or ſuch a Proportion, according to the Diſtance ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall have been piloted or conducted as aforeſaid, of the ſaid Rates of Pilotage, as he would have been ſubject and liable to if the Pilot had actually been on board of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and piloted or conducted the ſame into or out of the ſaid Port, as ſhall be fixed and ſettled by the ſaid Commiſſioners at any of their Meetings; and ſuch Pilotage ſo to be received ſhall be added to the Stock of the Boat to which ſuch Pilot ſhall belong.

Ships forced back after parting with Pilots, and piloted out again from any of the Roads, to pay not exceeding one Half of the Rates.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Ship or Veſſel which ſhall have been piloted or conducted by any of the ſaid River Pilots out of the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, ſhall be forced back, by Storm or otherwiſe, after having, by the Conſent of the Maſter or Commander of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, parted with ſuch Pilot, and ſhall be conducted by ſuch Maſter or Commander into any of the Roadſteads or Places in the ſaid River, and ſuch Maſter or Commander ſhall afterwards employ any of the ſaid River Pilots to conduct ſuch Ship or Veſſel out of ſuch Roadſtead or Place to Sea, then ſuch a Proportion not exceeding one Half of the full Sum, ſhall be paid for ſuch Pilotage, as is hereby directed to be taken for Pilotage outward, as ſhall be ſettled and fixed by the ſaid Commiſſioners.

Diſtance outward-bound Ships are to be piloted.

Pilots to have 3s. 6d. per Day for their Attendance.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch River Pilot as aforeſaid, who ſhall take upon himſelf the Charge of any Ship or Veſſel about to ſail out of the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, ſhall, and is hereby required to take Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel at her Moorings in the Dock, or other Place within the ſaid Port, and to conduct or pilot ſuch Ship or Veſſel about to ſail out of the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, ſo far out to Sea as to bring the Northneſs of Dimlington to bear as above-mentioned; and whenever any ſuch River Pilot ſhall be required by the Maſter or Commander of any Ship or Veſſel, whether outward or inward-bound, to attend ſuch Ship or Veſſel at Anchor in any of the Roadſteads in the ſaid River Humber, for the Purpoſe of taking in Goods, or for any other Purpoſe, ſuch River Pilot ſhall attend accordingly, on not leſs than three Shillings and Sixpence per Day, for every Day of twenty-four Hours' Attendance, according to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, being paid or ſecured to be paid to ſuch Pilot; and if ſuch Pilot ſhall be employed for a Part only of a Day, he ſhall be paid the like ſum as for a whole Day; and in caſe the Uſe or Attendance of a Pilot's Crew or Boat ſhall be required, there ſhall be paid for the Uſe of ſuch Crew or Boat ſuch ſum of Money by the Tide, Day, or otherwiſe, as ſhall be ſettled and directed by the ſaid Commiſſioners according to the Circumſtances of the Caſe; and if any ſuch River Pilot after he is engaged to ſerve, ſhall preſume to quit any Ship or Veſſel ſo detained, without the Conſent of the Maſter or Commander of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſuch Pilot ſhall forfeit the Pilotage which on his duly performing his Duty he would have been entitled to; and on being lawfully convicted of ſo quitting any Ship or Veſſel, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds.

Pilots quitting Ships without Leave, to forfeit Pilotage, and not exceeding 10l.

Places to which inward-bound Ships are to be piloted.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch River Pilot as aforeſaid who ſhall pilot or conduct any Ship or Veſſel into the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull ſhall, and is hereby required to take the ſame as high in the Haven of the ſaid Port as above the Place called The Garriſon Jetty, and as much higher in the ſaid Haven as may be, and from thence, if the Tide will permit, into the Wet Dock of the ſaid Port, or to ſuch other Place of Delivery within the Limits of the ſaid Port, as the Maſter of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall require; but if the Tide will not allow thereof, then to moor her in a proper Situation in the ſaid Haven, without being paid any other Rate than is hereby directed to be paid for piloting ſuch Ship or Veſſel into the ſaid Port; and in Caſe the Attendance of any ſuch Pilot ſhall be required to take Care of ſuch Ship or Veſſel from ſuch firſt Mooring, and to conduct her into the ſaid Wet Dock, or other Place of Delivery, the Pilot that ſhall have brought the ſaid Ship or Veſſel to ſuch Mooring, or ſome other of the ſaid River Pilots, to be by the ſaid Pilot or the ſaid Maſter procured, ſhall attend, and ſhall be paid for unmooring, tranſporting, and re-mooring ſuch Ship or Veſſel at her Delivery-birth in the ſaid Dock, or other Place within the ſaid Port, if ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw thirteen Feet of Water and upwards, not leſs than nine Shillings nor more than eleven Shillings; and if ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw upwards of ten Feet and under thirteen Feet of Water, not leſs than ſix Shillings and Sixpence nor more than eight Shillings and Sixpence; and if ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw under ten Feet of Water, not leſs than four Shillings nor more than ſix Shillings; according to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Commiſſioners.

Rates for birthing Ships.

Maſters ſhall give Pilot a true Account of the Draught of Water of their Ships, and Pilot authorized to admeaſure.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Maſter or Commander of every Ship or Veſſel ſo to be piloted or conducted into or out of the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, ſhall, and is hereby required to declare and give a true Account to the Pilot employed in conducting or piloting ſuch Ship or Veſſel of the Draught of Water ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall draw; and in caſe the Pilot ſo employed ſhall ſuſpect the Truth of ſuch Declaration, ſuch Pilot is hereby authorized to admeaſure, or cauſe ſuch Ship or Veſſel to be admeaſured, in order to find out the true Draught of Water ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall then draw; and if on ſuch Admeaſurement it ſhall appear that ſuch Maſter or Commander gave a falſe Account wilfully and fraudulently, ſuch Maſter or Commander ſhall not only pay to ſuch Pilot the full Pilotage by this Act made payable for or in reſpect of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, with all the Expences of the Admeaſurement, but ſhall alſo forfeit and pay for every ſuch Offence any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds.

XXVII. And

Persons liable to Pilotage.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons taking or appearing to take upon himself or themselves the Charge, Agency, or Consignment of any Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, so charged or chargeable with the said respective Rates for Pilotage and extra Attendances, outward-bound, shall be accountable to such River Pilot or Pilots for such Rates of Pilotage as shall be so due for such Pilotage outward according to the Rates aforesaid; and the same shall and may be levied by Distress and Sale, in Manner herein-after mentioned, upon any of the Goods, Merchandize, or Effects of the Person or Persons so taking or appearing to take upon himself or themselves the Charge, Agency, or Consignment of such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, after the Expiration of three Days from the Day on which such Pilotage shall have been demanded.

" On Nonpayment of Rate, Commissioners may distrain the Ship's Tackle, &c. § 28."

Masters forcibly taking away Pilots, shall pay them Mates' Wages, and forfeit not exceeding 20l.

XXIX. 'And whereas, it may happen that some of the said River Pilots may be unavoidably through 'Stress of Weather, or forcibly, carried to Sea beyond the Limits for Pilotage herein prescribed,' be it therefore further enacted, That the Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel on board of which any such Pilot shall be forcibly, or through Stress of Weather unavoidably carried to Sea beyond the Limits aforesaid, shall pay to such River Pilot, for the Time he shall be detained on board after passing the said Limits, the same Wages as shall be payable by the said Master or Commander to the Mate of such Ship or Vessel, over and above the Rate of Pilotage which he shall be entitled to as Pilot of such Ship or Vessel; and in case of any such Pilot being forcibly carried to Sea beyond the said Limits, otherwise than through Stress of Weather, such Master or Commander shall also forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds.

" Majority of Pilots may have a Joint Stock. § 30. Commissioners to keep Accounts of Money received " for Licences, for Penalties, and of Disbursements. § 31. Licence Money and Fines, (after paying Ex- " pences of the Act) to be applied for the Benefit of disabled Pilots, their Widows, &c. § 33. To enable " Commissioners to reward meritorious Pilots, $2\frac{1}{2}$ per Cent. may be retained by the Commissioners, out of " the Rates of Pilotage, &c. § 33. Accounts to be audited by five or more Commissioners. § 34. Pilots " not to keep Publick Houses. § 35. Expences of obtaining this Act to be ascertained by the Commis- " sioners. § 36. The said Expences to be raised by a Tonnage Duty of one Halfpenny per Ton. § 37, 38. " Accounts to be kept by the Commissioners of the Receipts and Payments in respect of the Tonnage " Duty. § 39. Tonnage Duty to cease after the Charges are paid. § 40."

Commissioners empowered to settle Salvage of Anchors.

XLI. 'And whereas it frequently happens that Ships and Vessels are through Stress of Weather forced 'from their Anchors and Cables in the said River Humber, and the Entrance thereof, and unreasonable Sums 'of Money demanded for Salvage by the Persons taking up such Anchors and Cables, and the Anchors and 'Cables so taken up together with Buoy Ropes and Buoys belonging thereto, have frequently been clan- 'destinely secreted from the Owners thereof, and afterwards fraudulently sold and disposed of;' for preventing such unreasonable Demands, and such Frauds for the future, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, and they are hereby authorized and directed, upon Application to them for that Purpose, to adjust and determine any Difference, whenever any such shall arise, between the Owner or Master, or Agent for the Owner of the Anchors, Cables, or other Stores or Materials, of any Ship or Vessel, which shall be found in the said River Humber, or the Entrance thereof, and brought to the said Port of Kingston-upon-Hull, and the Person or Persons finding, taking up, and bringing the same; and the Determination of the said Commissioners therein shall be final and conclusive; and that if at any Time any Person or Persons shall find and take up any such Anchor, Cable, or any other Sort of Ship's Stores or Materials, and shall not without Delay bring the same to the said Port, or the Limits thereof, and within the Space of two Days from the bringing the same into the said Port, or the Limits thereof, deliver the same up to the Owner thereof, or his Agent; or if any such Anchor, Cable, or other Ship's Materials, so found, is not claimed by the Owner thereof, or his Agent, or such Owner or his Agent cannot be found or ascertained within the said Space; then, if the Person or Persons finding and taking up such Anchor, Cable, or other Ship's Materials, shall not land and put the same in such publick Place near to the Entrance of the said Haven as the said Commissioners shall appoint, and give Notice thereof, with a particular Description in Writing of the same, and of the Place where found, to the said Commissioners or their Clerk, in order that the Anchors, Cables, or others Ship's Materials so found and brought, may be advertized in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall think proper; or if any Person or Persons shall at any Time or Times, with an Intent to injure or defraud the Owner of any Anchor, Cable, or other Ship's Materials, cut, break, destroy, or remove the Buoy, Buoy Rope, or other Mark or Fastening to any such Anchor, Cable, or other Ship's Materials so found as aforesaid, or when any such Anchors, Cables, or other Ship's Materials are found, shall alter or deface the Marks thereof, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds; and if any of the said River Pilots shall be guilty of any of the said Offences, he shall not only forfeit the said Penalty, but (if the said Commissioners shall adjudge proper) shall also from thenceforth be broke and disquallfied from acting as a Pilot; and there shall from Time to Time be paid to the said Clerk for the Purposes of this Act, for every Award the said Commissioners shall make upon any Difference as to any Matter of Salvage being referred to them, the Sum of seven Shillings and Sixpence, over and above the Stamp Duty chargeable on such Award, by the said Parties in Difference, in equal Moieties; and for advertizing any Anchor, Cable, or other Ship's Materials as aforesaid, the Sum of five Shillings, besides the Expences attending the same, by the Person or Persons finding and bringing such Anchor, Cable, or other Ship's Materials, and the Owner thereof, in equal Shares.

Persons finding Anchors, &c. shall bring them to Hull, and give Notice thereof, with a Description in Writing, in order to such Anchors, &c. being advertized.

Persons taking away any Buoy, &c. to forfeit not exceeding 20l.

If Offence committed by Pilots, they may be broke.

All Veſſels carrying Ballaſt for Hire, to be regiſtered by the Clerk to the Commiſſioners.

XLII. 'And whereas it would be a great Benefit to the Perſons concerned in Ships and Veſſels reſorting 'to the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, if the Lighters and other Veſſels carrying for Hire Ballaſt for 'Ships or Veſſels, within the ſaid Port, or the Limits thereof, as to the Tonnage of the ſame, were put un-'der proper Regulations;' be it further enacted, That, from and after the Expiration of two Calendar Months from the paſſing of this Act, all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall keep or uſe for carrying for Hire, Ballaſt for Ships or Veſſels, any Lighter or other Veſſel within the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, or the Limits thereof, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be regiſtered by the Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners in a Regiſter to be by him kept for that Purpoſe, in which Regiſter the ſaid Clerk ſhall enter, in numerical Progreſſion, the Name of the Owner or Owners of every ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel, together with the Tonnage thereof; to which Regiſter all Perſons intereſted ſhall have Recourſe at all ſeaſonable Times, on Payment, for the Purpoſes of this Act, of Sixpence for every Search; and every Perſon who ſhall keep or uſe for the carrying for Hire, Ballaſt for Ships or Veſſels, any Lighter or other Veſſel within the ſaid Port of Kingſton-upon-Hull, or the Limits thereof, ſhall produce ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel to the Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners, at or as near as convenient to the Gates between the ſaid Wet Dock and the ſaid Haven, or other convenient Place within the ſaid Haven or Dock, to be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and ſhall at the ſame Time, at his or their own Expence, cauſe the Tonnage of the ſaid Lighter or other Veſſel to be aſcertained to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Clerk, by cauſing the ſame to be fairly and properly weighed, and two Gauge Marks to be made and fixed on the Stem and Stern of every ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel, and between every two Gauge Marks to cauſe viſible Marks to be made and ſet, in order that the Tonnage and Burthen of every ſuch Lighter, or other Veſſel reſpectively, may be computed and diſtinguiſhed by a gradual Progreſſion of two Tons and a Half, with Copper or Braſs Nails, or in ſuch Manner and Form as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall direct; and ſhall at all Times afterwards preſerve, and keep clean and legible the ſame Name, Number, and Tonnage ſo to be marked as aforeſaid; and the Owner of every ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel, ſhall be paid for the Ballaſt, delivered out of the ſame according to the Tonnage ſo to be aſcertained as aforeſaid, after the Water has been pumped therefrom, and the Lighter trimmed ſo as to make the ſame ſwim at equal Marks at the Stem and Stern thereof; and the Owner of every ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel, ſhall pay to the Treaſurer or Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners, to be applied towards carrying this Act into Execution, the Sum of ſeven Shillings and Sixpence, and no more; and ſuch Clerk ſhall attend within the Hours of tranſacting Buſineſs at the Cuſtom Houſe, to ſee every ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel weighed, marked, and regiſtered as aforeſaid, upon twenty-four Hours' Notice given to him for that Purpoſe, upon Pain of forfeiting to the Owner of ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel, any Sum not exceeding fifty Shillings for every Time he ſhall neglect ſo to attend, unleſs ſuch Clerk ſhall be prevented from attending on Account of Sickneſs or ſome other ſufficient Cauſe; and the ſaid Clerk ſhall alſo enter in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe, in a due and regular Rotation, as well the Names of ſuch Lighters or other Veſſels, when and as they ſhall ſeverally arrive or be laden with Ballaſt, as the Names of ſuch Ships or Veſſels, the Owners or Maſters whereof ſhall apply for Ballaſt; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Clerk to demand and receive from ſuch Owners or Maſters, for the Uſe of the Owners of the Lighters or other Veſſels ſupplying the Quantity of Ballaſt required, the full current Price of ſuch Ballaſt, and alſo one Shilling for each and every Entry; and the ſaid Clerk ſhall pay unto the Owner of every Lighter or other Veſſel the Money ſo by him received for ſuch Ballaſt, firſt deducting thereout one Halfpenny per Ton for every Ton of Ballaſt ſo delivered, (and which Deduction the ſaid Clerk is hereby authorized to make,) to be applied for the Purpoſes of this Act.

Lighters to be weighed.

Tonnage to be aſcertained by Gauge Marks.

Lighters to take their Turn in ſupplying Ships with Ballaſt.

Commiſſioners' Clerk ſhall examine all ſuch Veſſels yearly;

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk to the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall yearly and every Year, on the firſt Monday in July, or within eight Days then next following, within the Hours of Buſineſs, review and examine all ſuch Lighters and other Veſſels, at or near the ſaid Dock Gates, or ſuch other convenient Place as aforeſaid, and ſee that the Name, Number, and Tonnage marked thereon, are plain and legible, and the Gauge Marks complete and perfect, and whether any Frauds have been committed by Alterations made therein or otherwiſe; and ſuch Clerk ſhall affix or cauſe to be affixed, on ſome conſpicuous Place near the ſaid Dock Gates, three Days' Notice of the Time or Times when he will attend to make ſuch Review and Examination; and in caſe he ſhall find that any ſuch Fraud hath been committed, or any ſuch Gauge Marks are altered or incomplete, or any Cauſe of Complaint, he ſhall make a Preſentment thereof to the ſaid Commiſſioners; and in caſe the Owner or Part Owner, Maſter or other Perſon employed on board of any ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel as aforeſaid, ſhall neglect or refuſe to produce his Lighter or other Veſſel to be viewed and examined as aforeſaid, Notice of the Time of ſuch Review and Examination being given as aforeſaid, and ſhall afterwards lade or uſe ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel before it ſhall have been reviewed and examined by ſuch Clerk, or ſhall refuſe or neglect, previous to the Delivery of any Ballaſt, properly to trim the ſame, and to pump all the Water out of ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel as aforeſaid, or ſhall wilfully and fraudulently obliterate or alter the Name, Number, or Tonnage of ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel, or ſhall not report the Arrival of ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel, and deliver the Ballaſt therein in a due and regular Rotation as aforeſaid, every ſuch Perſon ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding five Pounds; and there ſhall be paid towards the Expence of carrying this Act into Execution, for the Trouble of taking and making every ſuch Review and Examination, by the Owner or Owners of ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel, the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence for every ſuch Lighter or other Veſſel ſo reviewed and examined.

Cap. xlii.

An Act for raiſing a further Sum of Money for carrying into Execution two ſeveral Acts, paſſed in the thirty-fifth and thirty-eighth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for widening and improving the Entrance into the City of London, near Temple Bar, for making a more commodious Street or Paſſage at Snow Hill, and for raiſing, on the Credit of the Orphans' Fund, a Sum of Money for thoſe Purpoſes; and for explaining and amending the ſaid Acts. [30th May 1800.] [35 Geo. 3. c. 126; 38 Geo. 3. c. lxi]

'WHEREAS by an Act, paſſed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for widening and improving the Entrance into the City of London, near Temple Bar, for making a more commodious Street or Paſſage at Snow Hill, and for raiſing on the Credit of the Orphans' Fund, a Sum of Money for thoſe Purpoſes; by which Act the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, were empowered to borrow and raiſe in the Manner therein expreſſed, the Sum of one hundred thouſand Pounds upon the Credit of the Fund therein deſcribed or mentioned, called The Orphans' Fund, to be applied to the Purpoſes of the ſaid Act: And whereas an Act was paſſed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, to explain, amend, and enlarge the Powers of the before-mentioned Act: And whereas, conſiderable Progreſs hath been made in carrying the ſaid Acts into Execution, whereby the Entrance into the ſaid City at Temple Bar hath been greatly improved: And whereas, in forming the original Eſtimate of the Expences of effecting the ſaid Improvements, ſufficient Allowances were not made for the ſubſequent Depreciation of the Bonds and Securities which by the firſt recited Act were directed to be given, for ſecuring the Monies thereby authorized to be borrowed; nor were adequate Allowances made for the Sums paid and to be paid in ſeveral unforeſeen Caſes, as Compenſations for Good-Will, Loſſes, and Damages, to Perſons occupying or being intereſted in Houſes or other Hereditaments, by the ſaid Acts authorized to be purchaſed; and in the ſaid Eſtimate Credit was taken for the Monies to be received by Sale of the Ground Rents, and the Reverſion, Freehold, and Inheritance of ſo many Houſes, or ſuch Parcels of the Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments by the ſaid Acts authorized to be purchaſed and taken out of the Streets, as ſhould not be afterwards laid into the Streets, or otherwiſe appropriated to publick Uſe; but it being found expedient that the ſaid Improvements to be made at Temple Bar and Snow Hill aforeſaid, ſhould be carried on at both Places at one and the ſame Time, the laſt mentioned Monies, which will amount to a very conſiderable Sum, cannot be obtained by ſuch Sale until all the Purchaſes yet remaining to be made purſuant to the ſaid Acts ſhall be actually made; for which Reaſons the Fund created by the firſt hereinbefore recited Act, is found to be inſufficient for completing the ſaid Improvements: And whereas, if the Land Tax charged upon the Houſes, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments purchaſed and to be purchaſed for the ſaid Improvements, were redeemed according to the Statutes lately made and provided concerning the Redemption and Purchaſe of the Land Tax, ſuch Redemption would be highly beneficial not only to the Eſtate ſo intended to be ſold as aforeſaid, but ultimately to the Funds provided and to be provided for carrying on the ſaid Improvements: And whereas, the ſaid Fund called The Orphans' Fund was eſtabliſhed by an Act paſſed in the fifth and ſixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary[d], intituled, An Act for Relief of the Orphans and other Creditors of the City of London, for the Purpoſes therein expreſſed; which ſaid Fund, and the Receipts and Diſburſements thereof, are under the Management and Direction of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the ſaid City of London; and by ſeveral Acts paſſed in the twenty-firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, and in the ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, the ſeveral Proviſions for ſupporting the ſaid Fund have been continued and augmented, and the Whole of the Rates and Charges applicable to the ſaid Fund, from the Time of paſſing the laſt mentioned Act, are to remain and continue until the twenty-ninth Day of September which will be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred and thirty-one, when ſome of the ſaid Rates and Duties are to ceaſe, but the Sum of ten thouſand Pounds per Annum by the ſaid Acts of Parliament, or ſome of them, charged upon and made payable out of the Revenues of and belonging to the ſaid City of London, and certain other of the Rates and Charges therein alſo mentioned, are thereby continued until the Principal Monies charged upon the ſaid Orphans' Fund, together with Intereſt for the ſame ſhall be paid off and annihilated: And whereas the Income of the ſaid Fund has for ſeveral Years paſt ſo much increaſed as to afford a reaſonable Probability, that if the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council aſſembled, were enabled to raiſe the Sum of thirty-thouſand Pounds, to be applied for the Purpoſes of this Act, upon the Credit of the Surpluſſes to ariſe from the ſaid Fund, ſuch Surpluſſes will be amply ſufficient to pay off ſuch further Charge, as well as the Intereſt on the aforeſaid Sum of ſixty thouſand Pounds, until redeemed in Manner herein-after mentioned, together with the Whole of the Debt and Sums of Money already charged thereon, previous to the ſaid twenty-ninth Day of September one thouſand eight hundred and thirty-one: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, ſhould be empowered to raiſe and borrow upon the Credit of the ſaid Fund called The Orphans' Fund the further Sum of thirty thouſand Pounds, and upon the Credit of the Monies to ariſe by Sale of the Ground Rents and Eſtates to be ſold by them, in purſuance and by virtue of the ſaid two recited Acts and of this Act, the further Sum of ſixty thouſand Pounds, to enable them to carry on and complete the ſaid Improvements and redeem the

The Orphans' Fund charged with such Annuities,

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Fund called The Orphans' Fund shall be, and the same is hereby charged and made chargeable with the Annuities which shall be payable in respect of the said Sums of thirty thousand Pounds and sixty thousand Pounds, to be borrowed and raised under or by virtue of this Act, subject nevertheless and without Prejudice to the Payment of the Interest on the Principal Debts remaining due to the Orphans and other Creditors of the said City, and to the Payment of the several Annuities which are or shall be payable in respect of the several Principal Sums borrowed and raised upon the Credit of the said Fund, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament already passed and now in force.

Future Surplusses of the said Fund how to be employed.

IV. And be it further enacted, That out of the future Surplusses of the said Orphans' Fund (after reserving so much Money as shall be sufficient to satisfy the Interest payable from Time to Time to the Orphans and other Creditors of the said City, as also to satisfy the Annuities and yearly Interest payable from Time to Time in respect of the several other Principal Sums raised and borrowed by virtue or under the Authority of the several Acts of Parliament already passed for this Purpose, and now in force,) the Annuities payable and to be payable in respect of the said Sums of thirty thousand Pounds and sixty thousand Pounds, authorized and directed to be raised and borrowed under and by virtue of this present Act, shall be paid, from Time to Time, as the same shall grow due, before any Part of such Surplusses shall be applied in Redemption of the Annuities and the Payment of the Principal Monies already charged upon the said Fund, and that the Residue of such Surplusses, after such Payments, as by any Act or Acts of Parliament already passed, and now in force, are directed to be made out of the same, shall be paid and satisfied, shall, from Time to Time, by Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City of London, (which Order the said Court are hereby authorized and directed to make,) be by the Chamberlain of the said City for the Time being applied towards the Redemption of all and singular the Annuities to be payable in respect of the said Sum of thirty thousand Pounds, in such Order and Course as the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen shall think fit.

"Upon Notice of Redemption of Annuities and Tender of the Monies, the Annuities to cease. § 5. "Deficiencies to be paid out of the Chamber of London. § 6."

The Money to be raised and borrowed under this Act shall be applied only for the Purposes of the two recited Acts and of this Act, and the Surplus thereof, if any, to go towards the Increase of the Orphans' Fund.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said several Sums of thirty thousand Pounds and sixty thousand Pounds, or so much thereof respectively as shall be so raised as aforesaid, after Payment thereout of the Expences of obtaining and passing this Act, (and which Expences it shall be lawful to retain and pay accordingly,) shall be applied for or towards the Purposes of the said recited Acts of the thirty-fifth and thirty-eighth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty and of this Act, and that no Part thereof shall be applicable or applied to or for any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; and that if any Surplus shall remain of the said Sum of thirty thousand Pounds and sixty thousand Pounds, over and above what shall be applied to the Purposes aforesaid, such Surplus shall be appropriated and applied for or towards the Increase of the said Orphans' Fund.

"Common Council enabled to sell the Ground Rents and Reversion of such Parcels of the Land, &c. pur- "chased and to be purchased, and taken from the Streets under the two recited Acts, as shall not be ap- "propriated to publick Use. The Receipts of the Chamberlain, &c. to be sufficient Discharges for the "Purchase Monies. § 8."

The Monies to arise from such Sales to be applied in redeeming the Annuities to be granted in respect of the said Sum of sixty thousand Pounds, in order to exonerate the Orphans' Fund therefrom, and the Surplus (if any) of such Monies is to go towards the Increase of that Fund.

IX. And be it also enacted, That the clear Monies which shall from Time to Time arise and be produced from or by Means of such Sales as aforesaid, and which shall remain after Payment of the Costs and Charges incident to such Sales respectively, shall, from Time to Time, by Order of the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City of London, (which Order the said Court are hereby authorized and directed to make,) be, by the Chamberlain of the said City for the Time being, applied and disposed of in or towards redeeming the Annuities to be granted in respect of the said Sum of sixty thousand Pounds, to the Person or Persons to whom the same shall respectively belong, so far as the Monies to arise by such Sales shall extend, to the Intent that the said Orphans' Fund may be thereby exonerated from the same Annuities, or from such or so much of the same respectively as the Monies to arise by such Sales shall be found sufficient to redeem, pay off, and discharge; and that if any Surplus of the said Monies, to arise by Sale as aforesaid, shall remain over and above what shall be necessary for the Purposes last herein-before mentioned, such Surplus shall be appropriated and applied for or towards the Increase of the said Orphans' Fund.

CX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, if they ſhall think proper, within the Period of two Years next after the paſſing of this Act, to purchaſe of the ſeveral Owners, Leſſees, and Occupiers of all or any of the legal Quays, and the Warehouſes, Buildings, and other Works annexed thereto, or uſually occupied or employed therewith, ſituate between London Bridge and the Tower of London, or any Part or Parts thereof, their ſeveral and reſpective Eſtates and Intereſts of and in the ſame Premiſes reſpectively, and for that Purpoſe ſhall have all neceſſary and requiſite Powers to contract with any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, or their Truſtees, Guardians, Committees, or Aſſigns, for ſuch Price or Prices as may be agreed upon; and, in caſe of Difference, for ſuch Price or Prices as ſhall be ſettled by a Jury, to be ſummoned, impannelled, and ſworn in ſuch Manner as is herein-before directed in reſpect of Purchaſes to be made by the ſaid Dock Company; but ſo as that the Warrant or Warrants, Precept or Precepts, for the impannelling, ſummoning, and returning ſuch Jury, inſtead of being iſſued by the ſaid Directors, or any five or more of them, ſhall be iſſued by the Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, or any three or more of ſuch Lords Commiſſioners; and which Jury, in ſettling ſuch Price or Prices, ſhall conſider as well the Goodwill and Improvements as any Injury or Damage that may affect any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, either as Owner, Leſſee, or Occupier: provided that ſuch Goodwill ſhall be eſtimated by what in the Opinion of ſuch Jury the ſame would have been worth in caſe the Improvements intended by this Act had not been in Contemplation; and all and every the Perſon or Perſons, their Truſtees, Guardians, Committees, or Aſſigns ſo contracted with, ſhall have full Power to convey all and every the Premiſes, or any Part or Parcel thereof, to the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, and their Succeſſors, who for that Purpoſe ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Body Corporate; and the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury ſhall be, and are hereby empowered and directed to pay for ſuch Purchaſe or Purchaſes, out of all or any of the Duties, Revenues, and Income, compoſing the Fund called The Conſolidated Fund: Provided always, That no Owner, Leſſee, or Occupier of, or other Perſon or Perſons intereſted in any legal Quay or Quays, or any Warehouſe or Warehouſes, Erections, Buildings, or other Works annexed thereto, or uſually occupied or employed therewith, or any Part or Parts thereof, ſhall be compelled to diſpoſe of his Eſtate and Intereſt in the ſame, unleſs the Whole of his, her, or their Property, as well in ſuch legal Quay or Quays, as in the Warehouſes, Erections, Buildings, and other Works annexed thereto, or uſually occupied or employed therewith, or in the Part or Parts thereof in which he, ſhe, or they ſhall be intereſted, ſhall be purchaſed.

" Commiſſioners of Compenſation under 39 Geo. 3. c. lxix. [§ 130.] to be the Commiſſioners for the like " Purpoſes under this Act. § 111."

In caſe the River Tolls to be levied under the ſaid Act, [§ 134, &c.] for making Compenſation, ſhall be ſufficient for the Purpoſes of both Acts, no additional River Toll to be levied.

CXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in caſe the River Tolls or Duties impoſed and leviable by and under the ſaid laſt recited Act, for the Purpoſe of providing a Fund for making Compenſations, ſhall be ſufficient for making Compenſations to the ſeveral Perſons whoſe Claims thereto, by reaſon of the Docks, Quays, and other Works to be made and erected under and by virtue of this preſent Act, ſhall be acknowledged or eſtabliſhed, as well as the Compenſations directed to be made by reaſon of the Docks, Quays, or other Works to be made by virtue of the ſaid former Act, no further or other River Tolls or Duties for the Purpoſe of Compenſations ſhall be raiſed or leviable under this preſent Act.

If any further Sum ſhould be deemed neceſſary for Compenſation, an additional Toll or Duty to be levied, under Warrant of the Lords of the Treaſury.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any further Sum or Sums of Money, other than ſuch as are directed to be raiſed by the ſaid former Act, ſhall be deemed neceſſary or requiſite for making Compenſations to the ſeveral Perſons whoſe Properties may be affected by the Docks, Quays, and other Works to be erected and made by virtue of this preſent Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners for making Compenſations, by and with the Conſent of the Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being, ſignified by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, but not otherwiſe, to impoſe an additional Toll or Duty upon all Ships or Veſſels according to the Scale of Rates for the like Purpoſe in the ſaid recited Act, which additional Toll ſhall not exceed in Amount the Toll impoſed by the ſaid recited Act for and during the Term of thirteen Years from the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred, and to levy the Whole or ſuch Part or Proportion of the ſaid additional Toll, and for ſuch Time and Continuance, and ſubject to ſuch occaſional Suſpenſion, as ſhall be expreſſed and declared in the ſaid Warrants, or in any other Order or Orders under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being; and that ſuch Toll or Duty ſhall be paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the Purpoſes of this Act.

All Tolls or Duties to be raiſed by this Act for Compenſation to be paid to his Majeſty.

" No Claims ſhall be made for ſuch Compenſations till three Years after Notice of the Docks, &c. being " ready for Uſe, &c. Cap. xlviii.

An Act for providing a Workhouſe for the Uſe of the Pariſh of Aldbourne in the County of Wilts; and for appointing an Additional Overſeer for the better Government of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh. [20th June 1800.]

'WHEREAS the Pariſh of Aldbourne in the County of Wilts, is large and populous, and the Poor thereof exceedingly numerous: And whereas if a Workhouſe were to be provided for the ſaid Pariſh, wherein the Poor thereof might be kept and employed, and Power given to compel them to work, the Rates for their Relief might be rendered much leſs burdenſome to the ſaid Pariſh, and the Poor be better maintained and provided for, than at preſent: And whereas there are three Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh choſen annually, who being generally engaged in a large Way of Buſineſs, the Office has been frequently executed by improper Deputies, whereby the Money raiſed for the Relief of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh has been miſapplied, and the Poor's Rates within the ſaid Pariſh have increaſed, to the great Grievance of the Landholders and others paying to the Relief of the Poor; all which Evils it is apprehended might in a great Degree be remedied, if Power were given to appoint a fit and proper Perſon as an additional Overſeer, for the ſole Purpoſe of taking the Care and Management of the ſaid Poor:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted, &c.

" Truſtees appointed for the Purpoſe of providing and maintaining a Workhouſe. § 1, &c."

XV. And be it further enacted, That ſuch of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh and others, who ſhall be rated at and pay to the Relief of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh for five Pounds per Annum or upwards, as aforeſaid, ſhall and may meet together at the ſaid Veſtry Room of the Pariſh Church of Aldbourne aforeſaid, on the ſaid Monday Fortnight next after the paſſing of this Act, or on ſome other Day as ſoon after as conveniently may be, between the Hours of ten and twelve of the Clock in the Forenoon (Notice of ſuch Meeting having been previouſly given by Order of the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh, on the Sunday next before ſuch Meeting, in Manner herein-before preſcribed for Notice of Meetings for the Election of New Truſtees); and the Majority of the Inhabitants and others aforeſaid, aſſembled at ſuch Meeting, ſhall then and there nominate and appoint one fit and proper Perſon as an additional Overſeer of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh of Aldbourne, and ſhall alſo be empowered to allow him out of the Sums collected for the Relief and Maintenance of the Poor, for his Care and Trouble, ſuch yearly Salary as ſhall then be agreed on, not exceeding the yearly Sum of one hundred Pounds; and ſuch additional Overſeer, ſo to be nominated and appointed, and every other additional Overſeer hereafter to be nominated and appointed under and by virtue of this Act, ſhall have full Power and Authority, and is hereby authorized and empowered during the Time he ſhall continue in the Office to Act as Overſeer of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh, in all Things appertaining to the Office of Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh (except with regard to the making and collecting of Rates) though the ſame may not be particularly ſpecified and mentioned in this Act, and in the ſame Manner and in all Caſes as if every additional Overſeer was regularly appointed an Overſeer of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh, and as fully and effectually to all Intents and Power given to thoſe rated to the Poor for 5*l.* and upwards to appoint an additional Overſeer with a Salary.

Purpoſes as ſuch Overſeers of the Poor now have, or hereafter ſhall or may have, a Power to act by virtue of any Act or otherwiſe howſoever (except as before excepted).

His Continuance in Office, and Manner of appointing a Succeſſor.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid additional Overſeer ſo to be nominated and appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall, unleſs he be removed in Manner herein-after mentioned, continue in Office until the Tueſday in Eaſter Week, which will be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand eight hundred and one, and no longer; and that then and ſo annually afterwards upon Tueſday in Eaſter Week, or within three Days thenafter, the Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh of Aldbourne and others, who according to this Act are qualified to chooſe the ſaid additional Overſeer in Manner herein-before mentioned, ſhall either agree with the Perſon who held the ſaid Office laſt to continue in ſuch Office the Year enſuing, or ſhall proceed to the Election of another fit and proper Perſon for the ſaid Office in Manner herein-before directed; and alſo, that in caſe any ſuch additional Overſeer ſhall die or be removed from his ſaid Office before the Expiration of the Time for which he ſhall have been appointed, or become incapable by Illneſs or otherwiſe of doing his Duty, then and in any ſuch Caſe a Meeting ſhall be called, in Manner aforeſaid, as ſoon as conveniently may be, and the Inhabitants and others qualified as aforeſaid ſhall proceed in the Manner herein-before directed to nominate and appoint another fit and proper Perſon to be the additional Overſeer, in the Room of ſuch Overſeer ſo removed or dying: Provided always, That it ſhall not be lawful at any Time to appoint any Perſon to be an additional Overſeer as aforeſaid, who ſhall not be and continue a Member of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed.

Additional Overſeer ſhall ſign an Agreement and take an Oath.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch additional Overſeer, before he takes upon himſelf the Execution of any of the Powers and Authorities given him by this Act, ſhall ſign an Agreement in the Pariſh Book where the Proceedings of the ſaid Pariſh are uſually entered, ſignifying his Acceptance of and taking on himſelf the Office, and of the Salary he is to receive for the ſame, and alſo take the following Oath: (videlicet,) Oath.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That in all Caſes in which I ſhall act as Overſeer of the Poor of the Pariſh of Aldbourne, appointed in purſuance of an Act, made in the fortieth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Third, intituled, [here inſert the title of this Act,] I will without Favour or Affection, Hatred or Malice, truly and impartially, according to the beſt of my Skill and Knowledge, execute and perform all and every the Truſts, Powers, and Authorities repoſed in me by the ſaid Act,

'So help me God.'

Which Oath any one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County of Wilts, ſhall and is and are hereby empowered and required to adminiſter.

His Power.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That immediately after ſuch additional Overſeer ſhall be nominated and appointed, and ſhall have taken upon him the Office in Manner aforeſaid, the Whole Management and Care of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh ſhall be veſted in him, and neither the Churchwardens nor Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh ſhall intermeddle or interfere in the Care or Management of the Poor, either in or out of the Workhouſe or Workhouſes to be provided for the ſaid Pariſh (except during the Interval that may happen between the Death or Diſmiſſion of ſuch additional Overſeer and the Appointment of his Succeſſor in the Manner herein directed, and except during the Abſence or Inability to execute his Office of any ſuch additional Overſeer); but the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor ſhall continue to have and be veſted with the ſame Powers of making and collecting Poor's Rates, as they have at preſent, and ſhall be ſubject to the like Penalties for Neglect or Miſbehaviour in making or collecting ſuch Rates, as they were at the Time of paſſing this Act.

" Appointment of Maſter or Miſtreſs of the Workhouſe to be in the Truſtees. § 19."

One or more of the Churchwardens or Overſeers ſhall be Treaſurer to receive the Rates from the Collector and to pay the ſame to the additional Overſeer.

XX. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Appointment of ſuch Additional Overſeer as aforeſaid, one or more of the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh of Aldbourne, who ſhall be approved of at ſome Meeting for that Purpoſe (to be ſummoned and held at the Veſtry Room of the Church of Aldbourne in Manner herein-before directed for the Appointment of ſuch additional Overſeer) by the Majority of the Inhabitants, and others qualified as aforeſaid, preſent at ſuch Meeting, ſhall be appointed Treaſurer or Treaſurers, and receive the Money to be collected by virtue of all Rates granted for the Relief of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh, and pay the ſame, or ſo much thereof as ſhall remain in his or their Hands, after the Payments made to the Orders of the Truſtees as herein-before directed, to the ſaid additional Overſeer, from Time to Time as he ſhall have occaſion to pay the neceſſary Expences attending the Poor belonging to the ſaid Pariſh; and ſhall take Receipts from ſuch additional Overſeer for all ſuch Monies ſo paid, expreſſing in every ſuch Receipt the Purpoſes for which ſuch Money is wanted; and ſuch Receipts ſhall be a Diſcharge to ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers in his or their Accounts with the ſaid Pariſh.

" Accounts of the additional Overſeer and Treaſurer to be audited four Times in a Year at a General " Meeting, at which the Treaſurer and Overſeer ſhall produce their Accounts and Vouchers, ſtating the " Number of Perſons relieved and in the Workhouſe; ſuch Accounts to be printed for the Uſe of the In- " habitants, and verified by the ſaid Overſeer on Oath before a Juſtice. § 21."

Upon what Grounds additional Overſeer may be diſmiſſed from his Office.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any ſuch additional Overſeer ſhall neglect his Duty, be guilty of any Fraud or Embezzlement, or otherwiſe miſbehave himſelf in his ſaid Office, it ſhall be lawful for the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh to call a Publick Meeting of the Perſons paying to the Relief of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh (qualified as aforeſaid) by giving Notice in in Manner herein-before mentioned on the Sunday next before such Meeting (such Notice also to specify the Intent of such Meeting); and if it shall appear to the major Part of the Persons present at such Meeting, that there is any real Foundation for such Complaint, then the Churchwardens and Overseers, or any three or more of the Persons paying to the Relief of the Poor of the said Parish present at such Meeting, shall make Application to any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, who shall summon such additional Overseer before him (and which Summons such Justice is hereby empowered to grant), and after hearing the Complaint on Oath that such additional Overseer is guilty of the Offence laid to his Charge, that then such Justice shall immediately dismiss such Overseer from his Employment.

For protecting the additional Overseer in the Execution of his Office.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That for the better Protection of the additional Overseer to be appointed as aforesaid, if any Person or Persons shall insult, abuse, interrupt, or disturb the said Overseer in the Execution of his Office, it shall be lawful for any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County of Wilts, upon Complaint made to him or them by the said additional Overseer, and Proof thereof on Oath (which Oath the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby authorized and empowered to administer) to enquire into the Matter of the said Complaint; and if the same shall be found to be just and true, then the said Justice or Justices is and are hereby empowered and directed to punish the Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, by Fine not exceeding forty Shillings nor less than ten Shillings, which Fine shall be immediately paid into the Hands of such Justice or Justices before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, and be paid and applied by him or them for the Use of such Poor of the said Parish as do not receive Alms therefrom; and if the said Offender or Offenders shall not pay the said Fine in Manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Justice or Justices, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to commit such Offender or Offenders to some Common Gaol or House of Correction within the said County, there to remain for any Space of Time not exceeding two Calendar Months, or until he, she, or they shall have paid the said Fine so to be imposed as aforesaid.

"All Goods bought for the Poor to be carried to the Workhouse, and entered in a Book for that "Purpose, and not to be delivered but according to an Order in Writing by the additional Overseer. "§ 26. No Churchwarden or Overseer to furnish any Thing for his own Profit for the Use of the Poor. "§ 27."

Additional Overseer may employ the Poor.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said additional Overseer to cause all Persons who shall be received into the said Workhouse or Workhouses, to be employed in any Work, Trade, or Manufacture, or otherwise, as he shall think proper, during the Time they shall continue in the said Workhouse; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

For giving Relief to the Poor, in case of Accidents, and the Absence of the Overseer.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said Parish, or either of them, in the Absence, Illness, or other Incapacity of the said additional Overseer, to order Relief to any poor Person or Persons who shall meet with any Hurt or Accident, or whose Case may be such that it may be dangerous to wait until the additional Overseer may be apprized of the Condition of such Person or Persons.

Punishment of such Poor as shall misbehave.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any poor Person maintained and relieved in the said Workhouse or Workhouses, shall be guilty of profane Cursing and Swearing, or of any lewd, immoral, indecent, or disorderly Behaviour, or shall use any abusive or improper Languge, or commit Waste of the Provisions, or other Materials or Things provided for the said Parish, or shall neglect or refuse to perform the Work or Service which he or she shall be required to do, or shall be remiss therein (such Work or Service being suited to his, her, or their Strength and Ability) every such Offender shall and may be punished, either by Abatement of Diet, or Distinction in Dress and Diet; such Punishment to be inflicted by Order of the said Additional Overseer so to be appointed as aforesaid.

Encouragement to be given to the industrious Poor.

XXXIII. 'And, to the End that all poor People in the said House may be encouraged to apply themselves to the Tasks in which they may be employed with Diligence and Humility,' be it further enacted, That out of the Profits arising from the Work which shall be done by the said poor People, such Rewards shall be distributed to the industrious and skilful, in Proportion to the Quality and Perfection of their Work, as to the said additional Overseer shall appear reasonable.

"The Profits of the Work done by the Poor to be applied in Aid of the Poor Rates. § 35."

Allotment to his Majeſty as Lord of the Manor of Walton Leigh, for Right of Soil.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, and they are hereby required, in the next Place, to ſet out, allot, and award, unto and for the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, as Lord of the Manor of Walton Leigh aforeſaid, to be held by his ſaid Royal Highneſs Frederick Duke of York, and the ſaid Richard Palmer, as Leſſees of the ſaid Manor, under and by virtue of the ſaid ſubſiſting Leaſe from the Crown, in Proportion to their reſpective Intereſts therein, one Sixteenth Part of all the Commons and Waſte Lands within the ſaid Manor of Walton Leigh, in lieu of and as a Recompence for his and their Right, as Lord and Leſſees of the Manor aforeſaid, to the Soil of the ſaid Commons and Waſte Lands within ſuch Manor, excluſive of the Lands to be allotted to his ſaid Majeſty and his Leſſees, in lieu of his and their Rights and Intereſts in the ſaid Commons and Waſte Lands, in reſpect of the ſeveral Meſſuages, Cottages, Demeſne Lands, and other Lands belonging to the Crown within the ſaid Manor.

Allotments to Lords of Manors of Walton-upon-Thames.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, and they are hereby required, in the next Place, to ſet out, allot, and award unto and for his ſaid Royal Highneſs Frederick Duke of York, and the ſaid Richard Palmer, Lords of the Manor of Walton-upon-Thames aforeſaid, in Proportion to their reſpective Intereſts therein, to the ſaid Sarah D'Oyly, Lady of the Manor of the Rectory of Walton-upon-Thames aforeſaid, to the ſaid Sir John Frederick, Lord of the Manor of Sandon aforeſaid, to the ſaid Sir Beaumont Hotham and Thomas Sutton, Lords of the Manor of Moulſey Matham aforeſaid, and to the ſaid Earl of Tyrconnel, Lord of the ſaid Manor of Herſham, otherwiſe Waterville Eſher with Herſham, in reſpect of ſo much of their ſaid reſpective Manors as lie within or extend into the ſaid Pariſh of Walton-upon-Thames, one Sixteenth Part of all the Commons and Waſte Lands lying within the ſaid Pariſh of Walton-upon-Thames, to be divided amongſt the Lords of the ſaid ſeveral Manors, in Proportion to the Quantity and Quality of the Waſte Lands belonging to their ſaid Manors reſpectively, lying within the Pariſh of Walton-upon-Thames aforeſaid, in lieu of the Rights of the Lords of the ſaid ſeveral Manors in and to the Soil of the ſaid Commons and Waſte Lands reſpectively.

Allotments for the Uſe of the poor Occupiers only.

XXXVIII. 'And whereas it is intended to give and allow to ſuch Poor as are real and true Occupiers of 'Cottages within the ſaid Pariſhes and Manor reſpectively, a Share and Intereſt of and in the ſaid Commons 'and Waſte Lands, in reſpect of their Occupation thereof and Reſidence therein only as herein-after men-'tioned;' be it therefore further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall and they are hereby required, in the next Place, to ſet out and allot diſtinct Parts and Parcels of the ſaid Commons and Waſte Lands hereby directed to be incloſed, excluſive of all Roads and Ways in and over the ſame, in the ſeveral Proportions following; (that is to ſay,) in the ſaid Pariſh of Walton-upon-Thames, two hundred Acres in the Whole, one hundred and ſixty Acres, Part thereof upon Walton Common, ſituate between Oatlands, Burwood, and Aſhley Parks, beginning at the Road from Walton to Eſher, in a Line with the old Gravel Pits, and extending South-weſt, and the Remainder of the ſaid two hundred Acres in ſuch other Place or Places as the Commiſſioners ſhall direct: In the ſaid Manor of Walton Leigh, in the ſaid Pariſh of Chertſey, ſixty Acres, in one or more Piece or Pieces, and in ſuch Place or Places as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall think proper; which ſaid diſtinct Parts and Parcels of the ſaid Commons and Waſte Lands ſo to be ſet out and allotted, ſhall be and remain to and for the Uſe of the real and true Occupiers only of Cottages ſtanding and being within the ſaid Pariſh and Manor reſpectively, the yearly Rent of which ſhall not exceed five Pounds, and having no other Houſe or Place of Reſidence; and ſuch Occupiers for the Time being ſhall at all Times afterwards have the ſole and excluſive Right of uſing the ſaid Parts and Parcels of the ſaid Commons and Waſte Lands ſo to be ſet out and allotted, for the Purpoſe of Paſture, and of cutting Turf, Furze, and Heath for Fuel, in equal Proportions, according to the Number of the ſaid Houſes and Cottages, without paying any Thing for ſuch Uſe; and when and ſo ſoon as the ſaid Allotments ſhall be aſſigned and ſet out, the ſame ſhall reſpectively be and become veſted in the reſpective Miniſters, Churchwardens, and Overſeers of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſhes of Walton-upon-Thames and Chertſey aforeſaid, for the Time being, and their Succeſſors, in all the Landholders of one hundred Pounds per Annum, and in four of the Cottagers of each of the ſaid Pariſhes, to be for that Purpoſe reſpectively choſen at Veſtries to be held at Eaſter in every Year, who, or a Majority of them, ſhall have full Powers to make Orders and Regulations for the Uſe, Management, draining, levelling, and other Improvements, of and for the Stints of the Commonage thereof, and for the Protection and Preſervation of the Herbage, Turf, Ground, and Soil thereof, and for the Employments and Appointments of proper Perſons to execute ſuch Rules and Orders, and to overlook ſuch Lands, and to impound Cattle which ſhall be found treſpaſſing thereon contrary to ſuch Regulations, and to order Payment of all neceſſary Expences thereby incurred, not exceeding in any one Year the Sum of ten Pounds, out of the Rates made for the Relief of the Poor of the ſaid reſpective Pariſhes; which Sum the Overſeers of the Poor of ſuch reſpective Pariſhes are hereby required and authorized to pay accordingly, and which ſhall be allowed to them in their Accounts; and in caſe any other Perſon or Perſons, not really and truly occupying a Houſe or Cottage of ſuch yearly Value and Deſcriptions as herein-before mentioned, ſhall at any Time or Times turn out Sheep or Cattle of any Sort, or cut any Heath, Turf, or Furze, or dig, take, or carry away the Soil, on the ſaid diſtinct Parts and Parcels of the ſaid Commons and Waſte Lands ſo to be ſet out and allotted as next before mentioned, every ſuch Perſon ſo offending, being thereof convicted, ſhall forfeit and pay for each ſuch Offence the Sum of twenty Shillings, to be recovered and applied in Manner herein-after directed *: Provided always, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall, by reaſon of having any Right of uſing the ſaid Parts and Parcels of the ſaid Commons and Waſte Lands Power to ſell Heriots, and Claim and Right to Timber and Trees, &c.

XLVI. 'And whereas his ſaid Majeſty, as Lord of the ſaid Manor of Walton Leigh, and his ſaid Royal 'Highneſs Frederick Duke of York, and the ſaid Richard Palmer, as Leſſees of the ſaid Manor, under 'and by virtue of the ſaid ſubſiſting Leaſe thereof from the Crown, and his ſaid Royal Highneſs Frederick 'Duke of York, and the ſaid Richard Palmer, as Lords of the ſaid Manor of Walton-upon-Thames, are re-'ſpectively willing to releaſe and diſcharge all Heriots due and payable to the Lords of the ſaid Manors, out 'of, or from, or for, or in reſpect of any Cuſtomary or Copyhold Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or He-'reditaments held of the ſaid Manors, and alſo to releaſe and diſcharge all or any of the Cuſtomary or Co-'pyhold Lands held of the ſaid Manors, of and from all Claim and Right due by Cuſtom of the ſaid Ma-'nors, or either of them, to the Lords thereof, of, in, and to any Timber or Trees felled upon, or from 'all or any ſuch Cuſtomary or Copyhold Lands, on being paid ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be 'be found an adequate Recompence and Compenſation for the ſame as herein-after mentioned;' be it therefore enacted, That if the Owner or Owners of any Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the ſaid reſpective Manors of Walton Leigh and Walton-upon-Thames, ſhall be deſirous of making a Satisfaction or Compenſation for releaſing and diſcharging ſuch Eſtates of and from all Heriots, and all Claim and Right of, in, and to ſuch Timber and Trees as aforeſaid, by Payment of a Sum of Money, and ſhall cauſe Notice thereof in Writing to be given to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any one of them, before the making the Award herein-after laſt directed, then and in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered and directed, to aſcertain, fix, and determine what Sum or Sums of Money ſhould be paid by every ſuch Owner giving Notice as aforeſaid, as and for a full and equivalent Compenſation and Satisfaction for releaſing and diſcharging ſuch Eſtates of and from all Heriots, and all Claim and Right of, in, and to ſuch Timber and Trees as aforeſaid; and ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be paid to the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Uſe of the Lords of the ſaid reſpective Manors, and the Leſſees of the ſaid Manor of Walton Leigh, in Proportion to their reſpective Intereſts therein, at ſuch Place or Places, and at ſuch Time or Times, as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall appoint; and the Receipt or Receipts of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge and Diſcharges to the ſaid Perſon and Perſons for ſuch Sum and Sums of Money ſo to be paid to them the ſaid Commiſſioners as aforeſaid; and the Perſon or Perſons paying the ſame, ſhall not in any Caſe be anſwerable for the Application or Miſapplication thereof.

" Cuſtomary or Copyhold Eſtates ſhall be diſcharged accordingly from all Heriots, and Claim and Right to " Timber and Trees, &c. § 47."

For appropriating his Majeſty's Share of the Money received for Heriots and Timber in the Manor of Walton Leigh.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall be paid for releaſing and diſcharging any Eſtate or Eſtates held of the ſaid Manor of Walton Leigh, from the Payment of Heriots, or for diſcharging any ſuch Eſtate or Eſtates from any Claim or Right to Timber or Trees growing thereon as aforeſaid, ſhall be divided by the ſaid Commiſſioners into two diſtinct Parts or Shares, in Proportion to the reſpective Intereſts of the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty as Lord of the ſaid Manor, and of his ſaid Royal Highneſs Frederick Duke of York, and the ſaid Richard Palmer, as Leſſees of the ſaid Manor, and that the Share or Proportion thereof which ſhall be adjudged by the ſaid Commiſſioners to belong to his Majeſty, ſhall be paid by the ſaid Commiſſioners into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, directed to be opened by an Act, paſſed in the thirty-eighth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for making perpetual, ſubject to Redemption and Purchaſe in the Manner therein ſtated, the ſeveral Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax, for one Year, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, and applied to or for the Purpoſes therein expreſſed. 38 Geo. 3. c. 60. § 47.

Cap. cii.

An Act to enable Sir George Pigot Baronet, Margaret Fiſher, and Frances Pigot, to diſpoſe of a certain Diamond therein mentioned by a Lottery. [2d July 1800.]

'WHEREAS the Right Honourable George Lord Pigot, being poſſeſſed, at the Time of his Deceaſe, (amongſt other Things,) of a Diamond of very conſiderable Value, duly made and publiſhed his laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing, bearing Date the ſixteenth Day of April in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five, and thereby gave and bequeathed all the Reſt, Reſidue, and Remainder of his Perſonal Eſtate and Effects (whereof the ſaid Diamond was Part) unto his Brothers Sir Robert Pigot Baronet (then Robert Pigot) and Hugh Pigot, late Vice Admiral in his Majeſty's Navy, and his Siſter Margaret Fiſher Widow, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, in equal Shares and Proportions, Share and Share alike: And whereas the ſaid Sir Robert Pigot afterwards died, and by his laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing, bearing Date the eleventh Day of May in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, gave and bequeathed all the clear Reſidue of his Perſonal Eſtate and Effects unto the ſaid Hugh Pigot, Thomas Partington, of Lincoln's Inn in the County of Middleſex, Eſquire, and Edward Boodle, of Lower Brook-Street in the Pariſh of Saint George Hanover Square in the County of Middleſex, Eſquire, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, upon certain Truſts therein mentioned, whereby his Son Sir George Pigot, of Patſhul in the County of Stafford, Baronet, became and now is beneficially intereſted in his late Father's undivided third Part or Share of and in the ſaid Diamond: And whereas the ſaid Hugh Pigot died inteſtate, (in the Lifetime of the ſaid Sir Robert Pigot,) and Letters of Adminiſtration of the Goods, Chattels, and Credits of the ſaid Hugh Pigot were, on or about the twenty-third Day of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, granted by the Prerogative Court of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury to Frances Pigot his Widow, whereby the undivided third Part or Share of the ſaid Hugh Pigot, of and in the ſaid Diamond, became veſted in the ſaid Frances Pigot: And whereas the ſaid Diamond is eſteemed by ſkilful Lapidiſts to be but little inferior in Weight, and equal in Water and Brilliancy, to any known Diamond in Europe; and the Value thereof is now eſtimated at a Sum little ſhort of thirty thouſand Pounds: And whereas the ſaid Diamond has at various Times been ſhown for Sale, but owing to its very great Value, no Individual hath yet been willing to purchaſe it; whereby the ſeveral Perſons intereſted therein have, for a great Number of Years, loſt all the Benefit and Advantage which they otherwiſe would have derived therefrom, had the ſame been ſold and diſpoſed of: And whereas there is not now any Proſpect of ſelling and diſpoſing of the ſame, to the beſt Advantage, other than and except by Way of Lottery or Chance; in order therefore, that the ſaid Sir George Pigot, Margaret Fiſher, and Frances Pigot, may be enabled to ſell and diſpoſe of the ſaid Diamond, to the beſt Advantage;' may it pleaſe your Majeſty, (at the humble Petition of the ſaid Sir George Pigot, Margaret Fiſher, and Frances Pigot,) that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Sir George Pigot, Margaret Fiſher, and Frances Pigot, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, and they are hereby authorized to ſell and diſpoſe of the ſaid Diamond, by Way of Lottery or Chance, without being ſubject or liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture impoſed by any Act or Acts of Parliament againſt any Sale or Sales by Way of Lottery, or by Lots, Tickets, Numbers, or Figures; and that ſuch Sale or Sales, ſo to be made of the ſaid Diamond by the ſaid Sir George Pigot, Margaret Fiſher, and Frances Pigot, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, (ſubject only to the Terms, Proviſoes, and Reſtrictions, herein mentioned,) ſhall be good, valid, and effectual; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Power to ſell the Diamond by a Lottery.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Money ſo to be raiſed by the ſaid Sir George Pigot, Margaret Fiſher, and Frances Pigot, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall not exceed the Sum of twenty-three thouſand nine hundred and ninety-eight Pounds and ſixteen Shillings upon the Sale of the ſaid Diamond; and that the Number of Tickets ſhall not in the Whole exceed Eleven thouſand four hundred and twenty-eight, to be numbered reſpectively from one to eleven thouſand four hundred and twenty-eight, both incluſive, at and for the Price of two Guineas for each Ticket.

Limiting the Sum to be raiſed, and the Number and Price of the Tickets.

"Notice to be given in the Gazette of the Intention to ſell by a Lottery. § 3."

IV. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Diamond ſhall conſtitute one Prize only; and ſuch Prize ſhall be determined by the Drawing of the firſt State Lottery within this Kingdom, to be drawn by Authority of Parliament after the paſſing of this Act; and that the firſt Ticket that ſhall be drawn in ſuch State Lottery, the Number whereof correſponds with any Number to be iſſued by the ſaid Sir George Pigot, Margaret Fiſher, and Frances Pigot, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall be and is hereby declared to be the Prize.

Lottery how to be made.

V. And be it further enacted, That before ſuch Notice ſhall be given in the London Gazette as aforeſaid, the ſaid Diamond ſhall be depoſited in the Bank of England, in the Names of the Truſtees herein appointed; and immediately on ſuch Notice being given as aforeſaid, the abſolute Right and Property of, in, and over the ſaid Diamond, ſhall be pledged and veſted in the Right Honourable Lord Granville Leveſon Gower, the Honourable Edward Monckton, and Edward Stracey the younger, Eſquire, Barriſter at Law, and the Survivors and Survivor of hem, and ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as ſhall or may be appointed under and in purſuance Truſtees appointed in whom the Diamond is veſted.

purſuance of this Act, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, their and his Executors and Adminiſtrators, in Truſt nevertheleſs from and immediately after the Drawing of the fortunate Number, for the Holder of the fortunate Ticket; and the ſame Diamond ſhall be and is hereby declared to be freed and diſcharged of, from, and againſt all Rent and Arrears of Rent, Aſſignments, Sales, Judgments, Executions, Titles, Charges, Debts, and Incumbrances whatſoever, and ſhall become the Property of and be delivered to the Bearer of ſuch fortunate Ticket, by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, by virtue of an Order for that Purpoſe, to be ſigned by the ſaid Truſtees for the Time being, which Order they are hereby authorized and required to give at any Time after the drawing and determining the Prize, upon Demand made to them for that Purpoſe, and on Production of the Ticket containing ſuch fortunate Number as aforeſaid.

" For appointing new Truſtees. § 6."

VII. Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That the ſaid Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or the ſaid Truſtees, ſhall not in any Manner be anſwerable or reſponſible for the Officers or Servants of the ſaid Governor and Company, in the Care or keeping Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Diamond, or otherwiſe relating thereto; any Thing herein-contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Bank not to be reſponſible.

" Expences of the Act to be paid from the Sale of the Tickets. § 8. Publick Act. § 9."

Cap. ciii.

An Act for enabling the Moſt Noble Charles Duke of Richmond, and the Duke of Richmond for the Time being, to charge with Jointures the Annuity of nineteen thouſand Pounds, (payable out of the Conſolidated Fund, in lieu of the Coal Duty granted by King Charles the Second to Charles firſt Duke of Richmond, and the Heirs of his Body,) and the Stocks on Transfer of which the ſaid Annuity is made redeemable, and for enabling the Sale of Part of the ſaid Stocks, and inveſting the Money ariſing from any ſuch Sale in the Purchaſe of Manors, Lands, and Hereditaments, and for other Purpoſes. [2d July 1800.]

An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual an Act, paſſed in the third Year of the Reign of King James the Firſt, intituled, An Act for the recovering of ſmall Debts, and for the relieving of poor Debtors in London; and an Act, paſſed in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, to explain and amend the above-mentioned Act; and likewiſe for extending the Powers of the Court of Requeſts in the City of London, in and by the ſaid two ſeveral Acts continued and eſtabliſhed. [9th July 1800.]

WHEREAS an Act of Parliament was paſſed in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King James the Firſt, intituled, An Act for the recovering of Small Debts, and for the relieving of Poor Debtors in London: And whereas an Act of Parliament was paſſed in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the third Year of the Reign of King James the Firſt, intituled, "An Act for the recovering of Small Debts, and for the relieving of Poor Debtors in London;" which ſaid Acts have been found uſeful and beneficial, but the ſame are in ſome Reſpects defective and inſufficient fully to anſwer the good Purpoſes thereby intended: And whereas if the Number of the Commiſſioners of the Court of Requeſts in the City of London were limited and aſcertained as herein-after mentioned; and if the Powers of the ſaid Court under the two recited Acts of Parliament were extended to the Recovery of Debts not exceeding Five Pounds, it would be attended with beneficial Effects to the Publick: And whereas it would greatly alleviate the Diſtreſſes of the honeſt and unfortunate Debtor, if the ſaid Court was enabled to order Payment of Debts, for which Judgment ſhall be given, by Inſtalments at ſtated Periods, which may be poſſible for the Debtor to pay, though it may be abſolutely impoſſible for him or her to ſatisfy the whole Debt in one Sum: And whereas Doubts have ariſen whether Perſons reſiding within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, and indebted to Perſons not reſiding within the ſame City or Liberties, are ſubject to the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Court; and whether Rent due from Lodgers and others, Wages due to Workmen or Servants, or the Quarterage due and payable by the ſeveral Members of the Publick Companies of the ſaid City, were recoverable in the ſaid Court; and alſo whether Attornies and Solicitors, and other Officers of any of the Courts of Law or Equity, are ſubject to the Proceſſes of the ſaid Court: And whereas it would be attended with very beneficial Effects to the Publick, if all Debts, whether upon ſimple Contract or otherwiſe, not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds, (except ſuch Debts whereto it is herein-after* expreſsly declared that this Act ſhall not extend,) were recoverable in the ſaid Court:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſo much and ſuch Parts of the ſaid two recited Acts of the third Year of King James the Firſt, and the fourteenth Year of King George the Second, as confine or reſtrain the Cognizance or Juriſdiction of the Court of Requeſts of the City of London to Debts not exceeding the Sum of Forty Shillings, ſhall (from and after the thirtieth Day of September one thouſand eight hundred) be, and the ſame are hereby repealed.

3 Jac. I. c. 15.

14 Geo. 2. c. 10.

*[§ 11.]

So much of recited Acts as reſtrains the Juriſdiction of the Court of Requeſts of the City to Debts not exceeding 40s. ſhall, from September 30, 1800, be repealed.

Commiſſioners appointed who ſhall ſit in Rotation.

II. 'And, for the due and regular appointing, and for limiting and aſcertaining the Number of the Commiſſioners of the ſaid Court of Requeſts,' be it further enacted, That two Aldermen of the City of London, together with not leſs than twenty Inhabitant Houſeholders of the reſpective Wards or Diſtricts herein-after mentioned (including the Common Council Men for the Time being of the ſaid reſpective Wards or Diſtricts) ſhall be nominated and appointed in ſuch Manner as hath been heretofore accuſtomed to be Commiſſioners of, and to ſit as uſual in the ſaid Court, for one Calendar Month, in the Rotation following; (that is to ſay,)

In the preſent Year 1800.	For the Month of October	of the Ward of	Cheap.
——	- November	-	Bread Street.
——	- December	-	Candlewick.
1801.	- January	-	Dowgate.
——	- February	-	Bridge.
——	- March	-	Walbrook.
——	- April	-	Boſſiſhaw.
——	- May	-	Cordwainer.
——	- June	-	Coleman Street.
——	- July	-	Farringdon within.
——	- Auguſt	-	Cripplegate within and without.
——	- September	-	Tower.
——	- October	-	Aldgate and Lime Street.
——	- November	-	Biſhopſgate within and without.
——	- December	-	Broad Street.
1802.	- January	-	Billing ſgate.
——	- February	-	Cornhill.
——	- March	-	Alderſgate within and without.
——	- April	-	Queenhith.

——	- June	-	Farringdon without.
——	- July	-	Portſoken.
——	- September	-	Langbourn.

And that ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall, from Time to Time hereafter, continue to be nominated and appointed from each of the ſaid Wards or Diſtricts, in the ſame Rotation, for one Calendar Month in every ſucceeding two Years; and that they the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſo to be from Time to Time appointed, or any three or more of them, ſhall and may, from Time to Time, have full Power and Authority to hear, examine, and determine all Matters in Controverſy coming before them, between Party and Party, where the Debt ſhall not exceed the Sum of forty Shillings; and that the ſaid Commiſſioners ſo to be from Time to Time appointed, or any Seven or more of them, ſhall and may, from Time to Time, have full Power and Authority to hear, examine, and determine all Matters in Controverſy coming before them, between Party and Party, where the Debt ſhall not exceed the Sum of five Pounds.

Three Commiſſioners ſhall have Juriſdiction over Debts not exceeding 40s. and Seven ſhall have Juriſdiction over Debts not exceeding 5l.

Commiſſioners, in default of a ſufficient Number of the Rota attending, may call to their Aſſiſtance others who are not in Rotation.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at any Court or Sitting of the ſaid Commiſſioners a ſufficient Number of them ſhall not be preſent, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Commiſſioners as are in Attendance to call to their Aſſiſtance any other Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, who is, are, or ſhall be duly qualified and authorized to act in the ſaid Court for any other Month; and in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Aſſiſtant Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners to act in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities given by this preſent Act, or by either of the Acts of Parliament herein-before mentioned, in the ſame Manner as the Commiſſioners for the then Current Month are authorized and empowered to act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Commiſſioners ſhall take the following Oath.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners to be appointed as aforeſaid, or any of them, ſhall not be capable of acting as Commiſſioners or Commiſſioner in the Execution of any of the Powers and Authorities given by this preſent Act, or by either of the before-mentioned Acts of the third Year of King James the Firſt, and the fourteenth Year of King George the Second, after the thirtieth Day of September one thouſand eight hundred, (except the Power hereby given of adminiſtering Oaths to Commiſſioners,) until they and he reſpectively ſhall have taken an Oath to the Effect following; (that is to ſay,)

'I A. B. do ſwear, That I am poſſeſſed, for my own Uſe and Benefit, of Eſtates or Property of the clear Amount or Value of one thouſand Pounds, over and above all Incumbrances, and that I will faithfully, impartially, and honeſtly, according to the beſt of my Skill and Knowledge, execute the ſeveral Powers and Truſts repoſed in me as a Commiſſioner of the Court of Requeſts in and for the City of London, conformable to the Directions and true Intent and Meaning of an Act, paſſed in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King James the Firſt, intituled, An Act for the recovering of Small Debts, and for the relieving of Poor Debtors in London; and of two other Acts of Parliament, paſſed reſpectively in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, and in the fortieth Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George the Third, for explaining, amending, and rendering more effectual the firſt mentioned Act, or conformably to the Directions and true Intent and Meaning of ſuch or ſo much of the ſame three Acts of Parliament, as now are or is in force, and that without Favour or Affection, Prejudice or Malice.

'So help me GOD.'

Which

Which Oath any two or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby empowered and required to adminiſter to each other; and they the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall and are hereby required (after taking the ſaid Oath) to ſign or ſubſcribe their reſpective Names upon a Roll or Rolls of Parchment to be provided for that Purpoſe, with the ſaid Oath written or printed thereon; and that ſuch Roll or Rolls ſhall be carefully kept among the Records of the ſaid Court.

Debtors to be ſummoned before Commiſſioners, who may make ſuch Order therein between the Parties, as they think juſt, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, whether reſiding within the City of London or elſewhere, alſo Bodies Politick or Corporate, and Fraternities or Brotherhoods, whether Corporate or not Corporate, who now have or hereafter ſhall have any ſuch Debt as is herein-before ſpecified or mentioned, or any other Debt or Debts, owing or due to, or claimed or demanded by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, and Fraternities or Brotherhoods, whether Corporate or not Corporate, not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds, from any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, reſiding or inhabiting within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or keeping any Houſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Shed, Stall, or Stand, or ſeeking a Livelihood, or trading or dealing within the ſame City or Liberties, to cauſe ſuch Debtor or Debtors, Perſon or Perſons, from whom ſuch Debt or Debts ſhall be owing or due, or claimed or demanded, and ſo reſident, inhabiting, or keeping any Houſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Shed, Stall, or Stand, or ſeeking a Livelihood, or trading or dealing as aforeſaid, to be warned or ſummoned by perſonal Service, or by a printed or written Summons left at the Dwelling Houſe, Lodgings, or Place of Abode, Warehouſe, Shop, Shed, Stall, Stand, or any other Place of Dealing of ſuch Debtor or Debtors, or Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, within the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Court, to appear before the Commiſſioners of the ſaid Court, to be held at or in the Guildhall of the ſaid City, or at or in ſome other Place to be provided by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London in Common Council aſſembled, within the ſaid City, for holding the ſaid Court; and that after ſuch Summons as aforeſaid, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, in caſe the Debts ſhall not exceed the Sum of forty Shillings, and if the ſame ſhall be above forty Shillings and ſhall not exceed the Sum of five Pounds, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority, by virtue of this Act, from Time to Time to make or cauſe to be made ſuch Order or Orders, Decrees, Judgments, and Proceedings, between ſuch Party Plaintiff or Parties Plaintiffs; and his, her, or their Debtor or Debtors, or other Perſon or Perſons, Defendant or Defendants, touching ſuch Debts, as they ſhall find to ſtand with Equity and good Conſcience; and thereby may order and direct the Payment of any ſuch Debts, to be made either in one Sum or at once, or by Inſtalments at ſtated Periods, as they ſhall ſee Cauſe, and deem juſt and reaſonable; all which Order or Orders, Decrees, Judgments, and Proceedings ſo to be made, ſhall be regiſtered in a Book or Books, as they have been accuſtomed to be, and as well the Party Plaintiff or Parties Plaintiffs as the Debtor or Defendant, Debtors or Defendants, whom ſuch Order or Orders, Decrees, Judgments, and Proceedings ſhall reſpectively concern, ſhall obſerve, perform, and keep the ſame reſpectively in all Points; and no ſuch Orders, Decrees, Judgments, or Proceedings ſhall be removed or removeable into any other Court by Certiorari or otherwiſe howſoever.

Orders and Proceedings ſhall be regiſtered.

Where Debt ſhall be due from two Perſons, ſummoning one ſhall be ſufficient.

VI. And be it further enacted, That where any Debt ſhall be due, owing, or demanded from any two or more Perſons jointly, by reaſon or on account of ſuch Perſons being Partners in Trade, or otherwiſe jointly concerned, the like Service of any ſuch Summons as aforeſaid, on any one of ſuch two or more Partners or Perſons ſhall be as good and ſufficient as if each of them were ſeparately ſummoned as aforeſaid.

Beadles of the Court ſhall ſummon Witneſſes.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants, in any Suit or Cauſe hereafter depending in the ſaid Court of Requeſts, to cauſe any Perſon or Perſons to be warned or ſummoned, as often as ſhall appear neceſſary, by one of ſuch Beadles of the ſaid Court as aforeſaid, either by ſerving ſuch Summons perſonally, or by leaving the ſame at the laſt or uſual Place or reſpective Places of Abode of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, to appear as a Witneſs or Witneſſes to give Evidence in the ſaid Court in or concerning any ſuch Suit or Cauſe; and in caſe any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo to be ſummoned to give Evidence as aforeſaid ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear at the Time and Place to which he, ſhe, or they ſhall be ſo ſummoned, or appearing upon any ſuch Summons ſhall refuſe to be examined upon Oath, or in caſe of a Quaker or Quakers on ſolemn Affirmation (which Oath or Affirmation the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorized and required to adminiſter), and to give Evidence as aforeſaid before ſuch Commiſſioners, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then and in either of the ſaid Caſes, every ſuch Perſon ſo neglecting or refuſing ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch Offence, not exceeding the Sum of forty Shillings, to be awarded by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, unleſs a reaſonable Excuſe be offered to and allowed by the ſaid Commiſſioners; and if the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall not forthwith pay into the ſaid Court the Penalty or Forfeiture ſo impoſed upon him, her, or them, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, to order and cauſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons to be apprehended by any of the Beadles of the ſaid Court, and committed to any Priſon in the ſaid City, there to remain for any Space of Time not exceeding one Calendar Month, unleſs ſuch Penalty or Forfeiture ſhall be ſooner paid; and every ſuch Penalty or Forfeiture, as laſt-mentioned, which ſhall be received by virtue of this Act, ſhall thereupon (after deducting the reaſonable Coſts and Charges of apprehending and taking ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo neglecting or refuſing), be paid over into the Hands of the Churchwardens or Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh wherein the Perſon or Perſons reſpectively paying the ſame ſhall, at the Time of his, her, or their Neglect or Refuſal to appear or give Evidence as aforeſaid, inhabit, dwell, or ſeek a Livelihood, and ſhall be applied towards the Support and Maintenance of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh.

Witneſſes refuſing to give Evidence ſhall forfeit 40s. and in Default of Payment may be committed.

Application of ſuch Penalties.

Perſons giving falſe Evidence ſhall be puniſhed for Perjury.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall make Oath, or, being of the People called Quakers, ſhall make Affirmation, or give Evidence, in any Cauſe depending in the ſaid Court of of Requeſts, whereby he, ſhe, or they ſhall commit any wilful or corrupt Perjury, or be guilty of wilful and falſe affirming, and thereof be duly convicted according to Law, then every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall incur and ſuffer the like Pains and Penalties as any other Perſon or Perſons convicted of wilful Perjury, according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Debts due by Perſons under Age for Neceſſaries may be recovered.

IX. 'And whereas Difficulties frequently ariſe in the Recovery of Debts in the ſaid Court of Requeſts, 'in ſuch Caſes as are next herein-after mentioned, by reaſon of Infancy:' be it therefore enacted, That in every Caſe where a Debt not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds ſhall be contracted for Neceſſaries by any Perſon under the Age of twenty-one Years, and reſiding or inhabiting, or employed as Clerk, Book Keeper, Journeyman, Shopman, or Labourer, or otherwiſe ſeeking a Livelihood within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, it ſhall be lawful for the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Debt ſhall be due to ſue for and recover ſuch Debt in the ſaid Court of Requeſts, in the ſame Manner as if the Perſon by whom the ſame ſhall be contracted were of full Age; and that in every Caſe where any Wages, not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds, ſhall be due to any menial or other Servant under the Age of twenty-one Years, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Servant to ſue for and recover ſuch Debt in the ſaid Court of Requeſts in the ſame Manner as if he or ſhe were of full Age; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three or more of them, are hereby fully authorized and required, in ſuch Caſes, to take Cognizance of and proceed concerning ſuch Debts in the ſame Manner, and ſhall have ſuch and the ſame Powers, in regard thereto, as if the Plaintiffs and Defendants were all of full Age.

Servants, though under Age, may recover Wages.

Attornies, &c. ſubject to the Proceſſes of the Court.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Privilege ſhall be allowed to exempt any Perſon from the Juriſdiction of the ſaid Court of Requeſts, on account of his being an Attorney or Solicitor, or any other Officer of any of the Courts of Law or Equity at Weſtminſter, or of any other Court whatſoever; but that all Attornies, Solicitors, and Officers ſhall be ſubject to the ſeveral Proceſſes, Orders, Judgments, and Executions of the ſaid Court of Requeſts, in the ſame Manner as any other Perſons are ſubject to the ſame by the ſaid recited Acts and this Act or any of them.

This Act not to extend to certain Debts.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not extend to any Debt where any Title of Freehold or Leaſe for Years of any Lands or Tenements ſhall come in queſtion, or to any Debt by Specialty, which ſhall not be for Payment of a Sum certain, nor to any other Debt that ſhall ariſe by reaſon of any Cauſe concerning Teſtament or Matrimony, or any Thing concerning or properly belonging to the Eccleſiaſtical Court, albeit the ſame reſpectively ſhall not exceed five Pounds; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Verdicts in any other Court for Debts recoverable in the Court of Requeſts not entitled to Coſts; but if Verdict be given for the Defendant, and the Judge ſhall certify that the Debt ought to have been ſued for in the Court of Requeſts, he ſhall have Double Coſts.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced in any other Court than the ſaid Court of Requeſts, for any Debt not exceeding the Sum of five Pounds, and recoverable by virtue of the ſaid recited Acts, and of this Act, or any of them, in the ſaid Court of Requeſts, then and in every ſuch Caſe the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch Action or Suit ſhall not, by reaſon of a Verdict for him, her, or them, or otherwiſe, have or be entitled to any Coſts whatſoever; and if the Verdict ſhall be given for the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action or Suit, and the Judge or Judges before whom the ſame ſhall be tried or heard, ſhall think fit to certify that ſuch Debt ought to have been recovered in the ſaid Court of Requeſts, then and ſo often ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Double Coſts, and ſhall have ſuch Remedy for recovering the ſame as any Defendant or Defendants may have for his, her, or their Coſts in any Caſes by Law.

Nothing herein to prevent Perſons from recovering Rents by Diſtreſs, &c.

XIII. Provided always, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to prevent or reſtrain any Perſon or Perſons from making Diſtreſs, or bringing any Action or Actions whatſoever for Rent, and thereby recovering ſuch Rent with Coſts, although the ſame Rent ſhould not exceed the Sum of five Pounds.

Statute of Limitations may be pleaded.

XIV. 'And, for removing all Doubts, whether the Statute of Limitations may be pleaded in the ſaid 'Court of Requeſts,' it is hereby further enacted and declared, That Defendants in that Court ſhall be allowed to plead or claim the Benefit of any Statute of Limitations now in being, or hereafter to be made; and every ſuch Defendant ſo pleading or claiming, ſhall have and receive ſuch and the like Advantage and Relief thereby as ſuch Defendant would have been entitled to in caſe this Act had not been made, and he or ſhe had been ſued for the ſame Debt, or other Cauſe of Action, in any of his Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, or any other Court, and had there pleaded ſuch Statute in Bar to the Action or Suit.

Time of Impriſonment of Debtors limited. [See § 16, 17.]

XV. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons whoſoever, being a Debtor or Debtors, Defendant or Defendants, and who ſhall be committed to any Gaol or Priſon by Order of the ſaid Court of Requeſts, ſhall be kept or continued in Cuſtody on any Pretence whatſoever (except in the Caſes hereinafter otherwiſe provided for) for any longer Space or Spaces of Time, from the Time of his, her, or their Commitment to Priſon, than is or are next herein-after limited in that Behalf; (that is to ſay,) where the Debt (excluſive of Coſts) does not exceed twenty Shillings, then he, ſhe, or they ſhall not be kept or continued in Cuſtody for more than twenty Days; and where the Debt (excluſive of Coſts) does not exceed the Sum of forty Shillings, then not more than forty Days; and where the Debt (excluſive of Coſts) does not exceed the Sum of three Pounds, then not more than ſixty Days; and where the Debt (excluſive of Coſts) does not exceed five Pounds, then not more than one hundred Days from the Time of ſuch his, her, or their Commitment; and all Gaolers and Keepers of Priſons are hereby directed and required to diſcharge ſuch Perſons accordingly.

The Time of Impriſonment ſhall extend ſeparately and ſucceſſively

XVI. 'And whereas, ſince the Limitation of the Time of Impriſonment for Small Debts, ſome idle and 'ill-diſpoſed Perſons have been in the Habit of contracting numerous Small Debts, and upon being proceeded 'againſt in the ſaid Court of Requeſts in reſpect thereof have ſuffered Judgment to paſs againſt them therein, 'and by ſecreting themſelves have avoided being taken into Cuſtody until many Executions have iſſued in the 'ſaid

'said Court against them, and then, by suffering a short Imprisonment, have exonerated themselves from all 'such Debts, and thereby defrauded their several Creditors;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all and every Person and Persons who shall be taken in Execution under or by virtue of any Process issuing from or out of the said Court of Requests, and who at the Time of being taken into Custody, or during his, her, or their Imprisonment shall have more than one Execution against him, her, or them, in the said Court, he, she, or they shall be imprisoned the limited Time for and in respect of each Execution; (that is to say,) after the limited Time is expired on the first Execution, the Imprisonment shall commence on the second Execution; and after the limited Time is expired on the second Execution the Imprisonment shall commence on the third Execution; and so on until he, she, or they shall have been imprisoned the limited Time for and in respect of each separate Execution to be issued against him, her, or them in the said Court, previous to his, her, or their being taken into Custody, or during his, her, or their Imprisonment; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding. to each Execution.

XVII. 'And whereas an Act of Parliament was passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his pre- 'sent Majesty, intituled, An Act for reducing the Time for Imprisonment of Debtors committed to Prison 'upon Prosecutions in Courts of Conscience in London, Middlesex, and the Borough of Southwark, to the same 'Periods in each Court, and for abolishing Fees paid by those Debtors to Gaolers and others on account of such 'Imprisonment:' Now be it hereby further enacted, That all and every the Directions, Powers, and Provisions contained in the same Act, concerning the Discharge of imprisoned Persons without Payment of Fees, the Hearing and Determination of Offences against the same last mentioned Act and the Application of Penalties and Forfeitures thereby inflicted, the Limitation of Time for exhibiting Complaints or Informations, and the issuing of Process, shall relate and extend to this present Act, and so far as the same are applicable to the Purpoles of this Act, shall be observed, exercised and performed respectively in such and the same Manner as if the same were herein expressly mentioned and repeated, and at large re-enacted. 25 Geo. 3. c. 45. Recited Act, as far as respects Discharge of imprisoned Persons without Payment of Fees, &c. extended to this Act.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, or on account of any Order, Determination, Judgment, or Decree of the said Commissioners, until fourteen Days' Notice shall be given thereof in Writing, to be left at the Office of the Clerks of the said Court, or after sufficient Satisfaction or Tender thereof hath been made to the Party or Parties aggrieved, or after three Calendar Months next after the Cause of Action shall arise, and the Defendant or Defendants in such Actions and Suits, and every of them, may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial or Trials which shall be had thereupon; and if the Plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or if a Verdict or Judgment shall be given for the Defendant or Defendants therein, then and in either of the said Cases, such Defendant or Defendants shall have Double Costs, and shall have such Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendant or Defendants may have for his, her, or their Costs in any Cases by Law. Limitation of Actions. General Issue. Double Costs.

XIX. Provided always, That the two first herein-before recited Acts of the third Year of King James the First, and the fourteenth Year of King George the Second, and all Powers, Provisoes, Clauses, Matters and Things therein respectively contained, shall, so far as the same are not hereby expressly repealed, or otherwise provided for, and are not inconsistent with any of the Provisions of this present Act, continue and be in full Force, and extend to all and every Person and Persons to whom this Act doth or shall extend. Recited Acts of 3 Jac. 1. and 14 Geo. 2. except where hereby repealed, extended to this Act.

An Act for the Appointment and Regulation of Pilots and Hoblers for the conducting of Ships and Veſſels into and out of the Port or Harbour and River of Neath, in the County of Glamorgan; for placing Buoys upon the Bar of Neath, and the Removal of Obſtructions in the ſaid Port or Harbour and River; for regulating the Mooring of Ships and Veſſels therein; and for the Regulation of Porters within the ſaid Port or Harbour and River, and within the Town of Neath. [9th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS the Port or Harbour and River of Neath, in the County of Glamorgan, by the Means 'of the opening and working of ſeveral extenſive Collieries, and the erecting of ſeveral large Copper 'Works, Smelting Houſes, Iron Furnaces, Founderies, and Forges, Tin Plate Mills, Chemical Works, 'and various other Manufactories in its Vicinity, is become a Place of very conſiderable Trade, and a 'great Nurſery for Seamen: And whereas it would be uſeful and advantageous to the Trade and Com-'merce of the Town of Neath, in the ſaid County of Glamorgan, and the Inhabitants thereof, and would 'greatly tend to the Safety of Ships and Veſſels ſailing or trading from and to the ſaid Port or Harbour 'and River of Neath, and be of general Benefit to his Majeſty's Subjects reſorting with their Ships or 'Veſſels thereto, if effectual Powers were given for appointing and regulating of Pilots and Hoblers for con-'ducting ſuch Ships or Veſſels between the ſaid Port or Harbour and River, and the Sea, and for a ſmall 'Diſtance out at Sea; and for the Management of the Buoys upon the Bar of Neath, and removing Ob-'ſtructions in the ſaid Port or Harbour and River; and for appointing and regulating of Porters within the 'ſaid Port or Harbour and Town; and for preventing Perſons not ſo appointed from acting as Pilots or 'Hoblers of any ſuch Ships or Veſſels, or Porters, within the ſaid Port or Harbour and Town:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners appointed in and by virtue of this Act, and they are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time, by Writing under their Hands, to licenſe and appoint ſuch Perſons as they ſhall, upon Examination touching their Skill and Abilities, approve and think properly qualified for that Purpoſe, to be Pilots, Hoblers, and Helpers of Ships and Veſſels, for the conducting of Ships and Veſſels into and out of the Port or Harbour and River of Neath aforeſaid, and upon any Part thereof, and for a Small Diſtance out at Sea, within or without the Bay of Neath aforeſaid; and the Perſons ſo licenſed ſhall, for the Purpoſes of this Act, be called River Pilots and River Hoblers; and ſhall alſo appoint ſuch Perſons as they ſhall think proper to be Porters within the ſaid Port or Harbour and River of Neath; and if any Perſon, without having ſuch Licence to act as a River Pilot as aforeſaid, ſhall, after the Expiration of one Calendar Month from the paſſing of this Act, take upon himſelf to conduct or pilot any Ship or Veſſel into or out of the ſaid Port or Harbour and River, or within the ſame, or in or without the ſaid Bay; or if any Perſon, without having ſuch Licence to act as a River Hobler as aforeſaid, ſhall, after the Expiration of the ſaid one Calendar Month from the paſſing of this Act, take upon himſelf to aſſiſt or help any Ship or Veſſel into or out of the ſaid Port or Harbour and River, or within the ſame, or in or without the ſaid Bay; or if any Perſon, without having ſuch Licence to act as a Porter as aforeſaid, ſhall, after the Expiration of the ſaid one Calendar Month from the paſſing of this Act, take upon himſelf to land or carry any Goods or Merchandize from or to any Ship or Veſſel lying within the ſaid Port or Harbour and River, every ſuch Perſon ſhall reſpectively forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, any Sum not exceeding five Pounds.

Commiſſioners empowered to licenſe Pilots, &c.

Penalty on acting without Licence not exceeding 5*l.*

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to oblige the Maſter or other Perſon having the Command of any Ship or Veſſel outward-bound, after ſhe has been piloted out of the ſaid Port or Harbour and River over the ſaid Bar, to employ or make uſe of any Pilot or Hobler to conduct ſuch Ship or Veſſel to croſs or paſs further out at Sea, nor to oblige the Maſter or other Perſon having the Command of any Ship or Veſſel in the Limeſtone Trade or other Coaſting Trade, inward-bound or outward-bound, whether laden or unladen, ſo that any ſuch Ship or Veſſel in the Limeſtone Trade do not exceed the Burthen or Tonnage of thirty Tons, and in the Coaſting Trade do not exceed the Burthen or Tonnage of twenty Tons, by Admeaſurement, to be aſcertained by the Cuſtom Houſe Regiſter thereof, to employ or make uſe of any Pilot or Hobler: Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to prevent or hinder any Owner, Part Owner, Maſter, or Mate of, or any Perſon belonging to any Ship or Veſſel inward-bound, notwithſtanding ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall exceed the Burthen or Tonnage of thirty Tons, from conducting or piloting the Ship or Veſſel to which he ſhall belong, into and up the ſaid Port or Harbour and River of Neath, in caſe none of the ſaid River Pilots ſhall be ready and offer to conduct and pilot the ſame; nor to prevent or hinder any Perſon or Perſons from aſſiſting any Ship or Veſſel in Diſtreſs.

Maſters of Veſſels out at Sea, Veſſels in the Limeſtone Trade or Coaſting Trade, not exceeding 30 Tons, may pilot their own Veſſels.

" Pilots, &c. ſubjected to the Rules of the Act, and Bye Laws to be made by the Commiſſioners. § 3. " Commiſſioners may ſuſpend Pilots, &c. § 4. Commiſſioners named. § 5. Their Qualifications, &c. " § 6—11. Pilots, &c. to aſſiſt King's Ships in Preference to others. Puniſhment on Pilots neglecting " their Duty from 5*l.* to 10*s.* on Hoblers from 40*s.* to 5*s.* and Diſmiſſal: Penalty not exceeding 5*l.* on Per-" ſons acting after Diſmiſſal. § 12."

Commiſſion to ſettle the Rates, but not in Excluſion.

XIII. 'And, for aſcertaining the Rates to be paid to the ſaid River Pilots, and River Hoblers, for the 'conducting or piloting, helping or aſſiſting, any Ships or Veſſels as aforeſaid, and alſo the Rates to be paid '' to

' to the ſaid Porters for the Porterage of any Goods or Merchandize to or from any Ships or Veſſels as afore-
' ſaid,' be it further enacted, That no greater Rates ſhall be demanded or taken by any ſuch River Pilots, River Hoblers, or Porters, than what ſhall be from Time to Time aſcertained, fixed, and ſettled by the ſaid Commiſſioners at any of their Meetings; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, at any of their Meetings, to aſcertain, fix, and ſettle the proper Rates for the ſame; notwithſtanding which all Perſons ſhall be at Liberty to employ their Servants, Workmen, Horſes, and Carriages in the Carriage of their Goods and Merchandize to and from any Ship or Veſſel in the ſaid Harbour, at their own proper Riſk and Coſts.

" Commiſſioners may vary and proportion the Rates of Pilotage. § 14. Rewards for Pilots, &c. aſſiſting " Ships in Diſtreſs, to be ſettled by Commiſſioners. Additional Pilotage for piloting extra Diſtance.
" § 15. (See § 20. of c. x. of this Seſſion.)"

Maſters of Inward or outward bound Ships refuſing Pilots, ſhall pay the Pilotage.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the Maſter or Commander of any Ship or Veſſel which ſhall be outward-bound, and about to proceed out of the ſaid Port or Harbour and River of Neath, or which ſhall be inward-bound, ſhall refuſe to take on board and employ one of the ſaid River Pilots who ſhall offer his Service, (except ſuch Ships or Veſſels as are employed in the Limeſtone Trade or other Coaſting Trade not exceeding the Burthen or Tonnage of thirty Tons by Admeaſurement as aforeſaid, with reſpect to Limeſtone and Manure, and not exceeding the Burthen or Tonnage of twenty Tons, with reſpect to any other Trade,) ſuch Maſter or Commander ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid to the River Pilot who firſt or who only ſhall offer his Service as aforeſaid, and ſhall be ſo refuſed, the full Pilotage which ſuch Maſter or Commander would have been ſubject or liable to pay by virtue of this Act, if the ſaid Pilot had been received and employed in conducting or piloting ſuch Ship or Veſſel into or out of the ſaid Port or Harbour and River of Neath, together with the Expences to be incurred in the Recovery of the ſame.

" Pilots leading the Way in any Veſſel to be entitled to Half Pilotage. § 17. Ships forced back after part" ing with Pilots, and piloted out again, to pay not exceeding one Half of the Rates. § 18. (See § 23. of
" c. x.)"

Outward-bound Ships to be piloted to a Diſtance to be ſettled by Commiſſioners.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch River Pilot as aforeſaid, who ſhall take upon himſelf the Charge of any Ship or Veſſel about to ſail out of the ſaid Port or Harbour and River of Neath, ſhall and is hereby required to take Charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel at her Moorings in the Dock, or by the Quay, Wharf, or other Place within the ſaid Port or Harbour and River, and to conduct or pilot ſuch Ship or Veſſel about to ſail out of the ſaid Port or Harbour and River, ſo far out to Sea as ſhall be directed by the ſaid Commiſſioners in their Orders; and if any ſuch River Pilot or Hobler, after he is engaged to ſerve, ſhall preſume to quit any Ship or Veſſel without the Conſent of the Maſter or Commander of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, until ſhe ſhall have cleared the ſaid Bar of Neath, ſuch Pilot and Hobler ſhall forfeit the Pilotage and Hobling which, on their duly performing their Duty, they would have been entitled unto; and on being lawfully convicted of ſo quitting any Ship or Veſſel, every ſuch Offender ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds and not leſs than five Pounds.

Places to which inward bound Ships are to be piloted.

XX. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch River Pilot and Hobler as aforeſaid, who ſhall pilot, or conduct and aſſiſt any ſuch Ship or Veſſel into the ſaid Port or Harbour and River of Neath, ſhall and is hereby required to take the ſame as high in the River of the ſaid Port or Harbour as Neath Bridge, if the ſaid Maſter or Commander ſhall require, or to ſuch other Place of Delivery below the ſaid Bridge, within the ſaid Port or Harbour, as the Maſter of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall require; but if the Tide will not allow thereof, then to moor her in a proper Situation in the ſaid Port or Harbour, without being paid any other Rate than ſuch as ſhall be fixed and ſettled upon by the ſaid Commiſſioners to be paid for piloting and aſſiſting ſuch Ship or Veſſel into the ſaid Port or Harbour and River; and in caſe the Attendance of any ſuch Pilot or Hobler ſhall be required to take Care of ſuch Ship or Veſſel from ſuch firſt Mooring, and to conduct her to her Place of Delivery, the Pilot and Hobler that ſhall have brought and aſſiſted the ſaid Ship or Veſſel to ſuch Mooring, or ſome other of the ſaid River Pilots and Hoblers, to be by the ſaid Pilot or the ſaid Maſter procured, ſhall attend and ſhall be paid for unmooring, tranſporting, and removing ſuch Ship or Veſſel at her delivering Birth within the ſaid Port or Harbour and River, according to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, by a Rate to be fixed by them for that Purpoſe.

Maſters forcibly taking away Pilots to pay them Mate's Wages, and Hoblers Foremaſt Men's Wages.

XXIII. ' And whereas it may happen that ſome of the ſaid River Pilots and Hoblers may be unavoidably,
' through Streſs of Weather or forcibly, carried to Sea beyond the Limits for Pilotage to be preſcribed by the
' ſaid Commiſſioners,' be it therefore enacted, That the Maſter or Commander of any Ship or Veſſel on board of which any ſuch Pilot or Hobler ſhall be forcibly or through Streſs of Weather unavoidably carried to Sea beyond ſuch Limits, ſhall pay to ſuch River Pilot, for the Time he ſhall be detained on board after paſſing the ſaid Limits, the ſame Wages as ſhall be payable by the ſaid Maſter or Commander to the Mate of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and to every ſuch Hobler the ſame Wages as ſhall be payable to the Foremaſt Men of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, over and above the Rate of Pilotage and Hobling which they ſhall be entitled unto as Pilot of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or aſſiſting the ſame; and in caſe of any ſuch Pilot or Hobler being forcibly carried to Sea beyond the Limits, otherwiſe than through Streſs of Weather, or for ſome other ſufficient Reaſon to be judged of by the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſuch Maſter or Commander ſhall alſo forfeit and pay any Sum, not exceeding ten Pounds.

XXVII. And

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be paid to the said Commissioners or to such Person as they shall appoint to receive the same, by the Master or Commander of every Ship or Vessel which is by this Act made subject to and chargeable with the said Rates of Pilotage, (not being a Ship or Vessel in the Limestone Trade or carrying Manure only, of the Burthen of thirty Tons by Admeasurement,) and which shall enter the said Port, Harbour or River of Neath, the Duty of one Halfpenny per Ton, of every such Ship or Vessel respectively, according to the Admeasurement thereof, to be ascertained as aforesaid; and by the Consignee or Receiver of the Cargo of every Ship or Vessel laden with Limestone or Manure only, exceeding the Burthen of thirty Tons by Admeasurement, to be ascertained as aforesaid, and by the Master or Commander of every Ship or Vessel in the Coasting Trade, not exceeding the Burthen of twenty Tons by Admeasurement, to be ascertained as aforesaid, and not laden with Limestone or Manure, the Duty of one Farthing only per Ton of every such Ship or Vessel respectively; and no Ship or Vessel which is by this Act made subject to and chargeable with the said Rates of Pilotage, shall be permitted to clear at the Custom House at Neath aforesaid, until the said Duty shall have been paid, and a Certificate thereof, under the Hand of the Clerk or such other Person as the said Commissioners shall appoint as Receiver thereof, or a Receipt for the same shall be produced and left in the Custom House, and which shall be then filed, and which File shall be delivered to the said Commissioners, and the said Officers and others interested therein, as often as they shall require, and in Default thereof, a Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds shall be forfeited and paid by the Officer or Officers of the Customs clearing such Ship or Vessel without the aforesaid Proof of Payment, and to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Great Sessions for the County of Glamorgan, or in any other Court of Record within the same, in which no Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed, and in the Trial whereof any Inhabitant of the said Town of Neath (not otherwise disqualified or disabled by Law) shall be admitted to give Evidence, and be deemed a competent Witness, which Penalty shall be applied for the Purposes of this Act; and in case any Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel in the Coasting Trade, not exceeding twenty Tons, or the Consignee or Receiver of the Cargo of any Ship or Vessel carrying Limestone or Manure exceeding the Burthen of thirty Tons as aforesaid, shall not pay such Duty of one Farthing per Ton, within three Days after Demand thereof, the same shall or may be levied and recovered in like Manner, and by the like Ways and Means as the said Rates of Pilotage, Hobling, and Porterage, are by this Act authorized or directed to be levied and recovered.

Duty on Shipping for the Purposes of this Act.

XXXV. Provided always and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the taking away, abridging, or defeating, impeaching or interrupting any of the Jurisdictions, Powers, Authorities, or Immunities, granted, given, and allowed by any Act of Parliament, Grant, or Charter, to the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Guild, Fraternity, or Brotherhood of the Most Glorious and Undivided Trinity, and of Saint Clement, in the Parish of Deptford Strond, in the County of Kent.

An Act for draining, embanking, and preſerving divers Tracts of Land within the Townſhip of Muſton, in the Pariſh of Hunmanby, and alſo within ſundry other Pariſhes, Townſhips, or Places adjoining or near to the Rivers Derwent and Harford, in the Eaſt and North Ridings of the County of York. [28th July 1800.]

'WHEREAS there are within the Townſhip of Muſton, in the Pariſh of Hunmanby, and within the ſeveral Pariſhes, Townſhips, or Places of Eaſt Flotmanby, Weſt Flotmanby, Folkton, Flixton, Staxton Willerby, Binnington, Ganton, Potter Brompton, Sherburn, Eaſt Heſlerton, Weſt Heſlerton, and Yeddingham, in the Eaſt Riding of the County of York, and alſo within the ſeveral Pariſhes, Townſhips, or Places of Ebberſton, Yeddingham-Abbey, Snainton, Brompton, Ruſton, Wykeham, Eaſt Ayton, Irton, Seamer, Cayton, Lebberſton, and Griſthorpe, in the North Riding of the ſame County, and in ſuch Part of the Townſhip of Seamer aforeſaid, as lies within the ſaid Eaſt Riding, divers Tracts of Land, computed to contain in the Whole ſix thouſand Acres and upwards, through which the Rivers Derwent and Harford, and alſo ſundry Brooks, have their ſeparate and conjoint Courſes, the Channels and Beds of which ſaid Rivers and Brooks are, for Want of proper Fall, very inſufficient to contain and convey the Flood Waters thereof within the preſent Limits, and ſuch Flood Waters being alſo greatly impeded in their Paſſage by the many bending Directions in which the ſaid Rivers and Brooks take their Courſes, the ſaid Lands are thereby ſubject to be greatly overflowed and otherwiſe injured, by reaſon whereof the ſame are, in the preſent State of the ſaid Rivers and Brooks, incapable of any conſiderable Improvement, or of being put into a State of Cultivation; and although the ſaid Lands are capable of being effectually drained and preſerved, to the great Advantage of the reſpective Owners and Proprietors thereof, and Benefit of the Publick, and may be made fit and convenient for the Purpoſes of Huſbandry, yet the ſame cannot be accompliſhed without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted, &c.

"Directors and Commiſſioners appointed. § 1. &c. Surveyors appointed to ſurvey and make three Maps or Plans of all the Lands liable to be aſſeſſed under this Act, which ſhall be verified on Oath before a Juſtice. § 11. The Commiſſioners required to value the Lands in their preſent State and inſert ſuch Valuation on the Plans. § 12."

XXXIX. And

Empowering the Directors to drain the Lands, and make Works of Drainage.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Directors ſhall be, and they are hereby fully empowered from Time to Time to drain or cauſe to be drained all the ſaid Lands ſituate within the ſeveral and reſpective Pariſhes, Townſhips, or Places aforeſaid, and for that Purpoſe it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Directors and their Agents, and all other Perſons to be by them employed, and they are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time, and at all Times hereafter, to make, ſupport, alter, and maintain, all ſuch Cuts, Drains, Dams, Banks, Tunnels, Headings, Stamps, Outlets, Engines, Bridges, and other Works, in, upon, through, and over the ſaid Lands, or any Part thereof, and alſo to uſe, alter, embank, deepen, and widen, the preſent Courſes or Beds of the ſaid Rivers Derwent and Harford, or either of them, within any of the ſaid Lands; and alſo the preſent Courſes or Beds of the ſeveral Brooks within any of the ſaid Lands communicating therewith reſpectively; and alſo to make and cut, or cauſe to be made and cut, a main Drain or Channel from and out of the ſaid River Derwent, near a Place called Everley, within the Manor and Pariſh of Hackneſs, in the ſaid North Riding, commencing the ſame in a certain Parcel of Ground belonging to and in the Occupation of Sir Richard Bempde Johnſtone Baronet, called The Low Field, where the ſame adjoins on the Lands of John Taylor, Gentleman, and extending from thence Eaſtwards through or acroſs the ſame Parcel of Ground; and alſo through other Lands of the ſaid Sir Richard Bempde Johnſtone to the Commencement of the Drain or Ditch forming the Boundary or Diviſion Fence between the Manor of Hackneſs aforeſaid, and the Manor and Pariſh of Seamer aforeſaid, and from thence along or ſo immediately adjoining upon the ſame Drain or Ditch, as to render ſome Part of the ſaid Main Drain or Channel, or the Embankment thereof, the Diviſion or Boundary Line between the ſaid reſpective Manors to a Place called King's Bridge, and from thence (there leaving the Manor of Hackneſs) through Lands of Joſeph Denniſon Eſquire, within his Manor of Seamer aforeſaid, and from thence along the Ditch or Brook leading on the North Side of Lands within the Manor and Pariſh of Scalby, in the ſaid North Riding, belonging to the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, in Right of his Duchy of Lancaſter, (of which Lands Sir Alan Chambre Knight, one of the Juſtices of his Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas, and Francis Dawſon Eſquire, are the preſent Leſſees,) to and into the Rivulet or Brook called Scalby Beck, where the Road leading from Hackneſs aforeſaid to the Borough of Scarborough croſſes the ſame Rivulet or Brook, and from thence along or ſo immediately adjoining upon the ſame Rivulet or Brook, as to render ſome Part of the ſaid Main Drain or Channel, or the Embankment or Fences thereof, the Diviſion or Boundary Line between the Lands on each Side of the ſaid Rivulet or Brook down into the Sea, for the conveying of all the Flood and other Surplus Water of the ſaid River Derwent, or ſuch Part thereof as may be expedient, into, by, and through ſuch Main Drain or Channel to the preſent Outfall of the ſaid Rivulet or Brook, to the Sea; ſo as none of the preſent publick or private Drains, or any of them, be anyways impeded or obſtructed by any of ſuch Cuts, Drains, or other Works as aforeſaid, and ſo as the Waters of ſuch publick and private Drains have free Paſſage into the preſent or the new-made Channels or Beds of the ſaid Rivers, or either of them; or into the preſent or the new-made Channels or Beds of the Brooks or Drains, or ſome or one of them, leading into the ſame reſpectively; and to make, erect, remove, alter, repair, and maintain all ſuch Drains, Outlets, Engines, and other Works of Drainage, and to erect ſuch Buildings and Erections for the Habitation of any Perſon or Perſons to be appointed for ſuperintending the ſaid Works of Drainage, and for depoſiting Stores or Materials belonging thereto, as the ſaid Directors ſhall from Time to Time think neceſſary for draining and preſerving the ſaid Lands, and alſo to make ſuch Orders for executing the Powers and Purpoſes of this Act as they ſhall think proper (all which ſaid Works, and all other Banks, Engines, Drains, Sluices, Bridges, and Works of Drainage now made, erected, and being, or which ſhall hereafter, by virtue of this Act, be made, erected, or cut for the Purpoſe of draining the ſaid Lands, or any Part thereof, and the Right and Property to and in the ſame, and the Materials of which the ſame do or ſhall conſiſt, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby veſted in the ſaid Directors for the Purpoſes of this Act): and the ſaid Directors are hereby authorized and empowered to bring or cauſe to be brought any Action or Actions of Treſpaſs, or in Ejectment or otherwiſe, in their own Names, or in the Name of any one of them, or to prefer, and order, and direct the preferring of Indictments, or any other Proſecution or Suit againſt any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall dig up, break, pull down, ſteal, take, carry away, deſtroy, ſpoil, or injure any of ſuch Works of Drainage, or any of the Materials of which the ſame do or ſhall conſiſt, or who being in Poſſeſſion thereof, or of any Part thereof reſpectively, ſhall refuſe or neglect for one Calendar Month after Notice in Writing, to deliver the Poſſeſſion thereof to the ſaid Directors.

For referring to Arbitration any Diſpute which may happen reſpecting Purchaſe Money for, or Damage to his Majeſty's Lands.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in all Caſes where any Matter of Difference ſhall happen to ariſe between his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſees, in reſpect of Lands belonging to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, within the ſaid Manor of Scalby, and the ſaid Directors, touching any Recompence or Satisfaction to be made for the Purchaſe of any Lands as aforeſaid, which ſhall be required to be taken and uſed within the ſame Manor, or for any Damages which may at any Time happen or be occaſioned to any of the Lands of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, for or by reaſon of the making and continuing of the ſaid Main Drain or Channel through the ſame, and that the Compenſation or Satisfaction for ſuch Ground ſo to be taken or uſed, or for any ſuch Damages, cannot be ſettled and adjuſted between the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, and the ſaid Directors, and that the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, ſhall chooſe to have ſuch Compenſation and Satisfaction ſettled by Arbitrators rather than by a Jury*, and ſhall give the ſaid Directors Notice in Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, or under the Hand or Hands of his or their Officers, Agents, or Steward, Receiver or Receivers, requiring the ſaid Directors to name and appoint an Arbitrator on their Parts for the ſettling and adjuſting of any ſuch Compenſation and Satisfaction as aforeſaid, all ſuch Differences ſhall be ſettled by Arbitration, and not by a Jury as herein-before mentioned; and that in ſuch Caſe John Crowder of Brotherton, in the ſaid County of York,

*[as directed by § 28 of the Act.]

York, Gentleman, the Surveyor General of Lands for the North Parts of the ſaid Duchy, or ſuch Surveyor General for the Time being, ſhall be and act as the Arbitrator on the Part and Behalf of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, and his or their Leſſee or Leſſees of the Lands to be ſo taken, uſed, or damaged, with ſuch other Perſon as the ſaid Directors ſhall appoint as an Arbitrator on their Parts; and that the ſaid Arbitrators ſhall, before they proceed to a hearing of any ſuch Difference or Differences, and within fourteen Days after ſuch Nomination, by and on the Part of the ſaid Directors as aforeſaid, nominate and appoint one other ſkilful and indifferent Perſon (not intereſted as aforeſaid) as and for an Umpire or Aſſiſtant therein; and the ſaid Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any Two of them, ſhall, by Examination of Witneſſes upon Oath, (which Oath ſuch Arbitrators, or either of them, are hereby authorized to adminiſter,) or by ſuch other Ways and Means as they ſhall think expedient, ſettle and finally determine ſuch Difference or Differences, and the Determination of the ſaid Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any Two of them, ſhall be binding and concluſive to and upon all Parties intereſted in the Premiſes; and in caſe the ſaid Directors ſhall refuſe or neglect to name and appoint an Arbitrator on their Parts by the Space of twenty Days next after ſuch Notice in Writing ſhall have been ſo given and delivered to them, or to their Clerk, for that Purpoſe as aforeſaid, then it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Surveyor General for the Time being, acting as ſuch Arbitrator as aforeſaid, to proceed ex parte in the Manner herein-before mentioned, and to hear, ſettle, and finally determine the Matter or Matters in Difference as aforeſaid, which Determination of the ſaid Surveyor General, acting as ſuch Arbitrator as aforeſaid, ſhall be binding and concluſive upon all the Parties intereſted, as effectually as if ſuch Determination had been made by Two Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any Two of them, nominated and appointed as aforeſaid; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

To enable the Arbitrators to provide againſt future Damage.

XL. 'And, in order to provide for any Damage which may hereafter ariſe as to the Lands belonging to 'his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, adjoining or near to the ſaid Main 'Drain or Channel, and the Embankment thereof, intended to be made from Everley aforeſaid to the Sea, 'by reaſon of the Water of the ſaid River Derwent, or any adjoining Brook or Rivulet being diverted into 'that Courſe, in caſe the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, and the 'ſaid Directors, cannot agree as to the Recompence and Means for providing againſt ſuch future Damage:' Be it further enacted, That the ſaid Arbitrators or their Succeſſors to be appointed as herein mentioned, and Umpire or Aſſiſtant, ſhall, and they are hereby required, at the Signification or Requeſt of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Officer or Officers, or Leſſee or Leſſees, or his, her, or their Steward or Stewards, Receiver or Receivers as aforeſaid, of the ſaid Lands and Grounds which may be damaged by reaſon of the Water of the ſaid River or Brook or Rivulet being ſo diverted as aforeſaid, or by any other Injury that may be ſuſtained on account of the ſaid Cut or Embankment to be made as aforeſaid, to appoint a Meeting or Meetings from Time to Time to aſcertain and provide for ſuch Damage as aforeſaid, giving fourteen Days' Notice of ſuch Meetings reſpectively to the ſaid Directors, or their Clerk or Surveyor for the Time being, and to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, at which Meeting or Meetings the ſaid Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant or any Two of them, are hereby authoriſed and empowered to take ſuch Damage into Conſideration, and for that Purpoſe to examine Witneſſes on Oath (if neceſſary), which Oath they or any one of them is or are hereby empowered to adminiſter, touching ſuch Damage; and the ſaid Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any two of them, are hereby authorized and required, by Writing or Writings under their Hands, to determine and aſcertain the Amount of ſuch Damage, and either to adjudge a Sum of Money in Groſs as a Satisfaction for the ſame to the Party or Parties injured thereby, or to order and adjudge a yearly Sum of Money to be paid by way of Rent, as a Recompence in lieu thereof, to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees of ſuch Lands, if the ſaid Damage ſhall appear to the ſaid Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any two of them to be of a continuing Nature, and to require a yearly Recompence, which Sum or Sums of Money ſo to be awarded by the ſaid Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any two of them, ſhall be paid by the ſaid Directors out of the Aſſeſſments and Taxes to be raiſed under the Authority of this Act; and if it ſhould appear to the ſaid Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any two of them, at any ſuch Meeting to be held by them for enquiring into ſuch future Damage as aforeſaid, that any other Embankments, Drains, or Works than thoſe erected and made, or cauſed to be erected or made by the ſaid Directors under the Authority of this Act, are neceſſary or proper for the better ſecuring the ſaid Lands from future Damage by reaſon of the ſaid Diverſion of the River Derwent, or any other Brook or Rivulet adjoining thereto, then and in ſuch Caſe, and ſo often as the ſame may happen, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any two of them, to ſpecify in Writing ſuch Embankments, Drains, and other Works, which the ſaid Directors are hereby required to make and effect, or cauſe to be made and effected, ſo ſoon as the ſame can reaſonably be made and effected, and to pay for the ſame out of the Aſſeſſments and Taxes to be raiſed under the Authority of this Act; and the ſaid Directors ſhall have the like Powers and Authorities to make and effect ſuch Embankments, Drains, or other Works ſo ſpecified by the ſaid Arbitrators and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any two of them, as are by this Act given to them in reſpect of the ſaid Main Drain or Channel, and the Embankments thereof betwen Everley aforeſaid and the Sea.

Directing two Parts of every Award between his Majeſty and the Directors to be made, and one Part depoſited in the Duchy Office.

XLI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That two Parts of every Award between the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, and the ſaid Directors ſhall be made; and that one Part of every ſuch Award ſhall be depoſited and inrolled in the Office of the Clerk of the Council of his Majeſty's ſaid Duchy; and all ſuch Awards, or true Copies thereof reſpectively, ſigned by the ſaid Arbitrators, or by the ſaid Clerk of the Council, or his Deputy, ſhall be deemed, and taken as good Evidence in all Courts of Law or Equity.

Giving Power of Diſtreſs for Sums awarded for Damage done to the King's Lands.

XLII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be awarded by the ſaid Arbitrators, to be paid by the ſaid Directors out of the Monies to be raiſed under the Authority of this Act to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, and if the ſaid Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, ſhall be behind and unpaid by the Space of twenty Days next after any of the Days appointed by the ſaid Arbitrators, and Umpire, or Aſſiſtant, or any two of them, for the Payment thereof, then and in every ſuch Caſe, and ſo often as it ſhall ſo happen, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, to whom ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be due and unpaid, to enter into and diſtrain upon any Part of the Lands ſo as aforeſaid to be ſpecified in the ſaid three Maps or Plans, as Lands to be drained by virtue of this Act, all which ſaid Lands are hereby made chargeable with and liable to the Payment of all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, and the Diſtreſs and Diſtreſſes then and there found, to diſpoſe of according to Law, as in caſe of Rents reſerved upon common Demiſes or Leaſes for Years, to the Intent that thereby or therewith all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, and all Coſts, Charges, and Expences occaſioned by the Non-payment thereof reſpectively, at the Time or Times aforeſaid, may be fully paid and ſatisfied: Provided nevertheleſs, That all Monies ſo to be diſtrained ſhall be repaid by the ſaid Directors, out of the Monies to be raiſed under the Authority of this Act, to the Perſon or Perſons whoſe Goods and Chattels ſhall have been ſo diſtrained as aforeſaid: Provided alſo, That in Caſe any Diſtreſs or Diſtreſſes taken under the Authority of this Act ſhall, at any Time be replevied, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Party diſtraining, to avow generally that he took or made ſuch Diſtreſs for a Rent due under and by virtue of this Act, without ſpecially making Title thereto; and if Judgment ſhall paſs or be given againſt the Plaintiff, or for the Defendant in ſuch Replevin, then the ſaid Defendant ſhall recover his or her Double Coſts in ſuch Suit againſt the Plaintiff.

For chooſing other Arbitrators in the Room of thoſe dying; or declining to act, &c.

XLIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That in caſe of, and ſo often as it ſhall happen that any or either of the ſaid Arbitrators, ſo named or appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall die, decline, or refuſe to act, or become incapable of acting in the Execution of the Powers and Authorities hereby given or to be given, or committed to them as aforeſaid, then and ſo often as the Caſe ſhall happen it ſhall and may be lawful for the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, and alſo for the ſaid Directors who had ſo nominated or appointed the Arbitrator ſo dying, declining, or refuſing, to act, or becoming incapable of acting in the Premiſes as aforeſaid, to nominate and appoint another Arbitrator to act in the Premiſes, in the Room and Place of the Arbitrator ſo dying, declining, or refuſing or becoming incapable to act in the Premiſes as aforeſaid, which Perſon or Perſons ſo nominated or appointed as laſt aforeſaid, ſhall have all and ſingular the like Powers and Authorities in the Premiſes ſo to be referred as aforeſaid, as the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Room or Place he or they ſhall be ſo nominated and appointed as aforeſaid, would otherwiſe have had.

For inveſting Money in the Funds, to be awarded for permanent or continuing Injury to the King's Lands.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That when any Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be found or adjudged due to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, for the Purchaſe of any Lands or Tenements, or as a Recompence or Satisfaction for any Injury which may happen to ariſe to any Lands or Tenements belonging to the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, by reaſon of the Execution of the Powers of this Act, except for ſuch Damages as ſhall be ſuſtained by the Tenant or Occupier by any Injury done to his Crops, diſtinct from any permanent or continuing Injury done to the Eſtate, then and ſo often ſuch Sum and Sums of Money ſhall be laid out and Inveſted in the Three per Centum Conſolidated Bank or Reduced Annuities, in the Name of the Receiver General of the Duchy of Lancaſter for the Time being, for the Uſe of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the Dividends and Produce thereof ſhall be paid to the Leſſee or Leſſees of ſuch Lands or Tenements ſo taken, uſed, or damaged, during their reſpective Intereſts therein, and after the Expiration or other Termination of their ſaid Intereſt, to the only proper Uſe or Behoof of the King's Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, in ſuch Way as ſhall be directed by any Order of the Chancellor and Council of the ſaid Duchy for the Time being.

" When the Drainage is completed the Lands ſhall be again valued (ſee ante, § 11, 12.) by the Commiſ-
" ſioners; and ſuch ſecond Valuation alſo inſerted on the Plans. § 64. On ſuch ſecond Valuation the Commiſ-
" ſioners ſhall, by an Inſtrument in Writing, aſſeſs all the Lands in Proportion to their improved Value;
" three Parts of ſuch Inſtrument ſhall be ingroſſed and ſigned by the Commiſſioners, and each Part ſhall have " one of the ſaid Maps annexed to it. Two Parts of ſuch Inſtrument ſhall be lodged in the Records of the " Quarter Seſſions for the Eaſt and North Ridings, and the third Part be kept by the Directors as a Prece" dent for future Taxations. § 65."

The Valuation and Taxation of each Pariſh ſigned by the Commiſſioners, ſhall be lodged in the reſpective Veſtry Rooms, for the Inſpection of Parties intereſted.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That for the greater Convenience of the Proprietors of the Lands to be drained by virtue of this Act, ſo much of the ſaid Inſtrument, and of the Map or Plan annexed thereto, as ſhall relate to each of the ſeparate and diſtinct Pariſhes, Townſhips, or Places mentioned in this Act, ſhall be copied upon Parchment, and be ſigned by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and be ſeverally lodged in the reſpective Veſtry Rooms of the ſaid ſeveral Pariſhes reſpectively, which ſaid ſeveral Copies under the Hands of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, ſo far as ſhall relate to each ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place reſpectively, be allowed as Evidence in all Courts of Law and Equity, and the reſpective Churchwardens of the ſaid reſpective Pariſhes ſhall permit and ſuffer any Perſon whomſoever, from Time to Time and at all reaſonable Times, to peruſe and inſpect ſuch Copy, ſuch Perſon paying for every ſuch Peruſal Sixpence, and no more.

A Copy of the Plan, and certain Extracts relative to his Majeſty's Lands ſhall be depoſited in the Duchy Office.

LXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That a true Copy of the Map or Plan ſhall be made and verified as herein-before directed, and ſhall be then depoſited in the Office of the Clerk of the Council of the ſaid Duchy of Lancaſter, ſigned by the ſaid Directors, within Fourteen Days after the Verification of ſuch Map or Plan; and that Duplicates of ſuch Parts of the ſeveral Extracts of the Inſtruments herein-before directed, ſo far as relates to the Lands of the King's Majeſty, within the ſeveral Pariſhes of Ebberſton, Brompton, and Snainton, which are herein-before directed to be lodged in the Veſtry Rooms of the ſame ſeveral Pariſhes, ſhall alſo be depoſited in the Office of the ſaid Clerk of the Council of the ſaid Duchy.

LXXII. And

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall at any Time or Times hereafter wilfully and maliciouſly cut, throw down, burn, or otherwiſe damage or deſtroy any Bank, Mill, Engine, Floodgate, Clough, or Sluice, or other Work or Works erected or made, or to be erected or made, or which ſhall at any Time hereafter be making or erecting for the draining, preſerving, ſecuring, or improving the ſaid Lands, or any Part thereof, and ſhall thereof be lawfully convicted, ſhall be deemed guilty of a Miſdemeanor, and ſhall be ſubject and liable to the Pain, Penalty, and Puniſhment of Fine and Impriſonment only; and the Courts by and before whom ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be tried, ſhall have full Power and Authority to convict and puniſh him and them accordingly.

For puniſhing Perſons damaging or deſtroying the Works of Drainage. Fine and Impriſonment.

XCIV. And be it further enacted, That the King's Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or his or their Leſſee or Leſſees, and the ſeveral other Lord or Lords of the ſeveral and reſpective Manors within the Pariſhes, Townſhips, and Places aforeſaid, or any of them, and all and every other Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, ſhall have full Liberty to fiſh, fowl, and exerciſe all the Rights and Royalties on the Rivers, Ponds, Sewers, Drains, and Cuts now made or hereafter to be made by virtue of this Act, or any of the Branches thereof, which they have uſually exerciſed or enjoyed, and to which they are or ſhall be entitled by Law; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding; nevertheleſs ſo as that the Exerciſe of ſuch Rights and Royalties ſhall not hinder, obſtruct, interfere with, or interrupt the general Drainage hereby intended, or other Execution of this Act.

For reſerving Rights of Fiſheries, &c.

Allotments to the Lords and Freeholders.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That after the ſaid Roads, Ways, and other Allotments are ſet out, the ſaid Commiſſioner ſhall, and he is hereby directed to allot and ſet out unto the ſaid Sir Thomas Moſtyn as Lord of the Manor of Moſtyn aforeſaid, his Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, ſuch Part or Parts of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes lying within the ſaid Manor of Moſtyn, as ſhall be equal in Value to one fifteenth Part thereof (Quantity, Quality, and Situation conſidered), in Lieu, Satisfaction, and Extinction of his Right and Intereſt in the Soil of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, as Lord of the ſaid Manor; and in caſe the ſaid Townſhips of Mertyn Uchglan, and Mertyn Iſglan, ſhall be proved to be within and Part of the ſaid Manor of Holywell, Fulbrook, and Greenfield, the ſaid Commiſſioner ſhall and he is hereby directed to allot and ſet out to the ſaid Thomas Lord Grey de Wilton, as Lord of the Manor of Holywell, Fulbrook, and Greenfield aforeſaid, his Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, ſuch Part or Parts of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, lying within the ſaid Townſhips of Mertyn Uchglan and Mertyn Iſglan, as ſhall be equal in Value to one fifteenth Part thereof, (Quantity, Quality, and Situation conſidered,) in Lieu, Satisfaction, and Extinction of his Rights and Intereſts in the Soil of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, as Lord of the ſaid Manor of Holywell, Fulbrook, and Greenfield; and ſhall alſo ſet out and allot unto the King's Majeſty, as Lord Paramount, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſuch Part or Parts of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, in the Remainder of the ſaid Pariſh of Whitford, as ſhall be equal in Value to one twentieth Part thereof, (Quantity, Quality, and Situation conſidered,) in Lieu, Satisfaction, and Extinction of his Majeſty's Right and Intereſt in the Soil of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, as Lord Paramount thereof; but if the ſaid Townſhips of Mertyn Uchglan and Mertyn Iſglan, ſhall not be proved to be within and Part of the ſaid Manor of Holywell, Fulbrook, and Greenfield, the ſaid Commiſſioner ſhall in that Caſe ſet out and allot to the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty ſuch Part or Parts of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, as ſhall be equal in Value to one twentieth Part of the Whole Reſidue thereof, excluſive of the ſaid Manor of Moſtyn; and then and thereafter the ſaid Commiſſioner ſhall allot and ſet out all the Reſidue and Remainder of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, unto and among the ſeveral Perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who are entitled to Right of Common upon the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, according to their reſpective and diſtinct Right of Common, and rateably and in due Proportion, (Quantity, Quality, and Situation conſidered,) to the Value of their reſpective Meſſuages, Tenements, or Lands, in reſpect whereof they are ſeverally entitled to ſuch Right of Common as aforeſaid, ſuch Value to be aſcertained and fixed by the ſaid Commiſſioner; and the ſaid Commiſſioner ſhall not, upon any Account, or under any Pretence give any undue Preference to any of the Parties intereſted in the ſaid Diviſion, in their, or any of their Allotments or Shares of the Remainder of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, excluſive of the Allotment to be made to the King's Majeſty; but the ſaid Commiſſioner, in making the Diviſion and Allotment thereof, ſhall have due Regard to the Quality, Situation, and Convenience, as well as Quantity of the Land to be allotted, and ſhall, if or as far as the ſame can conveniently be done, make the Allotments near to the Meſſuages, Tenements, or Lands they ſhall belong to reſpectively, and ſhall alſo ſet out and allot the Share or Shares of every Perſon reſpectively in one entire Parcel, (where the ſame can conveniently be done,) and as near to every Perſon's Lands and Tenements reſpectively as the ſame conveniently may be.

" Commiſſioner ſhall make an Extract of ſo much of his Award as deſcribes his Majeſty's Allotment, " and tranſmit the ſame to the Surveyor General of the Land Revenue. § 37. (as under c. lxxxvi.)"

Saving the Rights of his Majeſty, Earl Groſvenor, and Sir Thomas Moſtyn, their Heirs and Aſſigns, to the Minerals, in the Lands to be incloſed.

XLVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall prejudice or defeat the Right or Intereſt of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or of the ſaid Richard Earl Groſvenor, or of the ſaid Sir Thomas Moſtyn, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or of the ſaid Thomas Lord Grey de Wilton, or any Perſon or Perſons claiming or to claim by, from, or under, or in Truſt for him, them, or any of them, or any of the Anceſtors of the ſaid Richard Earl Groſvenor, Thomas Lord Grey de Wilton, or Sir Thomas Moſtyn, in and to all Mines, Ores, Minerals, and Coals, of what Nature or Kind ſoever, in or under the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, but his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the ſaid Richard Earl Groſvenor, Thomas Lord Grey de Wilton, and Sir Thomas Moſtyn, their Heirs and Aſſigns, and ſuch other Perſon and Perſons as aforeſaid, and their Leſſee or Agents, Servants, Colliers, Miners, and other Workmen, ſhall and may, from Time to Time and at all Times hereafter, enter into, have, hold, enjoy, ſearch, and work all Mines and Mine Works, Pits, Holes, Beds, Veins, and other Bearings of Mines, Ores, Minerals, and Coal whatſoever, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes as they could have had, held, and enjoyed the ſame before the paſſing of this Act, and for that Purpoſe ſhall and may uſe all Pits, Shafts, Levels, Soughs, and Tunnels, already open and ſunk in any of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, and all Machines, Engines, and Buildings thereon erected or ſtanding, together with full and free Liberty, Power, and Authority, to and for his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the ſaid Richard Earl Groſvenor, Thomas Lord Grey de Wilton, and Sir Thomas Moſtyn, their Heirs and Aſſigns, and all other Perſons who ſhall hereafter for the Time being be entitled to the Mines and Minerals therein, and his and their Leſſee and Leſſees, and their and every of their Agents, Servants, Miners, Colliers, and other Workmen, to ſink, dig, delve, drive, and work all and every or any Number of Pits, Shafts, Levels, Soughs, and Tunnels, which they ſhall think neceſſary for diſcovering, ſearching for, raiſing, or getting any Mines, Ores, Minerals, and Coals whatſoever, in or under the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, and to dig and raiſe Clay for making and burning of Bricks, Tiles, Gutters, and Ridges, in and upon any Part or Parts of the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, as well before as after the ſame ſhall have been incloſed, for the Uſe of any Colliery or Collieries now open or hereafter to be opened therein, and for repairing any old or erecting any new Buildings, which may be neceſſary for carrying on or working any Mine or Mines whatſoever, and alſo to erect any Number of Steam and other Engines, Machine and Machines, of what Nature or Kind ſoever, which they ſhall think neceſſary for the Uſe, Convenience, or Advantage of any Mine or Mines whatſoever, in or upon the ſaid Premiſes, or any Part thereof, and to place, ſtack up, and lay all Lead, Copper, Iron, and other Ores, Coals, and other Minerals and Matters which ſhall be gotten and raiſed, and all Rubbiſh, Earth, and Soil upon the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes, and to make, burn, or convert Coal and Culm into Charcoal or Cokes, and alſo to have, make, and uſe all convenient Ways, Roads, and Railways, in, upon, and over the ſaid Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes when incloſed, for the Uſe of any Colliery or Mines ſunk or made, or which may be ſunk or made in any Part or Parts thereof, and for working and carrying on the ſame, and with Carts, Waggons, and other Carriages, to fetch, take, and carry away the Lead, Copper, and Iron Ores, and Coal, and all other Mines and Minerals whatſoever, there to be found and raiſed as aforeſaid, and to do all other reaſonable and neceſſary Acts and Things in or upon the ſame Commons, Waſte Lands, and Marſhes and Grounds, when incloſed, for the diſcovering, getting, working, converting, removing, carrying away, ſelling, and diſpoſing of all Mines, Coal, and other Minerals whatſoever, without any Moleſtation or Interruption whatſoever; and all and every ſuch Damage, Treſpaſs, and Injury, as ſhall or may ariſe or happen to any Allotment or Allotments which ſhall be ſet out under this Act, to the Owners and Occupiers thereof, ſhall be afterwards reimburſed to, and raiſed among ſuch Owner and Owners, and Occupiers reſpectively, other than and except his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the ſaid Richard Earl Groſvenor, Thomas Lord Grey de Wilton, and Sir Thomas Moſtyn, their Heirs and Aſſigns, in Manner hereinafter mentioned and directed; (that is to ſay,) that when and as often as any ſuch Damage or Injury in any Allotment or Allotments to be ſet out by virtue of this Act, for or in ſearching or working the aforeſaid Mines and Minerals, or on Account of any Works, Buildings, or Concerns relating thereto, ſhall be done, the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſuſtain any ſuch Damage, Treſpaſs, or Injury as aforeſaid, ſhall give Information thereof to any two or more Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County of Flint, ten Days previous Notice of ſuch Information, ſigned by the Perſon giving the ſame, being fixed on the South Door of the ſaid Pariſh Church of Whitford; and ſuch Juſtices ſhall and are hereby empowered to examine and enquire into ſuch Complaint in a ſummary Way, and by Examination of Witneſſes upon Oath (which Oath ſuch Juſtices are hereby empowered to adminiſter), or by ſuch other Evidence or Proof, Ways or Means, as they ſhall think proper; and all and every Sum and Sums of Money paid in Satisfaction of ſuch Damages, and the reaſonable Charges of giving and proſecuting ſuch Information (to be ſettled by the ſaid Juſtices) ſhall be borne and paid by the Owners or Occupiers of all the Allotments of the Lands and Grounds hereby intended to be divided, allotted, and incloſed, by an equal Rate to be aſſeſſed and charged upon them, in reſpect of their ſeveral Allotments, by ſuch Juſtices, in ſuch Shares and Proportions as ſhall be juſt, according to the reſpective yearly Rents or Values, which ſhall be aſcertained and determined by the Aſſeſſments to the Poor Rates for the Time being of the ſaid Allotments, or of the Lands or Hereditaments in reſpect whereof ſuch Allotments ſhall have been made; and in caſe any Perſon who ſhall be charged to ſuch equal Rate as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the ſame, within a Time to be limited by the ſaid Juſtices, to the Perſon informing as aforeſaid, then the ſaid Juſtices ſhall and they are hereby required, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe the ſame to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon refuſing or neglecting to pay as aforeſaid, rendering the Overplus, (if any,) after deducting the reaſonable Charges of ſuch Warrant, Diſtreſs, and Sale, to the Owner of ſuch Goods and Chattels, upon Demand; and in caſe any Occupier of any of the ſaid Allotments ſhall pay any Part or Share of ſuch equal Rate as aforeſaid, every ſuch Occupier ſhall be at Liberty to deduct the ſame out of his or her next Rent, and his or her Landlord ſhall and is hereby required to allow ſuch Deduction.

Reimburſement of Damages.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act or any Thing herein contained ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to defeat, leſſen, or prejudice the Right, Title, or Intereſt of the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, as Lord Paramount as aforeſaid, or the ſaid Sir Thomas Moſtyn, as Lord of the ſaid Manor of Moſtyn, or of the ſaid Thomas Lord Grey de Wilton, as Lord of the Manor of Holywell, Fulbrook, and Greenfield; but that his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the ſaid Sir Thomas Moſtyn and Thomas Lord Grey de Wilton, their Heirs and Aſſigns, may, from Time to Time and at all Times hereafter, hold and enjoy all the Rents, Services, Courts, Perquiſites and Profits of Courts, Deodands, Waifs, Eſtrays, Forfeitures, and all other Royalties, Privileges, Pre-eminences, Manerial Juriſdictions, and Appurtenances whatſoever, except Right of Common, or of Soil and Quarries, Springs and other Matters not being Mines or Minerals, which Quarries, Springs, and other Matters, not being Mines or Minerals, ſhall belong to the ſeveral Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to whom any Allotments ſhall be made by virtue of this Act; and which ſaid Mines or Minerals ſhall continue to belong to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Body or Bodies Corporate or Politick, as was or were lawfully entitled to the ſame before the paſſing of this Act.

STATUTES at Large, &c.

Anno Regni GEORGII III. Quadrageſimo Primo.

'AT the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter, the twelfth Day of July, Anno Domini one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, in the thirty-ſixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

'And from thence continued, by ſeveral Prorogations, to the eleventh Day of November 1800; being the fifth Seſſion of the Eighteenth Parliament of Great Britain.'

CAP. I.

An Act to prohibit, until the firſt Day of November one thouſand eight hundred and one, the Exportation of Rice; and to indemnify all Perſons who have been concerned in preventing the Exportation thereof, or in the Nonperformance of any Contracts and Agreements that ſhall not have been performed in conſequence thereof.

[24th November 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Exportation of Rice ſhould be prevented for a limited Time;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, no Perſon or Perſons whatever ſhall, directly or indirectly, export, carry, or convey, or cauſe or procure to be exported, carried, or conveyed out of or from any Port or Place of this Kingdom, or ſhall load or lay on board, or cauſe or procure to be laden or laid on board, in any Ship or other Veſſel or Boat, any Rice, in order to be exported, carried, or conveyed out of any ſuch Port or Place.

No Perſon ſhall export any Rice or lay it on board any Veſſel for that Purpoſe.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Rice which ſhall be ſo exported, carried, or conveyed, or be laden or laid on board in any Ship or other Veſſel or Boat, in order to be exported, carried, or conveyed out of this Kingdom contrary to this Act, ſhall be forfeited; and that every Offender therein ſhall forfeit alſo the Sum of Sixpence for every Pound Weight of ſuch Rice which ſhall be ſo exported, carried, or conveyed, or ſo laden or laid on board in any Ship or other Veſſel or Boat, in order to be exported, carried, or conveyed out of this Kingdom; and alſo the Ship, Veſſel or Boat, wherein the ſame ſhall be exported, or in or upon which the ſame ſhall be laden or laid on board in order to be exported, together with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, ſhall be forfeited, and the ſame reſpectively, and each and every Part thereof, may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms: Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any ſuch Quantity of Rice as ſhall be neceſſary to be carried in any Ship or other Veſſel to be uſed for or towards the Suſtenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Maſter, Mariners, and Paſſengers on the Voyage; nor ſhall any of the Proviſions of this Act be conſtrued to extend to prohibit the carrying of Rice Coaſtwiſe, or from one Port or Place in Great Britain to another Port or Place in Great Britain, according to the Regulations preſcribed by an Act paſſed in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Coaſt Trade of Great Britain; for exempting certain Coaſt Documents from Stamp Duties; for aboliſhing the Bond, uſually called the Iſle of Man Bond; and for permitting Corn and Grain brought Coaſtwiſe to be tranſhipped into Lighters for the Purpoſe of being carried through the Canal from the Forth to the Clyde; and in like Manner as the ſame might have been carried Coaſtwiſe before the paſſing of this Act.

Rice exported, or put on board for that Purpoſe, ſhall be forfeited, and the Offender ſhall forfeit 6d. per lb. for ſuch Rice, and the Veſſel, &c. may be ſeized.

Act ſhall not extend to Rice for Diet on a Voyage, nor Rice carried Coaſtwiſe, according to 32 Geo. 3. c. 50.

Act ſhall not prevent Evidence being given that Rice was on board without the Knowledge of the Maſter, &c.

III. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to prevent Evidence being received by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, or in any Suit or Information, that, by Reaſon of the Smallneſs of the Quantity of any ſuch Rice, and other Circumſtances, that the ſame was on board without the Knowledge or Privity of the Maſter or Perſon having the Charge or Command of any ſuch Ship or Veſſel; in like Manner as is permitted with reſpect to Corn, by an Act paſſed in the thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty*, and that, when ſuch Proof ſhall be ſo made, ſuch Ship, Veſſel or Boat, or any Thing belonging thereto as aforeſaid, ſhall not be forfeited for or on account of ſuch ſmall Quantity of Rice as aforeſaid.

* [31 Geo. 3. c. 30. § 9.]

Penalties and Forfeitures may be recovered as under the Laws of Cuſtoms.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures contained in this Act ſhall and may be ſued for, proſecuted, recovered, and diſpoſed of, in ſuch Manner, and by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalties incurred, or any Goods, Ships or Veſſels forfeited for any Offence againſt the Laws of Cuſtoms may now be legally ſued for, proſecuted, recovered, and diſpoſed of, and the Officer or Officers concerned in Seizures or Proſecutions under this Act ſhall be entitled to, and receive ſuch Share of the Produce ariſing from the Seizures as they are now by Law entitled to upon Proſecution of Seizures for unlawful Exportation, and to ſuch Share of the Produce ariſing from any pecuniary Fine or Penalty or Compoſition paid for any Offence againſt this Act, as they are now by any Law or Regulation entitled to upon Proſecution for pecuniary Penalties.

39 & 40 Geo. 3. c. 29.
39 & 40 Geo. 3. c. 91.

V. 'And whereas, by an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, a Bounty was granted in certain 'Caſes on Rice imported into this Kingdom, in order to encourage a Supply of the ſame; and by an- 'other Act, alſo paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, the Exportation of Rice was prohibited until the 'fifteenth Day of October one thouſand eight hundred: And whereas, at the Expiration of that Period, 'there was great Reaſon to apprehend that large Quantities of Rice would be exported from this Kingdom, 'to the great Detriment of his Majeſty's Subjects during the then and preſent high Price of Proviſions: 'And whereas, for the Prevention thereof, the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, in purſuance of 'Directions to that Effect from the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, have prevented the 'Exportation of all Rice ſince the ſaid fifteenth Day of October, which has proved to be beneficial to the 'Publick; wherefore it is expedient, that all Perſons, iſſuing, giving, or adviſing ſuch Directions as afore- 'ſaid, or concerned in the iſſuing, giving, or adviſing any ſuch Directions, and alſo, all Perſons acting 'under or in purſuance thereof, ſhould be indemnified:' Be it therefore enacted, That all Perſons iſſuing, giving, or adviſing any ſuch Directions as aforeſaid, or concerned in the iſſuing, giving, or adviſing any ſuch Directions, and alſo, all Perſons acting under or in purſuance of the ſaid Directions, and alſo, all Perſons who ſhall have been prevented performing any Contract or Agreement by Reaſon thereof, ſhall be, and are hereby indemnified for and on account of the ſame, and of any Act, Matter, or Thing done in purſuance of and in conformity with ſuch Directions as aforeſaid, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purpoſes whatever, as if the ſame Directions had been given, and ſuch Acts, Matters, and Things done in purſuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament.

All perſons iſſuing Directions, and all Perſons acting in purſuance thereof, for preventing the Exportation of Rice, ſince Oct. 15, 1800, &c. indemnified.

All Actions for Refuſal to receive Entries for Exportation of Rice, &c. or for Non-performance of any Agreement on that Account, made void.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all perſonal Actions and Suits, Indictments, and Informations, and all Proſecutions and Proceedings whatſoever, which have been or ſhall be hereafter proſecuted or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for having refuſed to receive any Entry or Entries for the Exportation of any Rice, or to clear out any Ship or Veſſel with Rice on board intended to be exported before the paſſing of this Act, or againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for or by Reaſon of any Act, Matter, or Thing adviſed, commanded, appointed, or done, or forborne to be done, in relation to the Prevention of any ſuch Exportation of Rice as aforeſaid, or againſt any Perſon or Perſons for or on account of any Contract or Agreement not being performed by Occaſion or by Means of any ſuch Exportation having been ſo hindered or prevented as aforeſaid, be, are, and ſhall be diſcharged and made void by virtue of this Act; and that, if any Action or Suit ſhall be proſecuted or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for or by Reaſon of any ſuch Act, Matter, or Thing, or any ſuch Contract or Agreement not being performed on ſuch Account as aforeſaid, he, ſhe, or they, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any Action or Suit ſo to be proſecuted or commenced ſhall become Nonſuit, or forbear further Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſs againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall recover his, her, or their Double Coſts, for which he, ſhe, or they ſhall have the like Remedy, as in Caſes where the Coſts by Law are given to Defendants.

General Iſſue.

Double Coſts.

If any Action has been commenced for ſuch Refuſal or for Non-performance of Contract, the Defendant may apply to the Court to ſtay Proceedings, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit hath been already commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any ſuch Act, Matter, or Thing, as aforeſaid, or on account of any ſuch Contract or Agreement not being performed, by Occaſion of ſuch Hinderance as aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for the Defendant or Defenders in ſuch Actions or Suits reſpectively, in whatever Courts in Great Britain ſuch Actions or Suits ſhall have been commenced, to apply to ſuch Court or Courts reſpectively, to ſtay all Proceedings therein reſpectively, by Motion in a ſummary Way; and ſuch Court or Courts are hereby authorized and required to make Orders for that Purpoſe accordingly; and the Court or Courts making ſuch Order ſhall award and allow to the Defendants and Defenders reſpectively, Double Coſts of Suit; for which they ſhall reſpectively have the ſame Remedy as in Caſes where the Coſts are by Law given to Defendants or Defenders.

His Majeſty may from Time to Time permit the Exportation of Rice.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in caſe his Majeſty at any Time or Times after the paſſing of this Act ſhall, in his Royal Diſcretion, judge it moſt for the Benefit and Advantage of this this Kingdom, to permit the Exportation of Rice, then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty, by his Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be iſſued by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, or by his Majeſty's Order in Council, to be publiſhed in the London Gazette from Time to Time, to permit and ſuffer all and every Perſon and Perſons, Natives and Foreigners, (but not any particular Perſon or Perſons,) at any Time or Times after the paſſing of this Act, to export any Rice from this Kingdom; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Continuance of Act till Nov. 1, 1801.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue in force until the firſt Day of November one thouſand eight hundred and one, and may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be paſſed in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. II.

An Act to authorize his Majeſty from Time to Time, to prohibit the Exportation of Proviſions or Food. [24th November 1800.]

His Majeſty may, from Time to Time, by Order in Council, prohibit the Exportation of any Article uſed as Food by Man.

'WHEREAS the public Safety may require temporary Reſtraints on the Exportation of all or any Sort of Proviſions or Victual whatever, or any Articles uſed as Food for Man:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty, by Order in Council from Time to Time, to prohibit, for a Time to be limited in ſuch Order, either generally or particularly, and by Name or Deſcription, the Exportation from this Kingdom of all or any Sort of Proviſion or Victual, or any Article or Articles whatſoever uſed or which may be uſed as Food by Man, under ſuch Reſtrictions and Regulations as his Majeſty in Council ſhall think proper, and in like Manner from Time to Time to recall ſuch Order in Part, or in the Whole, or make ſuch Alteration therein as he ſhall think proper.

Any ſuch prohibited Article exported, or laid on board any Veſſel for ſuch Purpoſe, ſhall be forfeited, and the Offender ſhall forfeit treble the Value, and the Veſſel, &c. may be ſeized.

II. And be it further enacted, That all ſuch Proviſion, Victual, and every Article of Food whatſoever, included in his Majeſty's Order, which ſhall be afterwards exported, tranſported, carried or conveyed, or laden or laid on board of any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, in order to be exported, tranſported, carried, or conveyed, out of this Kingdom contrary to ſuch Order, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms; and all and every Perſon or Perſons offending therein ſhall forfeit treble the Value of ſuch Proviſions or Food reſpectively, as ſhall be ſo exported, tranſported, carried, or conveyed out of this Kingdom, or laden or laid on board of any Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, for that Purpoſe; and ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Boat, together with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, ſhall be forfeited, and the ſame ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms:

"Penalties may be recovered as under the Laws of Cuſtoms [See § 4. of c. 1. of this Seſſion.] § 3."

This Act and ſuch Orders ſhall not extend to certain Caſes.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, and ſuch Orders, or any Thing therein contained, ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to prohibit at any Time the Exportation or carrying out of ſuch and ſo much of any ſuch Proviſions, Victuals, and other Articles of Food, as ſhall be neceſſary to be carried in any Ship or Veſſel on its Voyage out and Home, for the Suſtenance, Diet, and Support of the Commander, Maſter, Mariners, Paſſengers, and others, or for the Uſe and Suſtenance of the Cattle, Live Stock, or other Animals, on board of ſuch Ship or Veſſel; or for victualling or providing any of his Majeſty's Ships of War, or other Ships or Veſſels in his Majeſty's Service; or for victualling or providing any of his Majeſty's Forces, Forts, or Garriſons; or to prohibit at any Time the Exportation to the Britiſh Forts, Caſtles, or Factories in Africa, or for the Uſe of Britiſh Ships trading upon that Coaſt, which have uſually been ſupplied with the ſame from Great Britain; or to prohibit at any Time any Perſon or Perſons from ſhipping or putting on board any Proviſions, Victuals, or other Articles of Food as aforementioned to be carried Coaſtwiſe, (that is to ſay,) from any Port, Creek, or Member, or Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain, to any other Port, Creek, Member, or Part of the ſame reſpectively; having ſuch or the like Coaſt Sufferance, Cocquet, or other Coaſt Diſpatch for that Purpoſe, and on ſuch and the like Security being given for the landing and diſcharging the ſame, as now is or hereafter may be, by any Law or Laws, Act or Acts, required in relation to the carrying coaſtwiſe any Corn or other Articles, or any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes.

Act ſhall not prevent Evidence being received to prove, from the Smallneſs of the Quantity, that the ſame was on board without the Knowledge of the Maſter, &c. [See c. 1. of this Seſſion, § 3.]

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to prevent Evidence from being received to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, in caſe any Ship or Veſſel ſhall be under Seizure by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms for having any Proviſion or Victual, or other Articles of Food as aforeſaid, on board, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of any ſuch Order of his Majeſty as aforeſaid, or to prevent Evidence from being received in any Suit or Information brought for the Forfeiture of any Ship or Veſſel for or on account of any ſuch Proviſion or Victual, or other Articles of Food as aforeſaid being on board, in order to ſhow, from the Smallneſs of the Quantity of ſuch Proviſion or Victual, or other Articles of Food as aforeſaid, that the ſame was on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel without the Knowledge and Privity either of the Owner or Maſter, or other Perſon having the Charge and Command thereof, and without any wilful Neglect or Default of reaſonable Care in the Diſcharge of the Duty of ſuch Owner, Maſter, or other Perſon having the Charge or Command of ſuch Ship or Veſſel; and in every ſuch Caſe, where where Proof ſhall be ſo made reſpectively, ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall not be forfeited for or on account of ſuch ſmall Quantity of Proviſion or Victual, or other Articles of Food prohibited to be exported or carried out of the Kingdom by any ſuch Order of his Majeſty as aforeſaid.

The Powers of 32 Geo. 3. c. 50. and of any other Acts in force, for ſecuring the Revenue of Cuſtoms, &c. to extend to this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Proviſions, Clauſes, Matters, and Things contained in an Act paſſed in the thirty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Coaſt Trade of Great Britain; for exempting certain Coaſt Documents from Stamp Duties: for aboliſhing the Bond uſually called the Iſle of Man Bond; and for permitting Corn and Grain brought Coaſtwiſe to be tranſhipped into Lighters, for the Purpoſe of being carried through the Canal from the Forth to the Clyde; and in every other Act of Parliament in force on and immediately before the paſſing of this Act, by which any Conditions, Rules, Regulations, or Reſtrictions were made, eſtabliſhed, or directed, or any Powers, Authorities, or Proviſions were made for the better ſecuring the Revenue of Cuſtoms, or for the regular Importation into or Exportation from Great Britain, or the bringing or carrying Coaſtwiſe, or from Port to Port within the ſame Kingdom, or the taking or requiring, and putting in Suit and proſecuting any Cocquet, Bond, or other Security given in relation thereto, except where any expreſs Alteration is made by this Act, or by any Order of his Majeſty iſſued under the Authority of this Act, ſhall, and they are hereby declared to be and remain in full Force and Effect to the Subject of this Act, and to any Order iſſued by his Majeſty in purſuance thereof, and to all Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions contained in any ſuch Order, as far as the ſame are applicable thereto, and for carrying the ſame into Execution, as fully and effectually as if they had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Copies of Orders in Council ſhall be from Time to Time laid before Parliament.

VII. And be it further enacted, That Copies of ſuch Orders as ſhall be made by his Majeſty in Council, for any of the Purpoſes mentioned in this Act, if made when Parliament is ſitting, ſhall be laid before both Houſes of Parliament within three Days after the ſame ſhall have iſſued; and if made when Parliament is not ſitting, then within fourteen Days after the Meeting of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. III.

An Act to prohibit, until the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and two, the Uſe of Corn in diſtilling of Spirits or making of Starch.

[8th December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to prohibit, for a limited Time, the Uſe or Expenditure of Wheat, Barley, Malt, and every other Sort of Corn or Grain, and of Meal, Flour, and Bran, in the making or preparing of Wort or Waſh for the Diſtillation of Low Wines or Spirits, and to prohibit, for a limited Time, the making of Starch from Wheat, or Wheat Meal or Flour;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, and until the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and two, no Low Wines or Spirits ſhall be brewed, made, prepared, extracted, or diſtilled from any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or Tilts, or any other Sort of Corn or Grain, or from any Meal, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the ſame; and no Starch ſhall be made or prepared from any Wheat, or any Wheat Meal or Flour.

Until January 1, 1802, no Spirits ſhall be diſtilled from Corn or Grain, &c. and no Starch ſhall be made from Wheat or Wheat Flour.

Perſons ſo diſtilling, and Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody Veſſels uſed contrary to the Intentions of this Act, ſhall be found, ſhall forfeit 500l. each, and the Wheat, &c. ſhall be forfeited.

II. And be it further enacted, That if, during the Time before limited, any Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits, or any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall brew, make, prepare, extract, or diſtil, or cauſe or procure to be brewed, made, prepared, extracted or diſtilled, any Low Wines or Spirits, either for Home Conſumption or for Exportation, or ſhall uſe or mix, or cauſe or procure to be uſed or mixed, any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Corn or Grain, or any Meal, Flour, or Bran, in any Wort or Waſh, in order for the brewing, making, preparing, extracting, or diſtilling any Low Wines or Spirits, or ſhall put or lay, or cauſe or procure to be put or laid, in any Tun, Waſh Batch, Caſk, Copper, Still, or other Veſſel or Utenſil, any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Corn or Grain, or any Meal, Flour, or Bran, or any Mixture with the ſame, for the Purpoſe of preparing any Wort or Waſh, or for brewing, making, preparing, extracting, or diſtilling any Low Wines or Spirits, whether ſuch Tun, Waſh Batch, Caſk, Copper, Still, or other Veſſel or Utenſil, ſhall or ſhall not have been or be duly entered at the Exciſe Office, that then, and in each and every of the ſaid Caſes, ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits, or other Perſon or Perſons acting contrary to the Directions of this Act, and the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion any ſuch Tun, Waſh Batch, Caſk, Copper, Still, or other Veſſel or Utenſil, which ſhall be made uſe of contrary to the Intention of this Act, ſhall be found, ſhall ſeverally and reſpectively, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds; and all ſuch Wheat, Barley, Malt, and other Corn or Grain, and ſuch Meal, Flour, and Bran, or other Mixture with the ſame, and ſuch Wort and Waſh, Low Wines and Spirits, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of Exciſe.

Penalty of 500l. for making Starch from Wheat, or Wheat Flour, which, with

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall apply, ſpend, conſume, or make uſe of, or cauſe, procure, permit, or ſuffer to be applied, ſpent, conſumed, or made uſe of, any Wheat, or any Meal or Flour ground or made therefrom, for the Purpoſe of making or preparing Starch, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending, and the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall (over and above all other Penalties impoſed by any Act or Acts of Parliament already in force) forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds; and all ſuch Wheat, Wheat Meal, Flour, and Starch, together with every Vat, Trough, or other Utenſil or Veſſel, in which the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall be forfeited, and the ſame reſpectively ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of Exciſe. the Veſſels, ſhall be forfeited.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Sort of Corn or Grain, or any Meal, Flour, or Bran, ſhall, at any Time after the Expiration of three Days after the paſſing of this Act, and during the Continuance thereof, be found in any Workhouſe, Stillhouſe, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, or any other Place wherein Low Wines or Spirits, or Wort or Waſh, ſhall be preparing, or ſhall be brewed, made, extracted, diſtilled, or prepared; or where any Starch ſhall be making or preparing, or made or prepared; or where any Low Wines or Spirits, or Wort or Waſh ſhall have been brewed, made, extracted, diſtilled, or prepared; or where any Starch ſhall have been made or prepared; all ſuch Wheat, Barley, Malt, and other Corn or Grain, and Meal, Flour, and Bran ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of Exciſe; and the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Poſſeſſion ſuch Workhouſe, Stillhouſe, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, or Place, ſhall be, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence reſpectively, alſo forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds. Wheat, &c. found in any Stillhouſe or Starch Warehouſe, ſhall be forfeited, and alſo 200l.

V. And be it further enacted, That during the Time herein-before limited, it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall be authorized for that Purpoſe by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the Time being, or any two or more of them, within the Limits of the Chief Office of Exciſe in London, or by one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace in any other Part of Great Britain, at any Time or Times, with any Officer of Exciſe, to enter into the Workhouſe, Stillhouſe, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, or any other Place whatſoever, wherein any Low Wines or Spirits, or Wort or Waſh, or Starch, ſhall be or are ſuſpected to be preparing, or to be brewed, made, or extracted, diſtilled, or prepared; or wherein Low Wines or Wort or Waſh ſhall have been made, brewed, extracted, diſtilled or prepared, or Starch ſhall have been made or prepared, after the paſſing of this Act, and ſhall have free Admittance into the ſame, and may inſpect all the Materials, Veſſels, and Utenſils therein contained, (giving thereby as little Interruption as may be to the Buſineſs which ſhall be carrying on); and in caſe any ſuch Officer of Exciſe ſhall have Reaſon to ſuſpect that any Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Corn or Grain, or any Meal, Flour, or Bran, is mixed in any Wort or Waſh, or in any other Material or Preparation for brewing, making, extracting, or diſtilling Low Wines or Spirits, or making or preparing of Starch, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Officer or Officers, at any Time or Times during the ſaid Term, upon Payment of two Shillings and Sixpence, to take a Sample, not exceeding two Quarts, of any ſuch Wort or Waſh, Material, or Preparation, which ſhall be found in any ſuch Houſe or other Place aforeſaid: And in caſe any Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits, or Maker of Starch, or the Owner or Occupier of any ſuch Houſe or Place, or any Workman or Servant to any ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, Maker or Makers, or Owner or Occupier, belonging, ſhall refuſe to admit ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be ſo authorized, or any Officer or Officers of Exciſe, into any ſuch Houſe or Place, or ſhall obſtruct or hinder any ſuch Officer or Officers, or Perſon or Perſons, in making ſuch Inſpection as aforeſaid, or if any ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, or Maker or Makers of Starch, ſhall not allow any ſuch Officer to take ſuch Sample, after the ſaid Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence ſhall be paid or tendered for the ſame, every ſuch Diſtiller or Maker of Low Wines or Spirits, or Maker of Starch, Owner or Occupier, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence reſpectively, forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds; and it ſhall be lawful for every ſuch Officer of Exciſe, or other Perſon or Perſons authorized as aforeſaid, having a Warrant for that Purpoſe from any two or more of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or any Juſtice or Juſtices reſpectively as aforeſaid, to ſeize, take, and carry away all ſuch Wheat, Barley, Malt, and other Corn or Grain, and all ſuch Meal, Flour, and Bran as ſhall be found in any ſuch Houſe or other Place, together with all the Veſſels, Sacks, Bags, and other Things in which the ſaid Commodities ſhall be contained. Perſons authorized by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, within the Limits of their Chief Office, and by a Juſtice in any other Part, may, with an Officer of Exciſe, enter into Workhouſes, &c. to inſpect Materials and Utenſils; and if the Officer ſuſpect that Corn, &c. is mixed with any Material for Diſtillation, or making of Starch, he may take a Sample. Penalty of 200l. for obſtructing Inſpection, or not allowing a Sample to be taken; and in ſuch Caſe Corn, &c. found, may be ſeized, with the Veſſels.

VI. 'And whereas there may have been Contracts made by Diſtillers and Makers of Low Wines and 'Spirits, or Makers of Starch, with ſeveral Perſons, for Spirits, Grains, Yeaſt, or Starch, to be delivered 'and received at future Times, after the paſſing of this Act;' be it therefore enacted, That all Contracts or Bargains made by any Diſtiller or Diſtillers, or Maker or Makers of Low Wines or Spirits, or Maker or Makers of Starch, with any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, for any Spirits, Grains, or Yeaſt, or Starch, to be delivered at any Time during the Continuance of this Act, ſhall be and are hereby declared to be wholly void. Contracts for Delivery of Spirits, or Starch, during the Continuance of this Act, ſhall be void.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in caſe his Majeſty, at any Time or Times after the paſſing of this Act, ſhall in his Royal Diſcretion judge it to be moſt for the Benefit and Advantage of this Kingdom, to permit the Uſe or Expenditure of Wheat, Barley, Malt, or any other Sort of Corn or Grain, or any Meal or Flour ground therefrom, in the making or preparing of Wort or Waſh for the making or extracting of Spirits, or for the making of Starch, then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty, by his Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be iſſued by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, or by his Majeſty's Order in Council, to be publiſhed in the London Gazette from Time to Time, to permit and ſuffer all and every Perſon and Perſons, Natives and Foreigners, (but not any particular Perſon or Perſons,) at any Time or Times after the paſſing of this Act, to apply, ſpend, conſume, or make uſe of Wheat, Barley, Malt, or any other Sort of Corn or Grain, or any Meal or Flour ground or made therefrom, in the brewing, making, or preparing of Wort or Waſh for the making or extracting of Spirits, or the making of Starch; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. His Majeſty may authorize at any Time, the Uſe of Wheat, &c. in Diſtillation, or making of Starch.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Diſtiller or Diſtillers, who ſhall have depoſited any Spirits drawn or made in Great Britain from Corn, before the paſſing of this Act, for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas, according to the Rules, Regulations, and Proviſions of an Act made in the ſecond Year of his Spirits from Corn warehouſed, under 2 Geo. 3. c. 5. for Exportation.

may be taken out for Home Conſumption, on Payment of a Duty of 87l. 10s. per Ton.

his preſent Majeſty's Reign, amongſt other Things, for better regulating and encouraging the Exportation of Britiſh made Spirits, in any ſuch Warehouſe as is mentioned in the ſaid Act, ſhall be deſirous of uſing any ſuch Spirits for Home Conſumption, and ſhall ſignify ſuch his, her, or their Deſire, to the Commiſſioners of Exciſe in England and Scotland reſpectively for the Time being, the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners reſpectively ſhall direct the Quantity of Spirits ſo deſired, to be taken out of ſuch Warehouſe, and delivered to ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers, he, ſhe, or they having firſt duly paid to the proper Officer or Officers of Exciſe, a Duty of Exciſe at and after the Rate of eighty-ſeven Pounds and ten Shillings for each Ton of ſuch Spirits, calculating and computing the ſame at the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, any Act of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding; and the Money ariſing from the ſaid Duty ſhall be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, and carried to and made Part of the Conſolidated Fund.

Penalty of 200l. for obſtructing Officers of Exciſe.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall obſtruct or hinder any Officer or Officers of Exciſe in the Execution of any of the Powers or Authorities to him or them given or granted by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Spirits, the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence, ſeverally, the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Powers of 12 Car. 2. c. 24, &c. to extend to this Act.

X. And be it further enacted that all and every the Powers, Directions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, which, in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for ſettling a Revenue upon his Majeſty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in force, relating to his Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe, are provided and eſtabliſhed for managing, raiſing, levying, collecting, mitigating or recovering, adjudging or aſcertaining, the Duties thereby granted, or any of them, (other than in ſuch Caſes for which other Proviſions are made and preſcribed by this Act,) ſhall be practiſed, uſed, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raiſing, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying the Exciſe Duty by this Act impoſed, and for preventing, detecting, and puniſhing Frauds relating thereto, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if all and every the ſaid Powers, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this preſent Act.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures impoſed by this Act, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by ſuch Means or Methods as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and that one Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall inform, diſcover, or ſue for the ſame.

Limitation of Actions two Months.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons, for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be commenced within the Space of two Calendar Months next after the Offence ſhall be committed; and the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action or Suit may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it ſhall appear ſo to have been done, the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants; and if the Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his Action, after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if Judgment ſhall be given upon any Verdict or Demurrer againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall and may recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Caſes by Law.

Continuance of Act, Jan. 1. 1802,

XIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall commence and take Effect as to all ſuch Matters and Things therein contained, in reſpect whereof no ſpecial Commencement is hereby directed or provided, from the paſſing thereof until the firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and two, and may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. IV.

An Act for ſuſpending, until the twentieth Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred and one, the Duties on Hops imported, and for charging other Duties in lieu thereof. [8th December 1800.]

By 27 Geo 3. c. 13. and ſubſequent Acts, Duties on Hops were impoſed, and by 39 & 40 Geo. 3. c. 82. ſuch Parts as relate to the Duties on Hops imported were ſuſpended till Auguſt 20, 1800.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for repealing the ſeveral Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for other Purpoſes, a Duty of Cuſtoms of five Pounds eighteen Shillings and ten pence was granted upon every hundred Weight of Hops imported into Great Britain; and by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts certain other Duties have been impoſed in addition thereto: and whereas by an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, ſuch Parts of the ſaid Acts as relate to the Duties on Hops imported were ſuſpended until the twentieth Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid Duties on Hops imported ſhould be again ſuſpended for a further Time, and that other Duties ſhould be granted in lieu thereof during ſuch Suſpenſion:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, ſuch Parts of the ſaid Acts as grant any any Duty or Duties on Hops imported into Great Britain ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby ſuſpended until the twentieth Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred and one. Further ſuſpended until Aug. 20, 1801.

II. And be it further enacted, That until the ſaid twentieth Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred and one, inſtead and in lieu of the ſaid Duties on Hops imported, hereby ſuſpended, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, a Duty of Cuſtoms upon every Pound Weight Avoirdupois of Hops imported into Great Britain, the Sum of one Penny and twelve twentieth Parts of a Farthing, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity; and that ſo much of the ſaid Duties hereby ſuſpended as became due and payable between the twentieth Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred, and the Time of the paſſing of this Act, ſhall not be paid or payable; but inſtead and in lieu thereof, the Duty by this Act granted ſhall be paid; and upon the Payment thereof any Bonds that ſhall have been entered into for Payment of the Duties hereby ſuſpended, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby declared to be null and void, and ſhall be cancelled accordingly, in like Manner as if the Duties hereby ſuſpended had been fully paid thereon. Inſtead of the Duties ſuſpended, there ſhall be paid 1d. and 12-20ths of a Farthing per Pound on Hops imported; which Duty ſhall alſo be paid in lieu of thoſe payable between Aug. 20, 1800, and the paſſing of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duty by this Act granted ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and applied by the ſame Perſons, in like Manner, and under ſuch and the ſame Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as the Duties on the Importation of Hops are now raiſed, levied, collected, paid, recovered, and applied, by virtue and in purſuance of the ſaid Act, paſſed in the twenty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and of any Act or Acts paſſed ſubſequent, or in any Manner relating thereto. Duty hereby granted ſhall be raiſed, &c. as the Duties on Hops imported are now raiſed.

CAP. V.

An Act for continuing, until the Expiration of Forty Days after the Commencement of the firſt Seſſion of Parliament that ſhall be begun and holden after the firſt Day of September one thouſand eight hundred and one, ſeveral Laws relating to the prohibiting the Exportation, and permitting the Importation, of Corn and other Articles of Proviſion, without Payment of Duty; to the allowing the Uſe of Sugar in the brewing of Beer; to the reducing the Duties upon Spirits diſtilled from Melaſſes and Sugar; and to the prohibiting the making of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat, and certain other Articles, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland. [8th December 1800.]

'WHEREAS an Act was paſſed in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for enabling his Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Proviſion, without Payment of Duty, to continue in force until ſix Weeks from the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament, which was to continue in force until the Expiration of ſix Weeks from the Commencement of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament; and which ſaid Act, by another Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, was further continued until the thirtieth Day of September one thouſand eight hundred; and by another Act, made in the ſaid laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for further continuing and amending an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for enabling his Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation and permit the Importation of Corn, and for allowing the Importation of other Articles of Proviſion, without Payment of Duty, was alſo amended, and further continued until forty Days after the Commencement of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas the Proviſions of an Act paſſed in the ſaid laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to allow, for nine Months after the paſſing of the Act, the Uſe of Sugar in the brewing of Beer, were limited to the Space of nine Months from and after the paſſing of the ſaid Act, and which Act will ſhortly expire: And whereas an Act was paſſed in the ſaid laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for reducing, until the firſt Day of June one thouſand eight hundred, the Duties upon Spirits diſtilled from Melaſſes, or Sugar, or any Mixture therewith; for prohibiting the Diſtillation of Spirits from Wheat or Wheat Flour; and for reducing, until the twentieth Day of September one thouſand eight hundred, and better collecting the Duties payable on the Importation of Starch, which was to continue in force until and upon the twentieth Day of September one thouſand eight hundred; and which, by another Act paſſed in the ſame Seſſion of Parliament, ſo far as relates to the Duties on Wort or Waſh brewed or made from Melaſſes or Sugar, was further continued until and upon the firſt Day of July one thouſand eight hundred and one: And whereas the Proviſions of an Act paſſed in the ſecond Seſſion of Parliament holden in the thirty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to prohibit until the firſt Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, the making of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt, or other Sort of Grain, or from any Meal, Flour, or any Bran, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, were limited to be in force until and upon the firſt Day of March one thouſand eight hundred; which ſaid Act was further continued until the firſt Day of February one thouſand eight hundred and one, by another Act paſſed in the thirty-ninth and fortieth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to continue, until the firſt Day of February one thouſand eight hundred and one, an Act made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, to prohibit the making of Low Wines or Spirits from Wheat or other Sort of Grain, or from Meal, Flour, or Bran, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid ſeveral

CAP. VI.

An Act for ſhortening, until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred and one, the Time of keeping in Steep for malting, Barley damaged by Rain in the late Harveſt. [8th December 1800.]

'WHEREAS by the Laws now in force it is provided, that every Maltſter or Maker of Malt, during the Continuance of the Duties on Malt, ſhould wet or ſteep his Barley, or other Corn or Grain intended to be made into Malt, in the Ciſtern, Uting-fat, or other Veſſel, ſo as that the ſame ſhould be covered with Water, and continue ſo covered in ſuch Ciſtern, Uting-fat, or other Veſſel, for the full Space of forty Hours from the Time of its being firſt wet and covered with Water as aforeſaid, before he ſhould obtain or take, or draw the Water from the ſame; and certain other Proviſions have been made by Law for enforcing the ſame: And whereas a conſiderable Quantity of Barley was damaged during the late Harveſt, which cannot be made into good Malt if the ſame be continued covered with Water for the full Space of forty Hours; and it is therefore expedient to allow ſuch Barley to continue covered with Water for a leſs Space of Time, under and ſubject to certain Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions;' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, for and during the Continuance of this Act, no Maltſter or Maker of Malt for Home Conſumption, wetting ſuch damaged Barley to be made into Malt, according to the Terms and Proviſions herein-after mentioned, ſhall be deprived of the Allowance of four Buſhels in every twenty, in charging the ſaid Duties by Gauge, either in the Ciſtern or Couch, for or in reſpect of any ſuch Barley, nor ſhall be ſubject or liable to any Penalty for neglecting or refuſing to continue any ſuch Barley covered with Water for the full Space of forty Hours from the Time of its being firſt wet and covered.

No Maltſter ſhall be deprived of the Allowance of four Buſhels in twenty, for damaged Barley, nor for neglecting to continue it covered with Water for forty Hours.

II. Provided always, That no ſuch Barley ſhall be kept covered with Water for any leſs Space of Time than twenty Hours, except as hereinafter provided; and that the Maltſter or Maker of Malt for Home Conſumption, intending to make any ſuch Barley into Malt, ſhall, in the Notice in Writing required by any Act now in force to be given to the Officer of Exciſe, ſpecify that the Barley mentioned in ſuch Notice is Barley which was damaged in the late Harveſt; and the Quantity or Number of Buſhels of ſuch Barley intended to be wetted at each Steeping, and for what Number of Hours the ſame is intended to be kept covered with Water.

Such Barley ſhall be kept covered for twenty Hours at leaſt; and Notice ſhall be given to the Exciſe Officer of the Quantity, and for what Time intended to be covered.

III. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any Maltſter or Maker of Malt, having given any Notice in Writing of his Intention to wet any ſuch damaged Barley as aforeſaid to be made into Malt, ſhall not begin to wet the Barley ſpecified in ſuch Notice, and immediately proceed to cover the Whole thereof with Water at the Hour or Time mentioned in ſuch Notice or within one Hour next after the Expiration of the ſaid Hour and Time, then every ſuch Notice ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby declared to be null and void; and every ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſhall be obliged to give a freſh and like Notice before he or ſhe ſhall begin to wet any ſuch his or her damaged Barley; and no ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſhall begin to wet any ſuch damaged Barley to be made into Malt, but between the Hours of ſeven in the Morning and three in the Afternoon; and no ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſhall wet or ſteep any ſuch damaged Barley more than once in three Days; and in caſe any ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt, having given any ſuch Notice which ſhall become void, ſhall neglect or refuſe to give a freſh and like Notice, or having given ſuch Notice or Notices, and begun to wet any ſuch damaged Barley in purſuance thereof, ſhall neglect or refuſe immediately to proceed to cover the Whole thereof with Water, and to continue the ſame ſo covered, for the full Space of Time mentioned in the Notice for wetting ſuch Barley, or ſhall begin to wet any ſuch damaged Barley at any other Time than between the Hours of ſeven in the Morning and three in the Afternoon; or if any ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt, after the Officer ſhall have taken an Account of the damaged Barley in the Ciſtern, Uting-fat, or other wetting Place, ſhall add any Corn or Grain to the damaged Barley ſo wetted, or ſteeping, or ſhall wet or ſteep any ſuch damaged Barley more than once in three Days, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſo offending ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

If Maltſters do not begin to wet ſuch Barley accordingly, a freſh Notice ſhall be given. Such Barley ſhall be begun to be wetted only between ſeven in the Morning and three in the Afternoon, and none ſhall be wetted more than once in three Days; on Penalty of 100l. and the like Penalty for adding to the Quantity of Barley after the Officer has taken an Account of it.

IV. 'And whereas it may poſſibly happen that ſome of ſuch damaged Barley may be in ſuch a State as 'to float on the Surface of the Water, in the Ciſtern, Uting-fat, or other Veſſel wherein ſuch Barley 'ſhall

Barley floating on the Surface, when taken

'ſhall be wetted for the Purpoſe of making the ſame into Malt, notwithſtanding which, the ſame may, by 'couching and working, be made into Malt and it is therefore expedient to make ſuch Proviſion as is 'herein-after directed in reſpect thereof:' Be it therefore enacted, That when and ſo often as any ſuch damaged Barley ſhall float on the Surface of the Water in the Ciſtern, Uting-fat, or other Veſſel wherein ſuch Barley ſhall be wetted for the Purpoſe of making the ſame into Malt, the Maltſter or Maker of Malt to whom the ſame ſhall belong, ſhall immediately, on ſkimming or taking ſuch floating Barley from and out of ſuch Ciſtern, Uting-fat, or other Veſſel, depoſit, put, lay, and ſpread the ſame in ſome convenient Part of his Malthouſe, as near as may be to ſuch Ciſtern, Uting-fat or other Veſſel, and in ſuch a Manner and Form that the Officer of Exciſe may be enabled conveniently to take a Gauge and aſcertain the true Quantity thereof; and no ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſhall carry or remove the ſame from the Place where the ſame ſhall have been ſo depoſited, put, laid, or ſpread, until the Expiration of three Hours next after the proper Officer of Exciſe ſhall have taken a Gauge and aſcertained the Quantity thereof; and if any Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſhall neglect or refuſe to depoſit, put, lay, and ſpread ſuch floating Barley as aforeſaid, or ſhall carry or remove any ſuch Barley from the Place where the ſame ſhall have been depoſited, put, laid, or ſpread, after the Removal thereof from or out of ſuch Ciſtern, Uting-fat, or other Veſſel, either before the Officer of Exciſe ſhall have taken a Gauge and aſcertained the Quantity thereof, or after ſuch Gauge, and before the Expiration of three Hours from the Time of ſuch Gauge having been taken, then and in every ſuch Caſe the Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſo offending ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

out of the Veſſel, ſhall be ſpread ſo as that the Exciſe Officers may conveniently gauge it, and ſhall not be removed for three Hours after being gauged, on Penalty of 100l.

V. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and and for any Officer of Exciſe, and ſuch Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to take at any Time or Times a Sample or Samples, not exceeding half a Pint, out of any one Parcel or Quantity of any ſuch damaged Barley, in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any Maltſter or Maker of Malt, and wetted or intended to be wetted as aforeſaid; and in caſe any ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſhall refuſe to permit ſuch Officer or Officers to take ſuch Sample or Samples, ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſo offending ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Officers may take Samples.

Penalty of 50l. for Refuſal.

VI. Provided always nevertheleſs, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be deemed or conſtrued to extend to authorize any Officer or Officers of Exciſe to take more than two Samples from or out of any one Steeping of Barley; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Not more than two Samples ſhall be taken from one Steeping.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Maltſter and Maker of Malt, having given any Notice in Writing of his, her, or their Intention to wet any damaged Barley to be made into Malt, ſhall from Time to Time keep an Account of all the damaged Barley which he, ſhe, or they ſhall from Time to Time ſo wet or ſteep, and ſhall from Time to Time enter into a Book, or on a Paper, to be kept for that Purpoſe, an Account of the ſeveral Quantities or Numbers of Buſhels of ſuch Barley wetted or ſteeped by him, her, or them, to be made into Malt under or by virtue of this Act, the Time when each ſuch Quantity was wetted, and the Time or Number of Hours the ſame was kept in ſteep, and ſhall, at the End of every ſix Weeks, or oftener if required, by the proper Collector or Surviſor of Exciſe, deliver ſuch Book or Paper to the proper Collector or Surviſor of Exciſe, and at the ſame Time verify on Oath the Truth of the Entries made therein; and alſo, that the Whole of the ſeveral Quantities of Barley ſpecified in ſuch Account was damaged during the late Harveſt (which Oath ſuch reſpective Collectors and Surviſors are hereby authorized to adminiſter); and if any ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſhall neglect or refuſe to keep any ſuch Account as aforeſaid, or to make any ſuch Entry or Entries as aforeſaid, or to deliver ſuch Book or Paper to the proper Collector or Surviſor of Exciſe in Manner herein-before directed, or to verify on Oath, the ſeveral Matters and Things herein-before required, and in Manner herein-before directed, or ſhall make any falſe Entry in any ſuch Book or Paper, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſo offending ſhall, for each and every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and if any ſuch Maltſter or Maker of Malt ſhall be convicted of wilfully taking a falſe Oath, in any Caſe in which an Oath is required by virtue of this Act, he, ſhe, or they ſhall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Perſons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

An Account of damaged Barley wetted to be made into Malt, ſhall be kept and delivered every ſix Weeks to the Officer, being verified on Oath, &c. on Penalty of 100l.

Maltſters taking falſe Oaths, guilty of Perjury.

"Penalty of 100l. for obſtructing Officers in the Execution of this Act. § 8. Penalties to be recovered "and applied as under the Exciſe Laws, Half to the King, and Half to the Informer. § 9. Continuance "of Act till March 25, 1801."

CAP. IX.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor. [8th December 1800.]

22 Geo. 3. c. 83. § 7. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor, the Justices of the Peace are empowered to appoint one Guardian, and no more, for each Parish desirous of being regulated according to the Provisions of the said Act: And whereas in many Parishes, by reason of their Extent and Population, one such Guardian is not found to be sufficient for the Performance of the Duties thereby required:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if in any Parish which shall have adopted the Provisions of the said Act, either alone or in conjunction with any other Parish, it shall be the Opinion of two Thirds in Number and Value of the Owners or Occupiers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, qualified as by the said Act is required, who shall be present at a Publick Meeting to be called for that Purpose, pursuant to Notice thereof given in the Church or Chapel of the said Parish, on the Sunday preceding, that one Guardian is insufficient for carrying into due Execution the Provisions of the said Act, and the same shall be certified by two or more of the Persons present at such Meeting, in Writing under their Hands, to two or more Justices of the Peace acting for the District or Division within which such Parish shall be situate, together with the Names of four or more fit and proper Persons qualified for the Office of Guardian as by the said Act is required, it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices, by Writing under their Hands, according to the Form prescribed in the Schedule to the said Act, to appoint such and so many of the said Persons to be Guardians of the Poor within such Parish, as they in their Discretion shall think fit, and as shall be necessary for duly carrying the Purposes of the said Act into Execution.

Two Justices of the District may appoint additional Guardians of the Poor, under recited Act, on its being certified, in Manner herein directed, that one is insufficient.

II. 'And whereas by the said Act the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor are directed to pay to the Guardians of the Poor in Parishes not united, and to the Treasurer in Parishes united as therein mentioned, such Sums as may be necessary for the Support of the Poor in Manner therein mentioned, and the Guardians are also directed to pay to the Treasurer of the Poor House the Sums required for the Maintenance and Support thereof, which in Default of Payment may be levied by Warrant of Distress and Sale of the Goods of such Guardians, under the Hand of a Justice of the Peace; but no Provision is made to enforce the Payment of the Monies directed to be paid by the Churchwardens and Overseers aforesaid:' Be it further enacted, That it shall and may lawful for the Guardians of the Poor present at a Monthly Meeting held according to the Directions of the said Act, with the Approbation of the Visitor, who shall sign the same, to make an Order on the Churchwardens or Overseers, or Collector of the Poor's Rates, some or one of them, for so much Money as shall be necessary for the Purposes of the said Act; and if the Churchwardens or Overseers, or Person or Persons to whom the Order shall be directed, shall neglect or refuse to pay the same to the Treasurer or Guardian to whom the same is made payable, within seven Days after it shall be demanded, it shall be lawful for any Justice of Peace within the Division or District, upon Proof made on Oath of such Default, to issue his Warrant for levying the said Sums by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the said Churchwardens and Overseers, or other Person or Persons, in like Manner as by the said Act is provided in case of Non-payment by the Guardians of the Poor.

Guardians of the Poor, at Monthly Meetings, with Approbation of the Visitor, may make an Order on the Churchwardens or Overseers, &c. for such Money as shall be necessary for the Purposes of recited Act. [See § 8. of that Act.]

In Default of Payment, Justices may levy it by Distress.

III. 'And whereas by the said Act no Provision is made for the Appointment of a Treasurer, in the Case of a single Parish adopting the Regulations of the said Act, although from its Population it may be found necessary and convenient;' be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any two Justices for the District or Division within which any such Parish shall be situate, to whom the Expediency of such Appointment shall be made appear, by Application from two Thirds in Number and Value of the Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, qualified as by the said Act is directed, to appoint a Treasurer for the Poor House of such Parish, with a Salary not exceeding ten Pounds, according to the Form prescribed in the Schedule to the said Act, in the Case of United Parishes.

Two Justices may, on Application, appoint a Treasurer for a single Parish, with a Salary not exceeding 10*l*.

[See 22 Geo. 3. c. 83. § 12.] "Persons aggrieved may appeal to the next Quarter Sessions [as under § 46. of 22 Geo. 3. c. 83.] § 4. "Public Act. § 5."

CAP. X.

An Act for granting Bounties on the Importation of Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Pease, Beans, and Indian Corn, and of Barley, Rye, Oat and Indian Meal, and Wheaten Flour and Rice. [15th December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Encouragement should be given, for a limited Time, to the Importation into this Kingdom of Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Pease, Beans, and Indian Corn, and of Barley, Rye, Oat and Indian Meal, and of Wheaten Flour and Rice:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice

Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt Day of December one thouſand eight hundred, and until the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, there ſhall be paid and allowed upon all Foreign Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, and Indian Corn, and Meal of any ſuch Corn, or Grain, and upon all Peaſe and Beans, and Wheaten Flour and Rice, imported or brought into this Kingdom before the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, in Britiſh Ships or Veſſels, or in Ships or Veſſels belonging to Perſons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majeſty, however the ſame may be navigated, the ſeveral and reſpective Bounties herein-after mentioned, and ſuch reſpective Bounties ſhall be payable and paid upon the ſeveral Terms and Conditions herein-after particularly and reſpectively ſet forth as to each of ſuch Articles.

Bounties ſhall be paid, from Dec. 1, 1800, until Oct. 1, 1801, on Foreign Wheat, &c. imported in Britiſh Veſſels, or Veſſels belonging to States in Amity with His Majeſty.

II. And be it further enacted, That the ſeveral and reſpective Bounties granted by this Act upon Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, and Beans, and upon the Meal of Barley, Rye, and Oats reſpectively, ſhall be regulated and paid according to the reſpective Average Prices, aſcertained according to the Proviſions of this Act, of Foreign Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, and Beans in London, which ſhall be publiſhed in the London Gazette in the Third Week after the Entry of the Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, or Beans, or any ſuch Meal as aforeſaid, upon which any Bounty is claimed under this Act.

Bounties ſhall be regulated according to the Average Prices in the Gazette, the Third Week after Entry of the Articles.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of December, there ſhall be paid and allowed on every Quarter of Foreign Wheat, weighing four hundred and twenty four Pounds Weight Avoirdupois or upwards, which ſhall be imported into Great Britain, a Bounty equal to the Sum by which the ſaid Average Price of Foreign Wheat in London, publiſhed in the London Gazette in the Third Week after the Importation of ſuch Wheat, ſhall be leſs than one hundred Shillings per Quarter; on every Quarter of Foreign Barley, weighing three hundred and fifty-two Pounds Weight Avoirdupois or upwards, which ſhall be imported as aforeſaid, a Bounty equal to the Sum by which the Average Price of Foreign Barley in London, publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be leſs than fifty Shillings per Quarter; on every Quarter of Foreign Rye, weighing four hundred and eight Pounds Weight Avoirdupois, which ſhall be imported as aforeſaid, a Bounty equal to the Sum by which the Average Price of Foreign Rye in London, publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be leſs than ſixty-five Shillings per Quarter; on every Quarter of Foreign Oats, weighing two hundred and ſixty-four Pounds Weight Avoirdupois or upwards, which ſhall be imported as aforeſaid, a Bounty equal to the Sum by which the Average Price of Foreign Oats in London, publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be leſs than forty Shillings per Quarter; on every Quarter of Foreign Peaſe which ſhall be imported as aforeſaid, a Bounty equal to the Sum by which the Average Price of Foreign Peaſe in London, publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be leſs than ſeventy-five Shillings per Quarter; and on every Quarter of Foreign Beans which ſhall be imported as aforeſaid, a Bounty equal to the Sum by which the Average Price of Foreign Beans in London, publiſhed as aforeſaid, ſhall be leſs than fifty Shillings per Quarter.

Bounties on Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, and Beans.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the firſt Day of December one thouſand eight hundred, there ſhall be paid and allowed upon all Foreign Wheaten Flour, (other than and except American Flour,) and upon all Foreign Barley Meal, Rye Meal, and Oat Meal, imported as aforeſaid, ſuch and the like Bounties in every Reſpect as are by this Act before granted on Foreign Wheat, Barley, Rye, and Oats reſpectively; and that for the Purpoſe of aſcertaining and eſtimating the ſaid Bounties, two hundred and eighty Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of all Foreign Flour, upon which any Bounty is payable under this Act, (other than and except American as aforeſaid,) ſhall be deemed equal to one Quarter of Wheat, and one hundred and ninety-ſix Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of ſuch Barley Meal ſhall be deemed equal to one Quarter of Barley, and two hundred and twenty-four Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of ſuch Rye Meal ſhall be deemed equal to one Quarter of Rye, and one hundred and ſeventy-ſix Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of Oat Meal ſhall be deemed equal to one Quarter of Oats.

Bounties on Wheaten Flour, (except American,) Barley Meal, Rye Meal, and Oat Meal.

V. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be entitled to any of the Bounties allowed by this Act on any Corn, Grain, Pulſe, Meal, Flour, or Rice, unleſs the ſame ſhall be imported or brought reſpectively into ſome Port where there is a Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms, or into any other Port that ſhall be approved of by his Majeſty with the Advice of his Privy Council.

No Bounties ſhall be allowed, unleſs the Articles are brought to a Port where there is a Collector, &c.

VI. 'And, in order that the Average Prices of Foreign Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, and Beans, 'may be aſcertained and publiſhed, for the Purpoſes of this Act, in the City and Port of London;' be it further enacted, That every Corn Factor, or Importer of Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, carrying on his Trade or Buſineſs in the City of London, or in the Suburbs thereof, ſhall, within Seven Days after the paſſing of this Act, or after that Time, within three Days from the Time he ſhall begin to deal in the Sale of Foreign Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, make Declaration in the Form following; (that is to ſay,)

Every Corn Factor in London or the Suburbs, ſhall make the following Declaration,

'I A. B. do hereby declare, That the Returns of the Quantities and Prices of Foreign Corn, Grain, and Pulſe, which ſhall have been examined and certified as merchantable, and of the reſpective Weights 'per Quarter mentioned in an Act of the forty-firſt Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, [here inſert the 'Title of the Act,] and which henceforward ſhall be by or for me ſold and and delivered during the Con'tinuance of the ſaid Act, ſhall, to the beſt of my Knowledge and Belief, contain the whole Quantity, 'and no more, of the ſaid Foreign Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, bonâ fide ſold and delivered by or for me, 'within the Period to which they ſhall refer, with the Prices of ſuch Corn, and the names of the Owner

'or Owners, Conſignee or Conſignees thereof, and Buyers thereof reſpectively; and alſo the Names 'of the Perſons who ſhall have certified the ſame together with the Date of ſuch Certificate; and 'that I will not in any Caſe return any Prices or Quantities more than once for the ſame Corn, 'Grain, or Pulſe, to the beſt of my Knowledge and Judgement, conformable to the Directions of the 'ſaid Act.'

which ſhall be delivered to the Lord Mayor, and regiſtered by the Inſpector of Corn Returns. Penalty for not making the Declaration 50l.

Which Declaration ſhall be in Writing, and ſhall be ſubſcribed with the Hand of ſuch Corn Factor, or Importer of Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, and ſhall be by him or his Agent forthwith delivered to the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being, who is hereby required to grant a Certificate thereof, without any Fee being paid or payable for the ſame, to be regiſtered by the Inſpector of Corn Returns; and in caſe any Perſon ſhall carry on the Trade or Buſineſs of a Corn Factor or Importer without making the ſaid Declaration agreeably to the Directions of this Act, every ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Corn Factors ſhall make Weekly Returns to the Inſpector of Corn Returns, of the Quantities of Foreign Corn ſold, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every ſuch Corn Factor and Importer ſhall and he is hereby required to return or cauſe to be returned, on the Wedneſday Morning, before the Hour of Twelve in the Forenoon, in each and every Week, to the ſaid Inſpector of Corn Returns, at his Office, an Account in Writing, in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, ſigned with his own Name, or the Name of his known Agent, of the Quantities of each reſpective Sort of Foreign Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, that ſhall have been ſo examined and certified as aforeſaid, and by him ſold and delivered during the Week immediately preceding ſuch Wedneſday, reckoning ſuch Week from Sunday to Sunday, with the Prices thereof, and the Amount of every Parcel, with the total Quantity and Value of each Sort of Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, with the Names of the Owner or Owners, Conſignee or Conſignees thereof, and Buyers thereof, and the Names of the Perſons who ſhall have certified the ſame, together with the Date of ſuch Certificate; and every ſuch Corn Factor or Importer ſhall, for every ſuch Neglect therein, and every Omiſſion in any ſuch Return, and every falſe Particular in any ſuch Return, either as to Quantities, Prices, or Names of Buyers, forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty for Neglect 20l.

Inſpector ſhall enter the Accounts which ſhall not be made publick without Authority, on Penalty of 10l.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Inſpector of Corn Returns ſhall duly and regularly enter into a Book or Books, to be provided and kept for that Purpoſe, the ſeveral Accounts of Quantities and Prices of Foreign Corn, Grain, and Pulſe, received by him from the reſpective Corn Factors or Importers, and the ſame ſhall not be made publick or ſhewn by the ſaid Inſpector, or with his Privity or Conſent, to any Perſon whatſoever, unleſs the ſame ſhall be called for or required by the Receiver of Corn Returns, or ſhall, be required by any Order in Writing under the Hand of the Lord Mayor, or any two of the Aldermen of the ſaid City, or the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or any two or more of them, under the Penalty and Forfeiture of the Sum of ten Pounds.

Inſpector ſhall make up Weekly Accounts of the aggregate Quantity and Price of each Sort returned, and keep Entries of Returns as certified for Bounties, &c. diſtinct from thoſe under 31 Geo. 3. c. 30. and ſhall tranſmit the Average Prices every Friday to the Receiver of Corn Returns, who ſhall tranſmit a Certificate thereof to the Collector of the Cuſtoms in London.

Such Certificate ſhall be publiſhed in the Gazette every Saturday, and tranſmitted to the Collectors at the other Ports.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Inſpector of Corn Returns ſhall, and he is hereby required, every Week, to make up, compute, and diſtinguiſh, from the Returns by him received purſuant to the Directions of this Act, in that Week, the general aggregate Quantity and the Price of each reſpective Sort of Foreign Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, that ſhall have been returned as examined and certified, and ſold and delivered in and during the Week for which ſuch Returns ſhall have been made as aforeſaid, in the City of London and Suburbs thereof; and ſhall keep in a diſtinct Book the Entries of all Returns of Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, that ſhall have been returned as certified for the Purpoſe of Bounties being paid thereon under this Act, from all other Foreign Corn returned to ſuch Inſpector, under an Act paſſed in the thirty-firſt Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign; and the ſaid Inſpector of Corn Returns ſhall make up and compute the Average Prices of each reſpeective Sort of ſuch Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, ſold and delivered during ſuch Week, from ſuch Corn, Grain, or Pulſe only as ſhall have been certified for the Purpoſe of Bounties being paid thereon, purſuant to the Proviſions of this Act; and he is hereby directed, on the Friday in every Week, to tranſmit a Copy of the Account of the ſaid Average Prices to the Receiver of Corn Returns, who is hereby required to enter the ſame in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpoſe, and forthwith to tranſmit a Certificate of ſuch Average Prices of each reſpective Sort of Foreign Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, ſigned by him, to his Majeſty's Collector or other Chief Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port of London, and cauſe a Copy thereof to be hung up in ſome publick Place in the Cuſtom Houſe, to which all Perſons may reſort; and the Payment of the Bounties herein-before granted ſhall be governed and regulated by ſuch Average Prices, in the Manner herein-before directed, until new Average Prices ſhall be made up and computed in Manner by this Act directed; and ſuch Receiver of Corn Returns ſhall alſo cauſe the ſame to be publiſhed in the London Gazette on every Saturday Night, and ſhall alſo tranſmit the ſame to the ſeveral and reſpective Collectors or other Chief Officers of the Cuſtoms at the ſeveral Ports in this Act deſcribed, and the ſaid reſpective Collectors and other Chief Officers are hereby required to receive and enter the ſame in a Book or Books to be kept for that Purpoſe, and to cauſe a Copy thereof to be hung up in ſome publick Place in the Cuſtom Houſe thereto belonging, to which all Perſons may reſort; and the Payment of the ſaid Bounties, at every ſuch Port, ſhall be governed and regulated by ſuch Average Prices, in Manner herein-before directed, until new Average Prices ſhall in like Manner be made up and computed, and a Certificate thereof ſhall be tranſmitted to ſuch Collectors or Chief Officers reſpectively, and be by them received.

Bounty upon Wheaten Flour imported from America.

X. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes where any Wheaten Flour imported into this Kingdom from America before the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, being of the uſual Quality of Superfine Wheaten Flour, ſhall not, upon the firſt publick Sale thereof by Auction in this Kingdom, made Importers of Wheaten Flour and Rice ſhall give fourteen Days previous publick Notice of Sales, and like Notice to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, &c. who ſhall appoint a Perſon to attend to certify the Prices, &c.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Importer or Importers, or Perſon or Perſons acting in his or her Behalf, in the Importation of any ſuch Wheaten Flour and Rice reſpectively, ſhall, within forty-two Days after the Importation thereof, give or cauſe to be given, Notice by public Advertiſement, fourteen Days at the leaſt previous to the Day of Sale of ſuch Wheaten Flour and Rice reſpectively, ſpecifying the Time and Place of Sale, and the Quantity intended to be ſold, and ſhall alſo give or cauſe to be given a ſimilar Notice in Writing, fourteen Days at the leaſt previous to the Day of Sale of ſuch Wheaten Flour and Rice reſpectively, to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, if in London, or if not in London, to the Collector and Comptroller of the Port into which the ſame ſhall have been imported; and ſuch Commiſſioners, Collector, or Comptroller reſpectively, are hereby reſpectively required to appoint ſome Officer or other Perſon to attend ſuch Sale, in order that ſuch Officer or other Perſon may certify to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Collector and Comptroller, the Prices at which ſuch Wheaten Flour and Rice reſpectively ſhall be bonâ fide publicly ſold, and the Quantities thereof, together with the State and Condition of the Whole, according to the Certificate of the Perſons who ſhall be appointed to inſpect the ſame under the Authority of this Act.

Perſons claiming Bounties ſhall make Proof on Oath that the Sales were bonâ fide Sales.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That before any Bounty ſhall be paid on any Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, Beans, Indian Corn, or any Meal, or any Wheaten Flour or Rice, under the Regulations of this Act, the Perſon or Perſons claiming Bounty thereon ſhall make Proof on Oath before the principal Officers of the Cuſtoms at the Port of Importation, of the Day of the Sale of ſuch Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Indian Corn, or Meal thereof, or of ſuch Peaſe or Beans, and that the Sale of ſuch Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, Beans, and Indian Corn and Maize, and Wheaten Flour and Rice reſpectively, was a fair and bonâ fide Sale, and that there was not any Fraud or Colluſion in the Sale of any ſuch Articles reſpectively, for the Purpoſes of obtaining the Bounties thereon.

How Bounty on Rice imported from the East Indies ſhall be paid.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Bounty by this Act granted upon Rice imported into this Kingdom from the Eaſt Indies ſhall be paid to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, for the Purpoſe of being paid over by the ſaid Company to ſuch Importer or Importers of ſuch Rice, as ſhall be entitled thereto.

XIX. And

Bounties ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Bounties ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, and ſhall be paid out of any Monies in their Hands ariſing by any of the Duties or Revenues under their Management reſpectively, to the reſpective Importers or Conſignees of ſuch Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, Beans, or Indian Corn, or of ſuch Meal or Wheaten Flour and Rice reſpectively: Provided always, That a due Entry ſhall be made with the proper Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port into which ſuch Articles ſhall be imported: Provided alſo, That the Collector or other proper Officer of the Cuſtoms of the Port where ſuch Articles ſhall be imported, do receive full and ſatisfactory Proof that the Article for which any Bounty herein allowed is claimed is wholly and entirely without Mixture of any other Corn or Grain; and that in Default thereof, the ſaid Bounties on any of them ſhall not, nor ſhall any of them be allowed or paid.

Entry to be made at the Port of Importation, and Proof given that the Articles are free from Mixture.

Articles imported ſhall be inſpected by the Officers of the Cuſtoms and two ſkilful Perſons, who are to certify whether they are fit for making Bread, &c. [See poſt. c. 19. that all Foreign Corn whatever muſt be inſpected, whether the Bounty be claimed or not.]

XX. And be it further enacted, That before any Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, Beans, Indian Corn, or Meal made of Barley, Rye, Oats, or Indian Corn, or Wheat Flour or Rice imported or brought into this Kingdom for Bounty, under the Regulations of this Act, ſhall be delivered out of the Charge o the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms of the Port where the ſame ſhall be reſpectively ſo imported or brought, ſuch Articles reſpectively ſhall be carefully and attentively inſpected and examined, and ſuch Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, and Indian Corn and Maize, weighed, by ſuch Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms as the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively ſhall think fit to direct for that Duty, and two indifferent and diſintereſted Perſons, experienced in the Nature of the Article to be ſo inſpected and examined; which two indifferent and diſintereſted Perſons ſhall be appointed for that Purpoſe by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England for the Port of London, and by the Collector and Comptroller or other Head Officer in any other Port of Importation deſcribed in this Act, in England or Scotland reſpectively, ſubject nevertheleſs in every ſuch Caſe to the Controul and Approbation, Confirmation or Removal, of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons appointed in any ſuch Port or Ports aforeſaid, by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, whenever they ſhall think fit; which ſaid Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms, and two indifferent and diſintereſted Perſons ſo choſen as aforeſaid, ſhall, upon having viewed the ſame, and having weighed ſuch Quantities and Proportions of any Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, or Indian Corn and Maize, as they may think ſufficient for aſcertaining the Average Weight thereof, certify and declare, upon their corporal Oaths firſt adminiſtered in the Port of London by ſome Perſon authorized by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for that Purpoſe, and in the Outports by the Collector, or in his Abſence, by the Comptroller or other principal Officer of the Cuſtoms at the Port where ſuch Articles ſhall be imported, (who are hereby authorized and required to adminiſter the ſame,) whether the ſaid Articles reſpectively are or are not merchantable, and whether any ſuch Wheaten Flour is fit for making Bread, and alſo the Weight of ſuch Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, and Indian Corn and Maize reſpectively; and ſuch Officers and Perſons reſpectively are hereby required to grant ſuch Certificate upon all Corn, Grain, Pulſe, Flour, and Meal, that ſhall by them have been deemed merchantable and in good Condition as aforeſaid, within two Days after the ſame ſhall have been inſpected by them as aforeſaid; and if the ſame ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate to be merchantable, and of the reſpective Weights required by this Act, where ſuch Weights are in this Act ſpecified, and ſuch Wheaten Flour ſhall appear to be fit for making Bread, the Bounties reſpectively granted by this Act ſhall be paid and allowed thereon; but if the ſame ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate not to be merchantable, or ſuch Wheaten Flour not fit for making Bread, no Bounty granted by this Act ſhall be paid or allowed thereon.

Samples may be taken in order to aſcertain the Condition of the Articles.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any ſuch Officers or Perſon or Perſons ſo appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall have any Doubt as to the State and Condition of any ſuch Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, or Indian Corn or Maize, or any Meal of any ſuch Corn as aforeſaid, or of any Wheaten Flour, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Officers or Perſon or Perſons aforeſaid, to take a Sample thereof, not exceeding a Buſhel of any ſuch Corn, or a Peck of any ſuch Meal or Wheaten Flour, upon Payment of the reaſonable Value thereof, according to the laſt Average Price of ſuch Article, for the Purpoſe of grinding any ſuch Corn into Flour or Meal, and making Bread thereof, or making Bread of any ſuch Meal or Wheaten Flour, in order thereby to aſcertain the State and Condition of the ſame, and whether the ſame is fit for making Bread.

Recompence to be made to the Inſpectors.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid indifferent and diſintereſted Perſons ſo choſen by the ſaid Commiſſioners and principal Officers reſpectively to inſpect and examine the ſaid Articles, ſhall from Time to Time be paid by an Order of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland, or any Three or more of them, out of any Monies in their Hands, ariſing by any of the Duties or Revenues under their Management reſpectively, the following Sums, by way of Recompence or Reward for their Trouble in ſo inſpecting, examining and certifying, (that is to ſay,) the Sum of one Penny per Quarter for all Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, or two hundred and eighty Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of Rice, inſpected, and examined and certified by them as aforeſaid, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity, and the Sum of one Penny per Barrel of all Wheaten Flour inſpected, and examined and certified by them as aforeſaid, and ſo in Proportion for any greater or leſs Quantity.

Foreign Wheat, &c. arriving not in a merchantable State, may be warehouſed, and for ſuch as ſhall become

XXIII. 'And whereas it may happen that Foreign Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, Beans, and 'Indian Corn and Maize, imported into this Kingdom, may arrive heated and not in a merchantable State 'and Condition;' be it therefore enacted, That in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the Owner or Conſignee thereof, to depoſit the ſame in ſome Warehouſe to be approved of by the Collector, or in his Abſence the Controller or other Head Officer of the Cuſtoms in the Port where ſuch Corn, Grain or Pulſe, ſhall be imported, under the Joint Locks of his Majeſty and ſuch Owner or Conſignee; and the Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in the Town or Port where any ſuch Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, ſhall be depoſited, ſhall at all ſeaſonable Times in the Day Time permit the Owner or Conſignee of ſuch Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, by his, her, or their Servants, to inſpect, examine, and turn ſuch Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, and take all proper Steps for the reſtoring the ſame to a merchantable Condition; and the Owner or Conſignee of all ſuch Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, that ſhall, after any ſuch Caſe as aforeſaid, become merchantable, and ſhall be certified as ſuch in Manner by this Act directed, ſhall be entitled to the Bounties by this Act granted, in like Manner in every Reſpect as if the ſame had arrived in good and merchantable State, and ſuch Bounty ſhall be payable and paid according to the Average Prices publiſhed in the London Gazette in the third Week after the Article upon which any ſuch Bounty ſhall be claimed ſhall have been certified as aforeſaid.

" Veſſels arriving at a Port where the Bounty is not allowed, may ſail to one where it is. § 24."

XXV. And be it further enacted, That in caſe any of the ſaid Articles herein enumerated and deſcribed ſhall be ſo imported or brought from any of the Ports or Places herein mentioned, into any of the the reſpective Ports herein alſo enumerated, ſubſequent to the Time limited by this Act, but before the fifteenth Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in England and Scotland reſpectively, to order the Bounty or Bounties reſpectively to be paid thereon, in like Manner as if the ſaid Articles had been imported within the Time limited by this Act; provided Proof ſhall be made to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners reſpectively, that the Ships or Veſſels, on board of which reſpectively ſuch Articles ſhall be ſo imported or brought, actually and bonâ fide ſet Sail from ſuch reſpective Ports or Places for Great Britain, in ſuch Time as they might in the ordinary Courſe of their Voyage, have arrived in Great Britain before the ſaid firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, and Proof ſhall alſo be given and Entry ſhall be made, and the Articles inſpected and examined, and certified, in like Manner as is required by this Act, to authorize the Payment of Bounty on the ſaid Articles imported within the Time limited by this Act: Provided always, That nothing in this Clauſe contained ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend, to any Rice imported into this Kingdom, in any Ship or Veſſel that ſhall have cleared out from any Port in the Eaſt Indies before the firſt Day of September one thouſand eight hundred and one, and that the Bounties by this Act granted on all ſuch Rice ſhall be payable and paid upon all Rice imported in any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, in every Caſe where the Voyage ſhall have been performed according to the Regulations that ſhall have been entered into with the Court of Directors of the ſaid Company in reſpect of ſuch Voyage.

Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms may pay Bounties on Articles imported before October 15, 1801, on Proof of the Veſſels having ſailed at ſuch Times that they might, in the ordinary Courſe of Voyages, have arrived before October 1.

Bounty on Rice cleared out in the Eaſt Indies, before September 1, 1801, ſhall be paid where the Voyage ſhall have been performed, according to the Agreement with the Directors.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Forfeitures created and Penalties inflicted by this Act, for Offences committed in England and Scotland reſpectively, ſhall and may be ſued for, proſecuted, and recovered, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh, reſpectively, in ſuch Manner, and by ſuch Ways, Means, and Methods, as Penalties inflicted or Forfeitures created in England and Scotland reſpectively, for any Offences againſt the Laws of Cuſtoms may now be legally ſued for, proſecuted, and recovered, and the Produce diſpoſed of in like Manner and applied to the like Uſes and Purpoſes, unleſs otherwiſe ſpecially provided for by this Act.

Recovery and Application of Forfeitures.

XXVII. Provided always, That any Penalty or Forfeiture inflicted by this Act on any Cornfactor or Importer, or on any Inſpector of Corn Returns, may be ſued for and recovered before any two Juſtices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, or Town, where ſuch Cornfactor or Importer, or Inſpector of Corn Returns, ſhall reſide; and ſuch two Juſtices ſhall, and they are hereby authorized and required, if upon due Proof and Examination of the Matter it ſhall appear to them that ſuch Cornfactor or Importer, or Inſpector of Corn Returns, is guilty of the Offence againſt this Act then alledged againſt him, to convict him thereof, and by Warrant under their Hands and Seals to levy ſuch Penalty by Diſtreſs and Sale of his Goods and Chattels; and ſuch Penalty ſhall be applied in Manner herein-before mentioned.

Penalties on Cornfactors, Importers, or Inſpectors of Corn Returns, may be ſued for before two Juſtices.

XXVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That no Bill, Plaint, or Information, ſhall be brought or ſued forth in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, for any Offence againſt this Statute, in Caſes where ſuch Offences are by this Act cognizable by Juſtices of the Peace relating to the ſame Offences, or any Forfeitures or Penalties for the ſame, but that the Determination of the Juſtices of the Peace in the County where ſuch Offence or Offences ſhall be committed, ſhall be final to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

No Action ſhall be brought in any Court of Record for any Offence cognizable by Juſtices; whoſe Determination ſhall be final.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing by him, her, or them done, by virtue or in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be commenced within three Months next after the Matter or Thing done, and ſhall be laid in the proper County, and the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action or Suit ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if afterwards a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Actions, or be nonſuited, or Judgment ſhall be given againſt him, her, or them upon Demurrer or otherwiſe, then ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts awarded to him, her, or them, againſt ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

CAP. XI.

An Act to permit, until the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, the Importation of Herrings and other Fiſh, the Produce of the Fiſhery carried on in Nova Scotia, New Brunſwick, Newfoundland, and on the Coaſt of Labrador, into this Kingdom, without Payment of Duty. [15th December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient, under the preſent Circumſtances, to permit, for a limited Time, the 'Importation of Herrings and other Fiſh, the Produce of the Fiſhery carried on in Nova Scotia, 'New Brunſwick, Newfoundland, and on the Coaſt of Labrador, into Great Britain, in Britiſh-built 'Ships, owned, navigated, and regiſtered according to Law, without Payment of Duty;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatever, to import into Great Britain from Nova Scotia, New Brunſwick, Newfoundland, and from the Coaſt of Labrador, in any Britiſh-built Ship, owned, navigated, and regiſtered according to Law, any Herrings or other Fiſh, the Produce of the ſaid Fiſhery, without the Payment of any Duty whatever; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Herrings and other Fiſh may be imported from Nova Scotia, &c. in Britiſh-built Veſſels, without Payment of Duty.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That a due Entry ſhall be made of all ſuch Herrings and other Fiſh that ſhall be imported by virtue of this Act, with the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms at the Port into which the ſame ſhall be imported; and, in Default thereof, the ſame ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms.

Entry of ſuch Herrings, &c. ſhall be made with the proper Officers of the Cuſtoms.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue in force until the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one.

Continuance of Act till October 1, 1801.

CAP. XII.

An Act for making better Proviſion for the Maintenance of the Poor, and for diminiſhing the Conſumption of Bread Corn, by directing the Manner of applying Pariſh Relief; until the ſixth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred and one, and from from thence until the End of ſix Weeks after the Meeting of the then next Seſſion of Parliament. [22d December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Proviſion ſhould be made for the better Adminiſtration of Parochial Relief, and for the Subſiſtence and Support of the Poor, during the preſent high Price of Proviſions: And whereas the Introduction of certain Articles of Food, at reaſonable Prices, will materially contribute to that End, and will leſſen the Number and Extent of the Applications for Parochial Relief, whereby the preſent Burthens on the Perſons contributing to the Parochial Rates may be decreaſed:' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace, acting for each Diviſion and Place in England, ſhall, as ſoon after the Paſſing of this Act as conveniently can be done, and ſo from Time to Time, meet together at Special or Petty Seſſions to be held within the Diviſions or Places for which they reſpectively act, and at ſuch Meetings ſhall take into Conſideration the State and Circumſtances of all the reſpective Pariſhes and Places within the Limits aforeſaid, and the Nature, Quality, and Prices of the different Kinds of Proviſions, uſually conſumed by the poor Perſons who have applied or are likely to apply for Parochial Relief, on Account of the preſent Scarcity and high Price of Corn, or for other Cauſes; and alſo the Quality and Prices of any other Articles of wholeſome and nutritious Food, which might be procured for the Uſe of ſuch Perſons at reaſonable Prices; and the Means of procuring the ſame, whereby the Conſumption of Bread or Bread Corn, in general Uſe within thoſe Pariſhes and Places, may be leſſened, and the State and Condition of the Poor, and particularly of ſuch as have Families of young Children, may be bettered; and the ſaid Juſtices reſpectively ſhall call before them the reſpective Overſeers of the Poor of the ſeveral Pariſhes, Townſhips, and Places, within ſuch Diviſion or Place, and alſo may call before them any other Perſons of the ſame Diviſion or Place, from whom any uſeful or neceſſary Information reſpecting the Matters aforeſaid can be obtained, or may require the Inſpection of any Books or Papers of a publick Nature; and may, when neceſſary, adjourn themſelves from Time to Time, each Adjournment being for not more than the Space of ſeven Days, until the ſeveral Proviſions of this Act be fully executed.

Juſtices in England ſhall from Time to Time meet and take in o conſideration the State and Circumſtances of the Pariſhes within their reſpective Juriſdictions, and the Nature, Quality, and Prices of the Proviſions conſumed by the Poor, and the Quality and Prices of Subſtitutes for Bread, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace, or any two or more of them, aſſembled as aforeſaid, and they are hereby reſpectively required (unleſs they ſee ſufficient Cauſe to the contrary) upon due Conſideration, by any Writing under the Hands and Seals of any two or more of them, to order and direct the Overſeer or Overſeers of the Poor, of every or any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, within the reſpective Diviſions and Places for which they act, within a Time or Times to be fixed in ſuch Order, to provide a ſufficient Stock of Proviſions, towards the Support and Maintenance of the Perſons to whom Parochial Relief ſhall be given, to be adminiſtered to them, either upon Sale thereof at reaſonable Prices, or by the Diſtribution thereof in lieu of a certain Portion of the Relief to be given, according to the Directions herein-after provided; and to limit and appoint the Kind, Quantity, and Quality of each and every Article of Food to be ſo provided; which Articles may conſiſt, at the Diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtices, of any Kind or Sort of wholeſome and nutritious Food, mixed with each other, or unmixed (other than and except Bread made wholly of Wheat or Wheaten Flour, and other than and except the Kind or Kinds of Bread in common Uſe, in ordinary Times, within the reſpective Pariſhes and Places to which ſuch Orders ſhall relate); and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall alſo have Authority, whenever they ſhall think fit, to appoint a proper Perſon or Perſons to prepare, keep, and ſell or diſtribute, from Time to Time, ſuch Articles of Food as ſhall have been provided by ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, in purſuance of ſuch Order, for whoſe Labour and Care ſuch Reward ſhall be paid, or Compenſation made, as ſhall be agreed upon between ſuch Perſon and ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, with the Conſent and Approbation of the ſaid Juſtices.

Two Juſtices may order the Overſeers to provide a Stock of Proviſions to be adminiſtered, in lieu of Wheaten Bread, as Parochial Relief, and may appoint the Kind, Quantity, and Quality of the Articles, and a Perſon to prepare, keep, ſell, or diſtribute the ſame, who ſhall be paid for his Trouble.

III. And be it further enacted, That in every Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place for which ſuch Order as aforeſaid ſhall be made, the ſaid Juſtices ſhall, at their Special or Petty Seſſions, preſcribe general Rules and Regulations for the Guidance of the Overſeer and Overſeers in the Application of the Stock of Proviſions ſo ordered, giving Notice thereof to the reſpective Overſeers of the Poor, in ſuch Manner as they in their Diſcretion ſhall judge convenient; and may from Time to Time alter and amend the ſaid Rules and Regulations, at Special or Petty Seſſions, as to them ſhall ſeem meet, giving Notice of ſuch Alteration or Amendment as aforeſaid; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall further, in every ſuch Caſe, direct and order, that in every Caſe where Relief ſhall have been or ſhall be ordered to be given, or ſhall be allowed to any poor Perſon, or to or in reſpect of his or her Family, or any Part thereof, a certain Portion of ſuch Relief, not exceeding the Portion herein-after mentioned, ſhall be made either by a Diſtribution of ſuch of the ſeveral Articles of Food, in lieu of ſuch Portion of Relief, conformably to the ſaid general Rules and Regulations, or in ſuch Proportions as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall, in and by their Order, direct; or where ſuch Diſtribution ſhall not be made, then by a Sale of ſuch of the ſaid ſeveral Articles, or any of them, to the Perſon or Perſons obtaining ſuch Relief, as he, ſhe, or they ſhall chooſe, at ſuch reaſonable Prices as ſhall be ſettled by the Overſeer or Overſeers, with the Conſent of two Juſtices of the Diviſion or Place, ſuch Prices not to exceed the Rate of the Prime Coſt of the Articles, and ſuch a per Centage on the Prime Coſt, over and above the ſame, as may be neceſſary to defray the Charges of Sale, ſuch per Centage to be fixed by the ſaid Juſtices, in conſideration of the Circumſtances attending the Purchaſe and Sale of the ſaid Articles.

Juſtices ſhall preſcribe Rules for the Guidance of the Overſeers; and direct a Portion [See § 4.] of the Relief to the Poor to be made by a Diſtribution or Sale of ſuch Articles.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Whole or any Part of the Parochial Relief ordered or allowed to any Perſon, or to or in reſpect of his or her Family, may be adminiſtered in any of the Parochial Relief may be adminiſtered in Articles of Food in a certain Proportion.

the Articles of Food, to be furniſhed in purſuance of this Act, as the Caſe may require, in lieu of a Sum of Money equal to the Price of ſuch Articles, as the ſame ſhall be ſettled by the reſpective Juſtices, and the Proportion thereof ſhall be fixed at the Diſcretion of the reſpective Juſtices, provided ſuch Proportion ſhall in no Caſe exceed weekly the Value of one Third of the Parochial Relief given to any Perſon, or his or her Family, ſubſiſting wholly on Parochial Relief, or one Third of the joint Amount of the weekly Earnings of any Perſon, and his or her Family, and the Parochial Relief ordered or allowed to him or her, or for or in reſpect of his or her Family.

Money given for diſtributing Bread, may be diſtributed by Order of two Juſtices in inferior Bread to an equal Amount.

V. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes in which any Sum or Sums of Money have been given or bequeathed for the Purpoſe of providing Bread to be given or diſtributed among the Poor of any Pariſh or Place, it ſhall and may be lawful for any two or more Juſtices of the Peace acting in and for the County, Riding, or Diviſion in which ſuch Pariſh or Place ſhall be ſituated, to direct ſuch Diſtribution to be made in Bread made of the whole Produce of Wheat, or in Bread made of Wheat Flour mixed with the Flour or Meal of any other wholeſome Grain, and not in Fine Wheaten Bread: Provided always, That the Value of the Bread ſo diſtributed ſhall be equal to the Value of the Fine Wheaten Bread which has uſually been ſo diſtributed or given.

Two Juſtices, &c. may inſpect the Articles provided, and take, or require an Account of the Kinds, Qualities, Quantities, and Prices, and the Stock then in Hand.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any two Juſtices of the Peace of the Diviſion or Place, at their Diſcretion, to inſpect and examine, or to appoint a fit and proper Perſon to inſpect and examine, the ſeveral Articles of Food provided in purſuance of this Act, and to take an Account, or require the Overſeer or Overſeers for the Time being to render an Account to them, of the Kinds, Qualities, Quantities, and Prices of the ſeveral Articles of Food ſo provided, and the Stock (if any) then in Hand, and from Time to Time to make ſuch Orders in Writing, and ſuch Alterations in any former Order, as to them ſhall ſeem meet; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall wilfully obſtruct or hinder any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or any Perſon authorized as aforeſaid, in making ſuch Inſpection as aforeſaid, or demanding or requiring to make ſuch Inſpection as aforeſaid, or if any Overſeer or Overſeers ſhall not render any Account, or a true and faithful Account, of the ſeveral Articles of Food provided, or of the Stock in Hand, every ſuch Overſeer or Perſon ſhall forfeit a Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds nor leſs than five Pounds.

After the Rules are ſettled one Juſtice may order the Overſeers to grant Relief by the Sale or Diſtribution of Food, or the Overſeers may do ſo without ſuch Order.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever the Juſtices of the Diviſion or Place, aſſembled at Special or Petty Seſſions, ſhall have directed and eſtabliſhed general Rules and Regulations, for the Guidance of the reſpective Overſeers within their Limits, in the Diſtribution of the Articles of Food to be provided in purſuance of this Act, it ſhall be lawful for any one Juſtice of the Diviſion or Place, by his Order in Writing, to direct, and for the Overſeer or Overſeers of the Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, without ſuch Order, to grant Relief to the Poor by the Sale or Diſtribution of Food, conformably to ſuch Rules and Regulations, and to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Firſt Meeting of Juſtices ſhall be within a limited Time, and if not ſo held the Quarter Seſſions may execute this Act, or allow further Time to the Juſtices.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the firſt Meeting of Juſtices to be held in their reſpective Diviſions and Places, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall not be later than twenty-one Days after the paſſing of this Act; and in caſe no ſuch Meeting ſhall be held within the Time herein-before limited, in or for any Diviſion or Place, it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices aſſembled at the then next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, or at any adjourned Seſſions, as herein-after provided, and they are hereby required to execute this Act, and to do all Matters and Things which the Juſtices at Special or Petty Seſſions are hereby authorized to do and execute, unleſs in their Diſcretion the ſaid Juſtices at General or Quarter Seſſions ſhall allow, and they are hereby authorized, either at ſuch Seſſions or at any Adjournment thereof, and ſo from Time to Time, in their Diſcretion, to allow further Time to the Juſtices to execute the ſame at Special or Petty Seſſions, within their reſpective Diviſions.

If Juſtices in Special Seſſions deem it inconvenient to execute this Act, a Statement of the Cauſe ſhall be tranſmitted to the Clerk of the Peace, to be laid before the Quarter Seſſions for Determination, who may from Time to Time make Orders accordingly.

IX. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Juſtices aſſembled at the Special or Petty Seſſions for any Diviſion or Place ſhall, for any Cauſe, have deemed it inconvenient or impracticable to carry this Act into Execution, in any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, they ſhall, without Delay, draw up in Writing under their Hands, a Statement of the Cauſe or Cauſes of ſuch Non-execution thereof, and tranſmit the ſame to the Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk, of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place, before the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, or of any ſuch Adjourned Seſſions; which Statement ſhall be laid before ſuch Juſtices on the firſt Day of holding the ſaid Seſſions, or of any Adjournment thereof; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall take into Conſideration the Cauſe or Cauſes ſo alledged, and ſhall adjudge upon and determine the ſame according to the beſt of their Judgment, and ſhall make ſuch Order therein as to them ſhall ſeem meet, which Order or Orders ſhall be revocable from Time to Time, as Circumſtances may require, by the Juſtices at any future General or Quarter Seſſions, or any ſuch adjourned Seſſions, or may be altered or varied by them as ſhall be expedient; but which Orders, being recorded amongſt the Proceedings of the ſaid Seſſions as herein-after directed, ſhall reſpectively be final and concluſive in all other Reſpects, and ſhall not be removed or removeable, by any Proceſs whatever, into any other Court, any Law, Uſage or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding; and that ſo long as this Act ſhall, in the Judgment of ſuch Juſtices, require to be further executed in any ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, they ſhall adjourn ſuch General or Quarter Seſſions, or ſhall appoint from Time to Time other General Seſſions to be held at ſuch Place or Places, at ſuch Time or Times as ſhall appear to them neceſſary for the due Execution of this Act.

X. And

X. And be it further enacted, That the Juſtices aſſembled at their General or Quarter Seſſions, reſpectively to be holden in the firſt Week after the Epiphany one thouſand eight hundred and one, are hereby required to adjourn the ſame to ſome Day, not later than the correſponding Day in the enſuing Calendar Month, and ſo from Time to Time, or from Month to Month, until the enſuing General or Quarter Seſſions, to be holden next after the Day of Eaſter one thouſand eight hundred and one, or until, in the Opinion of the ſaid Juſtices, this Act ſhall have been executed throughout their reſpective Juriſdictions, as far as Circumſtances will admit, and ſhall cauſe Notice of the Time and Place fixed for ſuch adjourned Seſſions to be publiſhed in ſome Newſpaper uſually circulated in the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place; and in every Caſe where a Special or Petty Seſſions ſhall not have been held in any Diviſion within ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place, the ſaid Juſtices ſhall cauſe Notice to be given of the Time of holding ſuch adjourned Seſſions to the Overſeer or Overſeers of the reſpective Pariſhes and Places within ſuch Diviſion, requiring him or them to attend at ſuch adjourned Seſſions, and may alſo require him or them to bring and lay before the ſaid Juſtices, ſuch Books and Papers, of a Publick Nature, as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall deem neceſſary; and whenever the ſaid Juſtices aſſembled at the General or Quarter Seſſions, or any adjourned Seſſions, ſhall ſee Cauſe not to carry this Act into Execution, in any Pariſh or Place within their reſpective Juriſdictions, or ſhall make any Order in purſuance of this Act, they ſhall cauſe a Record of their Proceedings to be made, and the reſpective Orders to be filed amongſt the Proceedings of the ſaid Seſſions, and a Copy or Copies of all Records, Orders, and Proceedings of the Court of General or Quarter Seſſions in any Way touching or concerning this Act, or any of the Proviſions thereof, ſhall be without Delay tranſmitted to His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State.

The Epiphany Quarter Seſſions ſhall be adjourned Monthly until the Act has been executed; where a Special Seſſions has not been held in any Diviſion, the Quarter Seſſions ſhall give Notice to the Overſeers to attend, and when they ſhall ſee Cauſe not to carry the Act into Execution, or ſhall make any Order, their Proceedings ſhall be recorded, and a Copy tranſmitted to the Secretary of State.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Overſeers of the Poor, in any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, with the Conſent of the major Part of the Pariſhioners or Inhabitants of the ſame Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, in Veſtry, or other Pariſh or Publick Meeting, for that Purpoſe aſſembled, or with the Conſent of the major Part of the Select Veſtry where ſuch Select Veſtry ſhall be choſen for ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, at the uſual Place of Meeting, for that Purpoſe aſſembled, or of the major Part of ſuch of them as ſhall be reſpectively ſo aſſembled, to furniſh a Stock of the like Articles of Proviſions as may have been directed to be ſupplied by Overſeers, for the Support and Maintenance of the Poor in ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, to any Perſon or Perſons keeping a Shop or Shops, or ſelling Articles of Proviſions by Retail in the ſame Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, if any ſuch be there reſident, or reſiding at ſome convenient Diſtance therefrom, or any other proper Perſon or Perſons ſo reſident, and to contract with ſuch Perſons reſpectively for the Adminiſtration and Sale of ſuch Articles of Proviſions as aforeſaid, or to contract with any ſuch Perſon or Perſons for the furniſhing of ſuch Article or Articles of Proviſions, to be ſold to any Inhabitants of the ſame Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, for themſelves or their Families, who ſhall apply for the Purchaſe of ſuch Articles, in a Quantity or Quantities proportioned to the neceſſary Conſumption of his or her Family, or their reſpective Families; and ſuch Articles ſhall be ſold for Ready Money only, and at ſuch reaſonable Prices as ſhall have been ſettled between ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, and the Perſon or Perſons entering into ſuch Contract; ſuch Prices in no Caſe to exceed the Prime Coſt of the Article, and a reaſonable per Centage thereon, over and above the ſame, ſuch per Centage to be had, received, and taken by and for the ſole Uſe and Benefit of the Perſon or Perſons entering into ſuch Contract, as a Compenſation for the Labour and Care employed in and about the ſame, and to be fixed or limited by a Contract in Writing, under the Hands of the Overſeer or Overſeers, or the major Part of them, and allowed by two Juſtices of the ſame Diviſion or Place, on Conſideration of the Circumſtances under which ſuch Contract ſhall be made; and for the better Performance of ſuch Contract, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Overſeer or Overſeers, with ſuch Conſent as aforeſaid, to raiſe, by a Rate to be made for the Relief of the Poor, as much Money as will be neceſſary to purchaſe an adequate Stock of ſuch Proviſions, or to apply, out of the Monies raiſed by ſuch Rates, the requiſite Sum for that Purpoſe, and to advance the ſame either in Payment for ſuch Articles of Proviſions as ſhall be furniſhed by ſuch Overſeers, or to the Perſon or Perſons entering into any Contract for furniſhing the ſame, in ſuch Proportions, and to be re-paid at ſuch Times, as ſhall be fixed in ſuch Contract.

The Overſeers, with the Conſent of the Majority of the Inhabitants, or Select Veſtry, may furniſh a Stock of the proper Articles, to Perſons, and contract with them for the Sale thereof, or for furniſhing ſuch Articles, to be ſold to the Pariſhioners, at not more than the Prime Coſt, and a reaſonable per Centage to the Contractor.

Money to purchaſe ſuch Stock may be raiſed by, or paid out of, a Poor Rate.

XII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon that ſhall, by virtue of this Act, enter into any Contract with any Overſeer or Overſeers of the Poor of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, for the furniſhing of any Article or Articles of Proviſions as aforeſaid, ſhall neglect or refuſe to repay any Sum or Sums of Money, which ſhall have been advanced to him by ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, at the Time or Times fixed in ſuch Contract for Re-payment, then on due Proof thereof, on the Oath or Oaths, or ſolemn Affirmations, of the Overſeer or Overſeers of the ſame Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, for the Time being, that any Sum of Money ſo advanced hath not been re-paid at the Time or Times fixed for Re-payment thereof, but then remains due, it ſhall be lawful for two Juſtices of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place, in their reſpective Diviſions, and they are hereby required, on Complaint of ſuch Neglect or Refuſal, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe the Goods and Chattels of the Perſon ſo contracting, or which ſhall come into the Hands of his Executors or Adminiſtrators, whereſoever the ſame can be found, to be ſeized and ſecured; and in caſe the Sum of Money ſo due, or any Part thereof, be not ſooner paid or ſatisfied, to cauſe the ſaid Goods and Chattels to be ſold, to ſatisfy and pay ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, as well the Money ſo advanced, as the Coſts of ſuch Seizure, Detention, and Sale, returning the Overplus (if any) to the Party; and if any Part of the Monies ſhall remain unſatisfied after ſuch Seizure and Sale, the ſame ſhall be recovered in an Action on the Caſe for Money had and received, received, by and in the Name of the Overſeer or Overſeers of the ſame Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, for the Time being, againſt the Perſon ſo contracting, his Executors or Adminiſtrators, which Action may be brought in any Court in this Kingdom holding Pleas to the Amount of the Sum due as aforeſaid.

If Contractors do not duly repay Money advanced, two Juſtices may order their Goods to be ſeized and ſold, and if the Produce is inſufficient, the Sum due may be recovered by an Action for Money had and received, in the Name of the Overſeers.

If any Perſon ſhall advance Money to the Overſeers for the Purchaſe of Proviſions, it ſhall be repaid from the Sale of the Articles or from the Poor Rates at the Time agreed, and if not paid, one Juſtice may ſummon the Overſeers, and order a Rate to be forthwith raiſed, or if the Overſeers have Money, or ſufficient Rates ſhall have been made, may order immediate Payment.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, with the Conſent of ſuch major Part of the Inhabitants or Select Veſtry aſſembled as aforeſaid, voluntarily advance, and lend to the Overſeer or Overſeers of the Poor of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, any Sum or Sums of Money towards or for the Purchaſe of a Stock of Proviſions, to be applied for the Support and Maintenance of the Inhabitants of ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, by all or any of the Ways provided by this Act, and ſhall agree to continue ſuch Loan for a Time to be limited, not exceeding the Space of three Calendar Months, or if, at or after the Expiration of three Calendar Months, or other Time limited, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall agree to continue ſuch Loan for a like further Period, the Sum or Sums ſo advanced and lent ſhall be repaid at ſuch Time or Times, by the Overſeer or Overſeers for the Time being, out of any Money in their Hands, ariſing from the Sale of the ſaid Article, or from the Rates made for the Relief of the Poor of each Pariſh, Townſhip, and Place reſpectively; and ſuch Rates ſhall from Time to Time ſtand as a Security for ſuch Re-payment; and in caſe any Sum or Sums of Money ſo advanced and lent ſhall not be paid and ſatisfied at the Time or Times limited for ſuch Payment, or within the Space of twenty Days after Demand thereof ſhall be made from ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, it ſhall be lawful for any one or more of the Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place, to ſummon the Overſeer or Overſeers who ſhall refuſe or neglect to make ſuch Payment, and, if neceſſary, to order a Rate or Rates, for the Relief of the Poor, to be forthwith made, raiſed, and collected by ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, within the ſame Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, for the ſpeedy Payment of ſo much as ſhall appear to ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices to be due to the Perſon or Perſons advancing or lending ſuch Sum or Sums; or if ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers ſhall then have Monies in his or their Hands, or ſufficient Rates for that Purpoſe ſhall have been made, to order immediate Payment to be made of ſuch Sum and Sums reſpectively, together with ſuch Charges as may have been incurred by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, in conſequence of ſuch Refuſal or Neglect; and if the Overſeer or Overſeers ſhall refuſe or neglect to obey the Order of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices in regard to the Matters laſt before-mentioned, the Sum directed to be paid by ſuch Order ſhall be recovered by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers reſpectively, together with the Coſts attending ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner.

Overſeers not obeying the Order liable to Diſtreſs.

The Majority of the Pariſhioners, or of Select Veſtry may appoint Houſeholders willing to act gratis with the Overſeers.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the major Part of the Pariſhioners or Inhabitants of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, in Veſtry or other Pariſh or Publick Meeting ſo aſſembled as aforeſaid, or for the major Part of the Select Veſtry, where ſuch Select Veſtry ſhall be choſen, to nominate and appoint two or more, according to the Extent of the Pariſh, ſuch ſubſtantial Houſeholders of the ſaid Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, as are willing to act, without Fee or Reward, to exerciſe, conjointly with the Overſeers of the Poor, all the Powers given to them by this Act, in thoſe Caſes, in which ſuch Overſeers ſhall be empowered by their reſpective Veſtries or Pariſh Meetings, to provide a Stock of Proviſions for Sale to the Inhabitants, except the Powers of making and enforcing the Rates to be levied for that Purpoſe.

With reſpect to the Poor in Houſes of Induſtry, in Places incorporated for their Maintenance, and in Workhouſes erected in purſuance of Acts of Parliament, the Directors, &c. may act as the Juſtices in Petty Seſſions may do in other Caſes; ſubject to the Inſpection of a Juſtice and the Orders of the Quarter Seſſions.

XV. 'And whereas certain Hundreds, Towns, and Diſtricts, have, for the better Maintenance and 'Employment of the Poor, been incorporated by virtue of divers Acts of Parliament paſſed for that 'Purpoſe; and Houſes of Induſtry have been erected therein, under the Guidance and Management of 'Directors and Guardians of the Poor: And whereas certain Workhouſes have been erected, in purſu-'ance of certain other Acts of Parliament, in divers Pariſhes and Places in England not ſo incorporated, 'for the Purpoſe of maintaining and ſupporting the Poor therein, which have been placed under the Ma-'nagement of Governors or others contracting to ſupport and maintain the Poor, or may be under the 'Controul of the reſpective Overſeers of the Poor; and it is expedient that the Poor received into any 'ſuch Houſes of Induſtry, or Workhouſes, ſhould be ſupplied with Proviſions, according to the Regula-'tions of this Act;' be it further enacted, That in reſpect of all ſuch poor Perſons as ſhall have been or ſhall be received into any ſuch Houſe of Induſtry or Workhouſe, the reſpective Directors, Guardians of the Poor, Governors, and Overſeers aforeſaid, as the Caſe may be, ſhall have Authority, and they are hereby reſpectively required, to carry this Act into Execution, in all Matters appertaining thereto, as fully and effectually, as the Juſtices at Special or Petty Seſſions are hereby authorized in any Matter relating to the Poor who receive Relief from the reſpective Overſeers of the Poor; and the ſaid Directors, Guardians, Governors, and others, having the Guidance, Management, or Controul of any ſuch Houſe of Induſtry, or Workhouſe, are hereby required, as ſoon after the Expiration of Fourteen Days after the Paſſing of this Act as conveniently can be done, to provide from Time to Time a ſufficient Stock of wholeſome and nutritious Food of any Kind whatever, which they ſhall think neceſſary, (other than and except Bread made wholly of Wheat or Wheaten Flour,) for the Uſe, Support, and Maintenance of the Poor in their reſpective Houſes of Induſtry and Workhouſes, and to limit and appoint the Quantity of each Article to be diſtributed, Daily or Weekly, or from Time to Time, to each poor Perſon, and to ſet down the Kinds and Quantity of each Kind, ſo to be provided and diſtributed, in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe, which Books ſhall be open to the Inſpection of any Juſtice of the Peace of the Diviſion or Place where ſuch Houſe of Induſtry or Workhouſe ſhall be ſituate; and the ſaid Directors, Guardians, Governors, and Overſeers, ſhall, at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place, report their Proceedings to the Juſtices there aſſembled, and the Cauſe or Cauſes (if any) which ſhall have prevented, or are likely to prevent, their carrying this Act into Execution, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, and the Juſtices, at ſuch General or Quarter Seſſions, are hereby authorized and required to conſider the ſame, and to confirm the ſame, or to make ſuch Alterations therein, and ſuch Regulations in reſpect thereof, as to them ſhall ſeem expedient, and to make an Order accordingly, which Order ſhall be obeyed by the ſaid Directors, Guardians, Governors, and Overſeers reſpectively, as the Caſe may require, in all Matters and Things therein or thereby confirmed or altered, regulated or ordered, under the Penalty directed to be inflicted by this Act on Overſeers for Diſobedience of the Orders of Juſtices at Special or Petty Seſſions, or which by Law may be inflicted for Diſobedience of an Order of the Court of General or Quarter Seſſions, and which Order ſhall be revocable from Time to Time, as Circumſtances may require, by the Juſtices at any future General or Quarter Seſſions, or may be altered or varied by them as ſhall be expedient; but which Orders ſhall reſpectively be final and concluſive in all other Reſpects, and ſhall not be removed or removeable by any Proceſs whatever, into any other Court; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Juſtices in Special Seſſions may order Food for Perſons who have not been received into ſuch Houſes of Induſtry or Workhouſes.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in reſpect of all ſuch Perſons belonging to any incorporated Hundred, Town, or Diſtrict, or to any Pariſh or Pariſhes, Place or Places, where any ſuch Houſe of Induſtry or Workhouſe ſhall have been erected, who ſhall require Parochial Relief, but ſhall not have been received into ſuch Houſe of Induſtry, or Workhouſe, the Juſtices of the Diviſion or Place, aſſembled at their Special or Petty Seſſions, or any two or more of them, ſhall have Authority to make Order for providing Food for the ſaid Perſons by the ſaid Directors, Guardians, and Overſeers reſpectively, as effectually as they are hereby authorized to do in other Caſes of Perſons requiring Parochial Relief, ſubject to ſuch Controul of the Juſtices, at their General or Quarter Seſſions, as is herein-before directed in the Caſes where this Act ſhall not have been executed.

Expences incurred by Overſeers in the Execution of this Act, and Allowances for Inſpection of Proviſions, to be defrayed out of the Poor Rates.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That ſuch Charges and Expences incurred by any Overſeer or Overſeers of the Poor in the Execution of this Act, and ſuch moderate Allowance for the Trouble and Loſs of Time of ſuch Overſeer or Overſeers, or Perſons employed in the Inſpection of ſuch Proviſions, as ſhall be allowed and approved by any two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the Diviſion or Place, ſhall be defrayed out of the Rates made, or to be made, for the Relief of the Poor for each Pariſh, Townſhip, and Place reſpectively; which Rates they are hereby empowered to make or cauſe to be made, whenever the ſame ſhall be neceſſary, in ſuch Manner as they are empowered to make Rates for the Relief of the Poor by any Law now in force.

Juſtices for Offences for which pecuniary Penalties are incurred, may determine the Matter in a ſummary Way, and on Non-payment may iſſue Warrants for apprehending Offenders, &c.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, within whoſe Juriſdiction any Offence or Offences againſt this Act ſhall be committed, for which any pecuniary Penalty ſhall be incurred, or the Perſon charged with ſuch Offence ſhall reſide, upon Complaint or Information to him or them made, to ſummon the Party or Parties accuſed, and alſo the Witneſſes on either Side, to appear before him or them, at a certain Time and Place in ſuch Summons to be ſpecified; and upon the Appearance of the Party or Parties accuſed, or in Default of his, her, or their Appearance according to ſuch Summons, (due Proof being made of the Service of ſuch Summons,) to proceed to hear and determine the Matter in a ſummary Way; and upon due Proof made of the Offence, either by the voluntary Confeſſion of the Party or Parties accuſed, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, (which Oath or Oaths the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices is or are empowered to adminiſter,) to convict the Party or Parties, and to award and adjudge the Penalties impoſed by this Act, to be paid by ſuch Offender or Offenders, together with reaſonable Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Conviction; and upon Non-payment of the Sum ſo awarded, either immediately, or at ſuch Time as the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall appoint, not exceeding ſeven Days, ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be had, is or are hereby empowered and authorized to iſſue his or their Warrant for apprehending ſuch Offender; and in caſe ſuch Offender ſhall eſcape or go out of the Juriſdiction of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, it ſhall and may be lawful for any other Juſtice of the Peace, of the County or Place where ſuch Offender ſhall be found, by Indorſement of ſuch Warrant, to authorize the Execution thereof within the Juriſdiction of ſuch Juſtice; and the Juſtice or Juſtices who granted ſuch Warrant may, upon the Offender being brought before him or them, commit ſuch Offender to ſome Publick Priſon or Houſe of Correction of the City, County, or Place in which ſuch Offence ſhall have been committed, or ſuch Offender ſhall have reſided, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Term not exceeding one Calendar Month, nor leſs than fourteen Days, from the Day of every ſuch Commitment, unleſs ſuch Offender ſhall ſooner pay the Sum to be mentioned in every ſuch Warrant of Commitment.

Penalty on Witneſſes not appearing from 40s. to 20s.; refuſing to anſwer, impriſonment not exceeding 14 days.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſummoned as a Witneſs or Witneſſes, to give Evidence before any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, touching any Matter contained in this Act, and ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear at a Time and Place for that Purpoſe appointed, without a reaſonable Excuſe for ſuch his or their Neglect or Refuſal, to be allowed of by ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, every ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay for every ſuch Offence, any Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor leſs than twenty Shillings, to be levied and paid in ſuch Manner and by ſuch Means as herein-before directed with reſpect to other Penalties; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſummoned as a Witneſs or Witneſſes to give Evidence as aforeſaid, ſhall appear at the Time and Place for that Purpoſe appointed, but ſhall refuſe to anſwer any lawful Queſtions ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices may think proper to put to him, ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices may commit every ſuch Perſon to ſome Priſon or Houſe of Correction of the City, County, or Place, within the Juriſdiction of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, for any Time not exceeding fourteen Days from the Time of every ſuch Commitment.

Convictions ſhall be made out in the following Form.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace before whom any Offender ſhall be convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall cauſe the ſaid Conviction to be made out in the following Form of Words, or in any Form of Words to the ſame Effect; (that is to ſay,)

'To wit, } BE it remembered, That on this Day of in the Year of his Majeſty King A. B. is convicted before me (or, us) one (or, two) of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the [as the Caſe may be] for that the ſaid A. B. on the Day of now laſt paſt, did, contrary to the Statute in that caſe made and provided [here ſtate the Offence againſt the Act], and I (or, we) do declare and adjudge that the ſaid A. B. hath forfeited the Sum of of lawful Money of Great Britain, for the Offence aforeſaid. Given under my Hand and Seal (or, our Hands and Seals) the Day and Year aforeſaid.'

Conviction ſhall be certified to the Quarter Seſſions to be filed, and ſhall not be quaſhed for Want of Form, or removed into any other Court.

And the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be had, ſhall certify the ſame to the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place, wherein ſuch Conviction was had, to be filed and kept amongſt the Records of the ſaid General or Quarter Seſſions; and ſuch Conviction ſhall be good and valid in the Law, to all Intents and Purpoſes, and ſhall not be quaſhed, ſet aſide, or judged void or inſufficient, for Want of Form only, and ſhall not be liable to be removed by any Proceſs whatever into any other Court, but ſhall be deemed and taken to be final to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever.

Appeal may be made to the Quarter Seſſions.

XXI. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall think him, her, or themſelves aggrieved, by the Judgment or Determination of any ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices as aforeſaid, in reſpect of any pecuniary Penalty, may appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place where ſuch Judgment ſhall be given, at their then next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, unleſs ſuch next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace ſhall happen to be holden within ſix Days next after any ſuch Conviction; and in ſuch Caſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons may appeal to the next ſubſequent General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace which may be holden for any ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place; but no ſuch Appeal ſhall be received, heard, or determined, unleſs the Appellant or Appellants ſhall firſt enter into a Recognizance, with two ſufficient Sureties, before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſo convicting as aforeſaid, in the Sum of ten Pounds each, to appear and proſecute every ſuch Appeal with Effect; and the Juſtices of the Peace at ſuch General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace are hereby authorized and required, on every ſuch Appeal being made, and on reaſonable Notice thereof given to the other Party, finally to hear and determine the Matter of every ſuch Appeal, and to make ſuch Order, and to award ſuch Coſts therein, as they in their Diſcretion ſhall ſee meet; and which ſaid Order and Determination ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties; and no Certiorari ſhall be allowed to remove any ſuch Proceedings or Determination.

Application of Penalties, one Half to the Proſecutor and one Half to the Poor.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That one Moiety of the Penalties by this Act impoſed ſhall, when recovered, go and be paid to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall proſecute to Conviction any ſuch Offender or Offenders, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh in which the Offence ſhall be committed.

Limitation of Actions, ſix Months.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be ſued or proſecuted for any Thing done in purſuance and in execution of this Act, after the Expiration of ſix Months from the Time when the Offence was committed; and every ſuch Suit or Proſecution ſhall be brought in the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place where ſuch Offence ſhall have been committed, and not elſewhere; and every Perſon or Defendants in every ſuch Action ſhall receive Double Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame, as Defendants have in other Caſes for the Recovery of their Coſts.

Continuance of Act, till Nov. 6. 1801, &c.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be in force until and upon the ſixth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred and one, and from thence until the End of ſix Weeks after the Meeting of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

CAP. XIII.

An Act to enable Commiſſioners to purchaſe certain Buildings for the Accommodation of the two Houſes of Parliament. [22d December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is neceſſary, for the Accommodation of the two Houſes of Parliament, that certain Houſes and Buildings in Old Palace Yard ſhould be purchaſed for the Publick Uſe; and it is expedient that the Value of ſuch Houſes, Buildings, and Tenements, ſhould be aſcertained by indifferent Perſons, without Delay;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That George Dance, Samuel Pepys Cockerell, and John Groves, Eſquires, ſhall be and are hereby appointed Commiſſioners for the Purchaſe of all ſuch Houſes, Buildings, and Tenements, as they may think neceſſary, for the completing the Purpoſes aforeſaid; and that if any Perſon or Perſons, ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of or intereſted in any Houſes, Buildings, Lands, or Tenements, that ſhall by the ſaid George Dance, Samuel Pepys Cockerell, and John Groves, be deemed neceſſary to be altered, removed, or pulled down, ſhall refuſe to treat or agree for the Sale thereof, or ſhall not agree in the Sum of Money offered to be given for the ſame, or ſhall not, or cannot, produce a clear Title to the Premiſes they are in poſſeſſion of, or the Intereſt they claim therein, that then and in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, by Writing under their Hands, to require the Sheriff of the County of Middleſex, who ſhall thereupon, and is hereby authoriſed and required to impannel, ſummon, and return a competent Number of ſubſtantial and diſintereſted Perſons qualified to ſerve as Jurors, not leſs than twenty-four nor more than forty-eight; and out of ſuch Perſons ſo to be impannelled, ſummoned, and returned, a Jury of twelve Men ſhall be drawn by ſome Perſon, to be by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, appointed, in ſuch Manner as Juries, for the Trial of Iſſues joined in his Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, are by an Act, made in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of Juries, directed to be drawn; which Perſons ſo to be impannelled, ſummoned, and returned as aforeſaid, are hereby required to come and appear before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, at any ſuch Time and Place as in ſuch Summons ſhall be appointed, and all Parties concerned ſhall and may have their lawful Challenges againſt any of the ſaid Jurymen, but ſhall not be at Liberty to challenge the Array; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any of them, are hereby authorized and empowered from Time to Time, as Occaſion ſhall require, to call before them all and every Perſon and Perſons whomſoever, who ſhall be thought proper and neceſſary to be examined as a Witneſs or Witneſſes, on his, her, or their Oath or Oaths, touching or concerning the Premiſes; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, if they think fit, ſhall and may likewiſe authoriſe the ſaid Jury to view the Place or Places, or Premiſes in queſtion, in ſuch Manner as they ſhall direct; and the ſaid Jury upon their Oaths (which Oaths, as alſo the Oaths of ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be called upon to give Evidence, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, are hereby empowered and required to adminiſter) ſhall enquire of the Value of ſuch Houſes, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and of the proportionable Value of the reſpective Eſtates and Intereſts of all and every Perſons and Perſon ſeiſed or poſſeſſed thereof, or intereſted therein, or of or in any Part or Parts thereof, and ſhall aſſeſs and award the Sum or Sums of Money to be paid to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Party or Parties reſpectively, for the Purchaſe of ſuch Houſes, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and of ſuch reſpective Eſtates and Intereſts therein, and alſo for Good Will, Improvements, or any Injury or Damage whatſoever, that may affect any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, Party or Parties, either as Leaſeholder or Tenant at Will; and the ſaid Commiſſioners or any two of them, ſhall and may give Judgment for ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſo to be aſſeſſed; which Verdict or Verdicts, and the Judgment and Judgments, Determination and Determinations thereupon, ſhall be binding and concluſive to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, againſt all and every Perſons and Perſon claiming any Eſtate, Right, Title, Truſt, Uſe, or Intereſt in, to, or out of ſuch Houſes, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments and Premiſes, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, Remainder, or Expectancy, as well Infants and Iſſue unborn, Lunaticks, Ideots, and Femes Covert, and Perſons under any other legal Incapacity or Diſability, as all other Ceſtuique Truſts, their, his, and her Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors, and Adminiſtrators, and againſt all other Perſons whomſoever; and the ſaid Verdicts, Judgments, and Determinations, and all other Proceedings of the ſaid Commiſſioners and Juries ſo to be made, given, and pronounced as aforeſaid, ſhall be fairly written on Parchment, and ſigned by the Clerk of the Peace for the Time being of the County of Middleſex.

Commiſſioners appointed for the Purchaſe of Buildings for the Accommodation of Parliament, who, if the Parties refuſe to ſell, &c. may require the Sheriff of Middleſex to impannel a Jury to aſcertain the Value of the Premiſes.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon Payment of any ſuch Sum or Sums ſo aſſeſſed to the Party or Parties to whom the ſame ſhall be ſo awarded, or on Tender thereof made at his, her, or their Dwelling Houſe, or if he, ſhe, or they ſhall have no Dwelling Houſe, then at the Houſe of ſome Tenant or Occupier of ſome Lands or Tenements of ſuch Party or Parties near the ſaid intended Works, he, ſhe, or they ſhall execute a Conveyance of the Premiſes which ſhall be ſo purchaſed, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, for the Purpoſes of this Act; and in caſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be ſo awarded as aforeſaid, ſhall not be able to make a good Title to the Premiſes, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, or ſhall refuſe to execute ſuch Conveyance or Conveyances, or in caſe ſuch Perſon or Perſons, to whom ſuch Sum or Sums of Money ſhall be ſo awarded as aforeſaid, cannot be found, or if the Perſon or Perſons entitled to ſuch Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, be not known or diſcovered, then and in every ſuch Caſe as aforeſaid it ſhall be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, to order the ſaid Sum and Sums aſſeſſed and awarded for any Purchaſe Money, or in Recompence for any Damage as aforeſaid, to be paid into the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account to the Credit of the Parties intereſted in the ſaid Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, (deſcribing them,) ſubject to the Order, Controul, and Diſpoſition of the ſaid Court of Chancery; which ſaid Court of Chancery, on the Application of any Perſon or Perſons making Claim to ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, or any Part thereof, by Motion or Petition, ſhall be and is hereby empowered, in a ſummary Way of proceeding or otherwiſe as to the Court ſhall ſeem meet, to order the ſame to be laid out and inveſted in the Publick Funds, and to order Diſtribution thereof, on Payment of the Dividends thereof, according to the reſpective Eſtate or Eſtates, Title or Intereſt of the Perſon or Perſons making Claim thereto, and Upon Payment of the Sums aſſeſſed, the Parties ſhall convey the Premiſes to the Commiſſioners and if they cannot make a Title, refuſe to convey, or cannot be found the Commiſſioners may order the Money to be paid into the Bank, ſubject to the Order of the Court of Chancery.

and to make ſuch other Order in the Premiſes as to the ſaid Court ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable; and the Caſhier or Caſhiers of the Bank of England, who ſhall receive ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, is and are hereby required to give a Receipt or Receipts for ſuch Sum or Sums, mentioning and ſpecifying for what and for whoſe Uſe the ſame is or are received, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall pay any ſuch Sum or Sums of Money into the Bank as aforeſaid.

After ſuch Payment into the Bank, the Premiſes ſhall veſt in his Majeſty.

III. And be it further enacted, That immmediately after paying ſuch Purchaſe Money as aforeſaid into the Bank, the ſaid Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in reſpect whereof the ſame ſhall have been ſo paid, ſhall veſt in his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, who ſhall be deemed in Law to be in the actual Poſſeſſion thereof, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, freed and diſcharged from all former and other Eſtates, Rights, Titles, Intereſts, Claims, and Demands whatſoever.

CAP. XV.

An Act for taking an Account of the Population of Great Britain, and of the Increaſe or Diminution thereof. [31ſt December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to take an Account of the total Number of Perſons within the Kingdom of Great Britain together with the progreſſive Increaſe or Diminution thereof:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parlia-

Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That within that Part of Great Britain called England, the reſpective Overſeers of the Poor, or in Default thereof, ſome ſubſtantial Houſeholder of every Pariſh, Townſhip, and Place, and within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ſuch Perſons as ſhall be for that Purpoſe appointed by the Sheriff Deputes, Stewart Deputes, and Juſtices of the Peace, to act in and for every Pariſh, ſhall, at the Time and in the Manner herein-after directed, ſeverally take an Account of the Number of Perſons who ſhall be actually found at the Time of taking ſuch Accounts to be within the Limits of ſuch Pariſhes, Townſhips, and Places reſpectively, and ſhall ſet down the ſeveral Particulars reſpecting the ſame, according to the Form preſcribed in the Schedule annexed to this Act.

The Overſeers (or ſome ſubſtantial Houſeholder) of every Pariſh, &c. in England, and Perſons appointed by the Sheriff Deputes, &c. in Scotland, ſhall take an Account of the Number of Perſons in each Pariſh and Place, according to the Form in Schedule, No. 1.

II. 'And for the more ſpeedy and effectual obtaining of ſuch Accounts,' be it further enacted that a ſufficient Number of printed Copies of this Act, and the Schedule thereto, ſhall, ſo ſoon as conveniently may be after the paſſing of this Act, be tranſmitted by his Majeſty's Printer to the Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks of the ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Stewartries, Ridings, Diviſions, Precincts, Sokes, Franchiſes, Liberties, Cities, Boroughs, Towns, and Counties Corporate in Great Britain; and that the ſaid ſeveral Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks ſhall, and they are hereby required, with all convenient Speed, to cauſe the ſaid Act to be diſtributed amongſt the acting Juſtices of the Peace within their reſpective Limits; and alſo within that Part of Great Britain called England, to cauſe a ſufficient Number of the Schedule to this Act annexed to be delivered to the High Conſtables, or where there are no High Conſtables, to ſuch other proper Officers who have the Execution of Precepts from Juſtices of the Peace to inferior Officers within their reſpective Limits, at the Epiphany Quarter Seſſions of the Peace in the Year one thouſand eight hundred and one; and within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to cauſe a ſufficient Number of the ſaid Schedule to be delivered to ſuch Perſons and at ſuch Times as are for that Purpoſe herein-after mentioned.

Copies of the Act and Schedules ſhall be tranſmitted by the King's Printer to the Clerks of the Peace and Town Clerks in Great Britain; who ſhall diſtribute them to the Juſtices; and the Schedules to the different Perſons appointed for England and Scotland. [As to the latter, ſee § 7, &c.]

III. And be it further enacted, That within that Part of Great Britain called England, the High Conſtables or other proper Officers ſo deſcribed as aforeſaid, within their reſpective Juriſdictions aforeſaid, ſhall, at the ſaid Epiphany Quarter Seſſions of the Peace in the Year one thouſand eight hundred and one, purſuant to the Directions aforeſaid, receive from the Clerks of the Peace or Town Clerks, the ſaid printed Schedules, and forthwith deliver or cauſe to be delivered one ſuch Schedule to the Rector, Vicar, Curate, or other Officiating Miniſter, and one other ſuch Schedule to one of the Overſeers of the Poor of every Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, as well within Towns Corporate as without, in their reſpective Limits, and alſo one ſuch Schedule to the Overſeer or Overſeers of every Extra-parochial Place within the ſaid Limits; and if there ſhall be no ſuch Overſeer therein, then to ſome one ſubſtantial Houſeholder reſiding within the ſaid Pariſh, Townſhip, or Extra-parochial Place; and thereupon the ſaid Overſeers or ſubſtantial Houſeholders as aforeſaid, taking to their Aſſiſtance the Churchwardens or Chapelwardens, Sideſmen, Pariſh Clerk, and Veſtry Clerk, (if any,) and employing, if they ſhall think fit, the Conſtables, Tithingmen, Headboroughs, or other Peace Officers, for ſuch Pariſhes, Townſhips, or Places, (ſuch ſeveral Perſons being hereby required to be aiding and aſſiſting therein for that Purpoſe,) ſhall, upon the tenth Day of March in the Year one thouſand eight hundred and one, proceed to take an Account in Writing of the Number of Perſons at that Time being within the Limits of ſuch Pariſhes, Townſhips, and Places, reſpectively, and inform themſelves of the ſeveral Particulars relating to the Matters ſpecified in the three firſt Queſtions in the ſaid Schedule, by proceeding together or ſeparately from Houſe to Houſe, or otherwiſe, as they ſhall judge expedient for the better Execution of this Act, and from ſuch Information ſhall prepare an Anſwer or Return to the ſaid Queſtions, according to the Form preſcribed in the ſaid Schedule, and ſhall ſign the ſame with their Names and reſpective Additions, as ſuch Overſeers or ſubſtantial Houſeholders as aforeſaid; and the better to enable the ſaid Overſeers or ſubſtantial Houſeholders as aforeſaid, to make ſuch Anſwers and Returns, they, and the Perſons ſo aſſiſting them as aforeſaid, are hereby authorized and empowered to aſk all ſuch Queſtions of the Perſons within the ſaid Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, reſpecting themſelves and the Number and Quality of the Perſons conſtituting their reſpective Families, as ſhall be neceſſary for ſtating the Particulars required to be ſtated concerning them, in the ſaid Anſwers and Returns; and every ſuch Perſon refuſing to anſwer, or wilfully giving a falſe Anſwer to ſuch Queſtions, or any of them, ſhall, for every ſuch Refuſal or falſe Anſwer, forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, nor leſs than forty Shillings, at the Diſcretion of the Juſtice or Juſtices before whom Complaint thereof ſhall be made.

In England the the High Conſtables, &c. ſhall, at the Epiphany Seſſions 1801, receive from the Clerks of the Peace, &c. the Schedules, and deliver one to the Miniſter, &c. and one to an Overſeer, &c. of each Pariſh: The Overſeer, &c. ſhall, with the Aſſiſtance of the Churchwardens, &c. upon March 10, 1801, take an Account of the Number of Perſons therein; and inform themſelves of certain Particulars, and prepare Anſwers to Queſtions according to the Form in the Schedule. Penalty on Perſons refuſing to Anſwer, or wilfully giving falſe Anſwers, 5l. to 40s.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Juſtices of the Peace, or any two or more of them, within their reſpective Juriſdictions in England, ſhall, at, or ſo ſoon as conveniently may be after, the ſaid Epiphany Quarter Seſſions in the Year one thouſand eight hundred and one, appoint a Time and Place, or Times and Places, (which Time ſhall be not ſooner than the tenth Day of April, nor later than the thirtieth Day of April in the Year one thouſand eight hundred and one, and may be at the Eaſter Quarter Seſſion if they ſhall think fit,) for the Overſeers of the Poor of the ſeveral Pariſhes, Townſhips, and Places, within their reſpective Diviſions or Limits, or for ſuch ſubſtantial Houſeholders as aforeſaid, as the Caſe may be, to attend them for the Purpoſe of this Act, with Returns and Anſwers to the ſaid three firſt Queſtions ſtated in the Schedule to this Act annexed, and cauſe Notice thereof to be given to ſuch Overſeers and Houſeholders reſpectively, according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act, and alſo to the High Conſtables, or where there are no High Conſtables, to ſuch other proper Officers as aforeſaid; and thereupon the ſaid Overſeers or ſubſtantial Houſeholders as aforeſaid, or ſome one of them, in and for every ſuch Pariſh, Town-

Juſtices in England ſhall appoint a Time and Place (between the 10th and 30th of April 1801,) for the Overſeers, &c. to attend with Returns and Anſwers to the three firſt Queſtions ſtated in Schedule No. 1. and cauſe Notice thereof [See Schedule, No. 2.] to be given to them and the High Conſtables;

Townſhip, or Place, ſhall and they are hereby required to attend the Juſtices of the Peace at ſuch Meeting or Meetings reſpectively, and then and there deliver to the ſaid Juſtices, in Writing ſigned by themſelves, a juſt and true Anſwer and Return to the ſaid Queſtions, upon Oath, (or being of the People called Quakers, on Affirmation,) as herein-after directed, and the ſaid High Conſtables, or other proper Officers, ſo deſcribed as aforeſaid, ſhall, and they are hereby required to attend the ſaid reſpective Meetings for the Purpoſes herein-after directed.

and the Overſeers, &c. ſhall then deliver Returns upon Oath.

CAP. XVI.

An Act to prevent, until the ſixth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred and one, and from thence to the End of ſix Weeks from the Commencement of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, the manufacturing of any Fine Flour from Wheat, or other Grain, and the making of any Bread ſolely from the Fine Flour of Wheat; and to repeal an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ſixth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty *, for permitting Bakers to make and ſell certain Sorts of Bread, and to make more effectual Proviſion for the ſame. [31ſt December 1800.]

[See 41 Geo. 3. Seſſ. 2. c. 1. by which this Act is in part ſuſpended: and c. 2. by which it is wholly repealed.]

'WHEREAS there is juſt Ground to expect that the Supply of good and wholeſome Bread will be materially augmented, and the Price thereof reduced, by preventing the Conſumption of Bread made from Fine Flour:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the ſeventeenth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, in the City of London, or within forty Miles thereof, and from and after the twenty-fourth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, in every other Part of Great Britain, no Meal, the Produce of Wheat or any other Grain, ſhall be dreſſed, bolted, or manufactured into any finer Deſcription of Meal or Flour than ſuch as ſhall be the Produce of ſuch Wheat or Grain, dreſſed, bolted, or manufactured by or through Wire Machines, conſtructed with not more than thirteen Wires, of the uſual and known Size, Weight, and Thickneſs, on each Side of a Square Inch, or Cloths correſponding to ſuch Wire Machines, and now uſually called and known as eight Shillings and Sixpence Seamed Cloths, or Patent Cloths denominated Number Two, or by whatever other Denomination, either as to Number or Price, any Cloths correſponding to ſuch Wire Machines, in regard to Flour to be dreſſed thereby, may be hereafter known; and if any Miller or other Perſon ſhall, within the Time herein limited, dreſs, bolt, or manufacture any Meal from Wheat or other Grain, into any finer Deſcription of Meal or Flour than ſuch as is herein-before deſcribed, otherwiſe than through ſuch Wires or Cloths as aforeſaid, every ſuch Miller or other Perſon ſhall forfeit, for every Buſhel of Meal or Flour dreſſed, bolted, or manufactured,

From January 17, 1801, in London, or within forty Miles thereof, and from January 24, in every other Part of Great Britain, no Meal ſhall be dreſſed finer than through certain Wire Machines or Cloths, on Penalty from manufactured, contrary to this Act, a Sum not exceeding five Pounds nor leſs than ten Shillings for every ſuch Buſhel, and ſo in proportion for every ſmaller Quantity.

5l. to 10s. per Buſhel.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Miller or other Perſons ſhall, from and after the ſaid ſeventeenth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, in the ſaid City of London, or within forty Miles thereof, or from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one in any other Part of Great Britain, uſe, for the Purpoſe of dreſſing any Meal the Produce of Ground Wheat or Grain into any Kind of Flour, any Wire or other Machine or Cloth of any finer Conſtruction or Deſcription than herein-after mentioned, (that is to ſay,) than Wire Machines conſtructed with not more than thirteen Wires, of the uſual and known Size and Thickneſs, on each Side of a Square Inch, and ſo after that Rate for any Number of Inches of which ſuch Machines ſhall be conſtructed, and Cloths correſponding to ſuch laſt-mentioned Wire Machines, and now uſually called or known as eight Shillings and Sixpence Seamed Cloths or Patent Cloths denominated Number Two, or by whatever Denomination or Deſcription, either as to Number or Price, any Cloths correſponding to ſuch laſt-mentioned Wire Machines, in regard to Flour to be dreſſed thereby, may be hereafter known; and if any Miller or other Perſon ſhall uſe or cauſe to be uſed, or knowingly permit or ſuffer to be uſed, any Machine or Cloth of any finer Deſcription or Conſtruction than ſuch as are herein-before deſcribed, for the dreſſing, bolting, or manufacturing any Meal or Flour produced from Wheat, every ſuch Miller or other Perſon ſo uſing ſuch Machine or Cloth, ſhall forfeit and pay, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Nor ſhall any Machine or Cloth be uſed for dreſſing Meal of any finer Conſtruction than herein mentioned, on Penalty of 100l.

III. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, in the City of London, or within forty Miles thereof, and from and after the thirty-firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one in any other Part of Great Britain, no Meal or Flour of any finer Sort or Deſcription than the Meal or Flour allowed to be dreſſed and manufactured under this Act, ſhall be ſold or expoſed to Sale by any Perſon whatever (other than and except Flour that ſhall have been or ſhall be imported into this Country, and which ſhall be ſold in the Barrels in which the ſame ſhall be imported); and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall offend herein, he, ſhe, or they ſhall forfeit, for every Buſhel of Meal or Flour ſo ſold contrary to this Act, a Sum not exceeding five Pounds nor leſs than ten Shillings for every ſuch Buſhel, and ſo in proportion for every ſmaller Quantity.

From January 24 and 31 reſpectively, no finer Meal or Flour ſhall be ſold (except Flour imported and ſold in Barrels,) on Penalty from 5l. to 10s. per Buſhel.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the thirty-firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one in the City of London or within forty Miles thereof, and from and after the ſeventh Day of February one thouſand eight hundred and one in any other Part of Great Britain, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall bake, or make for private Uſe or for Sale, or ſhall ſell or expoſe to Sale, any Bread made from any Wheaten Meal or Flour unmixed, of any finer Sort or Deſcription than the Flour allowed to be dreſſed and manufactured under this Act; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall offend herein, he, ſhe, or they ſhall forfeit, for every Peck Loaf of Bread ſo baked, made, or ſold, or expoſed to Sale, contrary to the Proviſions herein contained, a Sum not exceeding five Pounds nor leſs than ten Shillings, and ſo in proportion for every ſmaller Quantity.

From January 31, and February 7, reſpectively, no Perſon ſhall bake for private Uſe, or for Sale, or ſell any Bread made of finer Flour, on Penalty from 5l. to 10s. per Peck Loaf.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, it ſhall be lawful for the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, or for the Lord Mayor for the Time being, and they are hereby required, and from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, within forty Miles of the City of London, and from and after the thirty-firſt Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, in every other Part of Great Britain, it ſhall be lawful for any Court, or Perſon or Perſons authorized to ſet any Aſſize or Price of Wheaten Bread, to ſet, aſcertain, and appoint, when and ſo often as they ſhall from Time to Time think proper, the Price of all the Wheaten Bread made of the fineſt Sort or Deſcription of Wheaten Flour, allowed by this Act to be dreſſed and manufactured, and upon no other Sort or Deſcription of Bread, whether Wheaten or made from other Grain mixed or unmixed, which ſhall be made for Sale, or expoſed to Sale, in any Place or Places or Diſtrict within their Juriſdiction; and that every ſuch Price ſhall be calculated and ſet from the Tables in the Schedule, according to the Rules and Directions to thoſe Tables annexed, from the Average Price of the fineſt Sort or Deſcription of Wheaten Flour allowed by this Act to be manufactured.

From January 24, 1801, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen, and from that Date within forty Miles of London, and from January 31, in every other Place, any Court or authorized Perſon, may ſet the Price upon the fineſt Wheaten Bread allowed to be made and on no other, according to the Rules in the Schedule.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the ſaid twenty-fourth and thirty-firſt Days of January reſpectively, when any Price of Wheaten Bread of the fineſt Sort or Deſcription of Flour allowed to be dreſſed and manufactured purſuant to this Act, ſhall be aſcertained and ſet in any City, Borough, Town, Place, or Diſtrict of any County, Riding, Shire, or Stewartry, purſuant to the Proviſions of this Act, no Perſon or Perſons ſhall there make for Sale, or ſell, or expoſe to Sale, any other Sort or Deſcription of Bread, whether Wheaten Bread, or Bread made of the Produce of Wheat mixed with the Meal or Flour of any other Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, at a higher Rate for any Peck, Half Peck, Quartern, or Half Quartern Loaf of any ſuch other Bread, than ſhall be ſet as the Price of the Wheaten Bread of ſuch fineſt Sort and Deſcription as aforeſaid; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall offend herein, he, ſhe, or they ſhall forfeit for every Loaf ſold contrary to the Proviſions herein-before contained, a Sum not exceeding five Pounds nor leſs than ten Shillings, and ſo in proportion for any ſmaller Quantity.

When the Price is ſo ſet, no Perſon ſhall ſell any Bread at a higher Price, on Penalty from 5l. to 10s. per Loaf.

VII. And be it further enacted, That after the twenty-fourth and thirty-firſt Days of January reſpectively, although no Aſſize or Price of Wheaten Bread of the fineſt Sort or Deſcription of Flour allowed by ſell any other Sort of Bread at any higher Price than the Wheaten of the fineſt Sort allowed ſhall ſell for, on like Penalty for every Peck Loaf.

And where the Price is not ſet, no Perſon ſhall

by this Act to be dreſſed or manufactured, ſhall be aſcertained or ſet in any City, Borough, Town, or Place, or Diſtrict, of any County, Riding, Shire, or Stewartry, no Perſon ſhall make for Sale, or ſell or expoſe to Sale, any other Sort or Deſcription of Bread, whether Wheaten or mixed, at any higher Price, or at any higher Rate per Pound, or for any other Quantity, than the Wheaten Bread of the fineſt Sort or Deſcription aforeſaid ſhall at the ſame Time ſell for in the ſame Place, in which (or where no ſuch Bread ſhall be ſold in the ſame Place, then in the neareſt adjoining Place to the Place in which) any Kind of Bread of ſuch other Quality ſhall be made for Sale, or ſold, or expoſed to Sale; and if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall offend therein, he, ſhe, or they ſhall forfeit, for every Peck Loaf ſold contrary to the Proviſions herein-before contained, a Sum not exceeding five Pounds nor leſs than ten Shillings, and ſo in proportion for every ſmaller Quantity.

After paſſing this Act any Perſon may make and ſell Loaves made of the whole Produce of the Wheat or mixed with Barley, &c. provided the Price ſhall not exceed that of the Wheaten Bread upon which a Price ſhall be ſet.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons whatever, in any Place whatever, and whether any Aſſize or Price of Bread ſhall be ſet in ſuch Place or not, to make, bake, ſell, and expoſe to Sale, Peck Loaves, Half Peck Loaves, Quartern Loaves, and Half Quartern Loaves, made of Wheaten Meal or Flour of the whole Produce of the Wheat, or with the Bran only, or the Bran and Pollards, or any Proportion of the Bran and Pollards, or any other Part of the Produce of ſuch Wheat, taken therefrom, or made of any Sort of Wheaten Meal or Flour mixed with the Meal or Flour of Barley, Rye, Oats, Buck Wheat, Indian Corn, Peaſe, Beans, Rice, or any other Corn, Grain, or Pulſe whatever, or with Potatoes, in ſuch Proportions as he, ſhe, or they ſhall deem proper, and at any Price at which any Perſon may be willing to purchaſe the ſame; provided that ſuch Price ſhall not in any Caſe exceed the Price of the Wheaten Bread upon which an Aſſize or Price ſhall be ſet in purſuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or this Act, in the Place where ſuch other Wheaten or mixed Bread ſhall be made or ſold, or expoſed to Sale, under this Act as aforeſaid; any Act or Acts, or Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons making Wheaten Bread of an inferior Quality, or mixed, ſhall mark the ſame.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Perſon who ſhall make or bake any ſuch Wheaten Bread made of any Meal or Flour of an inferior Quality to the fineſt Sort or Deſcription of Flour allowed by this Act to be manufactured, or mixed Bread, ſhall imprint and diſtinctly mark upon every Loaf of ſuch laſt-mentioned Wheaten Bread, a large Roman H. and upon every Loaf of ſuch mixed Bread a large Roman M.

Penalty for not marking ſuch Bread, or not well making or adulterating Bread, or making Loaves deficient in Weight.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall omit to imprint or diſtinctly mark any ſuch Wheaten or mixed Bread, purſuant to the Directions of this Act, or ſhall not well make any ſuch Wheaten or mixed Bread, or any Bread made in purſuance of this Act, or ſhall adulterate the ſame with any Mixture or Ingredient not allowed to be uſed in the making of Bread, or ſhall make or bake for Sale, or ſell or expoſe to Sale any ſuch Peck Loaves, Half Peck Loaves, Quartern Loaves, or Half Quartern Loaves, or any other Loaves, deficient in Weight, according to the Aſſize of Loaves of ſuch Denominations, reſpectively contained in any Act or Acts in force relating to the Aſſize and Price of Bread, or according to any Aſſize that ſhall be ſet in purſuance of any ſuch Act or Acts; all and every Perſon and Perſons offending therein, ſhall be liable to the ſame or the like Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Puniſhment, as any Bakers or Makers of Bread for Sale are liable to for any the like or ſimilar Miſdemeanors, Offences, or Neglects, in making, ſelling, or expoſing to or for Sale, any Bread.

Powers of Acts in force relating to making Returns of Meal, ſetting an Aſſize, weighing Bread or ſearching for adulterating Ingredients, to extend to this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Proviſions, Regulations, Clauſes, Matters, and Things, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in any Act or Acts now in force contained, relating to the making any Returns of Meal and Flour, and to ſetting and aſcertaining any Aſſize or Price of Bread, and alſo to the weighing any Bread made for Sale or expoſed to Sale, or ſearching for any Ingredient wherewith any Meal, Flour, or Bread may be adulterated, that are not altered or repealed by, or contrary to, the Proviſions of this Act, ſhall be, and are hereby extended and made applicable to, and ſhall be applied in the enforcing of the Proviſions of this Act, in as full and ample a Manner as if the ſame had been ſeverally and ſeparately re-enacted in this Act.

36 Geo. 3. c. 22. repealed.

XII. And be it further enacted, That an Act made in the thirty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act to permit Bakers to make and ſell certain Sorts of Bread, ſhall be, and the ſame is hereby repealed.

The Lord Mayor, any Alderman of the City, and any Juſtice within their reſpective Juriſdictions, may determine in a ſummary Way, Offences againſt this Act; and if Penalties be not paid, may grant Warrants for levying them.

XIII. 'And, for the better and more eaſy Recovery of the ſeveral Penalties and Forfeitures to be incurred 'by Diſobedience to this Act, and the Powers herein contained, and diſpoſing of the Money which ſhall be 'forfeited by Breach or Non-obſervance of any Part of this Act:' Be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being, or any Aldermen of the ſaid City, within the ſaid City or Liberties thereof, and to and for any other of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace or Magiſtrates, or any one of them, within their reſpective Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities, Towns Corporate, Boroughs, Liberties, or Juriſdictions, to hear and determine, in a ſummary Way, all Offences committed againſt the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and for that Purpoſe to ſummon before them, or any of them, within their reſpective Juriſdictions, any Party or Parties accuſed of being an Offender or Offenders againſt the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and in caſe the Party accuſed ſhall not appear on ſuch Summons, or offer ſome reaſonable Excuſe for his Default, then, upon Oath by any credible Witneſs of any Offence committed contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, ſhall iſſue his or their Warrant or Warrants for apprehending the Offender or Offenders within the Juriſdiction of any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices; and upon the Appearance pearance of the Party or Parties accuſed, or in caſe he, ſhe, or they ſhall not appear, on Notice being given to or left for him, her, or them, at his, her, or their uſual Place of Abode, or if he, ſhe, or they cannot be apprehended on a Warrant granted againſt him, her, or them as herein-before is directed, then and in any ſuch Caſe, any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, is and are hereby authorized and required to proceed to make Enquiry, touching the Matters complained of, and to examine any Witneſs or Witneſſes, who ſhall be offered on either Side, on Oath as aforeſaid, and which every ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, is and are hereby authorized, empowered, and required to adminiſter; and after hearing of the Parties who ſhall appear, and the Witneſſes who ſhall be offered on either Side, ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, ſhall convict or acquit the Party or Parties accuſed; and if the Penalty or Money forfeited on any ſuch Conviction ſhall not be paid within the Space of twenty-four Hours after any ſuch Conviction, every ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, ſhall thereupon iſſue a Warrant or Warrants under his Hand and Seal, or their Hands and Seals, reſpectively, directed to any Peace Officer or Officers within their reſpective Juriſdictions, empowering him or them to make Diſtreſs of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders; and if any Offender ſhall convey away his Goods out of the Juriſdiction of any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, before whom he was convicted, or ſo much thereof that the Penalty cannot be levied, then ſome Magiſtrate or Juſtice within whoſe Juriſdiction the Offender ſhall have removed his Goods, ſhall back the Warrant granted by any ſuch Magiſtrate or Juſtice, Magiſtrates or Juſtices, and thereupon the Penalty forfeited ſhall be levied on the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Diſtreſs and Sale thereof; and if within five Days from the Diſtreſs being taken the Money forfeited ſhall not be paid, the Goods ſeized ſhall be appraiſed and ſold, rendering the Overplus (if any) after deducting the Penalty or Forfeiture, and the Coſts and Charges of the Proſecution, Diſtreſs and Sale, to the Owner; which Charges ſhall be aſcertained by the Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, before whom any ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall have been ſo convicted, or by the Magiſtrate or Juſtice who backed the Warrant, if either of them ſhall continue alive, and if not, by ſome other Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, or Place, in which the Offender ſhall have been convicted; and for Want of ſuch Diſtreſs, then every ſuch Magiſtrate or Juſtice within whoſe reſpective Juriſdiction any ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall reſide or be, ſhall, on the Application of any Proſecutor or Proſecutors, and Proof made of the Conviction and Non-payment of the Penalty and Charges by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, commit every ſuch Offender or Offenders to the Common Gaol or Houſe of Correction of the City or County, Riding, Diviſion, or Place, where ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be found, there to remain for the Space of one Calendar Month from the Time of ſuch Commitment, unleſs, after ſuch Commitment, Payment ſhall be made of the ſaid Penalty or Forfeiture, Coſts and Charges, before the Expiration of the ſaid one Calendar Month; and all ſuch Penalties and Forfeitures, when recovered, ſhall be paid to the Informer.

by Diſtreſs, and for Want thereof may commit the Offenders.

Penalties ſhall be paid to the Informer.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if it ſhall be made out by the Oath of any credible Perſon or Perſons, to the Satisfaction of any Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, that any one within the Juriſdiction of any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, is likely to give or offer material Evidence on behalf of the Proſecutor of any Offender or Offenders againſt the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or on behalf of the Perſon or Perſons accuſed, and will not voluntarily appear before ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, to be examined, and give his, her, or their Evidence concerning the Premiſes, every ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, is and are hereby authorized and required to iſſue his or their Summons to convene every ſuch Witneſs and Witneſſes before any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, at ſuch ſeaſonable Time as in ſuch Summons ſhall be fixed; and if any Perſon ſo ſummoned ſhall neglect or refuſe to appear at the Time by ſuch Summons appointed, and no juſt Excuſe ſhall be offered for ſuch Neglect or Refuſal, then (after Proof by Oath of ſuch Summons having been duly ſerved upon the Party or Parties ſo ſummoned) every ſuch Magiſtrate and Magiſtrates, Juſtice and Juſtices, is and are hereby authorized and required to iſſue his or their Warrant, under his Hand and Seal, or their Hands and Seals, to bring every ſuch Witneſs or Witneſſes before any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices; and on the Appearance of any ſuch Witneſs before any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, every ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, is and are hereby authorized and empowered to examine upon Oath every ſuch Witneſs; and if any ſuch Witneſs on his or her Appearance, or on being brought before any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, ſhall refuſe to be examined upon Oath concerning the Premiſes, without offering any juſt Excuſe for ſuch Refuſal, any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, within the Limits of his or their Juriſdiction, may, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, or their Hands and Seals, commit any Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſing to be examined, to the publick Priſon of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place, in which the Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſing to be examined ſhall be, there to remain for any Time not exceeding fourteen Days nor leſs than three Days, as any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, ſhall direct.

Witneſſes not appearing upon Summons may be brought before a Magiſtrate by Warrant, and refuſing to be examined upon Oath may be committed from fourteen Days to three Days.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, before whom any Perſon ſhall be convicted in manner preſcribed by this Act, ſhall cauſe ſuch reſpective Conviction to be drawn up in the Form or to the Effect following; (that is to ſay,) and ſhall not be removed.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That no Certiorari, Letters of Advocation or of Suſpenſion, ſhall be granted, to remove any Conviction or other Proceedings had thereon in purſuance of this Act.

Appeal may be made to the General or Quarter Seſſions, and the Matter finally determined there.

XVII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any Perſon convicted of any Offence puniſhable by this Act, ſhall think him, her, or themſelves aggrieved by the Judgment of the Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, before whom he, ſhe, or they ſhall have been convicted, ſuch Perſon ſhall have Liberty from Time to Time to appeal to the Juſtices at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace which ſhall be held for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place where ſuch Judgment ſhall have been given, and that the Execution of the ſaid Judgment ſhall in ſuch Caſes be ſuſpended, the Perſon ſo convicted entering into a Recognizance, at the Time of ſuch Conviction, with two ſufficient Sureties, in double the Sum which ſuch Perſon ſhall have been adjudged to pay or forfeit, upon Condition to proſecute ſuch Appeal with Effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the Judgment and Determination of the Juſtices at their ſaid next General or General Quarter Seſſions; which Recognizance the Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be had, is and are hereby empowered and required to take; and the Juſtices in the ſaid General or General Quarter Seſſions, are hereby authorized and required to hear and finally determine the Matter of every ſuch Appeal, and to award ſuch Coſts as to them ſhall appear juſt and reaſonable to be paid by either Party; and if, upon hearing the ſaid Appeal, the Judgment of the Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, before whom the Appellant or Appellants ſhall have been convicted, ſhall be affirmed, ſuch Appellant or Appellants ſhall immediately pay down the Sum he, ſhe, or they ſhall have been adjudged to forfeit, together with ſuch Coſts as the Juſtices in their ſaid General or General Quarter Seſſions ſhall award to be paid to the Proſecutor or Informer, for defraying the Expences ſuſtained by reaſon of any ſuch Appeal; and in default of the Appellant's paying the ſame, any two ſuch Juſtices, or any one ſuch Magiſtrate or Juſtice of the Peace, having Juriſdiction in the Place into which any ſuch Appellant or Appellants ſhall eſcape, or where he, ſhe, or they ſhall reſide, ſhall and may, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, or his Hand and Seal, commit every ſuch Appellant and Appellants to the Common Gaol of the County, City, Riding, Diviſion, Town, or Place, where he, ſhe, or they ſhall be apprehended, until he, ſhe, or they ſhall make Payment of ſuch Penalty and of the Coſts and Charges which ſhall be adjudged on the Conviction, to the Informer; but if the Appellant or Appellants in any ſuch Appeal ſhall make good his, her, or their Appeal, and be diſcharged of the ſaid Conviction, reaſonable Coſts ſhall be awarded to the Appellant or Appellants againſt ſuch Informer or Informers, who would (in caſe of ſuch Conviction) have been entitled to the Penalty to have been recovered as aforeſaid; and which Coſts ſhall and may be recovered by the Appellant or Appellants againſt any ſuch Informer or Informers, in like Manner as Coſts given at any General or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace are recoverable.

If Convictions be made within ſix Days before any Seſſions, the Parties may appeal either to that or the next following Seſſions.

XVIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That if any ſuch Conviction ſhall happen to be made within ſix Days before any General or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace which ſhall be held for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Borough, or Place, where ſuch Conviction ſhall have been made, then the Party or Parties who ſhall think him, her, or themſelves aggrieved by any ſuch Conviction, ſhall and may, on entering into a Recognizance, in manner and for the Purpoſes before directed, be at Liberty to appeal either to the then next or the next following General or General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace which ſhall be held for any ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate, Borough, Liberty, or Place, where any ſuch Conviction ſhall have been made.

Limitation of Actions againſt Magiſtrates or Peace Officers, ſix Months.

24 Geo. 2. c. 44. extended to Magiſtrates acting under this Act.

No Action ſhall be commenced againſt any Peace Officer until ſeven Days after Notice, who may within that Time tender Amends, and if not accepted may plead the Tender with the General Iſſue, and if found ſufficient

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every Action or Suit which ſhall be brought or commenced againſt any Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, or any Peace Officer or Officers, for any Matter or Thing done or committed by virtue of or under this Act, ſhall be commenced within ſix Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and ſhall be laid or brought in the County, City, or Place where the Matter in diſpute ſhall ariſe, and not elſewhere; and that the Statute made in the twenty-fourth Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the rendering Juſtices of the Peace more ſafe in the Execution of their Office, and for indemnifying Conſtables, and others acting in obedience to their Warrants, ſo far as the ſaid Act relates to the rendering the Juſtices more ſafe in the Execution of their Office, ſhall extend and be conſtrued to extend to the Magiſtrate and Magiſtrates, Juſtice and Juſtices of the Peace, acting under the Authority and in purſuance of this Act; and that no Action or Suit ſhall be had or commenced againſt, nor ſhall any Writ be ſued out, or Copy of any Writ be ſerved upon any Peace Officer or Officers, for any Thing done in the Execution of this Act, until ſeven Days after a Notice in Writing ſhall have been given to or left for him or them, at his or their uſual Place of Abode, by the Attorney for the Party intending to commence ſuch Action; which Notice in Writing ſhall contain the Name and Place of Abode of the Perſon intending to bring ſuch Action, and alſo of his Attorney, and likewiſe the Cauſe of Action or Complaint; and any Peace Officer or Officers ſhall be at Liberty, and may by virtue of this Act, at any Time within ſeven Days after any ſuch Notice ſhall have been given to or left for him, tender or cauſe to be tendered any Sum or Sums of Money, as Amends for the Injury complained of, to the Party complaining, or to the Attorney named in any ſuch Notice; and if the ſame is not accepted of, the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action or Actions may plead ſuch Tender in Bar of ſuch Action or Actions, together with the General Iſſue, or any other Plea, with Leave of the Court in which the Action ſhall be commenced; and if upon Iſſue joined on ſuch Tender the Jury ſhall find find the Amends tendered to have been ſufficient, they ſhall find a Verdict for the Defendant or Defendants; and in every ſuch Caſe, or if the Plaintiff ſhall become Nonſuit, or diſcontinue his Action, or if Judgment ſhall be given for the Defendant or Defendants upon Demurrer, or if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought after the Time limited by this Act for bringing the ſame, or ſhall be brought in any other County or Place than as aforeſaid, then and in any ſuch Caſe the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants, and the Defendant or Defendants ſhall be entitled to his or their Coſts; but if the Jury ſhall find that no ſuch Tender was made, or that the Amends tendered were not ſufficient, or ſhall find againſt the Defendant or Defendants, on any Plea or Pleas by him or them pleaded, they ſhall then give a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and ſuch Damages as they ſhall think proper, and the Plaintiff ſhall thereupon recover his Coſts againſt every ſuch Defendant and Defendants.

If the Jury find for the Plaintiff, they ſhall give a Verdict for Damages.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action or Suit may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance and by the Authority of this Act; and if it ſhall appear ſo to have been done, or if a Verdict ſhall be recorded for the Defendant or Defendants, or if the Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuited or diſcontinue his Action after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if Judgment ſhall be given upon a Verdict or Demurrer againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action ſhall and may recover Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Caſes by Law, for Recovery of his, her, or their Coſts.

Defendants may plead the General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

XXI. Provided always, That no Perſon ſhall be convicted in manner aforeſaid, for any of the beforementioned Offences, unleſs the Proſecution in order to ſuch Conviction be commenced within fourteen Days next after the Offence committed.

Proſecutions for Offences ſhall be commenced within fourteen Days.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act impoſed and inflicted, ſhall go and be diſtributed in manner following, (that is to ſay,) when any Offender or Offenders ſhall be convicted, either by his, her, or their own Confeſſion, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, ſuch Penalty or Forfeiture ſhall go and be paid to the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall inform againſt and proſecute to Conviction any ſuch Offender or Offenders, and all Penalties and Forfeitures which ſhall ariſe or be incurred by reaſon of any Search, Trial, or Seizure, made in purſuance of any of the Powers and Proviſions of this Act, by any Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, ſhall go and be applied to or for the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh wherein ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, or the Party convicted, in ſuch Manner as any ſuch Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, Juſtice or Juſtices, within his or their Juriſdiction, ſhall from Time to Time think fit.

Application of Penalties.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue in force until the ſixth Day of November one thouſand eight hundred and one, and from thence to the End of ſix Weeks from the Commencement of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

MEMORANDUM.—That when the Price of the Sack of Flour ſhall exceed the Sum of 105 Shillings, the Price of Bread is to be aſcertained and ſet from the above Tables, by duly obſerving the Proportions upon which the above Tables are calculated as near as can be.

CAP. XVII.

An Act to prohibit until the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, and from thence to the End of ſix Weeks next after the Commencement of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, any Perſon or Perſons from ſelling any Bread, which ſhall not have been baked Twenty-four Hours. [31ſt December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to reduce, as much as poſſible, at the preſent Moment, the Conſumption of Wheat Flour: And whereas it appears that a conſiderable Saving would ariſe, if Bread was prohibited from being ſold until it had been baked a certain Time:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall not be lawful for any Baker, or other Perſon or Perſons, to ſell or offer or expoſe to Sale, or ſend out for Sale, or deliver on his or their Account, or on that of any other Perſon, any Bread, until the ſame ſhall have been baked twenty-four Hours at the leaſt; and every Baker, or other Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall act contrary hereto, or offend herein, ſhall for every Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor leſs than five Shillings, at the Diſcretion of the Magiſtrate, for every Loaf, Half Loaf, or any ſmaller or larger Part or Portion of a Loaf, or for every Cake or Roll, Muffin or Crumpet, or any Bread commonly known by the Name of French Bread, made of the Flour of Wheat, Barley, Oats, Rye, Peaſe, or Rice, ſo ſold, offered, expoſed to or ſent out for Sale; which Penalty ſhall and may be recovered before any one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the County, City, or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, upon the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, who ſhall prove, to the Satisfaction of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, that the ſaid Bread had not been baked twenty-four Hours (which Oath ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices is and are hereby empowered to adminiſter) one Moiety whereof ſhall be paid to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed; and if the ſaid Penalty ſhall not be forthwith paid, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, to cauſe the ſaid Penalty to be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Party offending, rendering the Overplus (if any) to the Owner or Owners of ſuch Goods and Chattels, after deducting the ſaid Penalty, and the Coſts and Charges of taking and making ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale.

No Perſon ſhall ſell or expoſe to Sale, any Bread, until it ſhall have been baked twenty-four Hours, on Penalty of from 40s. to 5s. for every Loaf, Cake, Roll, Muffin, &c.

Penalty may be recovered before one Juſtice, and divided between the Informer and the Poor of the Pariſh.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the twenty-four Hours, previous to the Expiration of which it ſhall not be lawful for any Baker, or other Perſon or Perſons, to ſell Bread, or offer or expoſe it to or ſend it out for Sale, ſhall be computed from the Time at which ſuch Bread was taken out of the Oven or other Place uſed for the Purpoſe of baking or heating it: Provided alſo, That it ſhall not be lawful for any Baker, or other Perſon or Perſons employed by any ſuch Baker, to uſe any Art or Artifice whatever for preſerving the Heat or Moiſture in Bread longer than ſuch Heat or Moiſture would be preſerved by the fair Mode of keeping Bread in the ordinary Way of his Buſineſs; and every Baker or other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall act contrary to or offend herein, ſhall for every ſuch Offence be liable to the ſame Penalty, to be recovered in the ſame Mode, as is herein-before enacted in the Caſe of the Sale of new Bread.

The 24 Hours ſhall be computed from taking the Bread out of the Oven; and no Art ſhall be uſed for preſerving the Heat or Moiſture of the Bread.

III. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſeveral Wardmote Inqueſts of the City of London, or ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as are authorized by any Act heretofore paſſed, to enter into any Houſe, Shop, Stall, Bakehouſe, Warehouſe, Outhouſe, or other Place of or belonging to any Baker or Seller of Bread, at all Times, within their reſpective Limits, to ſearch any Baſket, Wheelbarrow, Cart, or other Conveyance uſed by any Baker for the Purpoſe of carrying Bread to or for any Dealer therein, or Conſumer thereof; and in caſe any Bread ſhall be found in the ſame which ſhall not have been baked twenty-four Hours at the leaſt, all ſuch Bread, which ſhall be ſo found in any ſuch Baſket, Wheelbarrow, Cart, or other Conveyance, ſhall be deemed and taken as Bread expoſed to Sale within the Intent and Meaning of this Act; and in caſe ſuch Wardmote Inqueſts, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo authorized as aforeſaid ſhall not be able to diſcover the Owner or Owners of ſuch Bread, then the ſaid Wardmote Inqueſt, or any four or more of the Perſons compoſing the ſame, or ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo authorized as aforeſaid, ſhall and may ſeize ſuch Bread, and after Seizure thereof ſhall, with all convenient Speed, cauſe the ſame to be carried to any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace for the County, City, or Place where the Offence ſhall be committed, who ſhall and may diſpoſe thereof, as he or they in his or their Diſcretion ſhall think fit.

The Wardmote Inqueſts of London, or authorized Perſons, may enter Shops, &c. and ſearch Baſkets, &c. uſed for carrying out Bread, and if any be found therein not baked twenty-four Hours, and if the Owner cannot be found, it may be ſeized and carried before a Juſtice, who may diſpoſe thereof as he ſhall think fit.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall wilfully obſtruct or hinder any Search herein-before authorized to be made, or the Seizure of any Bread which ſhall be found on any ſuch Search, or the taking or carrying away the ſame, he, ſhe, or they ſo doing or offending ſhall, upon being convicted thereof before any ſuch laſt-mentioned Magiſtrate, forfeit and pay for every Offence any Sum not exceeding five Pounds nor leſs than ten Shillings, as the Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates, before whom ſuch Offender or Offenders ſhall be convicted, ſhall think fit to order.

Penalty for obſtructing any Search, or Seizing of Bread, from 5l. to 10s.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Baker or other Perſon who ſhall ſell or deliver, or offer or expoſe to Sale, any Bread which ſhall not have been baked twenty-four Hours, to or for the Uſe of any of his Majeſty's Troops on Act not to extend to Bread for the Uſe of Troops on their March, &c.

on their March, or within twenty-four Hours after their Arrival at any Quarter, Barrack, or Cantonment.

Appeal may be made to the Quarter Seſſions, who may finally determine the Matter.

VI. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted, That all and every Perſon or Perſons who ſhall think him, her, or themſelves aggrieved, by the Judgment or Determination of any ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices as aforeſaid, in reſpect of any pecuniary Penalty, may appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place, where ſuch Judgment ſhall be given, at their then next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, unleſs ſuch General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace ſhall happen to be holden within ſix Days next after any ſuch Conviction, and in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Perſon or Perſons may appeal to the next ſubſequent General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace which ſhall be holden for any ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, or Place; but no ſuch Appeal ſhall be received, heard, or determined, unleſs the Appellant or Appellants ſhall firſt enter into a Recognizance, with two ſufficient Sureties, before ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſo convicting as aforeſaid, in the Sum of twenty Pounds each, to appear and proſecute every ſuch Appeal with Effect; and the Juſtices of the Peace at ſuch General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace are hereby authorized and required, on every ſuch Appeal being made, and on reaſonable Notice thereof given to the other Party, finally to hear and determine the Matter of every ſuch Appeal, and to make ſuch Order and to award ſuch Coſts therein as they in their Diſcretion ſhall ſee meet, and which ſaid Order and Determination ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties, and no Certiorari ſhall be allowed to remove any ſuch Proceedings or Determination.

Complaints for Offences committed within certain Limits, ſhall be heard at the neareſt Publick Office.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Complaint which ſhall be made of any Offence againſt this Act, alledged to have been committed within thoſe Parts of the Counties of Middleſex and Surrey which lie within the Bills of Mortality, or in the Pariſhes of Saint Mary-le-bone and Pancras, in the ſaid County of Middleſex, ſhall be heard and determined by ſome one or more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, acting in and for the ſaid Counties, at ſuch of the Publick Offices, eſtabliſhed by virtue of an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ſecond Year of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Adminiſtration of the Office of a Juſtice of the Peace, in ſuch Parts of the Counties of Middleſex and Surrey as lie in and near the Metropolis, and for the more effectual Prevention of Felonies; and further continued by virtue of an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, as ſhall be next or near to the Place in which ſuch Offence ſhall be alledged to have been committed.

Proſecutions ſhall be commenced within three Days.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be convicted in manner aforeſaid, for any of the before mentioned Offences, unleſs the Proſecution, in order to ſuch Conviction, be commenced within three Days next after the Offence committed.

Continuance of Act, till Oct. 1, 1801, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue in force until the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, and from thence to the End of ſix Weeks next after the Commencement of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to permit, until the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, the Importation of Swediſh Herrings into Great Britain. [31ſt December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient, under the preſent Circumſtances, to permit, for a limited Time, the Importation of Swediſh Herrings into Great Britain in Britiſh Ships, or in Ships belonging to Perſons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majeſty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, without Payment of Duty;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, and until the firſt Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatever, to import into Great Britain, from any Port or Place in Sweden, in any Britiſh Ship or Veſſel, or in any other Ship or Veſſel belonging to Perſons of any Kingdom or State in Amity with his Majeſty, and navigated in any Manner whatever, any Herrings caught and cured on any of the Coaſts of Sweden, without the Payment of any Duty whatever; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Until Oct. 1, 1801, Herrings may be imported from Sweden, in Britiſh Veſſels, or in Veſſels of any Kingdom in Amity with his Majeſty, Duty-free.

"Entry ſhall be made of ſuch Herrings at the Port of Importation on Penalty of Forfeiture. § 2. [as under § 2. of c. 11. of this Seſſion.]"

CAP. XIX.

An Act to remove Doubts ariſing upon the Conſtruction of an Act of this Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting Bounties on the Importation of Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, Beans, and Indian Corn, and of Barley, Rye, Oat, and Indian Meal, and Wheaten Flour and Rice. [31ſt December 1800.]

Cap. 10. [§ 20.] 'WHEREAS by an Act, made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting Bounties on the Importation of Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, Peaſe, Beans, and Indian Corn, and of Barley, Rye, Oat, and Indian Meal, and Wheaten Flour and Rice, it was enacted, That before any Corn, 'Grain,

'Grain, or Pulſe, or any Flour or Rice, in the ſaid Act mentioned, imported or brought into this Kingdom for Bounty, under the Regulations of the ſaid recited Act, ſhould be delivered out of the Charge of the Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Act mentioned, that the ſame ſhould be inſpected and examined in the Manner in the ſaid Act mentioned: And whereas it was alſo enacted in the ſaid recited Act, That Returns ſhould be made to the Inſpector of Corn Returns, in the Manner in the ſaid Act mentioned, of all Foreign Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, that ſhall be examined and certified under the ſaid Act: And whereas Doubts have ariſen whether all Foreign Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, in, by, and under the Proviſions of the ſaid recited Act, to be examined and returned to the Inſpector of Corn Returns, whether any Bounties are claimed or are payable on ſuch Corn, Grain or Pulſe, or not;' for Remedy whereof, be it declared and enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act was intended, and ſhall be deemed and conſtrued to require, that before any Foreign Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, imported or brought into this Kingdom during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, ſhall be delivered out of the Charge of the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms in the ſaid Act mentioned, ſuch Articles reſpectively ſhall be carefully and attentively inſpected and examined, and if the ſame are merchantable, certified in Manner in the ſaid Act mentioned; and that all Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, that ſhall be certified under the ſaid Act, ſhall be returned to the Inſpector of Corn Returns, as in the ſaid Act is directed, whether any Bounty or Bounties ſhall be claimed or payable on any ſuch Corn, Grain, or Pulſe, or not; any Thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Before any Foreign Corn whatever ſhall be delivered out of the Charge of the proper Officer, it ſhall be inſpected; and if merchantable ſhall be certified, and Returns thereof made to the Inſpector, whether Bounty be claimed or not.

CAP. XX.

An Act to revive and continue until the Expiration of ſix Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and amend ſo much of an Act of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, as relates to the reducing and better collecting the Duties payable on the Importation of Starch; and to continue for the ſame Time ſeveral Laws relating to the enabling his Majeſty to permit Goods to be imported into this Kingdom in Neutral Ships; to the authorizing his Majeſty to make Regulations reſpecting the Trade to the Cape of Good Hope; and to the preventing Offences in obſtructing, deſtroying, or damaging Ships, and in obſtructing Seamen and others from purſuing their lawful Occupations. [31ſt December 1800.]

'WHEREAS the Laws hereinafter mentioned have by Experience been found uſeful and beneficial,' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſo much of an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for reducing, until the firſt Day of June one thouſand eight hundred, the Duties upon Spirits diſtilled from Melaſſes or Sugar, or any Mixture therewith; for prohibiting the Diſtillation of Spirits from Wheat or Wheat Flour; and for reducing, until the twentieth Day of September one thouſand eight hundred, and better collecting the Duties payable on the Importation of Starch, as relates to the reducing and better collecting the Duties payable on the Importation of Starch, ſhall, from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thouſand eight hundred, be revived; and the ſame is hereby revived, and ſhall continue in force until the Expiration of ſix Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament: Provided always, That for and in reſpect of any Foreign Starch which ſhall be imported under the Authority of the ſaid Act hereby revived and continued, or which ſhall have been ſo imported, and for which the Duties ſhall not have been actually paid, there ſhall be charged and paid a Duty at and after the Rate of Threepence Farthing per Pound Weight Avoirdupois only; any Thing in the ſaid Act, or any other Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

So much of 39 & 40 Geo. 3. c. 8. as relates to the reducing and collecting the Import Duties on Starch, ſhall, from Sept. 29, 1800, be revived, and continued until ſix Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion; and a Duty after the Rate of 3¼d. per lb. only ſhall be paid.

" 39 Geo. 3. c. 112. [continued by 39 and 40 Geo. 3. cc. 9. 17.] 37 Geo. 3. c. 21. [continued by 38 Geo. 3. c. 9. 39 Geo. 3. c. 12. 39 and 40 Geo. 3. cc. 19 and 17.] And 33 Geo. 3. c. 67, further continued until ſix Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion. §§ 2, 3, 4."

CAP. XXI.

An Act for allowing, until the fifteenth Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, the Uſe of Salt, Duty free, in the preſerving of Fiſh in Bulk or in Barrels; for protecting Perſons, engaged in ſuch Fiſheries, from being impreſſed into his Majeſty's Service; for diſcontinuing the Bounty payable on White Herrings exported; and for allowing a Bounty on Pilchards now cured, whether exported or ſold for Home Conſumption. [31ſt December 1800.]

'WHEREAS in order to procure a large Supply of good and wholeſome Fiſh, it is expedient to allow Salt to be uſed, Duty free, for a limited Time, for the Purpoſe of curing or preſerving Herrings, Pilchards, Mackarel, and all other Kinds or Species of wholeſome Fiſh, either in Bulk or in Barrels;'

'rels;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, during the Continuance of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall catch or take, or purchase and cure or preserve any Herrings, Pilchards, Mackarel, or any other Kind or Species of wholesome Fish, or who shall fit out any Vessel for such Purpose, to take and ship on board his or their Vessel, from his or their own Stock of Salt, or from the Stock of Salt of any other Fish Curer, of whom such Person or Persons shall purchase, or with whom he or they shall contract for Salt, any Quantity of Salt, Duty free, that shall be deemed necessary for curing or preserving the Fish which may be expected to be taken or purchased in the Trip or Voyage in or upon which he or they shall immediately intend to dispatch or employ his or their Vessel: Provided always, That no Person or Persons shall be allowed to ship or have on board any Vessel, at any Time, any greater or larger Quantity of Salt, than in the Proportion of ten Bushels for every Ton Burthen, by Admeasurement of the Vessel in or on board of which such Salt shall be taken or shipped: Provided also, That before any Person or Persons whatever shall receive into his or their Custody or Possession, or take or ship on board any Vessel or Vessels, any Quantity of Salt, free of Duty, for the Purpose of salting, curing, or preserving Fish, such Person or Persons shall make Entry in Writing at the next Office of Excise, of his or their Name or Names, and Place or Places of Abode, and of the Number and Situation of every Warehouse, which he or they shall intend to make use of for the keeping or storing of Salt, and shall also give Bond or Security to be approved by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in the Sum of five hundred Pounds, that he or they will duly account with the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, according to the Directions of this Act, for all the Salt which he or they shall at any Time take, ship, receive, or have on board his or their Vessel or Vessels, for the Purpose of salting, curing, or preserving of Fish, and that such Salt, and every Part thereof, shall be fairly and bona fide employed, spent, and consumed, in salting, curing, or preserving of Fish as aforesaid, or shall be returned into the Warehouse entered for the keeping or storing of Salt, Duty free, from whence the same was taken; and that no Part of such Salt, so taken, shipped, received, or had on board any such Vessel or Vessels as aforesaid, shall be fraudulently sold or disposed of, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Salt may be taken on board, Duty free, for curing Fish, in the Proportion of 10 Bushels for every Ton Burthen of the Vessel.

Before Salt is received, Duty free, an Entry shall be made at the Excise Office of the Name of the Party, &c. and Bond given for duly accounting for the Salt.

II. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons or Person intending to ship any such Salt for the Purpose aforesaid, shall give to the proper Officer of Excise of the Port or Place from whence such Salt shall be taken and shipped, a Notice in Writing specifying his or their Name or Names, the Name of the Vessel on board which the Salt is intended to be shipped, the Name of the Master thereof, the Burthen or Tonnage of such Vessel, the Place to which such Vessel is bound, the particular Sorts or Species of Fish expected to be taken or purchased and cured, and the exact and true Quantity and Species of Salt intended to be shipped or put on board such Vessel.

Persons intending to ship Salt, shall give Notice to the Excise Officer of certain Particulars.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any known and entered Fish Curer or Fish Curers, to deliver any Part of his Stock of Salt, Duty free, into the Custody or Possession of any Person or Persons who shall have made Entry and given Bond or Security, in pursuance of and according to the Directions of this Act, for taking, or purchasing, and curing or preserving Fish: Provided always, That such Salt shall be delivered under, subject, and according to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions provided and prescribed by an Act passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for transferring the Management of the Salt Duties to the Commissioners of Excise, and for other Purposes.

Fish Curers may deliver any Part of their Stock of Salt, Duty free, to Persons who have made Entry and given Bond as required.

Such Salt shall be delivered under the Rules of 38 Geo. 3. c. 89.

IV. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as any Salt shall have been shipped or taken on board any Vessel for the Purpose of curing or preserving Fish as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the proper Officer of Excise to whom the Notice of shipping such Salt shall have been delivered as aforesaid, and such Officer is hereby authorized and required to give and grant to the Owner, Proprietor, or Master of such Vessel, a Certificate specifying the Name of the Vessel and of the Master thereof, the Tonnage or Burthen of such Vessel, the Quantity and Species of Salt taken, had, or received on board such Vessel, and the Name or Names of the Person or Persons from whose Stock of Salt the same was taken and shipped, the Place from whence taken and shipped, the Time when shipped, and the Place to which the Vessel on board which the same shall be so shipped is bound.

When Salt is shipt, the Excise Officer shall give a Certificate specifying certain Particulars.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Master of any Vessel, on board which any Salt shall be so taken or shipped as aforesaid, shall unship or unlade, or cause or procure to be unshipped or unladen, or wilfully or knowingly permit or suffer to be unshipped or unladen, any Part of any Cargo of salted or cured Fish, except at some lawful Quay within the Kingdom of Great Britain, he, she, or they, shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 100l. for unshipping cured Fish, except at a lawful Quay.

VI. And be it further enacted, That within twenty-four Hours after any such Vessel on board of which any Salt shall have been taken or shipped as aforesaid, shall arrive at the Port at which the Cargo of such Vessel is to be unladen or delivered, the Master of such Vessel shall make Entry in Writing with the proper Officer of Excise of such Port, specifying the Quantity and Kinds or Species of salted or cured Fish of which the Cargo of such Vessel shall consist; that is to say, if Herrings, the Quantity, according to the exact and true Number of Crans of thirty-four Gallons each, English Wine Measure, of fresh Herrings, which were taken or received on board his Vessel; if Pilchards or Mackarel, the exact and true Number of Barrels, consisting of fifty Gallons each of the like Measure, which were taken or received on board fresh; and if any other Kind or Species of Fish, the exact and true Number of Barrels of two hundred Pounds Weight each, or the exact and true Weight of such Fish; and also the exact and true Quantity of Salt actually employed

Within 24 Hours after Arrival at the Port of unshipping the Cargo of any Vessel on board of which Salt shall have been taken, the Master shall make an Entry of certain Particulars

ployed and ſpent in curing and preſerving ſuch Fiſh reſpectively, and likewiſe the true Quantity of Salt which ſhall be then remaining, in or on board his Veſſel, unuſed; and thereupon the proper Officer of Exciſe ſhall go on board and inſpect and examine all ſuch Fiſh and Salt, and ſhall grant Permiſſion, in Writing under his Hand, for unloading and landing all ſuch Fiſh, which, if required by ſuch Officer, ſhall be unladen (and if in Bulk, meaſured or weighed) by ſuch Maſter, in the Preſence of the proper Officer of Exciſe; and if any ſuch Maſter ſhall neglect or refuſe to make ſuch Entry as aforeſaid, or make any falſe Entry, or ſhall refuſe to unlade the ſalted Fiſh of which his Cargo ſhall conſiſt, and to meaſure or weigh ſuch Part thereof as ſhall be imported in Bulk, in the Preſence of the proper Officer of Exciſe, he ſhall forfeit, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

with the Exciſe Officer, who ſhall go on board and examine, and grant Permiſſion for unloading the Fiſh, and if he require it, in his Preſence.

Penalty of 100l. on Maſters for Neglect.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Certificate which ſhall have been received by any ſuch Maſter for or in reſpect of any ſuch Salt as aforeſaid, ſhall be produced to the proper Officer of Exciſe by whom the Cargo of the Veſſel on board which the Salt, for or in reſpect of which ſuch Certificate as aforeſaid ſhall have been granted, ſhall be inſpected, examined, and taken Account of; and if ſuch Officer ſhall be ſatisfied that the Salt ſpecified in ſuch Entry to have been uſed, ſhall have been fairly and bona fide ſpent and conſumed in preſerving or curing the ſalted Fiſh of which the Cargo ſhall conſiſt, according to the Directions of this Act, then and in ſuch Caſe ſuch Officer ſhall indorſe on ſuch Certificate the true Quantity of Fiſh cured or preſerved, and landed out of ſuch Veſſel, and the exact Quantity of Salt remaining on board; which Certificate, being produced to and left with the proper Officer of Exciſe of the Port or Place at which or from whence the Salt to which ſuch Certificate may have Reference ſhall have been ſhipped or taken on board ſuch Veſſel, ſuch laſt-mentioned Officer ſhall give Credit for or write off from the Account of the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſtand charged in the Books or Accounts of the Exciſe with ſuch Salt, ſo much Salt as ſhall appear by the Indorſement of the proper Officer of Exciſe on ſuch Certificate to have been actually uſed, ſpent, and conſumed, in curing and preſerving Fiſh, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and ſhall permit and allow all the Salt remaining unuſed in or on board ſuch Veſſel, to be returned into the Warehouſe from whence the ſame was taken, and ſhall write off or give Credit for the Quantity of Salt actually ſo returned, or ſhall permit the ſame to be taken out, by and at the Option of the Maſter or Owner of the Veſſel, for curing or preſerving Fiſh on his next ſubſequent Trip or Voyage, either with or without any additional Quantity of Salt, (not exceeding in the Whole the Proportion herein-before mentioned,) as he or they ſhall deem neceſſary; and every ſuch Officer of Exciſe ſhall, upon ſuch ſubſequent Trip or Voyage, and upon ſuch Notice as is herein-before required, give to the Maſter of ſuch Veſſel, ſuch and the like Certificate as is by this Act before directed.

Certificates received in reſpect of Salt, ſhall be produced to the Exciſe Officer by whom the Cargo ſhall be inſpected, who ſhall, if ſatisfied, indorſe thereon the Quantity of Fiſh cured and landed, and the Quantity of Salt remaining; and the Officer of the Port from which the Salt was taken, ſhall give Credit for ſuch Salt as ſhall appear to have been uſed, and ſhall permit the Remainder to be warehouſed, &c.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That immediately upon the Delivery to the proper Officer of Exciſe of any ſuch Entry as is herein-before directed, the Maſter of the Veſſel making or giving the ſame ſhall make Oath before the proper Officer of Exciſe (which Oath ſuch Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to adminiſter) to the Truth of ſuch Entry, and every Part thereof, and that he has not taken or received on board his Veſſel, or included in his Entry, any Fiſh whatever, ſave and except ſuch Fiſh only as hath been fairly and bona fide ſalted, cured, and preſerved, on board the Veſſel of which he is the Maſter, nor any Fiſh which he has any Reaſon to know or believe have been imported on board any other Veſſel whatever; that he has not directly or indirectly ſold, embezzled, or fraudulently diſpoſed of, or concealed, or conveyed away, or ſuffered any other Perſon or Perſons to ſell, embezzle, diſpoſe of, or conceal, or convey away, any Part of the Salt taken, ſhipped, or laden on board his Veſſel, for ſalting, curing, or preſerving Fiſh.

Maſters ſhall make Oath of the Truth of Entries, and that they have not included therein any Fiſh but what have been fairly cured on board, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any Officer of Exciſe, at all Times, to go and remain on board any ſuch Veſſel as aforeſaid, and to inſpect, examine, and take Account of all Salt, and ſalted Fiſh, and other Articles or Commodities whatſoever, in or on board ſuch Veſſel.

Exciſe Officers may go on board, and take Account of Salt and ſalted Fiſh.

X. And be it further enacted, That if the Quantity of ſalted or cured Fiſh actually unladed or delivered from on board any ſuch Veſſel as aforeſaid in the Preſence of the proper Officer of Exciſe, ſhall fall ſhort of the Quantity ſpecified in ſuch Entry as aforeſaid, in the Proportion of one Part in five of the whole Quantity ſpecified in ſuch Entry, that then and in ſuch Caſe ſuch Entry ſhall be deemed and taken to be a falſe and untrue Entry, and the Maſter making the ſame ſhall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

If the Fiſh unladen ſhall be ſhort 1-5th Part of the Quantity entered, the Maſter ſhall forfeit 100l.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Credit or Allowance for Salt uſed in the ſalting, curing, or preſerving Fiſh, under the Directions or Authority of this Act, ſhall, at any Time or in any Caſe, be made or given beyond the Quantity of Salt actually and bona fide employed and ſpent in the ſalting, curing, and preſerving the Fiſh, for which ſuch Credit or Allowance ſhall be claimed; nor ſhall any ſuch Credit or Allowance exceed the following Proportions, that is to ſay, for every Cran conſiſting of thirty-four Gallons, Engliſh Wine Meaſure, of Herrings, actually ſalted, cured, preſerved, and produced to the proper Officer of Exciſe in a good, wholeſome, and merchantable State, ſixty-five Pounds Weight of Salt; for every Barrel of fifty Gallons, of the like Meaſure, of Pilchards or Mackarel, ſo ſalted, cured, preſerved, and produced as aforeſaid, ninety-five Pounds Weight of Salt; for every one hundred Weight of all other Fiſh, ſo ſalted, cured, preſerved, and produced as aforeſaid, twenty-two Pounds Weight of Salt; any Thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Credit for Salt uſed in curing Fiſh ſhall not exceed the Quantities herein ſpecified, XII. And be it further enacted, That no further or other Credit or Allowance for Salt ſhall be made, given, or granted, for or in reſpect of any Fiſh for which the Credit or Allowance of Salt, by this Act given or granted, ſhall be claimed, ſet off, or allowed.

and no further Allowance ſhall be granted.

No Bounty ſhall be given for Fiſh cured under this Act, except Red Herrings.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Bounty ſhall be given, granted, allowed, or paid for or in reſpect of any Fiſh whatever, ſalted, cured, or preſerved, under the Authority, Directions, or Proviſions of this Act, other than and except ſuch Herrings as ſhall be cured and legally packed as Red Herrings.

Maſters of Veſſels importing ſalted Fiſh into the Port of London ſhall make Entry and Oath with the Exciſe Officer at Graveſend, and unlade into Boats the Cargo in his Preſence.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Maſter of every Veſſel in or on board of which any ſalted Fiſh taken and cured under the Authority and Direction of this Act, ſhall be imported or brought into the Port of London, ſhall make the Entry and Oath herein-before directed, with and before the proper Officer of Exciſe at Graveſend, and ſhall then and there take out and unlade into proper Boats or Lighters, all his Cargo of ſalted Fiſh, in the Preſence of the proper Officer of Exciſe, in the Manner, according to the Directions, and ſubject to the Penalty in caſe of Neglect, Refuſal, or falſe Entry, which is herein-before directed, in reſpect of Veſſels arriving with and unlading ſalted Fiſh at any lawful Quay in Great Britain.

Perſons conceal-ing, &c. Salt ſhipt for curing Fiſh, ſhall forfeit 50l. and the Salt ſhall be forfeited.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatever ſhall clandeſtinely or fraudulently conceal, embezzle, ſell, diſpoſe of, or carry or convey away, any Salt that ſhall be taken or ſhipped on board any Veſſel, for the ſalting, curing, or preſerving of Fiſh, under the Powers and Authorities by this Act given or granted, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; and all Salt ſo concealed, embezzled, ſold, diſpoſed of, or carried or conveyed away, together with the Package containing the ſame, ſhall be forfeited, and the ſame ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe.

For Herrings in Bulk cured as Red Herrings, or for Exportation to Ireland, the like Quantity of Salt ſhall be allowed as for Herrings in Bulk for Home Conſumption, on the Maſter's complying with the Rules of this Act, &c.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to take, purchaſe, and ſalt and preſerve Herrings in Bulk, either for the Purpoſe of curing the ſame as Red Herrings, or for immediate Exportation to Ireland; and ſuch Perſon ſhall be allowed ſuch and the like Quantity of Salt for every Cran (conſiſting of thirty-four Gallons of ſuch Herrings) as is allowed for curing and preſerving Herrings in Bulk for Home Conſumption: Provided the Maſter of ſuch Veſſel ſhall comply with and conform to the ſeveral Rules, Regulations, and Reſtrictions by this Act directed: And provided alſo, That the Maſter of every Veſſel intending to export Herrings in Bulk to Ireland, ſhall make a like Entry and Oath, with the Officer of Exciſe, at the Port neareſt to which the Herrings on board his Veſſel ſhall have been taken, as is required by this Act to be made for or in reſpect of Veſſels arriving with ſalted Fiſh to be landed at any Port in Great Britain, and ſhall permit and allow the proper Officer of Exciſe, to inſpect, examine, and take Account of all ſuch Herrings accordingly.

Exciſe Officers may take an Account of Pilchards cured and packed in the Cuſtody of any entered Fiſh Curer, and at the Expiration of a Month ſhall give him a Debenture of the Number of Barrels.

XVII. 'And whereas it is expedient to encourage the Sale of ſuch Pilchards for Home Conſumption as 'may be now in Store,' be it therefore enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officer or Officers of Exciſe, to take an immediate and true Account of all Pilchards which, at the Time of taking ſuch Account, ſhall be well and perfectly cured and packed in Barrels, and which ſhall be or remain in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any regular and entered Fiſh Curer; and ſuch Officer or Officers, at and after the Expiration of one Month after he or they ſhall have taken ſuch Account, and aſcertained the true Number of Barrels of ſuch Pilchards, ſhall give to the Proprietor or Owner thereof a Debenture ſpecifying the exact and true Number of Barrels of ſuch Pilchards ſo cured and packed as aforeſaid: Provided always, That before the proper Officer or Officers of Exciſe ſhall take any ſuch Account as aforeſaid, the Owner or Proprietor of ſuch Pilchards ſhall, upon being thereunto required by the proper Officer of Exciſe, forthwith deliver to ſuch Officer a Declaration in Writing, ſpecifying the exact and true Number of Barrels of Pilchards in his Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion, and whether any Debenture has been made out or granted, or any Bounty allowed or paid for any, and if for any, for how many Barrels of ſuch Pilchards, on Pain of forfeiting, for every Neglect or Refuſal to make ſuch Declaration, or for any falſe or untrue Declaration, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Before ſuch Account is taken, the Owner, upon being required, ſhall deliver a Declaration of the Number of Barrels of Pilchards in his Cuſtody, and whether any Debenture has been made out, or Bounty allowed, on Penalty of 100l.

On Production of the Debenture to the Collector of Exciſe, he ſhall pay the ſame Bounty as on Pilchards exported.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That upon any ſuch Debenture as aforeſaid being produced to the Collector of Exciſe, of the Collection in which the Fiſh Curer to whom the ſame was given or granted ſhall reſide, ſuch Collector ſhall, and he is hereby authorized and required, out of any Money in his Hands ariſing from the Duty on Salt, to pay to ſuch Fiſh Curer ſuch Bounty as he would have been entitled unto in caſe ſuch Pilchards had been duly and truly exported; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament, or in this Act, to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Officer ſhall brand Barrels of which an Account ſhall have been taken.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That when and ſo ſoon as any Officer or Officers of Exciſe, ſhall have taken Account of and aſcertained the true Number of Barrels of Pilchards in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any ſuch entered Fiſh Curer as aforeſaid, ſuch Officer or Officers ſhall forthwith burn or brand diſtinctly on each Barrel the Letters B. A. to denote that the ſame has been taken Account of, and the Bounty allowed thereon.

Penalty of 200l. for altering Marks on Barrels, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if any Fiſh Curer or other Perſon whatever ſhall alter or deface any Mark burnt or branded upon any Barrel of Pilchards, or ſhall repack any Pilchards upon which any Bounty ſhall have been allowed, or otherwiſe attempt or endeavour to obtain Credit for, or Payment of, any Bounty upon any Pilchards for which a Bounty had been before allowed or paid, or for the Payment of which Bounty any Debenture ſhall have been made out or granted, every Fiſh Curer or other Perſon, ſo offending, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

XXI. And

XXI. And be it further enacted, That before the Bounty on any Debenture ſhall be paid by any Collector of Exciſe, the Owner or Proprietor of the Pilchards, by whom ſuch Bounty ſhall be claimed, ſhall make Oath that no Bounty whatever has been paid, recovered, or allowed, nor any Debenture made out or granted for or in reſpect of the Pilchards, or any Part thereof, which are or ſhall be mentioned or ſpecified in ſuch Debenture, and that all ſuch Pilchards are well and perfectly cured and packed, and are good and merchantable Fiſh; which Oath ſuch Collector is hereby authorized and empowered to adminiſter.

Before any Bounty ſhall be paid on Pilchards, the Owner ſhall make Oath that no Bounty has been paid, and that they are merchantable Fiſh.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Proprietor or Owner of ſuch Pilchards, or to and for any other Perſon or Perſons who may be legally entitled to the ſame, to ſell or diſpoſe of ſuch Pilchards, or any Part thereof, either for Home Conſumption or for Exportation, ſubject nevertheleſs, if exported, to the Rules, Regulations, and Proviſions, to which the Exportation of Pilchards is now liable: Provided always, That no ſuch Pilchards ſhall at any Time be ſold or diſpoſed of, ſave and except in the original Barrels, marked and branded by the proper Officer or Officers of the Revenue, unleſs ſuch Pilchards ſhall be ſold by Retail in leſs Quantity than one Barrel, and in caſe any Fiſh Curer, or other Perſon or Perſons, ſhall ſell or diſpoſe of any Pilchards contrary to the Directions of this Act, he, ſhe, or they ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Such Pilchards may be ſold for Home Conſumption, or for Exportation, but only in the original Barrels, unleſs ſold by Retail, in leſs Quantity than a Barrel.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That no further or other Bounty than that which is given and granted by this Act, ſhall be claimed, paid, or allowed, for or in reſpect of any Pilchards for which a Debenture for the Bounty granted by this Act has been made out, for or on account of any ſuch Pilchards being exported; any Thing in this, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

No other Bounty than that given by this Act ſhall be paid for ſuch Pilchards exported.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Bond or Security given or taken for Salt to be uſed or employed in curing or preſerving Fiſh, nor any Certificate made out in relation to any ſuch Salt, ſhall be ſubject to any Stamp Duties; any Thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

No Bond or Certificate to be ſubject to Stamp Duty.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That no Fee, Gratuity, or Reward, ſhall be taken or received by any Officer or Officers of the Revenue, for or on Pretence of preparing or making out any Bond, Certificate, or Permiſſion required by this Act, or for or under any other Account or Pretence whatever, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of five Pounds.

No Fee ſhall be taken by any Officer of the Revenue on Penalty of 5l.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall counterfeit, forge, or alter, or cauſe to be counterfeited, forged, or altered, any Certificate in any Caſe in which a Certificate is by this Act required to be uſed, given, or granted, or ſhall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cauſe to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, any Indorſement or any ſuch Certificate, every ſuch Perſon ſo offending ſhall forfeit five hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 500l. for forging Certificates, &c.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be convicted of wilfully taking a falſe Oath in any of the Caſes in which an Oath is required to be taken by this Act, ſhall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Perſons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Perſons taking a falſe Oath to be liable to the Penalties for Perjury.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatever ſhall reſiſt, oppoſe, moleſt, hinder, or obſtruct, any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms or Exciſe, in the due Execution of this Act, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 200l. for obſtructing Officers.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Owners or Conſignees of any ſuch Cargo of Fiſh, ſalted or cured under the Proviſions of this Act, or the Maſter of any ſuch Veſſel laden with any ſuch Fiſh as aforeſaid, under this Act, to diſcharge and unlade, and cauſe to be diſcharged and unladen, all ſuch Fiſh as aforeſaid, by ſuch Perſons, and in ſuch Manner, and at ſuch Times and Places, (except as is provided by this Act with reſpect to the Officers of Exciſe,) as ſuch Owners, or Conſignees, or Maſters, reſpectively, ſhall judge proper; and no Perſon or Perſons employed by any ſuch Owner, Conſignee, or Maſter, in unloading any ſuch Fiſh, or diſcharging any ſuch Veſſel, ſhall be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture, or ſubject to any Reſtriction in reſpect thereof; and no Port or other Fees or Dues ſhall be payable or paid in reſpect of the unloading of any ſuch Fiſh or diſcharging of any ſuch Veſſel; any Act or Acts, Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Cargoes may be unladen as the Owners ſhall judge proper (except as to Exciſe Officers).

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no Perſon engaged or employed in the taking, catching, ſalting, curing, or preſerving, any Fiſh, under the Proviſions of this Act, or who ſhall be preparing to depart on board of or with any Veſſel, and Nets, for the Purpoſe of engaging in taking, catching, ſalting, curing, or preſerving Fiſh, under this Act, nor any Perſon returning therefrom, ſhall be impreſſed into his Majeſty's Service, but ſhall, and is hereby privileged and exempted therefrom, until the fifteenth Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one: Provided always, That every ſuch Perſon preparing to proceed on any Voyage or Trip under this Act, ſhall be furniſhed with a Certificate from the Collector or Comptroller of the Cuſtoms at or near the Port or Place to which he may belong or reſide, that he is actually and bona fide preparing to proceed on ſuch Voyage or Trip, which Certificate ſuch Collector or Comptroller is hereby directed and required to deliver to every ſuch Perſon as aforeſaid applying for the ſame, without Fee or Reward.

No Perſon employed in taking or curing Fiſh or preparing to depart on a Voyage, or returning therefrom, ſhall be impreſſed till Oct. 15, 1801, upon Certificate from the Officers of the Cuſtoms.

XXXI. 'And whereas by an Act, made in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, 'intituled, An Act for transferring the Management of the Salt Duties to the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, and for repealing '

Bounty granted by 38 Geo 3. c. 89, [§ 3.] on White Herrings diſcontinued until October 15, 1801.

'repealing the Duties on Salt, and the Drawbacks, Allowances, and Bounties paid thereout, and for granting other Duties, Drawbacks, Allowances, and Bounties thereon, a Bounty of two Shillings and eight Pence was granted on every Barrel of White Herrings, containing thirty-two Gallons, which ſhould be duly exported to Parts beyond the Seas: And whereas it is expedient that the ſaid Bounty ſhould be diſcontinued for a limited Time;' be it therefore enacted, That the ſaid Bounty ſhall be diſcontinued until the fifteenth Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one, ſave and except any Arrears of Bounty that may be due before the paſſing of this Act.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, impoſed by this Act, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by ſuch Ways, Means, or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture may be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland reſpectively; and that one Moiety of any ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him, or them, who will inform, diſcover, or ſue for the ſame.

Continuance of Act.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall commence and take effect from the Day on which the ſame ſhall receive the Royal Aſſent, and ſhall remain and continue in force until the fifteenth Day of October one thouſand eight hundred and one.

CAP. XXII.

An Act to authorize his Majeſty to appoint Commiſſioners for the more effectual Examination of Accounts of Publick Expenditure for His Majeſty's Forces in the Weſt Indies during the preſent War. [31ſt December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Proviſion ſhould be made for the ſpeedy and effectual Examination on the Spot of the Accounts of the ſeveral Commiſſaries and other Perſons in Publick Employments, who have been or who may be entruſted with the Expenditure of the Publick Money during the preſent War, in any of the Iſlands in the Weſt Indies, or with any of his Majeſty's Forces ſerving out of this Kingdom; for the Information of the Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts, and for the better enabling of the ſaid Commiſſioners to inveſtigate ſuch Accounts;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall be lawful for his Majeſty to nominate and appoint, by Commiſſion under the Great Seal of Great Britain, ſuch and ſuch Number of Perſons, not exceeding five, to be Commiſſioners for examining and inveſtigating the Publick Accounts, of all the Commiſſaries and other Perſons who have been or who may be concerned in the Expenditure of Publick Monies during the preſent War, in any of the Iſlands in the Weſt Indies, or who have been or may be employed with any of his Majeſty's Forces, on any Foreign Service or Station, and making Reports thereon, to the Commiſſioners for auditing the Publick Accounts: Provided always, That the Governor, or in the Abſence of the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, or Perſon acting as Governor, and the Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Forces for the Time being, if any ſuch there be in the Iſland or Place where any Inveſtigation under the Authority of this Act ſhall take place, and where ſuch Commiſſioners ſhall for the Time being act in the Execution of their Offices, ſhall be of the Number of ſuch Commiſſioners.

His Majeſty may appoint five Commiſſioners for examining the Accounts of Commiſſaries and others employed in the Weſt Indies and on Foreign Service, and making Reports thereon to the Commiſſioners for auditing Publick Accounts.

The Governor, &c. of the Place, ſhall always be one.

The Treaſury may appoint Officers and Clerks to aſſiſt the Commiſſioners, and allow them Salaries.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Lord High Treaſurer, or the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any three of them, for the Time being, ſhall be, and he or they are hereby authorized to appoint ſuch Officers and Clerks and other Perſons, to aid and aſſiſt ſuch Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, in the Execution of their Offices, as ſhall appear to them to be neceſſary from Time to Time, with ſuch Salaries to each as they ſhall judge proper, and to allow ſuch reaſonable Sums as to them ſhall ſeem fit, from Time to Time, for incidental Charges to be incurred therein; and ſuch Officers, Clerks, and other Perſons, ſhall not in any Caſe whatever, be entitled to, or take, or receive, any Fees, Gratuities, or Perquiſites whatever.

Commiſſioners may call before them all Perſons concerned in the Expenditure of Publick Monies, or in furniſhing Stores, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two of them, ſhall be, and they are hereby authorized and required to call before them by Precepts, under the Hands of any two or more of ſuch Commiſſioners, all Perſons who ſhall in any Caſe have been concerned in the Expenditure of any Publick Money, or who ſhall have been in any way concerned in the ſupplying or furniſhing any Money, Bills, Proviſions, Stores, or other Articles for the Publick Service, or any Perſon who in their Judgment may be likely to give uſeful Information on the Subject of any Enquiry which may be depending in any ſuch Iſland or Place aforeſaid, or in negociating Bills, and the Agents, Clerks, and Servants of any ſuch Perſons aforeſaid, to attend upon them perſonally from Time to Time, as they ſhall be required, and to exhibit to them the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, all ſuch Accounts, Books, Certificates, Warrants, Muniments, Receipts, Bills of Exchange, Notes, or other Papers whatever, in the Poſſeſſion of any ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or of any other Perſon or Perſons for him, her, or them, which to ſuch Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, ſhall appear to be neceſſary for the Purpoſe of their Examination of any Expenditure of any Publick Monies, or for the Inveſtigation of any Publick Accounts, or of the Rate of Exchange, at which which Bills have been or may be drawn, or for the due Execution of any of the Duties impoſed upon any ſuch Commiſſioners aforeſaid.

Perſons refuſing to appear, or to produce Accounts, or anſwer Queſtions, may be proceeded againſt in Manner herein directed.

IV. CAP. XXVIII.

An Act to explain, amend, and render more effectual, the ſeveral Acts made in the thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for the Redemption and Purchaſe of the Land Tax.

[31ſt December 1800.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that ſeveral of the Powers and Proviſions contained in the ſeveral Acts for the Redemption of the Land Tax ſhould be explained and enlarged;' be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and

Where Stock is transferred for the Redemption of Land Tax, which ought not to have been, the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt may, on Certificate from the Commissioners for Taxes, re-transfer the same, and the latter Commissioners may order Money, paid improperly to Receiver Generals for such Redemption, to be repaid to the Parties.

Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, where any Bodies Politick or Corporate, or Companies, or other Person or Persons, have transferred, or may hereafter transfer, to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, on account of the Redemption of Land Tax, any Consolidated or Reduced Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, which ought not to be transferred for that Purpose, then and in such Case, upon a Certificate signed by any three or more of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, that such Bank Annuities ought not to have been so transferred, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or any one or more of them, and they or he are or is hereby required to re-transfer the said Bank Annuities unto the Bodies Politick or Corporate, or Companies, or other Person or Persons by whom the same were transferred to them; and wherever it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, that any Sum or Sums of Money shall have been paid to any Receiver General or his Deputy, on account of the Redemption of Land Tax, which ought not to have been so paid, then it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any three or more of them, to order and direct such Receiver General or his Deputy to repay all such Monies to the Bodies Politick or Corporate, or Companies, or other Person or Persons who shall appear to have paid the same, and the Receipt and Receipts of such Bodies Politick or Corporate, or Companies, and other Person or Persons, shall be sufficient Dicharges for such Bank Annuities so re-transferred, or Monies so repaid as aforesaid, and all such Dividends and Arrears of Dividend shall be issued from the Receipt of the Exchequer, and be payable at the Bank of England, for and in respect of the said Bank Annuities which shall be so re-transferred, by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, to any Bodies Politick or Corporate, or Companies, or other Person or Persons as aforesaid, as would have been payable thereon, in case the same Bank Annuities had not been transferred to the said last mentioned Commissioners.

39 & 40 Geo. 3. c. 30. § 10. recited; and the Proviso extended to Purchases made before the passing of that Act, and so much thereof as makes the Persons entitled to the Rents chargeable with the Interest accrued during their Estate therein shall not extend to Persons advancing Money for the Purchase of Reversions; who shall not be liable to renew Leases with their own Monies, or out of the Rents of the Estate, unless they consent thereto; and in case such Persons shall not signify such Consents, the Reversion shall be chargeable with the Interest, to accumulate from the Time of Purchase till the Expiration of the existing Lease, &c.

II. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for extending, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand eight hundred, until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand eight hundred and one, the Period of Preference, granted and continued by several Acts to Bodies Corporate and Persons, for the Redemption of Land Tax, and for enlarging several of the Powers contained in the said Acts,' it is enacted, That when the Reversion of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, holden by any Lease, which is subject to any Will or Settlement, shall be purchased by or with the proper Monies of the Person or Persons for the Time being beneficially entitled to the Rents or Profits thereof, the immediate Estates and Interests as well as the Reversion expectant thereon, shall be charged with, and made subject to, the Re-payment of the principal Money to be advanced for the Purchase of such Reversion, with Interest for the same, as the Commissioners appointed by Letters Patent under the Great Seal shall direct: Provided, That the Persons entitled successively to the Rents and Profits of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments respectively shall be made chargeable with the Interest accrued during his or her Estate therein, and that no greater Arrear than for one Year shall be recoverable against any Person who shall become entitled in Remainder for Interest accrued during the Estate or Term of any Person or Persons entitled to any preceding Estate or Interest in the Premises:' Now be it enacted and declared, That the said last recited Provision shall extend to Purchases, and Contracts for Purchases, made or entered into before the passing of the said last recited Act, as well as to those made and entered into after the passing thereof: Provided nevertheless, That so much of the said Provision, as makes the Person entitled to the Rents and Profits of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, chargeable with the Interest accrued during his or her Estate therein, shall not extend to the Case of any Person advancing Money for the Purchase of any such Reversion, who shall not be liable to any Covenant, Engagement, or Condition to renew the Lease at the accustomed Periods, with his or her own Monies, or with or out of the Rents and Profits of the Estate, unless he or she shall consent thereto in Writing; and in case any such Person, not being liable as aforesaid, now hath, or shall hereafter become the Purchaser of such Reversion, and not signify such Consent, the said Reversion shall be chargeable with Interest, to accumulate from the Time of such Purchase till the Expiration of the existing Lease, after deducting out of such Interest the annual Rent (if any) which shall be payable during the Lease, and which shall have been purchased with the Reversion.

38 Geo. 3. c. 60. § 112.

No Auction Duty shall be payable for any Part whatever of the Monies arising by Sale of Lands, &c. with the Consent of the Commissioners under the several Acts for Redemption of the Land Tax.

III. 'And whereas, by the Act passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty for purchasing and redeeming the Land Tax, it was enacted, That the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which should be sold by Auction according to the Provisions thereof, should be exempt from any Duty payable on Sales by Auction; but Doubts have been entertained, whether the said Duty ought not to be paid in respect of the Surplus Money arising by such Sales, where the Produce exceeds the Sums required to be raised for the Purposes of the said Act:' Now, for removing such Doubts, be it enacted and declared, That no Duty shall be payable in respect of any Part of the Monies arising by Sale of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which already have been or shall hereafter be sold under the Powers or Provisions contained in any of the Acts relating to the Redemption and Purchase of Land Tax, with the Consent and Approbation of any of the Commissioners appointed by Warrant under the Royal Sign Manual, or by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for the Purposes of such respective Acts.

IV. And

IV. And be it further enacted, That any Deed or Deeds required by the ſaid Acts, or any of them, to be enrolled or regiſtered, ſhall be valid and effectual, although the ſame ſhall not have been enrolled or regiſtered within the Periods preſcribed by the ſaid Acts, provided the ſame be enrolled or regiſtered within ſix Calendar Months after the paſſing of this Act.

Deeds enrolled within ſix Months after paſſing this Act ſhall be valid.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, who, in their Contracts for the Redemption of Land Tax, have declared an Option to be conſidered on the Footing of Perſons not intereſted in the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, comprized in ſuch Contracts, and who, by an Act paſſed in the thirty-ninth and fortieth Years of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, were allowed to make Application to the reſpective Commiſſioners appointed under the King's Sign Manual, at any Time within the Space of three Calendar Months from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, for the Purpoſe of exonerating the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments from Land Tax, ſhall be at Liberty to make Application for that Purpoſe to the ſaid Commiſſioners reſpectively at any Time within the Space of ſix Calendar Months from the twenty-fifth Day of December one thouſand eight hundred; and that all ſuch Acts, Matters, and Things ſhall be done by ſuch Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, and Companies reſpectively, for the Purpoſe of exonerating the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments from Land Tax, as by the ſaid laſt mentioned Act are required to be done in like Caſes, within the Period of three Months, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred: Provided always, That in all Caſes where no additional Conſideration ſhall be to be transferred or paid for ſuch Exoneration, the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments ſhall be exonerated from the ſaid Land Tax only from the End of the Quarter next preceding the Day of the Date of the Certificate of the ſaid Commiſſioners indorſed upon the Contract where the Declaration of the Option therein ſhall be ſtruck out by them, or next preceding the Day of the Date of the Contract, where the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall reſcind the Contract in which the Option ſhall have been declared, and ſhall grant a new Contract; and in all Caſes where an additional Conſideration ſhall be to be transferred or paid for ſuch Exoneration, the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, ſhall be exonerated from the ſaid Land Tax only from the End of the Quarter next preceding the Day of the Transfer or Payment of ſuch additional Conſideration.

Further Time given to Perſons who have in Contracts declared an Option to be conſidered on the Footing of Perſons not intereſted in the Lands, to apply to the Commiſſioners for exonerating the ſame from Land Tax: [ſix Months from Dec. 25, 1800, inſtead of three Months from March 25, as under 39 & 40 Geo. 3. c. 30. § 12.]

From what Periods the Lands ſhall be exonerated from Tax.

VI. 'And whereas by an Act, paſſed in the thirty-ninth and fortieth Years of his Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for extending, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand eight hundred and one, the Period of Preference, granted and continued by ſeveral Acts to Bodies Corporate and Perſons, for the Redemption of Land Tax, and for enlarging ſeveral of the Powers contained in the ſaid Acts, it is enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for all and every Perſon or Perſons, who is or are or ſhall, for the Time being, be entitled to the immediate Reverſion or Remainder in any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which ſhall have been granted by any former Owner or Owners, for any beneficial Leaſe or Leaſes, or by any Copy or Copies of Court Roll, or by any other Grant, according to the Cuſtom of any Manor, for Life or Lives, or Years abſolute, or Years determinable upon any Life or Lives, to ſell and diſpoſe of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of any ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, ſubject to the ſubſiſting Intereſts of the reſpective Leſſees, Copyholders, or other Cuſtomary Tenants, for the Purpoſe of raiſing Money for the Redemption of Land Tax as therein mentioned, in like Manner and under the like Reſtrictions, as he, ſhe, or they could or might have done, in caſe ſuch ſubſiſting Leaſehold and Copyhold Eſtates and Intereſts had been granted by him, her, or them:' Now be it enacted, That where ſuch immediate Reverſion or Remainder is or ſhall be veſted in any Mortgagee or Mortgagees, Truſtee or Truſtees, or other Perſon or Perſons not being in the actual Receipt or Perception of and beneficially entitled to the Rents and Services reſerved, or due or payable in reſpect of ſuch ſubſiſting Intereſts, then and in ſuch Caſe it ſhall be lawful for the Perſon or Perſons who is or are or ſhall, for the Time being, be in the actual Receipt or Perception of, and beneficially entitled to, ſuch Rents and Services, to ſell and diſpoſe of the Fee Simple and Inheritance of ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, ſubject to the ſubſiſting Intereſts for the Purpoſe of and under the Reſtrictions mentioned or referred to in the ſaid laſt recited Act, but nevertheleſs without Prejudice to the Rights and Intereſts of ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees, Mortgagee or Mortgagees, or other Perſon or Perſons in whom the immediate Reverſion or Remainder ſhall be veſted.

39 & 40 Geo. 3. c. 30. § 11. recited; and where a Reverſion is veſted in a Mortgagee or Truſtee not in the actual Receipt of the Rents reſerved, the Perſons in the actual Receipt of ſuch Rents may ſell the Fee Simple of the Lands, without prejudice to ſuch Mortgagee, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That where any Perſon or Perſons hath redeemed or ſhall hereafter redeem his, her, or their Land Tax by or out of his, her, or their own Perſonal Eſtate, or by or out of any Truſt Property applicable to ſuch Redemption by virtue of the ſaid Act, or by any other Means than by Sale, Mortgage, or Grant to be made under the Proviſions of the ſaid Acts; and alſo where any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be entitled under the Act paſſed in the thirty-eighth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, on the Determination of any precedent Eſtate, to demand an Aſſignment of any Contract for the Redemption of Land Tax from the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall have entered into the ſame, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, it ſhall be lawful for all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, either for the Purpoſe of reimburſing all Sums laid out in the Redemption of ſuch Land Tax, or for the Purpoſe of raiſing Money to purchaſe the Aſſignment of any Contract from the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, to carry into Execution all and every or any of the Powers by the ſaid ſeveral Acts given in order to raiſe Money by Mortgage for the Redemption of Land Tax, in ſuch and the ſame Manner, and under and ſubject to ſuch and the ſame Rules, Reſtrictions, and Regulations in all Reſpects, as ſuch Perſon or Perſons would have been authorized by the ſaid ſeveral Acts to carry into Execution the ſame Powers for the Perſons redeeming their Land Tax by any other Means than Sale, &c. or entitled to an Aſſignment from Purchaſers, may raiſe Money by Mortgage, in the ſame Way as Perſons authorized to redeem the Tax in the firſt Inſtance.

Such Mortgage Money ſhall be paid under Order of the Commiſſioners who authorized the Mortgage, to the Perſons entitled to the Benefit thereof, and the Remainder paid into the Bank.

the Purpoſe of redeeming any ſuch Land Tax in the firſt Inſtance: Provided always, That the ſaid Mortgage Money ſhall not be paid into the Bank of England, but ſhall, under the Order of the Commiſſioners who ſhall have authorized the Mortgage, be paid to the Perſon or Perſons entitled to the Benefit thereof, whoſe Receipt or Receipts, in purſuance of ſuch Order, ſhall as fully and effectually diſcharge the Mortgagee or Mortgagees as the Receipt or Receipts of the Caſhier of the Bank of England would have done, in caſe the ſame had been paid into the Bank purſuant to the Directions of the former Acts; but the Remainder only (if any) of ſuch Mortgage Money ſhall, in purſuance of ſuch Order, be paid into the Bank of England to the ſame Account, and ſhall be applied in the ſame Manner, and the Caſhiers of the Bank, or one of them, are or is hereby required to give a Receipt for the ſame, and to cauſe the ſame to be inveſted in the Purchaſe of Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, as if the whole Mortgage Money had been paid into the Bank of England in purſuance of the ſaid Acts.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for further continuing, until the firſt Day of Auguſt one thouſand eight hundred and ſeven, an Act made in the thirty-ſeventh Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the better Prevention and Puniſhment of Attempts to ſeduce Perſons ſerving in his Majeſty's Forces by Sea or Land from their Duty and Allegiance to his Majeſty, or to incite them to Mutiny or Diſobedience. [31ſt December 1800.]

" 37 Geo. 3. c. 70. [continued by 38 Geo. 3. c. 6. 39 Geo. 3. c. 4. 39 and 40 Geo. 3. cc. 9. 16.] further " continued until Auguſt 1, 1807."

CAP. XXX.

An Act for explaining and amending an Act, paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for erecting a Lazaret on Chetney Hill in the County of Kent, and for reducing into one Act the Laws relating to Quarantine, and for making further Proviſion therein, as far as regards the Payment of the Tonnage Duty in the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man. [31ſt December 1800.]

39 & 40 Geo. 3. c. 80.

From January 5, 1801, there ſhall be levied under the recited Act, the ſame Duties of Cuſtoms on Veſſels arriving in Guernſey, Jerſey, &c. as on Veſſels arriving in this Kingdom.

' TO remove all Doubts whether Ships or Veſſels arriving in the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, ' Sark, or Man, which ſhall have to perform Quarantine, ſhall be liable to the ſame Tonnage Duty ' as by an Act, paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for erecting a Lazaret on Chet- ' ney Hill in the County of Kent, and for reducing into one Act the Laws relating to Quarantine, and for ' making further Proviſion therein, are impoſed upon Ships and Veſſels ſo arriving in this Kingdom;' be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the fifth Day of January one thouſand eight hundred and one, there ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſeveral and reſpective Duties of Cuſtoms per Ton Burthen, which are in the ſaid Act impoſed on Ships and Veſſels ſo arriving in this Kingdom, upon all Ships and Veſſels which ſhall ſo arrive in the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, in like Manner in every Reſpect whatſoever, as if the ſaid Iſlands had been mentioned in the ſaid Act for that Purpoſe; and ſuch Tonnage Duties may be reduced, and may again be raiſed and increaſed, and ſhall be collected, paid, recovered, accounted for, and applied, in the ſame Manner as the Tonnage Duties impoſed by the ſaid Act: Provided always, That the Owner of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel may demand and receive the juſt and reaſonable Contribution on the Goods imported therein, in the Manner preſcribed by the ſaid Act.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act to indemnify ſuch Perſons as have omitted to qualify themſelves for Offices and Employments; and to indemnify Juſtices of the Peace, or others, who have omitted to regiſter or deliver in their Qualifications within the Time directed by Law, and for extending the Time limited for thoſe Purpoſes, until the twenty-fifth Day of December one thouſand eight hundred and one; to indemnify Members and Officers, in Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns, whoſe Admiſſions have been omitted to be ſtamped according to Law, or having been ſtamped, have been loſt or miſlaid, and for allowing them, until the twenty-fifth Day of December one thouſand eight hundred and one, to provide Admiſſions duly ſtamped; to permit ſuch Perſons as have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Indentures of Clerks to Attornies and Solicitors, to make and file the ſame on or before the firſt Day of Michaelmas Term one thouſand eight hundred and one; and for indemnifying Deputy Lieutenants and Officers of the Militia, who have neglected to tranſmit Deſcriptions of their Qualifications to the Clerks of the Peace within the Time directed by Law, and for extending the Time limited for that Purpoſe, until the firſt Day of September one thouſand eight hundred and one. [31ſt December 1800.]

CAP. XXXII.

An Act for further continuing, until ſix Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament, ſeveral Acts, made in the thirty-eighth and thirty-ninth Years of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, and in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for empowering his Majeſty to ſecure and detain ſuch Perſons as his Majeſty ſhall ſuſpect are conſpiring againſt his Perſon and Government. [31ſt December 1800.]

'WHEREAS an Act was paſſed on the twenty-eighth Day of February one thouſand eight hundred, intituled, An Act for further continuing, until the firſt Day of February one thouſand eight hundred and one, An Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, 'An Act for further continuing until the firſt Day of March one thouſand eight hundred, an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to empower his Majeſty to ſecure and detain ſuch Perſons as his Majeſty ſhall ſuſpect are conſpiring againſt his Perſon and Government," which Act was to continue in force until the firſt Day of February one thouſand eight hundred and one, and no longer: And whereas it is neceſſary for the publick Safety that the Proviſions of the ſaid Act paſſed on the twenty-eighth Day of February one thouſand eight hundred, ſhould be continued;' be it therefore enacted, &c. 39 & 40 Geo. 3. c. 29.

" Perſons who are or ſhall be impriſoned for High Treaſon, &c. may be detained till the Expiration of " ſix Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion of Parliament. § 1. Act in Scotland of 1701, " for preventing wrongous Impriſonment, ſo far as may relate to Treaſon, &c. ſuſpended till the ſame Pe- " riod. § 2. From that Period, Perſons ſo committed ſhall have the Benefit of all Laws providing for " the Liberty of the Subject. § 3. Privileges of Parliament ſhall not be invalidated by this Act. § 4. " Perſons impriſoned, and againſt whom Indictments for High Treaſon are already found, ſhall be tried " thereon. § 5 Any one of his Majeſty's Secretaries of State may order Perſons committed on any " charge of High Treaſon, &c. to be conveyed from one Priſon to another. Such Removal not to deprive " any Perſon of any Right to be tried or diſcharged. § 6. Perſons charged with High Treaſon, &c. by " Warrant of a Principal Secretary of State, and ſent from Ireland to Great Britain, by Order of the " Lord Lieutenant and ſix Privy Counſellors, may be detained in Cuſtody in ſuch Place as his Majeſty " ſhall think fit. § 7. [The firſt Words of this Section are, " And whereas in the diſturbed State," &c. " inſtead of " the preſent diſturbed State," as in former Acts.] But when ſuch Perſons are entitled by the " Law of Ireland to be tried or diſcharged, they may apply to the Court of King's Bench in England, " or Court of Juſticiary in Scotland, or any Judge of thoſe Courts, who ſhall order them to be diſcharged " or ſent to Ireland. § 8. One of his Majeſty's Secretaries of State may order any Perſon in Cuſtody on a " Charge of High Treaſon, &c. committed in Ireland, to be detained in Great Britain, until he can be " properly ſent to Ireland to be tried or diſcharged. § 9. But Perſons entitled to their Trial or Diſcharge, " may apply for the ſame, as under § 8. preceding.—§ 10. Continuance of Act, till the Expiration " of ſix Weeks after the Commencement of the next Seſſion and no longer. § 11."
